

Ball God 591

Chapter 591

Yunzabit Heights.

The restless wind rustled up tiny particles. The barren highlands were directly illuminated by the sunlight, leaving mottled traces through the clouds. The surrounding colors were dim, and it was obvious that there were no signs of life.

This was the place where Piccolo trained and lived all year round. In such a harsh environment, other than Piccolo, Son Goten and Son Hongye, who followed Piccolo to train, no one would come here.

However, besides them, Son Goku, Vegeta and Shasley also came.

“In order to transform into a Super Saiyan God, you need to inject the energy of five kind-hearted Saiyans into you. However, according to Muqiu and the others, this method is not formal. After using it, you can't fully feel the comprehension brought by the Super Saiyans God Realm. It will be very difficult to comprehend a higher realm in the future.”

During this period of time, Son Goku asked Muqiu about the Super Saiyan God. He also saw their Super Saiyan God Transformation. Compared to his Super Red Saiyans Transformation, their Super Saiyans God had more foundation and dimensional strength.

The real Saiyan God had a stronger advantage in terms of recovery and long-lasting combat. The Saiyan God that he had achieved were also strong in recovery, but their combat ability was not satisfying, and the energy consumption was more intense.

Vaguely, he noticed the drawbacks of the technique.

Vegeta shook his fingers impatiently. “Don't worry about those useless things. Hurry up and inject your energy into me. I will also do what you Kakarot did.”

“Are you really not going to consider it?” Son Goku reminded.

“There's no need,”

Vegeta replied decisively.

Because the God of Destruction, Lord Beerus, had caused a huge ruckus at Bulma's birthday banquet, Son Goku had been lucky enough to reach the Super Saiyan God state. Vegeta, who felt that he had been left behind by Son Goku, naturally did not want to fall behind Son Goku.

As for the consequences of the technique, it did not matter to him at all. All he had to do was to follow Son Goku and not let him surpass him too much. Besides, if he really wanted to rely on his own ability to comprehend the so-called “Super Saiyan God” realm, he did not know how much time it would take. Vegeta did not allow himself to fall behind for a long time.

Seeing that Vegeta had made up his mind, Son Goku no longer tried to persuade him. “Alright, then we will inject energy into your body.”

He glanced at Shasley, Son Hongye, Son Goten and others. The few of them worked together to inject energy into Vegeta's body. As the energy entered his body, Vegeta frowned slightly. After a few seconds, a wisp of smoke like fire energy suddenly rose around his body.

Whew, the golden auspicious clouds gathered up, as if the gods descended. Vegeta's ki disappeared, and the color of his eyebrows and hair turned into fire red.

As the color of his hair changed, the flame smoke around his body gradually disappeared and was replaced by a blue light spot.

When he opened his eyes, his vermilion eyes flashed with divine light. Vegeta had already transformed into a Super Saiyan God.

“This is the Super Saiyan God Transformation!”

Vegeta said word by word, and his eyes burned with a blazing flame.

With a whoosh, a straight energy ray shot out from his hand. Instantly, a high ground in the distance was ignited, and dazzling rays of light rose along with a mushroom cloud. Violent energy wreaked havoc in all directions. If not for Earth being strengthened by the Super Dragon Ball, that simple strike was enough to destroy Earth several times over.

“This power is several times stronger than my strongest state.”

Feeling the energy contained in his body in disbelief, Vegeta laughed loudly. He had a feeling that he was the only one in the world. It turned out that Carlo used this power to fight against Lord Beerus, the God of Destruction. As long as he train for a period of time, he can completely grasp this power.

Vegeta, who had obtained a new power, was full of fighting spirit. His state of mind seemed to have been elevated to another level. In fact, he was affected by the realm of Super Saiyan God.

Although the “Super Saiyan God” they had changed into was not a complete “Super Saiyan God”, it also had some characteristics of a God. If the Super Saiyan God was a real “Level 7 Dimension” realm, then the Super Saiyan God was only a little bit weaker. Although his strength was also “Half-God”, his realm was only a little bit.

In fact, the difference between the two could be differentiated from the form.

Son Goku and Vegeta's Super Saiyan God transformation maintained their normal appearance. Only the color of their hair and pupils changed, becoming a vermilion. As for Muqiu and Amelia, the Super Saiyan God, other than the red divine flame and hair color, maintained the appearance of Super Saiyan God. Its shape was somewhat similar to the Super Saiyan Blue.

From the looks of it, it was more appropriate to call the Super Saiyan God.

Vegeta proudly maintained the state of the Super Saiyan God. It was not until more than ten minutes later that the red light gradually disappeared.

After the experience of transforming into the Super Saiyan God, Vegeta's expression became much more confident. He only needed to exercise step by step. He thought that he would soon be able to freely control the Super Saiyan God transformation.

“Take a rest. It will be Shasley’s turn later.”

Currently, the only people who had the ability to transform into a “Half-God” Super Saiyan God were Son Goku, Vegeta, Shasley, and Elek. As Son Goten, Son Hongye, and Alex, because their own strength was a little lacking, if they forcefully transformed, they would only be superficial and would not be able to reach the “Half-God” Level.

Therefore, instead of transforming into a Super Saiyan God, without the strength of a Half-God, it was better to wait until their strength was a little stronger.

Son Hongye and Son Goten did not have much of an opinion on this decision. Besides, Son Hongye was still pregnant, so it was indeed not suitable for him to break through now.

Everyone rested for a while. After their energy recovered, they helped Shasley transform. Soon, Shasley also completed her transformation.

The entire process was equivalent to injecting a seed of a higher level transformation into their bodies. After that, they only needed to spend a period of time to master this power and they would be able to enter the Level of the “Half-God”.

Not far away, on a rock rack, Piccolo, Elek, and Muqiu, and the others were leaning against the stone wall, watching the situation on Son Goku’s side.

Muqiu crossed his arms over his chest and leaned back against the stone wall. He teased Elek, “You don’t plan on transforming with them?”

Elek shook his head and said, “I think it’s better for me to do it step by step. Their state is not the real’ Super Saiyan God ‘!”

Elek, who had received guidance from the Angel, knew the importance of the realm and had confidence in breaking through independently. More importantly, he was in charge of a galaxy universe in Acceleration World. With Acceleration World’s advancement, his future could be said to be bright. He did not need to lower his foundation at all and did things that he could take advantage of.

“Then you have to work hard. It is not easy to comprehend the realm of ‘Super Saiyan God’ by yourself. Don’t even surpass Hongye when the time comes.”

“I know.” Elek nodded confidently.

Seeing Elek’s confident look, Muqiu gently patted him on the shoulder and then teleported away in front of him.

Elek would come to Yunzabit Heights; the high ground was mainly to watch over his wife, Sun Hongye. When Muqiu came over, he reminded his nephew not to be greedy for a moment of convenience. Since Elek was fully aware of the direction of training behind him, then he could leave without worry.

Chapter 592

The training progress of Son Goku, Vegeta, and the others was very smooth. They were all extraordinary geniuses. In just one month, they had mastered the mystery of the Super Saiyan God transformation. Here, their training had reached the peak. If they continued to study, they would need more knowledgeable people to guide them.

They thought of Whis, so they used the communication device in Bulma's hand to contact him and use the power of Earth's delicacies to trade.

Whis himself was also optimistic about Son Goku and the others. With the idea of increasing the experts for Universe 7, he simply took advantage of the situation and took them to God of Destruction Planet to train. This matter made the God of Destruction Lord Beerus very unhappy. However, after a few delicious meals, Lord Beerus still acquiesced that they would stay in God of Destruction Planet to train.

Originally, if he wanted to find a good teacher, Muiyang, April, and the others were very suitable. However, during this period of time, Muiyang had been busy with Acceleration World's matter. After showing up on Earth last time, he quickly disappeared. It was not easy to find them.

It was worth mentioning that in this one month or so, Son Hongye and Elek's children were born. According to the names that Muiyang and Melia had come up with before, they were named "Plaque"!

In recent times, Son Goten and his wife Angela's child are also born, named "Pepe."

In a flash, Son Goku and Broly were both grandpas.

In Acceleration World, Sun Hongye was taking care of her little daughter in the courtyard in Planet Wudao, and Elek was carefully serving her.

During this period of time, even the more rude Blonde Launch had become gentle. In front of her own little granddaughter, she was busy all over the place. However, her actions not only did not take good care of Son Hongye and Plaque, but also caused a lot of trouble. In the end, Melissa could not stand it anymore. She simply used forceful methods to turn her personality into a gentle Blue Haired Launch.

