Chapter 121

1. 1 Let Him Die

When Shawn arrived at Laurent Residence, Madam Restall greeted him. Although she didn't want to argue with him when she saw him like many years ago, her expression was cold.

If it was not for Fifi, perhaps the door of Laurent Residence would not let him in.

Shawn recalled the scene where Alex from the Laurent family held the girl's hand. He couldn't calm down for a moment.

"Nanny Lisa, go and ask Fifi to come out." Madam Restall didn't say a word. When she saw him, she knew that he was here to find Fifi. Madam Restall ordered Nanny Lisa to go to the room and call Fifi over.

"You sit for a while. I still have something to do, so I will not chat with you."

"Go and do your work." Shawn nodded. He was very careful with every move he made.

Madam Restall did not respond to him. She turned around and went to the side hall.

After so many years, Shawn had gotten used to Laurent family's attitude towards him. He stood in the living room and waited.

Fifi lay on the bed, covered by the blanket, sulking.

She was very angry with Mike, her uncle, Jessie, and Shawn.

The stool did not hit him. The resentment in her heart had been stuck there. She wanted to scold him loudly.

Her phone kept ringing on the bedside table.

She knew it was Mike, but she didn't answer.

Mike knew she was in Laurent Residence. Without her permission, he wouldn't dare to come here.

Thinking of this, Fifi was very angry. His ex-wife didn't care about her pride and came to this place again and again, but Mike was even worse than a lowly woman in this aspect.

Now that she was locked up by her uncle, she actually hoped that Mike would come here and cause a ruckus just to see her.

It would be best to let everyone know that Mike was going all out to see her. That way, she would at least be able to show off one more thing in the Laurent family!

However, that useless man, Mike when he arrived, he would show off in front of Fifi only. In front of his uncle, grandfather, and grandmother, he was like a mouse that had seen a cat. He was very afraid.

Nanny Lisa's voice sounded outside the door, "Miss Fifi, your father is here. He is waiting in the living room. Do you want him to come to your room, or do you want to go out and meet him?"

She heard that it was Shawn who came to find her. Fifi wanted to say, 'Let him die!'

Because this was Laurent Residence, and Nanny Lisa had been following her grandmother for a long time, she did not act rashly in the end. She growled in a low voice. "I don't want to see him!"

"Okay, I will tell him now."

Nanny Lisa turned around and went from the corridor to the living room.

The nanny did not take a few steps before the door of Fifi's room opened. Fifi was wearing a black and white windbreaker with a big hat on her head. She quickly walked past Nanny Lisa. "Nanny Lisa, I will go and see him. You don't have to worry about this matter anymore."

Nanny Lisa was stunned and she saw Fifi had already left.

Madam Restall heard the sound and came out from the side hall, "Nanny Lisa, what is it?"

Nanny Lisa told Madam Restall about Fifi wanting to see Shawn. Madam Restall frowned and said in a low voice, "You go and listen. Even if he wants to find his daughter, he has never personally come to find her. You see if something has happened."

"Okay." Nanny Lisa replied and quickly walked through the corridor to the big living room.

"What are you doing here? I remember we have already severed our relationship, right?" Fifi's hands were in her pockets as she put them into the sofa. She looked at Shawn as if she was looking at a stranger.

w

Shawn looked at her and became even angrier at himself. She was cute and obedient when she was young, so what did she want? She acted like a spoiled child to him, which made his heart soften. In addition, she had lost her mother, so he gave her everything she wanted. She had been bullied at school, so he was the first to help her. He wanted to see her smile obediently every day.

He gave all of his love to her, and in the end, he realized that there was a type of person who simply could not withstand such excessive favours.

Unfortunately, his daughter... Fifi was this kind of person.

"It's fine if you don't want to see me. I'm here today. I'm telling you, no matter how dissatisfied you are with your sister. You are not allowed to hurt her, you are sisters. I used to pamper you, but this matter. .. I will not let you do whatever you want. If you go to her shop again and do any damage. .. I must take care of this matter!" Shawn looked down at her from above. His tone was solemn.

Fifi smiled and said, "I want to cause trouble for her? Not only do I want to destroy her shop, I also want to destroy her. What can you do? Shawn, let me tell you. Back then, my mom put everything down and followed you to that desolate place. My mom died because she gave birth to me. Now, in order to give birth to a child with another woman, you have come to quarrel with me. Have you thought about my mother's feelings? If she hears these words, will she want to kill you with her own hands?"

When Amanda was mentioned, Shawn's heart tightened.

He seemed to see her lying in a pool of blood again. She extended a hand full of blood to him.

He tried his best to calm his mind. His expression was painful. "What do you mean? She's your older sister!"

