

Ball God 301

Chapter 301

The door of the Summer Restaurant was rudely kicked open.

The tremendous commotion immediately drew the attention of the Saiyans dining inside, and then in their discontented eyes, a purple-skinned cat alien swaggered in.

“Muyang, this god is here. Hurry up and prepare delicious food for me!”

Beerus shouted, and the noisy sound immediately attracted the indignant eyes of the entire restaurant staff.

It should be known that this was the Summer Restaurant, not everyone could shout. Even the most powerful warriors had to behave here.

Remember that some time ago, there were also people looking for trouble here? How about the result? They were slapped out by Bardock two or three times and almost lost their lives.

What did this mean? To be disciplined!

Unruly people would be discouraged in the Summer Restaurant and attract the disgust of the diners.

Interrupting other people's meals was an easy way to get into trouble. Not to mention the Saiyans loved food, and provoking them while they were enjoying their food was just looking for death. When you encountered a powerful Saiyan, the result would be tragic.

“Ah, the smell is so fragrant. The color is also very beautiful. The food must be very delicious. Quickly bring out all the delicious food!” Beerus said to himself and glanced around a few times, looking at the diner's table that exquisite food.

He could no longer hold back; his mouth watered.

“Where did this cat come from? It's so ugly and skinny.”

“There's not even any hair on it.”

“If he dares to make trouble in the summer restaurant, he is looking for death.”

“Bardock and the boss are here, so this cat is in trouble.”

The Saiyans sitting in front of the table had the attitude of watching a good show. They could already imagine in their hearts what was going to happen next.

Frowning slightly, God of Destruction Beerus' eyes immediately cooled down and said coldly, “What? Did no one hear me? Why don't you come and entertain me!”

Bardock, who was drinking a small drink at the front desk, saw such a brutal attitude of God of Destruction Beerus, his expression brushed off coldly, and was about to get up to teach the other party a lesson when Muyang tightly pulled his arm.

Bardock looked at Muyang in confusion and saw that Muyang looked in the direction of the purple figure. The figure flickered and quickly disappeared from his sight.

“Lord Beerus, what brings you to Planet Vegeta?” Muiyang quickly appeared in front of Beerus.

In the original story, Beerus did appear on the eve of Vegeta’s destruction. Now it was a whole half-year earlier!

Beerus grunted, “I came specifically to find you. That bastard Whis ate all the food you left behind; that guy did not even leave me a little. Now you go and prepare good food for me; if I’m not satisfied, this planet will disappear.”

Of course, Muiyang knew that the words of Beerus were not just a joke.

When the God of Destruction destroys a planet, it was never a random thing. The criterion for evaluating whether it was destroyed was simply his preference.

It was the job of the God of Destruction to destroy planets, and no one could logically accuse him.

“Please wait a moment; I will immediately go to prepare.” Muiyang persuaded in a good manner.

Beerus nodded indifferently, glanced at the surrounding Saiyans in the afterglow, and said coldly, “Clear out all these people who are in the way. I don’t want to see others while dining.”

“That’s certainly no problem.” Muiyang winked towards Bardock.

Although Bardock didn’t know the identity of Beerus but looking at the way Muiyang treated him so carefully, his heart was surprised, and he was secretly thinking, “Even Teacher Mu had to treat him carefully, could it be that the person was a big shot?”

Although his heart was full of doubts, Bardock did not show it. He simply cooperated with all the other people in the restaurant to invite them out.

Seeing all the people in the way were expelled, Beerus’ face looked better.

He strutted in front of the table, opened his mouth to the table, and blew a breath. All the dishes and crumbs seemed to be washed by a special energy immediately, instantly turned into pieces and disappeared, while the wooden board of the table was intact.

Seeing this appalling scene, Bardock could not help but suck in a breath of cold air. Based on this martial arts alone, he fully understood why Teacher Mu was so afraid of the person in front of him.

Perhaps, this purple creature was really a terrifying monster.

At this time, Melia and Melis also came out from the back kitchen.

When they saw Beerus sitting in the hall, their pupils all tightened, and they hurriedly pulled Gine enthusiastically to put all the dining tables together to form a huge flat surface.

“Lord Beerus, welcome!” Melia and Melis said enthusiastically and then brought out the food heated up in the kitchen to serve the God of Destruction, Beerus.

Beerus looked at the two girls and was a little surprised, “Hey, I remember your ki. Does it seem that you used to be one person? How come you’ve become two now?”

“It’s because of the reincarnation.”

“Oh!” Beerus nodded but did not care much.

He picked up a fork and plucked the food on the plate, picking it up with the fork and examining it up and down in front of his eyes.

The food emitted a tantalizing aroma to whet his appetite; with a bite into the mouth, the wonderful taste exploded between the mouth and teeth. Beerus’ two eyes suddenly opened wide, enjoying a big mouthful of food.

“It’s delicious. It’s been a long time since I’ve eaten something so delicious.” Beerus swallowed heavily, his face filled with an expression of enjoyment.

Melia laughed, “As long as Lord Beerus is satisfied, we will try to make you happy.”

“Mmmmmm! Very good!”

Looking at the way Beerus swallowed, both Melia and Melis breathed a sigh of relief. They then pulled Gine and Bardock towards the back kitchen.

The pressure on them was too great to stay by Beerus’ side.

At this moment, they somewhat understood why Muiyang said that the chef profession was the most useful profession alongside martial arts and scientists.

In the vast universe, top-notch cooking skills could sometimes really save lives.

“Teacher Mu, Melia, who is that guy... ?” Bardock asked with a serious face.

Muiyang was cooking a meal in the kitchen and said seriously after hearing the words, “He is the God of Destruction – Beerus. The top god in the entire universe and the most powerful master. The specific situation is still unclear, but you need to know that the existence of the God of Destruction has overridden all life. He can kill a large number of masters like Frieza and Cooler with a single move of his finger!”

God of Destruction’s Energy of Destruction’s ability had risen to the level of the rules. Without the Dimension Level and power above Level 7, it was simply impossible to withstand it.

“No way... How can there are such experts in the universe?”

“The one in front of you is,” Muiyang said. “What is even more difficult to get is that the God of Destruction Beerus’ character is elusive. In case anyone upsets him, he will be able to destroy the planet by blowing his breath.”

The existence of the God of Destruction Beerus was so overpowering!

In Universe 7, no one was his opponent, except for Whis, who could check and balance him.

After listening to Muiyang’s description, Bardock couldn’t believe his ears.

Frieza and Cooler, such experts, he could casually kill them by lifting a finger and destroy the planet just by blowing a breath. That was how powerful a master he was.

Bardock wiped a cold sweat, and the clothes on his back were almost soaked. After thinking about the shouting in the hall before, it turned out that Planet Vegeta actually walked around the edge of destruction unknowingly. This time he knew why Teacher Mu would be so polite to that purple cat man.

If the other side was really that strong, anyone should be polite!

Frieza and Cooler were nothing compared to the God of Destruction, Beerus.

After knowing the power of the God of Destruction, then looked at the thin appearance of Beerus, Bardock gulped.

He was no longer dare to have any underestimation.

That thin body underneath contains the power to destroy the world!

Chapter 302

“Gine, Bardock, can you guys help me with the side dishes in the back kitchen? Melia, when this dish is ready, you bring it to Beerus...”

The spatula in Muiyang’s hand quickly tossed as he poured a smoking hot dish on the plate. The most important thing now was to serve Beerus well.

At this moment, Muiyang was not a martial artist, but a cook!

The cook who saves the world!

In the back kitchen, a steaming dish was made, and in the hall, Beerus was eating with pleasure.

Suck~suck~

The sound of clashing bowls and plates rang out.

After more than twenty years of slumber, Beerus, who woke up with a lot of anger toward Whis, had now finally eased up.

“Not bad. This is much better than the dishes made by Whis.” Beerus leaned back in his chair with a satisfied face, crossing his legs and picking his teeth with a toothpick.

“It’s good that you are satisfied.” Muiyang walked up to Beerus together with Melia and Melis.

“Muiyang, do you guys want to go to the God of Destruction Planet for a while....”

Beerus’ golden eyes blandly looked at Muiyang and the girls. His attitude was obvious now; he wanted Muiyang to prepare food for him again.

How could Muiyang dare to say no? Besides, the God of Destruction Planet was indeed an excellent place to train. So, he said without thinking, “Since Lord Beerus asked for it, of course, I’m willing to do so.”

“Oh, Lord Beerus, you used to say that the God of Destruction Planet is a place where mortals cannot set foot; why have you changed your mind?”

A slightly flirtatious voice sounded. After that, a colorful light shone in the hall, and a tall figure wearing a red divine robe with long white curly hair appeared in front of Muiyang and the others.

The person who came was none other than the teacher and servant of God of Destruction Beerus, the angel of the Universe 7-Whis.

“It’s because you ate all my food, and your cooking skills are still so bad. I’ve had enough of you.” Beerus snorted coldly.

“Lord Beerus has gone too far again. My cooking skills have also grown.”

Whis waved his hand, pulled out a handkerchief from somewhere, and pretended to wipe up the crocodile tears.

He then turned his head towards Muiyang and the girls as they nodded, “Long time no see. The three of you have become much stronger, especially Muiyang.... tsk, you’ve reached the level 5 Dimension so quickly. Not bad, you’re already at Kai’s Level. In a short while, you might have to catch up with Lord Beerus. “

“Nah, don’t you have any interest in succeeding Lord Beerus as the next God of Destruction after Lord Beerus’ death?”

“Whis, if you say that, Lord Beerus will not be happy.”

Muiyang smiled lightly. He was grateful; Whis was such a character. He always liked to make Beerus angry. His small figure would not dare to make such a joke in front of Beerus.

“Whis, how can you say such things again.”

Beerus’s face was gloomy. Choosing an heir in front of his face, did he curse him to die early?

Whis laughed lightly, “Lord Beerus will die one day. I chose the heir early for the future of the Universe 7, too!”

“There is no need to think about this kind of future.” Beerus yelled in annoyance, “Hmph, hurry up and exert your divine power to take us back. I want Muiyang to prepare more food for me. If you still dare to steal my food this time, I will definitely not spare you.”

“Yes, yes, yes!”

Whis had a smile on his clear face, and his gaze was clear as he looked at Muiyang and the girls. He then said gently, “Are you ready? I am now going to take you to the God of Destruction Planet in the same way as last time.”