"Amelia, look, Broley even has a granddaughter. You and Lapis have to work hard as well!" Melissa urged her daughter.

Although it was difficult for a Half-God to give birth to a descendant, as long as one worked hard, there would always be a chance to gain something. For example, Muiyang and April, didn't they only obtain Mutian after decades of trying?

Hearing this, Amelia rolled her eyes and said to her mother, "This is not a relationship of not working hard." Her and Lapis' current realm strength was even stronger than that of April, and it was even more difficult to produce offspring.

Melissa glared at her unhappily. "It doesn't matter. If you don't try, you won't gain anything. You just can't let go. You have to do more things between husband and wife."

"Mom, how can you talk like this?" Amelia's face was slightly red.

"You're even shy. You don't have the demeanor I had back then."

Melissa shook her head. Why didn't Amelia look like her at all? Back then, for the sake of getting pregnant with them, Melia and Melis had worked hard together in that area. Looking at Muqiu and Amelia, it seemed that she did not have much hope of having a grandson or granddaughter.

If she had known earlier, she would not have let them break through so early.

“Muqiu, Amelia is a girl and her body is a little thin. Don't be like Lazuli. If it really doesn't work, what do you think of Lazuli? The possibility of one more person giving birth to a child is a little higher.” Melissa shifted the topic to Muqiu.

“Take care of Plaque first. We'll talk about this later.”

Muqiu really couldn't resist her mother's openness.

When he thought about the situation of Lazuli and Lasuli, he couldn't help but shiver. Although he had some expectations in her heart, most of the family would be in a mess. Lazuli and Lasuli were quite independent. It could be seen from the fact that they disliked each other in the early years.

“Sigh —” Melissa sighed. Her words were in vain.

Muqiu and Amelia's strength had already been determined. If she wanted to have a grandson or granddaughter, she would probably have to start with Mutian, who had not yet grown up.

“Mutian is almost twelve years old. We must not let him be like Muqiu and the others.”

Melissa secretly decided that she had to talk to April about it later. She had to arrange for Mutian to get married as soon as possible when Mutian was not strong enough. In order for the bloodline of the MUYANG Family to be passed down, Melissa was worried to death.

On the other hand, while Melissa was “working hard” for the family, MUYANG was worried about Acceleration World's angel candidate.

The quiet lake was sparkling, reflecting the huge projection of the universe in the sky. MUYANG held the soft body of Gaia and stared at it without blinking.

“What do you say, let you become an Angel in charge of Acceleration World?”

The universe in Acceleration World had already formed a certain scale and needed a general management talent.

Gaia was stunned, its eyes narrowed into a line, and there was no sign of agreement or disagreement on its cute face.

“Do you want to or not?”

“You can... try.” A clear and melodious voice rang out. After thinking for a moment, Gaia moved her body a little.

“That's good.”

Muyang revealed a smile. Then, he placed Gaia on the ground and tried to materialize Acceleration World's energy. It contained a rich amount of universe origin energy.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh! The sparkling and translucent light focused in front of Muyang and gradually entered Gaia's body.

Gaia's attributes were rather special. She was the best candidate to be a manager. As the universe origin energy gradually entered Gaia's body, its soft, blue body gradually expanded. It was originally only the size of a washbasin, but it quickly grew to the size of a tire. After it continued to grow, Gaia's body also began to change shape. It seemed to have a human-like appearance.

The blue body gradually grew taller. In the process of growing up, the body began to become slender. Finally, when the arms and thighs appeared, Gaia already had the appearance of a human. Crash... A curtain of silver-blue hair fluttered back, probably hanging down to her waist. She was not tall, only about 1.3 meters tall. Her white skin was fragile and her beautiful face was like a young girl.

“A girl?”

Looking at Gaia who had suddenly turned into a human, Muyang cried out in surprise.

Upon closer inspection, it was not a girl, but her face was especially exquisite. It had the soft and gentle appearance of April and Melissa when they were young. No, this guy's humanoid appearance was simply a mix of.

Silver blue hair, golden eyes, small and exquisite body, it was a little too cute.

Adorable King?

“Neutral... No, it has no gender at all. As expected of a slime!”

“Lord Muyang!” Gaia, who had transformed into a human form, rushed over. Her voice was very pleasant, like a skylark.

Muyang caught her and looked at her body, which had no gender characteristics. He was stunned for a moment. Then, he used the universe origin energy to make a set of clothes for her. After she put on the clothes, she looked more like a child who was ignorant of the world. Perhaps it was because her body was somewhat related to the Super Dragon Ball, Muyang could vaguely feel the aura of Shenron on her body.

It was just that he did not know if she had the ability to fulfill wishes for others.

“In the future, help me look after Acceleration World.” He touched Gaia's soft hair, which was as cold as a slime.

“Yes.” Gaia nodded happily.

At this time, April walked over. When she saw Gaia beside Muyang, she couldn't help but be stunned. When she learned that this little fellow was Gaia, she couldn't help but sigh at the magic of all things. Gaia had grown to become a human, and she was so cute.

“Is Gaia a girl or a boy?” April asked doubtfully.

“I don't think there is a gender.” Muyang said.

April looked at Gaia in confusion. She pulled her and said, "Leave her to me. I want to take a good look." She was so good-looking that she was most likely a girl.

Chapter 593

"This little girl is Gaia?" When Melissa found out that the silver-haired girl in April's arms was Gaia, her eyes revealed a look of surprise.

April let go of Gaia and said, "I can't say it's a girl. I checked her body. There are no signs of gender on her body."

"Other than sex..."

Melissa squatted down and looked at her delicate and lovely face. She could not help but reach out and pinch her cheeks. Then she stroked her silver-blue hair and even had the urge to take off her clothes to take a look. Cute creatures had always been liked by girls. When Melissa first saw her, she fell in love with her.

Gaia also squinted her eyes and giggled like a kitten.

"It's too cute. Let Gaia be my daughter!"

Even if she did not have a gender, her cute appearance would still make people unconsciously put her into the role of a girl.

"As long as you agree, it's up to you. However, he is the manager I chose for Acceleration World. Don't treat him as a little girl."

Muyang smiled and said to Melissa. Although she looked like a child, her actual age was much older than Muyang and Melissa. He had long known that her appearance would be very pleasing, so he was not surprised at all by her behavior.

To be honest, when he saw that she had turned into a human, he was also shocked.

Gaia's form was very similar to the character in an animation he had seen in his previous life – Rimuru Tempest.

A powerful and cute slime.

Because of the terrifying strength of people who blocked the killing god and blocked the killing god, people called it "Shi Ao Tia", and the same powerful "Bone Ao Tian" was also known as the "An Shizhi" of another world. Life could be said to be very elegant.

Melissa put her face on Gaia's face and expressed her love for him intimately. "In the past, Gaia was like a ball of jelly. Although it was very comfortable to hold it in her hands, it was completely different now. She looked as small as Mutian and could raise another daughter."

"Cough... Let go of me. You hugged me so much that I couldn't breathe."

Gaia was uncomfortable with the chest full of Melissa's embrace. She struggled with all her might. After turning into a human form, Gaia's mind also grew. Her emotions were more like a human.

"It doesn't matter if you hug me. You used to like jumping into my arms."

“It’s different. Gaia has now turned into a human.” Gaia raised her head and looked calmly at Melissa.

She regretfully let go of Gaia and looked into her golden eyes. Suddenly, she had a feeling that she had seen her eyes somewhere before. Thinking about it, wasn’t this what she looked like when she was in his Golden Eye State? Did Gaia refer to her when she was in human form? Melissa thought to herself.

Muyang coughed lightly and waved at Gaia. When the little fellow saw it, it pounced over obediently. Muyang said, “In the future, help me manage this world. The twelve universes are also under your jurisdiction. Every universe needs a character like ‘Angel’ in the future. What do you have in mind?”

Gaia tilted her head and seriously thought about it. When Muyang injected Acceleration World’s rules and vitality into her body, Gaia was already inseparable from Acceleration World. Her understanding of Acceleration World might be deeper than Muyang.

After a while, her tender face revealed a smile, “I have a way.”

“What method?”

“Lord Muyang, please wait a moment!”

As she spoke, Gaia licked her lips. One of her arms turned back into a blue jelly. With a pop, a ball of soft substance fell from her arm. After taking shape, it looked like a small piece of jelly.

Gaia bent down and picked up the small piece of jelly from the ground. “This is a clone of mine. It no longer has any self-awareness. As long as I put it into the universe and grow together with it, I will be able to manage the universe in my place in the future.”

“It won’t affect you, will it?”

