

Ball God 241

Chapter 241

“SEVEN TIMES, KAIO-KEN!”

Muyang opened his eyes fiercely and yelled through clenched teeth.

With that, 21 million power level erupted out. As soon as this energy was formed, Muyang’s incarnation began to collapse, “Frieza, as a final gift, accept my attack!”

“THUNDER SHOCK SURPRISE!”

“HEAVENLY SKY BEAM!!”

Muyang waved out each of his hands, and two powerful attacks were steeply generated.

At this moment, his body could no longer withstand such specifications of energy and suddenly collapsed.

The third ki wave was like self-destructing swept out, merging with the previous two attacks, and vastly rushing towards Frieza.

Frieza watched dumbfoundedly; this guy had actually self-destructed!

At this moment, it struck him and created a feeling that his life was threatened. It had to be blocked; this energy was already threatening his life.

Frieza exerted all his strength to support the enormous energy shield. With a rumble, as if the heavens had opened up, the massive ball of ki rose.

The magnificent power was like the end of days. The high-intensity energy covered the area of tens of thousands of kilometers, and all matter turned into pieces.

Zarbon and Ginyu were about to be engulfed by the terrifying ki. Zarbon’s face twisted as he shouted, “Natania, move us out.”

“I got it. I am working on it!”

The Demoness Natania didn’t even need to be told by Zarbon. With her superpower, she already began to prepare for it. When the ki swept over, the Demoness Natania was ready, moving them to a safer place in the nick of time.

“We almost died.”

Zarbon wiped the cold sweat from his forehead, and his green hair became messy.

“That monster. He should be dead, right?” Jeice scalp numbed.

Captain Ginyu blanched, “For sure. King Frieza has exerted his full power, that man will die.”

“There are still such strong monsters in the universe.” Jeice’s heart palpitated.

In the past, with his power level of around 40,000, he could already shine in the universe.

However, now that he had seen the battle between Frieza and Muiyang, it actually gave him a humble, ant-like feeling of humility.

“Even if I’m strong, so what? I’m still going to die at the hands of King Frieza. I didn’t expect King Frieza to have such terrifying strength.” Ginyu’s heart was on fire.

As his head subordinate, the stronger Frieza was, the more solid his position in the universe would be!

When all the ki began to calm down in the distant starry sky, the original location where Planet Frieza was located was empty.

With an inflated, a white figure emerged amid residual ki. Frieza floated in the void, his eyes ruthlessly scanning the surroundings.

After confirming that the opponent was indeed dead, Frieza slowly put away the energy from his body. Finally turned back into his Base Form appearance.

“Ho ho ho ho, this king is indeed invincibly strong. So what if that mysterious person just now was even stronger? He was still forced to self-destruct by this king.”

Although Planet Frieza’s destruction annoyed him, the accomplishment of forcing to death a great master whose strength might be twenty or thirty million was enough to put him in a happy mood for a long time.

In the North Area, it was feared that it would be hard to find such a master again. The pleasure of extinguishing the enemy had filled his previous anger.

“King Frieza!”

With the Demoness Natania’s superpower movement, Zarbon, Ginyu, Jeice came to Frieza’s side. Each of them gazed at him with blazing eyes.

“My king, that man just now?”

Frieza waved his hand, “Of course, this king killed him.”

“Awesome!”

“Worthy of King Frieza!”

The fanatical and adoring eyes of the subordinates made Frieza delighted, and his mood became pleasant.

Sometimes a little show of strength was necessary! Frieza thought in a good mood, but then his face changed, and he said as cold as frost, “Mr. Zarbon, Captain Ginyu, head to the Second Planet Territory. I’m going to make a brand new headquarters there!”

“As ordered!”

“This subordinate will create an even stronger headquarters for the king.”

.....

Heaven, Grand Kai's Planet.

Muyang abruptly awoke from his state of meditation, then gasped for air. A searing stabbing pain was hitting his brain, clearly a side effect from his incarnation collapse.

Muyang gritted his teeth and yelled in pain.

After a while, the pain began to subside. Muyang grinned and was busy transferring the ki of the Acceleration World to repair his spirit while taking out the Spring of Life produced by Gaia to replenish his vitality.

At this time, the Senzu Beans were no longer useful for the spiritual aspect.

As he breathed out a long sigh of relief, Muyang's state began to stabilize. However, it would take some time for him to recover fully.

“Grand Kai said that the loss of the incarnation is no big deal to the original body, but is this kind of pain something ordinary people can bear?” Muyang's mouth complained.

‘I believe you, you bad old man, but turned out you lied!’

With his mouth full of words complaining to Grand Kai, but as he looked at the platform in front of him, Muyang's heart was still on fire.

With this, he would be able to challenge all opponents whose strength far exceeded his without fear.

Obviously, this platform also had its flaws. A move like Keio-ken that increased power level could not be performed without a limit.

However, this was nothing. At most, it wouldn't be necessary to use the Keio-ken. Just like what Whis said, it was still required to develop his strength.

He had some gains from the fight with Frieza this time as well.

First, he had at least ravaged Frieza and cut off his hands and feet twice, which was good enough to achieve with such a vast difference in strength – although it was mainly because Frieza himself was too much of a workhorse and kept his power in his body.

Second, it also allowed him to recognize his strength. If he was in his original state, he could withstand at most six times the Kaio-ken now.

Seven times Kaio-ken would be very barely. So, this could be kept as a bottom card for now.

.....

In the days to come, apart from training in other parts of Grand Kai's Planet, Muyang basically soaked in the incarnation platform.

Muyang repeatedly went to the Lower Realm to challenge some masters but never went to Frieza again.

First, it was because Muyang had already found out about Frieza's strength, and there was no need to test it anymore.

Second, he was also worried that his multiple challenges would prompt Frieza to train.

If he accidentally forced out the Golden Frieza, then it would be too much. It was better to let Frieza lie safely inside the honey pot and not to stimulate his potential.

It only fitted that his previous self-destruct was the one that both satisfied Frieza's pretentious arrogance and completely dispelled his scruples.

.....

Time passed like an arrow!

In a blink of an eye, another three years had passed. In the next days of Grand Kai's Planet's training, Muyang was no longer as reckless as initially but kept a relatively leisurely day every day.

After some time of urgency, Muyang began to relax, along with solidifying his foundation from scratch.

By the side of a lake, Muyang was sitting like an old man with a fishing rod.

His heart was like water!

Peaceful and quiet!

It was as if he's almost out of breath in his current state, creating a tranquil and peaceful mood that rippled out.

The surface of the water was very calm. There were a few fish swimming around in the clear lake bottom, hissing. Muyang threw out his rod; the fishing hook flew up from the water. The lake splashed and even brought up a lively fish.

"Muyang, your heart is much calmer. This kind of state is scarce." Grand Kai sat beside him, holding his flowery white beard.

Muyang smiled faintly. His level had indeed risen a lot, "Lord Grand Kai, after four years in Heaven, I should say goodbye."

"Well, keep this state of mind entirely; it can help you a lot."

Muyang laughed, "I know the importance of the state of mind!"

"Good to know." Grand Kai did not get up, but his old voice came out clearly.

Muyang nodded and solemnly looked at Grand Kai. He then turned around and moved away from Grand Kai's Planet in an instant.

In these four years, Muyang's harvest was tremendous. His normal power level had been able to remain at 7.2 million.

Even without using the Kaio-ken, he was already on par with the Namekian Birgil of Planet Ambera.

It wasn't easy raising his power level from 750,000 during Mexia's reincarnation to 7.2 million. He had put a lot of effort into it.

Counting the time, it had now been nine years since Mexia's reincarnation. Her reincarnation was more than eight years old, so it was almost time to find her.

With this thought in his heart, MUYANG used Instant Transmission to go directly to Planet Vegeta.

Chapter 242

North Area, Planet Vegeta.

After the Saiyans' former leader abdicated, a new successor became the leader of the Saiyans with the title King Vegeta.

A very ambitious and aspirational Saiyan.

When Frieza subjugated planet Vegeta, King Vegeta was just a young man of less than twenty years old.

He had no choice but to watch the Saiyans become combatants under Frieza. Therefore, he and the Saiyan leader at the time kept building up their strength and waited for a chance to break free from Frieza's control.

.....

The weather on Planet Vegeta was clear, and the sun was shining.

The primitive stone simple dwellings looked very ancient. The Saiyans were not at all demanding in terms of living.

It had been nine years since the last time he came to Planet Vegeta. When he set foot here again, MUYANG found that the changes here were minimal.

There was always a spherical spaceship descending in the sky. Occasionally they would fly across with the disc-shaped spaceships.

However, those disc-shaped spaceships had much smaller specifications and could only hold about four or five people.

"The Saiyans' technology is controlled to death by Frieza. If King Vegeta wants to resist Frieza, he must first master his avionics system," MUYANG took a look at it, then he stopped paying attention and started looking for Mexia's reincarnation.

"Mexia's reincarnation was nine years ago. So, she should have been born eight to nine years ago."

With that in mind, MUYANG had an idea of how to look for Mexia.

Sure. At this point, he could actually go back to earth and make a wish to Shenron, which was the fastest way to get Mexia's whereabouts.

However, since he had already arrived at Planet Vegeta, he decided that he'd look for her first. If he really couldn't find her, then he would ask Shenron for help.

