

Ball God 491

Chapter 491

Crackling, lightning flashes.

Moya's blue hair stood up, a subtle flicker of light, suddenly a flash of shadow, leaving a blurred figure in place. Once again, it had come to the front of Muyang, who also saw the opportunity to retreat a few hundred meters, and then adjusted his stance. With a dive, he came at Moya.

At this time every attack was a technical job, a bad attack would enhance the opponent's energy.

With his fingers slightly moving, a ki wave had been prepared. Moya's gaze flashed, staring at Muyang's movements, and suddenly revealed an unintentional smile.

Muyang was alerted, but he saw the flat earth around him surge fiercely, and huge rocks attacked towards Muyang with Moya's manipulation.

"Boo!" "Boo!" "Boo!" .....

Muyang continuously released ki waves to destroy these rocks, and at this time, Moya's figure came behind Muyang. The two thick arms locked Muyang, no matter how Muyang struggled, he could not get rid of it.

"Hey, kid, now you can't break free, you can't break free, what a delicious energy, I can't even resist to enjoy it." Moya clutched Muyang, the pure life force fascinated him.

The Cat Majin couldn't bear to look at it. "It's over."

He then released countless waves of high energy towards Moya, but these energy did not do anything other than become a tonic.

"You really think you can win for sure?" Muyang calmed down at this point and said with a cold face.

"Don't you, in my domain, everything is under my control." Moya laughed loudly, his ability was what he was most proud of.

With a sigh, just when Moya thought that his opponent had given up resistance, a brilliant light flashed violently from Muyang's eyes, seeing him faintly say.

"Death God Chain!"

The air lurched for a moment.

Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh!

Dozens of silver-white chains accompanied by electric light appeared out of nowhere without warning, and then quickly arrived in front of Moya's body, binding his limbs and wrapping shiny silver chains around his waist and neck.

"Huh. Very strange ability, but these chains are also made of energy, right, so they are also my sustenance."

Muyang leisurely floated to the side. "You can try."

Hearing MUYANG's bland words, for some reason, Moya's heart suddenly gave birth to a trace of discomfort, and a feeling of unease surged to his heart. He hurriedly exerted his ability, but a few seconds passed, and the silver Death God Chain still bound his body.

Moya's face froze in disbelief and said, "Impossible, as long as something is made of energy, it is within my absorption range."

"How silly!"

MUYANG shook his head a little, his Death God Chain came from the Acceleration World, that was the embodiment of the rules of another world, were the rules of the Acceleration World powerful? That was definitely powerful, every time it appeared, even the rules of the whole universe had to temporarily be avoided, could the ability of the district Moya still be able to withstand the rules of the whole universe?

So from the beginning, MUYANG was a sure winner, only in order to experience a high-intensity battle, he specially did not use the Acceleration World's ability.

Of course, the Death God Chain could play such a role, mainly because its rules just restrain Moya.

The two were actually about the same energy as each other, and in terms of individual strength alone, it was difficult to tell the difference, but unfortunately, with special abilities, although Moya was very powerful, but far from being a match for the Acceleration World.

If you could cheat, why not me?

"Nah nah, is this guy unable to resist now?" The Cat Majin fist pumped, stupidly moving on the side.

MUYANG glanced at the Cat Majin, "You want to make a move?"

The Cat Majin nodded, "This guy used to give me a hard time, I want to beat him up."

"Then be my guest!" MUYANG shrugged, now Moya was a fish on a knife, he could not resist.

The Cat Majin was overjoyed at his words, and squeezed his fist hard and punched Moya, "You bad guy, I told you not to bully me before, is my energy good? That's what I've worked so hard to accumulate."

"I'll fight! I fight! I fight!"

A vicious attack fell on Moya's body, which only made him dizzy, bruised and disfigured. Moya let out a miserable scream, and the intense resentment and humiliation taught him to be extraordinarily hard to bear.

"Bastards, you fucking guys, sooner or later I will kill all of you."

"You won't have that day, it's your misfortune to meet me." With cold eyes on Moya, MUYANG stretched out his palm. A mysterious energy enveloped Moya's body, Moya's whole body chilled and struggled even harder, but his body was firmly locked by the Death God Chain, so he couldn't move at all.

"Obliterate!"

The cold voice said two words, the mandatory rules from the Acceleration World came down, "Death God Chain" and "Obliterate" ability was often used together. Every time Mu Yang used the "Death God Chain, it also meant that MUYANG was ready to completely destroy the other party.

Clattering ..... wonderful energy broke fast void, the rules of the Universe 6 receded towards the periphery, at this time how could Moya still have the ability to resist. In the strong reluctance and struggle, the body began to gradually turn into powder.

First from the lower half of the body, then the abdomen and chest, and finally even the head also gradually disappeared in the breeze.

"Dead?" The Obliterate asked with his fingers in his mouth.

"Dead." MUYANG was very sure.

Such a guy, staying in the Universe 6, could be a scourge. He took care of him, so Vados and Champa would be grateful.

Universe 6, Destruction-Gods-Planet.

Champa crouched on the ground looking at the scene displayed in the void screen, his face was so gloomy that ink dripped out, "The kid from the Universe 7, wiped out Moya."

Vados nodded, "That move just now, very similar to Lord Champa's 'Energy of Destruction!'"

"Hmph, it's just a bit like that, but if you really want to compare, my 'Energy of Destruction' is definitely more powerful." Champa skimmed his mouth, "No, people are killing our Universe 6 powerhouse, that's weakening our strength, I can't stand this."

"But Lord Champa, if you let Moya live, that is the greater harm to the Universe 6, the top experts may all disappear oh! Speaking of which, this is Lord Champa's failure to do his duty, you should personally destroy him."

With a faint smile on her face, Vados sat gracefully on the ground, with her divine staff on her lap.

The God of Destruction, Champa, snorted coldly, "Hmph, I'll take care of the matter of Moya myself, I don't need the people of the Universe 6 to interfere at all, I don't care, that guy must be punished."

Vados sighed, "The scene just now Lord Champa also saw, the opponent's special ability is no weaker than Lord Champa. If the 'Energy of Destruction' ability of the God of Destruction does not work, plus his Ultra Instinct, I can hardly imagine Lord Champa, what ability can you use to destroy the opposite side."

"Lord Champa you are so fat, you're already panting with exercise, you may not be able to beat the opponent. In case there is an accident ..... oops, it seems I can only say goodbye to Lord Champa, wooing ....." "

"Vados! What do you mean by that, I'm not dead!!!" Champa said in exasperation.

"But it's not so bad." Champa continued to look like he was wiping tears from his eyes.

"Hmph!"

At this point, Vados laughed, "Look at that teenager who also saved the Cat Majin, he also counted to preserve the strength of the Universe 6....."

"Oops, I know, I'm not going to get into trouble with him."

Champa felt so tired, she was obviously his angel, but she never helped him, and often did something to turn his elbow out.

Chapter 492

"But I still can't swallow this, Vados you arrange for someone to teach him a lesson." Champa was ultimately a god who was not willing to suffer, and let Vados arrange for someone else to do the job when it was not good for him to do so.

"Okay."

This time, Vados did not oppose Champa's opinion, she drew up the divine staff to search the Universe 6, and quickly confirmed a candidate. When Champa saw this, he nodded contentedly, and then instructed Vados to act immediately.

The angel's unique large movement was immediately launched, and after Vados left the destruction of the divine world, only then did Champa skim his head with a grin of satisfaction, his eyes turned, and took advantage of Vados' absence, humming and jogging to find something to eat.

In a foggy planet, the weather was gloomy and the air was filled with the smell of sin.

There was a concentration of the richest businessmen in the Universe 6, and they were accompanied by hundreds of bodyguards, each of whom was a well-known powerhouse among the planets. As the best bodyguards, they took it as their duty to protect the safety of their employers, and whenever the rich and powerful traveled, these bodyguards provided protection services three layers inside and three layers outside.

On this day, a rich man was traveling straight down the road in a jet plane, surrounded by bodyguards in black uniforms.

The sky was raining, and the sound of the rain was distracting. Just then, there was a pause in the raindrops, and the whole world fell into a gloomy color.

Only the difference with just now was that the rich man riding in the spaceship had unknowingly lost his life.

After a while, an agitation was raised in the crowd, the bodyguards all showed an incredulous expression after finding their employer dead, and then searched the surrounding area with a serious look, not letting go of any suspicious corner, but everything was already too late, the murderer had long since gone to hide somewhere.

On top of a towering building, a purple-dressed Hit, with his hands in his pockets, took out a photo and looked at it, then sneered and tore it to pieces, scattering it in the wind.

"Another stupid guy who thinks he's a fool." Hit said coldly, his handsome face without smiling, like a gemstone blood-red eyes glittering with a cold light.

He was the number one assassin in the Universe 6, and his "Time-Skip" technique was unique in the world. All targets would be killed silently.

The signature skill of "Time-Skip" was an almost insurmountable ability, compared to the Ginyu Force member Guldo's "Time Freeze".

Suddenly, there was a flash of surprise between his eyebrows, and Hit turned his eyes to the void, where a woman in green divine robes was walking gracefully towards him.

"Miss Vados?"