“It won’t.” Gaia said. “It will be weak for a while, but this bit of consumption is nothing to me. When the clone grows up, they will return the feedback to me in return.”

Muyang nodded in relief. “It’s good that there is no effect. Then in the future, each universe will have a clone of you. In the future, you can become the ‘Angel’ who manages the universe!”

From this, Muyang could not help but think that the Grand Minister in the universe was called a father by all the Angels. Could it be because all the Angels were a trace of the power or clones of the Grand Minister... Thinking about it carefully, this possibility was not impossible.

Of course, Muyang did not need to study too deeply about the specific situation of all the Angels in the universe, because Acceleration World’s development was decided by himself. If he thought it was possible, he would carry it out and not care too much about the situation outside.

Speaking of which, if the clone of Gaia was the “Angel”, then the color of the angel’s hair in the future would most likely be the same as that of Gaia... Well, the clothes of Acceleration World’s god were about to begin to be designed. As the twelve universes developed faster, sooner or later, high-level gods would be born.

Speaking of Acceleration World's god, Muyang remembered that he had not yet divided the levels of the universe.

In order to govern the universe more reasonably, different gods should live in different spaces, and the Other-World and World of the Living should also have a fundamental distinction.

After pondering for a while, Muyang let Gaia follow him into the internal universe, and as if teleporting, Muyang and Gaia quickly moved to one of the twelve universes of Acceleration World.

The vast starry sky was filled with glittering and translucent stars. The stars were brilliant and sparkling, and the twinkling stars were dotted in the dark red background of the universe. Looking from afar, they were like dazzling gems. This universe was only one-third of the outer universe, but the vastness was still beyond human imagination.

Because planets and galaxies had just been born, life was still in the most primitive stage of reproduction.

The two of them danced in the empty space. Gaia asked curiously, "Lord Muyang, what are we going to do next?"

"Opening God-World and Other-World for this universe."

Muyang gazed into the distance. Everything was within his line of sight. A universe had to operate normally. The World of the Living and Other-World were essential, and above this, there was also the God-World.

There was a template that could be imitated in this aspect.

Thus, imitating the situation of the outside world, Muyang and Gaia opened up the God-World for the universe. It was located in the highest dimension in the universe. Whoosh... A wave of energy blades slashed down. The God-World was divided into two. They were the "Sacred World of the Kai" that represented the Creation attribute and the "God of Destruction Planet" that represented the Destruction attribute.

Considering the disparity in strength between Supreme Kai and the God of Destruction, Muyang believed that it was very easy for a God of Destruction to have problems with Supreme Kai. Moreover, the restriction between the God of Destruction and Supreme Kai was also essential. As for the specific problems, God of Destruction Planet set up a God Position for the God of Destruction. In Supreme Kai's world, there were four God Thrones of Supreme Kai in the north, south, east, west.

As long as there was still one Supreme Kai who had not died, the God of Destruction would not die.

After the highest God-World was set up, the next was the lower level Galaxy Gpd. Just like the galaxy outside, it set up the positions of Kai. Below it were the Gods, Elders, and Immortals of the Planet.

After a series of levels of Gods were divided, the next was the Hell, Heaven, and Soul's trial reincarnation space.

Of course, regardless of whether it was the god position or space, it was still in the embryonic form. Muyang and Gaia only set these up into the rules of the universe, and then they needed to be perfected with the evolution of the universe.

After everything was done, Gaia stood next to Muyang. Her small hands pulled at the corner of Muyang's clothes. Then, she went to the place with the most abundant energy in the universe and placed her avatar in the energy tide. Gaia nodded. "Just leave them here. They will slowly grow up on their own."

"Yes, that's it."

Muyang confirmed all the details and then returned to Planet Wudao with Gaia.

In the future, Planet Wudao would become the most sacred place in Acceleration World, and Muyang would also set up his own palace on it, just like Zeno's Palace on Zeno World, Jellyfish Star.

Chapter 594

Planet Wudao, a place with continuous mountain ranges. The mountain peaks on both sides of the mountain range were slightly raised to form a gloomy and quiet small valley. Muyang's residence on Planet Wudao was set up here.

The quiet courtyard was situated between green mountains and green waters. The surrounding vegetation was lush and beautiful, and there were a few strands of beautiful purple and red in the dark green. In the distance, several large trees were blown by the wind and rustled. There were a few falling leaves on the ground. In the distance, there were green mountains and green waters. The surface of the lake was clear, and the scenery was very pleasant.

It was already time for the meal. There were several tables in the courtyard, and the table was full of sumptuous food. There were fish and meat, seafood, mountain treasures, and all kinds of delicacies.

These food were not made by Melissa or April, but by Gaia using her own ability to transform.

After Gaia transformed from her round slime form into a human form, her special ability seemed to have awakened along with her. Right now, she only needed to rely on her own willpower to do things that many Shenrons could do. It was not an exaggeration to say that she was an omnipotent wishing god.

One had to know that Gaia's origin was a special life form born from the Super Dragon Ball. The Grand Minister said that he was the dragon soul of the Dragon Ball. The real situation was unknown, but it should not be much different. Therefore, after growing up, she had a magical wish ability like a Shenron.

Moreover, Gaia was now Acceleration World's rule manager. In the entire universe, she was an "Angel" identity.

Most of the things that Whis could do were also done by him. It seemed that it was nothing amazing to produce a little food.

As they enjoyed the food that Gaia had transformed into, Muqiu, Amelia, and the others ate happily. They let go of their appetite to eat. Soon, the food that was as tall as a small mountain was eaten by them.

“Gaia, the food you have changed into is too delicious. Change a little more.” Broly burped and picked up a cup of water to drink.

He pointed at the table, and the dishes and leftovers on the table disappeared. The next second, the table was filled with sumptuous dishes again.

“With such an ability, our family can stop cooking.” Melissa was elegant and graceful, wiping the oil stains on her lips.

“Ho...” Because of the praise, Gaia blushed.

“By the way, can your ability produce a lot of Senzu Beans?”

As early as when Gaia was still in the blue jelly state, she often reclaimed the land and planted Senzu Beans. After decades, the Senzu Beans on Planet Wudao could be piled up into a mountain. It was no problem to use them as fried beans. But who would complain about having too many Senzu Beans?

Gaia shook her head in embarrassment, “No, my ability can only produce a small amount of Senzu Beans. If I want to change more, I need to wait for my strength to continue to increase.”

After all, Gaia had just transformed into a human form. Even managing Acceleration World had just taken over, and her ability to make wishes was not much better than Earth’s Dragon Ball.

Melissa nodded. This was just a casual question. If Gaia suddenly became omnipotent, she would feel somewhat uncomfortable.

At this time, Mutian, who was next to her, finished a small plate of food. His eyes occasionally sized up Gaia who was lying on the table with her hands, and his eyes were full of curiosity.

When Gaia saw this, she smiled at him. Mutian also gave a sincere smile. The people he came into contact with were either younger than him, or much older than him like Muqiu. It was really rare to see people who looked the same age as him like Gaia.

In particular, Gaia was as cute as a girl.

After a sumptuous lunch, Muiyang and Gaia continued to transform the palace.

In Zeno world, Zeno’s Palace floats on the Jellyfish Star. The shape of the “Zeno” character could only be described as strange. Muiyang’s aesthetics belonged to a normal person, so apart from the general structure, he would not choose such a strange style.

The two built a floating palace ten thousand meters above Planet Wudao. The entire palace was majestic, with carved beams and painted rafters. The green tiles and white walls were full of an antique temperament. In addition to the rolling clouds and light around them, the whole body was like a dream, exuding a distant, natural, and quiet charm.

And on the lintel of the palace, there was a huge doorplate with only one word on it – “Mu”

If one entered the palace, they would find that there was actually a different world inside. The size of the space could not be measured by the size of the outside. This was the power of the rules of space. The inside space was so big that even if a planet was placed inside, it would be very easy.

“This is the office and life place in the future.”

Muyang clapped his hands and looked proudly at his masterpiece.

With the development of the major universes in Acceleration World, Planet Wudao would become a place where the top experts gathered and train. As the master of Acceleration World, Muyang and his friends would not stay on Planet Wudao all the time. The “God Mu Palace” would be their home.

“Do you think there is anything else that needs to be modified?” Muyang asked.

Gaia tilted her head and looked, shaking her head. She didn’t know where to modify it.

Muyang smiled, thinking to ask Melissa and April to come over and take a look later. They should be more skilled in this aspect than Gaia.

A few months later, in the vast universe.

God of Destruction Champa and Vados have been looking for Super Dragon Balls in Universe 7 for a long time, because there is no precise positioning of the Super Dragon Balls radar, they can only go to galaxy one by one.