With this in mind, MUYANG's figure flickered and appeared near a rocky shelf full of stalagmite like vegetation.

Planet Vegeta's vegetation was vibrant. These stalagmite rocks were connected at the top, hollowed out in the middle, or had begun to weather over the long years, with fine stones peeling off from the stalagmites.

Saiyans generally live a short distance from the station. Many will park their spaceships directly in the open spaces of their living quarters to facilitate their missions.

A teeny-tiny rock stood on the ground, hollowed out in the middle, with a few windows and air holes punched out. It was a simple house.

Knock, knock, knock!

Muyang knocked on the door of one of the rooms.

Bang.

The door opened, and a small, pretty looking female Saiyan with short shawl hair opened the door. Upon seeing Muyang in the doorway, the female Saiyan asked, "Who are you looking for?"

Muyang smiled, "You must be Gine; I'm here to see Bardock."

Gine looked at Muyang in confusion. Shouting into the room, "Bardock, someone's here to see you."

"Coming!" Soon Bardock came out, and when he saw Muyang, he looked stunned and excited, "You're... Teacher Mu!"

After all these years, Teacher Mu hasn't changed a bit!

Muyang smiled and nodded, "Aren't you going to invite me in?"

"Of course, Teacher Mu, please go inside." Bardock even welcomed Muyang into the room.

"Bardock, is he Teacher Mu you were talking about before?" Gine whispered beside him.

Bardock said, "That's right. Gine you hurry up and prepare tea and food."

"Uh-huh."

Gine knew of Bardock's past. From the most ordinary Low-Class Warrior to achieving what he was today, it was thanks to the help of the legendary Teacher Mu. So, without Bardock's instruction, Gine was already busy.

In the living room, Bardock was standing beside Muyang in a restrained manner.

Muyang looked at him and nodded his head slightly. The nineteen-year-old Bardock was already very mature. What was remarkable was that his power level had already broken through 10,000.

Considering that there were still a few years from the beginning of the original story, and Bardock already had more than 10,000 power level at that time, he was now far more powerful than he was in the original story.

It was evident that Bardock had not missed out on intense battles over the years.

The Saiyans' power level really soared once they entered their adolescence.

“Good, your power level has exceeded 10,000. Now you believe that the Low-Class Warrior can also exceed Elite Warrior, right?”

Bardock said excitedly, “I believe it. Thanks to the magical beans you left behind back then, Teacher Mu. I was able to survive from one of my dying states...”

Muyang waved his hand, “This is the result of your efforts. The Senzu Bean just allowed you to strike.”

Even without his intervention, the original Bardock would have become very strong. Now he was just bringing the process forward.

But even so, Bardock was still grateful to Muyang. In his heart, he believed that it was Muyang's enlightenment back then that had allowed him to achieve what he had today.

“Teacher Mu, where have you been these past few years? I've searched all over Planet Vegeta, but I haven't found any trace of you?” Bardock was puzzled.

Planet Vegeta was huge, but there were only so many Saiyans living on it. He had been looking for nine years, but he had never been able to find Muyang's whereabouts.

“I wasn't even in Planet Vegeta these past few years. It would be a wonder if you could find me.” Muyang laughed in his heart and said thoughtfully, “If I wanted to leave Planet Vegeta, no one would be able to know at all.”

Bardock nodded thoughtfully, and at the same time, it dawned on him that Teacher Mu was not from Planet Vegeta.

He believed in what Muyang said because Muyang could even take out something magical as a Senzu Bean. It showed that he was definitely not a mortal.

At this moment, Gine came over with a plate full of fruits, snacks, and mainly meat products on it.

“Teacher Mu, please have a taste,” Gine said curtly.

“Bardock, is this your wife? I've seen you live together since you were kids.” Muyang laughed and looked at Bardock.

However, his words made Bardock blush furiously. Bardock was embarrassed, “We live together, but we're not married yet.”

“Then why don't you guys get married?” Muyang laughed.

Bardock was nineteen this year, and Gine was a little younger than him; she was seventeen.

A lone man and a woman under the same roof, Muyang didn't believe that they hadn't broken through that relationship.

However, the Saiyans initially did not care much about the etiquette; the wedding was something optional.

At this time, Muiyang took out a small cloth bag and threw it over, "Count these things as my meeting gift to Gine."

Gine opened it, and inside were more than a hundred bright green Senzu Beans, which she happily put away.

Although she was unfit to be a combatant due to her low power level and was usually in charge of handling meat in Planet Vegeta, she was very clear about the role of Senzu Beans.

The reason why Bardock was able to become so strong was mostly because of the Senzu Beans.

"Thank you, Teacher Mu!" Gine's face blossomed with happiness.

"Well, remember not to let anyone know." Muiyang smiled lightly.

Ever since Gaia was working hard to grow Senzu Beans in the Acceleration World, the stock of Senzu Beans in his hand increased every year, making him become more generous in giving them away.

"This time, I've come to ask for your help with one thing." Muiyang finally started to get down to business.

Bardock sat squarely in his seat and said thoughtfully, "Please say it, Teacher Mu, I will do what I can do."

Teacher Mu was like a born-again parent to him. If there were anything that he could do, he would do his best to get it done.

Muiyang chanted, "Actually, I am not a Saiyan, this time I came to Planet Vegeta to find someone... Next, Muiyang told them about Mexia. "I want you to investigate female Saiyans born eight to nine years ago. Gather their information to me."

Bardock smiled, "This is an easy thing to do. Our Saiyans is already small; there are only a few thousand toddlers born a year. Half of which are female babies, so it's easy to investigate."

"That's good." Muiyang smiled and took a sip of tea.

"Teacher Mu, let's leave this matter to Bardock. He'll be able to bring the information over from the data center soon." Gine believed in Bardock's abilities. For her, there was nothing that Bardock couldn't do. Not to mention that the information was already public.

Bardock patted his chest and assured, "Leave it to me!"

After saying that, Bardock asked Gine to entertain Teacher Mu and quickly headed to the data center himself.

Chapter 243

The data center on Vegeta was located near the palace and was managed by the Avidoian dispatched by Frieza.

After each Saiyan infant was born, it was registered in the data center. It then entered into the computer, and the Avidoian issued the incubation pods that nurtured the infant Saiyans.

It could be said that every Saiyan had been registered in the Frieza Forces. This was also the method used by Frieza to prevent the Saiyans from falling out of their grasp.

That same day, Bardock returned from the data center with a thick stack of information.

“Teacher Mu, this is the data on all the female Saiyans born eight to nine years ago. There are approximately 3,124 of them, and 1,540 are still left on Planet Vegeta.”

“Show it to me.”

Muyang was busy receiving a large stack of information to check. There were only 3,000 female Saiyans born over a year, so it was clear that the number of Saiyans on Planet Vegeta was rare.

“Will Mexia be among these people?” With an anxious mood, Muyang flipped through a sheet of information.

“There are quite a few, so let’s start by checking on these people left on Planet Vegeta.”

With these data, Muyang already had an idea in mind.

Back then, to preserve Mexia’s memories, Whis had performed a God Power enforcement in her soul, so Mexia’s reincarnation would have a mysterious atmosphere far from being perceptible and had to be close enough to be sensed.

As his calm heart began to ripple, Muyang looked at Bardock and Gine, then said he would take his leave.

“Teacher Mu, do you need me to help you?”

“No need. I’ll go find her myself.” Muyang shook his head.

“...Rather, you guys are in a bad situation. That guy, Frieza, I’ve met him, and he won’t let the Saiyans off the hook. Sooner or later, he will do something to you.”

Muyang said and threw out a small purple crystal, “This crystal contains some of my martial arts tips. Bardock, you take it for reference. Your current ki is as obvious as the sun, which is too prominent. You have to learn to hide your strength.”

Bardock didn’t know that “ki” is another name for energy, but he took Muyang’s advice to heart.

“Teacher Mu, have you met Frieza?”

Bardock had never met Frieza but had heard about Frieza’s terror from his older seniors. It was said that the Saiyan King had chosen to join him because of his power.

Muyang smiled faintly, “I fight with him.”

“Bardock’s eyes lit up and asked, “So how strong is Frieza?”

“What? Do you still want to challenge Frieza?” Muyang looked at Bardock with a seeming smile, “It’s not that I’m not sure whether you’re a good fighter or not, but you’re different from him. It would be self-destructive to fight him. If you can make proper use of the Senzu Beans and martial arts crystal I gave you, there might be a little hope.”

“Is Frieza really that strong?” Gine’s face was full of doubt.

In her opinion, Bardock, with more than 10,000 power level, is already very terrifying. To know that many Elite Warriors were not as strong as he was. So, how could there be people stronger than Bardock in the universe?

Muyang couldn’t help but laugh and turned to Bardock, warning him, “Frieza is powerful. Don’t clash with him unless you have to.”

Bardock pursued, “Teacher Mu, just tell me about Frieza’s strength!”

Muyang stared at Bardock. When he saw his steely look, he said, “Alright, I’ll remind you that Frieza is far more terrifying than you can imagine. He comes from the pinnacle of a very rare race in the universe and can transform three times.”

“Like the Great Ape Transformation of a Saiyan?” Gine interjected.

Muyang looked at her, “It’s different. The Saiyans’ Great Ape Transformation evolved when they couldn’t keep up with their power level. However, Frieza’s transformation was to suppress the power in his body. Because his power is too strong and powerful for him to grasp, he uses the transformation to suppress the energy in his body.”

