

Ball God 481

Chapter 481

Such days had been maintained until Bulma and Chi-Chi pregnant. Yes, three months later, Bulma and Chi-Chi were pregnant at the same time, which was a happy news for Ox-King and Dr. Brief family, even Gine, who had specifically staying in God Mu Central Planet came back.

"Bulma you don't move around, the research can be put aside, don't hurt the baby."

When Bulma's sister Tights saw Bulma disassembling in front of a piece of equipment with a screwdriver even after she was pregnant, she quickly grabbed the screwdriver from her hand.

Bulma wiped her sweat and said, "I'm just pregnant now, I'm not that delicate."

Tights shook her head and said, "It's this time of year that makes it all the more important to take good care of it."

Although Tights herself had not been married nor pregnant experience, she grew up writing novels, she still generally knew a bit of pregnant women's taboos.

Bulma could not argue with her, so she sat down to rest, "Why are you more anxious than me about this kind of thing?"

Tights said, "Of course, the child in your belly is my future nephew or niece, but Goku's speed is quite fast, he let you and Chi-Chi pregnant at the same time. By the way, have you thought of a name for the child yet?"

"Teacher Son Gohan said if it's a boy it will be called Son Goten, and a girl will be called 'Son Hongye'." Pulling down the lavender hair, Bulma was full of happy smile.

Tights listened and shook her head: "Not at all characteristic of our family naming, and not well prepared, what if you and KChi-Chi's children are both boys or girls?"

Bulma was stunned for a moment, as if considering the question: "Then prepare a few more names, what do you think of the name 'SSon Bulla?'"

"Very good. If they are all boys, you can add the name 'Trunks', the style is the same as our family."

"I'll discuss it with Goku when he comes back." Bulma said with great satisfaction.

On the other hand, while Bulma was preparing a name for her future child, Muiyang was preparing for a brand new breakthrough in the Acceleration World, and was staying for most of the year.

In the depths of the Acceleration World, a perfect body lay flat in the universe, with a faint glow emanating from its body.

Time passed slowly, not knowing how long had passed.

Finally, one day a loud and clear low roar sounded throughout the Acceleration World, violent ripples made the entire void shake violently, the central of Planet Wudao swayed in the sea of ?? energy with the fluctuation of energy.

As a result of a period of time in the early days, Muyang had already combined the "Unfettered Instinct" and "Extreme Instinct" to fuse the power of the realm into his physical body, making it possible for Muyang's strength to be comprehensively enhanced after eliminating the state division. This change directly broke a certain boundary in Muyang's body.

Faintly, he seemed to feel that his body was undergoing a radical change inside.

The difference between the Level 6 Dimension and Level 7 Dimension substratum was a completely different concept, one being the God of the region and the other being the Great God of the universe.

When the body's subdivision reached the Level 7 Dimension, it was a huge leap, out of thin air it was already able to communicate the changes of the universe and get feedback from the energy of the universe rules, thus generating a special ability.

Muyang's substratum at this time was still a foot short of the Level 7 Dimension, but this foot was already very close.

"While the realms are perfectly fused, I can break the sixth limit of my body."

Muyang smiled soothingly, then transiently changed areas and appeared in the sky above the Central Planet Wudao. With a slight movement of his mind, Muyang's power covered the entire Planet Wudao, and this time he felt that the breakthrough of his body's limit was not focused on the Planet Wudao, but rather, like before, he needed to reopen the world.

In fact, at this level, the limitation of the shackle power was no longer the potential, but the perception of the self, or the understanding and communication of the universe.

And precisely thanks to the existence of the Acceleration World, as well as the previous wish to the Super Shenron to obtain the ability to communicate with other worlds, largely paved the way for Muyang to advance to the Level 7 Dimension.

"Let's transfer the Planet Wudao out first."

With this thought in his mind, Muyang sent a voice to Gaia to tell it not to panic, then with a push, the energy of space-time directly wrapped around Planet Wudao and transferred it to a quiet starspace outside the Universe 7.

After doing all this, Muyang stretched his body, ready to change this world.

As the energy in the void continued to ebb and flow, Muyang took a deep breath and exhaled slowly, a brilliant light suddenly flashed in his radiant eyes, and then the energy in his body began to boil up.

The energy that combined the power of the realm and the power of the flesh was concentrated into a silver drop, the thick energy converged little by little, the unique power of the Acceleration World to communicate with the world also acted together, this moment like a clearing of the fog, a glimpse of the supreme truth of the universe, Muyang had an indescribable taste, warm, extraordinarily comfortable.

"Begin!!!"

With a shout, the whole Acceleration World boiled up.

Ha, boom boom boom!!!

A big thunderbolt as tragic as the opening of the sky was generated from the void, followed by brutal and rampant energy that swept a large area of the void at once, and endless matter was dispersed. At this time Muiyang pulled up his fist, silver-white corona in the tip of the fist convergence, then both fists opened fiercely, beyond all the power of the world's destructive power spread out, the void was suddenly like cloth and silk was constantly shredded, chaos-like energy surged up madly.

Clap clap clap ~ the tide of energy in the shattering of space at the same time repair space, accelerate the spatial range of space at once from the original twenty million kilometers spread to fifty million kilometers.

When the space was about to take shape, a trace of the universe's will penetrated in and combined with the Acceleration World intact, and a thin boundary membrane was formed in the outer layer of the new space, and the whole space was stabilized.

In the central location, a brand new planet appeared.

With a slight movement of his mind, Planet Wudao that he had transferred to the Universe 7 returned to the Acceleration World and quickly merged with the brand new planet in the center.

With a click, Muiyang's substratum also broke through, and at this moment Muiyang's vision seemed to escape from the accelerated world and entered a huge blue-colored space.

The entire universe and even the vast space beyond the entire universe was in full view, and that power to communicate with the world was enhanced.

Level 7 Dimension, equal to Supreme Kai Apprentice and God of Destruction Candidate.

Muiyang felt that his power level was soaring again, it seemed to have gone beyond power level, it was a very subtle feeling.

After quieting down, Muiyang began to check his condition, his body energy had been replaced by a drop of silver liquid, becoming more compact and solid, and his every move carried a great power.

Huffing and puffing, when Muiyang's arm spread, silver breath stirred out from his body, emitting infinite might.

"This feeling, is the ability of a cosmic Universe Level God!"

Although Muiyang did not get the feedback of the cosmic rules to give birth to the ability similar to that of a Supreme Kai Apprentice, but after all, it was the substratum that was elevated, and the benefit was gained as well, only this benefit was reflected in the ability to communicate with other worlds.

Previously before the breakthrough, Muiyang's power level barely reached the level of Majin Buu, now a breakthrough, and it was a big level of breakthrough, so that he had a kind of skyrocketing feeling, the strength was far more than the level of Majin Buu or Son Goku that type of Super Saiyan 3.

"According to the power, Muiyang is equivalent to the Super Saiyan God?" Muiyang smiled smilingly, himself felt incredible.

From today onwards, he was considered a cosmic-level god.

There were not many of this kind of strength, even in the Universe 7.

"Grumble grumble." Gaia very enjoyably jumped on top of the brand new Planet Wudao, and after seeing Muiyang, she flew over very happily, her soft if frozen body jumped onto Muiyang's shoulder, Muiyang teased Gaia for a while, then after letting it take care of Planet Wudao, she went out of the Acceleration World.

In Great Azure Mountain, when Muiyang came back, he realized that he had been in Acceleration World for a long time, and it had been a year since.

The two children of Son Goku had been born, Chi-Chi gave birth to a daughter to Son Goku, named "Son Hongye", Bulma gave birth to a son, named "Son Goten".

"Chi-Chi gave birth to Goku's daughter?" Muiyang looked very surprised after hearing it.

"It is indeed a daughter, as cute as Amelia."

Melia said with certainty.

Muiyang was surprised. It was "Son Gohan" in the original, so Son Goku and Chi-Chi's first child should be a boy, even if the name was not Son Gohan, it should be a boy!

How could it be a girl!

The original nerd "Son Gohan" was no longer?

In contrast, Bulma gave birth to a lavender-haired Saiyan hybrid to Son Goku, which was not much of a surprise.

Chapter 482

Understanding the situation of Son Goku family, Muiyang heart was really full of slots, not knowing how to spit out.

Chi-Chi actually gave birth to a daughter, "Son Gohan" actually didn't appear. It could be that the good knowledge to change the fate of it, completely invisible.

Muiyang's heart spat, but this was good, there was one Saiyan who was less "dragged" by knowledge. Perhaps in this world, there would be a different female warrior, of course, provided that Chi-Chi would not impose more restrictions on her.

From the current situation, it seemed that Chi-Chi was still very reasonable, the reason why the original Chi-Chi turned into a yellow-faced woman after the marriage, were the money problems.