“We are certainly honored.”

Muiyang definitely wished to go to the God of Destruction Planet because the God of Destruction Planet was located at the top level of Universe 7.

After the time spent preparing food for Beerus, the extra time could be used to ask Whis for advice on training.

Although Whis previously left him that martial arts perception he had not yet completely comprehended, wasn’t it better to answer questions in person?

Soon, before he left Plante Vegeta, Muiyang once again said to Bardock, “Bardock, listen to my advice, Plante Vegeta is not a place to stay for a long time.”

“Teacher Mu, I already have my own decision.”

Seeing that his persuasion was still ineffective, Muiyang sighed. Since Bardock would not listen to his advice, he would not say anything more.

“Then it’s up to you. I hope you can think about it again. Also, after we leave this restaurant, please help close it! I don’t think there is a chance to open it again in the future.”

He didn’t know how long he would stay in the God of Destruction Planet. If it were more than half a year, by the time he returned from the God of Destruction Planet, it would be a question of whether or not Planet Vegeta still existed!

“I know,” Bardock said.

Looking toward Gine, Muiyang put his hands on Melia and Melis’s shoulders. This time Whis’ lavender eyes swept over everyone present, and the Divine Staff in his hand nudged the ground a few times.

The colorful light rose and wrapped them together in one go.

“Swoosh.”

Immediately, around the colorful pillar of light, splashed up a few star-like hazes. The light was so bright that the colorful haze seemed to penetrate space and suddenly flickered, followed by the disappearance of Muiyang and the others from their original place.

By the time the colorful light disappeared, the scene was soon left with only Bardock and Gine.

Looking at the place where Muiyang and the others disappeared, Bardock murmured, “That red-robed man just now is also a master. Teacher Mu is actually able to get along with such a strong person. No wonder his strength is so powerful!”

Gine said with some concern, “Teacher Mu has warned you so many times. Maybe Planet Vegeta will really be in danger in the future...”

Bardock took over Gine’s slender body, looking at his wife’s delicate appearance. His heart suddenly seemed to be touched; he sighed quietly and did not know what was in his heart.

.....

Muiyang, Melia, and Melis went to the God of Destruction Planet along with Whis and the God of Destruction Beerus to train for the time being.

.....

Half a year has passed in a hurry, and there were only a few days left before Cooler landed on Planet Vegeta.

In recent times, the atmosphere of Planet Vegeta was tranquil.

Although ordinary Saiyans noticed the atmosphere around them was strange, they did not know what they were going to face.

At the moment, King Vegeta had secretly fanned his troops and sharpened his sword.

After more than twenty years of hibernation, he was not prepared to continue to hold back.

He summoned all the powerful Mid-Class Warrior and Elite Warrior on Planet Vegeta, ready to take advantage of Cooler's landing to wait for an opportunity to make a big fight.

Time passed day by day.

In the distant outer space, Cooler's troops kept a constant speed towards Planet Vegeta.

Hundreds of disc ships lined up neatly, and the formation could scare off a large group of people.

.....

In the cabin of the central flagship, Cooler crossed his arms and sat in his position.

"Paviz, how much further is the distance to Planet Vegeta?"

Paviz was Cooler's right-hand man and had a high status in Cooler's squadron. Hearing Cooler's inquiry, he humbly bent his waist and said with a light smile, "At the current speed, we can reach Planet Vegeta in another day."

Cooler hummed, revealing a bloody and cruel smile, "One more day..."

"By this time tomorrow, Planet Vegeta will be in front of you, Your Majesty," Paviz said respectfully.

"Let those Saiyans live one more day, then this king will personally destroy Planet Vegeta!" Cooler said coldly.

"Your Majesty, are you planning to take action yourself?"

"Of course. After all, the Saiyans are a long-rumored race in my clan. I can feel at ease only if I destroy them myself!" Cooler's eyes flashed a trace of indifference, "By the way, about those stray Saiyans outside, you deal with them as soon as possible."

Paviz sneered, "We have already investigated clearly through the Avidoian information base. There were four young Saiyans who went to Lord Cold's territory because they were diverted midway. There were also several other sons of the exile who were not even Low-Class Warriors who were banished to remote planets in the universe."

"King Vegeta played a good game. He thought he could save a life by sending people to my father..." Cooler said with a grim smile, "When we destroy Planet Vegeta, we will kill all those who have escaped the net."

Cooler's mind was much more thoughtful than Frieza's. To exterminate the clan, there couldn't be a missed. In case the escaped Saiyans reproduce other Saiyans, thus giving birth to Super Saiyans, that would be bad.

Although Cooler didn't believe in the authenticity of Super Saiyans' existence, everything must be done carefully.

"Well, it's an honor for those Saiyans to see King Cooler personally."

Paviz said sinisterly.

.....

Just as Cooler and his group gradually approached Planet Vegeta, in front of them, two small spaceships cut through the void. They appeared in the starry sky outside Planet Vegeta.

Judging from the surface of these two spaceship mottled marks, it had been quite a while.

Phew!!!

The surface of the white-colored spaceship rubbed against the atmosphere with a dark red glow.

Accompanied by a series of ear-splitting roars, the spaceship penetrated the atmosphere.

It slid down, rumbling on the ground of Planet Vegeta. The violent impact splashed up a large amount of mud and sand, and hazy smoke drifted out.

"Ahem, Asike, are you all right!"

Out of the smoke came a figure, wearing a simple animal skin.

"Yes. After more than twenty years, we are finally back to Planet Vegeta."

A man with graying temples came out of the smoke.

These two Saiyans' name were Asike and Bazda.

When Frieza took Planet Vegeta, they were lucky to be able to escape from Planet Vegeta.

More than twenty years of time rushed by; even with the Saiyans' long youth, they couldn't withstand the signs of age.

If Muiyang was there, he might have recognized that these two Saiyans were the ones he had saved from Ginyu Force and Cooler Armored Squadron.

After more than twenty years away from Planet Vegeta, they were back once again.

"Asike, I'll go find the current King of Planet Vegeta first. You go meet your child. If your child is still alive, maybe he's already a father." Bazda joked a little bitterly.

Asike said, "Yes. If Bardock is still alive, he's supposed to be a father."

"Cooler's legion will arrive soon. All things must be taken care of as soon as possible."

Bazda said with a serious face.

"I know. Hurry up and see the current king and tell him about Cooler's plot so that he can prepare early."

Chapter 303

The sun gradually sets over the mountains. The last bit of sunlight penetrates from mountain to mountain, illuminating the sky with a dim yellow, darkening the twilight, and gradually disappearing the light.

Planet Vegeta, Low-Class Warrior residential area.

Asike walked with a complicated expression on the street made of rammed earth, which was brightly lit on both sides. Looking at the Saiyans coming and going on both sides of the street, Asike could not help but sigh.

“If Bardock’s still alive, he probably lives around here.”

The Low-Class Warrior life was much worse than the living area of the Mid-Class Warrior and Elite Warrior. Whether it was living facilities or living conditions, the treatment of the Low-Class Warrior was much worse. This was the result of the Vegeta Saiyans’ rule of the weak and the strong. No matter what the place was, the strong were born to enjoy better treatment.

On Planet Vegeta, there were many places where Low-Class Warrior lived like this. Asike didn’t know if this was where Bardock lived, so he needed to find someone to ask.

“Excuse me, do you know where Bardock lives?” Asike pulled a young Saiyan who was passing by.

“Lord Bardock lives in the middle of the residence; what do you want with Lord Bardock?”

The news that Bardock was still alive made Asike breathe a sigh of relief, followed by some doubts. The Saiyans worshipped the strong, and judging from how the Saiyans in front of him addressed Bardock, could it be that Bardock had grown to be a remarkable Saiyan warrior?

The young Saiyan had some fervor in his eyes, “Of course. Although Lord Bardock was judged to be a Low-Class Warrior at birth, after unremitting efforts, his strength has long exceeded 10,000 power levels. He is the pride of all our Low-Class Warrior.”

“Bardock’s strength exceeded 10,000 power level?”

Asike’s eyes twitched, and his face couldn’t help but show a look of shock.

Asike was a Mid-Class Warrior. However, after countless battles, so far, his strength was only 7,000 power level. He didn’t expect that his son, who was qualified as a Low-Class Warrior, had 10,000 power levels. What had he gone through all these years?

Asike still didn’t know Bardock’s special hidden strength. If he knew that Bardock’s real power exceeded a million power levels, no one knew what kind of expression he would have.

“Can you tell me the details of what you know?” Asike was a little emotional.

“Of course...”

The young Saiyan spoke endlessly about Bardock. This was information that would have been known to all in the Low-Class Warrior residence.

Asike listened attentively, and when he heard that Bardock had become stronger step by step from a Low-Class Warrior, his heart was filled with pride.

Bardock's growth really exceeded his expectations.

Bardock had already gotten married; his wife's name was Gine. They had two children.

After hearing this news, the corners of Asike's mouth couldn't help but curl up.

He couldn't wait to get to the residential area's central location, wanting to see his son sooner.

.....

Knock knock knock.

Asike arrived at Bardock's home and knocked on the door with his trembling hand.

The man who opened the door was a man who looked quite mature in appearance, with those steely eyes and a strong physique. The moment he saw the man, Asike was sure that the man in front of him was his son, Bardock.

"Who are you looking for?" Bardock looked at the man in front of him; his face covered with vicissitudes gave him a familiar feeling.

"Bardock... I am your father, Asike!"

"Father?"

Bardock slightly frowned up to check the middle-aged man in front of him. The man's appearance vaguely overlapped with the figure in his mind, making his heart trembled violently. Soon, Bardock's expression became excited.

"Come in first. Please tell me clearly about the specific situation."

"Yes, it must be said clearly." Asike nodded and said; his heart was both excited and full of guilt for Bardock.

.....

In the living room, Bardock and Asike were sitting face to face. At this time, Gine was in the room looking after Kakarot in the nursing capsule.

"Tell me, what is the situation," Bardock asked seriously.

"The whole thing started over twenty years ago...."

Asike looked at Bardock's mature face and couldn't help but feel the speed of time passing. In the blink of an eye, the young child had grown into a powerful warrior.

Asike slowly talked about when King Cold and Frieza entered Planet Vegeta more than twenty years ago. Then, about him and Bardock wandering in the universe to escape the pursuit of Frieza Force.

