

Ball God 661

Chapter 661

“Cough cough... I didn't expect that we would actually lose so badly.” Evil Frieza's face was sinister and filled with unwillingness. Half of his body floated in the air.

Frieza looked down at him and said disdainfully, “Looking at you, you don't have any of our pride. Trash.”

Evil Frieza was stunned. He asked blankly, “Who are you?”

“I am the overlords of the universe... Frieza!”

“Impossible!” Evil Frieza roared angrily.

“Tsk, it's up to you whether you believe it or not. Cell, we can go back now. This mission is really boring!”

Frieza shook his head with flagging interest. Then, he opened the pale gold mission scroll again. In an instant, a terrifying amount of time energy suddenly erupted. The figures of Frieza and Cell immediately disappeared from this time and space.

And after the two of them disappeared, everything in the sealed time and space seemed to be frozen. Then, time went back, and the original history was restored bit by bit. Everything returned to the beginning of the battle of Planet Namek, and then continued to develop. In the new history, Frieza was defeated by Son Goku, who had turned into a Super Saiyan. After that, everything remained the same as before. Planet Namek turned into the dust of the universe in a huge explosion.

The power of Supreme Kai of Time was just so overbearing, as if it was stirring up chaos, compressing all the mutations that were connected to history into a ‘strange point’, and then fusing them into the dimensional turbulence.

For outsiders, there had never been a case where Freiza was possessed by the Black Star Dragon Ball.

In the Time Nest, when Freiza and Cell returned from their mission and handed the Black Star Dragon Ball to Supreme Kai of Time, Supreme Kai of Time revealed a trace of surprise.

“So that's how it is. It was this Dragon Ball that caused the time and space to change.” Supreme Kai of Time was able to sense the power of darkness from the Black Star Dragon Ball, so it was not difficult to understand the change in time and space. The energy contained in this Dragon Ball was not inferior to that of a Super Dragon Ball.

“Supreme Kai of Time, can you give me the Black Star Dragon Ball?”

Supreme Kai of Time nodded and handed the Black Star Dragon Ball to Muiyang.

“One Star Dragon Ball. It’s something that Devil Supreme Kai, Mechikabura, is looking for.” Muiyang looked at the Black Star Dragon Ball in his hand and suddenly felt that his sleeve was pulled by someone. He lowered his head and saw that Gaia looked like a kitten begging for food.

“Lord Muiyang.” Gaia pulled Muiyang’s sleeve.

“Supreme Kai of time, give this Black Star Dragon Ball to Gaia...”

Supreme Kai of time did not care and said, “Sure, you can deal with it however you like.”

Muiyang handed the Black Star Dragon Ball to Gaia. Gaia revealed a happy smile and opened her mouth to swallow the Black Star Dragon Ball into her stomach. “Lord Muiyang, I want to go to sleep and digest the power in the Dragon Ball.”

“Let’s go to my room.” Android 21 volunteered to hold Gaia’s hand and walk away.

Muiyang looked at their departing figures and smiled lightly. Just then, a few pleasant voices came over. It turned out that Melissa and April had returned after completing the mission. They had accepted a small mission to save the planet. The difficulty was not big, but traveling through time and space was a different experience. Thus, both of them felt especially fresh.

There was another flash. Broly and the others had also returned from completing the mission. Their bodies were covered in wounds and their red uniforms were tattered. It seemed like they had just experienced a fierce battle.

When Muiyang saw this, he immediately went forward to heal him. He stuffed an immortal bean into Broly’s mouth and asked with a frown, “Why are you so seriously injured?”

Broly calmed his breathing, “Ellipmont is indeed an amazing expert. With my strength, I was actually almost not his match. If we had not defeated him in time, I’m afraid the entire capital would have appeared in advance.”

I heard from Whis that the final battle between Ellipmont and the Evolved Saiyan people had indeed drawn out Zeno. Broly and the others had gone over to pull history back to its original place.

“Even you are almost not a match for him. That Ellipmont really has some ability.” Muiyang nodded and said.

“He is a powerful opponent!” Even though he was heavily injured, he was very satisfied to be able to fight against such an expert.

“In the future, you need to be careful when choosing missions. After all, Ellipmont is the most important.” Muiyang did not want to see his family get into an accident because of a mission.

Broly and the others nodded repeatedly. Muiyang glanced at everyone. The people who carried out the mission for the first time were more or less injured. In addition to the factors of the difficulty of the mission, there were also some reasons why they were not used to it. In fact, when the members of the Time Patrol team felt that they could not complete the mission or their lives were in danger, they could end the mission in advance and teleport to the Time Nest.

“Oh right, Son Goku and the others have not returned yet?”

“They are on a mission 10,000,000 years ago. They are fighting against their opponents.” Supreme Kai closed his eyes and looked around. A world image from 10,000 years ago appeared in his mind.

10,000 years ago, Universe 7.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

An intense battle occurred in the universe. The entire universe was divided into two battlefields, and the energy stirred by each battlefield could overturn the entire galaxy.

Bloodthirsty, crazy, dark!

Violent energy swept through the starry sky, and a wisp of energy was thrown out. Immediately, along with the destruction of the large mass planet, the broken meteorites floated in chaos, splashing randomly under the influence of the terrifying energy nearby.

Near the star, a few figures were fighting together, occasionally releasing powerful energy that could destroy the heavens and earth.

Son Goku, Vegeta, and Shasley joined forces. They used almost all their strength to fight a figure shining with purple light. Boom! A huge amount of rays pierced through the starry sky. The violent impact created a spectacular collapse phenomenon. Under a dazzling light, the planet disappeared.

It was a figure with four arms, with two wings like shells on his back. It was the culprit who disturbed the current space-time.

Pa! A heavy blow!

The terrifying force sent Son Goku flying. Son Goku flew several tens of thousands of meters in the void. With a roar, his body turned into a stream of light and returned.

“Kakarot, are you alright?”

“I’m fine.”