“Aiyaya... I have been searching for several months. Why haven’t I found the remaining wishing star?” Champa his temper impatiently.

None of the God of Destruction had a good temper. Don’t look at the usual stupid and cute appearance of Champa. Once he got angry, he could easily destroy the planet to vent his anger. In this case, several more planets were in trouble. Purple energy waves whistled past, and the planets instantly disintegrated.

Vados quietly masks the God of Destruction power exposed by Champa with Divine Staff. Her lips moved slightly. “Lord Champa, you have to be careful. Lord Beerus has already woken up. If you use the divine power of destruction so carelessly, Lord Beerus will be lured over.”

Champa was stunned and asked, “Has Lord Beerus woken up?”

“Yes, a powerful force broke out in the universe a few days ago. Lord Beerus seems to be fighting with a half-god level expert.” Vados smiled, her green divine dress swaying without any wind.

She was talking about the God of Destruction Lord Beerus entering the earth and fighting with Son Goku.

“Then why didn’t you tell me earlier!” Champa yelled angrily.

“Don’t you know now?”

Vados fiddled with her divine staff, his pale purple eyes staring at the crystal ball above. “Lord Champa, I think I’ve found a way to quickly collect the Dragon Ball.”

Chapter 595

“Tell me, what ideas do you have?” The attention of Champawas immediately attracted.

Vados took the divine staff to the front of Champa. “I found that there is a person called Zuno in Universe 7. He has an omniscient special ability. If we find him, we can definitely ask about the whereabouts of all the wishing stars.”

Zuno was known as Universe 7’s “the unfathomable person of omniscient”. He knew everything in the world and could even answer the patterns of underwear that he had never met before.

His ability was very similar to Fortuneteller Baba, but he was even stronger.

However, if he wanted Zuno to answer a question, he had to kiss him first. If he was kissed by a male, he could ask a question, and if he was kissed by a female, he could ask more questions.

In fact, Vados knew that if he wanted to find the Super Dragon Ball quickly, in addition to seeking Zuno’s help, he could also borrow the Super Dragon Ball radar from Muyang. It was just that Vados did not care about finding the Super Dragon Ball. After all, the reason why Champa got the Super Dragon Ball was only to eat a few more Gu Gu Bird eggs. Vados really did not want to play along with him.

After hearing this, Champa suddenly became energetic. He had a hunch that the fragrant Gu Gu Bird egg was waving at him.

“What are you waiting for? Hurry up and find that person!”

“Zuno is a strange person. Every time he divination someone, he has to receive a tribute, such as a kiss.”

Vados looked at Champa with ridicule.

“Hmph, this god wants him to divine. Does he still dare to resist? Believe it or not, I will destroy him!” There was no way to negotiate with the God of Destruction.

Vados chuckled. He was not surprised at all by Champa’s attitude. If he was really willing to accept the other party’s conditions, then it would be strange!

Since they had decided to find the whereabouts of Zuno for the Super Dragon Ball, Champa and Vados did not waste any more time. Vados pointed at his divine staff and used Wrap. With a five-colored light shining, the two of them quickly passed through space and headed for Zuno planet.

At the same time, Universe 7, God of Destruction Planet.

The towering ancient trees stood on the diamond-shaped stars that were as sharp as flower pots. Each branch was very thick, and there were ancient temples built on them. The God of Destruction, Beerus, lived in a temple at the top of the ancient trees.

It had been half a year since Lord Beerus came back from Earth. Because he knew that his strength had long been surpassed by the rising Muyang, during this period of time, Lord Beerus' painful thinking had reduced the time to sleep. He focused on training. Not to mention other things, at least he had gained a little during this period of time.

The only thing that made Lord Beerus unhappy was that Whis actually brought back three Saiyan people from the Lower Realm to train in the God of Destruction Planet. Whis really wanted to train for the next the God of Destruction!

“A mere human actually set foot on God of Destruction Planet. This place is not an amusement park.”

Although he said this, under the temptation of delicious food, Lord Beerus still obediently agreed to the request of Son Goku and the others to train, just like how he let Muyang and the others enter God of Destruction Planet a few decades ago.

“Hey, hey, hey. The few of you, don't hang around in front of me all the time.” During the break time, Lord Beerus sat on top of the tree trunk with a fishing rod and fished. A gust of wind blew over, and waves rose on the surface of the water. Even Lord Beerus' fishing line was torn off.

“Ah, Lord Lord Beerus, I'm really sorry...”

Son Goku pressed his palms together and apologized. However, before he could finish speaking, Vegeta attacked him. Son Goku narrowed his eyes and the energy in his body surged. He teleported to the other side of Vegeta.

Lord Beerus looked at Son Goku and Vegeta angrily, “All of you, get away from me. Don't disturb me when I'm fishing.”

“Yes!”

“We will leave immediately.”

Son Goku and Vegeta hurriedly distanced themselves from Lord Beerus, afraid that he would attack them if he was unhappy.

“Hmph, some rude fellows. Muyang was not like this when he was training here.” Lord Beerus' face was gloomy.

“Lord Beerus, don't be angry.”

A small glass floated beside him. A strange blue creature poked out of it. This fish was called the “Oracle Fis”. It was the pet of the God of Destruction, Lord Beerus. It could make incredible predictions, but its character was very unreliable. Sometimes, it even forgot the prophecy it had made.

Lord Beerus said gloomily, “Hey, do you think Son Goku is the Super Saiyan God I'm looking for?”

“I don't know. The Super Saiyan God must exist.”

“Yes.” Lord Beerus nodded coldly.

Although he had acknowledged Son Goku's strength back on Earth, Lord Beerus had always been suspicious about whether Son Goku was the Super Saiyan God he was looking for. Because from the training of Son Goku and the others during this period of time, they did not walk the path of a god at all. The Super Saiyan God, who originally had the nature of a god, turned into blue hair as they practiced. Not to mention that the pressure of a god had disappeared, even the aura of energy had barely come out.

This did not look like a god at all.

On the other side, under the supervision of Whis, Son Goku and Vegeta, Shasley performed their strongest transformation. When they turned into Super Saiyan Blue, Whis secretly frowned, seeming to be a little dissatisfied.

“Don't get carried away. This training forbids you from using your transformation. If you don't follow the rules, it will be very difficult for me.”

For Son Gokug and the others, although Whis was training, he was not as attentive as Muiyang. Son Goku and the others could not change the habit of transforming into Super Saiyan. Since Whis' persuasion was ineffective, he could only train their normal strength.

“Ah, I'm sorry, Whis. I forgot for a moment.”

Son Goku hurriedly apologized.

Whis waved his staff at them a few times. “Since you broke the agreement, I will punish you to wear heavy clothes.”

Whoosh!

Thick clothes like spacesuits appeared on the bodies of the three, and their movements immediately slowed down.

Whis sat down and made himself a bowl of cups and noodles. He hummed a tune as he began to eat.

“Those idiots.”

The God of Destruction, Lord Beerus, glanced at him with disdain, then continued to hang his fish with single-minded devotion.

“Lord Beerus, can you stop fishing? The fish in the lake are very cunning!” The prophetic fish poked its head out.

Lord Beerus let out a “tsk” sound and glanced at the Oracle Fish. The plastic bucket was empty, and not a single fish was caught. “I'm just passing the time.”

“How about I make a prophecy for you?”

“Can you be more reliable? Don't be a Super Saiyan God again?” Lord Beerus brought over the glass cup containing the prophetic fish.

“Yes.”

The Oracle Fish responded and then began to predict.

“Oh... I saw it, I saw it...” The Oracle Fish shouted.

“What did you see?”

“Yes, I forgot... Wait a minute...” The Oracle Fish stuck its head back into the glass and looked at Son Goku with its green bean-sized eyes.

“What did you see?” Lord Beerus shouted impatiently.

“I saw Lord Champa. He is in Universe 7. What a big glass bead... It is as big as a planet, and it will cause a big event that will affect the entire Universe 7!”

Chapter 596

“I saw Lord Champa. He is in Universe 7. What a big glass bead... It is as big as a planet, and it will cause a big event that will affect the entire Universe 7!” The Oracle Fish lay in the glass and made his own prophecy.

When Lord Beerus heard that Champa had come to his Universe 7, he was so angry that his face turned green. He said gloomily, “Champa secretly came to Universe 7?”

The Oracle Fish tilted its head, and its unreliable personality flared up again. “Lord Beerus, what are you talking about? I don’t know.”