“Bardock, Vegeta is in danger now, Cooler is leading a large army towards Planet Vegeta. Do not believe any of their words. Cooler is more vicious than Frieza; this demon is not good for the Saiyans.”

Asike said at the end with a serious expression of warning.

Bardock closed his eyes and thought for a while, and said, “This situation is the same as what Teacher Mu said. Planet Vegeta is really in danger.”

“Cooler is one day away from Planet Vegeta; the situation is very critical now. The spaceship that Bazda and I took to return to Planet Vegeta this time is not monitored. You can use it to leave Vegeta.”

Asike and Bazda returned this time with no intention of leaving anymore. However, their spaceship was able to carry several people away.

With no family left after Bazda’s only brother’s disappearance, Bardock and his family could just use two spaceships to leave.

What Asike did not expect was that in the end, Bardock still refused his offer, which caused Asike to be anxious.

“Don’t try to be strong at this time, Cooler’s power is definitely beyond your imagination. Don’t touch the stone with eggs!”

Bardock gently shook his head, revealing a smile. He certainly knew the power of Cooler; it must be unimaginably strong. However, as a warrior race, Saiyan pride didn’t allow him to retreat!

At this time, Gine came over from the side, “Bardock, Raditz was sent to the Galaxy Eastside by King Vegeta. There will be no danger for the time being. I am very worried about Kakarot!”

Bardock looked at Gine’s delicate face, lowered his head, and thought. He then said to Asike, “Where is your spaceship parked?”

“Just over a thousand kilometers from here.”

“Gine, bring Kakarot out of the nursing capsule,” Bardock commanded.

Gine obediently took Kakarot out of the nursing capsule and dressed him in his small battle suit; the boy was still sleeping and had no idea what was about to happen.

Bardock nodded toward Gine, then said to Asike, “Father, take us to your spaceship. To be honest, I have a premonition of death, but for Kakarot’s safety, I can’t keep him on Planet Vegeta.”

“I will take you there now.”

Bardock’s concession made Asike feel better. Gine looked at Bardock worriedly, but she did not say anything for the sake of her son’s safety.

.....

At night.

The outside's situation had become very quiet. Bardock, Asike, and Gine rushed toward the suburbs outside the residence.

For the powerful Saiyans, the distance of more than a thousand kilometers was very short. Soon, two huge spaceships appeared in front of them.

Asike took the initiative to open the hatch of the spaceship. Bardock got into the spaceship to do a little debugging of the equipment inside and then set the earth's coordinates.

"Gine, put Kakarot inside. I have set the planet where Teacher Mu was located in the spaceship. Kakarot will be safe when he gets there."

Gine nodded and shoved Kakarot into the spaceship. When the hatch closed, she lay down in front of the transparent glass of the spaceship. She looked at the child inside with tears in her eyes.

At this time, Bardock silently appeared behind Gine. He put his hand on her neck. Gine looked at Bardock in disbelief, then her body went limp and fell into Bardock's arms. Bardock picked up Gine and walked to the other spaceship; likewise, he put Gine in it and set the voyage.

"Bardock, what are you doing?"

"These two spaceships are so big that they are big enough to stuff all three of you in."

Asike was taken aback by Bardock's action.

Initially, he had let Gine and Kakarot share one spaceship, while Bardock took the other, and the family of three could have left together.

Bardock shook his head and said, "I was just sending Gine and Kakarot away. I'm staying behind to face Cooler."

"You're doing a nonsense thing."

"Maybe. However, that's the character of a Saiyan, isn't it? I'm sure Gine can take care of Kakarot."

After saying that, Bardock pressed the switch of the spaceship. With a violent vibration, the two spaceships swoosh up into the clouds and soon disappeared into the vast universe.

Seeing that the two spaceships had taken off into the air and flown away, Asike sighed helplessly.

"Then let's face Cooler properly!"

Chapter 304

At the same time, just before Cooler was about to arrive at Planet Vegeta, the atmosphere in King Vegeta's palace was extremely depressing.

"Bazda, according to what you said, Cooler must have bad intentions when he comes over this time!"

King Vegeta sat on top of the throne, wearing armor. His face was gloomy as he tilted his head to look at the ceiling of the palace; his eyes suddenly flashed with a fiercely bright light.

“Yes. The purpose of Cooler’s visit to Planet Vegeta is not to take over or inspect Planet Vegeta, but to completely destroy the Saiyans.”

Bazda stood below with a complicated face looking at the King sitting above.

Initially, Bazda thought that Planet Vegeta was unprepared, but after arriving at the palace, Bazda realized that the palace had now gathered the vast majority of powerful warriors of Planet Vegeta.

These Saiyan warriors were divided into two rows on the left and right. The warriors at the forefront were each not weaker than 10,000 power level.

These strong people were the Saiyan prestige of the capital. From King Vegeta’s prior preparations, King Vegeta had long been ready for a fight to the death. The news he brought was just to determine the fact that Cooler was not good.

King Vegeta stood up, the King’s aura was displayed.

“It seems that there is no need to think about it. Everyone is ready to get up and give a powerful blow at the moment of Cooler’s arrival.”

“King, do not underestimate the strength of Cooler. There is a group of Special Force Team under Cooler. For example, in the Armored Squadron back then, each member’s strength was no less than 150,000 power level! It can be seen that Cooler’s strength is absolutely beyond imagination.”

Bazda knew best about the strength of the Armored Squadron. Back then, if it’s not for the mysterious man, who rescued them, he and Asike would have died outside.

His subordinates were still so powerful, and as the boss, Cooler was even more powerful. His strength had definitely reached the point of frightening.

It was not that Bazda disparaged the Saiyans; he thought that even the warriors present joined hands. It would still be impossible to compete with Cooler.

King Vegeta did not blame Bazda for being cautious. In fact, at this critical moment, King Vegeta was very satisfied with Bazda’s ability to return to deliver information.

Strength was acceptable, but the most important thing was loyalty.

For Bazda, who risked his life to return to Planet Vegeta and share the hardships with his people, King Vegeta was very pleased.

He waved his hand, laughed, and said, “Bazda, you left Planet Vegeta for so many years, and you certainly didn’t know the changes in Planet Vegeta. Now, Planet Vegeta is countless times more powerful than it was back then.”

Seeing Bazda’s puzzled look, King Vegeta explained with a proud face, “The Saiyan’s strength is not only its powerful body. When facing a strong enemy, they can show the ability to transform into a Great Ape, which I think you know very well.”

Bazda nodded at his words.

Saiyan’s tail would undergo a major change when experiencing Full Moon radiation, stimulating the Saiyan’s Great Ape Transformation, causing the power level to increase ten times at once.

King Vegeta laughed confidently, "After years of research, every powerful warrior has mastered the technology of the artificial moon. As long as they use this move, the warriors present at any time can undergo the Great Ape Transformation and bring out ten times the power level."

"Do you think, with the artificial moon technique, we don't need to be afraid of Cooler?"

The Saiyan warriors in the palace now were the Elite Warrior of the Saiyans. There were not a few warriors with a power level of more than 10,000, some even close to 20,000. If all of them were transformed into Great Ape, the strongest could reach 200,000 power levels, which was definitely a powerful force.

The most powerful 200,000 power level warriors were indeed enough to sweep a party. But he didn't know why; his heart always felt a little uneasy, as if he had missed something.

Bazda wanted to say something and wanted to dissuade King Vegeta. However, upon looking at King Vegeta's proud and confident appearance, the words that came to his lips could not be said.

King Vegeta looked at Bazda with satisfaction and laughed out loud.

"Cooler's legions will soon arrive at Planet Vegeta. This is an inevitable war."

"More than twenty years ago, King Cold and Frieza entered Planet Vegeta and forced us to lower our proud heads. More than twenty years have passed, and Cooler wants to trample on the dignity of the Saiyans again, even to completely destroy us Saiyans!"

King Vegeta ascended to the heights; his voice resounded loud and clear in the palace.

"Back then, countless warriors spilled blood in the galaxy, and countless clansmen lost their lives. In order to preserve the Saiyan bloodline, we can only watch them die and do nothing, but now, we have a strong power."

"How can we still give up the pride of the Saiyans?"

King Vegeta eyed everyone below, the red cloak rustling in his aura.

"Of course not!"

"The dignity of the Saiyans is absolutely not to be trampled on. Even if it is Cooler, we will fight him to the end in blood."

"If they dare to come, kill them all."

"Kill them all, kill them all!"

The Saiyans below all roared with righteous indignation, and every Saiyan who came to the palace was an Elite Warriors. The aura that erupted when these Elites Warrior came together was astonishing.

At this moment, the gale swept through the whole palace, and the entire palace shook up.

Bazda's emotions were driven up. His face was red as he looked at everyone.

King Vegeta pressed his hand, looking at all the warriors with satisfaction: "Very well, everyone gets ready to get up and gather all the Saiyans."

"Tomorrow, we will fight Cooler to the death!"

Although the population of Saiyans on Planet Vegeta wasn't substantial and couldn't be used as a unit like earthlings, but as long as they transformed into Great Ape, the power that burst out was enough for the aliens under Cooler to think twice.

This was also the source of King Vegeta's confidence.

The next day, Planet Vegeta would be in full action.

Very early, all the Mid-Class Warriors and the Elite Warriors had been mobilized by King Vegeta. Now the Low-Class Warriors had to be mobilized because even the weak Low-Class Warriors were enough to play a huge role in the war.

With the Elite Warrior as the leader to form twelve coalitions, each led by a warrior with a combat power of more than 10,000, plus the palace escort, a total of thirteen coalitions would be ambushed near Planet Vegeta.

Once Cooler Legions enter Planet Vegeta and show the slightest hint of malice, these teams would be the first to attack.

Among them, the first to the fifth coalition would attack head-on, the sixth to the ninth coalition would attack from the left and right sides. The remaining coalition and the weak Low-Class Warriors would be responsible for sweeping up the tail and clearing the battlefield of any leaking fish.

The order in Planet Vegeta's palace was quickly conveyed out, and all the Saiyans have acted.

.....

The next day, the light of the morning gradually peeked out.

King Vegeta stood on the palace's high platform, watching all the Saiyans orderly form a team.

King Vegeta's face full of a cold smile.

The first to be cleaned up was those aliens above Planet Vegeta. These guys who control all the spaceship facilities of Planet Vegeta had long been hated.

"Report, a large number of teams have been detected entering Planet Vegeta's planetary range."