Because Son Goku only knew how to practice martial arts, he did not work, plus the Saiyan's special ability to eat, the pressure of life was all on Chi-Chi's body. Muiyang also raised Saiyan, he knew how much pressure in this area, the original Chi-Chi could maintain the entire family's expenses, and the ability to send Son Gohan and Son Goten to school, had been very rare.

On a related note, the original on Son Goku as a husband was very unqualified.

Now Son Goku family was so well-off. They lived without pressure, and with the change in the external environment, the training of the next generation was much more liberalized.

"Let's go together to see Son Goku and his children."

For Son Goku's children, Son Goten and Son Hongye, Muiyang was concerned, wondering if they would be like mixed-race children like Muqiu and Amelia, who were endowed with extraordinary talents.

"Then let's go together."

Melia and Melis smiled lightly, got up and put on their coats, then they headed to Mount Paozu with Muiyang. In fact, there was only a mountain range between Mount Paozu and Great Azure Mountain, and they belonged to the same primitive mountain range, so basically it didn't take much time for Muiyang and the others to arrive at Son Goku's house.

They just walked into the courtyard, and found a huge Gravity Chamber erected in the courtyard, the engine of the machine was running, and Son Goku and Chi-Chi were both practicing in the Gravity Chamber.

Next to the long table, Bulma alone swooped on the table above painting a stroke of a design drawings, the two children were lying on top of the crib asleep. The crib was swaying slightly, but of course the crib was not equipped with an automatic swaying device. Look at the side, Piccolo was sitting next to it with his hands in his arms, and one foot was constantly pushing.

"Piccolo actually have the patience to take care of small children here."

Muiyang was a little surprised. It could be said that Piccolo was a mortal enemy with Son Goku. After the birth of Son Hongye and Son Goten, he actually taking the initiative to help take care of them.

Piccolo said with a displeased face, "You think I want to? Son Goku, the guy promised after I wait for him to train and he would compete with me, this time, I must beat him."

"That's no reason for you to help him take care of the kids."

"Damn it, I don't know why it turned out like this." Piccolo was very annoyed, he clearly came to challenge Son Goku on Mount Paozu, even he himself did not know why it has become this way. Son Goku, in order to practice, actually directly threw the child to him.

"The matter of taking care of the child can sharpen your heart." Muiyang held back a laugh and said seriously.

"....."

Piccolo looked at Muiyang with a blue face, but he who had some contact with Birgil knew that the strength of the man in front of him was among the top in the entire universe, and his words should have some truth.

Could this really sharpen his mind?

Indeed, he felt that his practice had really improved a lot during this period of time.

At this time, Muiyang walked to the side of the crib and saw two babies lying inside left and right, one with black hair and the other with light lavender hair – the same color as Bulma's hair. This black hair was Chi-Chi's Son Hongye, lavender hair was Bulma's Son Goten.

As expected of the Bulma family's bloodline, the genetic strength wasn't overshadowed by the Saiyans.

"What are you designing?" After joking with Piccolo, Muiyang and the girls walked over to Bulma. The symbols on the drawing were very complicated, and Muiyang felt dizzy after looking at it for a while.

"Uncle Muiyang, what brings you guys here?" Bulma had been burying her head in the drawing, her mind was all on the drawing, she didn't find them until Muiyang asked them, and her face couldn't help but show a smile.

April looked at the drawings carefully for a while and said, "This is the design of the gravity device, which uses a lot of technology from the outer planets."

Bulma lightly pull her hair. Her lavender hair tilted behind the ears, "Yes, Goku and Chi-Chi's strength is getting stronger and stronger, the basic Gravity Chamber is about to keep up, so I want to design a more advanced Gravity Chamber for them."

"You are quite considerate of them."

April smiled lightly, Bulma was her niece, and seeing them living so harmoniously as a couple, April was also happy for them.

"There are still many challenges facing Earth in the future, it's good to improve your strength early." Muiyang said affirmatively.

Although as long as there was Muiyang on Earth, basically there would not be any big danger, but Muiyang also has his own practice, it was impossible to keep watch on Earth all the time, so Earth still needed to have its own strong people.

In fact, after breaking through the sixth limit and raising the dimension to the level 7, Muiyang had some kind of prediction for the future, there would be a lot of things to happen on Earth in the future.

Level 7 Dimension was said to be very strong, but it had weakness, he wasn't in the top level of the universe. In the eyes of the God of Destruction Beerus and Whis, he could be defeated in a few moves. Muiyang intended to go to the Destruction God Planet after some time to practice for a while, to solidify the power brought by the Level 7 Dimension.

"By the way, in addition to Chi-Chi and Bulma, Launch is also pregnant. In a few months her child will also be born." Back home, April eyebrows smiling about Broly and Launch.

The moment he heard that Launch was also pregnant, Muiyang was immediately concerned, this could be considered his family!

"Where are Launch and Broly now?"

Melia said, "They are still wandering around in the universe, but with Broly's strength, there should be no danger."

Muiyang nodded, that was true, but Launch's martial art was not comparable to Broly.

For their safety, he was not worried at all. Although Broly did not have Super Saiyan Transformation like Bardock, who after all was the Legendary Super Saiyan. During the training with Melissa, he had long mastered the Golden Eyes transformation, and could transform into the third level equivalent to the ordinary Super Saiyan full power state, the strength was extraordinary.

However, Launch was pregnant, even if there were still a few months from the birth of time, they could no longer let them wander around outside.

After thinking about it, Muiyang decided to recall Broly and Launch to Earth to nurse the baby at ease.

"Broly, this child sometimes only listen to Launch, this is not good, in case something happens it is easy to hurt the child, it is better to let them come back."

"Then ask them to come back." Melis said with a smile.

"I'll go and contact them."

At this time, April got up and walked towards her laboratory, which had special communication equipment for external contact, and could command the God Mu Central Star and the outside world remotely.

Soon April reemerged from the lab, smiled lightly and nodded towards Muiyang, "I have already passed the word to Broly and Launch, they will return immediately."

"Well, that's good."

Muiyang hmed, then explained that he intended to go to the God of Destruction Planet to train for a period of time, Melia, Melis and April understood Muiyang's strength and also felt that only the God of Destruction Planet could give him a continued boost.

Chapter 483

The southeastern part of the North Area.

In the huge control room, Launch sat with a big belly very dashingly on the second floor of the ship's captain's position. This control room was very large, divided into two levels, Launch sat on the upper level, and could see clearly the situation below.

At this time, Launch was wearing a bright red cosmic bandit uniform, with a black trench coat jacket, black trimmed with gold wire, and a black warp cap tattooed with a skull-like symbol on her head, and her entire body was staring spiritedly at the wide blue screen in front of her.

"Little ones, this time we do a big job. In the southeast of the North Area, there is uncultivated virgin land, there are no law enforcement teams from God Mu Force, and there are no legions from King Cold's forces, so we can do a big job!"

"Roar, long live Captain Launch."

"Burn it all, rob it all!!!"

Countless minions shouted and cried in excitement, since they followed Boss Launch, their days were getting more and more promising, as long as they had some more time, manning a continent was not a problem.

It was a pity that the law enforcement force on the side of God Mu Force was so powerful that even Boss Launch had to avoid it.

Launch happily looked at her little brothers cheering to their heart's content, this was the life she wanted. Before in the earth, in the Lookout when she was too tightly controlled, only after she came out did she realize that the life outside was really beautiful! Launch began to really let herself go.

"Broly, I want to eat grapes." Launch said demurely to Broly beside her.

Broly sat by Launch's side as if he was a guard, peeled a grape for her and sent it to her mouth, Launch bit to eat, her pretty face was full of happiness.

"Tick tock" A series of electronic sounds rang out, a secretary dressed as a green-skinned girl came over, holding a communicator in her hand.

"Young Master Broly, it's a contact signal from God Mu Force."

This young girl named Cheelai, because she was wanted for stealing a ship of the Galactic Patrol organization in the early years, she later joined the God Mu Force, under the guarantee of the senior Lemo officer before the wanted was withdrawn, and was arranged by Lemo to follow Broly when Launch and Broly formed the group.

She was the only person in this group of cosmic pirates who knew the identity of Broly and Launch.

"Give me the communicator." Broly took the communicator from Cheelai's hand.

The Blonde Ranchi said carelessly, "It must be another notification of where we have a new trade group. Let's not go over there and loot."

Broly hung up the communicator and said to Cheelai, "It's not a communication from God Mu Central Planet."

"Then where is it?"

"Mama April told us to hurry back, she said if you don't behave, she will come to pick us up herself." Broly said sincerely to Launch.

Cheelai was dumbfounded for a moment after hearing this, "I've only been out for a year or so, and she wants me to go back?"

"Well, because you are pregnant, the family asked you to go back to get well."

"I" Launch was instantly deflated, but remembering the child in her belly, Launch had a difficult time and simply withdrew her consciousness and turned her hair into blue hair.

"Broly, then let's hurry back." Blue-haired state of Launch particularly gentle, touching her belly with a happy face.