Hit was slightly stunned and greeted Vados politely.

As the top expert of the Universe 6, Hit knew a lot of things and had certainly seen the Guardian of the Universe 6, Vados, so he recognized her at a glance, only he was not sure what the titular angel wanted to see him about.

Vados landed gracefully in front of Hit, "Lord Champa has an order for you."

Hit said, "Please speak."

Vados smiled, "There is a trainer in the Universe 7 who went to Universe 6, Lord Champa wants you to teach him a lesson, of course, the identity of the other party is not ordinary, so you cannot kill him, otherwise it will be troublesome."

Hit frowned, "I am an assassin by profession, I only take assignments to kill people, if it is just to teach people a lesson, please forgive me for not being able to obey orders."

Hit's ability was killing skills, if he couldn't use his full strength because of restrictions, he would rather not take such a mission. With strength of his strength, even when facing angels, there was room for bargaining. In Universe 6, the only ones who exceeded Hit in strength were probably the God of Destruction Champa and Angel Vados.

"Aiyaaah, I knew you would be like this, then okay, you give it your best shot, even if he got killed, it doesn't matter."

Vados hid her mouth and laughed lightly, in order to make Hit agree to fight, it seemed that only like this. But the Universe 7 teenager had a special ability that was not inferior to the "Time Skip", especially the move to imprison people, the Death God Chain and the method of destroying people, even the God of Destruction would feel difficult when encountered.

But for insurance reasons she also want to follow secretly, in case Hit killed Muiyang by mistake, she could use the means of Time Rewind to revive him. Reasonably, the ability that the angel mastered was not even close to the Dragon Ball.

"Yes, I'll take this mission, who is the person to be killed?"

"Muiyang, a relatively high-level deity in the Universe 7" As he spoke, the information and appearance about Muiyang was suspended in mid-air.

"Hmm."

Hit nodded, memorized all the data of this mission, then with a wave of his hand, he disappeared very daintily in the middle of the thick fog.

When Bardos saw this, she laughed lightly and turned to hide in another space.

Time passed in a hurry, passing by a white horse, in the blink of an eye, several years had passed. At this time, five years had passed since Son GOku got married. If according to the original plot, this time Raditz should take a spaceship to descend to Earth, and then bullishly said "the power level was only 5 scum" the most famous words.

But now, Raditz was still playing bodyguard for Tights, of course, he could not come to Earth.

In the past five years, this side of the Earth had been thriving, many elite figures emerged in the younger generation.

Soon after Muiyang went to the Universe 6, his children Muqiu and Amelia participated in the tournament held on Planet Sala and showed their Super Saiyan power in the tournament. Although they did not win the championship, their great strength still caused a sensation.

Today, Muqiu and Amelia returned to Earth, and then guarded the entrance to the underground laboratory in Great Azure Mountain.

The two seventeen-year-olds were currently stomping around the door with nervous faces, their faces full of worry. In the laboratory, a very important experiment was being conducted.

The maid of Muiyang family, to be exact, Melissa's exclusive servant, Millif, stood to the side, "Young master and young lady, you don't have to worry, Lord April and Dr. Gero have joined forces, absolutely nothing will go wrong."

Muqiu nodded at his words, his face still full of worry, "That's true, but it's been so long since Lazuli and the others went in."

Melia snapped at Muqiu's head: "Kid, even your Mama April does not believe, it's just an android transformation, it's not a big problem."

When April gave herself a makeover there was no problem, this time there would be even less of a problem. The two were the best in android technology, and they join forces, and the transformation of Lazuli and Lapis was absolutely proper.

Originally, they also called Bulma and Dr. Brief, but April said that too many people were not good. So in the end, April and Dr. Gero were each responsible for transforming one person.

April was responsible for the transformation of Lazuli, Dr. Gero responsible for the transformation of Lapis.

Muqiu scratched the place where he was hit, "Mom, I'm not worried for Lazuli!"

"What is there to worry about, the technology of android is proven, you see he Sipriel's family are relieved that they did not come. Just the way you are... I do not know how Lazuli will agree to become your girlfriend." Melia looked at Muqiu, "Look at your face, does Lazuli have the tendency to lily ....."

When Muqiu heard, he was a little annoyed, "Mom, don't get hung up on my looks, it's only natural that Lazuli likes me."

Melia said, "I am not able to see what is natural."

Muqiu sighed breathlessly, knowing that he could not dwell on this issue, or he would be told what to do again. Looking at Amelia, who looked nothing like herself, it looked like she was quite worried about Lapis too.

Melis sipped tea on the side, "I heard April say before that in other worlds Lazuli and Lapis succeeded in becoming Androids 18 and 17, but because of their cruel temperament and lack of control after having great power, they ended up making a mess of other worlds."

"My Lazuli is certainly not like that." Muqiu retorted.

Melis said calmly, "I'm not talking about this ..... I mean after Lazuli becomes an android, the strength will increase greatly, then with your current strength is afraid that you can not beat her, this to say out is not very humiliating?"

Muqiu thought about this and realised it was really true. Although Lazuli had agreed to become his girlfriend and the two had a good relationship, if he was not as good as the other in kung fu, he would be very humiliated.

So began to calmly think about this problem, he felt that he should improve his strength as soon as possible.

Chapter 493 Vegeta's Destination

"Ha!" Just as a few people were talking, April came out of the lab and smiled at Muqiu and the others.

"Mama April, how is Lazuli?"

Lazuli was under April's charge.

April laughed, "The transformation process is going well, now she is soaking in the nutrition module, but Lazuli's native energy is relatively low. It can't withstand the power of the black stone for a while, so if you want her to fully awaken, I'm afraid it will take two to three years."

When April transformed the android was carried out in Muiyang's Acceleration World, it also took several years to adapt at that time.

The substance of the black stone penetrated into every cell, a slow and steady process.

"I'll go in and take a look." Just as April's words were finished, Muqiu rushed towards the inside of the lab.

"Wait ..." He was just about to say that Lazuli was not wearing any clothes now, but seeing that Muqiu had already run inside, April barred her mouth and shook her head with an odd expression. A seventeen year old girl being seen naked seemed a bit unbecoming, but the other party was her boyfriend, so she shouldn't mind.

Lazuli was her niece, and Muqiu was equivalent to her son.

A childhood friend, this was not bad.

Thinking of this, April's delicate face could not help but reveal a smile, smiling and sharing information with the girls. As a matter of fact, after listening to them, Melia also showed ambiguous smiles.

On the other hand, after running into the laboratory and finding the room that Lazuli was in, Muqiu was dumbfounded.

Lazuli's delicate body was curled up and immersed in the green solution, golden hair fluttering in the solution, through the glass cover, and Muqiu could even clearly see every inch of Lazuli's body and individual private places.

This body was perfect.

The hot blood went up all of a sudden, and Muqiu opened his eyes wide to admire it, then left with a blushing face.

When he came out, he saw April and Melia looking at him with a smirk, and Melia even gave him a thumbs up. These women must have known what was going on inside. Muqiu laughed dryly twice, and felt that Amelia looked at him with a different meaning.

After another moment, Dr. Gero came out wearing a mask. At this time, Dr. Gero was close to seventy years old. He had white hair and a wrinkled face, and had long since lost the handsomeness of his youth.

"Dr. Gero, how are you doing there?"

"Very successful."

Dr. Gero smiled and said contentedly, to be able to participate in the transformation of the android, was a milestone for his research career full of significance.

Amelia was delighted, but with the previous experience of Muqiu, she did not venture in to see what was going on inside.

"Their bodies are undergoing the transformation of subtle substances, the whole process will last about two to three years, by the time they wake up, there will be two super invincible powerhouses on the earth. Haha, so the earthlings can become so powerful." Super strong people were born from his own hands, this made him happier than anything else.

April nodded her head, "Muqiu, Amelia, you two should guard this place well in the future."

"Mm."

"We will definitely not let anyone get close."

Muqiu and Amelia assured with a serious look.

For the next few years, they would guard the Great Azure Mountain and not let anyone have a chance to hurt Lazuli and Lapis. With the strength of their two Super Saiyans, there should be no danger.

During the night.

Melia hosted a banquet for Dr. Gero, and after a good meal, Dr. Gero went to the not-too-distant Mount Paozu to discuss other technical issues with Bulma.

In the underground laboratory, Lazuli and Lapis were placed in separate rooms, and the entire laboratory was equipped with the strictest security system.

Gurgling, a little bit of stardust-like light dissolved in the liquid, and then slowly entered the two people's bodies, the whole process was orderly and stable.

Just when the siblings quietly metamorphosis, the distant southeast of the North Area, a gorgeous spaceship in the universe speeding, they have a large series of disc-shaped spaceship tracking behind them.

"Vegeta, how can we not get rid of them!"

With two beards, the bald warrior Nappa nervously staring at the radar signal on the screen. The above dense red dots were the enemy, showing that behind them there were forty to fifty ships coming towards them.

Vegeta's face was grim, "Speed up, full sail."

"If you go any faster, you will be overloaded."

"Speed up, ditch them first, and find a way to fix the problem of the airship."