Lord Beerus snorted. He knew that the Oracle Fish had forgotten his own prophecy and was not in the mood to pay attention to the Oracle Fish. Lord Beerus angrily put down his fishing rod and leaped in front of Whis. “Whis, quickly use the crystal ball to see if that bastard, Champa, has come to Universe 7!”

“Lord Champa?” Whis was eating the cup and noodles in his hand. When he heard Lord Beerus’ angry roar, he picked up the divine staff beside him and narrowed one of his eyes to get close to the crystal ball to observe.

Sure enough, the scene of the lower universe appeared in the crystal ball. A purple figure that looked 80 similar to Lord Beerus stood in the universe, followed by a few glittering orange-red planets. Those were four huge Super Dragon Ball!

“Aiya, it really is Lord Champa! Behind him is a Super Dragon Ball!”

“Super Dragon Ball? Is it the thing that strengthened the Earth?” Lord Beerus’ face was as cold as frost, and his voice was low.

Whis explained, “Yes, there are seven Super Dragon Ball in total. They are scattered in the Universe 7 and 6.”

“In other words, there are only seven of them in total. The reason why Champa sneaked to Universe 7 was to collect them. Moreover, he has already collected four of them!” When Lord Beerus heard the complete person’s indifference, his golden pupils shot out a frightening cold light.

Whis nodded. “It should be like this.”

“What are you waiting for? Hurry up and stop him. He wants to take away my, Universe 7’s, things. There’s no way!”

“I’m afraid it’s too late to go now. Lord Champa has obtained the four Super Dragon Balls that belong to Universe 7. He is now preparing to return to the Universe 6.” Whis brought the crystal ball in and let Lord Beerus see the picture on it clearly.

In the picture, Champa was commanding Vados with his head held high. Vados maintained her smile gracefully and then activated her teleportation ability, bringing the Super Dragon Balls back to the Universe 6.

Seeing this, the God of Destruction, Lord Beerus, gritted his teeth and said, “We will also go to the Universe 6. I must settle the score with Champa! The Oracle Fish said that the action of the Champa will cause a big event that will affect the entire Universe 7, so I think he must have bad intentions!”

Whis quickly ate the cup and noodles in his hand and said with a look of indifference, “Indeed, we should go to the Universe 6.”

After saying that, Whis came to Son Goku and the others and arranged the following cultivation with them. Son Goku and Vegeta were very curious about what important matter Whis had, but when they saw Lord Beerus’ cold face, they hesitated for a moment and did not ask.

“Whis, hurry up and go.” Lord Beerus urged impatiently.

“Okay.”

Whis responded, and then used Warp to rush directly to the Universe 6.

...

In the Universe 6, Champa came back from Universe 7 with a face full of excitement. Looking at the four gigantic Super Dragon Balls behind him, his face was full of expectation, “Hurry up and collect the Planet X Game of the Universe 6. I can’t wait to let the Dragon God realize my wish.”

“...”

Zuno’s divination allowed him to obtain the whereabouts of all the Super Dragon Balls. Next, he only needed to collect the Dragon Balls on his side to fulfill his wish.

Vados reminded, “Lord Champa, the matter of us secretly taking the wishing star from Universe 7 has already been discovered.”

Champa was startled. “What’s going on?”

“Whis’ divine staff just scanned us. I think we will soon have to face Lord Beerus’ censure!”

Champa’s expression became bad. “Why is Lord Beerus so fast this time!”

“They will be here soon.”

Vados said indifferently.

After hearing this, Champa rolled his eyes. Just as he was thinking about whether he should seize the time to gather all the Super Dragon Balls before Beerus arrived, Beerus' furious voice rang out.

Champa, you bastard, sneaking away my Universe 7's Super Dragon Ball without even saying hello to me, did you not put me, Universe 7' God of Destruction, in your eyes." Beerus grimaced, his gaze locked onto Champa who was floating in the universe, a cold aura flashed in his eyes.

Champa stuck out his stomach, not willing to be outdone. "The wishing star is not only yours, Universe 7. There is also a copy in Universe 6. Why should I use it to get your permission?"

"Champa, that is my thing."

Lord Beerus roared with an ugly expression on his face.

The divine elephant handkerchief whistled, unconcerned. His expression suddenly changed. His sinister face looked at the Super Dragon Pearl behind him. "I don't care whose item it belongs to. I've already brought it over anyway. It's impossible for me to return it."

Champa's attitude was very unyielding. The Super Dragon Ball was related to whether he could eat a few more Gu Gu Bird eggs in the future. How could such a great dream be understood by Lord Beerus who did not even know the taste of the Gu Gu Bird eggs?

"It seems that after not teaching you a lesson for so many years, you have already forgotten how terrifying I am." Lord Beerus suddenly became furious, and his body flashed with a faint purple light.

"Humph!" Champa snorted coldly, and his whole body emitted a bone-chilling cold.

Weng, weng, weng, the pressure between the two rose, and the space seemed to be about to shatter. The invisible aura pressure caused the surrounding planets to gradually deviate from their trajectories.

At this time, Whis said, "Lord Beerus, please calm down. The battle between the Destruction Gods is forbidden. If you cause trouble, it will implicate the two universes."

"Champa must return the Super Dragon Ball to Universe 7." Lord Beerus cut through gold and iron.

"Impossible." Champa refused on the spot.

"Bastard, Champa, I've tolerated you for a long time. If you continue to be so unreasonable, don't blame me for being impolite." The God of Destruction, Lord Beerus, flew into a rage. He couldn't care less about the ban now. He only wanted to teach the other party a lesson.

"Please calm down." Vados pulled Champa to stop him from making a move.

“Vados, let me go. This thin bone doesn’t know my great dream at all?” Champa stared angrily at Vados. He was also a temperamental master. The more unyielding he was at this time, the more intense his resistance would be.

Vados couldn’t help but roll his eyes when he heard this.

Lord Beerus calmed down. “What are you collecting the Super Dragon Ball for?”

“Hmph, of course, it’s to eat the most delicious food in the world. The Gu Gu Bird eggs are so wonderful. I bet that as long as you take a bite, you will never forget it.”

“Gu Gu Bird eggs?” Lord Beerus frowned.

“Is it delicious?” Lord Beerus was puzzled.

“Vados, don’t you still want an egg of a Gu Gu Bird? Show it to Lord Beerus!” Champa looked at Vados proudly. Vados said with difficulty, “I think we should just forget about it!”

“Take it out. Otherwise, Lord Beerus won’t admit defeat. It’s time to let him see what delicious food is.” Champa looked proud. He had lived in Universe 6 for tens of millions of years, so he naturally had to make Lord Beerus envious.

I can’t continue acting... Seeing that Champa insisted, Vados sighed.

With a flick of his wrist, the divine staff drew an arc, and an ostrich egg-sized thing fell from the void. It was the Gu Gu Bird egg that Champa had mentioned.

Champa threw the Gu Gu Bird egg to Lord Beerus with a reluctant expression. “Eat! You can’t eat anywhere else except for me.”

Lord Beerus frowned and looked at the white boiled egg in his hand. His finger knocked on the eggshell. The eggshell was particularly thick. After breaking it, it revealed the white egg inside....

This thing was white boiled egg... This was Lord Beerus’ first impression. But seeing the smug look on Champa, could there be a mystery in it? He put it to his mouth and took a bite. The white egg flavor filled his mouth.

Pah! This thing is a white boiled egg!

“Pah!” The God of Destruction, Lord Beerus, spat out the white boiled egg that he had eaten and threw the Gu Gu Bird egg to Champa in disgust. “This kind of trash, even if I looked at it more, I would find it disgusting.”

“Stupid thin man, what did you say?”

Champa looked at the Gu Gu Bird egg that was covered with Lord Beerus’ saliva and immediately felt like it was a waste. He was really stupid to take out such precious food for Lord Beerus.

“It’s just a white boiled egg. Only you would treat it as a treasure.” Lord Beerus said with disdain. His golden eyes flashed with a cold light. “Also, I hate it when people call me skinny.”

“So what if I call you? You thin bone with a cone-shaped face.”

“Bastard, the flat-faced fatty.”

“I’m going to beat you to death.”

“Who’s afraid of who!”

Neither of them gave in to each other. The two massive destructive domains pressed against each other and spread out. All matter lost its color after being affected by these two domains and turned into ashes. The space of the universe felt like it was being torn apart.

“Please stop!”

“Lord Beerus, Lord Champa, don’t go too far.”

“Whoosh!” Two divine staffs stood between Lord Beerus and Koh. Champa and Vados stopped them with serious expressions. When the God of Destruction broke the rules, they, as Angels, had the right to stop it. Koh and Lord Beerus naturally could not resist Whis and the others. They were quickly tied up.