"Then here?" Broly pointed to the excited minions below, this was if they leave, they would be disappointed.

At this time, the green-skinned girl Cheelai next to him said, "Young Master Broly, leave them to me, I will avoid those powerful forces based on the information provided by God Mu Force, and specifically pick safe channels of commerce to strike."

"Yes, yes, I'll leave it to you."

The Blue-haired Launch had long wanted to return to Earth, and seeing that Cheelai was willing to accept this, she immediately smiled at her with a gentle face. Once Cheelai saw the gentle and considerate smile of the blue-haired Launch, her face could not help but blush, feeling the blood in her body speed up.

Watching they left, Cheelai mouth murmured, "Miss Launch is really longing. The blonde state was domineering, wild, full of kingly style, blue-haired state was so gentle. She's innocent really a perfect woman, I want to follow her around all the time. "

Cheelai state, as if looking at their infatuation.

Of course, Launch didn't know that she had a fan girl by her side, when she returned to Earth with Broly, of course, she couldn't help but be a scolding, and then under the watchful eye of Kanalita, she raised her baby at home in peace.

On the other hand, after several years of sailing, King Hilch, who received a request for help from King Cold, finally came from other galaxies across countless star fields.

On the same day, King Cold hosted a banquet in the palace to welcome King Hilch and his son, Hore.

King Hilch and Hore came from different branches of King Cold, with the most obvious features being that King Cold's line, including Cooler and Frieza, had blood-red pupils and purple leather on both shoulders and the top of their heads, while King Hilch's line had purple pupils and bright red armor leather.

"Cold, your power has shrunk a lot, when you came over back then, this North Area was your family's world."

King Hilch narrowed his deep purple eyes and spoke in an eerie manner.

King Cold maintained a smile, "This is because a new type of power has appeared in the North Area. My poor son Frieza and Cooler were both killed, and the culprit is most likely the Super Saiyan."

"Super Saiyans?" King Hilch shook his wine glass.

At this time King Hilch's son, Hore, sneered and said, "Just how powerful is that Super Saiyan that he actually made King Cold ask my father for help."

"Hore, Cold is not asking for help, he is calling for assistance." King Hilch emphasized.

King Cold held down the anger in his heart, "Nephew Hore, you are about the same age as Frieza, so you don't understand the situation, let me tell you properly."

"That year is also my mistake, I underestimated those Saiyans. Planet Vegeta Saiyans can be described as weak, the most peak is only a few 20,000 to 30,000 power level, how will be put in my eyes! So they were assigned to the jurisdiction of Frieza, but no one expected that Frieza and Cold actually died because of that Death Beam."

"Twenty to thirty thousand power level is really not worth mentioning, and I wouldn't pay attention to it if it were me." King Hilch nodded his head.

"Who says it is not, but in recent years, since the emergence of the God Mu Forces, another blond Super Saiyan actually emerged! Even I can only stand aside, you can see that only a few years of work, my power has shrunk by half."

King Hilch thought for a moment and said, "You asked us to come here to help deal with the Super Saiyan?"

"That's right."

King Cold was really worried that after a few more years, even if they joined forces, they would not be a match for that Super Saiyan.

"Hey, I'm also interested in the Super Saiyan." King Hilch drank his drink in one go, and his bright red leather armor shone in brilliant colors under the light.

"King Cold, I also want to see that so-called Super Saiyan!"

Hore laughed.

King Cold's eyes flashed a cold light, for this young nephew, King Cold didn't have much good feeling, although the other party's petite appearance looked very much like Frieza.

"Nephew Hore, according to the news from my men, the Saiyan Prince Vegeta and his men are now in the southeast direction of the North Area, that Vegeta has extraordinary talent, I'm afraid he will become the next super Saiyan!"

When Hore heard the words, he immediately interested, "Oh, then I have to go over to see."

"That Saiyan named Vegeta, I hope he will not to let me down."

Chapter 484

"Nephew Hore, if you want to find that Vegeta, I can let my men help you look for it, in addition there is another Saiyan in the direction of the eastern side of the North Area near the south, you can take him to practice."

King Cold raised his glass and drank it all in one go.

Hore's eyes lit up, "There are other Saiyans?"

"Yes, a Saiyan warrior named Turles, although it is an Low-Class Warrior, according to the intelligence, the strength is also quite good." To be able to be called a good by King Cold, that must be more powerful than the average cosmonaut.

Hore looked at his father, King Hilch, and saw that the other side was indifferently drinking wine, as if indifferent, so he nodded in agreement, and King Cold laughed out loud, then ordered his men to bring the information of Vegeta and Turles over.

As soon a cosmonaut came over carefully with a stack of documents, Hore picked it up and casually flipped through a few pages, with a disdainful face, "It's just little people with more than 100,000 power level, I'll be able to crush them to death with my hands. Hey, father, then I'll go after those little ants first."

King Hilch smiled blandly, "Son, if you want to play then go ahead, Saiyans as a race, it is imperative to cut off the roots."

Hore's purple eyes flashed sinister, "This is natural."

Immediately Hore' led his squad left the palace of King Cold. Only King Cold and King Hilch were left in the large and splendid palace to sit and drink together, and that atmosphere did not look how cordial.

"Now tell me about that super Saiyan of the God Mu Force." After a moment of silence, King Hilch took the initiative to bring it up.

King Cold nodded, "That Super Saiyan's name is Bardock, one of the main commanders of the God Mu Forces with power level at least 400 million, and behind him, there seems to be even more powerful characters."

King Hilch listened carefully, tapping his fingers on the armrest, not knowing what he was thinking about.

King Kludd was also observing King Hilch's expression.

For King Cold, King Hilch and his son came over, both as a helper and a competitor. Their clan never had real kinship, even father and son would meet each other because of the dispute over territory and power, and when they cleaned up the God Mu Forces, the next thing was the fight between them, so King Cold guarded King Hilch from the beginning.

But now they did not know that there was one thing they were not wrong in thinking, there was indeed someone behind Bardock, and more than one, the only deviation was that the the person behind Bardock was countless times more powerful than they had imagined.

While King Cold and others were ambitiously preparing to unify the North Area, Muyang and the others came to the God of Destruction Planet once again.

This time, only a year or so had passed since they last left.

Whis didn't expect that Muyang and the others would come over so quickly. When the shadow flashed and appeared in front of Muyang, Whis gave a light eek, and his unperturbed face revealed a few moments of surprise.

"Your life level reached the Level 7 Dimension so quickly, Muyang your breakthrough speed is beyond my expectation." Whis said in a gentle tone.

Muyang laughed, "This is because the Acceleration World has the ability to break the limit, if I were to break the limit by myself, I don't know how many years I would be stuck."

"Your Acceleration World is something that is beyond the limits of the universe, the future is limitless."

Whis nodded emotionally, without the Acceleration World, Muyang would not have achieved what he had now.

There were so many gods in the universe who were stuck in the sixth level, not that they didn't want to break through, but the gap between the sixth level and the seventh level seemed to be only one, but it was like a gulf, that was the difference between the universe level and the regional level, this barrier was like a sieve that eliminated the majority of strong people.

The number of galaxies in the Universe 7 was similar to the number of gods such as Grand Kai, statistically a very frightening number, but how many Supreme Kai Apprentice had reached the Level 7 Dimension. To put it politely, so far there were only two of them, Kibito and Muyang.

But all kinds of things in the world, one drink, one peck, this was the opportunity of Muyang that made others jealous.

"At this point, it's time to tell you about the realm of the gods." Whis said after thinking about it.

The realm of god?

Muyang's eyes lit up when he heard it, and his face looked at Whis with seriousness. At this time, Melia, Melis and April also listened curiously.

"Whis, tell me about it."

"Hmm."

Whis gently nodded his head, the divine staff in his hand lightly danced in his hand, "In the past, what we call the Dimension, from Level 1 Dimension to Level 10 Dimension, respectively representing the God Level of the entire Multiverse, . The level of the Dimension represents the authority held by the god, this statement is actually a bit problematic."

"Level 1 Dimension to Level 6 Dimension, because it is limited to the small Galaxy, so you can control the authority according to the Dimension Level. In fact, you should see that Dimension's Level is not representative strength."."

"Many strong people in the galaxy, but even Grand Kai, their power is not very strong. Many practitioners who have practiced in the Other-World for a while can surpass Grand Kai."

Muyang nodded his head, he had understood such a situation.

Level 1 Dimension to Level 6 Dimension represent six levels of Mortal, Immortal, Kami, King Yemma, Kai, Grand Kai.

But these gods didn't have much actual power level, except for their long lifespan and rich experience. Others respect them mostly because of their lofty status. However, once they encounter people who did not care about their status, such as Vegeta, Bojack, Zangya and others, the god's status lost its deterrent effect.

Even if the status was as high as Grand Kai, there was nothing they could do about it.