Son Goku spat out a mouthful of blood. His eyes were bright. “That guy is so powerful. Even if the three of us joined forces, we still wouldn’t be a match for him.”

“The other party should be at the level of a God of Destruction...” Shasley said faintly.

“Can God of Destruction Lord Beerus still sleep at this time? Universe 7 has suffered a great disaster.” Vegeta let out a long breath. The battle just now made his arm a little numb.

“Lord Beerus, it’s best if you don’t come out. Otherwise, the changes in history will be too great.”

The matter that the space-time patrol team can solve, it is best not to involve the big shots in the original history. At this time, the God of Destruction Lord Beerus is still asleep. If he is suddenly disturbed, it will lead to unimaginable consequences. If it is too different from the original history, it may lead to the collapse of the entire space-time.

“Then there is no way. I will delay the other party. Kakarot, prepare a big move.” Vegeta’s eyes were fierce, and a flash of light rushed over.

“Give it to me.” Son Goku nodded and began to prepare to release a big move.

On the other side, while Son Goku and the others were fighting the mysterious cyborgs, another battle was happening on the other side of the starry sky. Universe 7’s Supreme Kai and South Supreme Kai of Universe 7 were working together to deal with a cloaked man with thick hair.

The man could control the meteorite and was attacking the two Supreme Kai with it.

Chapter 662

“Hahaha, so what, Supreme Kai? Even you two are not my match.” The cloaked man covered in beast fur continuously threw meteorites at the two Supreme Kai and then laughed arrogantly.

The fatty Supreme Kai who was pushed back fell onto a meteor in a sorry state. His fat cheeks were dripping with sweat. “Incredible, Moro’s strength is actually so strong.”

South Supreme Kai said nervously, “What should we do? Our attacks can’t hurt him at all!”

Fatty Supreme Kai said, “Delay him first. Even if I have to expend a portion of my divine power, I still have to seal him.”

“Okay.” South Supreme Kai was only an Apprentice Supreme Kai, so he naturally listened to Universe 7’s words.

This generation’s Supreme Kai was very powerful. The Fatty Supreme Kai was comparable to Super Saiyan 3. Even the Supreme Kai Apprentice’s, South Supreme Kai, had extraordinary strength.

His body slightly floated down, and the uneven surface of the meteorite under his feet suddenly cracked a few pieces. With a whoosh, South Supreme Kai’s tall and sturdy body quickly shot out like a cannonball, flying straight towards the cloaked man.

In the middle of the void, the evil cloaked man sneered. His cold eyes showed no emotion. He ignored the South Supreme Kai and ran towards him. He reached out his hand and absorbed the life energy from a star ball on the other side of the starry sky. He condensed it into an energy ball and swallowed it.

“Don’t overestimate yourself!”

The cloaked man, who had been replenished with life energy, looked at the South Supreme Kai and launched a powerful attack.

Whoosh! The terrifying energy formed a huge particle. The spectacular energy wave penetrated the entire planet system and a figure flew out.

“Where did this guy come from?” South Supreme Kai’s body flashed, and he launched a big move.

“Hahaha, it’s useless. All the energy is my tonic. The stronger your attack is, the more advantageous it is for me! Even Supreme Kai is just a tiny ant in my eyes. Disappear along with these planets!”

Boom! Large mass planets collapsed, and countless lives disappeared in the universe.

“Damn it.” South Supreme Kai steadied himself in a sorry state. Seeing that the Fatty Supreme Kai was still preparing his divine power, he gritted his teeth and charged towards the other party once more.

This strange person wearing a cloak was called Moro. He was of the same race as Universe 6’s Goat Moya and had the ability to absorb other people’s energy. Any expert who approached his body would have their power converted into their own.

The nature of his ability seemed very similar to April’s hunting ability. However, in reality, apart from this ability, Moro’s pure strength had not even reached the Half-God Level. Although the divine power in Supreme Kai’s body could be immune to Moro’s ability, it was a pity that the two Supreme Kai’s own combat strength was not enough to deal with Moro.

It was precisely because of this ability that Goat Moro was invincible among Universe 7, ordinary experts were not his match at all.

If not for this, there was nothing to fear.

There were only two ways to defeat Moro, one was to be strong to the point that Goat Moro could not absorb or understand, such as God of Destruction, and purely using super power to break Moro. The second was to be like Supreme Kai, possessing the Universe Level Power Of Creation, the power that Supreme Kai had was equivalent to Universe 7’s rules, and fighting against it was to fight against the entire Universe 7, thus, Moro’s ability was ineffective against Supreme Kai’s God Power.

The only regret is that the current Supreme Kai only has the strength to fight against Super Saiyan 3, and is not a match for Moro...

“South Supreme Kai, hold on for a while longer, my ability will be activated soon.” The Fatty Supreme Kai clasped his hands together, his index and middle fingers folded and aimed at Goat Moro.

Moro’s cold eyes swept over the fat Supreme Kai, and for some reason, he felt a little uneasy.

“What is he trying to do?”

The eyes of the Goat Moro flickered.

“Moro, everything is over. Surrender!” Fatty Supreme Kai was ready, and the power of the seal was about to be released.

However, at this moment, a terrifying energy suddenly erupted from the other side of the distant starry sky. It was like billions of stars flashing with infinite light at the same time. A vast cosmic storm swept over, instantly sending Fatty Supreme Kai and Moro flying.

Fatty Supreme Kai was stunned by the sudden change. The divine power in his hand quickly dissipated, and a backlash came. Fatty Supreme Kai was completely in trouble.

“Lord Supreme Kai.”

South Supreme Kai cried out in alarm. He grabbed Fatty Supreme Kai’s hand in the turbulent energy flow, and then teleported to the back of a slightly larger meteor.

In the distance, several flashes of light constantly appeared in the starry sky. Every time the light flashed, it would always be accompanied by a terrifying pressure that penetrated the void and spread out. The quiet and vast star domain instantly became a deep sea with raging waves, and the void was turned upside down.