"You said she's my elder sister, so she's my elder sister? After my mother gave birth to me, She died. I've already severed my relationship with you. If you think that our relationship isn't bad enough, I'll go register and explain this matter!" Fifi smiled. In the next second, Her small face turned vicious again. "You slapped me. Sooner or later, I will take revenge on you!"

"How can you talk like that?!" Old Master Rudolf's roar exploded at the end of the corridor.

Fifi was shocked and instantly sat up straight.

Old Master Rudolf strode over and ordered Fifi with his eyebrows raised, "Apologize to your father immediately!"

Fifi was stunned there. She felt very ashamed and forgot to reply for a moment.

"Are you deaf? Or mute? Didn't you hear what I said?" Old Master Rudolf was even angrier.

The matter of Shawn and Amanda had indeed been a thorn in Old Master Rudolf's heart that he could not take. He could not tolerate the Laurent family's children being rude.

No matter how much hatred there was between the Laurent family and Shawn, he was still Fifi's father. He would not allow her to do such a rude thing!

"Apologize immediately!" Old Master Rudolf's voice was loud to begin with, and his shout shook the spacious living room.

Fifi's eyes immediately turned red, and tears fell down her face.

Shawn saw that Old Master Rudolf actually helped him. Although he understood that Old Master Rudolf wanted the child to understand the rules, he still softened his heart and said, "Dad, I'm sorry. Fifi being like this is also my fault..."

The moment he spoke, Fifi immediately stopped being afraid. She remembered that Shawn suddenly wanted to acknowledge that lowly woman as his daughter and felt even more angry.

She stood up and raised her voice. "Grandfather, do you think I am willing to cut off my relationship with my father and become an orphan? He forced all of this! Do you know that other than kidnapping my mother and causing her to die in a strange place, he also did something that let my mother down?"

"Fifi, do you know what you are saying?" Shawn widened his eyes and looked at her in disbelief, as if he had never met her before.

Fifi looked at him and said in a gloating tone, "Are you afraid? Why did you do these shameless things back then?"

Madam Restall also came over at this time and looked at the tense atmosphere and frowned, "What happened? Can't you sit down and talk? Let the servants see what it looks like?"

Old Master Rudolf only felt that he was very angry. He suppressed his blood pressure and looked coldly at Fifi. "What do you have to say? Very well, today you two will have a good chat!"

Fifi saw that Shawn's face was getting paler and she only felt very happy.

"Grandpa, grandma, my dad had a woman outside when he was with my mom. He even gave birth to a daughter that was even older than me!"

"What did you say?!" Madam Restall felt as if her brain was buzzing.

"I said, when my father was with my mother, he already had another woman. He also had a child with her, and Shawn was with two women at the same time!" Fifi said word by word.

Old Master Rudolf's tall body shook.

Madam Restall's body also softened and sat down on the sofa.

What she heard at this moment was far more shocking and unexpected than what she heard about Second Brother cheating on his wife.

Back then, Amanda made a big fuss at home because of this man. Later on, she followed him to some rural place and said that she wanted to live a life of paradise. Madam Restall did not have news of her for many years.

When they found Amanda and Shawn again, Amanda was robbed because she went to the mountains with Shawn to harvest and she passed away.

Amanda was at the most critical moment of her life. She did not forget to call them to tell them that her death had nothing to do with Shawn.

Even in death, she still wanted to protect him, treating him as the supreme existence in her life.

But this man, other than Amanda, he actually had other women and children?

How could he dare? Where was his conscience?

"Sir!" Nanny Lisa saw Old Master Rudolf soften to the ground and started to roll his eyes. She quickly ran over.

Shawn and Fifi were also shocked. They quickly helped to support him and called the doctor over,

After escaping from the chaotic Laurent Residence, Shawn called Alex.

Jessie was with him. Shawn thought that at least he had to work hard to do one thing. Even if he could never get the forgiveness of Laurent family in his life, he had to do his best.

He wanted to stop Alex from being with his daughter.

With such a relationship, even if his daughter entered the Laurent family, how could she talk about happiness?

The two elders of the Laurent family found out that his daughter was actually the child who wanted to become their wife. How could they accept this fact?

When he heard the word 'brother-in-law' in Alex's phone, Shawn couldn't help but sigh in his heart.

He didn't want to let down the people of Laurent family the most in his life. But now, he had to

Chapter 122

1. I Am Jessie's Biological Father

When Jessie heard Shawn's voice, the joy on her face gradually disappeared.

Shawn tried his best to be calm. He said to Alex, "You left with Jessie just now. Is she still with you now?"

Alex felt Jessie's nervousness. He looked at her slightly pale face and said calmly, "I left with her after we left old residence."

Shawn paused for a while and asked carefully, "Before you two separated, did she say anything to you?"

"What did she say to me?" Alex did not answer him. He asked back.

He asked Shawn while pushing Jessie against the wall.