"This situation started with Level 7 Dimension and it started to change. The Universe Level's God can't just consider Dimension, and it has the strength to match it."

"For example, Level 7 Dimension's God of Destruction Candidate and Supreme Kai Apprentice are not inferior in their own strength; Level 8 Dimension's God of Destruction and Supreme Kai, not to mention at least have the strength to match Majin."

"Of course, Supreme Kai of our universe has to be counted separately, he was only a god who had just entered the threshold of the Supreme Kai Apprentice before, and only hurriedly succeeded to the throne because of the death of the then Supreme Kai."

Speaking of Supreme Kai of Universe 7, Whis intentionally or unintentionally specifically stated it.

Before Supreme Kai Shin, both the Grand Supreme Kai (Supreme Kai) and the South Supreme Kai (Supreme Kai Apprentice) had the strength to match the Super Saiyan 3 Level. If they were not Maji Buu's ability, they would not be swallowed up. Drop it. Until then, the Supreme Kai of Universe 7 was not strong, and even the trivial King of Demon Realm Dabura could not be suppressed.

After a pause, Whis continued to narrate.

"Formal Level 7 Dimension God, to have the strength to match, this point is really difficult to pick from the normal Level 6 God. So there is another way to promote Level 7 Dimension God in Multiverse. God, like Muiyang, generated from Mortal, is called 'Realm God'"

"That's the Dimension level, and secondly, as long as the strength and realm are almost there, the Universe Rules will automatically give the relative Dimension Level."

"This 'Realm God' has a corresponding 'God Realm'"

"Thai-God Level, 'True God Level', 'Angel Level' and 'Archangel Level!' respectively correspond to Level 7 Dimension, Level 8 Dimension, Level 9 Dimension, Level 10 Dimension."

"Of course, these are all divisions within the entire universe, after all, we focus on realms here. Outside the whole universe, there are also divisions of 'Power God' and 'Order God', but the general levels are more or less the same."

Chapter 485

The first time he knew such a secret, Muiyang was astonished.

Regardless of "Power God" and "Order God", Muiyang was more concerned with "Realm God" in Multiverse.

"Realm God" had four divine realms, analogous to the strength, he roughly estimated that "Half-God Level" corresponds to Super Saiyan God level, "True God Level" corresponds to God of Destruction Level, and the following "Angel Level" and "Archangel" Level is the Angel Level of the 12 Universe and the Grand Minister level of the upper level.

As for whether Zeno was the archangel level, Muiyang didn't know, it might have to exceed it.

Because the usual Galaxy Gods were difficult to produce high-level cosmic gods, so they were selected directly from mortals. However, if the strength was achieved, the Universe Rules would directly give Dimension Level, which was the process of ascending to the skies with a single leap.

Son Goku's Super Saiyan God was an example. Initially it was only Mortal, but because power and realm matched each other, it became Super Saiyan God of "Half-God Level". As for Super Saiyan Blue, it was because Son Goku and Vegeta were eager to breakthrough. However, the realm was pulled down, losing the essence of God and making a more awkward position.

Melia's eyes rolled, her gem-like eyes shining brightly.

"Then that means that if Melis and I can reach the boundary of the cosmic level in strength, we will also directly become God of Level 7?"

"Yes, this is the promotion path for God of Destruction. Of course, before this, you need to implement the corresponding realm in God of Destruction Planet training."

Whis nodded and said.

Generally speaking, Gods of Destruction came up by power, while Realm Gods were traditional deity promotions.

Receiving Whis' definite answer, Melia, Melis, and April all of a sudden got excited. It turned out that they also had the hope of becoming a great god of the universe. They were now at the level of the Majin Buu, in other words, one more step forward to become a "Half-God Level" in God Realm.

Although most people would be stuck at this step, they were confident that they could break through.

"Your hopes are high, so you have to work hard on your training."

A faint smile surfaced on Whis' face.

Having more God of Destruction Candidate had many advantages for the Universe 7, except that Lord Beerus might not be happy because there would be more people staring at his position as well.

"Then what are we waiting for. Let's hurry up and train." Shouting with laughter, Melia and Melis instantly fused into Melissa, then train with April aside.

Instantly, a storm rolled up in the sky of the God of Destruction Planet, and the violent energy impact stirred up the heaven and earth in chaos.

However, there was one thing that Whis did not explain, "the Legendary Super Saiyan" was an alien, did not seem to be suitable for the path of the realm. "The Legendary Super Saiyan" breakthrough, perhaps was more difficult to achieve in the Multiverse than the "Power God".

Whis was inciting his Divine Staff, limiting the movements of Melissa and April.

Whis went little towards Muiyang, transmitting the content that was not recorded in the martial crystal to Muiyang. Muiyang felt a burst of clarity in his brain, and a series of additional information suddenly appeared in his mind, all of which were Whis's perceptions about training.

"Ultra Instinct!"

Browsing to the first entry, Muiyang was blinded by the loud name.

Then a moment of consternation appeared on his face.

Whis smiled, "Ultra Instinct is an advanced use of 'Unfettered Instinct' and 'Extreme Instinct'. Even Lord-Berus can't master it completely. Muiyang, you have already implemented the two concepts, but try Learn 'Ultra Instinct' and I will train you."

With a serious face, Muiyang solemnly bowed to Whis.

"Thank you, please train me strictly."

Whis waved his hand, "Hehehe, this is natural, it is my duty to train strong people for Universe 7. In the future, Lord Beerus will be surprised to see your progress when he wakes up."

Muyang guffawed, he was afraid that God of Destruction Beerus would be furious.

"Then let's start training, you have to forget the ki sensing in battle. From the naked eye to observe the ki sensing is an improvement, but when facing higher levels, the ki sensing will also lose its effect. I have already told you this point a long time ago."

"In the training stage of the realm god, the first step is to empty your mind, detach from the original constraints, and sense the higher levels."

"Since your life level has already reached Level 7 Dimension, you should be able to comprehend these more easily than the average 'Half-God Level'."

Muyang listened carefully to Vis' words.

Perhaps because Muyang's realm was higher than before, these words of Whis were as deafening as thunder when he heard them again, but when he thought about it, it was like a fine, moist rain that moistened everything.

Gradually, Muyang's body emitted a burst of subtle ripples, then soon these ripples all converge into the body, the whole person as if returning to the basics, the whole body and mind to sublimation.

Time passes day by day.

Half a year later.

Muyang opened his eyes, and a mysterious light flashed in the eyes, the radiant eyes were incomparably deep, like a galaxy as vast and boundless.

Peng Peng Peng!

The silver droplets within the body spun up crazily, but soon quieted down again.

"This realm of following one's heart is completely different from before." Muyang fully felt the feeling of being filled with surging power, as the realm increased, the energy in Muyang's body did not increase, it only became more refined, but he had a feeling that he was more than a little bit and a half stronger than before again.

The Ultra Instinct was not that easy to comprehend, but even if he comprehended a little bit, it still made Muyang immensely useful.

Snapping, a sound of applause came from afar, raising his head to look, he saw the crimson figure of Whis floating in mid-air, his silver-gray hair fluttering in the wind.

"Congratulations, you have officially mastered the power that should be mastered by the sLevel 7 Dimension, the only thing lacking is actual combat." Whis' figure landed next to Muyang.

Muyang said, "Can you come to fight with me?"

"The difference between my level and yours is too great, you won't get the chance to exercise." Whis shook his head and was silent for a moment, "The Universe 7 is actually not ranked among all universes, there are too few strong people within the universe, trying to find one that is not on par with you is practically impossible."

"How about, you go to other universes to experience."

"Go to those fragment worlds and small worlds?" His Acceleration World was able to communicate with other worlds.

"No, those worlds are too weak, the largest is only the size of the galaxy, and cannot give birth to strong enough opponents. You have to choose a world of comparable size to the Universe 7 if you want to experience." Whis picked up the divine staff and looked down, "In the case of Multiverse, you used to be treated as an intruder, so these should be ruled out."

"Universe 6 is a very good place, the same size as the Universe 7, there are several strong people in it, in addition to the Universe 10 and 11, I have a good relationship with the angels there."

Whis probably was more pseudo-feminine himself, so he had a good relationship with some female angels, and they were younger looking.

"Then go to the Universe 6....," Muiyang said after a moment of contemplation.

Universe 10 was the universe managed by Kusu, and there were many experts that Muiyang was skeptical about, but as for Universe 11, it was a real expert. Toppo, Jiren, almost all of the Expert of the God of Destruction Level, a group of members that make up the "Pride Troopers", and several Half-God Levels, Muiyang alone, he was afraid that he would be beaten to the point of no residue.

The most suitable for him was Universe 6.

"Will Melitheia and April be able to come with me?" Those two women were still fighting on the other side of the God of Destruction Planet.

Whis shook his head, "No, if there are too many people God of Destruction Lord Champa won't allow."

"Alright then."

Muiyang gave up the idea of bringing Melissa along. Then Whis used the crystal ball to contact the Angel Vados of Universe 6.