“Kakarot, our attack worked.”

“Increase the attack and take advantage of this time to eliminate him.”

“This mission is really not easy.”

Sound could not be transmitted in the universe, but the voices of Son Goku and the others were transmitted through the form of energy waves. After learning the “Vacuum Inner Breath” of Planet Yardrat, as long as the energy in the body was abundant, even the Saiyan could survive in the vacuum ring realm for the time being.

In the face of the chaotic void, the fatty Supreme Kai and South Supreme Kai revealed shocked expressions.

“Who are those people?” The Fatty Supreme Kai frowned.

The South Supreme Kai shook his head. “I hope they are not enemies. Their strength is simply unprecedented.”

Goat Moro was already very terrifying in the heart of South Supreme Kai. However, the aftermath of the battle between the few people in front of him actually sent him and Moro flying together. Their strength was actually even stronger than Moro. The ability to eliminate Moro to absorb energy was simply incomparable.

The Fatty Supreme Kai, had a worry in his heart. “If Moro targets them, it will be bad...”

While Fatty Supreme Kai was worrying, Son Goku and Vegeta joined forces to attack the Cyborg who disrupted time and space. The crackling sounds of fighting continued. Of course, in the universe, these sounds were reflected in the shock of the soul. As the fight went on, the stars and the stars gradually flew away from the orbit.

“Kamehameha!”

Son Goku raised his hand. The blue energy shock wave pierced through the universe. At this moment, the entire universe became silent. After a short silence, a space tearing explosion occurred.

Fatty Supreme Kai suddenly realized that whether it was the few humans in red uniforms or the humanoid life they were dealing with, their all-out battle had already exceeded the scope of his vision as Supreme Kai!

“Perhaps only the God of Destruction, Lord Beerus, can be compared to them!”
The Fatty Supreme Kai, thought uneasily.

“South Supreme Kai, let’s leave.” The Fatty Supreme Kai suddenly said.

“But Moro...”

“The situation in front of us is no longer something we can interfere with.
Whether it is Moro or those mysterious people, unless the God of Destruction wakes up.”

South Supreme Kai widened his eyes in disbelief.

However, he understood what the Fatty Supreme Kai, meant. If it was just a Goat Moro, with the strength of the two Supreme Kai, they might be able to win. However, with the addition of those mysterious people, everything was hard to say. Perhaps Supreme Kai would all die here.

This would lead to the disappearance of the God of Destruction. It absolutely could not happen.

Once such a situation occurred, it would be a true disaster for Universe 7.

Chapter 663

“I understand.”

After witnessing the terrifying strength of Son Goku and the others, South Supreme Kai was shocked. With a trace of unwillingness, South Supreme Kai grabbed the Fatty Supreme Kai’s shoulder and quickly teleported back to Sacred World of the Kai. Then, he paid attention to the changes in the lower realm at all times.

Boom!!

After Supreme Kai and the others left, the intense battle continued. From the beginning, Son Goku and the others did not care much about the battle on Supreme Kai’s side.

Because they were far away, they did not sense the special ability of the Goat Moro.

Shasley’s calf surrounds a layer of energy to the evil Cyborg, and under heavy blows, Cyborg quickly flew and slammed into a giant planet. The plates on the planet were cracked, and the lava jets were like the judgment day, and Cyborg spits out mouthful of blood, but quickly returned to space.

At this moment, Vegeta suddenly appeared and smashed down with both fists.

Bang! A heavy blow.

Son Goku appeared in the blink of an eye. A deep blue energy art wave hit the body of the Cyborg. The impact sent the Cyborg flying toward a nearby star. Not long after, the Cyborg smashed into the star. In an instant, it created a terrifying particle storm.

“The high temperature of the star is enough to melt the enemy.” Vegeta gasped for breath and calmed his inner breath.

“He should die.”

Son Goku looked at them carefully and nodded. He took out the immortal beans and gave them to them.

After quickly consuming the Senzu Beans, the bodies of the three people recovered. Just as Son Goku was about to take out the scroll to check the completion of the task, a cold and gloomy aura suddenly attacked them. Goat Moro had been lying in ambush for a long time. Finally, he could not help but want to absorb the power of Son Goku and the others.

“Who is it?” Son Goku roared angrily. He clenched his fist and smashed toward the shadow.

However, when he touched the other party, he felt a soft sensation. Son Goku’s expression changed. He suddenly found that his strength had disappeared.

“Be careful. There is something strange about that fellow.”

“What’s going on?” Vegeta frowned and revealed a trace of doubt.

Son Goku said, “My attack just now did not cause any damage to him.”

“Hahaha, I have never seen such abundant power before. Give me a little more!” Goat Moro opened his mouth greedily and swallowed the remaining energy in the void into his stomach. He stuck out his tongue and licked his lips, looking like he was not satisfied yet.

“The same devouring ability as Miss April.” Shasley murmured. The other party’s ability was very similar to April’s. Both could absorb the opponent’s power from a distance.

“If that’s the case, then it’s bad.” Vegeta felt bad.

The corner of Son Goku’s mouth rose, “Let me try.”

“Be careful.”

Since April was able to swallow his opponent whole, even if the goat in front of him was not as strong as April, he still had to be careful.

Son Goku nodded. His eyes suddenly burst with light. A large pure blue light suddenly shone. As the pressure increased, Son Goku’s hair color gradually changed from light blue to crystal clear dark blue. Every strand of hair was as bright and bright as glass.

Son Goku let out a soft cry. His figure flashed, leaving behind a blurry figure in his original spot. Once again, he appeared beside the Goat Moro. He threw out a fist, aiming at the abdomen of the Goat Moro.

The Goat Moro was not surprised but delighted. "All of the attacks will be absorbed by me."

However, the next moment, Moro's expression froze. A violent pain came from his abdomen, and a miserable scream came from his mouth. The body of the Goat Moro was sent flying.

"No, impossible. I actually couldn't absorb your attack."