“Vados, let me go.”

“Whis, let me go too. The cause of this matter is Champa. The one who should be punished is him.”

“Lord Beerus, Lord Champa, please calm down. If you continue to make trouble, I will hand you over to Lord Zeno and let him deal with you.” Whis took out his trump card. Sure enough, when he said the matter of Zeno, both Champa and Beerus suddenly became quiet.

“No matter what, Universe 7’s Dragon Ball must be returned.” Lord Beerus emphasized.

Vados said, “How about this, we will bet all the Dragon Ball on a match. The winning side can take all the Dragon Ball.”

“I agree.” Champa said first.

Lord Beerus thought for a while and thought that his universe was full of talents. He nodded and said, “I agree too.”

Vados smiled gracefully and said, “Then the competition will be carried out according to the martial arts situation. Five people will be eliminated in each universe, and the universe represented by the final winner will obtain all the wishing stars. The competition will be carried out in five days, and the competition venue will be placed in the Universe 6. After all, all of the Dragon Balls are in the Universe 6 now.”

Whis looked at Vados in surprise. He had stayed with Acceleration World for a period of time, and he had learned about the situation in the outside world from the heavenly envoys of other worlds.

The competition Vados proposed seemed to be the competition between the Multiverse No.4 Universe 6 and Universe 7.

“Sure.” Lord Beerus reluctantly agreed.

Just as Whis was about to say something, he saw Vados smile. “I have a request here. Among Universe 7’s participants, there can not be Muiyang and his relatives. In other words, those related to that lord must be excluded.”

“Why?” Lord Beerus’ expression changed as he asked in surprise.

“That’s right, Vados. Why can’t that person called Muiyang participate in the competition?” Champa also did not understand Vados’ intentions very well.

“Vados, tell me, why can’t I participate in the competition?”

A long and drawn-out voice was heard as a tall, handsome young man and a blue-haired figure that was over a meter tall walked out. These two people were Muiyang and Gaia, who assisted him in managing Acceleration World.

In fact, when Champa and Vados moved Universe 7’s Super Dragon Ball, Muiyang, who had completed Acceleration World’s basic design, brought his family back to Earth.

When he sensed that Lord Beerus and Whis had followed them to Universe 6, Muiyang knew that there would be a good show to watch.

So he brought Gaia along.

“Greetings, Grand Supreme Kai.”

Vados bowed slightly and greeted Muiyang. When she looked at Gaia, a trace of surprise appeared on Vados’s calm face. The girl with blue hair in front of her seemed to have a pressure no weaker than hers.

“This is...”

“I am Gaia!” The cute face smiled at Vados.

Vados was stunned for a moment. He looked deeply at Gaia and thought of Acceleration World’s potential. He knew his current identity.

“So it’s His Highness Gaia!”

Vados paused for a moment and said, “Lord Muiyang is now the high and mighty Lord Grand Supreme Kai, and his strength is far beyond that of a Half-God. If you or your relatives participate in the competition, it will be unfair to Universe 6. After all, in a sense, Lord Muiyang has already transcended the boundaries of the entire universe.”

Not to mention anything else, just the actions of Melissa, April, and Broley alone, no one in Universe 6 could resist.

Muyang smiled faintly. Unknowingly, the strength of his family was already comparable to a complete universe.

“That makes sense. Then I will not participate in the competition between Universe 7 and 6.”

“Muyang...” Just as Lord Beerus was about to stop him, he thought of Muyang’s current status and identity. No matter how big his reputation was, he was too embarrassed to order an Angel to attack, so he sighed gloomily.

“It’s good that Lord Muyang can understand.” Vados smiled gracefully.

Champa asked with a strange expression, “Why did you call him sir, and what do you mean by ‘Grand Supreme Kai’?”

“Isn’t Lord Champa curious about why I disappeared for a period of time every four years? Actually, I went to serve Grand Supreme Kai at that time. As for ‘Grand Supreme Kai’, you can just treat it as a Grand Minister Anyway, the meaning is similar.”

“Grand Minister” Champa was shocked. When he saw Muyang smiling, he immediately broke out in cold sweat.

“It’s just about the same rank,” Vados explained.

Champa trembled in fear and complained in his heart, “Vados, you have to explain the situation as soon as possible. If he had known that there was such a person among Universe 7, he would not have gone and almost caused big trouble.”

“Alright, since the rules have already been set, let’s wait for the competition five days later. Everyone can take advantage of this time to gather the contestants. Five experts should not be difficult to find.” Muyang had something to watch and directly finalized the matter of the competition.

Vados and Whis did not have any objections, so the matter was decided like this.

After Lord Beerus, Muyang and the others left, Champa’s body suddenly softened. “It’s too scary. Vados, you should have told me about that Muyang earlier. Is he really as terrifying as the Grand Minister?”

“Not yet. It’s hard to say in the future.” Vados glanced at Champa, and just as Champa breathed a sigh of relief, he said, “He and that blue-haired companion beside him are both at the level of an Angel!”

“Damn it, that’s too scary.”

“Right, Vados, have you thought of a candidate to participate in the competition? We must not lose to Lord Beerus.”

Vados nodded. He already had a candidate. Of course, he could not be a participant of another world's universe competition. After all, Universe 7's level of strength was different. If he used that group of people, he would definitely lose.

In the other world, there were contestants representing the Universe 6 to participate in the universe competition: Hit, Cabba, Auta Magetta, Frost and Beard Botamo. The final result was that they lost to Universe 7, Son Goku, and the others.

“The personnel must be changed. Oh right, in the ‘Tournament of Power’ of the Alternate Timeline, there are a few contestants in Universe 6 who performed well.”

Vados pondered and quickly decided on the candidate. They were Hit, Cat Majin, Cabba, Caulifla, Kale. As for the three other Saiyan people behind them, they were still very weak. They could use the next five days to train. If the conditions were right, five days could be expanded to five years.

On the other side, the God of Destruction, Beerus and Whis were also thinking about the candidates on their way back.

“Whis, no matter what method you use, we must win and select five participants as soon as possible.” “Unfortunately, Muiyang and the others can't participate. Otherwise, they will win.” Lord Beerus clenched his fists.

Whis said, “Son Goku and the others are not weak either.”

Chapter 598

The competition between Universe 6 and Universe 7 was scheduled to be held five days later. After learning of this news, Son Goku was the happiest. At this time, he was already rubbing his fists excitedly. He could not wait for a moment.

“I can finally see the experts of other universes. I must work harder.”

Vegeta's eyes were full of fighting spirit. “Universe 6 is said to be a universe very similar to Universe 7. I wonder if there are Saiyan people there... If there are, it will be interesting.”

“There should be some Saiyans. They might even be very powerful,” Whis said.

“That would be for the best.” Vegeta's lips curled up, and his cold face revealed a trace of anticipation.

The God of Destruction, Beerus, glanced at Son Goku and the others unhappily. “There are only five participants in this competition. Three of them will be given to you. As for the other two, think about who to choose. Because it concerns Universe 7's honor, you must consider it seriously. If you lose the competition, don't blame me for being impolite.”

“I think the remaining two spots can be given to Broly and the others.” In terms of strength, Son Goku and Vegeta were far inferior to Broly and the others.

Whis shook his head and said, “No, Muiyang and his relatives can't participate in this competition.”

“I see...” Only then did Son Goku know that there was such a thing, and he was dumbfounded.

Fortunately, although he was Broly's in-law, he did not have a direct relationship with Muyang. Otherwise, even he would not be able to participate in the competition.

However, wouldn't this mean that Elek, Lasuli, and the others could not participate in the competition? Although there were many powerful warriors on Earth, the top group was more or less related to Muyang. With this group of people reduced, it would not be easy to gather the remaining warriors.

Of course, it was not that there were no other powerful warriors on Earth other than Muyang and his family. For example, Son Goten and Alex were qualified to participate in the competition. There were also Millif, Piccolo and the others. However, their strength could not compare to Muqiu and the others.

The God of Destruction, Beerus, asked, "Have you decided who to choose?"

Although Son Goku, Vegeta and Shasley could transform into Super Saiyan Blue, logically speaking, they should already have the advantage. However, for some reason, Lord Beerus felt a sense of unease in his heart. He had asked the Oracle Fish to prophesy and only received ambiguous words.

"Let me think again..." Son Goku frowned and thought. The first thing he thought of was his son, Son Goten. He should be strong enough. In addition, Vegeta's son Alex, was also very good.

Lord Beerus impatiently said to Whis, "Go and find Supreme Kai and the others. Ask them if they have any candidates."

"Okay."