Chapter 486

"Hello, is that Sister Vados?"

"Yes, what do you want, Whis?" The other end of the crystal ball was connected to Universe 6, and Vados' nice voice rang out.

At this time, Vados was sitting quietly on the grass of the Universe 6 Destruction God Planet.

Whis said with a slight smile, "Sister, I want to send someone to your place for training. It's Muiyang, so I want to pass on a message to Lord Champa through you."

"I will talk to Lord Champa, you wait for my message." It was different to go to Universe 6 for training than it was to leave in a hurry to get the Super Dragon Balls last time. This time he would definitely stay in Universe 6 for a long time, an expert like Muiyang, if there was a battle, the possibility of not being discovered by the God of Destruction Champa, was very small, instead of being embarrassed afterwards, it was better to say it in advance.

Whis smiled towards Muiyang, "Sister has already gone to deal with the Lord God of Destruction there, let's stay quiet for a while."

"Okay." Muiyang nodded, then sat on the ground and waited.

In Universe 6, above a certain God Planet of the Destruction God Realm.

Vados, who was dressed in green divine robes, walked at a light pace to a purple figure with long ears, which was dressed and looked similar to the God of Destruction, Beerus, but was quite fat. It was the God of Destruction of Universe 6 – Champa.

"Lord Champa, there is a practitioner from Universe 7 who has applied to Universe 6 for training."

Vados stood by Champa's side.

When he heard Vados' voice, he hid the bone behind his back, "Someone from the Universe 7? Is it someone chosen by that guy Beerus? No, we can't let him come over."

Champa and Beerus were brothers, yet their relationship was not amicable, especially after serving as the God of Destruction of the two universes respectively, they looked at each other more unfavorably.

The soft breeze blew the hair, the green skirt fluttered up, revealing the concave and convex curves, Vados tone gentle said. "Lord Champa do not think about it? The other party is not the person chosen by Lord Beerus, but the personal relationship of Whis, you know, Beerus sleeps all the time and rarely cares about the situation in the universe."

Champa's eyes rolled, "No, let him go to other universes, anyone from the Universe 7, just no."

Vados sighed regretfully, "Well, then I'll go back to Whis. Originally, I thought, when Universe 7 people came, our people can show off for you, kill the Universe 7's prestige, since you do not want to that forget it."

After saying that, Vados looked and said, "I think for you, you still do not appreciate".

There was an indescribable aggression on her delicate face.

"Wait!" Champa considered for a moment, "That person has reached the Level 7 Dimension?"

"Yes." Vados arched an eyebrow.

"The experts of our universe should be able to suppress each other, right?" Champa was not sleeping all day like Beerus, but usually it was Vados who took care of it, and he only went down to destroy planets when he was free, so he was equally not very familiar with the situation in Universe 6.

"It's definitely possible."

Champa's face was happy, "Then let their people come over, and you have to arrange the manpower to teach that person a lesson and show the might of our Universe 6."

Vados asked unexpectedly, "Has Lord Champa changed his mind, as far as I know the other party's talent is very good, excessive suppression, you are not afraid that the other party will grow too fast, making Universe 7 overtake us?"

Champa puffed up his chest, "It's good to grow up, sooner than later pull down Beerus from the position of God of Destruction, then see how Beerus still show off."

"Lord Champa is really smart." Vados hid her mouth and laughed lightly.

"Hmph, that's for sure, why didn't I think of letting Beerus end his term as God of Destruction early before!" Champa frowned a little, "Vados what are you laughing at, are you thinking of something bad?"

Vados hastily shook her head, "Why, I am feeling heartfelt emotion for the 'great foolishness' side of Lord Champa."

"What do you mean by 'great foolishness'?"

"I'm talking about you being smart."

"Hahahaha, that's for sure." Champa laughed out loud, took out the big bone behind him, and carefully gnawed on the pitiful shreds of meat on it. As he gnawed, Champa felt that something was wrong, but couldn't tell.

Next to him, Vados narrowed her eyes and smiled. That smile was like caring for the mentally handicapped. Turning around, Vados contacted Whis.

"All is well, Lord Champa has agreed."

"Thank you."

Whis gave a thank you and then hung up the contact.

"There is no more problem over in the Universe 6, you go directly to the Universe 6, sister Vados will meet you there" Whis told Muiyang some precautions of going to other universes. In fact, the main meaning was to remind him not to overly cause damage. After all, it was other people's universe, too much to provoke the God of Destruction would not be good.

The first thing you need to do was to take note of what Whis said while listening.

After explaining the situation to Melissa and April, Melissa and April both had a reluctant look on their faces, and then after explaining to them to practice well and pay attention to Muqiu and the others from time to time, they activated their Acceleration World shuttle ability and disappeared from the God of Destruction Planet.

Universe 6.

The deep starry sky was vast and boundless, and countless stars shone in the dark red background of the universe with a hazy glow.

A subtle spatial ripple spread out, Muiyang's figure stepped out from the void. Stopping to look around, Muiyang aimed at a light red planet, and then directly transient past.

Stepping onto the land of this planet, Muiyang waited quietly for a moment, and after about ten minutes, the seven-colored haze shone around him, and Vados' delicate and heroic figure appeared in front of Muiyang.

"Junior, I haven't seen you for a few years, your strength is beyond my expectation."

Vados's slender fingers squeezed the divine staff, still the same unperturbed face, still the same faint smile as always.

"Miss Vados, I'll trouble you for the next few days."

"No need to be polite." Vados lightly smiled, putting her finger in the void, several shadows appeared in the air. Vados pointed to the shadows one by one to introduce, "These are the experts of my Universe 6, they may be helpful to your training, of course there are not many who really reach the 'Half-God Level'."

Muyang nodded and carefully browsed through the list of experts listed by Vados.

Hit, this was the first name in the list.

He was the number one assassin in the Universe 6, known as "Never-Miss Hit". His martial arts were unique in the world, he able to create a different dimension, with deep attainments in time and space, good at assassination and close combat.

His strength at least in the "Half-God Level", the ordinary Super Saiyan God were not his opponent.

Next, there were Super Namekian Warrior, Saiyan of Planet Sala, and Demon of Frozen Clan...

Muyang browsed one by one, keeping these people in mind.

Suddenly, a blue-colored cat-type animal caught Muyang's attention.

Cat Majin?

What the hell was this creature? It was fat and had a head that looked like Korin, except that the fur was blue.

It was also a master. According to Vados's notes, this creature named Cat Majin had strength that exceeded that of ordinary demons and ranked just below Hit in power.

Chapter 487

"Miss Vados, what is the origin of this Cat Majin?" Muyang asked specifically.

Vados smiled elegantly, "That is a cat clan strong man, lazy by nature, and not very good character, not listening to anyone. It is a very troublesome fellow, because it belongs to the same cat clan with Lord Champa, so no one dares to provoke it."

So it was the same clan with the God of Destruction, Muyang took the characteristics of the Cat Majin in his heart and focused on it.

Then Vados' hand once again, these images in the void disappeared.

"You can go challenge these people in the next few years, but remember not to cause too much damage, Lord Champa is very troublesome, so do not upset him."

In fact, Champa had been played by you Muyang's words almost did not come out.

For Vados, the angel with a dark heart, Muyang knew something about it.

"Thanks to Miss Vados for the reminder." He politely expressed his gratitude.

Vados narrowed her eyes and smiled, sent the location of these experts she showed to Makuyg, then winked playfully towards Mauyng. The seven-colored light took off, and in the blink of an eye that delicate figure disappeared from sight.

?The first step of the adventure was to think about it.

?After thinking about it, Muiyang intends to go to this universe's Planet Namek first to see. He wondered if the Universe 6's Planet Namek was also the same as the Universe 7, where the Dragon Balls existed, what degree the most powerful strongest reached.

The star space transformed, in the twinkling of an eye Muiyang's figure appeared in the outer space of Planet Namek.

Looking through the void to Planet Namek, a large dark green planet as if a short fat big guy squatting on the planetary orbit. Planet Namek of Universe 7 had three stars, but not Universe 6, it only had two stars, and the planet itself was darker than Universe 7, showing a dark green color.

"Planet Namek of Universe 6 has not experienced climate catastrophe, so the species on it are more comprehensive."

Thinking like this in his heart, Muiyang took a step forward and landed directly on Planet Namek.

Countless lakes and mountains entered his eyes, and the green scenery was full of vitality. Looking at it, Planet Namek here was more like the Planet Ambera where Birgil lived in seclusion back then.

"Hmm? The ki above Planet Namek was very strong. There were even two that reached the level of the Majin Buu, should be the target I'm looking for."

There were two super masters in the Universe 6 Planet Namek, called Saonel and Pirin, who used to represent the Universe 6 in the Zeno Tournament of Power in the original, but they were stronger then and assimilated a large number of fellow Namekian before participating.