"Okay." Nappa comply with Vegeta's order, the spaceship engine turned on to the maximum, with a backward force exerted on the body, the speed of the airship rose a big cut, but at the same time the alarm system also sounded, the lights on the airship channel blinked on and off.

Aiming at the light on the screen, Vegeta's eyes flashing cold light, these ships had been chasing them for a long time. According to some of the earliest annihilated cosmic population, their superiors were a cosmonaut named Hore, similar in appearance to Frieza back then.

Vegeta knew then that it must be the people sent by King Cold to chase them.

The ship was overloaded for several hours, and the other ship was gradually thrown away, before Vegeta asked Napa to bring down the power.

At this time, a cold hand around Vegeta's neck, Shasley embraced Vegeta from behind, "We are now safe?"

"Well, if I wasn't afraid of attracting that Hore and King Cold, I would have killed them all." Some cosmic people actually dared to chase him Vegeta, it was simply lived to the end.

"This is for Alex, we will bear it first."

"Is Alex asleep?"

"Well, just fallen asleep."

Alex was Vegeta and Shasley's son, younger than Son Goku's child by a few years, he was now sleeping in a specially manufactured nutrition module. It was because of Alex that Vegeta held back from clashing with others. That said, Vegeta had been bad in the past few years, almost all spent in the hunt, but because of this, his power level had also increased by more than ten times compared to the original.

"Where do we go next?" Shasley asked, she and Vegeta's power level had reached 180,000, excluding those big powers, would have been able to enjoy the dash.

Nappa said, "I contacted some time ago the Saiyan called Turles seems to have been wiped out. He once told me that he had met Raditz ... that boy has now become a woman's bodyguard, it is said that the other party has relations with the top of the God Mu Forces."

"How about we go to the God Mu Forces!"

"No, it's too dangerous there, the God Mu Forces are at war with the forces of King Cold, we will be exposed in the past, at least ... wait for Alex to grow up a few more years."

Shasley objected.

Nappa grunted, gave up the idea of defecting to the God Mu Forces.

Vegeta unfolded the interstellar map to look up. The interstellar map was handed down from the Planet Vegeta period. Vegeta looked at it for a long time and pointed to a small planet of the Southern Part. "We went there, this planet called Earth has only water and Animals and plants, and there are no particularly valuable mineral deposits, even the above native is very weak, so it should not attract attention."

"We go there to lurk for a few years, and then wait for Alex to grow up."

For Vegeta the proud man, he was impossible to completely hibernate, and when his son Alex had the ability to live independently, it was his time to fight back.

"Earth? Then we will go there."

Shasley and Nappa both nodded, "It will take about a year to travel to Earth from here, we need to replenish our material nearby, and it is better to change to a bigger ship."

Chapter 494

In the higher levels, North Kai was like a small pocket-sized ball, floating leisurely in the space covered with golden auspicious clouds.

Today, after a long time, this quiet planet has welcomed a group of special guests.

Those guests came from the World of the Living.

After getting permission from King Yamma, Son Goku, Chi-Chi, Piccolo, Krillin, Yamcha and others went through the long Snake Road challenge, arrived at the end of the Snake Road, standing in the cloudy auspicious clouds. Looking down, they could see a tiny planet less than 100 meters in diameter.

"Goku, that's where North Kai lives?"

"Miss Kanalita said that North Kai is the highest ranking deity in the entire North Area, the Heavenly Kaio-ken we learned is improved from the North Kai's Kaio-ken, and Lord Kai himself is a senior martial arts master in addition to his high status, and he has even more amazing martial arts there."

"Let's go down and take a look."

Son Goku and Chi-Chi laughed, then several people jumped down the Snake Road in turn. The moment they landed on the North Kai's Planet, an attraction 10 times the gravity of Earth was exerted on their bodies, and Krillin bared his mouth and took a moment to adapt.

"What a powerful gravity, much more powerful than there on Earth."

Son Goku nodded, "The gravity here is the same as the Saiyan's hometown Planet Vegeta, Lord Kai must be very strong to live on such a planet." According to the universe common power level division, the North Kai probably had several thousand power level, he could not be said to be weak.

So they looked forward to it and searched for the whereabouts of the North Kai on top of North Kai's Planet, and as the owner of this place, the North Kai soon found them as well. After learning that these people were from Earth and had passed the test of the Snake Road, for the sake of MuYang, the North Kai agreed to teach them martial arts.

Because Krillin and the others were more suitable for practicing Kaio-ken, North Kai's winning move, Kaio-ken, was only passed on to Son Goku and Piccolo.

Krillin, Tien Shinhan, Yamcha, Yajirobe and others were dutifully put on the weights and train to chase Bubbles and Gregory.

"Son Goku, Chi-Chi, I have here a more profound technique that only the simple-minded can learn, and today I will pass it on to you."

One day, North Kai called Son Goku and Chi-Chi over with a serious face.

After Son Goku and Chi-Chi learned that North Kai was going to teach them the trick, they looked at him with an expectant face.

North Kai laughed loudly, "My move is called the Spirit Bomb, which can collect the vital energy of all life on the entire planet to defend against the enemy ....."

North Kai boasted about the Spirit Bomb's magic, and then began to teach it to Son Goku and the others with great anticipation.

North Kai's Planet was a magical planet. Although the size was small, after all, it was a divine planet inhabited by North Kai, which could directly communicate with the entire North Area, thus it was full of divine energy, even if they did not training lying on it, the constant source of divine energy could also strengthen the mortal's physique.

Son Goku, Krillin and other people in the North Kai's Planet trained for half a year, this half year their physical fitness and martial arts training overall improvement. When they left the North Kai's Planet, strength compared to when they came over, there was a sea change.

Son Goku was the strongest of them, his power level directly breakthrough to 54000!

Originally, with the Earth's physique, 10,000 power level was absolutely difficult to break through the boundary, but the magic of the North Kai was here, it not only let them break through this limit, and also left a deep potential in the body.

Half a year later, Son Goku and others finished training and left the North Kai, at this time, about six years had passed since Son Goku got married.

"Goku, we left the Earth for a year, Hongye are going to be strangers to me." They were flying above the Snake Road, and Chi-Chi guiltily said to Son Goku.

In order to accompany Son Goku's cultivation, Chi-Chi entrusted her child Sun Hongyeh to Bulma's care, and she always felt that she had not fulfilled her responsibility as a mother.

Son Goku said, "Chi-Chi, you have to stay with Hongye for a while after you go back."

Piccolo said, "Humph, Son Goku, Goten and Hongye have two potentials that are very good. If you train early, you can become an amazing powerhouse in the future. You will only delay them."

Son Goku said, "Isn't there still you to help us train them..."

Chi-Chi nodded, "These years thanks to Piccolo for taking care of them, I see that they are more dear to you than to me and Bulma."

Piccolo yelled with an ugly face, "You think I'm the one who has to take care of them? Those two brats are so annoying, but it's not you two who just focus on your own practice all day long."

"Hahaha." Son Goku and Chi-Chi looked at each other and laughed, after spending these few years together, they had clearly felt the changes that had occurred in Piccolo.

They were talking and laughing, soon the entrance to the Snake Road was in sight, quickly flying over the towering snake head, they came to the site of King Yamma's office without stopping.

Seeing the eight people return from the North Kai's so quickly, King Yamma was secretly surprised, "You guys move really fast, only one year and you're back, I'll inform the Kami of Earth and have her come to take you back."

"Thank you, Lord Yamma." Son Goku and the others thanked.

King Yamma waved his hand and used the special contact information of the gods to get in touch with Kanalita, and soon Kanalita's fiery red figure appeared in the hall of King Yamma, looking at Son Goku and the others, Kanalita nodded secretly and smiled as she picked them up to go back to Earth.

Swish, a group of people appeared in the square of the Lookout, they said goodbye to each other after each left the Lookout.

Son Goku and Chi-Chi went towards the direction of Mount Paozu, Krillin and Yamcha went to Kame House, and Tien Shinhan and Chiaotzu and Yajirobe flew towards the Sacred Land of Korin below.

At this time, Sacred Land of Korin was holding the 25th World Martial Arts Tournament, gathering strong people from around the world; Tien Shinhan and others intend to go to see if there are excellent seedlings, they also intend to open a sect, teach martial arts.

Mount Paozu.

Five-year-old Son Goten and Son Hongye stayed to play in the Gravity Chamber where Son goku was practicing, and if one looked closely, one would find that the engine of the Gravity Chamber was on, and the gravity inside was adjusted to 5 times the gravity, and the two children played with each other as if nothing was wrong.

Outside, Bulma wore sunglasses to study a spaceship, from time to time pick up the drill gun to punch holes in the metal plate, the ghostly blue arc crackling.

A gust of wind flashed, Son Goku and Chi-Chi came to Bulma's side, Bulma took off her sunglasses to take a look, his face showed an excited expression, rejoicing, "You two can be considered back."

"Where are Hongye and Goten?" Chi-Chi asked with concern.

Bulma said, "They are playing in the Gravity Chamber, oops, why did you turn on the gravity engine." Chi-Chi laughed, Bulma's mind was very smart, but sometimes confused, quite like the confused Dr. Brief family.

.....