Whis nodded and directly contacted East Supreme Kai and Old Kai at Sacred World of the Kai.

After Supreme Kai knew the situation, he carefully said, "Why don't we give one of the spots to Majin Buu?"

In Supreme Kai's heart, Majin Buu was still very terrifying.

"Majin Buu?"

Lord Beerus read the name of Buu and asked Whis, "How is the strength of that Majin Buu?"

Whis said, "It's okay. According to the strength of four years ago, it is still reasonable. The powerful Dark Magic and White Magic are very strange. Moreover, he has been with Muyang for a period of time, and his strength should have grown. Oh, by the way, the relationship between Majin Buu and that Highness Gaia is very good..."

From the moment Gaia assumed human form,

Even the angels had to show respect to him and address him as "Your Highness".

"Then give the fourth place to Majin Buu." Lord Beerus made the decision.

It had to be known that Gaia was said to be an angel level existence, so Beerus had to give her some face. Just like that, the four people representing Universe 7 in the competition were decided, and only the last one remained.

“Why don’t you give the last spot to my son, Goten!” Son Goku suggested.

Vegeta immediately retorted, “No, my son Alex is also very good. Why should he give it to Goten?”

Shasley supported her son. “I think Alex can do it.”

“But Goten is stronger.”

“Alex has been getting stronger for the past four years. He must be stronger than Goten now.” Vegeta said in a serious tone. Son Goten had to care about the trivial matters of his family after he got married. The growth of his strength would definitely not be as great as Alex’s single-minded training.

“Bring Son Goten and Alex to Supreme Kai for me to see. I will help you determine the candidates.” Old Kai smiled and his old voice rang out.

“In fact, there is a female Saiyan on Earth who is also very powerful.” East Supreme Kai raised his hand and said.

The female Saiyan he was talking about was Millif. She had reached the Super Saiyan Level 2 a long time ago. Now, her strength was stronger than Son Goku and the others. Although in terms of status, Millif was Melissa’s servant, she ultimately belonged to Universe 7.

As for the servant of Melissa, because she did not belong to this world, she did not have the qualifications to participate.

Lord Beerus thought for a moment and said, “Bring all three of them to Supreme Kai and let Agu take a look. I believe in his foresight.”

Even if his strength was not enough, as long as he had potential, it would be fine to let Old Kai develop it.

“I think so.”

“That’s it.”

Son Goku and Vegeta nodded slightly. No one had any objections to Lord Beerus’ decision. Therefore, Whis went to contact Son Goku and Alex and sent them to Sacred World of Kai. She encountered a bit of trouble when looking for Millif. After all, as Melia’s servant, she might not be on Earth.

Finally, Whis found her on the God Mu Force Central Star in the North Area. After explaining the reason, Millif also went to Sacred World of the Kai.

In Supreme Kai’s world, Old Kai carefully distinguished the potential of Son Goku and the other two. Finally, he developed their potential and finally seized the fifth place – Millif. Son Goten and Alex were still a little inferior to Millif.

Thus, the candidates for the Universe Great Competition Universe 7 are: Son Goku, Vegeta, Shasley, Majin Buu, Millif.

After knowing the candidate for Universe 7, Muiyang was full of expectations for the upcoming competition.

“In terms of personnel, Universe 6 might be crushed.”

Melissa smiled faintly. She could not think of anyone in the sixth universe who could be Son Goku’s opponent.

Each of the five people representing Universe 7 had great strength. Not to mention Super Saiyan Blues such as Son Goku, that is, Majin Buu and Millif are also very terrifying.

Universe 6 would probably lose very badly.

Muiyang nodded in agreement. The most elite expert of Universe 6 was Assassin Hit. However, the rules of the competition restricted the killing, which meant that Hit’s ability as a killer would be greatly restricted. After some killer moves could not be used, Hit’s strength was a little weaker than the Super Saiyans Blue.

It was precisely because of this in the original work that Hit had the advantage in the competition against the Super Saiyans God, and directly admitted defeat against the Super Saiyans Blue.

Chapter 599

“The competition will only be interesting if we are evenly matched. I wonder what kind of experts Universe 6 can produce...” April smiled.

Android 18 recalled her experience in the “Tournament of Power” at Alternate Timeline. She knew that there were experts in Universe 6, but they had not grown up yet.

At this moment, a beautiful pale green figure appeared in front of Muiyang and the others.

It was the Angel of Universe 6, Vados.

“Vados, why are you here again? Aren’t you going to pick the contestants from your side?” Muiyang looked at Vados in surprise.

Vados smiled elegantly. “I was in trouble, so I came here to seek your help.”

“We don’t have the experts you want here.”

“No, I have already chosen the people. It’s just that their strength has not yet grown, so they need to borrow Planet Wudao. Of course, if you can help open the time acceleration, it will naturally be the best.” Vados blinked. He tapped the void with his divine staff, and three figures appeared in front of everyone.

The three of them were a man and two women.

The man was relatively short, his eyes like dead fish eyes, but his hairstyle resembled Super Saiyan 2, and there was a raised fringe on his forehead.

The other two girls were about sixteen or seventeen years old. One of them had a fluffy hedgehog head and was dressed like a bad girl. The other girl beside him was much quieter. Her skin was a little dark, and she looked a little timid. She was timidly standing behind the bad girl.

“Hey, didn’t you say you wanted us to fight? Where is the opponent?” The delinquent girl looked around with an arrogant look on her face.

Caulifla met Muiyang and Melissa, but the other party did not have any strong aura. Instead, it was a little boy who looked twelve or thirteen that gave her a great pressure.

“Is that you?”

“You got the wrong person.” Mutian opened up Caulifla’s hand and hid to the side.

Caulifla’s eyes lit up. She was stunned by Mutian’s strength. “He is indeed an expert. Quickly fight with me.”

Kale pulled Caulifla’s body. “Sister, don’t be rude.”

Cabba covered his face with one hand and felt that she had lost all face of the planet.

“You are Saiyans?” Melissa felt a familiar aura from Caulifla. Looking at her appearance, she was similar to Planet Sala Saiyan, so she had an idea.

“Ah, that’s right. My name is Caulifla. I am the Saiyan of Planet Sadala. Sister, you have a good eye.” Caulifla said loudly. She did not know how many years Melissa was older than her.

“Very interesting.” Melissa revealed a smile.

Although Caulifla was a little rude, she was very much to her liking. She looked like a Saiyan with the same appearance. Such a person had the heart of a child and was most suitable for training.

Speaking of which, the Saiyans of Planet Sala were still from the same source as the Saiyans of Universe 6. Melissa was the royal family of Planet Sala Saiyans, so she was naturally very pleasing to the eye when she saw Caulifla.

Vados said, “These three are Saiyans from Planet Sadala. They are called Caulifla, Kale, Cabba. Their normal combat abilities are extremely strong, but unfortunately, they do not know how to transform into Super Saiyans. So I want to use the next time to train them.”

“Acceleration World is most suitable for short-term assault training.” Muiyang nodded.

“That’s why I brought them here.” Vados smiled elegantly.

As soon as Muiyang broke the 8th-Layer Limit, Acceleration World’s Time-Flow Speed ??? was adjustable to 512 times faster than the Hyperbolic Time Chamber. Now there are still five days from the beginning of the Universe Great Competition. Period of time, one can get seven years of training time.

“In any case, Acceleration World’s Planet Wudao is idle. If you want to train them, just use them.”

Muyang readily agreed. He could be considered to know Caligraf’s Big Brother Renso, and he was very optimistic about the potential of Caulifla and Kale.

Seeing that Muyang agreed to let Caulifla and the others enter Planet Wudao to train, Vados revealed a smile.

Next, Muyang opened the passage to Acceleration World. When Caulifla suddenly saw that the other side of the void passage was connected to a beautiful planet, she shouted again in shock.

“Sister, let’s go in quickly.”

“Oh, I will definitely become that Super Saiyan, but what exactly is a Super Saiyan?”

Caulifla chirped as she followed Kale and the others into the practice area of Planet Wudao. Soon, a domain of time acceleration covered Planet Wudao. At the same time, there was a huge gravitational force coming down. Even though Caulifla and the others had strong power level, their movements became difficult. They had to put in a lot of effort to move a little.

“Yayaya, it’s too heavy. I can’t even move.”

Seeing that Caulifla and the others were starting to train hard, Melissa walked over to Muyang and sat down. “These people are very interesting, especially that Caulifla. Although she is very rude, she is very much to my liking.”

Muyang rolled her eyes. “She is as ignorant as you are.”

Although Melia and Melis were very polite when they were young, they were often shocked and not much better than Caulifla.