"Let's go to them first."

Majin Buu level powerhouse was naturally not Muiyang's opponent, but there were specialties in the art, and Namekian would be good at fighting in addition to their weird magic, and some skills were full of reference value.

Muiyang flew all the way along the mountain range, a piece of hills and lakes beneath his feet swept away at speed. The Namekian was a race that could survive as long as there was sunlight and clear water, and with their love of nature, the whole Namekian was well preserved with its natural scenery intact.

There were many strong people in this Planet Namek, just this moment of time when Muiyang leaped, he encountered dozens of powerful ki, each one was not weaker than Birgil, and the powerful ones were even as powerful as Pikkon.

"Compared to the Namekian of the Universe 6, the Namekians of the Universe 7 have really declined too much."

Regretfully lamenting, Muiyang came to a mountain range covered with greenery. The rolling mountain range rose and fell, several towering peaks rose from the ground, the mountains were covered with snow-capped peaks, here was the village where about a thousand Namekian lived, the people Muiyng was looking for were here.

Because Muiyang consciously released some ki, the Namekian living here soon found him and came out of their hemispherical huts one after another.

Saonel and Pirina stood in the front with a row of powerful Namekian warriors standing behind them.

"Your Excellency is a Saiyan from Planet Sadala, right, I wonder what business you have come to Planet Namek?"

The one who spoke was the leader of the handsome Namekian, with dark green skin, looking much like Piccolo, with a slender and fit body.

Being treated as a Saiyan again? Muiyang smiled.

Saonel and Pirina were very strong, according to estimates about the same as the Majin Buu.

"My name is Muiyang, I am an adventurer from the Universe 7, I heard that you Namekian are a peace-loving race, so I came to pay a visit."

"You mean to say that you come from other universes?" A huge Namekian asked in surprise, he was Pirina, with the same stocky build as Slug who had once fought with Muiyang.

The strong people of the Universe 6 were not as ignorant as Universe 6, the vast majority of them had heard of the world outside the universe, mainly because Supreme Kai Fuwa was a normal Supreme Kai who would often reveal himself to the world, and the God of Destruction Champa, although silly, did not sleep all year round like the God of Destruction Beerus.

With these two senior deities as guides, the strongest people in the universe know the vastness of the outside world.

In such a contrast, the God of Destruction and Supreme Kai of the Universe 7 were quite incompetent.

"Yes, I'm new to your land, so I'm disturbing."

"I heard Lord Fuwa talk about it, the Universe 7 is a symmetrical universe with the Universe 6, and there are Namekian there as well."

"Yes." Muiyang's attitude was good, and he explained to Saonel and the others all the time. Namekian were also a warm race, so after explaining their identities, the two sides got along very well.

When they learned that the Universe 7 Namekian were decimated because of the climate catastrophe, and only a few people survived, Saonel and others were also sad for a while.

Next was the exchange of martial arts, the martial arts heritage of this Planet Namek was much more detailed and comprehensive than the Universe 7. After some exchanges, Muiyang also benefited a lot, although Saonel and Pirina would not be Muiyang's opponents in actual combat, but many concepts and unique understanding was Muiyang's incomparable.

Muiyang stayed in Planet Namek for about three months before he left with a satisfied heart.

After leaving Planet Namek, Muyang left for Planet Sadala, which was the home planet of the rational Saiyans, and he guessed that the Saiyans of the Universe 7, originally came from the Planet Sadala in the Universe 6. But unfortunately, at this time the ancient heritage of Planet Sadala and Planet Sara had not been passed down.

But according to ancient records, there were vague records of foreign reinforcements.

According to this, Muyang had roughly guessed the truth. It must be that Universal Saiyan King "Ellipmont" of Universe 7 had somehow suppressed the Evolved Saiyan family at that time, and then Planet Sadala of Universe 6 sent Troops to assist Universe 7 and established it in Universe 7's Planet Sala.

The Evolved Saiyans who were suppressed at that time migrated to Earth and evolved into Earthlings after countless years.

As for the means of suppressing the S-cell, Muyang guessed that it might be the Super Dragon Ball.

This would be connected. Muyang flipped through the pages of Planet Sadala's Library, and the guardian of the Library was a youngster named Renso, an apprentice member of "Sadala Defense Forces", that was the future Big Buddha of Caulifla.

After closing the book and putting it back on the shelf, Muyang said bye to Renso and left the library.

Just as Muyang was about to head to the palace of Planet Sadala, a sharp alarm sounded as if something had happened, and all the Saiyan warriors sprang into action.

Chapter 488

"What's going on?"

Walking down the hallway of the palace, he saw many Saiyan warriors rushing around, and Muyang stopped a Saiyan who ran by to inquire.

The Saiyan warrior who was stopped replied, "A golden fireball fell on Planet Sadala, all the craft sent by the headquarters were destroyed, and according to the feedback, a high energy reaction was found there."

After listening, Muyang closed his eyes and sensed, and determined that there were several strong energy reactions at a distance of three thousand kilometers from the palace, but those energy reactions were generated by Planet Sadala Saiyans themselves, and there was no golden fireball mentioned by the other side.

Was the ki convergence, or the other party's body simply had no ki?

Muyang thought for a moment and moved aside to allow the oncoming Saiyan warriors to pass easily.

At this time, several of the strongest warriors of Planet Sadala Defense Team, led by Captain Parf, came over. Upon seeing Muyang, Parf shouted, "Ah, Mr. Muyang is here, your Excellency is extremely strong, can you come over with us to have a look?"

"You guys already know what's happening in the distance?"

"It's not clear yet, but according to the information sent back by the scouter, the other party is a guy with a golden glow emanating from his body."

Muyang smiled, his eyebrows couldn't help but raise, a golden glowing guy, could it be a Super Saiyan? But wasn't there no Super Saiyan on top of Planet Sadala? Muyang's mind couldn't help but spread out and think if it could be the same ancient Saiyan as Planet Sadala.

But it was not right, if it was an ancient Saiyan, it was impossible to do the ki convergence in the Super Saiyan state, they did not have that ability.

"Okay, I'll go over there with you guys and take a look." Muyang said.

"Thanks a lot."

Parf revealed a smile, after all the warriors gathered, Parf then led the team to prepare to take off into the air.

Muyang walked up and said, "It's better for me to send you guys over, you guys will hold your hands together and I will use 'Instant Transmission' to take everyone over."

Parf was surprised, but there were countless magical moves in the universe, just because he hadn't seen one didn't mean there weren't any, he nodded his head and told all the warriors to link up their hands.

Muyang looked at the black pressed Saiyan warriors. The number was at least a thousand, each one was an elite, as powerful as the high-ranking warriors of Planet Sadala, generally hundreds of thousands, millions of power level.

After condensing for a while, Muyang captured the ki of the Saiyans 3,000 kilometers away, and then "buzz", the Instant Transmission was launched, and Muyang's shadow flashed, and disappeared with more than 1,000 Saiyans warriors in the palace square.

Three thousand kilometers away, the scorched wasteland emitted a pungent smell, hot smoke curling up from the surface.

When Muyang they arrived, there were Saiyan warriors lying on the ground around, and in the center of that scorched earth stood a golden figure, not very tall, covered with silver-white electric aura.

Super Saiyan 2?

Muyang could not help but subconsciously think towards Super Saiyan 2, but soon he found out that something was wrong, the other party was wearing a black lab coat, covered with blue hair.

Blue hair.

Compared to the information that Vados had shown him, Muyang determined it once and he was sure of the identity of the other party.

Was it a Cat Majin?

At this time, Planet Sadala Defense Team warriors led by Palf had already started to surround towards the Cat Majin. Bad, you couldn't piss off the Cat Majin, Vados had said that the other party was not a figure to be messed with.

The palm of his hand turned outward, the power of the Acceleration World quickly descended down, and Muiyang imprisoned the bodies of Palf and the members of Planet Sadala Defense within a second.

At the same time, he appeared in front of them and whispered, "Wait a minute, that person's identity is not ordinary, you can't risk provoking each other, or Planet Sadala will be in danger."

"Mr. Muiyang knows that guy?" Parf asked strangely.

The Saiyans of Planet Sadala were the righteous force of the Universe 6, and had been dedicated to maintaining the peace of the planet of the Universe 6. Although there was also a warlike side of the Saiyans, they were gentle in nature and were not a race that easily invited trouble. So when Muiyang shot to imprison them, Parf's first thought was to ask questions first.

Muiyang nodded, "That guy, if I'm not mistaken, is called 'Cat Majin', the strength of the strong even if all the warriors of Planet Sadala add up their power level, it is not its opponent."

"It is that strong?" Parf sucked in a breath of cold air.

"Stronger than I thought, the power level is at least 30 billion above."

Muiyang was very sure that Cat Majin gave him a very wonderful feeling, obviously a demon, but with a transformation form similar to the Super Saiyan, leaving aside the error brought about by the ki sensing. Judging by Muiyang's naked eyes, the other party was at least the Demon Buu level, more likely to reach the strength of the Super Saiyan God, that was, "Half-God Level".