Bardock and Gine looked at each other at the news.

Most of the universe’s races transformed to gain more power, but Frieza was the opposite, which was actually to suppress the power in his body.

Such an extravagant practice, how much energy did he have that even he couldn’t grasp!

This showed that Frieza’s power was truly terrifying!

“Frieza can transform three times and usually displays his weakest form. However, don’t underestimate him. I dare say that even in his weakest state, all the Saiyans of your planet Vegeta together would not be able to defeat a single finger of his!”

“No way!” Gine screamed.

Muyang raised his head, but his next words caused them to tremble from the inside out as if they were in an ice cellar.

Muyang smiled lightly and said, “Frieza’s Base Form possesses 530,000 power level!”

Psst!

Suddenly, a deep chill rose violently from the soles of their feet and then surged up to their brains through their hearts.

Both Bardock and Gine stopped the blood flow all over their bodies, their faces filled with incredulous expressions.

“Teacher Mu, is there any mistake regarding the fact that Frieza has 530,000 power levels in his Base Form?” Bardock stammered.

530,000 power level!

With his 10,000 power level in the universe, he could already flaunt it and dominate most planets. However, Frieza actually had a terrifying 530,000!

At this moment, Bardock and Gine knew why the Saiyan leader had submitted to Frieza in the first place. The two were so far apart that there was no point in resisting.

“Yes, 530,000, and it’s still just Frieza’s weakest state,” Muiyang said.

“After Frieza’s first transformation, he will unlock a portion of his power. At that time, his power level is 1.65 million!”

Shudder, it was another chilling value.

Bardock felt like his heart was about to burst at the moment. Gine’s eyes were already spinning, and she couldn’t count on her board hand.

“After the second transformation, a portion of the power will be unlocked again. By then, the power level will be around 4.86 million! And the most terrifying is the third transformation...”

Muiyang looked serious as if he recalled the battle with Frieza three years ago when Frieza’s Final Form gave him a profound impression.

“The third transformation is Frieza’s Final Form. His power level will reach a terrifying 120 million. Normally, even in his Final Form, he will only use 60 million power. 120 million power level is too consuming for his energy and stamina, so he usually won’t exert it.”

After hearing these words from Muiyang, the room fell into silence.

Both Bardock and Gine were already numb anyway.

In that case, the Saiyans were truly powerless to resist Frieza.

“Teacher Mu, you just said you fought Frieza.” Gine’s clear voice rang out, and Bardock reacted with his eyes firmly fixed on Muiyang.

Muiyang smiled lightly like a spring breeze and said indifferently, “I’m no match for Frieza. Although I forced out Frieza’s Final Form at first, I wasn’t a match for his 60 million power level, so I could only choose to retreat.”

Of course, now that Muiyang’s normal power level reached 7.2 million. With the Six Times, Kaio-ken, he would have more than 40 million power levels.

If he used the Seven Times Kaio-ken, 50 million power levels would be enough to fight against Frieza. With the condition that Frieza didn't use his 100% full strength.

Bardock looked startled, his eyes staring out.

To retreat from the hands of a 60 million power level Frieza, that was very impressive! Teacher Mu was such a powerful master!

Bardock got excited, and his voice trembled, "Teacher Mu, you... are so powerful!"

Muyang waved his hand, "Not even close. You need to practice hard, and with the help of the Senzu Beans, you will be able to reach my intensity."

Bardock was greatly encouraged by Muyang's words and nodded vigorously.

"Don't worry, Teacher Mu, I understand."

"Alright, you already know the strength of Frieza; now it's time to lay low. Bardock, it's already strong enough for you to have 10,000 power levels; it will even cause some people to be unscrupulous. Next, you have to learn to hide it."

After saying these words, Muyang had decided to leave. He still had to look for Mexia's reincarnation!

When Bardock raised his head and looked around again, there was no sign of Muyang anywhere in the simple hall other than furniture and gym equipment.

"Teacher Mu is such a god!" Bardock was sincerely impressed.

"Bardock, you can take these Senzu Beans." Gine handed over the bag of Senzu Beans given by Muyang to Bardock.

This was Bardock's chance to remain strong!

Chapter 244

On the other hand, Muyang, who left Bardock's house, took the pile of information Bardock had collected and started searching for Mexia's reincarnation on top of Planet Vegeta.

Bardock and Gine were both young; he couldn't be bothered them too much. His support for Bardock was an investment of sorts. After all, there were very few Saiyans like Bardock, and there was a good chance that he was similar to Son Goku in terms of potential. That alone made Bardock worthy of strong support.

Frankly speaking, although the Saiyans' physique was impressive, with these Saiyans' current situation on Planet Vegeta, it was tough to emerge a master who was powerful enough to shake the universe.

Rather than saying that Son Goku and Vegeta were powerful because they were Saiyans, it was because of Son Goku and Vegeta's power that the Saiyans achieved their fame.

However, in Bardock, Muyang saw the possibilities.

Being able to train from a Low-Class Warrior to an Elite Warrior, Bardock's tenacity and perseverance deserved praise. So, Muiyang was not stingy on giving a little more support and gifted him with the martial arts crystal and Senzu Beans.

Of course, this was also the payment because Bardock had gathered this information for him.

As the white clouds floated in the sky, a sudden white light flashed. Muiyang conducted a one-by-one inspection of the information in his hands.

These were all little girls over eight years old. Muiyang had spent three days in Planet Vegeta and had finally checked all the 1540 female Saiyans on Planet Vegeta. Still, none of them was Mexia's reincarnation.

In the meantime, Muiyang's eyebrows knitted together, "Has Mexia's reincarnation already left Planet Vegeta to go on a mission?"

This was going to be difficult. The North Area was so vast. These remaining 1584 Saiyans scattered out, and who knew which planet they were on?

"It seems like I still have to use the power of the Dragon Balls." Muiyang shook his head helplessly.

Now that the idea of using the Dragon Balls to solve the problem had been born in his mind, Muiyang no longer lingered on Planet Vegeta. His finger tapped on his eyebrow, and he launched Planet Yardrat's Instant Transmission in the next second.

.....

A misty shadow flashed by.

Space shifted, the fighting stars turned, and Muiyang had returned from Planet Vegeta to Earth.

After four years of separation, the changes on Earth weren't obvious, but the number of strong people had become much larger than when he left. It seemed that the martial arts crystal he left on top of Great Azure Mountain, Korin Tower, and the Lookout had played its role.

In the small building of the Great Azure Mountain, Muiyang pushed open the door of the room.

What came into view was the image of a brown-haired girl lying on the sofa, taking a nap, wearing a fitted white research uniform. Her eyelids were flickering, her wet lips constantly baring and closing, as if she was tasting delicious food in her dreams.

Muiyang laughed mutely, "April, this girl, can't even find a good place to sleep."

He walked over and gently pushed her, ready to wake her up!

"Uh... senior brother!"

Opening her eyes, April saw Muiyang stood in front of her and said in surprise, "You're back, senior brother!"

Muiyang looked at her, "Well, I am. Go, find a good place to sleep next time." Suddenly, Muiyang stared at April's eyes and asked, "You haven't had a good rest for a few days, have you? Your eyes are getting a bit dark."

“Ah, no way!” April was so shocked that she ran to the mirror and looked in front of it.

“Senior brother, you lied. It obviously didn’t turn black.”

Muyang laughed, “That means you really haven’t had a good rest for days!”

April forked her waist and looked unhappy. Her senior brother hadn’t been back in years, and when he came back, he made fun of her. It was too much.

“Erm, you have the Dragon Ball Radar, right?”

“Yes.” April replied and took the Dragon Ball Radar out of the drawer, along with a Dragon Ball she had in her collection, “What does my senior brother want with that Dragon Ball?”

Muyang looked at April and said, “I want to find out where Mexia is.”

April whispered, “Senior brother, are you going to fetch Senior Sister Mexia?”

“Hmm.” Muyang nodded and hummed.

April blossomed into a smile at this time, “Then, go quickly, senior brother. Senior Sister Mexia is already eight years old; if she gets any older and has someone she likes, she will be in trouble.”

Muyang’s eyebrows raised, “She’s still a child; how can she fall in love with someone else so quickly?”

April said, “Senior brother, you don’t understand. The kind of hazy feeling a girl has for the people around her will arise without notice.”

“You said it as if you understand it.” Muyang glanced at April. However, she had a point; any such haziness had to be snuffed out as soon as possible.

“Giggle... I just know. Anyway, hurry up, senior brother.” April urged. Her experiences as a child made her very fond of Muyang and Mexia, and she didn’t want any unsettling variables.

“Got it. I’m going to collect the Dragon Balls now.” After saying that, Muyang pressed on April’s hair lightly.

“Hmph!” April knocked away Muyang’s hand on her head.

.....

The process of collecting the Dragon Balls was fast. It only took Muyang ten minutes to gather all seven Dragon Balls.

The sky became dark once again. In the deep, dark sky, the green Shenron let out a loud dragon roar, hovering, and floating in the air.

Shenron’s huge eyes looked down, “He, who has collected the seven Dragon Balls, speak your wish.”

Muyang looked up at Shenron and said, “Shenron, do you still remember Mexia, who was sent to reincarnate nine years ago?”

“I do!” Shenron had a good memory and still remembered the people it had reincarnated into Saiyans.