Melissa laughed. “Her little follower is also very interesting.”

Android 18 said, “That female Saiyan is a Saiyan.”

“Oh, that’s interesting.”

Melissa looked at Android 18 in surprise and said to April, “Why don’t we let Mutian train with them? They look about the same age, and they will grow faster.”

April nodded with a smile on her face and agreed to let Mutian join in on the cultivation of Caulifla and the others.

Vados’s training was relatively strict. Because it was related to the winning and losing of Universe 6, in the next period of time, Vados did her best to improve the strength of Caulifla and the others.

However, the Super Saiyan transformation of Universe 6 was lost in the end. Vados's training only increased their power level strength and could not stimulate them to awaken the S-Cells.

The power level of Caulifla and the others was already very high. After training on Planet Wudao for about two years, their power level reached more than 100 million, which was not inferior to Son Goku and the others' normal state.

“Elek, let them see the state of Super Saiyan!”

While he was teasing his great-granddaughter Plaque, Muiyang said to him, who nodded and came to the front of Caulifla and showed them the state of Super Saiyan.

Elek first started from the most basic Super Saiyan, and then he leveled up one level. Super Saiyan 1, Super Saiyan 2, Super Saiyan 3, and even the “Potential Unleashed” developed by Old Kai also showed up, causing Caulifla and the others to shout.

“If you want to become a Super Saiyan, you first have to improve the S-Cell energy in your body.”

“The Saiyan of Planet Sadala has a very high concentration of S-Cell cells, so as long as you master the key to the use of energy, it is not difficult to transform into a Super Saiyan.”

Chapter 600

“Oh, so there are so many states. Let me give it a try.”

Caulifla was eager to try. Although the Saiyan of Universe 6 had more S-Cells and it was easier for Planet Vegeta Saiyan to transform into a Super Saiyan, it was not something that could be transformed easily.

Caulifla braced herself and her face flushed red. After a long time, she had not successfully transformed into a Super Saiyan.

“Oh, no!” Caulifla was so tired that she was gasping for breath.

Elek shook his head. “I will tell you the trick. Next, you have to practice well...” Then, he explained the key to transforming into a Super Saiyan in detail. After saying all of this, Elek directly disappeared from the face of Caulifla and the others.

Caulifla was stunned and asked Cabba, “Have you figured it out?”

Cabba said, “I seem to understand a little, but I don't think so.”

“You're too useless.” “Little brother, will you become a Super Saiyan?” Caulifla asked with her round eyes wide open.

Mutian shook his head. “I'm not a Saiyan, so I can't transform into a Super Saiyan.”

Just as Caulifla was disappointed, Mutian said, “But I can transform other times...” After saying that, Mutian's body lit up with a pink light. His skin directly turned pink, and his black hair turned pink. It was almost the same as April's transformation.

Caulifla immediately became very interested. She pulled Mutian around his body, and Mutian frowned awkwardly. He directly slapped Caulifla's hand away.

Caulifla laughed loudly, not looking angry at all.

“This is too interesting. It would be great if I could transform as well.”

...

About four years later, on Planet Wudao, in an open plain.

Vados stood tall, guiding Cabba in his training while looking at the situation on the other side. Compared to Caulifla and Kale, Cabba's growth was much slower. When Caulifla and Kale both mastered the Super Saiyan transformation, Cabba was unable to enter the state for a long time.

Right now, Cabba was already able to undergo the Super Saiyan transformation, and Caulifla had taken a step forward, reaching the level of Super Saiyan 2.

What surprised Vados was the little girl named Kale. After transforming, she directly became a Super Saiyan. She even went berserk in the beginning. After many repeated transformations, she was now able to control the strength of her body.

On the mountain peak in the distance, Caulifla roared with her fists clenched.

The clouds in the sky gradually dimmed. As Caulifla roared, the ki in her body gradually increased. When the silver lightning fell from the sky, the aura on Caulifla's body suddenly increased, directly becoming Super Saiyan 2!

“Hahaha, I finally became Super Saiyan 2.” Caulifla's fluffy long hair flew up in the air and instantly turned golden. Her eyes were also replaced by dark green pupils.

Putting everything else aside, Caulifla, who had transformed into a Super Saiyan 2 form, was very attractive. Her two dark green eyes were especially beautiful.

“Little Mutian, compete with big sister.”

Among Acceleration World, the only one Caulifla had the confidence to defeat was Mutian. As for the others, whether it was Elek or Son Hongye, they were all as strong as perverts. Caulifla had thought herself to be amazing a few years ago and had arrogantly provoked them. In the end, she had been beaten like a dog.

Ever since then, Caulifla retracted her aura and only dared to vent her anger on Mutian.

“Little sister, are you serious?”

Caulifla was sixteen or seventeen years old, four years older than Mutian, but her strength might not be stronger than his.

“If I tell you to come, then come. Be more straightforward.” Caulifla had just broken through and needed a battle to test her strength.

Mutian nodded and floated in front of Caulifla. Then, his eyes narrowed and he transformed into a Majin. Mutian, who had transformed into a demon, was filled with evil charm. His pink and white hair shone like a fluorescent light.

“That’s more like it. I’m going to start.”

Caulifla’s two green eyes flashed with a bright light, like little stars. Then, she approached, floated down, and waved a fist at Mutian.

Mutian’s body flashed, avoiding Caulifla’s attack. A surge of power shot out from his fingertips. Caulifla’s pupils shrank, and she moved her body to avoid the energy ray. Her palm touched the ground, and her heel flipped backwards, giving Mutian an attack.

“Your attack is ineffective against me.” Mutian said, and used magic to set up a protective shield on his body, allowing Caulifla to cancel out all the energy she attacked.

“Hmph, I don’t believe it.” Caulifla was enraged. She let out a furious roar, and the silver electric arcs spread even more densely around her. The free electric sparks in the sky crackled and flickered with electricity. After countless violent energy attacks, the mountain peak was razed to the ground, and Mutian’s defenses were also broken.

Crash... Crystal fragments fell down like flower petals. At this moment, Mutian rushed out of the attack range of Caulifla and suddenly retreated several hundred meters. He landed heavily on the ground, and a huge collapse suddenly appeared on the ground. Mutian used this huge force to rush in front of Caulifla.

Caulifla smiled, revealing a look of excitement. At this time, Mutian’s attack changed from fists to claws, striking down from above.

Caulifla pursed her lips and tilted her body. At this time, there was the sound of fabric tearing. Mutian’s finger swept across Caulifla’s chest and directly tore off her bra. The girl’s chest was completely exposed in front of Mutian.

Stupidly grabbing the pink bra in his hand, Mutian was stunned by this sudden scene, and his movements could not help but be delayed for a few seconds.

“Ha!” Caulifla snorted, her eyebrows slightly wrinkled. She did not mind being seen by others. Just as Mutian was in a daze, Caulifla found the opportunity and instantly sent Mutian flying.

“Hahaha, you really can’t beat me.” Caulifla laughed.

“Uh... I’ll return this to you.” Mutian blushed and did not dare to look at Caulifla’s chest.

Caulifla said regretfully, “They have all been torn apart.”

Mutian said, “I will help you change back.”

As he spoke, he activated his magic power. The bra in Mutian's hand became intact. Caulifla looked at Mutian's ability with envy. She took the bra and put it on. "Your ability is so magical and handsome. Can you teach me?"

Mutian whispered, "This is natural. I can't teach it."

Caulifla was disappointed. "If that's the case, then there's no other way."

"That... If you want to achieve good results in the competition, you have to work hard. I've heard that the other participants are very strong. You are no match for them."

Caulifla patted Mutian on the shoulder. "Don't you still have three more years? You can definitely become stronger. When that time comes, you will definitely reach Super Saiyan 3. Besides, I still have Caulifla on my side. She is very powerful."

"Sister!" Caulifla lowered her head in embarrassment.

Vados flew over. "You guys continue to cultivate here. I need to return to Universe 6 to prepare for the competition. I will pick you up before the start of the competition."

"Got it, got it." Caulifla shook her head.

Vados smiled and nodded at Cabba and the others. Then, she went to Muyang to ask him to send her away from Acceleration World.

There were still two days until the start of the Universe Great Competition. Vados was going to build the arena for the competition during this period of time. She also needed to collect the remaining three Dragon Balls in Universe 6.

Time flew. Two days passed in the blink of an eye.

In the space of Universe 6, a giant arena suspended in the universe had been completed. And around the arena, seven gigantic Super Dragon Balls were arranged in an orderly manner.

Now, they were just waiting for the experts of the two universes to gather.