"They're finally coming."

King Vegeta's face was austere, and a brilliant light flashed violently in his eyes.

"Pass down the order, let everyone get ready!"

"The moment to decide the fate is here. Let Cooler see the power of the Saiyans!"

King Vegeta waved his big hand. All Saiyans were ready, just waiting for Cooler's spaceship to approach.

By this time, Cooler already sat on the spaceship and had received a distress message from Aidoian on Planet Vegeta.

Cooler was gloomy, "The Saiyans are so bold, how dare they openly rebel."

Paviz sneered, "They won't be arrogant for long."

"Paviz, tell the Cooler Armored Squadron to get ready. I don't want a single Saiyan in the universe."

Cooler's eyes flashed with a ferocious and cold ghostly light. His tone was icy and unforgiving.

Chapter 305

"Cooler's spaceship is here."

In space, a huge disc spaceship approached the orbit of Planet Vegeta's, followed by hundreds of spaceship of different sizes in groups.

After detecting Cooler's spaceship information, King Vegeta sent the test spaceship up according to the plan.

As expected, these spaceships had not taken off for long before they were hit by the energy beams coming from space.

In the dappled and beautiful shooting, all these spaceships burned up and fell like a ball of fire.

A total of dozens of spaceships were launched one after another and the energy beam from outer space destroyed all.

At this time, King Vegeta's face was black and frosty, "All warriors, the enemy is right in front of us. Let's go up with me and send all the enemies who invade Planet Vegeta into hell."

"Everyone charge together!"

"The first to the fifth coalition will attack from the front and block the enemy's vitality. The sixth to the ninth coalition will attack from the two sides, respectively. The remaining coalition and weak Low-Class Warriors will be responsible for sweeping the tail and clearing the battlefield of all the leaking fish. Absolutely do not let them enter Planet Vegeta!"

King Vegeta stood at the forefront of all warriors and shouted with open arms.

"Auxiliary personnel, prepare the artificial moon immediately."

"Yes!"

Hearing King Vegeta's order, the Saiyans engaged in auxiliary work shot up and launched the artificial moon up with the fastest speed.

There were two kinds of artificial moon technology.

One was a purely technological approach to simulate the full moon's energy rays, and another was to rely on the Saiyan warrior's internal energy, condensing the light of the full moon in the sky.

In comparison, the first artificial moon was easy to manufacture and could meet large-scale warfare needs. The second artificial moon was more difficult, and only Elite Warrior could master it.

With King Vegeta's order to go down, several Elite Warrior located at the front of the coalition first used their bodies' energy to condense the artificial moon in the air.

"All of them turn into Great Ape State!"

ROAR!!!

The bright light of the full moon shone down, and the front group of Saiyans with their eyes glowing red were the first to turn into the Great Ape state with a roar.

Their power level was then raised 10 times to an appalling intensity. Then, in a furious roar, these giant apes leaped into the air.

Like a lightning bolt, they sped off towards the outer space of the atmosphere.

Then not long after, large artificial moons also began to rise.

ROAR! ROAR...

The Low-Class Warrior Saiyans had also transformed into Great Ape, even if the original 1000 power level soared into 10,000 power level with the Great Ape Transformation.

The only drawback was that the Great Ape's huge size after the transformation consumed a lot of energy, and the body movement was also not as flexible as before.

Facing the Cooler Armored Squadron's energy rays, the Great Ape Saiyans roar directly blocked the energy rays.

The 10,000 power level was enough to destroy the world. Not to mention that in groups, the weakest strength was 10,000 power levels! And the strongest ones were on the verge of reaching 200,000!

"KILL!"

"KILL ALL THE ALIENS OF THE COOLER LEGION."

"Let these guys who have underestimated the Saiyans see how strong the Saiyans are as a warrior race."

Amidst a roar full of fervent blood, the giant brown Ape raised the sky and ejected a series of bright and dazzling energy rays from its huge bloody mouth.

RUMBLE!!!

The dazzling rays of light formed a series of large and small explosions.

Especially after the Saiyans, who originally had a power level of more than 10,000, turned into Great Apes, the terrible scene was like the end of the world.

The Elite Warriors Great Ape's strength was terrifying, and the astounding power was far from ordinary alien to match. So, at the beginning of the battle, many Cooler aliens died directly in the deep space.

The gravel raised by the explosion covered the sky and blocked the Cooler Legion course at once.

.....

In the spaceship.

Cooler stared with bloodshot eyes, his gaze calm as if there was no fluctuation.

He looked blandly at the terrifying scene outside the porthole and sneered, "Oh, these Saiyans are still quite capable. They actually able to stop our spaceship."

"As expected of a warrior race, the strength of the Saiyans is unexpected. Ordinary aliens are really no match for them."

Paviz shook his head, "I didn't expect the Saiyans to hide the ability to turn into Great Apes. Those Saiyans who turned into Great Apes, could they be the rumored Super Saiyans?"

Cooler looked askance and sneered, "If the Super Saiyans only have this power, then I'm going to be disappointed."

"Your Majesty, if we continue to fight, we will only lose our strength, so please send out the Special Force Team. We will definitely remove these Saiyans for you."

Paviz respectfully bowed to Cooler.

After that, a line of several people kneeled on one knee and applied to join the battle.

These aliens were the elite fighters in Cooler's hands. Their power level was no less than that of the Armored Squadron back then. If these Special Force Team fight, the outcome of the battle will be basically determined.

Cooler narrowed his eyes and laughed loudly, "This king already knows what's in Mr. Paviz's heart. Well, those Great Apes below 100,000 power level will be left to you, as for the guys above 100,000 power level, this King will personally take action." Cooler said as he craned his neck, "For many years, I haven't personally fought; this time, I'll take it as an exercise."

"As ordered!"

"We will destroy these Saiyans."

"Let's go!"

With the order, all the elite fighters under Cooler came out. The weakest of them all had 100,000 power levels, and once a few of them struck, the situation was immediately reversed amazingly.

PENG!

PENG! PENG!

CRACKLE!!!

Saiyan warriors and the elite fighters under the command of Cooler fight fiercely in outer space. The lack of oxygen restricts the Saiyan power to play, but their eyes were red in the Great Ape state, making the violent atmosphere permeate the enemy.

Only in the face of powerful enemies, many Saiyans finally failed to hold out as they lost their lives under the enemy's energy cannon.

"Hahahaha, is this the power of the Saiyans? It's really weak and pathetic. If they only have this little power, this King's worries are superfluous."

Cooler purple figure elegantly moving in space, like a dancer. Cooler's movements were very dashing and simple. With little movement, his fingers were pointing forward, and his fingertips shone with beautiful beams of light.

With a swoosh, a light shot out, a power level close to 200,000 Great Apes Saiyans were killed in space.

"Hahahaha! They're too weak."

"This King doesn't even have the heart to get serious!"

Cooler's eyes looked out of the world and swept the four directions. He could not help but shake his head in disappointment; then, with his hands behind his back, he simply stopped striking.

Watching one by one the Elite Warriors perish in front of his eyes, King Vegeta's eyes were red. His heart was dripping blood, and his face was full of madness. King Vegeta, who had turned into a Great Ape, roared and charged directly towards Cooler.

"DAMN IT!"

"COOLER, I WILL BREAK YOU INTO PIECES."

BOOM!

With a fist swinging over hard, the tip of the fist lit up with blinding light.

"King Vegeta, your strength is not that impressive."

Cooler faintly shook his head, put up a finger gently toward the front.

BOOM!

An invisible wall was born in the void, King Vegeta's attack was blocked at only one foot away from Cooler. Then fingers bent a flick; the Great Ape State King Vegeta was directly ejected.

"Why? My power level is obviously close to 200,000, how come I still can't defeat you!"

"With a mere 200,000 power level, you want to defeat this King?"

Cooler's expression was astonished, and then he laughed out loud, "What a sad person. You're trying to defy this King, but you don't even know this King's strength. However, it's not your fault because this King has never shown his true strength."

"It does not hurt to tell you that the King's strongest power is a terrifying 470 million power level. Ah, in addition, I can also tell you that this King's useless brother Frieza, although the strength is not as strong as the King, but his power level reached 120 million."

“I’ve told you what you should know, so next, please go to hell!”

Cooler snapped his fingers toward King Vegeta, and a rice grain-sized energy light flickered a few times. Suddenly, it expanded to a diameter of more than 100 meters.

“DEATH BALL!”

The huge energy bomb enough to destroy the planet burning with a terrible flame, flying toward King Vegeta.

Faced with the terrifying energy, King Vegeta’s entire body stiffened, his face looked at the huge attack that came to his face with horror.

Compared to the power, the blow to the mind was greater.

“I was wrong. It turns out that all along, I was a frog at the bottom of the well. Cooler’s strength is beyond my imagination.”

King Vegeta’s mood was a bit low. In the face of the last moment of death, King Vegeta remembered his father, King Saiyan. When he spoke to him after submitting to Frieza, King Saiyan’s expression was the same as his current expression.

120 million!

470 million!

No matter which one, it was invincible!

Although the Saiyans were a warrior race, they didn’t have such a terrifying power level.

Because he chose to fight this time, Planet Vegeta and the Saiyan would be destroyed. Today’s King Vegeta was somewhat grateful that he sent Vegeta, and fortunately, he also sent Broly out.

Next.... he should bear the price of failure.

However, just as King Vegeta thought certain death, a robust figure appeared in front of King Vegeta.

The figure’s arm waved, and the “Death Ball” sent by Cooler was knocked out.

That man was still in the human form with fluffy hair and a scar on the cheek. His battle suit was a bit worn out, and his eyes were bright and shining, staring at Cooler.

This man was clearly Bardock, who had left behind alone after sending Gine and Kakarot to earth.

“Huh!”

Cooler looked at Bardock with some surprise. Although his attack was only released arbitrarily, the energy’s strength was there; it shouldn’t merely be pushed away.

More importantly, the other side actually hadn’t turned into a Great Ape state.

Chapter 306

“Who are you?” Cooler asked in an icy tone as a hint of surprise flashed in his eyes.

“My name is Bardock, a Saiyan!”

“Bardock...”

Cooler repeated the name, then shaking his head. He had never heard of it! The corner of his mouth curled up and said, “To be able to block my attack, you’re no longer a commoner. Can you tell me how much power level you have?”

“My power level? Not as much as you, about a million points.”