Just as Son Goku's family was happy and enjoying a warm moment, outside the solar system where the Earth was located, a short ship like a meteor across the night sky, speeding towards the direction of the Earth.

In its place after a voyage, more than a dozen disc-shaped spaceship followed, not leaving an inch.

Chapter 495

"Lord Hore, the opponent's ship has entered a small, remote star system, and according to the star map, there is only a low-level planet named Earth there." The cosmonaut with a crocodile mouth compared the star map and reported to Lord Hore on the bridge.

Hore narrowed his eyes, his bright red body reflected cold light, and his purple eyes were as evil as demons.

"It seems that that Earth is their destination, follow me closely, after chasing for so long, this king no longer wants to play the game of cat and mouse."

"Yes, my subordinates will definitely keep a close eye on them and won't let them escape again."

"That's best." Hore was cold, "Earth, from the star map is a beautiful planet. It's a pity that there are not many resources, hum, let that planet accompany the Saiyans buried in hell! The Saiyans should be satisfied to have the whole living planet buried with them."

The overbearing cold air burst out, immediately causing the temperature of the entire ship's cockpit to plummet, and all the cosmonauts around couldn't help but shiver, carefully waiting for Hore, afraid that the other party might get angry and kill them.

Earth side.

The diminutive spaceship finally entered the orbit of the Earth. The azure beautiful planet came into view, Vegeta and Shasley and his party arrived at the Earth a long way, about to land.

At that moment, the ship sounded a short beeping sound, followed by an electronic voice to inform the destination has arrived.

"The ship has arrived on Solar System Earth."

"The ship has arrived on Solar System Earth."

Looking out through the porthole, the beautiful blue planet is close in sight, Vegeta breathed a sigh of relief and laughed softly, "There is the Earth, it looks good, we can rest here for a while."

"Hey, hey, it does look pretty good."

Nappa sneered while driving the ship towards the Earth's atmosphere. The surface of the spaceship immediately gave off a fiery red glow due to overheating.

"Daddy, mommy, what do Earthlings look like?" Little boy Alex lying on Vegeta's knee.

Vegeta stroked his son's head, "Not sure, probably an ape walking upright, most of the life in the universe is like this." Vegeta also came to Earth for the first time and was not sure what was going on up there.

Shasley held Alex away from him, letting Vegeta concentrate on exploring the situation above the Earth.

Poof poof poof, the ship and the atmosphere friction issued a roar. Clatter, a huge spot of light cut through the sky and landed on the grassland a dozen kilometers away.

The green and tender grass swayed with the wind, as if waves were rolling up layers of ripples.

After the ship stopped, the scouter analyzed the composition of the atmosphere, and then the ship shuddered a few times, slightly floating, a hatch slowly opened. Nappa and Vegeta and they came out wearing combat uniforms.

Nappa lightly coughed and jumped to the ground, holding a simple scouter, hundreds of data flashed from the display.

The data displayed on the detector was reduced by a lot when the button on top of the detector was tapped to filter out data below 100 power level, and Nappa shook his head disdainfully.

"Hey, it's really a low-level planet, there are not even a few with a power level of more than 100, it seems that this planet is not a bit dangerous for us." Wiping the two beards on his lips, Nappa craned his neck, his body emitting a tyrannical aura.

Vegeta glanced at Nappa, "Stupid, I told you not to rely on the scouter, that thing is not accurate."

Nappa smiled, "Vegeta you are too cautious, the star map shows that this is a low-level planet, you see, this is exactly the same as the probe check."

Vegeta said in a low voice, "Anyway, be careful, I don't know why I feel a hint of something bad."

Nappa laughed loudly, "Surely you think too much, not to mention that you and Shasley both have 180,000 power level, even I, Nappa, also have 8,000 power level."

"Listen to Vegeta's words, all things carefully."

Shasley frowned, holding Alex's hand and walked over, quite some husband and wife, she looked at Vegeta, "Well?"

Vegeta wrinkled his eyebrows, "I don't know, there's an uneasy feeling."

"You two ....." Nappa shook his head, thinking they were too cautious. Shasley also, since married Vegeta, she also become so timid, how many horrible planets were in the universe.

But Nappa didn't know how to count the danger, the Earth was definitely at the forefront of the entire North Area. In the planet alone, there were several Auper Saiyans with a power level of more than 100 million.

.....

When Vegeta they landed, in Sacred Land of Korin's Martial Arts Tournament side, Yajirobe, holding a blade, suddenly opened his eyes and looked sharply at Vegeta's direction.

Tien Shinhan moved towards Yajirobe, "Feel it, a few darkness appeared in that direction."

"Well." Yajirobe nodded, "One of the strength is about 8000 power level of combat, the smaller one is only 500 power level, but next to those two breaths, there seems to be something else hidden ....."

"I feel the same as you, it seems that there are remarkable people have come to Earth." Tianjin rice face up seriously.

Chiaotzu floated in the air, "Tien Shinhan, the other side is very powerful."

Yajirobe carried the big sword in his hand, the light reflected from the blade shone on his face, and laughed, "Want to go over and take a look?"

Tien Shinhan smileed, "Lrt's go together, I think Goku and the others will react the same way as us."

After saying that, they laughed. At this point, they did not look at the results of the Martial Arts Tournament, and the three flew away in the air toward Vegeta and they landed in the grassland. Noticing the departure of the three, the blond host frowned a little, vaguely felt that something big had happened, but because of his role as Martial Arts Tournament speaker, so he could not follow along, and could only pray secretly in his heart.

Mount Paozu.

Son Goku and Chi-Chi were training as usual, next to Son Hongye was wrestling with Son Goten. There was a small child watching with great interest next to him, that was the son of Broly and Launch, named Elek.

Ha, Son Goku raised his head, he felt several ki landed on the earth, and not the good people.

"Goku." Chi-Chi whispered.

Son Goku said, "Chi-Chi you stay here to look after Goten and Hongye, I'll go check." Then shouted to Bulma again, "Bulma, I'm going out, you stay with Chi-Chi."

"Oh!" Bulma, sunbathing in her pretty clothes, responded after hearing Son Goku's shout.

"Son Goku, I'll go with you." A green silhouette appeared, Piccolo lived near Mount Paozu, sensing Vegeta's ki, then rushed over.

Good!" The two people hit it off, while taking off into the air.

On the other hand, the Great Azure Mountain here, Muqiu and Amelia seriously guard the home laboratory, even if they detect the darkness, they had no intention to strike, casually pull out the communicator, dialed a number.

"Hey, sister Kanalita, there is something to trouble you, yes ..... that's it."

Hang up the phone, Muqiu and Amlelia acted as if nothing happened, and sit at home.

This day, because of the arrival of Vegeta and others, the Earth's strongest people all acted up.

Son Goku, Piccolo, Yajirobe, Tien Shinhan, Chiaotzu, Krillin, and Yamcha all responded. Even Kanalita in The Lookout, after receiving their communication from Muqiu, personally rushed over.

And at this time, Vegeta was planning to carve a place to rule.

Chapter 496

Great Azure Mountain, Broly and Launch home, they perceived the uncomfortable ki of each other when Vegeta entered the Earth, but remained unmoved, lying comfortably on the cushioned chair in the sun.

Blonde Launch was wearing sunglasses, holding the juice in her hand and drinking, "Broly you do not go over to see?"

Broly raised his head, "Goku and Piccolo they passed, so it does not matter."

Launch rolled over and looked at Broly, "But the opponent seems to be quite a few, besides the two not so strong ki, What else is hidden, I worry that Goku and the others are not opponents."

Broly considered for a moment, thinking that this was indeed a problem, so he got up and was ready to go over to help, when his senses were keenly aware of the movement of the Lookout, so he sat down again, "It seems that I do not need to make a move, sister Kanalita has controlled the temple over."

Launch froze, "Teacher has made a move, then there must be no problem."

As Kanalita's disciple, although Launch did not have all the true teachings, the basic judgment was still there, the group that appeared on Earth, no matter how powerful, would not be her teacher's opponent.

"No!" Broly snapped open his eyes, his sharp eyes sweeping beyond deep space.

"What is it again?" Blonde Launch asked.

"There are other ki beyond Earth, that sickening murderous aura enveloping outer space, the combat power is definitely not weak. It turns out there was more than just one group that arrived on Earth."

Broly was a rare legendary Super Saiyan, after developing the Golden Eyes state, the power level was straight ahead of the full power of the Super Saiyan, his sensing ability far exceeded that of ordinary people. When neither Muqiu nor Amelia had noticed, he had already sensed the breath of Hore's group.

Blonde Launch jumped up excitedly, stupidly up, "Sure enough the main characters are the finale appearance, and ultimately rely on us!"

"Well." Broly nodded, but the other side was in outer space, in the absence of descending down, Broly also couldn't launch an attack on them.

After thinking about it, Broly decided to inform Muqiu and Amelia to keep an eye on them, while he himself was ready to strike at any time.

.....

"Oh, I got it." The siblings who were informed by Broly paid special attention to the situation beyond the earth, and indeed. They found a huge and dark aura again. The intensity was not very clear, this was because the distance was too far away.

Muqiu gaze constantly flickering, a beautiful face gloomy down, but because of the care of Broly, so they were calm, did not reveal their ki.