Son Goku looked at his fist and said, "It can only mean that your ability to absorb is limited."

Vegeta said, "This attack has reached the level of a God of Destruction."

Shasley said, "I actually hid something when I was dealing with the Cyborg."

Son Goku hurriedly said, "I just comprehended it, and I didn't mean to hide it."

Vegeta said, "Alright, after I go back, I want to upgrade to the Super Saiyan Blue Evolution as soon as possible. I don't want you to surpass me too much..." When he appeared in another world, Vegeta felt a deep pressure. Now that Son Goku had stepped into the first level of the God of Destruction, he needed to chase after him bravely.

"What about the goat just now?" Shasley raised her eyebrows.

"That guy is not in the mission range. Don't cause trouble. The scroll shows that we have completed the mission. Go back quickly. I want to go into seclusion immediately."

"Then let's go back."

It was 10,000,000 years ago. They could not do much to change history. After the mission was completed, they began to summon Supreme Kai's power. As the golden light lit up in the vast universe, the three of them returned to the nest of time.

After Son Goku and the others left, everything returned to its original trajectory.

The Goat Moro was sealed by Supreme Kai's power with half of his divine power and then sent to the prison planet to be imprisoned. This also caused the weakening of Fatty Supreme Kai's power, so that he was swallowed up by Majin Buu after 5,000,000.

...

In the Time Nest, Vegeta hurriedly entered a state of seclusion after returning. After Son Goten and the others asked, they found out that it was Son Goku who took the lead in breaking into Super Saiyan Blue Evolution and Vegeta couldn't stand running away.

"This is Vegeta's character. No matter what, he will not accept that he is worse than Son Goku." Muiyang smiled and looked expectantly at the room where Vegeta was in seclusion. When he came out, he might be a Super Saiyan Blue Evolution.

On the Tournament of Power in the original work, the first to achieve the state of Super Saiyan Blue Evolution was Vegeta, while Son Goku achieved Ultra Instinct. At this time, everything changed, but Son Goku became Super Saiyan Blue Evolution first.

In the next few months, all the people in the universe were seriously carrying out tasks in the Time Nest. At the same time, they were constantly fighting to improve their own strength. Vegeta finally broke through to the Super Saiyan Blue Evolution after two months of seclusion, and his strength was equal to Son Goku again.

And at this time, Universe 7's Galactic Patrol Headquarters.

Galactic King hurriedly found the patrol staff in charge of the star system on Earth – Jaco.

“Galactic King, why are you looking for me? Is there a difficult task for you to hand over to me, the most outstanding patrol officer?” Jaco start to talk Very narcissistic, looking at Galactic King, standing proudly. “Merus, why are you at the headquarters?” said the Galaxy King.

Galactic King said, “Jaco, there is a mission for you to immediately go to Earth and bring Majin Buu.”

“Majin Buu?” Jaco laughed.

“Galactic King, are you joking? I don't dare to come into contact with such a dangerous person.”

Looking carefully at the Galactic King, Jaco asked softly, “Why are you looking for Majin Buu?”

Beside the Galactic King, Merus said, “The prison planet where the criminals of the universe were detained was invaded. Many criminals escaped, and one of them was a very terrifying person. He needed to borrow the power of Majin Buu to subdue him. If he was late, the entire universe would be in trouble.”

Chapter 664

“Ah, is it that serious?” Jaco was shocked by what Merus said and his neck shrank.

Merus said, “Moro was personally imprisoned by Lord Supreme Kai back then. His power is extremely terrifying. Majin Buu has Supreme Kai's power in his body. If we want to deal with Moro, we must bring him over to awaken Supreme Kai's power.”

Jaco's egg-like eyes widened. “Are you sure you want to go to Earth?”

“It concerns the peace of the entire universe. First, I have to bring back Majin Buu. There is no other way. You are also a member of Galactic Patrolman. You should know the importance of maintaining the peace of the universe.”

“But... there are some very powerful people around Majin Buu. If they are not willing, I have no choice.” Jaco spread his hands, looking like he could not help.

Galactic King said, “No matter what, you guys go to Earth and take a look first. It's best if you can convince the other party.”

Seeing that he couldn't refuse, Jaco nodded helplessly. "Alright, don't blame me if you don't succeed."

Merus said, "I will go with you."

Jaco shrugged and agreed. As a member of the Galactic Patrol, Merus was in charge of a larger area. She was in charge of a space zone that was more than thirty times larger than Jaco. Her voice was much heavier than his. Even if Jaco raised an objection, it was basically useless. She simply did not speak.

When the Galactic King saw that Jaco and Merus had made their decision, he arranged for the staff of the Galactic Patrol to prepare the aircraft.

As a white radiance emerged from the gyroscope-like Galactic Patrol Headquarters, Jaco and Merus moved towards Earth. Galactic Patrol has the most advanced interstellar navigation technology in the Universe, starting in the Central Area and arriving in Earth in a few days.

Speaking of which, Jaco still had some ties with Earth. When Son Goku first entered Earth, if not for Jaco accidentally falling into the sea and not seeing the location of Son Goku's spaceship, Son Goku might have been found and killed by him.

The starry sky was vast, quiet and deep.

The dark red background of the universe remained unchanged, and the shining stars flashed and disappeared, shining with a dazzling light.

Interstellar travel was a long and boring thing, but thanks to the advanced interstellar travel technology of the Galactic Patrolman, it did not take long for them to get close to the solar system.

The blue planet appeared in front of them. Merus stood near the skylight and looked at the planet below. "I heard that there are many powerful warriors on Earth. If they are willing to deal with Moro, they will have a higher chance of defeating him."

Jaco controlled the flying device to lower its altitude. "There are indeed many experts, but it is very difficult to get them to make a move. Do you think they will listen to the orders of the Galactic Patrol?"

There were no lack of Half-God experts on Earth. They did not even put Supreme Kai in their eyes. It would be strange if they listened to the orders of the Galactic Patrol.