Jessie did not expect him to be like this at this time, but she did not dare to make a sound, so she moved to the side.

Shawn wanted to meet Jessie now. He asked again, "Where did you two separate? Can you tell me the address?"

Shawn originally wanted to talk to Alex, but after hearing Alex's calm tone, he was not sure if Jessie had told Alex about their relationship as father and daughter.

If she hadn't told him, and he went to talk to Alex, he would be even more embarrassed.

He would never have thought that the Alex and Jessie he wanted to see right now were tightly hugging each other.

He thought that Jessie and Alex had not known each other for a long time. Alex would always help Jessie, so they might be in a relationship. After all, with the conditions of Jessie and Jouvita, Laurent family would not easily accept her.

Alex also liked Jessie because of the huge difference between their conditions.

Alex liked to go against his father since he was young, and Amanda often mentioned these things in the past.

The more the two elders of Laurent family opposed the woman, the more Alex would be interested i n her.

Shawn guessed that Alex should have this kind of relationship with Jessie.

If that was really the case, Shawn wanted to let Alex know that Jessie was the daughter of his ex wife. With his previous relationship with Amanda, Alex would not look for Jessie anymore.

“There is something I want to talk to you about. When do you think you are free?”

Alex could roughly guess what he wanted to talk about, but he did not respond to him.

Alex did not say anything, but he did not hang up the phone. Jessie could not help but look up at him.

Alex exerted his strength again.

Jessie could not help but make a sound.

The sound on the other side of the phone was very soft, but Shawn still heard the woman’s voice.

Alex’s breathing also became heavier and heavier.

Only then did Jessie realize that his phone was still on.

In order to not make any sound, she immediately bit Alex’s shoulder.

The suit on Alex’s shoulder was deeply wrinkled by her bite.

“Are you busy now?” Shawn saw that Alex did not answer him for a long time, so he could not help but ask again.

Alex used his mouth to lift the long hair on Jessie’s face. He kissed her face and vaguely hummed.

"Alright, then you do what you need to do. I will contact you when I have time."
Shawn hung up the phone and looked up at the warm winter sun. He felt strangely cold.

This kind of coldness seemed to surpass the moment Amanda passed away in the past.

Shawn hung up the phone. Alex put the phone on the washing table at the side and hugged Jessie tightly.

Jessie could no longer stand stably. Her entire body was attached to him.

Under the light, Alex teasingly said, "You were still so reserved just now, and now you are so restless?"

Jessie was embarrassed and angry.

She actually saw that he was injured in old residence. She was not willing to let him down.

But now, it had become his reason to tease her.

The teeth on his shoulder became stronger.

Alex felt a bit of pain. He felt that her bite was really not light or heavy.

Jessie bit his shoulder hard again.

Just when they were in a stalemate, there was a knock on the door of the room outside. Part-time student said from outside, "Sister Jessie, there is Mr. Achilles who came to see you."

Part-time student's voice was very loud. He had seen them come in for a long time and did not go out. They were also a couple in love. Although he was young, he had also been in love, so he felt that they must have been in the room, so he deliberately reminded them loudly.

When she heard Mr. Achilles, Jessie immediately thought of Shawn, and she immediately became nervous.

Alex felt her nervousness, and his eyes began to become a little scary.

He did not care about the voices and people outside.

In the next moment, the sound of footsteps could be heard from the door.

Following a knock on the door, Shawn's voice came from outside. "Jessie, I am your father. Can you let me in?"

This was the first time he had called her in such a friendly manner since he asked for her name.

The word 'father' made Jessie fall into a trance for a moment. She froze on the spot.

When Alex saw her like this, he subconsciously hugged her tightly and kissed her gently on the

He silently comforted her uneasy heart.

Part-time student, who was standing outside the door, kept the door open. He thought they would not make it in time, so he helped them cover it up. "Actually, I'm not sure if Sister Jessie is there. I only saw her come in, but later I went to do something. I don't know if she left again."

Shawn looked at the closed door. He thought for a while and did not insist. He said, "Give me her phone number. I'll call her."

*Follow me. I'll go to the bar counter and give you her business card."

Part-time student took him away.

Alex carried Jessie to the sofa outside. He acted as if nothing had happened.

Jessie stared at him in disbelief. She stretched out her hand to push his lips, which were about to kiss her, and said, "Shawn should still be waiting outside."

"Let him wait. Let's finish first." The next moment, Alex kissed her lips.

After they were done, Jessie lay on the sofa without moving. Alex took out the suit he had put on the rack from the bathroom. He covered her with the suit and then tidied up his clothes. He opened the door and went out.

Shawn did not leave.

In fact, Shawn had already heard the sound from inside when he was at the door.

He found a table in the coffee shop and sat down.

The coffee he ordered was all cold.