The prairie.

Vegeta, Nappa and others detected the surrounding situation, and was preparing to clean up the natives of the Earth, when the scouter in the hands of Nappa issued a "beep beep beep". A series of erroneous data in a rapid flash, poof, the scouter actually emitted an unpleasant smell.

Nappa said in surprise, "What's going on?"

"Needless to say, this planet is really not as simple as imagined."

Vegeta's face was ugly as he yelled, "Shasley, Nappa, be on alert, Alex you have to pay attention to your own safety."

"Understood."

"Got it, Dad."

Shasley and Nappa responded, even if his age was still young Alex also fully inherited the characteristics of pure-blooded Saiyans, behaving unusually precocious.

As the opponent's ki came closer and closer, in addition to Nappa because of the loss of scouter and dazed, Vegeta and Shasley's face all gloomy, "They are coming."

Suddenly, the wind was blowing, a throbbing in the air, several bright lights flashed from the sky, and in the blink of an eye had come overhead.

Vegeta and others snapped up their heads, they saw seven figures converging from all over.

Swish swish swish! Son Goku, Piccolo, Yajirobe, Tien Shinhan, Chiaotzu, Krillin, and Yamcha descended to the ground one after another, and after a while, the other martial artists on Earth also rushed this way.

Nappa looked at the few people who appeared in front of him in surprise, "Ah, how do these people look exactly like us, eh, there are actually Namekian."

Son Goku frowned and looked away, "You are Saiyans?"

"I actually know the Saiyans, could it be that you are also Saiyans?"

Vegeta opened his mouth to ask, but his eyes swept over them. Judging from the ki emitted from the other side, it was even less than Nappa. The other side was able to burn the scouter all before, the strength was definitely more than that.

It seemed that they also mastered the method of hiding the ki!

For some reason, Vegeta's mind suddenly flashed back to the group of people who took Raditz eighteen years ago, those people also had the same appearance with the Saiyans, but Raditz later joined the God Mu Forces, this small low-level planet, there were actually such people.

Son Goku shook his head, "I'm the only Saiyan here, my companions are all Earthlings." For the identity of the Saiyans, Son Goku was admitted.

"There are actually Saiyans!" Vegeta expression stunned, did not expect that in addition to them and Raditz in the universe, there are actually other Saiyans.

But think about it, when the destruction of Planet Vegeta, there were still many Saiyans who did not rush back to Planet Vegeta on time. Although later Cooler ordered the eradication, because of the death of Cooler and the rise of the God Mu Forces, the eradication of Saiyans was not complete.

"His appearance seems to have been seen somewhere, a bit like the Turles we met at first." Shasley reminded from the side.

"Hmm."

"Vegeta, do you want me to try them?" Nappa asked in a whisper.

"Do not rush, these guys are not simple, do not clash." If not because the natives on this planet look similar to the group that took Raditz back then, with Vegeta's cold personality, would have shot to kill them.

The two sides confronted each other, and soon Piccolo impatiently said, "Son Goku, why talk to them so much. There's so much darkness in these people, and they're not good people at first glance, so why not just take them captive?"

"Goku, I think Piccolo has a point." Krillin and Tien Shinhan both agreed to take each other down, Son Goku hesitated and did not refute.

"Hmph, how dare the tiny Namekian talk about capturing us." Nappa jumped forward unhappily at this point.

"Do it." Piccolo twisted his wrist and neck, took off the cloak from his body, and made a stance that he was about to fight.

The air instantly became frozen, irritable, depressing aura spread out, a ten-mile radius was enveloped by a powerful pressure.

Suddenly, the ki of Piccolo's body rose sharply, and instantly exceeded Nappa's imagination, facing Piccolo's sudden change, Nappa was already dumbfounded at this time. Between lightning and fire, a beautiful silhouette stepped forward, and Shasley flickered, blocking Piccolo's attack.

Thump thump, Piccolo's body retreated a few dozen meters, toe on the ground, actually hard cut two deep grooves.

"This woman is actually so strong?!"

Piccolo face flashed a trace of dismay. Although he was suddenly shot, the power shown was not bad at all, 51000 power level was actually forced him back directly!

"Hahahaha, didn't expect to actually meet an opponent."

Piccolo laughed out loud, his face was frozen, and he shouted explosively, "Triple Kaio-ken!"

In an instant a dark red light enveloped Piccolo's body, the huge burden made the tendons and veins on Piccolo's body surge, and under the Triple Kaio-ken, that powerful power level rose directly to 153,000!

North Kais had once said that one could not use more than twice the power of the Kaio-ken continuously, or else it would cause unrecoverable damage to the body, and Piccolo had always been strong in character and would never take the North Kai's words to heart, so the first strike was the maximum triple Kaio-ken.

Chapter 497

Vegeta and Shasley obviously did not anticipate that the other party would suddenly enhance the power of the body. Their faces could not help but show a stunned expression, "So, they have such a strong power, no wonder they dare to threaten to suppress us, Shasley, let them see the power."

"Okay."

Shasley was also a powerful warrior, with Vegeta's command, naturally he no longer conceal the power, and suddenly up to 180,000 power level released, the whole earth trembled, and began to shake.

When Son Goku and others saw this, they knew that the real battle was inevitable, and then unleashed their full strength.

"Kaio-ken x3 !"

"Kami-ken x5 !"

"Kami-ken x5 !"

"Kami-ken x5 !"

.....

In addition to Son Goku and Piccolo using Kaio-ken x3, Krillin, Tien Shinhan, Yamcha and others have used 5x's Kami-ken. Because the Kami-ken was improved by Muiyang and North Kai according to the Earth's physique, although the power exerted wasn't as obvious as the Kaio-ken, the pressure was much less. As Krillin, these martial artists who surpassed the ordinary Earth's physique, could currently withstand 5x's strength.

For a time, several hundred thousand power level of energy rose up, the wide prairie became restless.

In the dense energy field, Nappa's weak 8,000 power level became worthless, at this moment he was somewhat embarrassed and step back, shielding Alex to hide far away.

Phew, the grassland, the gale swept a burst of wind, the clothes on the people were blown to snap shaking.

Vegeta's cold cheeks penetrate the eerie chill, "This Earth is really different, the external claim is a low-level planet, but in fact is more powerful than the average high-level planet."

Even in the heyday of Planet Vegeta, super experts were not as powerful as the Earth, and Vegeta heart very suspicious of this Earth was related to the people who took Raditz.

"Your hands are now tied, we are able to be lenient with you." Son Goku was kind-hearted, he really did not want to see the Saiyans kill each other.

Vegeta's mouth hung a cruel smile. Although they showed some unexpected power level, this just showed that the opponent had the qualification to be his opponent, but it was not worth to impress him.

"With your strength, it's not enough, this prince as the prince of Planet Vegeta Saiyan, with strength up to 180,000 power level, plus this prince's wife is as powerful as this prince, how are you my opponent?"

Son Goku shook his head regretfully, the other side was not seeing the Yellow River. There were too many experts on Earth, and they were not the top ones. So stepping back from Piccolo and others, he said, "Let's join forces against them later."

"I'll be enough alone." Piccolo skipped his head.

Son Goku ignored Piccolo's reaction and said to Krillin and the others, "Krillin, Tien Shinhan, you guys pester that woman together, it won't take too long, I feel Kanalita is already coming this way."

"Good!"

They agreed on the division of labor, directly charged towards Vegeta and Shasley, as for Nappa and Alex, simply did not attract their attention, and in a moment various colors of ki waves rose on the planet, because the attack range was well controlled, it did not cause excessive damage to the entire planet.

This point, whether it was Shasley or Vegeta, both had concerns.

Piccolo and Son Goku first attack, their target was Vegeta. Although Kaio-ken was launched, the two sides still had the 30,000 strength gap. Fortunately, this gap was not big, and the skill could be made up.

Peng! Peng! Peng!

The two sides began to face each other, the human shadow, the splendid wave of ki, the stirring aftershocks continue to spread.

Vegeta had been in the universe for many years, his battle experience was very rich, plus his strength was above Son Goku and others, so he was able to fight with ease.

But unable to take down Son GOku and Piccolo for a long time, making Vegeta annoyed.

"Galick Gun!"

Vegeta shouted, placing his hands in front of his body greatly open, and then super strong energy in the form of endless waves of chakra to send out in all directions. The wind spreads from the center, the intimidating aura made the air become more thin and fragile, if ordinary people here, it was estimated that even the breathing had become very difficult.

“Thunder Shock Surprise !”

“Special Beam Cannon !”

The golden and green energy rushed over to cancel out Vegeta's attack.

"Go to hell with me, Final Flash!!!" Vegeta angrily making the ultimate move, suddenly, the clouds in the sky seemed to be cut open a mouth. Slightly silent for a while, a winding twisted flashing glittering waves of energy from the sky down.

After the strong light, a loud rumble, than the power of the atomic bomb countless times more powerful explosion at once dispersed the air, so that the battle became more shocking.

Not far away, Krillin and the others fighting with Shasley were affected and could not help but move towards the edge.

"Set!"