Merus said, "We have to give it a try. Oh right, do you know the location of Majin Buu?"

Jaco glanced at Merus, "So you don't even know where Majin Buu is. Well, you still have to rely on me at the crucial moment! Watch me." Jaco took out a communication device and dialed a number in the past, "Hey, Tights, I am Jaco..."

After a while, Jaco turned off the communication device. "I contacted a friend on Earth. She must know the whereabouts of Majin Buu."

Jaco and Tights met decades ago, and he traveled with her many times around the Universe. The two people had a very good relationship and a deep friendship.

After contacting Tights, who was on Earth, Jaco controlled the spaceship to fly toward West City.

West City, Capsule Corporation Headquarters.

Jaco's spaceship landed on the empty lawn. At this time, Tights was already waiting there for a long time. When she saw Jaco come down from the aircraft, Tights smiled and greeted him, "Jaco, long time no see. Why have you come to Earth?"

Jaco gave Tights a hug and introduced, "This is Merus. He is also a member of the Galactoc Patrol like me. Of course, she is not as capable as me. Coming to Earth this time was his idea because there is something that concerns the peace of the entire universe."

Tights's eyes lit up and she became interested. "What is it?"

Tights had traveled in the universe for many years. As she grew older, she finally calmed down. However, her heart was still filled with the passion she had when she was young. When she heard Jaco's introduction, she became spirited.

"The prison planet has been breached recently, and many vicious criminals have escaped from it. One of them is so powerful that even our Galactic can't deal with him. So, the Galactic King sent me, the best member to assist Merus." Jaco never forgot to boast about himself.

Tights smiled as she watched. She had known each other for many years, so she knew that Jaco liked to brag. She did not believe his words at all.

Merus reached out and shook hands with Tights, "Hello, Miss Tights. Do you know the whereabouts of Majin Buu?"

"Yes, but he is not on Earth right now."

"May I ask where Majin Buu went?"

"I think he went to God of Destruction Planet." Tights thought for a moment and told him the information she knew.

"Where is God of Destruction Planet? There doesn't seem to be a Star Domain called this in the universe." Merus managed the 104 star systems and searched through the names of the galaxies in his memory, but he could not find anything that fit the description.

"That is the place where Lord Beerus lives."

Jaco laughed, "Tights, you must have been joked. Lord Beerus is just a myth."

Tights said with certainty, "The God of Destruction, Lord Beerus, is real."

Just as Jaco was about to laugh, he saw Tights's firm tone and her expression became flustered. "Don't tell me what you said is true? Did Majin Buu is really at God of Destruction Planet?"

"Of course."

Merus frowned, "This is troublesome. If we can't find Majin Buu, then no one will be able to restrain the demon."

Tights asked curiously, “Is the demon that you are talking about really that scary?”

Merus said in a heavy tone, “The horror of the demon is not something humans can imagine. According to the records, it is definitely not worse than Majin Buu.”

“Oh.”

Tights did not feel much about it. She was probably used to seeing experts. When she heard that Merus said that the power of the demon was only about the same as that of Majin Buu, Tights did not feel anything at all.

There were many experts who were more powerful than Majin Buu on Earth. Be it Son Goku, Lazuli, Lapis, Vegeta or Shasley, they were all more powerful than Majin Buu, not to mention that there was also MUYANG and his family on Earth.

“Miss Tights, do you have a way to contact Majin Buu?”

“I can give it a try. I have a way to contact them from Bulma.” Tights nodded in respect of Jaco.

When Merus heard this, her expression relaxed. Then, she was led by Tights to Bulma’s residence. At this time, Bulma and Launch were playing in the courtyard with Plaque and Pepe. When she saw Jaco and the others coming over, Bulma was surprised, “Jaco, how do you have the time to come to Earth?”

So, Jaco told her about the matter between Moro and Majin Buu. After listening to it, Bulma troubled. “If you want to find Majin Buu and the others, I’m afraid you are late. They have already left the universe.”

“Ah, then what should we do?”

Bulma shrugged. “I have no choice. I can’t contact them at all. Why don’t I help you ask Whis and see if the God of Destruction Lord Beerus has the time to help?”

When they heard that they were going to contact the legendary God of Destruction, Lord Beerus, Jaco and Merus sat upright with serious expressions on their faces. When Bulma saw them, he couldn’t help but laugh. He took out his communication device and relayed the matter to Whis. Soon, there was a reply from Whis.

According to what Whis said, the God of Destruction, Lord Beerus, was not interested in interfering with the matters of Moro.

Chapter 665

“I’m sorry. Lord Beerus said that he doesn’t want to interfere with Moro’s problem and let you solve it yourself. That means that the problem is not big.” Bulma shook her head.

In fact, in the eyes of Lord Beerus, Goat Moro was not a big problem. Other than his strange ability to absorb energy, his own strength was nothing special. Majin Buu could probably deal with him.

It was far worse than Universe 6’s Goat Moya.

As long as the God of Destruction, Lord Beerus, guaranteed that Supreme Kai would not casually go down to the lower realms, he would be able to rest in peace. If he let the demon clean up the lower realms, he might be able to incite some experts. To Lord Beerus, who was eager to increase Universe 7's strength, this was more important than anything else.

Merus said with a disappointed expression, "The god is unwilling to interfere in the matters of the demon. It seems like we have to act on our own."

After saying goodbye to Bulma and the others, Merus returned to Galactic Patrol Headquarters with Jaco.

After Merus and the others left, Launch said in a pleasant voice, "Aren't you going to help them?"

Bulma said, "I don't know martial arts. I can't help even if I want to."

Launch took out a blue transparent crystal. "This is what Uncle Muyang left with me when he left. We can contact him at the critical moment."

Bulma was surprised. "You actually have such a good thing." After thinking about it, he did not find it strange. This trip to the Time Nest had almost taken away the top experts on Earth. If there was an emergency communication device arranged behind the scenes, it would be too late if something happened on Earth.