To say that it was 30 billion power level, that was a small calculation.

Parf's face suddenly ugly, but he didn't doubt Muiyang's words. However, if all this was true, Planet Sadala would really face a huge crisis.

With a pleading gaze to look at Muiyang, Muiyang nodded his head and walked in the direction of the cat devils.

At this time, the Cat Majin also noticed this black crowd that suddenly appeared, and his two eyes that were narrowed into slits suddenly widened, "Wow ah, when did you guys appear, you seem to be very powerful!" With a swish, the figure flashed, the speed was similar to Instant Transmission appeared in front of Muiyang's heels.

The fat body shakes in front of Muiyang, the body of silver lightning "crackling" beat.

It was like Super Saiyan 2 lightning, but the ki of the body did not overflow, Muiyang curiously looked at the Cat Majin, "You are a Cat Majin, why did you appear in Planet Sadala?"

Huh, is this Planet Sadala? I've been here before, yes oh, those guys in strange battle suits, I've seen them before, they were the ones who attacked me first." The Cat Majin smiled nervously.

He didn't know why, but Muiyang suddenly had the feeling of facing Fat Buu.

It was a little bit stupid and cute.

This guy was simple, comparable to the God of Destruction Champa, could it be that fat strong people were particularly stupid and cute?

"How did you come to Planet Sadala?" MUYANG asked again.

The Cat Majin held his chin and said, "I fought with a very bad guy, and was knocked into the sky by him, and then flew through the universe for a long time, and came here."

MUYANG smiled, his eyebrows knitted, "There are still strong people in this universe who can fight with you?"

According to the information given by Vados, the strength of the Cat Majin ranked in the top among all the strong people in the Universe 6, because of its particularly eccentric character. There were few people who dared to provoke it, even Champa would not bother with it for the sake of the same cat race.

"There is, that person is called 'Moya', very powerful." The Cat Majin said exaggeratedly.

MUYANG rubbed his temples, he had not heard of this name. Putting this doubt down, MUYANG asked, "How did you get this transformation? As far as I know golden light flames should be the characteristics of the Super Saiyan, right."

The Cat Majin laughed heatedly, "This is learned from a guy called 'Oren', he claims to be the most powerful warrior in the universe. Well, he is called Super Saiyan, by the way he seems to be originally from Planet Sadala, but many, many years have passed, hehehe, I do not know how many billions of years. "

"I named this form as 'Super Cat Majin', how about it, is not very cool?"

Chapter 489

MUYANG listened with a burst of understanding.

This Cat Majin should have come to Planet Sadala in the very distant past, and learned a similar skill to Super Saiyan Transformation from the Saiyans at that time. Just like the Majin Buu learning Son Goku's Instant Transmission, as expected of the Majin, the learning ability was really powerful.

"Nah, your power seems very strong, do you want to fight me!" The Cat Majin asked with interest.

MUYANG smiled lightly, "Sure, I like to fight with the strong."

The purpose of his coming to the Universe 6 was to practice, and fighting with strong people could best achieve the purpose of practice.

The two looked at each other, both sides suddenly burst into battle. In the next second, two powerful auras began to squeeze, and suddenly the sky and earth changed color. The dark clouds were dense, and the sky took on an inverted funnel shape, as if a giant hand of the sky snapped down upside down, and the whole Planet Sadala shook violently.

"Mr. MUYANG, and that Cat Majin, do they intend to fight on top of Planet Sadala?" Parf opened his mouth against the tremendous pressure, fearing that they would destroy Planet Sadala.

Knowing Parf's nervousness, MUYANG smiled and said, "Of course not, we will find an isolated place to fight."

After saying that, MUYANG glanced towards the Cat Majin, who nodded indifferently, so MUYANG offered his farewell to Parf, and then led the Cat Majin to a primitive planet not far from Planet Sadala.

Seeing Muiyang and the Cat Majin leave, Parf finally breathed a sigh of relief. But it vaguely seemed like he had missed some opportunity again.

After finally thinking about it, Parf couldn't help but sigh.

Ranch Planet, not far from Planet Sadala, was the main meat food supply for the Saiyans.

With a clatter, the figures of Muiyang and Cat Majin appeared in the Ranch Planet. Here the vegetation was dense, the ancient trees were sky-high, and mountains stretching for thousands of miles could be seen everywhere.

"Right here, Cat Majin, let's have a good competition." Muiyang's face was serious, his whole body muscles were tense, and terrifying energy was mobilized.

Probably noticing the powerful energy surging from Muiyang's body, the Cat Majin also became excited throughout.

"Heh, come on." The golden ki flames on the Cat Majin's body burned even more.

Muiyang watched happily. He knew that the Cat Majin was a strong fighter not inferior to himself. Although he looked silly, this was all a disguise, in fact, the other party was very talented in fighting. If he underestimated the other party, nine times out of ten, he would fall on his face.

Adjusting the body's internal ki, keeping his breathing at an even rate, gazing at the other side, and then assuming a fighting stance.

The Cat Majin looked at Muiyang with a crooked head, from Muiyang's body he experienced the full vitality, so he also took a fighting stance, the energy wave suddenly diffused like a water splash, the atmosphere majestic pressure came to the surface.

Ho, the Cat Majin and Muiyang moved at the same time, their speed was extremely fast. Muiyang's attack appeared in front of the Cat Majin, the Cat Majin's mouth grinned, his body dodged, his fat-looking body swung nimbly and took the opportunity to launch an attack on Muiyang.

Bang! There was a sound of breaking air. A fist appeared above Muiyang's head, Muiyang's eyes lit up, raised his arm to strike back, and his body also obediently side to avoid the Cat Majin's fist.

The two arms collided and violent ripples spread. Then there were several more impacts of different cuts accompanied by the exchange of hands instantly produced.

"Good!"

Muiyang let out a low cry in a soothing mood, and the speed of the battle was sped up a lot more. In the blink of an eye their figures were constantly flashing all over the pasture star, with light rays constantly colliding and then quickly separating, and then the speed continued to accelerate, and gradually the sensing of breath gradually failed to keep up with the body's movements.

This moment, Muiyang felt a pressure, along with the level of combat into the "High-God level", the previous tried and true breath sensing began to lose effectiveness.

Peng! Peng! Peng!

The silent collision, but the space level wave was constantly radiating

The more intense the Cat Majin fought, the more power they displayed, any trace of energy could make the whole planet fall apart, yet during the battle between Muiyang and the Cat Majin, the Ranch Planet did not show signs of disintegration, except for violent shaking.

"This is what 'Half_God level' fighting is all about, every trace of energy is well controlled."

Remembered in his mind the original "Super Saiyan God" state of Son Goku and the God of Destruction Beerus fighting images, an attack spread out through space, affecting the entire planet system.

"The first step in the cultivation stage of the realm of God is to empty the mind, free from the original constraints, and perceive a higher level of realm."

The words spoken by Whis rang in his ears, and Muiyang seemed to have comprehension.

In the next second, the sublimated energy of the "Unfettered Instinct" and "Extreme Instinct" attached to Muiyang's surface, and the crystalline light shone hazily, and the most basic effect of the "Ultra Instinct" was manifested. Although it was only the first glimpse of the "Ultra Instinct", at this moment, Muiyang's movements suddenly became coordinated.

Even the Cat Majin's attack seemed to become less powerful.

Sure enough, practice was the best refinement of the realm.

"What kind of moves are you doing?" The Cat Majin struck an attack, but it was easily dodged by Muiyang, so he couldn't help but stop his hand and ask curiously.

Muiyang smiles, "Ultra Instinct!"

The Cat Majin's eyes widened, "Seems like a lot of fun, let's continue."

"Good!"

Muiyang and Cat Majin looked at each other with a smile and continued to release energy to each other.

Just at that moment-

"Huh?" Muiyang lightly ejaculated and raised his head to look at the deep starry sky.

"What are you looking at?"

The Cat Majin also raised his head and covered his forehead with one hand.

Muiyang's expression was very serious "It seems like something is approaching, the ki is very confusing, but very powerful."

The Cat Majin thought for a while and suddenly shouted, "I know, it's Moya, that guy actually chased here."

"The same guy who beat you to Planet Sadala?" There was some surprise on his face, Moya's strength should not be comparable to the Cat Majin.

"Yes, he must have sensed the ki emitted from our battle and chased after us." The Cat Majin said in annoyance, "That guy is tough, he absorbs any attack, if it wasn't for his nasty ability, I would have beaten him up long ago."

"Moya is able to absorb other people's energy?"

Muyang's eyes twitched and wondered what came to mind.

"Yes!" The Cat Majin nodded its head forcefully.