Chiaotzu's Superpower was applied to Shasley's body, and Shasley's eyebrows condensed, when Yajirobe waved a big knife and the bright blade crossed a beautiful trajectory, but the next second was cut into the Void.

She was hiding... Yajirobe was shocked and suddenly felt a cold breeze blowing around her neck. Shasley did to know when she appeared next to Yajirobe, and her palm was cut like a knife.

Yajirobe immediately protected his body, violently beaten and flew out. At the moment when Yajirobe was sent flying, Krillin and Yamcha attacked closely from behind.

Shasley simply flew Krillin and Yamcha sent flying, and the attack by Tien Shinhan came again.

"Tri-Beam!"

The bright white's energy exerts a frightening formidable power, Shasley's throat was dry, and a burst of blood was heard.

"Shasley...." Vegeta's eyes looked at her, the energy of the body was more intense, and at this moment, Vegeta was stronger.

.....

In orbit outside of the Earth, a dozen disc-shaped ships around a large flagship, the scouters above these ships had detected the energy response emitted above the Earth, aimed at a certain area in the northern hemisphere, they were even able to see through the naked eye a shining patch of light.

"Alec, is this the low-level planet you spoke of in your information?" The bright red demon Hore forced the question in an unpleasant tone.

Judging from the signal returned from the probe, even the high-level planet was not as strong as it.

The cosmonaut named Alec was dumbfounded, "Lord Hore, this might have been a problem during the initial exploration."

Hore waved his hand, a laser ray directly killed the other party, "Waste of things, it seems that King Cold's control of the North Area is getting worse and worse, basic information can be wrong."

"But this is interesting, in addition to Vegeta and the others, there are actually seven or eight strong people above the Earth with a power level of more than 100,000 ..... hehehe, Hore Special Forces, you go and capture them to."

"Yes."

"Obey the order!"

With a command, six red combat-suited universes came forward.

The six of them were Hore's personal guards, all of them were chosen by thousands from the side of the galaxy ruled by Hore, and each of them possessed an energy value of no less than 500,000 power level.

Watching the six descend to Earth in a small craft, Hore put his hands behind his back and stared at the large screen, which showed what was happening on Earth.

A few little ants, no need for me to personally take action yet."

Lookout.

With Kanalita's control, a hemispheric temple in the style of Inca culture was leaving its original location at a super high speed, and was about to arrive at the battlefield of Son Goku and the others.

"Kami, another enemy has appeared." Mr. Popo pointed to several fireballs in the sky and said.

Kanalita's eyes stared and flashed a cold light "It's really eventful, but since we came to Earth, then we don't want to go back."

At this time, in Lookout square, a middle-aged man who looks very similar to Son Goku sat on the ground, "Do you want me to make a move?"

Kanalita lightly pulled down the fiery red hair, lightly smiled, "No, Mr. Bardock help me keep an eye on that guy outside the Earth, I'm afraid he will mess it up!"

Bardock laughed, "They are so unlucky to come to Earth instead of going anywhere else."

Chapter 498

The battle on the prairie continued, Son Goku and Piccolo teamed up under although they could not resist Vegeta, Vegeta could not do anything to them as well.

Rumble!

Rumbling sound from the vast battlefield, energy wave after wave.

Along with the sound of the battle was getting stronger and stronger, some of the martial artists who came from distant places, could only stay on the periphery of the battlefield, more than a hundred people floating in mid-air, dumbfounded at the battle in the center of the region.

"Unbelievable, just the air pressure generated by the battle makes it impossible to get close."

"The battle in the center has reached an unimaginable intensity."

One by one, the martial artists watched in amazement, their voices trembling as they spoke against the howling winds.

Suddenly, a riotous whirlwind rose up, and sinuous lightning struck down from the black, dark clouds.

"Retreat!" The strong man in charge let out a shout of alarm, and everyone withdrew several dozen kilometers in succession, then looked into the distance with worry.

"Snort!"

After a few rounds of exchanges, Vegeta touched the corner of the mouth spilled blood, revealing a cold gaze, "Hey" sneering, a hideous color on the hard cheeks, with a low roar, the peak of power gradually revealed.

At the same time, Son Goku and Piccolo topped three times the pressure of the Kaio-ken, the dark red light curtain enveloped their bodies, facing Vegeta with more blistering attacks. Son Goku's figure turned sharply evading Vegeta's attacks, while working with Piccolo, trying to find opportunities to counterattack.

"Son Goku, can you last a while!"

Piccolo jumped backwards a few dozen meters, two fingers against his brow.

When Son Goku saw this, he coughed up blood in his mouth and stopped in front of Vegeta, "You have to move faster, too long I'm afraid I can't support it."

"Don't worry about it!" Piccolo laughed, began to brew breath in earnest, ready to cast a full-powered Special Beam Cannon!

This was how the big moves on earth were, although they could bring out a terrifyingly powerful attack, the disadvantage was that the preliminary brewing time was too long, and without the cooperation of a partner, it was extremely easy to be interrupted by the opponent in the middle.

This was obviously not conducive to a short battle.

Seeing this, Son Goku laughed and roared with a stony face, "4x Kaio-ken."

In an instant, as the energy of the 4x Kaio-ken. was released, Son Goku's whole body burst into wild flames.

The powerful to breathtaking 200,000 power level burst out, the instant peak actually exceeded Vegeta's energy.

"Damn, how this guy's energy is still rising!" Vegeta face a tremor, pupils fiercely shrunk into a pinpoint.

"This lord is a Saiyan prince, absolutely will not be defeated by you."

The strong pride made Vegeta feel tormented, coupled with the previous Shasley injury brought about by the anger, facing the power of Son Goku burst out, Vegeta actually also recklessly enhance the power.

All the muscles swell up, although this form sacrificed part of the speed, but the power did rise.

“Final Impact !!”

The body airflow rolling, countless thin as cicada wings of energy blades suspended around the body. Vegeta arms up, and then fiercely stretch out, and then countless dense energy light points in an array, a light point like an arrow, bursting out at speed.

"Kamehameha!"

Son Goku pushed his hands forward and made a counterattack.

Rumble!!!

With a deafening roar, a huge mushroom cloud of dark red rose above the plain once again.

The sky was filled with smoke and dust to form a black wall of air, followed by an inside-out explosion slamming outward.

Mushroom cloud, black wall of air, all burst, radiating in all directions.

If this powerful impact directly on the Earth, even after the Dragon Ball reinforced planet core, there was a danger of being broken, and at this point, the battle had reached the point of extinction.

"Vegeta!!!"

Shasley was worried and about to get close, but Tien Shinhan and Yajirobe blocked her way.

"Go to hell!"

The female Saiyan angrily reprimanded, ignoring the injuries on her body to enhance the power, Tien Shinhan and Yajirobe were seriously injured by Shasley's attack, spitting out blood and then flew backwards.

"Ah, it's Mr. Son Goku and Mr. Piccolo, and several other contestants who have participated in the World Martial Arts Tournament!"

Far from the battlefield, a helicopter with a blond host arrived as soon as he finished hosting the Martial Arts Tournament, the cameraman carrying his filming equipment against the wind and waves, venturing with him.

The footage of the battle was quickly transmitted around the world through the camera.

"Viewers, the Earth has encountered an unprecedented crisis, several unknown powerful people have descended on the Earth, at this moment Mr. Son Goku and his companions are fighting with all their might, because the energy of both sides is too powerful, the helicopter can only hover on the periphery."

"There are other martial artists over there, and they are all powerful people in human history."

The blonde host instructed the helicopter pilot to surround the edge of the battlefield and then landed on the side of more than a hundred martial artists in the distance, "Hello, we are now broadcasting live in the world, do you know what is going on inside?"

"No, we don't really know, to be honest, the level of battle there is beyond what we can cope with!"

"The few clerics who participated in the battle have a power level of at least 100,000 energy values, we are too far behind compared to that."

Those martial artists shook their heads and said, although they were all strong people who stood out after the opening of the era of martial arts, and some of them had been baptized in the alien battlefield, but this only increased their eyesight, in the face of battles of up to several hundred thousand levels, their little power was really not worth mentioning.

The blonde host nodded and faced the camera, "The power level value is a measure of the strongest person outside the Earth's own energy, and our Earth's human body index tester has the same unit range, but the conversion unit is slightly different, the Earth's ordinary human energy unit is 'J', martial artists for D The unit of energy for an ordinary person on Earth is 'J' and for a martial artist is D. 100J is equivalent to 1D, which is 1 point of energy value year on year."

"The average adult Earthling who has not practiced martial arts has a power level of about 5 points."

"And Mr. Son Goku and his companions who are fighting the alien enemy, their power level is above 100,000 energy values, but even so, the battle is still very difficult."

"Let's bless our heroes!"

In recent years, with the Earth martial artists out of the Earth, the concept of measuring power level had long been popular, and the blonde host said it only to enhance the public's awareness.

.....

The world was busy and tense as usual, people were busy with their work, and the "earthquake" that started a few minutes ago disturbed the tranquility of the working people.

Little did they know that on one side of the world, a fierce battle was in full swing.

But as the blond host and his team joined in, big screens all over the world began to broadcast the battle on the prairie.