Muyang would definitely not allow this to happen. It was necessary to leave a communication device behind.

After that, Launch used the communication device to inform Muyang about the arrival of Jaco and the others. After doing this, Bulma and Launch played with the two children as usual. Pepe and Plaque were just playing around. Laughter soon sounded in the courtyard.

After returning from Earth in disappointment, Merus quickly returned to the headquarters of the Galactic Patrol Headquarters.

"It's a pity that we did not find Majin Buu." Because she had returned in defeat, Merus was in low spirits.

The Galactic King shook his head in distress. At that moment, a patrolman ran in from outside with important information on him. "Galactic King, the latest information is that Moro has taken a spaceship. He is now flying towards the north under the control of the former subordinates of the King Cold."

Galactic King asked, "Do you know the destination they are going to?"

The patrolman said, "From the route, the destination is Planet Namek."

"The New Planet Namek should be a planet with poor living conditions. Why would Moro go there?" The space zone that Merus was in charge of was far away from the North Area, so they did not know about the New Planet Namek.

"Maybe it is for the dragon pearl," Jaco guessed.

“Dragon Ball? Oh no, I must stop him. If he gets the Dragon Ball, he will be finished.” The Galactic King realized the ambition of Moro and immediately ordered Jaco and Merus to lead the army to stop Moro. Jaco lied that he had a stomachache and wanted to ask for leave, but he was still carried onto the flying ship by Merus.

New Planet Namek.

The blazing sun shone through the clouds and sprinkled the sun on the ground. As the second home of Planet Namek., the natural environment of the New Planet Namek. was not as superior as imagined. On the contrary, the resources of the New Planet Namek. were very few. It could be said to be barren to the extreme.

Apart from the Namekians who could survive by relying on sunlight and water, no other universe would take a fancy to this place. This might be the reason why the Namekians chose it as the second home.

The yellow dust flew. A few short slopes surrounded a wide open area. A few short, hemispherical buildings were arranged neatly on both sides of the river. Not far away, there was a piece of farmland that had just been reclaimed. The diligent Namekian were picking wooden buckets to water the plants.

“Mr. Zamasu, it’s been hard on you to plant these seedlings.”

A middle-aged Namekian walked over with a few seedlings in his arms. Due to the harsh conditions, most of the vegetation on the New Planet Namek had to be grow manually.

The Core People, a green skin named Zamasu, wiped his sweat and smiled on his face. “Put it down. I will deal with it properly.”

“Sorry to trouble you.”

“It’s no trouble. You have taught me a lot.”

This Zamasu was the Supreme Kai Apprentice of Universe 10. After being sealed by Muiyang, he was trapped in the New Planet Namek to undergo ideological transformation.

Because he knew that Zamasu had malicious intentions towards humans, Muiyang did not intend to let him go back. However, after a few years of hard work, perhaps due to the influence of the hardworking and kind Namekians, Zamasu’s state of mind actually changed. Although he had not completely changed his interest at this time, he was much more harmonious with the Namekians.

Every day, he would plant plants on the Planet Namek and carry out the work of improving the natural environment. For the first time, Zamasu discovered that not all humans would only carry out infinite demands on the universe. There were at least people like the Namekians who admired nature and was hardworking and kind.

This made Zamasu change his opinion of humans, and he was also shaken by his past beliefs.

If there were more races like this, the universe would develop steadily.

“Mr. Zamasu, the elder intends to build a new canal. As long as the spring water is guided inland, more plants can be raised.” A little fat Namekian child followed beside Zamasu, his face covered in mud.

Zamasu smiled. He looked up at the sinister sun and felt a sense of peace in his heart.

At this moment, a shadow appeared next to the sun. It was a small flying device.

Suddenly, he felt a cold and dark aura descend. Zamasu’s expression changed and he shuddered. He quickly grabbed the arm of the young child and hid behind a rock.

“Mr. Zamasu, what happened?” The young child said nervously.

“Lower your voice.”

Zamasu quickly covered the other party’s mouth. His small eyes peeked out. When he saw a monster covered in brown and white fur walking down from the flying ship, a chill rose from his back. Zamasu’s pupils suddenly shrank, and cold sweat poured down from his forehead.

“How terrifying. Just one look and you can’t help but tremble.”

“Who is that person? Why is he come to New Planet Namek?”

Zamasu held his breath in fear, not allowing the other party to discover his tracks. When he was at his peak, his strength was almost no less than that of a Super Saiyan Level 2. However, he was certain that even at his peak, he was definitely not a match for the other party.

The person who came down from the spaceship was naturally Goat Moro. After his strength was sealed by the Fatty Supreme Kai, the first stage was 10,000 years ago.

He had just escaped from the prison planet not long ago. Because his body had been exhausted, his body had aged to the extreme. If he did not borrow the power of the Dragon Ball, just absorbing vitality alone was not enough to recover his origin.

Therefore, under the advice of King Cold’s subordinates, they came to the nemesis of the New Planet Namek.

Chapter 666

“Is there a Dragon Ball on this planet that you mentioned?” Goat Moro’s thin face looked towards the King Cold soldier.. Because his vitality could not be replenished, the voice of Goat Moro was very weak.

The alien immediately replied, “Don’t worry, Lord Moro. The news is absolutely reliable. The Dragon Ball of Planet Namek can fulfill any wish. Back then, King Cold wanted to seize their Dragon Ball, but because King Hilch was the first to arrive, he could only take the second best and go to another planet.”

This universe did not know that it was King Cold who had deliberately given up on the Dragon Ball of Planet Namek.

Moro nodded his head when he heard this. His urgent mood was slightly relaxed. He glanced at the vast and desolate New Planet Namek. He waved his hand, and suddenly, countless shining white energies emerged from the ground, gathering into a dazzling energy ball.

Moro opened his mouth and swallowed the energy in one gulp. His expression became relaxed.

“Lord Moro, you are...” The alien around him were stunned.