The door to the room opened. Alex, who was wearing a white shirt and black pants, walked out from inside.

Shawn saw him come out of the room. Plus, the waiter had said Jessie had also gone in. Shawn wanted to lie to himself, but he could not find a reason,

Shawn stood up and said with a stiff face, "You are here?"

Alex smiled. He glanced at the cold coffee on his table. He turned to part-time student and said,

You can get Mr. Achilles a cup of hot coffee."

Shawn saw how familiar he was with this shop and felt even worse.

After Liang changed the coffee for Shawn, he gave Alex a cup of black coffee.

"Are you here to find Jessie?" Alex calmly said, "After we came out of old residence, she said she wanted to buy some new tea set. She went to the shopping mall with Sally."

Sally had something to do today. Alex knew she would not come, so he made up such a reason.

If Shawn knew that he and Jessie were inside, he would not mind, but Jessie was thin-skinned and she had a special relationship with Shawn. She was not willing to show up with him now.

Shawn looked at him with a complicated expression for a while. He took the initiative to confess his relationship with Jessie.

"Since you are here, you must have heard it just now. I am Jessie's biological father." It was hard for Shawn to say something like this to Alex, but in the current situation, he had to say it.

Alex suddenly held the coffee cup tight and said coldly, "Why haven't I heard you mention it before you have another daughter?"

"I don't have the face to talk about these things." Shawn lowered his head and nervously rubbed his hands. After a long time, he said, "Before I was with your sister, I had a short marriage. My ex wife and I were both orphans. We grew up together in the Welfare Institute. Later, we got married. I thought we would spend our lives like this. Not long after we got married, I had a serious illness, eye cancer. My surgery fees were very expensive, I couldn't bear to delay her. .. So I signed a divorce agreement with her."

"After that, I met your sister. She found me a doctor behind my back, and she paid me surgery fees. I thought my life was over, but she brought me back to life. And so, I was with your sister."

"When your sister was in an uproar because of me and her, a friend of my ex-wife told me that she only found out that she was pregnant after my ex-wife divorced me."

“When your sister and I were looking forward to our future, my ex-wife jumped into the sea with our child who wasn’t even a year old due to pregnancy and postpartum depression.”

“It has been many years since I mentioned this heart-piercing memory.” When Shawn said this, his entire body trembled and his eyes turned red. His previous high spirits seemed to be just an illusion at this moment. At this moment, he was like a dying confessor. No matter how he makes up for it, he can’t make up for what he has done.”

Alex’s face suddenly became cold. After a while, he sneered and said, “You have buried these things in your heart for decades. Today, you suddenly tell me everything. What is the purpose of this?”

Shawn sat up slightly and said, “I know. Whether it was Fifi or Jessie, I am not a good father. I made Jessie suffer. I spoiled Fifi so much that she did not look good. These are all my fault, but I promise, from now on, I will not be like this anymore. Especially Jessie, I will use my entire life to make up for it. I am looking for her today because I want to take her to X City. I want to know if she wants to continue studying. Or should she want to learn something interesting, no matter what she wants to do. I will cultivate her well. I will let her live the life she really wants.”

Shawn paused for a few seconds, then changed the topic. He said, “It has not been easy for you to take care of two children by yourself all these years. I also took care of Fifi by myself. Only we single parents can understand the sadness within. The last time I came to R City, I saw that you were in contact with the eldest daughter of the Santonius Family. I don’t know how you guys are now. Will I be able to give you a congratulatory gift in a while?”

Shawn’s words were very implicit, but Alex was a shrewd man. How could he not understand what he meant?

Chapter 123

1. 123. I will Never Call You Uncle in My Life

Alex took out a cigarette box and a lighter from his pocket. He flicked half of the cigarette box with his long fingers and handed it to Shawn. “Brother-in-law, you want one too?”

Shawn was eager to know his answer. He was not in the mood to smoke at all. He shook his head.

Alex took it back and lit one himself. He spat out a green and white smoke ring. “I have my mother to worry about, so you don’t have to worry about me.”

Shawn had said so much, but his brother-in-law had seen through him. He was getting more and more anxious.

To be honest, he really didn't care about Alex's matter, and it wasn't his place as a sinner of Laurent family to worry about him.

However, the person he was looking for was Jessie, and Shawn had let them down. No matter what, he couldn't blame Jessie for what he had done to the Laurent family.

He continued to probe, "Alex, your company is close to Jessie's shop. I think you must have some connections. I hope you can help me. I asked Jessie to consider my proposal. Just like Fifi, Jessie should call you uncle. She can hear a lot of your words. I already owe the Laurent family too much. I won't let my daughter owe the Laurent family anymore."