Pedestrians who were going to work, or sitting at home, saw the battle broadcast from afar. Such shocking images naturally triggered a riot, but now the people of Earth, with their martial arts literacy substantially improved, would not think that these images were faked.

That was when they learned that Earth had actually been attacked by powerful aliens!

"So powerful, that glowing mass of energy actually carried lightning."

"That's called a ki wave, I've seen it inside the Martial Arts Tournament DVD."

"The enemy this time is very strong."

Alien invasion, I hope our fighters can carry it."

"Go for it."

I remember the time when the demons invaded the earth fifty-five years ago, when the earth faced a moment of even greater despair.

There were optimists and pessimists, and many people were scared silly when they saw the scene shown on the TV screen, "Aliens attacking the Earth, the same as when the demon invaded that time? We're finished!"

"The enemy is so strong, will our people be able to support us?"

"I don't want to die yet ....."

The whole world was abuzz, although their peaceful life had made them intentionally forget something, now ..... they remembered, in their grandfather's generation, the disaster that had happened. The departments of Central City began to act, and all those who maliciously spread rumors and wreak havoc during this disaster were dealt with aggravated.

.....

Before the smoke cleared, Son Goku and Vegeta tangled into a ball, because the two had the ability to sense the ki, and thus the sight barrier could not affect the battle.

"Hahahaha, let you wait." Piccolo laughed coldly, finally ready.

Arms straightened, a spiral ki wave was released.

“Special Beam Cannon !!”

The complete Special Beam Cannon was released with the angry roar. The energy of the green was directly impacted, and the auxiliary energy was surrounded by a spiral. The target was Vegeta.

At this time, Son Goku was fighting Vegeta, and suddenly the body was cold, feeling life was in crisis, the panic was also desperate to aggregate energy.

"Final Flash!!"

In haste, the energy could not all aggregate, the horrific explosion occurred within a stone's throw.

Son Goku was blown away by the fiery wave of air, landing on the ground has been withdrawn from the state of Kaio-ken.

Vegeta was more miserable, the ground sank hundreds of meters, showing a horrific huge crater, the most central figure was covered in bruises, the battle suit shattered.

Chapter 499

"Damned earthlings, I will break you into pieces!!!"

The angry hiss resounded through the world, Vegeta's face woefully out of the big explosion.

Although Vegeta blocked Piccolo's attack, he also had been exhausted.

"Eh, dad he will lose?" Alex was protected by Nappa hiding in the distance. When he saw the battle ahead could not help but ask.

"....." Nappa's dry throat moved, but in any case, he could not say anything, the intensity of the battle reached the current stage, he had long been unable to see clearly.

"Son Goku, that guy actually still not dead, Saiyan body are so strong?" Piccolo gasped.

Son Goku laughed bitterly, "I'm not sure."

"Krillin side is not very good either, I did not expect two Saiyans can mess us up so badly."

Piccolo's face was grim, "Do you have any more immortal beans there?"

Although the use of Senzu Beans in battle was a bit of a victory, Piccolo was not a pedantic person, this was not a Martial Arts Tournament, but a critical moment for the survival of the planet.

"I have a few here, I'll take them out, we each have one." Son Goku responded and turned sideways to get the small pouch at his waist.

However, just at this time, the accident happened.

Six fireballs suddenly fell from the sky, sharp energy rays directly swish swish swish swish towards Son Goku they swept over.

Son Goku, Piccolo and Vegeta did not have time to react, they were flooded by these energy rays. At the same time, Shasley, Krillin, and Yamcha were also within the energy coverage.

"What are they?"

"There are actually other enemies!"

Son Goku and the others had ugly faces, because the scene just happened so suddenly that everyone did not react.

When they came back to their senses, there were six more rough-skinned cosmic beings in front of them, some of them had scales on their bodies, some had beast tails behind them, some had a few more eyes, and some simply looked like aliens.

"He is your companion?" Son Goku face gloomy towards Vegeta yelled.

Vegeta's face was as cold as frost at this moment, he cut off the gold and said, "I have never seen them."

Piccolo snickered, "It seems that you are being followed, they are chasing you."

"Hey, there are actually so many experts on a single Earth, but unfortunately all of your power seems to be exhausted."

One of the six men said gloomily, "We are the Hore Special Force Team, under the orders of Lord Hore to kill you."

"Old Third, no need to talk nonsense with them, kill them all."

The captain of the Hore Special Force Team indifferently swept a glance at Son Goku and the others, and an aura of awe-inspiring and darkness came over them.

Son Goku and the others' faces stiffened, their bodies felt as if they were imprisoned, and the powerful aura made them unable to move.

"The energy in their bodies, at least 500,000!"

The ice coldly spit out a few words, Piccolo hardly went towards Son Goku.

Tien Shinhan, Yajirobe and others gathered together, carefully taking out the Senzu Beans from their pockets.

"Damn, these people are so strong, am I going to be buried here Vegeta ....." Vegeta was silent, his brows knitted deeply, if in his heyday, he might not had been so worried, but now he felt a pang of discomfort.

His eyes flickering to Shasley as well as Alex side, Vegeta heart to search for a retreat route.

"Watch out!!!"

Suddenly there was a cry, Vegeta looked back and saw an energy ray hurtling towards him.

Puff, fiery energy shot from the chest, and through the back, the blood splash, Vegeta spit blood, fell to the ground head-on, the bright red blood flowed all over the place.

This was not finished, after seriously wounded Vegeta, the other members of Hore Special Force Team and aimed at Son Goku, Piccolo, Shasley, Nappa and other people present, almost a massacre, all of them fell in a pool of blood.

"Damn, this prince ..... how could die under the sneak attack of these bastards!" Vegeta eyes were splitting, struggling to get up, but because of serious lung injuries, as long as the force of the mouth will spit blood.

Hore Special Force Team leader laughed loudly, "A few small ants, easily killed, is really not interesting, the group hurried to complete the task explained by Lord Hore, this planet also destroyed together."

"Yes." Several other people laughed.

"Captain, the situation is not right!"

"What's wrong?"

"Those people didn't die ....."

"Hmm?" Hore Special Force Team Captain was surprised to actually see Son Goku and the others crawling up in place, their clothes shattered but not injured at all, "What the hell is going on here?"

"Phew, thanks to the immortal beans in hand!"

Son Goku said thankfully, "You are also a Saiyan, If it is not a dignified righteous death in battle, I don't think you will be reconciled." After that, Son Goku took out a Senzu Bean and stuffed it into Vegeta's mouth. Vegeta chewed a bit, an elemental energy spread in the mouth, the next second full health.

Incredibly looking at his hands, Vegeta felt his body's ki actually enhanced a lot.

"Son Goku you fool."

Piccolo gritted his teeth and squeezed out a few words.

Son Goku laughed loudly, "This is called Senzu Beans, can instantly recover all injuries."

"There is still such a thing on Earth?" Vegeta look stunned, from the hands of Son Goku, he took a few Senzu Beans to feed Shasley, Alex and Nappa. However, just a few steps away, the staff of the Hore Special Force Team had come back to their senses, they once again attacked Vegeta.

"Get out of the way!" Vegeta voice cold said.

"Hey, just you kid, Lord Hore said you are some kind of Saiyan, then let me see how powerful the so-called fighting people really are."

Hore Special Force Team Captain step forward, these people had power level up to 500,000, indeed, Vegeta and Son Goku couldn't resist.

Vegeta's heart was anxious, holding the Senzu Bean in his hand and trying to move towards Shasley, but with a bang, the hit of the Hore Special Force Team Captain came over.

Vegeta's face stiffened, several ribs were directly broken.

"Hmph, Saiyans are no big deal, can't even block one of my blows." A mocking voice rang in his ears, Vegeta face fierce stare at the other side. The other party laughed disdainfully, not even looking at Vegeta's anger in the eyes.

"Piccolo, help them out!" Son Goku couldn't look away.

"Humph, they are the enemy."

Eventually Piccolo still stepped forward, the two once again burst out the power of Kaio-ken. At the same time, Tien Shinhan, Krillin and others also use Kami-ken. However, the strength difference between the two sides was too great. There was not much time, and several people were seriously injured again.

Although Senzu Beans restored several people's injuries again, in the face of the terrifying Hore Special Force Team, they all could do nothing.

"Hahahaha, we've had enough, kill them all, besides I'm interested in what they have to recover their injuries, find it and offer it to Lord Hawley."

Hore Special Force Team Captain showed greedy eyes, he wanted to take it for himself, but remembering the horror of Hore, he decided to offer it up, and might be able to get a commendation.

"Is there no way out?" Son Goku gasped as they did.

"Shasley..... hold on!"

Looking at the breathing gradually weakened Shasley, Vegeta nails scratched into the flesh.

Suddenly, a shadow was projected from the sky, and then in full view of all, a huge crimson building fell from the sky.

It was a hemispherical structure with a golden bulge at the bottom, with various intricate patterns of birds and animals carved around its circumference.

When approaching the ground a hundred meters, the huge building hovered in the air, blackened to block out the light, looking particularly magnificent.

"What in the end ..... is it?"

The members of the Hore Special Force Team frowned, seemingly without having seen that strange building.

The airship was not like an airship, the palace was not like a palace.