“Please help me find the whereabouts of Mexia’s reincarnated body.”

Shenron was silent for a moment, its flooding voice echoing in its ears, “If that is the wish, this wish can be granted.”

After saying that, the two huge eyes shone with a blood-red light. Shenron’s power spread out, quickly locating the whereabouts of Mexia.

“The one you were looking for has been found.”

“Where is she?” Muyang’s eyes lit up and asked urgently.

Shenron said, “The person you are looking for is in the Ancient God Planet Territory – Planet Sala!”
Planet Sala?

“Where is it exactly?” Muyang asked.

Shenron didn’t answer Muyang’s question anymore and chanted, “Your wish has been granted, I can only grant one wish, so goodbye.”

“Hey!”

Without waiting for Muyang to ask any more questions, Shenron directly hovered and rose into the air. It turned into seven golden flashes of light and disappearing.

“.....”

Wasn’t Shenron too perfunctory this time? Although it told him the whereabouts of Mexia’s reincarnation, the question was, where was the Ancient God Planet Territory? Where was Planet Sala?

So now, where the hell was my wife? Speak clearly, so that I could understand!

Was there something wrong with the way I made my wish?

“Should I ask Planet Namek’s Porunga?”

There was a black line on Muyang’s forehead. The Earth Shenron was too unreliable in its work. So, he couldn’t help but trouble Planet Namek Grand Elder!

Chapter 245

Heaven, Grand Kai’s Planet.

In the end, Muyang was too embarrassed to bother the Namekian Grand Elder. After all, the Grand Elder was old, and he was ashamed to keep bothering people. Moreover, The Grand Elder’s guardian, Nail, would look at him with displeasure.

So, he went back to Grand Kai to look for help from Grand Kai.

Grand Kai managed the entire galaxy and surely knew the Ancient God Planet Territory's whereabouts, which made more sense than searching for King Yemma, who might not tell him the whereabouts of Mexia's reincarnated body due to the rules of the Other-World.

.....

In the garden with blooming flowers, Grand Kai carried a big stereo and danced to his heart's content.

When he saw that Muiyang had come, he took off his sunglasses and turned off the stereo.

"Muiyang, why are you back again?" Grand Kai wondered why Muiyang had returned after only a few days away.

Muiyang smiled apologetically, "Lord Grand Kai, I came over because I wanted to consult with you about a place."

"What place? Go ahead." Grand Kai did not refuse.

Muiyang looked at Grand Kai gratefully and spoke the name of the planet that Shenron had told him, "Ancient God Planet Territory, Planet Sala, can you tell me its exact location?"

Grand Kai's wrinkled cheeks crumpled together after hearing the name of the planet that Muiyang said.

He then pondered for a while, "The name Planet Sala sounds familiar from somewhere. As for the Ancient God Planet Territory... there doesn't seem to be such a planet in the galaxy!"

"Is the Ancient God Planet Territory is not in the Galaxy?" Muiyang's face turned pale.

Grand Kai waved his hand and said, "Don't be anxious yet. I'll give you a careful inquiry."

"Please, Lord Grand Kai."

Grand Kai nodded his head and led Muiyang into the palace where he lived.

When he arrived at the palace, Grand Kai's body suddenly blossomed with light. His casual clothes turned into a black divine uniform with the word "Kai" written on it. The high hat on his head had the word "grand" written on it.

Grand Kai controlled his authority in the palace. Soon, the information of all the planets in the galaxy was summed up in his brain.

His eyebrows locked slightly as he widened the scope of his search. After a while, he breathed a sigh of relief.

"This is the result."

The words of Grand Kai energized Muiyang, "Like Planet Vegeta, Planet Sala is a planet inhabited by the Saiyans and has a connection to the Planet Sadala back then, but the Ancient God Planet Territory in which it is located is not among the galaxies. "

"Not in the galaxy?" Muiyang stared at the orbs and asked in surprise.

Grand Kai said, “Yes, the Ancient God Star Territory is in another universe net not far from the galaxy.

It was said that the universe was made up of many galaxies in a vast “web-like structure,” strung together in a filamentous or tendril-like pattern. This web-like structure was called the “universe net.”

On a large scale, this universe net was like the nerve network of the universe. Each part of which was made up of billions of countless spiral galaxies.

The galaxy was a general term for a large area and not the galaxy that Muiyang referred to in his previous life.

The galaxy managed by Grand Kai was essentially a local part, or “neuron,” of this vast universe network.

“May I ask where the exact location of Planet Sala is?” Knowing that the Planet Sala was located in another galaxy, Muiyang asked anxiously.

Grand Kai nodded his head, “Wait a moment; I’ll contact Grand Kai of the other galaxy...”

Muiyang knew that the universe where the earth was located was collectively called Universe 7. The highest in the Universe 7 belonged to the Gods of Destruction Planet and Sacred World of the Kai.

Under the two Under God Worlds, there were countless “galaxies,” each of which had its own Grand Kai and Kai system.

There were many Grand Kai and Kai in the universe. Supreme Kai was called the God of Kais, and his status was equivalent to that of Kami to an ordinary earthling.

Muiyang waited patiently. Soon afterward, the Grand Kai contacted Grand Kai of another galaxy and received the star map of Planet Sala from him.

Muiyang couldn’t wait to look up the new star map. However, the galaxy was so far away from the other galaxy that even if he had a star map, it would take countless years to get there.

Luckily, Muiyang had mastered the Yardratian’s Instant Transmission, and with an approximate location, he could move there step by step.

After getting the exact location, Muiyang let out a sigh of relief.

It suddenly occurred to him that Planet Sala was also the Saiyans’ residence. So, Universe 7 didn’t only have Saiyans existing on Planet Vegeta.

Oops, when he asked Shenron reincarnated Mexia into a Saiyan, why didn’t he think of Saiyans’ possibility of existing on other planets as well!

After bidding farewell to Grand Kai, Muiyang left Heaven and instantly moved according to the star map location.

“First, according to the star map’s location, let’s find a planet with a powerful ki.”

Without a choice, Muiyang’s Instant Transmission must have ki as a bridge to communicate.

Using it was not as unrestrained as Attendant Supreme Kai’s attendant Kibito Instant Transmission.

After all, the two's principles were different; Kibito Instant Transmission was a divine ability of Supreme Kai Apprentice!

Muyang closed his eyes; then, powerful spiritual energy spread out. With a swoosh, Muyang began to move out towards Planet Sala.

.....

As one of the many "neurons" that make up the universe, each galaxy had a complete spiritual system and management system.

Four months passed in a blink of an eye. During this time, Muyang was frequently transient.

Sometimes when he came across an area that he couldn't sense with his ki, he had to use a spaceship to navigate, which caused a lot of delay on the way.

Finally, Muyang entered another galaxy of the Ancient God Planet Territory, and Planet Sala was also close at hand.

With an exciting mood, Muyang made his last Instant Transmission and appeared in a lustrous metallic spaceship. As soon as he appeared, powerful energy surged around him.

"It's at least 500,000 power level. There are at least four of them." Muyang's expression was startled.

To Muyang, a mere 500,000 power level certainly didn't matter. However, the sudden appearance of four still made him feel frightened; this power had far surpassed Cooler Armored Squadron.

Could it be that all of the life forms in the Ancient God Planet Territory were that strong, with hundreds of thousands of power levels appearing in droves?

"Kid, which team are you from? Did you take the wrong ship?"

The question was asked by a strong man, who looked exactly like an earthman and wore a blue battle-armor.

"Saiyans?" Muyang asked tentatively.

"Ha, you didn't even forget your race, did you?" The other bearded man laughed.

He then carefully observed Muyang, baring his mouth, "The ki in your body is not weak, but your brain is surprisingly not good. I've never encountered anything that took the wrong spaceship."

Ki!

Did the people in front of him call energy by ki, just like on earth? Muyang was surprised.

These people were all wearing light blue battle-armor, with body protection on their chests, arms, and knees.

What surprised him most was that the four people in front of him were exactly the same as the earthlings, and there was also no tail behind them.

Are they like the Saiyans in Universe 6?

“Are we going back to Planet Sala now?” Muiyang tried to ask.

“Well, you’re lucky you got on the wrong spaceship but caught the flight back too,” A dark-haired Saiyan in the cockpit turned around and teased.

“Which team are you from? I don’t think I’ve seen you before.” A big man in the lead patted Muiyang’s shoulder, but he didn’t doubt Muiyang’s identity.

With that image of Muiyang’s black hair and black eyes, no one would believe him if he said he wasn’t a Saiyan.

In this Ancient God Planet Territory, such racial characteristics were only possessed by Saiyans.

Muiyang said something casually in prevarication and then stopped saying more. He knew the truth that too many words would be lost.

The four Saiyans in the spaceship didn’t ask any more questions as the spaceship slowly approached Planet Sala.

Wait, at this moment, Muiyang suddenly remembered. The name Planet Sala, he remembered as if he had heard of it somewhere...

Muiyang thought hard. Suddenly a spiritual light flashed in his head. He remembered, when he was in the Planet Yardrat, the secret guardian of Planet Yardrat, Sida, had asked himself if he was the Saiyans of Planet Sala.

At the time, he thought Sida was talking about Planet Sadala, but now that he figured out, it was indeed Planet Sala!

Chapter 246

The Saiyans of Universes 6 and 7 all lived on Planet Sadala in their early days.