Bardock looked at Cooler. He knew clearly that he was not a match for the opponent, but the Saiyans would never take the initiative to admit defeat.

“Remarkable! I never heard of a Saiyan who reached 1 million power level, could it be that you are that legendary Super Saiyan?”

Bardock shook his head, “No, I’m not a Super Saiyan, just a Low-Class Warrior on Planet Vegeta. Super Saiyan only exists in fairy tales.”

Cooler laughed, “Hahahaha, 1 million power level of the Low-Class Warrior, this joke is not funny.”

Cooler finished laughing, and his face got serious.

Since Planet Vegeta could produce 1 million power level Saiyan, Super Saiyan’s legend was not empty talk. Maybe, this Saiyan in front of him had the potential to become a Super Saiyan. Therefore, he had to die.

All threats must be eliminated in the cradle.

At this point, the Great Ape transformed King Vegeta came back from the shock, “You are Bardock. I have heard rumors of you, but I did not expect your strength is so strong.”

“Bardock, hurry up and transform into a Great Ape. Cooler’s strength is too strong; you might have a miracle after you transform into a Great Ape.”

Bardock shook his head regretfully, “King Vegeta, I’m afraid things are not as simple as you think. Even if I transform into Great Ape, the growth of my power level is very limited. Instead, the huge body of the Great Ape will affect the efficiency of my fighting!”

Saiyan Great Ape could indeed increase 10 times the power level, but that was for the Saiyan with a low power level. If the strength of the Saiyan reached the level of Bardock, even if the Great Ape, the capped power was only 3 million, far from being Cooler’s opponent. Yet, the body of the Great Ape would affect the performance in the battle.

King Vegeta’s expression stunned for a moment, and then lowered his head in dismay, “Is that so? It seems that the Saiyans really have no hope.”

“Have you finished your words? It does not matter if you have not finished. Next, I will send you to the Other-World. You can continue to catch up when you get there!” Cooler’s face was icy, and very indifferent Cooler floated over.

Swoosh!

Cooler’s speed didn’t look fast, but in the blink of an eye, had reached Bardock’s side. Without looking away, he waved his hand toward King Vegeta’s side, and a terrifying burst of force exploded in the void. King Vegeta's expression was stunned. King Vegeta "gasp", and a splash of blood spurted out of his mouth; his body was shot out like a cannonball.

After he sent King Vegeta flying, Cooler looked at Bardock.

"COOLER!"

Bardock roared in anger. His body burned with light golden flames, and a thick wall of energy wrapped around his body, looking like a blazing torch.

Swish!

Bardock moved quickly towards Cooler and attacked. His fist was as hard as steel smashed at Cooler's neck. Clang, it was as if sparks flew up from a metal collision, yet Cooler's expression did not change a bit.

"It is indeed the force of 1 million power level."

Lightly touched the part hit by Bardock, Cooler spread his hand towards Bardock and made an imaginary bomb.

BOOM-

Bardock felt his internal organs were going to explode, causing a breath in his mouth did not come up, and blood directly spurted out of his mouth.

"It seems that I overestimated you. The Saiyans are really useless. Even if they call themselves a warrior race, they are still a dwarf dress as a tall man." Cooler shook his head with a regretful expression.

"I have lost interest in you. You better go to hell!"

After saying that, Cooler became serious. An evil aura that seemed to come from the abyss suddenly spread out. Soon, the whole Planet Vegeta was within the envelope of Cooler's aura.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

The huge Planet Vegeta trembled uneasily, and the beings on it barked restlessly as if they felt the end of the world coming.

North Kai's Planet.

As soon as the peacefully sleeping North Kai rolled down from the top of his hammock, Cooler's breath was transmitted through Planet Vegeta, representing the small grass of Planet Vegeta. Constantly sending out danger signals.

"What the hell is going on here?"

North Kai said with a restless mind. When he found the little grass with the danger signal, North Kai used the tentacles on the top of his head to detect and violently discovered what was happening above Planet Vegeta.

"It's over. It's that Cooler guy again."

"This planet is Planet Vegeta. Could it be that Cooler wants to destroy Planet Vegeta?"

North Kai disliked the Saiyans on Vegeta; even if Cooler wiped out all the Saiyans, North Kai wouldn't have a problem. However, if Planet Vegeta were destroyed, he would have a big problem with it.

Every living planet in the universe was very precious; it was the cradle of life. Life was extremely bright and fragile, and one planet could breed many kinds of life. It took hundreds of millions of years to brew, but it took only a few minutes to destroy these lives.

Creation and destruction were not symmetrical.

“God forbid. I hope Cooler doesn't destroy planets again.”

North Kai was sad that the planets under his jurisdiction did not even have the minimum security.

“If only Muiyang and others were around at this time, with his strength, there might be hope to stop Cooler.. Well, there will be a hope to stop him too.”

“By the way, where is that boy Muiyang now?”

North Kai inquired about the location of Muiyang. If he could contact him, there might be hope to save a planet's life, although he himself did not like the Saiyans much.

However, after querying many times, he could not find Muiyang's ki.

“It's strange. Muiyang is not in the North Area; did he go to several other galaxies?”

If that so, then there was no way. North Kai could only mourn for all the people of Planet Vegeta. North Kai did not know that Muiyang was training in a place he would never expect at this time.

.....

God of Destruction Planet.

Muiyang was training to fight under Whis. Muiyang's whole body turned into a streak across the grassland, and he was moving quickly. Suddenly his body lurched as Whis silently and unnoticed stood in front of Muiyang.

“Death God Chain!”

Muiyang pointed a distant finger at the sky.

SWOOSH!

The pale red sky suddenly cracked open, and in the God of Destruction Planet, a scarlet spatial rift appeared haughtily. Then dozens of silver-white chains landed from the rift.

Ring, ring, ring~

These glittering bright light of the divine chain fell on Whis' body and then increasingly wrapped tighter, hanging Whis in the air.

Whis frowned for a moment, looking at the mysterious chains that tied him up with a flat expression, and said curiously, “What are these chains? They actually have the rules of the gods attached to them. Eh, it's different from the ki of the Universe 7...”

Few things in the entire universe couldn't surprise Whis.

Even if the destruction of the universe was not unexperienced to him, but at this time, the silver divine chains summoned by Muyang were greatly out of Whis' expectation.

“These energies, they seem to be interesting!”

Whis' eyes lit up, and his body shook violently. Without seeing him move, the Divine Staff in his hand turned around, from one hand to the other, and the crisp sound of click-click-click-click rang out.

The divine chain tied to Whis's body broke violently, turned into beautiful and fine starlight, and then disappeared.

After the divine chain broke, Whis floated down, then moved his body like a transient. He arrived in front of Muyang in the blink of an eye, looking at him with fluttering eyes.

“Aiyaa, what was that move you just used? Why do I feel like it's different ki from the Universe 7?”

“No, when you think about it, it seems to be different from the ki of the whole universe as well.”

Whis, as an angel of the Universe 7, knew a lot about ki of the universe and the rules of the whole universe. The move performed by Muyang just now definitely did not belong to the system of the whole universe.

If it doesn't belong to the rules of the universe, is it some other system?

The fact was that he could not conceal some things from Whis, so he might as well admit it, “You can consider this power as my superpower.”

Whis shook his head, “This is definitely not as simple as superpowers. It has involved the world. “

“No, it is indeed considered my superpower, similar to the energy of space.” With that, Muyang waved his hand, and a spatial channel to the Acceleration World was revealed.

“Whis, wouldn't you mind taking a look in my space?”

“Aiyaaah, it's interesting.”

Whis felt ki of a newborn world from behind that spatial channel. Although the rules were still very juvenile, it was indeed the power of a world that belonged to a universe. Whis acted very blandly, stepping forward through that spatial channel. With the time and space shift, soon, he appeared in an unfamiliar starry sky.

Beneath his feet was a large planet, and the ki around it was faint, about the level of the Level 5 Dimension God World.

“Whis, welcome to my world.”

Muyang bent a little and looked at Whis with a very gentlemanly smile.

Chapter 307

The Acceleration World was very weak, but as Muyang broke the limits again, the Acceleration World's space range had now expanded to 5 million kilometers, which could hold several sun-sized planets.

Even the central Planet Wudao was 10,000 kilometers, only one circle smaller than earth.

Muyang took Whis into the Acceleration World and then landed on Planet Wudao.

“Welcome to my Acceleration World.”

There were green mountains, green water, rivers, lakes, lofty mountains rolling up and down, and you couldn't see the end at a glance; it was a completely untouched planet.

“It's actually a completely different rule from the Universe7. The periphery is somewhat similar to the 'Null Realm'.”

Whis curiously surveyed the surroundings. The strange starry sky was empty, and it was no longer the spatial scope of Universe 7. The Null Realm was the area that remained after the Universe was cleared by the Zeno, where there was no time, no space, and everything was nothingness.

“Although the rules here are still very juvenile, the level is not particularly high, but it is indeed a newborn world. With training, perhaps a universe can be born, in which you can exert more powerful power?”

Whis said and waved the Divine Staff in his hand. The black crystal ball shone with crystal light, then quickly dimmed, and Whis showed an expression of recognition.

“Sure enough, the connection with the Universe 7 has also been cut off. Here I have been cut off from many permissions except my own power.”

Whis turned his head to look at Muyang as if he had never known him before.

Muyang laughed, “With the aid of the Acceleration World, it is true that you can exert more power than the outside world.”

Unfortunately, these powers could only be used in the Acceleration World. To use this power in external combat, one would still need to overcome the external universe-wide rules' interference. Even if one were to use a different method and bring an opponent into the Acceleration World, they would face the same situation during the process of bringing them in unless the opponent volunteered.

Until the Acceleration World grew to compete with the whole Universe, they would have to accept the suppression of the whole Universe.

“Well, the time flow is also different. It's a good place for mortals to train, so no wonder your strength has grown so rapidly.”

Awesome!

Muyang exclaimed in awe.

As expected of Whis. After spending just a moment in the Accelerated World, with a glance of his eyes, he had guessed the nature of the Accelerated World to a large extent.

In a sense, Whis was very similar to Muyang, except that Muyang was the master of the Acceleration World, while Whis was only equivalent to the steward of the Universe 7. Although he mastered the rules of Universe 7, the main authority came from the Divine Staff.

The previous speculations of Whis about the Accelerated World were correct. However, Whis did not know that the most important thing about the Accelerated World was not actually its value as a newborn world. But that it could help Muyang gather the limits within his body.