“It’s just a little energy replenishment. There aren’t many lives on this planet, but the vitality contained in the planet is extremely abundant.” After eating a life energy ball, Moro looked a bit younger, but his limbs were still extremely thin.

“This, so it’s like this...” The alien laughed dryly.

When Zamasu, who was hiding behind a rock, saw Moro casually absorb the energy on the planet, his face turned ugly. “That is the energy that Supreme Kai gave the planet of life, and it was actually extracted by someone...” He looked at the young child from Planet Namek beside him and instructed, “Those who want to live, don’t make a sound. Put away your ki.”

“Yes.” The young children of Planet Namek held their breaths, their auras restrained like the same plant.

Zamasu took a deep breath. His eyes were focused on Moro. His chest felt as if there was a huge mountain pressing down on it. The other party’s goal was the Dragon Ball. The New Planet Namek had finally summoned an unprecedented disaster because of the existence of the Dragon Ball.

...

“Hmph, after not moving around in the universe for such a long time, the number of humans has multiplied. Many planets are able to see traces of humans.”

“That’s right. After all, Lord Moro has not appeared for more than a thousand years.” The alien smiled apologetically.

Moro glanced at him indifferently. “If the situation you obtained is true, I will reward you properly after I obtain the Dragon Ball, so I will admit that you are really working for me. Yes, the village below is where Namekians live. Go and bring over their Dragon Ball.”

“Yes, sir.”

The alien came to their senses and jumped into the village where Namekian lived.

The Namekians had long noticed the spaceship that had landed on Planet Namek. When they saw the sudden strangers and sensed the evil aura from them, the elders of the village had gathered the young warriors.

“Who are you? What are you doing here?”

The cold voice of King Cold’s former subordinates rang out, “Old man, hurry up and hand over your Dragon Balls so that Lord Moro won’t get angry and implicate this planet.”

The elder’s face sank. “There is nothing here that you are looking for. We do not welcome you. Please leave immediately.”

Just as the alien was about to curse, Goat Moro's skinny palm pressed down on his body. "Don't talk nonsense with them. The Dragon Ball must be in their room. It should be there..." His hand pointed to the largest house in the village. There was a different energy there.

The Namekians elder's expression changed.

That was the place where the Dragon Ball was enshrined.

He stood in front of Moro and shouted to the young warriors in the village, "Protect the Dragon Ball. Don't let the evil people get it."

"Yes." A row of more than ten young Namekians stood out.

Moro looked at the people from Planet Namek who had stepped forward and smiled coldly. He looked at them as if they were looking at a joke. The long white beard on his neck trembled.

"Hahaha, a mere ant dares to block my way. Although his strength has dropped drastically after being sealed for ten million years, it is still easy for him to deal with you."

After he finished speaking, his cold gaze swept over the Namekians. He was as sharp as an eagle. One of his feet stomped on the ground, causing the ground to shake.

Some of the Namekians were unsteady on their feet from the tremors. White light flew out from the bodies of Namekians landed in Moro's hand. As the energy flew out, the eyes of the Namekians turned white and they all fell to the ground.

"Orr, Casta, Bennis, what happened to you?"

The elder shouted anxiously. He quickly checked the situation of Namekians. When he found that they had all lost any signs of life, his expression could not help but turn ugly.

"What exactly did you do?"

"It's nothing. I just let them turn into the energy in my body. It is their honor to be able to contribute a portion of my strength to my awakening." The Goat Moro said, looking down on his life.

The elder's eyes went black, and his hands trembled as he glared at Moro.

Others might not know how Moro had arrived, but Zamasu, who had witnessed all of this, saw it clearly. His throat was a little dry. "That monster... can actually seize other people's life force. No, not just humans. If you get close to him, all objects will lose their life force!"

As a Supreme Kai Apprentice, even if his power was sealed, his understanding of life force did not decrease at all.

Supreme Kai's job was to give a large amount of life energy to various planets in the universe to maintain the life force of the universe. This demon-like goat in front of him was the complete opposite. It had the ability to remove the life energy of others.

Where did this monster come from?

"Maybe it will be a disaster that will affect the entire universe!" Zamasu said in shock.

After swallowing the life energy in one gulp, Moro's eyes lit up. Just as he was about to start a massacre, dozens of strong rays of light suddenly came from the sky. These rays of light kept coming closer and closer, and their auras became stronger.

In fact, every single line of Namekian was light. Relying on the naturally-born fusion ability of Namekian, the Namekian Warriors who had sensed the attack of a strong enemy rushed over from all directions and continuously fused into a single individual.

When Moro and the elder were present, there was only one.

"Trea, you are finally here!" The elder was surprised.

"Don't worry, Elder. With me here, I won't let evil people harm the Namekians."

Trea was one of the best among the younger generation of the Namekians. He was also a rare Namekian Warrior. After fusing with dozens of compatriots, the energy on his body increased by dozens. Even when facing Super Saiyan, he had the courage to speak.

"Oh, an interesting one came."

Moro's expression did not change. His stiff face was as expressionless as a dried corpse.

"Cough, Lord Moro, this lowly one is not here to disturb you. Let's go look for the dragon pearl first." Moro, who had come with him, coughed dryly and dodged far away. Rather than saying that he was looking for the Dragon Ball, it was more accurate to say that he had foreseen how far the danger could hide.

Moro looked at him expressionlessly and ignored him.

"You have quite a bit of life energy on you, so I will accept it." After saying that, Goat Moro's figure suddenly blurred, leaving behind an afterimage, and he had already run off to who knows where.

What a fast speed, a thought flashed through his mind.

Trea's eyes kept turning, searching for traces of Goat Moro. Suddenly, his body felt a chill.

Chapter 667

"Hehe, I'm here."

Moro appeared next to Trea and placed a hand on his arm. Trea expression changed greatly. Just as he was about to counterattack, he found that his body was weak and his consciousness soon fell into darkness.