So, Planet Sadala was widely recognized as the origin planet of the Saiyans of Universes 6 and 7. However, the Saiyans of Universe 6 were very gentle and powerful. They managed to keep Planet Sadala, which they still live on, as their home planet.

The Universe 7 Planet Sadala was not so lucky. The Universe 7 Saiyans’ love for fighting and their usual irritable personality eventually led to a great war. The Universe 7 Planet Sadala was destroyed in the battle long ago, so the long-tailed Saiyans had to wander in the universe and finally settled in Planet Vegeta.

Muiyang observed the few Saiyans beside him, and they all had no tails, just like the Saiyans of Universe 6.

“These Saiyans are not in the same lineage as the Saiyans of Planet Vegeta. Are they related to the Universe 6?” Muiyang’s mind secretly speculated.

Individuals from different universes could settle in other universes. However, they would usually be banished unless the Planet Sala’s Saiyans had once emerged as great figures.

For example, God of Destruction Champa of Universe 6 and the God of Destruction Beerus of Universe 7, it was unknown which universe they were originally from, but judging from the fact that they were brothers, one of them must have been an outsider, or both of them were not from the Universe 6 or Universe 7.

.....

The spaceship flew slowly and soon entered the planetary system.

In the center of the planetary system, the blazing sun was burning, illuminating the entire galaxy.

Around the sun were six different forms of planets. Planet Sala was located in the third orbit's habitable belt, a blue planet that looked very similar to earth.

Hoo-hoo-hoo!

The deafening sound rang out, and the spaceship grazed through the atmosphere to land on the ground. The social outlook of Planet Sala was very similar to Planet Vegeta, but the technology was much more advanced.

“Kid, hurry up and go home. You need to change your careless personality, or you won't be so lucky if something happens in the universe next time.”

After the spaceship docked, the pilot patted MUYANG's shoulder, then prepared to close the hatch.

“Thank you.” MUYANG smiled. In his heart, he received their good intentions.

The Saiyans above Planet Sala was gentle, really similar to the Saiyans of Universe 6. Based on the conversations he had listened to along the way, the nature of these Saiyans' workers were also identical to the Saiyans of Universe 6. They worked as mercenaries to maintain order, so the Saiyans were considered to have a good reputation in this part of the galaxy.

“They are also Saiyans, and they are in Universe 7, but the difference between the Saiyans of Planet Vegeta and the Saiyans of Planet Sala is too big.”

MUYANG couldn't help but sigh in his heart. At this time, he thought that it was nice that MEXIA was able to reincarnate to such a planet, so at least her personality wouldn't be violent. However, MUYANG had forgotten that even on the Universe 6 Planet Sadala, there would be a wild girl like Caulifla.

Breathing in the fresh air on Planet Sala, MUYANG leaped towards the sky, turning into a black dot suspended in the high altitude.

Planet Sala's gravity was about fifty times that of earth, much higher than even Planet Vegeta. So the Saiyans living here had been exercising well from birth, and their basic power level was even more robust.

Closing his eyes and carefully sensing the ki in the air, scattering ki soon entered his perception range. The Saiyans of Planet Sala were not many, but the number of strong ones was ridiculously high.

The Saiyans here were feared to have nearly 100,000 power level when they reached adulthood.

“Several million-level energies are converging in the eastern direction. That should be their base camp.” After sensing it this way, Muyang used Instant Transmission to go directly towards the east.

Since there was no evil existence like Frieza and the Saiyans of Planet Sala was considered gentle, this time he planned to come straight to the point and directly find the person in charge of them.

.....

About 10,000 kilometers to the east, this was the Saiyan leader’s residence, which gathered the most powerful Battle Organization above Planet Sala, the Sala Squadron.

There weren’t many members of the Sala Squadron, but every one of them possessed millions of power levels. Unfortunately, like the Universe 6 Saiyans, Planet Sala Saiyans had lost the Super Saiyans’ legend, so they had empty power. They were powerful but never thought of turning into Super Saiyans.

Likewise, the Great Ape Transformation would never happen, as the Great Ape Transformation no longer enhances their strength, and their tails have long since disappeared over the long haul.

As Saiyans with different veins from Planet Vegeta, they were born without tails and could not transform into giant apes.

Wow-

Muyang landed in front of a glorious Imperial Palace with two rows of guards on either side.

“Who are you?” The Saiyans in charge of guarding the Imperial Palace snapped after seeing Muyang.

Muyang generously stepped forward and smiled, “I am an earthman from distant earth. I came here today to visit Planet Sala on business, hoping to meet your leader.”

“An earthman?” One of the guards muttered to himself.

“Are you sure you’re not a Saiyan?”

Muyang was startled and whirled around to laugh, “Earthlings may be similar to the Saiyans over here, but I am indeed earthlings.”

The Saiyan in charge of guarding looked up and down at Muyang and said, “You wait for a moment; I’ll go in and inform.”

With that, he asked the Saiyan Warrior next to him to watch Muyang as he entered the Imperial Palace alone. Muyang stood idly, waiting.

About a few minutes passed, and the Saiyan came out; he said, “Come with me, our king is willing to see you.”

“Thank you!” Muyang thanked him, then followed the guards into the Imperial Palace.

The entire Imperial Palace had long corridors. The walls depicted all kinds of beautiful pictures, including battles, capturing beasts, and ancient rituals.

Soon, they came to a spacious courtyard, and the guardian said, "Our king is just ahead, so go over there."

"Mm." MUYANG nodded his head and walked over as he took stock. Secretly, he felt that many powerful masters were lurking around him. If it weren't for his powerful senses, no one else would be able to perceive it.

"You are the human from earth?" There was a clear voice, and the speaker wasn't very old.

MUYANG approached, only to discover that the other side was also a young man with black hair and a handsome face. Was he the Saiyan leader of Planet Sala? It was inevitably too young.

MUYANG nodded his head, "That's right. I'm from the earth."

The young man on the other side brightened his eyes and repeatedly nodded, "I've long known that there are races on earth that look exactly like Saiyans. When I see you today, it is indeed so. If you hadn't admitted it yourself, I would have taken you as a Saiyan."

Saying that, the young man opposite made a request, "Can you release all of your ki? I feel that you possess powerful ki within you."

"You also call the energy 'Ki'?"

MUYANG was startled. The term ki should be unique to earth; why would someone on the distant Planet Sala also call energy that way? Moreover, they actually knew the existence of the earth.

"Of course, this is our name that has been passed down since ancient times." The young Saiyan leader smiled, "My name is Wayne, the leader of the Saiyans of Planet Sala."

"My name is MUYANG; I'm an earthling."

"Let me see your strength." The young Saiyan leader, Wayne, said again.

MUYANG shrugged his shoulders and also generously stopped hiding, and immediately releasing his collected ki.

In a moment, the small courtyard was in a frenzy as the powerful to 7.2 million power level swirling into a lingering whirlwind that blew everything in the courtyard around.

Wayne's eyes were glowing. He put his hand to his forehead to ward off the violent whirlwind. He said excitedly, "Awesome, are earthlings such a powerful race?"

MUYANG gathered his ki and shook his head, "No, I'm just an exception. Earthlings are very weak and have a single-digit power level."

Wayne was taken aback, "Then you're an amazing genius."

"My opportunities are better." MUYANG lamented.

Honestly, when he first knew that he was in the Dragon Ball World and that his identity was that of an earthling, he never thought that he could possess such great strength.

“You’re humble.” Perhaps it was because he was also a young man, or out of respect for the strong, Wayne was very friendly to Muiyang.

Chapter 247

“May I ask what brings you to Planet Sala to see me? Earth isn’t that close to here...”

“I came here to look for my wife...”

Next, Muiyang said roughly what happened to Mexia.

“...In the beginning, to get rid of my wife’s identity as a demonic soul, I chose to have her reincarnated. I specifically arranged for her to be reincarnated as a Saiyan, but there seems to be a problem with that.”

At first, he thought that Mexia would reincarnate on Planet Vegeta, so he didn’t search beforehand. No one thought that Mexia would actually reincarnate on top of the distant Planet Sala.

After hearing this, Wayne’s expression was a bit odd, and he asked, “Did you just say that your wife had split her soul into two people before reincarnating?”

Muiyang nodded, “That’s right. That’s Planet Yardrat’s ‘Divine Divided Soul Tempering’ secret technique.”

“May I see your wife’s appearance in her previous life?” Wayne continued to ask.

Muiyang was surprised but still took out some photos of Mexia, in which Mexia was smiling with a bright smile.

Her green hair was flowing, and her beautiful turquoise eyes were as clear as a lake. Some of these photos were of Mexia herself.

A few of them were of her appearance when she attended the World Martial Arts Tournament as Mellie.

“She has green eyes.”

Wayne looked at the photos of Mexia’s everyday life, and then his gaze rested on Mellie’s photo.

“Huh? ...If this is your wife, Mexia, then who is this one?” Wayne pointed to the picture of Mellie.

Muiyang said, “My wife knows a little bit of shape-shifting, and this is one of her after her transformation. I think her name was Mellie at the time....”

“Haha, what a similarity!” Wayne laughed out loud and couldn’t help but shake his head.

Muyang looked at Wayne in confusion and suddenly had a flash of light in his head and asked, “Do you know where she is?”