Instinctively, with the appearance of that hemisphere-shaped object, the Hore Special Force Team Captain's eyelids kept jumping, as if something bad was going to happen.

"That ..... is the Lookout. "

"Lord Kanalita is here."

Son Goku and Krillin had smiles on their faces.

Boom, the Lookout landed on the ground, the golden protrusion rooted into the soft earth, as if a sharp needle poked into the tofu, without the slightest resistance.

At the edge of the shrine, Lookout of martial artists practicing in the shrine stood on it, and in the middle was Kanalita, dressed as a white Kami, looking down from above, her fiery red hair fluttering in the wind, her beautiful face with a slight smile.

A light tap on the divine staff, the Lookout as a whole immediately attached a layer of energy protection shield.

After protecting the Lookout crowd, Kanalita floated down as if in awe.

.....

In the distance, the camera was aimed closely at the magnificent Lookout, and the scene that attracted infinite imagination was being broadcast live to the whole world.

Chapter 500

"What's that one, so pretty!"

"The fiery red hair."

In front of the television screens all over the world, all the people who were following the battle were amazed by Kanalita's gorgeous dress and stunning beauty after seeing her appear on the scene.

This was a battle for the survival of the Earth, but with the appearance of Kanalita, somehow a feeling suddenly arose in everyone's heart that this catastrophe was here to pass! It was incredible, but this was the effect of Kanalita's appearance.

The golden Lookout behind her was even more incredible, "That building behind her, it seems to be the legendary Lookout of Kami."

"Could it be a Kami?"

Countless reveries filled everyone's heart.

The blond host had received the most basic training at the Lookout after he finished hosting the 23rd World Martial Arts Tournament six years ago, but of course the training he received was not in terms of actual combat. Instead, it was the ability to explain martial arts combat. So he had seen Kanalita and the magnificent Lookout.

"As you can see, audience, this red-haired woman, she is the Kami Ms. Kanalita."

"Goddess Kanalita is a Kami who resides in the Lookout, and any martial artist who has landed in the Lookout has received instruction from her. In addition, Goddess Kanalita is also the only disciple of Mr. Muyang, the God of Martial Arts, who was once the guest of honor at the 18th World Martial Arts Tournament, and after becoming the Kami of Earth twenty-five years ago, has been residing in the Lookout guarding the peace of the Earth."

Saying that, the camera gave a close-up of the huge Lookout behind him, and when it was known that this crimson building was the Lookout where the Kami resided, all the people in front of the television immediately held reverence.

"This time, due to the invasion of the alien enemy, even the Kami of the heavenly realm have stepped in, which will surely be a scene that will be written in the history books."

The blond host preached loudly, his eloquence was excellent, and then he went on to talk about the time when the demons invaded fifty-five years ago, directly making many ignorant people understand more secret secrets.

"So it was the Kami."

"Back then when the demon invaded, it was the God of the Martial Arts and Kami at the time who saved the world."

"This world ..... actually even has gods appearing."

Many people couldn't believe it, it felt like their worldview was going to collapse, but everything in the screen was actually telling people that it was all real.

Over Mount Paozu, Chi-Chi and Bulma, who were nervous because of Son Goku and Piccolo's injury put down their hanging hearts when they saw Kanalita appear through the TV screen.

"Kanalita personally come, Goku and other should not be in danger." A smile appeared on Chi-Chi's serene face.

"Yes, you see, even Uncle Bardock is also on the Lookout."

There was nothing more reassuring to them than this, a Super Saiyan, a Kami, both were immensely powerful masters, they stood at the forefront, how could those invading Earth's cosmonauts be their opponents.

The other side of the world on the prairie.

Vegeta dragged his injured arm, his eyes full of shock, "The ki on this woman is more powerful than everyone present ..... Could there really be a Kami on Earth?"

The captain of Hore Special Force Team frowned, "What the hell are you?"

Kanalita smiled blandly, "Earth's Kami, Kanalita."

"Kami? I never heard of it, in front of our Hore Special Force Team, even the gods have to submit!" The Hore Special Force Team captain let out a snicker, "bah", spit on the ground. The Kami, only foolish backward race would worship, he only believed in their own strength, the Kami in their eyes was not worth mentioning.

"Oh ....." Kanalita lightly laughed, fluttering like a stunning figure. She stepped forward, and shouted "Kami-ken", a far more powerful force than the Hore Special Force Team burst out, the incomparable energy turned into a wall of air to crush forward.

The momentum was like a rainbow, and the figure flashed rapidly, like the first flash of light, in the blink of an eye, Kanalita's figure had already arrived in front of the Hore Special Force Team Captain.

"What a speed!!!"

When did she come over?

Hore Special Force Team Captain's pupils suddenly shrunk, a trace of doubt flashed on his mind.

He hurriedly mobilized his power to resist, but it was completely too late.

"It's useless, my current power is above 1 million power level, even if you want to block, you can't stop it." A clear and cold voice rang out, and a charming face clearly appeared in front of him.

"Shit!" Secretly saying a bad thing, he quickly moved his body, but the fierceness of Kanalita's attack was beyond the imagination of the Hore Special Force Team Captain.

"It's too late to know now!"

Kanalita smiled lightly, instantly forced to Hore Special Force Team Captain within a meter. Before he had time to retreat he grabbed his shoulder, bang, the other hand raised ..... the palm to Hore Special Force Team Captain's chest, a flash of gorgeous light qigong wave released.

The Hore Special Force Team Captain's face panicked, yet his shoulder was firmly grasped by Kanalita, simply unable to dodge.

There was a violent roar in place, and the ki wave in front of his chest instantly broke through the battle suit on the Hore Special Force Team Captain, and then directly through his torso. After penetrating the chest of the Hore Special Force Team Captain, the ki wave rushed out from the other side and kept shooting tens of thousands of meters across the vast prairie.

On the ground, the heat flow generated by the energy impact swept out a straight line of marks.

Ahhhhh ..... there was a miserable scream, the Hore Special Force Team Captain's face was grim, his eyes filled with a glow of disbelief.

How could he be wounded by a woman, yet the burning sensation and intense pain coming from his chest told him that everything was real, and he felt his life draining out of him.

"Go to hell!!!"

Kanalita sneered expressionlessly, since she had already struck, she naturally drove to the end, the power of Hore Special Force Team she did not put in her eyes.

So, aiming at the head of the Hore Special Force Team Captain, another ki wave struck out from her hand, the energy was steeply strengthened several times, and the light was even more blinding.

In a matter of seconds, the Hore Special Force Team Captain was killed by Kanalita's hand.

"Captain!!!" The remaining five members of the Hore Special Force Team cried out in panic.

All of them looked at the scene in disbelief, with horrified expressions on their faces.

The captain had died just like that? He was a strong man with 550,000 power level, even compared to himself, he was equal to him, how could he lose so easily?

The remaining members looked at Kanalita's gaze became fearful. If she could easily kill the captain, she could naturally kill them, and this woman's strength ..... was definitely above theirs.

"Next it's your turn."

The icy gaze swept toward the remaining five people of the Hore Special Force Team, instantly, the temperature of the air suddenly dropped by more than ten degrees, the entire sky condensed, a strong sense of oppression swept over.

None of these people would be spared.

The five people were shocked by Kanalita's power and wanted to escape, but found that their bodies had been locked by the other party's power, so they moved backwards with difficulty with ugly faces. They heard the sound of several fights, and another person came out from behind them, and the one who struck was Bardock.

"Kanalita, need me to take care of them?" Bardock smiled as he walked over.

"No need." Shaking her head with a light smile, Kanalita's figure flashed in vain, countless residual shadows filled the prairie, and the next second the remaining five members of the Hore Special Force Team were killed in reluctance by Kanalita's energy rays.

Son Goku and Piccolo, who were also seeing Kanalita for the first time with their own eyes, were stunned by her terrifying power.

Son Goku's blood boiled, "Awesome, I can't help but want to challenge Kanalita."

Piccolo said, "This woman, really is not ordinary powerful."

Krillin shivered and blazed, "Lord Kanalita's power is simply beyond imagination, if only I had that much power."

"Good ..... is so powerful!" Vegeta's voice trembled, was stunned by Kanalita's eyes. There was a feeling of sweat, too horrible. If this woman wanted to kill himself, she just needed a move. This taught the proud Vegeta to accept.

"By the way, Shasley ....." Suddenly came back to his senses Vegeta hurriedly flew to Shasley's side, but when he picked up Shasley, the other party had already stopped breathing because of serious injuries.

Vegeta stuffed the Senzu Beans into Shasley's mouth, however, the magic of the Senzu Beans did not work.

Bardock frowned and walked to Vegeta, "It's useless, Senzu Beans can only save the seriously injured, once the death is useless."

"Dead ....." Dumbfoundedly looking at Shasley, Vegeta heart like a knife cut, yelled in pain.

"Vegeta."

Nappa hold Alex over, because of the previous impact, Alex had fainted. It was lucky to say that the two people were too far away from the battle, so they were not immediately killed by the Hore Special Force Team.

Bardock said, "In fact, there is no way to save her.. As long as you collect the Dragon Balls, you can make a wish to resurrect her."

Vegeta looked up sharply, "Dragon Balls?"