"Uncle?" Alex slightly pulled his lips, "Brother-in-law, You just said that Jessie's mother jumped into the sea because of you. Jessie was lucky enough to survive because of her mother's friend. I am someone who will seek revenge for the smallest grievance. This kind of thing must be done to me. I will definitely not forgive you. I admit that I understand Jessie. Her thoughts are probably the same as mine."

He quietly stared at Shawn's trembling face and pressed the cigarette butt into the ashtray on the corner of his table. "Brother-in-law, you understand me. I speak crudely. It's fine as long as you understand."

Shawn's lips were pale and his tone was weak. "Yes, I understand. You are right. I owe Jessie too much..."

Alex leaned against the back of the chair and said, "Jessie will never call me uncle. She can only call me hubby."

Back then, Amanda called Shawn hubby.

She called him in a very high profile manner. Everyone who knew them.

Given Alex's temper, he could tell what had happened between him and Jessie when he heard that Shawn had let Jessie and her daughter down. This made Shawn even more terrified.

However, he had to protect Jessie and not let her suffer any criticism. That was why he didn't tell him more thoroughly.

"Alex, how dare you say such outrageous things? Do you know how the public opinion would attack Jessie if you were together? Have you thought about this?" Shawn's face was shocked and his eyes narrowed. He couldn't help but scold,

Alex's handsome face also turned cold. "I will protect my woman!"

His meaning was far more embarrassing than what he had said just now.

He seemed to be indirectly mocking Shawn. He was a man, but he could not protect the two women who treated him sincerely,

At this point, Shawn did not have the face to stay any longer. He got up and said goodbye.

Alex did not stay

When he returned to the room, Jessie was already sleeping on the sofa.

Alex sat down on the coffee table opposite her, his dark eyes focused on her sleeping face.

Her mother brought a child less than a year old and jumped into the sea...

These words once again appeared in his ears, and his expression became deeper and deeper.

Jessie slightly turned her body and a strand of long hair slid down her neck.

It should be a little itchy and her delicate brows slightly wrinkled.

Alex reached out his hand and gently brushed away the strand of hair. He then used his thumb to gently stroke the creases between her brows. It was as if this could wipe away all the pain and sadness that she had suffered when she was a child.

When Jessie woke up, Alex was no longer there.

His suit was still covering her body.

Liang told her that Boss Alex only wore a shirt and went to his company.

Jessie looked at the time. It was already past three o'clock in the afternoon.

Unknowingly, she had slept for so long.

She originally wanted to go back and accompany the children...

She took the heavy suit jacket and called Alex.

He answered almost immediately.

“Your suit is still with me. It will be cold when we go out at night. I will put it at security guard’s place in your company.”

“You are awake? The company has a spare suit.” Alex’s voice was unusually gentle.

Jessie heard it until her ears started to heat up. “En, alright then. I have nothing to do here. I will return to Mountain and River Residence first.”

“I will get the driver to send you.”

“No need.”

“Don’t you still want to go back to Tianji Residence to get a bank proposal?”

Only then did Jessie agree. Not long after, Driver Bart drove over to pick her up.

Alex suddenly became so considerate and gentle, unlike his usual self. Although Jessie was surprised, her heart was still sweet.

When they were about to reach Mountain and River Residence, Jessie’s phone rang.

It was Shawn.

Jessie did not want to see him and did not want to answer his call.

Jouvita hated him. Although she did not say why she hated him, Jessie guessed that it was probably a precedent for a man like Mike. He hooked up with Eldest Miss from Laurent family and abandoned his wife, forcing Jouvita to take her along and jump into the sea.

She was not even one year old, so she had no impression of him.

However, Jouvita would never forget that kind of pain and hatred for the rest of her life.

Now that Shawn came to confess, Jessie thought that perhaps it was because young miss from Laurent family did not have good fortune and he was old for nothing. He had some free time, so he thought of his ex-wife and ex-wife’s daughter. Jessie did not care about such a worthless confession

Shawn’s call made Jessie’s good mood disappear when she was talking to Alex.

He was like a thorn in between the two of them.

As long as she thought of Shawn, Jessie had no choice but to think of the relationship between him and the Laurent family. She had no choice but to think of the relationship between her and Alex which couldn't be accepted by the secular world.

After passing by a large commercial building, the festive Santa, the lights, and snowflakes attracted Jessie's attention.

She thought of the toys Yosie bought for the children this morning.

Jessie's heart moved slightly and let Driver Bart pull over. This place was not too far away from Mountain and River Residence. She got off the car and let Driver Bart bring her luggage back to Mountain and River Residence first. She entered the commercial building by herself.

There was a counter in the commercial building that specialized in selling Christmas tree and Christmas items. Countless festive and beautiful Christmas trees made people feel good.

"How big do you prefer?" The salesperson greeted her warmly.

It was Jessie's first time choosing this and she did not know how to choose.

"How many sizes are there in this?" Jessie chose a tree filled with white snowflakes.