“Yes, it looks like you won’t have to go looking for her; I know where your wife is,” Wayne pointed to the picture of Mellie, “According to you, she’s about eight or nine years old now, and the one I know fits the bill.”

“Where is she?” Muyang asked emotionally.

“Don’t worry; I think she’ll be here soon.” A faint smile appeared on Wayne’s face.

Sure enough, not long after he finished speaking, a clear and lively voice rang out in their ears as a pale blue silhouette rushed over, “Woah, whose ki was that? It’s so strange but so powerful!”

“Look, here she comes.” Wayne shrugged his shoulders.

Muyang sniffed and looked. He saw a little girl wearing pale blue short sleeves running in.

She had black hair tied in a ponytail, fair and smooth skin, and watery eyes.

To Muyang’s surprise, her pair of eyes were actually not the black of the Saiyans, but a shimmering turquoise luster.

She had the same eye color as Mexia. Was she Super Saiyan?

Hey, this little girl’s appearance was clearly the infant version of Mellie.

Muyang rubbed her eyes repeatedly. The girl in front of her was indeed the juvenile version of Mellie.

Looking at Muyang’s surprised appearance, Wayne laughed, “This is my sister, Melia. Her eye color is different from a normal Saiyan. I didn’t know the reason before, but now after hearing your words I understand, it should be influenced by her previous life.”

“Melia...” Muyang muttered to himself.

The moment he saw Melia, he knew that Melia was definitely the reincarnation of Mexia.

On her body, Muyang had sensed traces of Whis God Power, which would at some point awaken the memories of her past life.

There was no mistake; Muyang was once again sure that Melia was the reincarnation of Mexia.

“Brother, who is this uncle? Did he emit the ki just now?” Melia ran a few steps closer and circled Muyang several times, excitedly saying, “Uncle, let me see your strength again.”

“Uncle?”

Muyang couldn’t laugh or cry. Although there was nothing wrong with Melia calling him uncle with his age, the problem was that his appearance was still very young!

Wayne then walked up to Melia and whispered in her ear. Melia blushed and spat when she heard, "Who is his wife?! Don't lie to me, brother."

"He was indeed your husband in a previous life and is now coming over to take you back." Wayne looked at Muiyang and Melia as if they were jokes. His sister actually had a husband at a young age; this was so unexpected.

However, although it was the first time he met Muiyang, his senses towards Muiyang were excellent. The Saiyans respected the strongest, and he recognized Muiyang's strength.

Also, he had traveled thousands of miles to find his wife's reincarnation; from these two points alone, he had no reason to stop Muiyang.

"I believed in you!" Melia stomped her foot. Her eyes swiveled around, and glared hard at Muiyang, "If you want me to go with you, at least show me enough strength!"

"Well, what do you want me to do?" Muiyang smiled lightly.

He could see that although Melia was very childish, she didn't seem to reject him much, which was enough.

When Mexia's memories awakened a little bit in the future, he was confident that she would follow him to death.

Of course, it would be best to complete the process before Mexia's memories awakened so that both memories wouldn't clash with each other.

"Unleash your power. Make sure it's stronger than it was before." Melia quirked.

"No problem." Muiyang readily agreed. He looked at the little girl's tender face and said in his heart, 'Wait a moment, you don't want to be too surprised.'

Upon thinking of the little girl's stunned appearance later, Muiyang's heart was filled with anticipation, "You have to watch carefully. I'm about to start releasing ki now."

His eyes glanced at Melia's delicate little face, which still had the appearance of Mexia's former life. Muiyang's heart was beating, and he worked very hard to show his power.

In a moment, enormous power was released. The first thing he showed was his normal power, 7.2 million power level, which in Planet Sala was also definitely a rank of masters.

"Hmph, not bad. It's similar to the aunts and uncles of the Sala Squadron." Melia curled her lips.

Muiyang shook his head and shouted violently, "TWICE, KAIO-KEN!"

A dark red color rose and attached itself to the white flames while the ki on his body soared double.

Looking at Melia's stunned appearance, Muiyang smiled inwardly; the good show was still to come. The Saiyans worshipped the strongest, so he didn't believe that he couldn't attract her attention.

"TRIPLE KAIO-KEN!"

“FOUR TIMES KAIO-KEN!”

“FIVE TIMES KAIO-KEN!”

“SIX TIMES KAIO-KEN!!!”

Muyang’s power kept climbing.

By the time he displayed his Six Times Kaio-ken, the entire giant Planet Sala had shaken violently. The vibrant atmosphere was spreading out vastly, and Melia had been entirely stunned. Her two green eyes looked dumbfounded, not knowing what to say.

“Good... awesome!” Melia mouthed a small murmur.

The young Saiyan leader beside her, Wayne, was also frightened. Although the Saiyans on top of Planet Sala was also powerful, because there was no way for them to transform into Super Saiyans, the most powerful warriors on top of Planet Sala were only capable of some extent.

In front of him, this earthman actually had ki comparable to the strongest warriors on Planet Sala, making Wayne sighed in his heart.

“How’s my strength?”

Muyang maintained his Six Times Kaio-ken. Although he could still barely use his Seven Times Kaio-ken to raise his power level to 50 million, as a display, his current strength was enough.

Melia, somewhat blushed with shame, grunted and said proudly, “It’s not bad. I’ll barely admit that uncle is outstanding.”

“Hahaha, since Melia has admitted it, then we will be family from now on. Melia will follow you in the future, so Muyang, you have to take good care of her for me.” Wayne didn’t care at all if it was appropriate for Melia’s age to follow Muyang.

Instead, he was quick to make sure.

“Brother, I’m just admitting that he’s a bit powerful,” Melia shouted petulantly.

Wayne waved his hand, “It’s all the same. Muyang was your husband in your previous life; you can become stronger by following him.”

Melia brightened and raised her head proudly, “Then I’ll reluctantly agree to it.”

Muyang and Wayne looked at each other.

Everything was on the line, Wayne wanted to bring Muyang close, and Muyang was also in need of a reason to take Melia.

The two could be said to be on the same page.

Chapter 248

At night, the Imperial Palace was lit up with lights.

Wayne, as the leader of the Saiyans, hosted a grand welcoming banquet. Melia ate heavily during the banquet, completely lacking a few manners, and behaving so rudely.

However, although her behavior fell into Muiyang's eyes, it had a different meaning in his eyes.

“Melia's personality is very similar to Universe 6's Caulifla.”

Shallowly sipping a glass, Muiyang walked over to Melia's side and sat down, “Melia, do you want to become stronger?”

Melia's mouth was covered in grease, and her lips were not clear, “Of course, are you going to teach me?”

Muiyang took out a tissue and wiped it on her little mouth, “That's right. Follow me; I can make you stronger. Do you want to learn that technique I did earlier?”

Muiyang was now acting like an uncle who was seducing little loli. When in reality, it wasn't even a matter of similarity because he 'really' was now seducing little loli.

Melia looked at Muiyang, “Teach me quickly.”

Muiyang smiled, “That technique is called the Kaio-ken. As long as the body can withstand it, it can continuously amplify the ki in the body. It's a very magical technique.”

“Hmm.” Melia nodded like a chicken and was suddenly wary, “Are you hitting on me like an odd uncle? Although you're strong, there are some things you can't do.”

Muiyang laughed dumbly, “How can you think like that? Even if you were my wife in your previous life, I still have to wait until you grow up!”

“I trust you for now.” Melia glanced at Muiyang, then her attention drawn back to those delicious foods on the table.

Saiyans have initially been a race that worshipped the strong and didn't place any importance on formal ethics.

As long as she could make herself stronger, even if she followed Muiyang, Melia wouldn't find it offensive.

Muiyang smiled faintly. The first contact with Melia seemed to have a good start.

At that moment, the Saiyan leader Wayne came over with a wine glass. Muiyang saw him coming, stood up, and nodded towards him.

“It seems that Melia doesn't have a problem with you.” Wayne smiled.

“She's still young and doesn't really know what I have to do with her.” Muiyang looked at Melia beside him and smiled slightly.

Wayne said, “We, Saiyans, will have a pure relationship, as long as it looks pleasing to the eye. Often, two people who look too good for each other will soon form a team for missions and will start a family in the future. ”

Muiyang smiled, “Train from a young age; it fits the Saiyans personality.”

Wayne sighed, "It can't be helped. The number of Saiyans is too small, and we love fighting, so how can we have time to nurture our feelings? Otherwise, the population won't be able to maintain."

Compared to earthlings, Saiyans were really a minority. To maintain the population numbers, the Saiyans had to make workarounds to every strategy. Marrying from a young age was not an option. Of course, the Saiyans were a very pure race, basically from start to finish. They didn't have as many detours as the earthlings.

"By the way, I have something to tell you. It's about Melia." Wayne hesitated and called out MUYANG alone, "Melia is an amazing genius, extremely talented in combat. However, she has had an unusual power since childhood... sometimes she is prone to violence..."

MUYANG said, "It's a superpower. I think Melia's soul brings it."

Wayne shook his head, "Not only that. Melia's superpowers are powerful, and she is even more terrifying when she storms out. So even though she's been yelling about going out on missions for the past few years, I've stopped her from going."

"What's going on?" MUYANG's expression became serious.

Wayne said, "This is something that Melia doesn't even know. Her eyes will turn gold when she is storming, and her ki will grow to a terrifying level. I know that your strength can suppress her, but I still have to warn you."