The limits that were impossible to see could be materialized, transformed into reality with emptiness, made breakthroughs, and fed the world through Muyang's breakthroughs to form coexistence.

Muyang's decision to bring Whis into his Acceleration World was made after much deliberation and careful thought.

One, as his strength continued to grow stronger, some unconscious power would be revealed in the battle with strong enemies, such as the "Death God Chain". It was impossible to discard it, and the strange speed of his own substratum enhancement was already very noticeable.

Previously, when he was weak, he could still hide it, but as the power level continued to rise, there were fewer high-ranking deities. His Acceleration World's existence could not be concealed. So it was better to reveal it to Whis since he believed that Whis' character would not be detrimental to him.

The second was from the point of view of their training. Muyang had always felt that he had an empty dimensional level but did not have the effectiveness to match it, which was a big material in itself. That was why he thought of seeking new training with the help of Whis.

A combination of factors led him to bring Whis to his world.

.....

After wandering for a while above Planet Wudao, Whis was like a countryman who had never been in town before, curiously looking around here and there, making admiring noises from his mouth.

After roughly understanding the nature of the Acceleration World, Whis exclaimed, "This world of yours has a lot of potentials; all the rules in it are under your control. If it really grows in the future, I'm afraid that even Lord Beerus is no match for you."

"Whis you are overly praised. How can I compare with Lord Beerus." Muyang shook his head modestly.

"It's hard to say. In just a few years, your level has already reached the Level 5 Dimension. Giving you a few more years, it will become a Level 8 Dimension like Lord Beerus, which is not impossible. The Universe 7 has really developed a remarkable character!" Whis smiled as he looked at Muyang.

"It seems that a little change has to be made to your training. With this world as a backing, power enhancement is not a problem for you. In the future, you mainly need to train the control of rules and the use of spiritual power."

“Then I’ll trouble you.” Muiyang’s eyes lit up for a moment, knowing that Whis was serious this time.

“It’s not a trouble.” Whis shook his head a little.

It was rare for a character with the potential to appear in Universe 7, and Whis certainly needed to pay attention to it.

If it was said that before he knew about the Acceleration World, Whis’ preference for Muiyang mainly came from his ability to cook a handful of food to his satisfaction. Now he was truly considering training talent for Universe 7.

As an angel, Whis was in a very high position among the gods. He often facing either the God of Destruction or Supreme Kai and often conversing with higher-level Grand Minister and Zeno, so he knew very well the risks faced by Universe 7 and even the larger Universe.

To put it politely, in the foreseeable time, the biggest risk the Universe 7 was facing was not from outside the Universe but from within the internal Zeno.

Zeno was the highest level of God in the Universe, representing all the rules of the Universe.

It was very dangerous to be noble and holy, yet ignorant at the same time. Maybe one day Zeno would be unhappy, and the Universe 7 would somehow be cleared out as a result. Although for the angel Whis, the Universe’s disappearance did not affect his safety, only let him “temporarily” off work. He then had to wait for countless years after the birth of a new universe until he could continue to work.

However, which God was willing to sleep for so long for no reason!

Although this small world of Muiyang still looks very young and couldn’t compete with the whole Universe, it might grow up to be very extraordinary in the future. The Acceleration World rules did not seem to be intimidated by the rules of the entire Universe, judging from the “divine chain” that fell from the sky earlier.

If possible, Whis could say that if there was a little hope, he hoped that with Muiyang’s world’s power, Universe 7 could continue until the Multiverse history on this site was completely destroyed.

“Huh, those two huge planets in the sky seem to be the Wish Planet made by Lord Zalma, the Dragon God. Is it true? You actually moved them in here as well.”

Whis looked up and spotted the two Super Dragon Balls in the Acceleration World.

“It’s indeed a Wish Planet made by the Dragon God. I found it unintentionally when I was traveling in the Universe.”

“Your luck is really good. There are only seven Wish Planets in total, scattered in the Universe 6 and 7. Usually, there are only three to four in the Universe 7, and I didn’t expect you to find two of them here.”

“It’s just a coincidence of chance.” Muiyang smiled lightly.

The Universe 7 was so big that three or four Super Dragon Balls fell in it like a few grains of sand in the ocean. Without the help of Whis' Divine Staff, Muiyang thought he was fortunate to have found two Super Dragon Balls on Planet Ampera.

After wandering around the Acceleration World for a while, Whis returned to the God of Destruction Planet with Muiyang after knowing the Accelerated World's properties.

Next, Whis would conduct special training for Muiyang in terms of rules and spiritual power, mainly to strengthen the substratum and the use of divine power. This knowledge was originally only practiced by gods, somewhat similar to the God of Destruction's preparation.

Of course, after knowing the Acceleration World, Whis wouldn't let Muiyang become a God of Destruction. In his heart, there was a vague expectation of something bigger.

Chapter 308

"The Dimension Level does not only represent the level of a being, but also the authority of the rules of the universe that one is able to master. King Yemma is in charge of the Other-World trial, Kai is in charge of a Galaxy... God of Destruction and Supreme Kai are able to take charge of the entire universe; this is because they have enough Dimension Level."

On the surface of a calm lake, Whis looked at Muiyang sitting cross-legged, the two all floating in the water more than three meters above the surface.

The breeze blew, and the water rippled, spreading out a circle of tiny ripples.

At this time, Muiyang's body emitted a hazy and subtle light, and the Level 5 Dimension on his body was induced by Whis, emitting a crystal shining light.

If the previous Muiyang merely represented the Level 5 Dimension in the level of life, now, he was metamorphosing from the inside out. As long as he stood there, all beings whose level was below Level 5 would naturally feel oppression. These were no longer the manifestation of power level but life oppression.

It was the rules of the entire universe that were exerting the oppression on his behalf.

Usually, the Dimension Level represents the amount of authority to master the universe's rules and was not linked to actual power.

For example, the God of Destruction and Supreme Kai, who were in the same Level 8 Dimension, were equivalent in terms of level. However, in terms of power, there was a huge difference. The God of Destruction had the most powerful power in the universe, and the Supreme Kai was also mighty, but at best, it was at the level of full Super Saiyan power.

Muiyang was not an empty appearance of Supreme Kai because, with the entire Acceleration World behind him as a backing, Muiyang could grow up. It was equivalent to God of Destruction and Supreme Kai; perhaps even the angelic component was included.

In the future, if it became something, it would be a terrifying existence.

Boo!

Muyang closed his eyes, but the outside world's movements were all displayed in his mind. He waved his hand to open the channel of the Acceleration World.

At this time, the raging energy seemed like a tidal wave flooding into the Acceleration World, taking in the God of Destruction Planet's energy on such a large scale. However, as an angel, Whis was watching quietly from the side.

Through that small channel, Whis felt the other world's changes; that small world was growing. Whis secretly nodded his head and acquiesced to what was happening.

“What a ghostly miracle. When this world grows up, it will not only help the Universe 7 in the future but perhaps even the whole universe has something to look up to it.”

In fact, every time the new Multiverse was born, there would be eighteen universes in it. As history progresses forward, the whole universe might also produce a Parallel Universe, making the number of space and time increased continuously. The number of universes would also increase. The eighteen universes would be eliminated by Zeno one by one for various reasons in an infinitely long time.

Of course, although these universes were eliminated, they would not completely disappear.

These eighteen universes' energy would be gathered and transferred to the back of the Multiverse to form a virtual world, which was more nebulous than the “Null Realm,” a mirror world.

When all the universes in the Parallel Universe die out, the mirror world with all the energy behind it would be transformed into a new and independent universe. At that time, Zeno and all the Angels in the Parallel Universe would be reunited and transferred to the new Multiverse, starting a new development.

The original Multiverse would become an empty mirror image.

This was the development of the Multiverse as it continued to change from week to week.

Only then, except for Zeno, Grand Minister, and Angel, all other beings, including Supreme Kai and God of Destruction, would be completely different. So for the people of the universe, once they perish, it would mean a complete disappearance.

However, there were always accidents in the development of the universe, and so was the development of the Multiverse. Beyond the whole universe, there was a mysterious place called Universe 0.

It wouldn't be destroyed with the change of the Multiverse. Instead, it was like a parasite in the Multiverse constantly taking in the dark power of the Multiverse. If Zeno couldn't clear these dark powers in time, once it grew beyond the threshold of the Multiverse, the epoch of Zeno and the Multiverse would come to an end.

In another way, the more Parallel Universes, the greater the possibility of the dark power's birth. That was why the gods were strictly controlling the number of Parallel Universes. The reckless creation of Parallel Universes was a serious crime.

Whis had certain expectations of Muyang. Besides, for the sake of Universe 7, it was also for the sake of the Multiverse in the larger sense.

.....

The time passed, soon it had almost half a year after Muiyang came to the God of Destruction Planet.

This period of time, under the guidance of Whis, Muiyang's power continues to get stronger. When he first came to the God of Destruction Planet, it had improved a lot; the power level rose from the original 200 million to 320 million!

What was more important was undoubtedly not the increase in power level but the mastery of the Dimension Level.

Now he was a veritable Level 5 God, even surpassing old god like the North Kai in terms of strength.

When he first came to the God of Destruction Planet, God of Destruction Beerus also dragged Muiyang and the girls to make him good food. After more than a month of continuous cooking, Beerus ate and drank enough and was a little tired, so naturally, he ran off to sleep again.

With the help of Whis' words, Lord Beerus sleeps for decades again this time.

Muiyang looked at the God Temple where Beerus was sleeping, guessing that he would sleep for a long 39 years. The next time he woke up was about the time he dreamed of the "Super Saiyan God."

.....

Clap, clap, clap~

The raging tide lapped each other in the gale, splashing a white wave.

On one side of the lake, Muiyang was quietly training.

In the sky above the empty God of Destruction Planet, Melissa, emitting a golden-green light, was constantly attacking Whis.

Melissa's movements were very rapid, and every attack was full of explosive power. However, in the face of Whis, even the strongest power could not be as effective as it should be.

Whis' face was indifferent, with a faint smile on his face, his purple eyes had no ripples. His wrist danced, and his Divine Staff turned around in his hand a few times.

Snap.

Melissa's body was bounced out of the air, scuffing, taking a few quick steps to stabilize her body.

The golden eyes showed a trace of horror. Melissa sighed and had to exit the combat state convincingly.