"How big is your house? Usually, the size of the house is about 80 square meters."

If she were to buy it based on the size of the house, she definitely wouldn't be able to carry back the Christmas tree bought in a place like Mountain and River Residence by herself.

The shopping guide was like a smart person. From Jessie's expression, he seemed to have guessed what she was thinking. He attentively said, "We can deliver large sized ones to the door."

Jessie was relieved, "Then give me the largest size."

Seeing that she had booked the largest Christmas tree in one go and that she was wearing a brand new diamond ring, the salesperson became even more enthusiastic and tried to strike up a conversation with her. "You're a newlywed, right? We have a lot of Christmas gifts that can be given to your boyfriend or hubby. Oh, do you want to choose?"

Jessie was pleased by the word 'hubby' that she said and her face turned slightly red. "Okay."

It was not a special gift. Couple watches, couples' outfits, couples' rings, etc. were just dipped in the word couple, and then they were placed in the popular sales window with the names of all kinds of festivals.

Jessie was in the midst of a passionate love affair, and she was very happy to see these things.

She wanted to buy it but was worried that Alex would not like it.

After hesitating for a while, she impulsively ran to the jewelry counter and picked a platinum ring for him. Although it did not have diamonds, the design was very similar to the one he gave her. Together, they could be considered a couple ring.

Moreover, it was platinum, so it shouldn't be disliked by him.

She bought a lot of things in one go, and the barrier that Shawn brought earlier also gradually dissipated.

Jessie took the delivery van from the shopping mall back to Mountain and River Residence.

While commanding the Deliveryman to move the huge Christmas tree inside, Felix was quietly placing the electric replicas that he bought while traveling in the United States into Yosie's room.

When Housekeeper and Nanny Chen saw Jessie buy the Christmas tree back, they both ran out to help with the decorations.

The huge Christmas tree was placed by the window of the living room. Colorful bells, lamps, and snowflakes hung on it. It looked very festive.

Housekeeper and Nanny Chen could not help but sigh. "Why else would there be a mistress at home? It would be much more interesting to have a festival like this."

Jessie's face turned red from their words. She turned around to look for Felix and Fia, wanting them to come over and give them a surprise.

Her surprise had yet to be known by the two little fellows.

A sharp scream suddenly rang out in the villa, but it frightened the big guy.

The group of people quickly ran towards the source of the sound.

Turning around the corridor, they saw Yosie running towards them with a pale face and disheveled hair.

'What's wrong?' Jessie was shocked. The Yosie that she saw in the morning was still in a state of peace and quiet. It had only been half a day but why did this lass tum herself into such a ghastly appearance?

When Yosie saw them, she tried her best to calm down but her body was still trembling, "Snake! What a huge snake!"

"Snake?" Housekeeper frowned. "How can there be a snake in this winter? Besides, it was impossible for a snake to appear in Mountain and River Residence."

Nanny Chen also joined in and asked, "Miss Yosie, could it be that you have seen wrongly? During lunch, you said you ate a cockroach, but we still couldn't find it even after searching for a long time?"

Yosie forced herself to calm down but her face was still pale. "Sorry, I startled everyone. But that snake is real. It was in the room I was in just now."

The more Jessie heard the more she felt that something was wrong. She walked towards the room Yosie was in just now.

The huge room was empty. Not to mention the snake, there was not even a single rope.

Felix walked out from the room beside and blinked his big bright eyes in confusion. "What's wrong?"

Jessie quickly ran over and squatted down to grab his little shoulder. "Yosie said there was a snake in the room. Did it run over to your side?"

Yosie did not look like she was a bad girl and she had no reason to do so.

Jessie had previously seen Winter Snake who was scared awake in Nanchuan and was only worried that Felix would also be scared by the snake.

Felix shook his head. "No."

He raised his innocent face and looked at Yosie. "Yosie, what happened to you? One moment, he said that there were cockroaches in our house, and another time, she said there were snakes. My dad hated people who deliberately stirred up trouble to scare children. If he knew, he would definitely lose his temper again."

2. What Kind of Life Can You Think Of?

Several pairs of eyes looked at Yosie.

Yosie's face turned red from being stared at and her eyes became moist. She lowered her head and rubbed her forehead, full of apology. "Sorry, I might have caught a cold. I was so dizzy that I saw wrongly."

Yosie was like this. Even if she was shocked, no one blamed her anymore.

"Housekeeper, you should have the number of the family doctor there, right? Please make a call and ask him to come over and take a look at Miss Yosie." Alex was not around. Jessie heard that Yosie had caught a cold and did not dare to be neglectful.

Jessie cared about the people from the Horfoud family not only because of Alex.