"How often is this happening?"

"It happened a total of three times, and each time it caused great damage. If it weren't for the Sala Squadron who took action, the entire palace would have been demolished by her."

MUYANG knitted his brows. The Saiyans of Planet Sala were extremely talented and would generally have 100,000 power level when they reached adulthood.

As one of the few extremely talented ones, Wayne, Melia, and some powerful warriors even had super strength.

For example, Melia already had a 20,000 power level at a young age.

However, if Melia could even tear down the Imperial Palace, how much power did she have?

Wait, MUYANG suddenly thought of something!

He asked evenly, "Does Melia's eyes turn to gold?"

"Yes. I saw it clearly. The last storm was two years ago. The Imperial Palace would have been gone if it hadn't been discovered earlier." Wayne recalled the situation and became a bit more composed.

"Did she turn to the legendary Super Saiyans?" MUYANG muttered.

However, the legendary Super Saiyans, such as Broly, wouldn't be so easily outraged, either! Was it the same as Universe 6's Kale?

“What...” Wayne asked confusedly.

Muyang's face was serious, “I probably know about Melia. It's most likely a ‘Legendary Super Saiyan.’ However, since her eyes are usually green, it might not be what I think, but it's at least a mutated Saiyan.”

If Melia really was a legendary Super Saiyan, then Muyang would be under a lot of pressure. If he didn't work hard, he might soon be caught up by Melia.

However, these were just his guesses. Melia might just be a somewhat mutated ordinary Saiyan as well.

After listening to Muyang's words, Wayne mouthed, “Legendary Super Saiyan... Super Saiyan. I seem to have seen this name in the dictionary.”

In fact, “Legendary Super Saiyan” was different from “Super Saiyan,” “Legendary Super Saiyan” was more like a variation of “Super Saiyan.”

Like the Saiyans of the Universe 6, the Saiyans of Planet Sala had also lost their Super Saiyans lore.

Muyang wondered if something had happened back then, to the point that Saiyans' tailless lineage from the two universes had uniformly lost their Super Saiyan legacy.

The conversation between Muyang and Wayne roughly ended here. After telling Muyang about Melia's situation, he eagerly went to the palace's library.

He browsed through the ancient texts as if the Super Saiyans' name that Muyang said had touched something...

.....

A few days passed, and Muyang began to live on top of Planet Sala.

These days he got along with Melia very well. Although this little girl was a little crazy and arrogant, she was quite obedient. It gave Muyang a feeling of training Mexia as a child.

In the courtyard, Muyang sat on a reclining chair. His eyes were flatly watching the little girl hone her fists and feet in the courtyard.

Watching the endless winds swirl around Melia, with waves of powerful ki being released around her, Muyang nodded his head.

Melia's talent was too good. When she became an adult, she might be a terrifying master.

Suddenly, a whirlwind attacked, and a muffled sound of powerful power piercing through the air. There was an agile figure attacking Melia.

Seeing this, Muyang instinctively wanted to make a move to stop it, but his careful sensing didn't reveal any malicious intent, so he sat down again.

His bright eyes firmly focused on Melia and the person who attacked her.

It was a little girl in a long black shirt, about the same size as Melia, and very close in strength.

After the two of them tangled for a while, Melia finally got the better of her. Her palms slapped the void with a muffled sound like yellow bells, and with a fling, she threw the little girl over towards MUYANG.

Dang!

MUYANG stretched out his palm and subtly placed it on that little girl's back, removing the force from her.

"Thank you." The little girl whispered her thanks towards MUYANG.

"It's fine." After saying that, MUYANG saw the little girl's appearance clearly, and he was stunned.

This little girl actually looked exactly the same as Melia; only her eyes were normal black.

What was going on? How could there be two Melia?

"Uncle, she's my sister, Melis. She just got back from outer space." Melia's brittle voice sounded.

MUYANG was startled, "Do you have a sister?"

Melia was surprised, "Yeah, didn't my brother tell you about you?"

"Not at all!"

It was a bit chaotic for MUYANG. Both Melia and Melis looked exactly like the Mellie that Mexia had transformed, except Melia's eyes were green, and Melis was normal black.

Previously, he had confirmed that Melia was indeed carrying the God Power left by Whis in her body.

However, now, he had actually found Whis' God Power on Melis' body as well.

What was going on?

How could Whis' God Power be in both Melia and Melis? Which of them was the reincarnation of Mexia, or was it both?

At this moment, MUYANG felt his skull began to hurt.

Chapter 249

Looking at the energetic and lovely sisters, MUYANG looked left and right and couldn't tell the difference.

Was there an error in Mexia's reincarnation too?

Just when MUYANG's mind started to wonder, Wayne came over and saw Melia and Melis surrounding MUYANG. He then smiled, "You've already met my other sister."

MUYANG said in distress, "I can't tell which one is the reincarnation of Mexia now. They both have traces of their pre-reincarnation."

"Maybe they both are." Wayne smiled.

“That’s what I thought,” MUYANG said. “But how does one reincarnation become two?”

Wayne laughed, “Didn’t you say earlier that your wife had split her soul into two parts before she was reincarnated? I think that’s the problem.”

“Huh?” MUYANG recalled how Mexia looked before she was reincarnated.

Both Whis and Shenron seemed to think of them as two people, so was that really the problem?

Planet Yardrat’s “Divine Divided Soul Tempering” was very safe. The problem was later in Mexia’s actions. Planet Ambers’s Spring of Life strengthened both souls, and Whis and Shenron’s God Power indirectly contributed to this.

“What if they both really are? What should I do?” MUYANG pondered the question.

“Then you’ll have to take them both.” Wayne’s answer was even crisper.

My brother-in-law, were you afraid that you couldn’t send your sister out?’

Wayne looked at MUYANG seriously and said, “I actually didn’t want to give them to you, but they are both born from the same race. Their minds seem to be connected. It was pretty troublesome that one’s senses and feelings would appear in the other’s body.”

Mainly, Wayne felt that the two sisters were usually very troublesome. It would be better to give them both away than to give up one of them anyway.

“Looks like I’ll have to take them both.” MUYANG immediately said righteously.

It didn’t matter which one was Mexia. The two of them had to follow one man since their hearts were connected, and that man could only be him. MUYANG couldn’t let one of them be left out no matter what, or else wouldn’t he be irresponsible for Mexia?

Wayne envied, “It was so unfair. Our Saiyans were already small in number, and now you’ve taken two of them. It’s a good thing you’re exactly like Saiyans in strength and looks.”

If it wasn’t for the fact that the two sisters might indeed be his wives, there was no way Wayne would have let them leave the Saiyan race.

“Speaking of which, you really aren’t a Saiyan?”

“I’m sure. I’m from the earth.” MUYANG was very sure.

While MUYANG and Wayne were talking, Melia and Melis were also communicating. The two sisters were sneaking glances at MUYANG from time to time.

“Sister, is that uncle really so powerful?” Melis whispered.

“Yes. He’s amazing. Two blasts and the whole Planet Sala would shake.” Melia was thrilled.

“But he’s taking us away.”

“Don’t you have it in your heart that you’d like that?” Melia snorted.

Melis blushed, “It’s because you’ve influenced me. I don’t even know him.”

“It doesn’t matter whether I know him or not. I like that uncle, and the most important is that he’s so powerful. I’ve never left Planet Sala, so I’m going to go out and have fun this time.” Melia curled her lips, her pink sculpted face flushed with excitement.

“But I feel like this is like packing up and giving myself away.” Melis shook her head.

“.....”

This kind of feeling was uneasy for Melis. It was evident that they didn’t even know each other. However, being influenced by her sister, she couldn’t even feel any resistance in her heart, making it seem like an accessory. This was the end of the twin sisters’ whispering as they saw MUYANG and WAYNE walking over.

MUYANG squatted down and touched the two little girls on their heads, “I’ve already agreed with WAYNE that from today onwards, you will follow me, and I will teach you how to practice.”

Melia opened her round eyes, “You have to promise to teach us and make us very strong. I won’t follow you if I’m not happy.”

MUYANG smiled, “Of course.”

WAYNE said, “I’ll leave the two of them to you. Don’t forget to bring them back from time to time.”

“Don’t worry; I’ll take care of them.”

After saying that, MUYANG nodded down towards WAYNE. He then put his hand upon his brow and extended a hand to the sisters, “You two take my hand.”

“What for?”

Melia said so with her mouth, but her small hand still honestly reached over and grasped MUYANG’s hand. Melis was affected by Melia’s influence and also unknowingly reached over his hand.

“Let’s go. We’ll come back sometime.”

As soon as the clear voice had fallen, MUYANG’s Instant Transmission had been launched. In a moment, his shadow disappeared with the sisters from Planet Sala.

“Huh, this sudden disappearance ability seems to be the ‘Instant Transmission’ of the long-lost Planet Beiyaduoda...”

Looking at MUYANG and his sisters suddenly disappearing, WAYNE’s eyes lit up, and the name of Planet Beiyaduoda appeared in his mind.

Two days ago, after hearing the terms “Legendary Super Saiyan” and “Super Saiyan” from MUYANG, he plunged headlong into the hide and looked through the books therein.

From the old documents, he found information about the Super Saiyan. At the same time, he also found the term “Planet Beiyaduoda”. According to the document, Planet Beiyaduoda seemed to have helped them seal something amazing.