"Melissa's Golden Eyes state is very wonderful. It seems to be blocking the power of 'demon' within the human form state. This may be where the 'Legendary Super Saiyan' is different from the ordinary Saiyan." Whis knew Melissa's situation well, and it was his power that blessed the reincarnation of Melissa's soul back then.

"Then what about Broly's situation? He is a Saiyan of Planet Vegeta, the same 'Legendary Super Saiyan'. Does he also have the power of 'demon' in his body?"

Melissa asked in disbelief.

At this time, Muiyang had finished his training and just overheard Melissa and Whis discussing the Golden Eyes State of the “Legendary Super Saiyan.”

Whis smiled and said, “I know Vegeta’s Saiyan. Although their body does not have the power of ‘demon’, they have tails. On the full moon, they can be transformed into a Great Ape. If your child also shows the Golden Eyes State in the future, it must be the power of ‘Great Ape’ blocked in the body, and maintain the human form....”

To maintain the Great Ape state in the body and keep the human form state.

Was it Super Saiyan 4?

For some reason, when Muiyang heard Whis’ argument about the Golden Eyes State transformation. The first thing that came to his mind was the transformation of Super Saiyan 4 in “Dragon Ball GT.”

It was simultaneously transforming the Great Ape State into human form. The only difference was that the Golden Eyes State did not need to appear in the Great Ape State, while Super Saiyan 4 was first transformed into a Super Saiyan in the Great Ape State and then returned to human form from the Great Ape state. Although the way was different, the reason was similar.

The general Saiyan Great Ape Transformation could improve 10 times the power level. There might be a ceiling, but the “Legendary Super Saiyan” on top of Planet Vegeta was sealed in the Great Ape Transformation and turned into a Golden Eyes State. The power level was increased by 50 times, just like Melissa!

It was equivalent to an Alternative Super Saiyan transformation.

Muiyang remembered that the Legendary Super Saiyan Kale of Universe 6 didn’t have Golden Eyes State in the original story. Was it mainly because her body didn’t have the “demon” or “Great Ape” component?

In that case, the reason also made sense.

Melissa was a Super Saiyan who didn’t know much about her physique. So, when Whis explained it, it suddenly felt like it made sense.

Maybe her Golden Eyes State was caused by the “demon attribute” in her soul in her previous life. She should practice her traditional Super Saiyan Transformation next! Maybe, that could enhance her power.

At this time, Muiyang suddenly thought that he and Melissa had spent half a year since they came to the God of Destruction Planet. Counting the time, Cooler should have arrived at Planet Vegeta, so he wondered if Planet Vegeta was still in existence or had been destroyed by Cooler.

“Whis, can you detect the situation on Planet Vegeta?”

Whis smiled and nodded. He brought the Divine Staff to his eyes and gently tapped the black crystal ball above. Along with a gorgeous flash of light, the situation above Planet Vegeta surfaced in the crystal ball.

“Oops, the situation on Planet Vegeta is quite bad. An evil demon is there to kill continuously, and there are not many Saiyans left up there.”

“Let me see, let me see.”

Melissa jumped in front of Whis, her emerald-colored eyes staring at the crystal ball.

In the picture, Planet Vegeta was covered with black smoke. The fire was generated continuously in outer space. The continental plate had been torn apart—the fiery lava with steam gushing out. In a void, a purple figure stood untamed and proud, his gaze indifferently sweeping below.

“That purple fellow, could it be Cooler?” Melissa furrowed her smoky cloud-like eyebrows.

“It really is Cooler; the one opposite him... is Bardock. He actually has the courage to face Cooler. It’s just a pity that Cooler’s power is simply not something he can fight against.”

Muyang quite admired Bardock’s courage, but in his opinion, Bardock’s behavior was too reckless.

Sighing quietly, Muyang took Melissa’s hand and said, “Let’s go over and take a look. If we late, Bardock will be dead.”

Melissa’s fair face blossomed into a smile, who didn’t know that Muyang was itching to get his hands dirty.

“Then go ahead!”

Whis faintly said, “You guys go. Cooler’s strength is not bad. It can be an experience! A good test of the results of your training.”

“Then farewell. Don’t forget to watch our show!”

Muyang’s handsome face curved an arc as he raised his finger and tapped it on his brow. He then took Melissa and left the God of Destruction Planet with Instant Transmission.

“.....”

Whis smiled, and with a wave of the Divine Staff, he changed the cup of tea and dessert in front of him.

A huge screen appeared in front of him, showing the situation of Planet Vegeta.

He then sat down while drinking tea and eating dessert, very leisurely watching.

Chapter 309

Planet Vegeta was in complete chaos.

Since the war between the Cooler Armored Squadron and the Saiyans officially kicked off, the entire planetary system had become a battlefield for both sides to fight.

With the blue-green Planet Vegeta as the background, the surrounding lit up with an orange dot of light one after another...

A bright ray of light was sprayed indiscriminately in the outer atmosphere, rumbling roar. A few rays swept across the ground and then clattered to split the continent, spewing hot lava. This lava sprayed to high altitude, and under the effect of gravity, it fell like rain.

Not long after the war began, the original beautiful ecological environment of Planet Vegeta became smoggy.

With Cooler's Special Force Team joined the battle, the situation was fundamentally reversed. The Great Ape Saiyans were gradually suppressed.

The battle area began to shift from outer space to the interior of the planet. The lowest energy of these Great Ape Saiyans had 10,000 power levels, and the high-intensity battle put Planet Vegeta under tremendous pressure.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

A series of fireballs connected on the surface of the planet presented.

The flames rose to thousands of meters high in the sky as if a delicate poppy blossomed out, and there was a rumble of explosions everywhere.

Under the overwhelming force collision, the planet finally could not withstand the huge penetrating force, crumbling from the middle.

The hot lava immediately flew out from the ground, with a steaming and pungent smell.

"HAHAHAHA!!! KILL ALL THESE SAIYANS...."

An order came from the sound of fighting.

"Saiyans who don't know their own strength."

"Destroy them! Don't spare any of them."

The heavily armed Special Force Team laughed and aimed their gaze at the Great Ape Saiyans.

At this moment, in their eyes, these Saiyans were all prey, and by getting things done well, Lord Cooler would be pleased, and they would be appreciated.

PENG PENG PENG!

The air shook violently, and the terrifying aura coalesced together, forming an impactful surge.

The Saiyans of Planet Vegeta was defeated in this one impact. Soon, a large number of Saiyans were tragically slaughtered.

"AHHHHH!!! DAMN ALIENS. I WILL KILL YOU!"

With a roar, an "energy cannon" from a distance came through. King Vegeta, who had already been seriously injured in the previous battle, saw his people being slaughtered. His two eyes flashed with a tyrannical ruthless light, and his mouth spewed out a massive column of energy light.

“King Vegeta, watch these Saiyans die. This is what happens when you disobey Lord Cooler.”

Paviz laughed freely, standing in the position of hostility. King Vegeta’s sad appearance made him want to laugh when he saw it.

King Vegeta’s face was pale, a mouthful of blood could not help but spurt out, “Why did you have to deceive us? Even if we choose to serve Cooler, that demon will not let us go.”

Paviz shrugged a little; the corners of his mouth showed a cruel and cold smile, “Then there is no way out. Destroying you is something planned by King Cooler, as for choosing allegiance or rebellion will not affect the outcome.”

“If you had been loyal from the beginning, Lord Cooler might have given you a happy outcome. But now... enjoy being tremble in the face of great power!

“Shut up. The dignity of the Saiyans will not allow you to trample!”

King Vegeta’s face was iron blue. Under the Great Ape Form, he was emitting horrible ki. Even when the body was broken by Cooler, at this time, King Vegeta, who was originally strong, was able to keep the outbreak state.

“Hmph, what Saiyan dignity... King Vegeta, you’re at the end of death. Go to hell in peace!”

Paviz’s face was cold. As the current number one general under Cooler, Paviz couldn’t tolerate a weak person showing the so-called dignity in front of him.

With a cold glint of the eyes looking at King Vegeta, Paviz suddenly let out a loud laugh. His body sank slightly, and then his body disappeared in a flash of lightning.

PUFF!

A beam of energy came through, directly from King Vegeta’s abdomen, the blood scattered, dripping like flower petals.

After losing too much blood, King Vegeta began to chill. His eyes also began to darken, making the scene seen in front of his eyes gradually blurred.

In the distant... in the gradually blurred spots of light, the sound gradually became inaudible.

A crimson mushroom cloud rose on the other side of the skyline, and countless brave Saiyan Warriors lost their lives under the siege of the Cooler Armored Squadron. Their corpses floating in outer space.

The Saiyans of Planet Vegeta began to go to extinction.

When King Vegeta looked on, his mind recalled the glorious moment of Planet Vegeta... When the Saiyans were not under the command of Frieza, their lives were so dashing. They ate to their heart’s content and fought painfully. It was a pity that such days have all passed.

The culprit... was King Cold and two of his son.

In the last moment of life, King Vegeta's consciousness awake. He looked toward Paviz, suddenly feel less sad.

"You will regret it... One day, you will also encounter what Planet Vegeta suffered... Vegeta, grow up as soon as possible, and then avenge the death of our people!"

King Vegeta's mouth raised as if he saw his son. With a sneer, he seemed to have seen his son Vegeta grow up and avenge the people of Vegeta.

Hearing King Vegeta's vicious curse before dying, Paviz sneered disdainfully. Suddenly, King Vegeta, with his Great Ape Stage rushed over. His body swelled up greatly, making Paviz alarmed. Paviz's face suddenly changed, and he hurriedly took off towards a safe place.

"This is not good!"

RUMBLE!

The huge ball of fire rose and washed away the haze that covered the sky as King Vegeta responded to the arrival of death with the most powerful self-destruction.

"Hurry up and leave; this area is not even safe."

There was a shocking explosion from behind, making Paviz heart anxious. He made his best effort to accelerate away, but the horrible energy behind him soon caught up and engulfed Paviz at once.

The smoke cleared.

Paviz was floating in the air in a mess. His body was covered with skin and flesh, and the previous gracefulness had long since disappeared.

"Damn King Vegeta. Even in death, you make so much drama."

Paviz's face was gloomy as if his dark cheeks were able to drip ink.

.....

"KING!"

Bazda killed an alien and watched sadly as King Vegeta blew himself up.

"King Vegeta blew himself up..."