There was also another reason. It was Gina. No matter what reason she bought the fertilizer eggs. (This novel will be daily updated at)However, the two children were Gina's substitute pregnancy. She was pregnant for ten months, and she risked her life to bring the child into this world.

Just based on these, Jessie would be grateful for it for the rest of her life.

Moreover, Jessie had even occupied Gina's husband now. Even if it was unintentional latecomers, Jessie still felt deeply guilty.

Yosie walked over and gently thanked Jessie.

Jessie stretched out her hand and took the initiative to shake Yosie's hand. She smiled and shook her head, "Don't be polite. This way we will change the room for you to rest. When the doctor comes, we will let him prescribe some medicine for you."

Yosie followed Jessie to another room. Yosie turned her head to look at Felix and smiled at him.

Felix crossed his arms in front of his chest and coldly looked at Yosie. Felix only turned around to Fia's room after Yosie completely disappeared into the room.

On the big pink bed, Fia hid under the blanket and wrapped into a small pupa.

"You have been in bed for a long time. Are you really not going to get up?" Felix walked to the bedside and asked Fia seriously.

The pupa on the bed did not move at all.

"Mommy bought the Christmas tree and came back. It's bigger than the biggest peach tree in the yard. Don't you want to see it?"

Fia suddenly lifted the blanket and shouted angrily, "It is so noisy! Can't you let me quietly think about my life?"

"What kind of life can a little brat like you think of? Don't blindly think about it. Get up. Mommy will come and find you later."

"Whether Mommy wants to find me or not, it has nothing to do with you."

The violent television footage that they watched in the morning had more or less affected the two children. Felix's relief was slightly faster than Fia's, but Felix still left fear in his heart.

Not to mention Fia, when she thought of stepmother, she could not help but tremble.

After all, Fia was not even six years old. How could she not be afraid?

No matter how high Felix's intelligence was, he was still unable to understand the inner world of adults. For example, why did such a terrified scene appear on the television when Yosie happened to be here?

Was it really as Jessie said, just a coincidence?

Felix's brain could not imagine it at all. If it was not a coincidence, what other reason could there be e?

Jessie calmed Yosie's side and came over to find Felix and Fia.

When she saw Jessie's shadow, Fia immediately slammed the door hard.

Jessie was stunned. The little girl was fine at first. Did she suddenly eat gunpowder?

"Fia, I bought you a Christmas present. Do you want to see it?" Jessie knocked on the door and said.

There was no reaction from the inside and the door did not open.

Jessie knocked again and the door opened.

"Felix, what happened to Fia?"

It was Felix who came out. Jessie quickly asked him and pushed open the door as she prepared to enter.

With a bang, the door was flung open by the little girl again.

Jessie was stunned and bent down to ask Felix, "What happened to your sister? Who provoked her?"

Felix did not have the nerve to say that Fia was scared by a television screen, especially the video about stepmother.

Felix twitched the corner of his mouth. "Maybe the rebellious period has been brought forward. (This novel will be daily updated at)It's fine. Just let Fia slowly take care of it."

Jessie was speechless.

The rebellious period at the age of five? This was way too advanced.

Nanny Chen walked over, "What is it? Fia hasn't come out yet? She has already shut herself in for an entire afternoon and did not eat much for lunch."

"What? She has been locked in the room for so long?" Jessie's heart shrank when she heard this and quickly went to knock on the door again, "Fia, if you have something to say, can you come out and say it? You open the door first."

Alex came in from the hall with his laptop. He saw them all standing at the door of the children's room and knocking on the door. He frowned. "What's wrong?"

Jessie turned her head and saw Alex. She did not dare to tell him about Fia not opening the door. Jessie went up to him and gently said, "You came back quite early today. Are you going out later?"

Alex passed the laptop bag to Jessie and asked Felix, "What happened?"

Felix touched his nose. "Fia seems to be a little uncomfortable. She is inside and won't come out."

Hearing that Fia was not feeling well, Jessie did not have the time to cover up for her and ran over to knock on the door. "Fia, if you are not feeling well, I will find a doctor for you. Can you open the door first?"

Fia shouted loudly from inside, "Fake, it is all fake! You can't possibly treat me sincerely!"

Alex's handsome face darkened and he forcefully knocked on the door, "Fia, if you don't open the door, when I open the door with the key, it won't be as easy to talk to me as it is now!"

Alex's tone was very fierce, and Fia immediately burst into tears inside. "I knew it was fake. You are just like that bad father. You don't even care about your own child anymore after you bring stepmother! I don't want to see you. I don't want to see you guys anymore!"

Jessie remembered the last time she came to R City, Fia was also sad about this. At this moment when she heard Fia's sad cry, her heart also felt like it was pricked by needles. She tried her best to soften her voice, "Fia, we all love you and have always loved you. Open the door and we will talk again, okay?"

"Don't open it! I don't believe you all!" Fia lay on the bed and cried until she could not catch her breath.