If MUYANG were here, he would be shocked because when he was in Planet Yardrat, Yardratian Sida also said that their ancestors had helped the ancient Planet Sala people seal something.

The two seemed to be talking about the same thing.

That was interesting. Beiyatian, and Yardratian, might have been of the same race.

.....

On the other side, on a planet very far away from Planet Sala, MUYANG appeared with the sisters on a mountain full of strange peaks and rocks.

“Wow, what is this place, and how did we get here?” Melia chattered like a lark and talked non-stop.

MUYANG smiled, “I don’t know where this place is, but it’s just a random transfer based on Instant Transmission.”

“Instant Transmission?” Melia opened her eyes wide. Her turquoise eyes filled with a desire to learn as if to say, ‘Hurry up and teach me.’ She then looked at her sister Melis, which had the same expression. The two sisters were really soul mates.

MUYANG shook his head, “I can’t teach you the Instant Transmission. You need to go to Planet Yardrat to learn it yourself. However, I can teach you ways to increase your power.”

“It’s that the Kaio-ken you used before?” Melia was even happier.

“That’s right. The Kaio-ken can improve your power level and is most suitable for Saiyans to learn.”

The Kaio-ken was Kai’s favorite technique. Although Whis and Grand Kai derided it, it was still a very useful technique under the current stage. Since these twin sisters were both reincarnations of Mexia, of course, MUYANG had to teach them the good stuff.

“Hmm.” Melia nodded her head without stopping.

MUYANG smiled at her. Melia was much more eccentric than the previous Mexia. Then with a casual wave of his hand, MUYANG opened the Accelerated World channel. A magical power projected down, quickly drawing them in.

“Where is this place again?” For the sudden shift in the surroundings, Melia looked directly at MUYANG.

MUYANG said, “This is my Accelerated World. This small planet has a diameter of 20 kilometers. From today onwards, you will be training here.”

Since the gravity of Planet Sala was fifty times that of earth, so to exert a little pressure on the sisters, MUYANG directly mobilized the power of the world and added 60 times stronger gravity field to their bodies.

The gravity that suddenly became stronger was applied to the two sisters' bodies, making Melia's and Melis' legs trembled, almost falling to the ground.

Buzzing!

Two powerful forces erupted from their bodies.

20,000 power level erupted! The two sisters were pale and fighting so hard against the powerful gravity. The glistening sweat was soon oozing from their foreheads.

Chapter 250

Muyang gazed calmly at Melia and Melis, silently nodding in his heart.

Worthy of being a Saiyan of Planet Sala. Either originating from their bloodline or being born knowing how to train ki, their talent was much better than Planet Vegeta's Saiyans.

The strongest Saiyans in the entire Planet Vegeta was not as good as them in combat.

“The ki in you is perfectly formed. However, before you learn Kaio-ken, you have to grasp the subtleties of ki more seriously, or else the suddenly enhanced ki will directly crush your bodies.”

Muyang was like a strict teacher and began to educate them strictly.

The sisters would be his wives when they grew up, and for their good, they couldn't waste the talent in them.

Fortunately, the Saiyans of Planet Sala was just like the earthlings, paying much attention to the training of ki.

Although the fine aspects were not as painstakingly researched as the earthlings, the origin seemed to be the same.

Muyang taught them without the trouble of starting all over again.

“First, you guys need to overcome 60 times gravity to bring out the potential of your body; then I will teach you how to control the ki in your body.”

“Mm..”

The two girls nodded stubbornly and thoughtfully as their bodies continued to tremble.

After about ten minutes had passed, Muyang saw that both girls were almost exhausted.

So, he withdrew the powerful gravity and stuffed one Senzu Bean into each of them, allowing them to recover quickly.

Chewing the Senzu Bean and swallowing it, a surge of energy immediately flowed through her body. Melia got excited and jumped out of the central planet's range with a bounce but was quickly pulled back by a gravitational force.

“Remember this feeling of excitement. Don't let it go, and try to control it a little.”

Muyang said as his arm sliced across the void. A large mass of ki gathered under his control, condensing into a crystal.

He was then inputting his perceptions into it, quickly producing a more basic martial crystal.

Planet Sala's training experience was rich. However, the sisters were still very young and didn't have much essence. At this time, MUYANG chose to let them comprehend their martial arts path.

The sisters also seemed to see that MUYANG was really serious about teaching them, so they happily sat around the purple martial crystal on either side.

Soon, a profound and mysterious insight was intuitively displayed in front of their eyes. Their eyes were glowing with brilliance as they continuously absorbed the knowledge within.

At this time, a piece of soft blue body leaped over from afar, directly lying on MUYANG's head.

"Gaia, stop it. Now, I'm training them." MUYANG patted Gaia, and the creature quieted down.

"Squeak!"

Gaia jumped around the sisters, smelling their ki.

Half a day later, Melia and Melis awoke from the realization of the martial crystal. By this time, both seemed to have learned a lot, and their ki was a little more inward.

"Oh my gosh, I'm so dirty." Melia yelped, smelling something strange on her body.

"So dirty." Melis flattened her mouth, also a little unhappy.

MUYANG laughed, "You guys were sweating from enduring 60 times gravity and sitting still for so long before, so you naturally carry some sweat smell on your body."

"It's so annoying; I want to take a shower. Is there any water here?" Melia jumped up, looking for the location of the pool. However, the central planet was just that big, and it was all flat green space at a glance, so how could there be a place for her to bathe?

MUYANG saw the situation and shook his head. The former soul state of Mexia would not care about this.

He immediately waved his arm and reclaimed a hot spring not far away. The water in it was still steaming hot.

"If you want to take a bath, go over there!"

"Wow, hot tub."

Melia shouted with a wow, taking off her pale blue short sleeves and pants as she ran, not even minding that MUYANG would see her body.

As she plopped down, Melia jumped into the hot spring, happily playing in the water. When Melis saw it, she also stripped off her clothes and jumped down.

The two sisters seemed to be defenseless against themselves.

However, what could such little girls know?

While picking up the clothes that Melia and Melis threw on the grass, Muiyang smiled lightly as he watched them play in the hot spring.

Melia and Melis weren't tall yet. Their skin was fair and pink, and their whole body was like a scrub board.

Eight-year-old girls, their body was nothing to look at. At this moment, Muiyang somewhat misses Mexia's mature body.

So, he took out the two bionic robots that Mexia had used before, tidying up their clothes.

The tight black dresses outline an excellent curve. The figure was soft and voluptuous, or was it Mexia's body.

There was a clatter, and Melia climbed up wetly from the sink, standing curiously next to Mexia's bionic robot.

"Uncle, who are these two?!"

Muiyang said, "She is your past life."

Melia looked curiously, "Did my past life look this pretty?"

Muiyang glanced at Melia and saw that her wet hair was dripping with water droplets. Her body was naked, so he brought a dry towel to cover her body and wiped off the droplets for her.

He then wrapped her up in a bath towel, just like Bulma took care of Goku in the original story.

"Don't just walk around naked from now on."

"Hehe." Melia squinted her eyes and spat her tongue, not caring at all.

Muiyang shook his head. It seemed like there was still a long way to go to educate them!

Waving towards Melis, Muiyang also dried her off. By the way, the two of them were still the princesses of Planet Sala, and being born that way, they couldn't enjoy the life of a big fish and meat.

So he needed to treat them better!

.....

In the following days, Muiyang taught them the training techniques of ki in the Accelerated World.

Both sisters were brilliant Saiyans. With the help of Muiyang's martial arts crystal, they could soon control the ki in their bodies with precision.

At this time, Muiyang could start teaching them Kaio-ken.

By the way, when Mexia was in the North Kai's Planet, she had also learned the Kaio-ken.

However, she didn't have that memory in this life, so she had to start from the beginning. Melia and Melis were quick learners. In three months, they had mastered the basic technique of how to perform Kaio-ken.

“TWICE, KAIO-KEN!”

“TWICE, KAIO-KEN!”

Two delicate voices rang out one after another, and dark red light shone as Melia and Melis used Twice Kaio-ken.

A wild, windswept up, 40,000 power level swept out in a moment, and the entire world became windswept.

Muyang looked on with a shallow smile, “Not bad. You have already mastered the technique of applying Kaio-ken.”

Although Muyang had taught them Kaio-ken, it was equally forbidden for them to use more than Twice Kaio-ken.

In his words, the two sisters’ bodies had not yet grown, and forcing them to use high multiples of Kaio-ken in their too tender state would affect their physical development.

Since the sisters had seen their former appearance, they were envious of Mexia’s figure body that was voluptuous in the way it should be bumpy and concave.

However, they also refrained from using more than Twice Kaio-ken to avoid affecting their development.

“Uncle, look at us, we’ve learned Kaio-ken. So, take us out for a walk!”

Melia freckled and pulled Muyang’s hand. These past few months, Muyang had become much closer to them, and the sisters had become more pampered in front of him.

“Does Melies want to go out too?”

“Yeah.” Melis nodded.

“Good, I’ll take you guys out.”

Muyang waved a big hand and very readily agreed.

This was an excellent opportunity to nurture a relationship with the sisters. Muyang was going to raise them from a young age, just like April said so that they would somehow become dependent on him.

This way, when they awaken their memories of Mexia in the future, there won’t be any conflicts. Their personalities will be integrated to the maximum extent.