Just as its words were spoken, the chaotic ki arrived at the Ranch Planet, raised its head, and a dark blue figure with hair similar to the Cat Majin appeared under that blazing hot sun. The hair on the chest was white, hunched over, with dry limbs and two curved goat horns on the top of his head.

Goats?

Muyang was a little surprised to see this, a flash of light in his head, remembered the original Son Goku and Vegeta encountered a person in the Planet Namek.

Goat Moro.

With the ability to absorb the magic of others through space, where he was located, he used the energy of the entire planet, including the enemy's energy.

Ten million years ago, in the battle with the Grand Supreme Kai and South Supreme Kai, if Grand Supreme Kai had not used up most of his divine power to perform the "Kai Kai Matoru", depriving Moro of Magic Power, he would not have been defeated. After escaping from the Galaxy Prison, Moro relied on his special ability to easily absorb the Super Saiyan Blue State of Son Goku and Vegeta's energy.

It was an extremely difficult guy.

The person who appeared in front of you called Moya, it seemed to be the same race as Universe 7 of Moloch.

Must be, the Universe 6 and the Universe 7 symmetry, the race was also the same.

"Cat Majin, you were lucky that you weren't sucked to death by him on the spot before." After thinking about it, Muyang said to the Cat Majin with emotion.

The Cat Majin did not know what Muyang was talking about.

Chapter 490

The conversation between Mu Yang and the Cat Majin did not attract the attention of the Goat Moya, and when he saw the two below, he was quickly attracted by the abundant life force on Muyang's body.

"Cat Majin, I didn't expect you to recover so quickly, and you even found such a powerful helper, now I can have a comfortable and full meal." Goat Moya's ugly face was turned towards the Cat Majin, to him, Muyang and the Cat Majin were just mobile energy sources that he could suck up at will.

With the ability to suck the energy of the planet itself and all living objects on the planet, as well as the ability to transform the planet's life force into attacks, even the enemy's energy could be used for himself, so Moya's energy was almost unlimited.

Moya's naked eyes caused Muiyang to frown slightly and a pang of displeasure in his heart.

"Be careful, that guy is so tough." The Cat Majin warned.

"I know."

Muiyang nodded his head, his body suddenly flashed and launched an attack towards Moya. In a moment an attack that was enough to destroy the planet countless times arrived in front of Moya. However, seeing that the goat unhurriedly stretched out a palm, Muiyang's attack instantly disappeared into the whiskers.

As if this attack didn't exist at all.

After receiving Muiyang's attack, Moya snapped open his eyes, "Haha, it's been a long time since I've seen such pure energy."

Muiyang's face changed slightly, and he hastily pulled his body away from the other side with a flash, gazing at him carefully.

"How about it, is that guy very difficult to deal with?" The Cat Majin laughed heartlessly and playfully, as if he didn't even know what tension was.

"It's a bit troublesome." Muiyang was silent for a moment.

Through the test just now, he had roughly estimated the opponent's strength, probably "Half-God" primary, equivalent to the Super Saiyan God, but not yet reached the strength of the Super Saiyan Blue, but the trouble was the opponent's ability to suck the opponent's energy, without solving this problem, all attacks were ineffective.

Moya was not the Demon Beast Yakon who was killed by Son Goku in the original work. If he wanted to copy the effect, it would certainly not work.

Not to mention that Muiyang had enough energy to kill experts of the same level. Even if there was, in the absence of a clear understanding of the other party's bottom line, rashly channeling energy was absolutely not sensible. Maybe the other party was originally growing by sucking energy, in case it did not kill the other party, but increased the other party's physique, that would be bad.

In the original plot, Son Goku and Vegeta were letting the enemy grow because they didn't understand the enemy.

The scene was at a standstill for a while, Muiyang and Cat Majin formed a group, and confronted Goat Moya.

After a few seconds, the Goat Moya's body moved first, he quickly came between Muiyang and the Cat Majin, and then held open his palm, dazzling white light shining up, when Muiyang and the Cat Majin saw this, they scattered out.

At this time Moya snorted, two white flashes of light chased, the flash passed by, all the life force of plants and animals were quickly robbed, instantly turned into leaves and a corpse.

Damn!

Muyang shouted angrily, his body darted, sometimes using Instant Transmission, between lightning and fire to avoid a series of attacks from Moya, and then redirected towards Moya to launch a counter-attack.

The only way to be effective was to attack quickly and injure Moya before he reacts.

But the difficulty of Moya far exceeded Muyang's imagination, even when he used all his strength to avoid the opponent's attacks by using the ingenuity of the Ultra Instinct, and came close to the opponent's body, any physical attack was within the opponent's absorption range.

"Oh, your movements are very clever, how did you avoid my eyes?"

Moya hunched over, allowing Muyang's fist to land on his body, the surface of his body floated for a moment as powerful energy was absorbed into his body.

"Ultra Instinct!" Muyang finished in a cold voice, his body quickly withdrew.

Moya shook his head, "I haven't heard of it."

"That's because you are ignorant."

Moya laughed, "Maybe."

Muyang ran the energy in his body, the silver-white light covered the surface of his body, the Ultra Instinct was alive and running, if you really want to compare physical strength, Muyang in the Ultra Instinct state was not much worse than Moya.

The eyes flashed with cold light, facing Muyang's attack again, Moya slightly frowned. This time he actually felt a hint of pain, strange thing, Moya knew he had to solve the other party early, otherwise he was afraid it would spoil his big event.

"Roar—"

The bloody mouth opened again, like a flood beast emitting a deafening sound, this time the target of Moya's sucking was no longer Muyang and the Cat Majin, but the whole Ranch Planet. The sky instantly became dark, the vast land a white life energy from the ground rushed out, Moya's hand gathered into a life ball of light.

Then swallowed in one bite.

With just this one bite, at least half of the Ranch Planet's life lost its vitality, and even the planet itself became restless.

The essence of the living planet was originally given by Supreme Kai when he created it, and every energy was precious, and with the replenishment of this energy, Moya's whole body was wrapped in a vigorous shine, and his aura suddenly blossomed in this instant.

The terrifying aura came in wave after wave, like a wolf like a tiger, constantly roaring and hissing.

Boom! The void trembled.

Muyang's face changed greatly, his eyebrows knitted deeply.

At that moment, the Cat Majin sounded surprised. It fly high up, the two palms condensed a radiant ki wave, the blue light became brighter and brighter, almost covering the blazing sun in the sky, the brilliant blazing sun blazed endlessly, the power of which could easily destroy hundreds of planets.

When Moya saw that energy ball, his two eyes lit up, while Muyang cursed and cast an Instant Transmission to leave quickly.

"Idiot!"

As expected, Moya opened its huge mouth again, as if a taotie swallowed.

"Absorb!" With a baring of his mouth, all the attacks of the Cat Majin were swallowed by him.

"Eh, it's not effective!" A disappointed voice rang out as the Cat Majin rubbed its head and giggled.

Muyang yelled at it, "That guy was originally relying on absorbing energy, you actually gave him so much, look how much stronger his power has become."

The Cat Majin let out an oh, "That's really true!"

This Cat Majin was quite shrewd when he was fighting, but most of the time, like Fat Buu, he was dumb as hell.

"Hoo" Moya sucked up the energy of the cCat Majin and his body became stronger.

"Cat Majin, don't strike recklessly, that guy's ability is too bizarre." After roaring, Muyang took a deep breath and exhaled slowly, his ki flames flickered up again and turned to collect into his body. When facing Moya, he could only not leak a single bit of energy.

The "Half-God" level was not a true deity, but it was possible to completely converge the aura, and Muyang's advantage was that his substratum was also a Level 7 God Dimension, which had a more introverted energy than the usual "Half-God" level.

After a complete adjustment, Muyang once again unleashed his Ultra Instinct, and this time his attack began to work.

The superb attack landed on Moya's cheek, a splash of blood came out, and Moya was knocked to the ground by a round of fierce punches.

"Ahem" Touching the cheek that was hit with raw pain, Moya shook his neck a little.

"It's been a long time since anyone has been able to bruise me."

"Hahahaha, good job, a few more hits to kill that bad guy." The Cra Majin hid far away and watched the battle, as if he was an enthusiastic spectator cheering for Muyang.

This guy really couldn't be trusted" Muyang felt tired, and then his face became more serious.

Fighting with such a strong person was also a rare experience.

At this time, Moya smiled wistfully and began to fight with Muyang in close quarters, of course, each of his attacks were attached to a special ability. As long as within his domain, all energy was used for it, including the Cat Majin, wrapping Muyang, but also the entire planet above all life.

Even the opponent's energy was his, then what else to compare.

That was to say from the beginning, Moya occupied more than anyone else's share.

With this analogy, no wonder the Super Saiyan Blue level Son Goku and Vegeta was not the opponent of the Goat Moro, plus the Saiyans were originally a people who rely on transformation to enhance energy, their own basic power level was not high, as long as they were not given the opportunity to transform, in front of such enemies the so-called Super Saiyan was just a joke!