"TO AVENGE OUR KING!!!"

King Vegeta's death stimulated all the Saiyan Warriors who were still fighting. Their eyes were red, and they fought even more furiously, charging forward even though their bodies were covered with wounds.

Some Saiyans who really had no strength left followed King Vegeta's example and opened their arms to blow themselves up.

BOOM!

BOOM BOOM!

Huge fireballs continue to rise, churning the atmosphere. Along with the Great Ape Saiyan began to self-destruct, Planet Vegeta had become completely unrecognizable.

“.....”

Cooler narrowed his bloodshot eyes, indifferently looking at a Saiyan who went to his death.

“What a respectable Saiyan Warrior. It’s a pity that I can’t use them. Enemies are enemies, after all.”

Shaking his head, Cooler arrogantly tilted his head. His body slowly ascended, quickly exceeding the atmosphere and entering the deep outer space.

“All members of the legion, come back!”

Cooler’s cold voice reached the ears of every member of Cooler’s Legion through the contact device. Upon receiving Cooler’s command, all aliens immediately gave up their continued battle with the Saiyans, broke away from the battlefield in the air, and returned to outer space.

“What the hell are those alines up to? Why did they suddenly leave?”

“Could it be that the battle is already battle over?”

“My heart has an ominous feeling.”

Not many Saiyans survived the bloodbath, and they gathered together, wondering why all those aliens suddenly left.

More than ten seconds passed.

When the dense human figures gradually converged to outer space, Cooler looked at Planet Vegeta, shining everywhere. He gently stretched out his finger, and a peanut-sized dot of light shone a few times at the tip of his finger. It then turned into a huge ball of energy with a diameter of thousands of meters.

This giant ball of energy was called “Supernova”. It was more terrifying than the “Death Ball” —As long as it stoke. The whole Planet Vegeta would instantly turn into dust in the universe.

“Vegeta, goodbye. Just disappear into space!”

“SUPERNOVA!!!”

With a soft shout, Cooler’s eyes flashed with bloodthirsty madness. His fingers slightly curved, and the large ball of energy shining with electric power fell in the direction of Planet Vegeta.

Chapter 310

“Not good!”

“That huge ball of energy...”

In the open space of Planet Vegeta, Bardock temporarily recovered his strength under Asike’s care.

When he saw the sun-like energy ball descending from the sky, Bardock’s eyes snapped shut, and his sight quickly swept the place where it was going to land.

“I can’t let it fall, or Planet Vegeta will really be finished.”

Bardock sensed the energy contained in that massive ball of energy. If he let it land on Planet Vegeta, Planet Vegeta would disintegrate instantly.

POP!

With force to smash a hole in the ground, Bardock gritted his teeth hard, quickly pulled out Senzu Bean from his pocket and ate it, then defiantly rushed up.

“BARDOCK!”

Asike saw his son rushing towards the ball of energy, shouted anxiously, and also rushed forward.

Around the huge Supernova destruction, the atmosphere was already boiling with blazing energy.

Located directly below the destruction bomb, the ground trembled violently, and fine stones floated restlessly.

A silhouette flashed, Bardock’s sturdy body blocked in front of the giant energy bomb. His hands gathered to condense chakra waves, and soon the blue-coloured energy shone up in his hands.

“FULL POWER ENERGY WAVE!!!”

Both of his hands pushed forward, and heavenly ki swept out. Bardock did not have any reservations and released all of his energy.

The blue-coloured pillar of energy light was seen like a giant dragon that soared; it roared and hissed towards the Supernova...

BOOM!

The two energies collided, but in front of Cooler’s kilometre-diameter Supernova, Bardock’s energy pillar was like the light of a firefly, which could not make much of a ripple.

Zizi Zizi!

The veins on Bardock’s arms were popping out, and he was trying his best to block the downward rush of the energy ball.

However, Bardock’s energy was no match for Cooler’s. The huge gap was like a rift in the sky as if his body was pressed downward, and his battle suit turned to ashes under the energy burn.

“I HAVE TO BLOCK IT!!!” Bardock roared.

At that moment, Asike came behind Bardock and held his body against Bardock to keep him from being collapsed by the huge energy.

“It’s enough to make it this far. “

“Maybe Planet Vegeta really can not escape the end of destruction.”

Asike said some vicissitudes. He had wandered in the universe for decades and saw many planets destroyed. However, when it was the turn of his home planet, his heart had an indescribable feeling.

“AHHHHHHHHH!!!”

Bardock roared in anger. The energy was outputting desperately, but inside he felt a hint of extreme pallor and powerlessness.

“You guys have done a good job...”

Just when Bardock and Asike were about to hold on, an upright body appeared in front of them.

It was a buxom, handsome, dark-haired man with starry eyes and an aura of harmony with nature emanating from his body.

There was also a charming woman with an elegant temperament on the side of the man, with a stunning beauty that even the starlight eclipsed.

“Teacher Mu, you’re finally here... and this is?”

Bardock had never seen Melissa, but as long as the teacher Mu came, all the problems could be solved.

“Bardock, leave it to me next!”

With a cold face and a faint smile, MUYANG waved his palm, and a huge opening suddenly appeared.

As soon as this opening appeared, it immediately seemed like a giant beast opened its mouth.

The huge attraction absorbed the huge ball of energy in front of him into the Acceleration World to become the world’s nutrients.

While doing so, MUYANG pointed towards Bardock and Asike and sent them to Planet Wudao.

Because there was a huge strength gap between the two sides, it was still relatively easy for MUYANG to send them to Planet Wudao.

.....

“Planet Vegeta is going to be destroyed.”

The ending was decided; Cooler’s face emerged with a happy expression, then turned around and was about to fly towards his spaceship.

However, before he could fly far away, the energy bomb that landed on Planet Vegeta suddenly changed.

“Your Majesty, that ball of energy is starting to get smaller.” Paviz reminded in a small voice.

“What?”

Cooler frowned and looked back, and found that the Supernova he had projected was shrinking and then gradually disappearing as if it was being absorbed by something, while the riddled Planet Vegeta was actually staying there peacefully.

“Huh, it’s quite interesting!”

With a chant on his lips, Cooler was slightly interested.

“This is not good!”

Just then, a danger signal came. Cooler thoughts just passed when violent and rampant ki impacted over with a stream of light.

Just as the stream stopped, the terrifying attack landed on Cooler's body. In an instant, Cooler's body bounced off like a cannonball.

"KING COOLER!"

Paviz froze and immediately shouted with his heart trembling. In the blink of an eye, even King Cooler was sent flying; the person coming must be a terrifyingly strong enemy.

Suddenly, a woman with beautiful eyes appeared in front of Paviz.

"GO DIE!!!"

There was a cold, unemotional bellow.

Paviz's pupils shrank to the size of a needle's eye. Before he could react, the raging energy swept across the sky.

The energy came so violently, so swift, so fast that Paviz did not even have the opportunity to scream and was crushed into powder by the piece of energy.

.....

The other side.

BOOM!

A heavy punch chased after Cooler!

With a bang and a mouthful of blood spurting out of his mouth, Cooler's body suffered a heavy blow.

Landing in front of him was a black-haired man.

"Who are you?"

Cooler maintained a defensive posture, only to find out that the one who attacked him was a man and looked exactly like a Saiyan.

Could the other party be a Super Saiyan?

Impossible; the Super Saiyan should only be a boring hero story; how could it really exist? Cooler's face was cloudy; his face was horrified as he looked at the man attacking him.

However, Muiyang did not pay any attention to Cooler's question; instead, he chased after Cooler and landed his attack on his chest with no expression.

BANG!

The body bent violently.

Cooler's expression stiffened for a moment as if he hadn't expected his opponent's attack to be so decisive and ruthless.

“Good, there is still such a powerful expert hidden among the Saiyans. It seems that this king’s decision to destroy the Saiyans was not wrong.” Cooler took a few steps back, ironically; his face as cold as frost.

“Melissa...”

Muyang called out towards his female companion, and a beautiful woman appeared beside Muyang.

“I’m coming.”

Melissa was in her Golden Eyes Transformation state, and a fierce light flashed from her pupils. Then together with Muyang, they attacked Cooler from left and right.

Faced with two suspected “Super Saiyan” attack, Cooler was silent a few moments. He knew that he met a strong enemy, and his normal state was no match for the opponent.

Cooler was much more decisive than Frieza. Knowing that he was losing, he directly threw a large number of energy balls in his palm.

These energy balls floated in front of him in a starry and dense manner to form a visual barrier. After a short time, Cooler began to release his Final Form.

Cooler in the usual state remained similar to Frieza’s Final Form. His body was covered with purple skin, only his chest, shoulders, and head covered with white sandstone. His strength was stronger than Frieza’s Final Form, reaching 150 million power levels.

“If you want to defeat me with this kind of power, you’re making a big mistake.”

Cooler had one more transformation ability than Frieza, and this was a true transformation, showing that Cooler’s power level could be raised to a staggering 470 million in his Final Form!

PENG! PENG! PENG!

There was no sound in the calm cosmic void, but there was a feeling of a heart-stopping vibration.

“AH!!!”

Cooler crossed his hands and clenched his fists against his chest, and let out a roar of pain. Cooler’s appearance was changing as the muscles on his body kept moving.

After only about a second or two, Cooler unleashed his Final Form.

The white armour on Cooler’s shoulders was raised a bit, and four white horns grew on top of his head. His purple skin remained unchanged, but a sharp-edged spear appeared at his tail.

After transforming into his Final Form, Cooler’s energy grew several times at once, and his power level reached an appalling 470 million.

“HAHA, I FINALLY UNLEASHED THIS ULTIMATE POWER OF MINE.”

Cooler stood in the middle of the entire void, revelling in her great power, then looked disdainfully at Muyang and Melissa on the opposite side.

“Although I don’t know if you are Super Saiyans, to be able to force me to use my Final Form, you should be proud of yourselves.”

Feeling the dark and cold energy around her, Melissa's heart chilled a little, and she frowned coldly.

"Muyang, Cooler's power seems really strong; I don't like this dark feeling," Melissa whispered a voice transmission.

"Cooler is powerful, but it's only 470 million power levels. We have enough to deal with him when we join forces."

Muyang stared at Cooler without squinting, but in his heart, he was eager to test the results of his training in the God of Destruction Planet.

"Since we ran into each other, let's send him to hell to be reunited with his brother."