Alex stared at Felix. "What did you do today?"

Felix pursed his lips. "I watched the television for a while. It was all about stepmother hitting a child. (This novel will be daily updated at)There was a lot of blood. I think it scared her."

"How did you guys see this?" Alex's face darkened.

Jessie heard it and felt her heart skip a beat.

Felix explained, "Just turn on the TV and there will be one. I don't know either."

"Nanny Chen, go and get the key!" Alex ordered.

Soon, the room's key was delivered. Just as Alex opened the door, Fia's small body scuttled into the bathroom again and locked the door again.

Alex still had to open the door with the key.

Jessie quickly stopped Alex.

The little guy now had a high degree of resistance towards them. If Alex continued to barge in like this, she might even do something that would make people worry.

When Jessie first met Fia, Fia climbed up to the top of a three meter tall heavenly flower by herself. She was very bold!

Alex patiently said, "Fia, I will give you five seconds. If you don't come out again, then you will never come out again!"

Alex might as well not speak. With this threat, the little girl cried even more hoarsely.

Jessie's heart tightened and there was also a sobbing tone in her voice, "Fia, open the door first. If there is anything you are unhappy about, tell us. Open the door and let Mommy see how you are doing."

"There is still one second left. If you don't come out, don't think about eating dinner!" Alex's voice became even more severe.

"I knew it. With stepmother, you would torture me and my brother. Anyway, you will have children in the future. It doesn't matter if you have us or not. You are the happiest when we seek our own destruction. Then I'll starve to death. That saves me the pain of being abused by you in the future." Fia thought of the television that she saw today and thought about it in her little head. She cried so hard that it was heart-wrenching.

Felix was speechless.

Jessie was shocked by Fia's words of abuse. She leaned on the door and slowed down her voice." Fia, do you not like me coming to your house?"

The little girl was inside but she did not directly say that she did not like it.

Fia hated stepmother's title. But if she said that she did not like Jessie, She did not seem to be able to answer.

Fia's small body sat by the side of the bathtub. Her two meaty little hands wiped the tears on her face from time to time as she continuously cried and muttered, "I don't want to be here anymore. Big Brother and I don't want to be here anymore. We don't want to be abused by you guys."

Jessie's heart ached and her eyes turned red. "Alright, I will go. I will leave Mountain and River Residence. This way, Fia won't have stepmother and won't be afraid, right?"

Felix could not help but raise his black eyes to look at Jessie.

Jessie was embarrassed by the two children and regretted agreeing to move to Mountain and River Residence too quickly.

Otherwise, Fia would not have suffered such a huge impact all of a sudden.

Jessie only thought that the truth would make the children unable to bear it when they grow up, but she did not think of the term stepmother. To them, it was actually a term of panic.

"All of you come out and eat dinner at the kitchen!" Alex said in a deep voice and walked towards the door of the room.

Felix and Nanny Chen did not dare to disobey and followed Alex out.

Seeing the group of people coming out of Fia's room, Yosie withdrew back into the room and crossed her arms. (This novel will be daily updated at)The corners of her lips curled into a pleased smile.

After they all walked out, Alex noticed that Jessie did not follow them out and returned with a frown.

Jessie raised her eyes to look at Alex. Her eyes were red and her palm sized face was full of worry, "As long as I leave, Fia should not be angry, right?"

"Leave? Where are you going?" Alex unbutton his suit and frowned.

Jessie pursed her lips and looked at Alex.

Alex took off the suit and stuffed it into Jessie's hands. He only wore a white shirt and black pants. It was a very simple suit. He wore it on his body and gave off a noble temperament, making people reluctant to look away.

Alex held Jessie's slender neck with one hand and his voice was very low. "You are so obsessed with me, and you are still willing to say that you want to leave?"

Jessie raised her red eyes and was about to look at Alex when the man's lips came over.

Alex's lips carried the smell of tobacco and spread in Jessie's mouth.

Jessie widened her eyes and saw Alex's black smiling pupils.

Alex only lightly pecked Jessie's lips a few times before letting go of her.

Jessie was stunned and her face was somewhat hot. She raised her hand and used the back of her hand to stick to her hot cheeks. She did not even notice that the corner of her mouth was slightly curved.

Alex saw Jessie finally revealing a smile again. There was tenderness in her eyes. He reached out and held her up, not letting her continue to stay here.

Alex walked over and locked the bathroom door. When he led Jessie out, he also conveniently took out all the potato chips, biscuits, chocolates, and other food in the children's room. He put them all in a bag.

Jessie saw Alex like this and quickly pulled his hand. "No, you will scare Fia."

Alex firmly held Jessie's hand and strode out. He lifted his thin lips and glanced at her, "Don't you know how bold she is?" Jessie was speechless.