A ball of energy was peeled off by Moro. Moro sniffed the ball of light and stuffed it into his mouth. As he chewed, he commented, "The quality is much better than the one just now. Although it is a little less, it can make up for my dried up power."

"Trea!" The Namekian Elder cried out in pain.

"Don't make a fuss. I'm annoyed."

Moro dug his ears with his fingers and looked at the Namekian Elder unhappily. Then, he ordered his subordinates to search for the whereabouts of the Dragon Ball in the room where they had sensed the strange energy. Soon, a football-sized Dragon Ball was found.

“Lord Moro, it is indeed a Dragon Ball.” The alien hugged the Dragon Ball and said seductively.

Moro grabbed the Dragon Ball and looked at it. He nodded and said to Namekian Elder, “Tell me the whereabouts of the remaining Dragon Ball and hand over the Dragon Ball. I will forgive your planet.”

The elder spat and said sadly, “Even if you kill me, I won’t tell you the whereabouts of the Dragon Ball.”

“Sigh, then don’t blame me for being impolite.” Moro shook his head regretfully. He pointed at the elder’s body and was about to absorb the life energy in his body. Suddenly, a green figure flashed. Zamasu came out from behind the rock, pulling the Namekian Elder aside.

“Zamasu, you...”

“Elder, quickly leave.” Zamasu said righteously.

Back then, he had been thinking about destroying mortals all day and finally stood up to protect mortals.

When Moro saw the sudden appearance of Zamasu, he frowned deeply. A bone-piercing chill swept in all directions. Zamasu’s appearance reminded him of the Fatty Supreme Kai who had sealed him back then.

“Although your skin color is not like the Supreme Kai of the past, my intuition tells me that you must have some kind of relationship.” Moro’s eyes became cold, “Who are you?”

Zamasu stood proudly, “Universe 10 Supreme Kai Apprentice, Zamasu!”

“Universe 10 Supreme Kai Apprentice!”

Moro muttered. A killing intent that could wipe out everything rose up, “It really is Supreme Kai. Back then, that fatty caused me to be sealed for ten million years. Now that I just came out, I met an Supreme Kai’s Apprentice. What a wonderful opportunity to take revenge!”

“Supreme Kai, die!!”

He opened his mouth and roared. The imposing aura that rushed into the sky shook the world. The entire Planet Namek shook violently and a storm formed in an instant. The area close to Zamasu actually formed a vacuum. Zamasu felt cold all over and felt as if his soul was going to freeze.

“This guy is really scary!”

Zamasu's face was pale. He suddenly felt a little confused. He did not know why he had stepped forward. He only felt that it was necessary to do so.

In order to carry out the justice of the world.

Perhaps Zamasu's previous righteousness was somewhat biased. However, in the few years when he was living in New Planet Namek, his close contact with nature had tempered his heart. Although he was still not qualified to be Supreme Kai's role, as a Supreme Kai Apprentice was qualified, especially when facing Moro, he could still stand up.

“Die!!”

The roaring energy exploded on the spot, as if several large nuclear bombs had detonated together. The soaring flames dispersed the atmosphere, and the entire Planet Namek stopped spinning in an instant. Looking from the universe, one could see a bright flare on the surface of the planet.

This kind of power was almost extinct.

Swoosh, the wind blew, and the vision became chaotic. When the dust gradually settled, what appeared in front of them was a huge crater with a radius of 100,000 meters, deep and bottomless. There was even a larger impact zone around it. The strong visual impact made people despair. The hot earth was scorched, and wisps of smoke rose.

“Sir, the Dragon Ball has been blown away as well.” The alien said nervously.

“Hurry up and get it back.” Moro snorted.

“Yes!” The alien shivered and hurriedly went around the huge explosion pit to search. As they stepped on the melted ground, cold sweat constantly appeared on their heads.

Moro looked at the deep pit indifferently. His white hair fluttered in the wind and his forehead was deeply wrinkled. He did not know why he felt a sense of unease.

No! That Supreme Kai was not dead!

Suddenly realizing something, Moro's expression changed drastically. His gaze fell into the distant sky. The white clouds had long been dispersed, and the clear sky was spotless. Soon, Moro saw a few black dots, and his face was extremely gloomy.

“Who exactly is it?”

In Moro's vision, four figures appeared in the sky. One was a fat Namekian Elder, the other was an unfamiliar Namekian Warrior, a black-haired human, and the Supreme Kai Apprentice just now. However, what made Moro uneasy was that he only sensed the auras of three people.

The other was something he could see, but could not sense at all.

This was not good!

“Lord Birgil, Mr. Muiyang, fortunately, you were able to make it here,”

The Namekian Elder said excitedly.

Birgil looked at him and nodded. His eyes were full of anger as he looked at Moro. "Is he the one who killed so many clansmen?"

"It's him." The elder said hatefully.

"Birgil, that goat is not something you can deal with. Leave it to me."

"Sorry to trouble you." Birgil knew that his strength was not as good as the other party's, so he asked Muiyang for help.

"It's nothing."

The black-haired young man was Muiyang. When he was in the Time Nest, he received a call from Launch. Only then did he know that the people from the Galactic Patrol were looking for the Majin Buu. After thinking about it, he knew that something had happened to Universe 7 again. When he arrived at the New Planet Namek, he happened to encounter Birgil who had also rushed back from space. Together, they saved the Namekian Elders and Zamasu.

"Lord Grand Supreme Kai, that monster has the ability to absorb vitality. It is not easy to deal with."

Zamasu respectfully informed the situation.

"It's just a small problem, it can be solved easily."

Muiyang nodded his head, but he looked at Zamasu's recent performance in a new light. He was reading a book. This guy seemed to really have the tendency to become better. After a bit of training, it really had an effect. Since that was the case, after dealing with Moro, he would send Zamasu back.

Landing on the ground, Muiyang looked at Goa Moro. Facing him, Muiyang had a calm expression on his face.

Compared to Goat Moro, who he had once met in the Universe 6, Moro was far too inferior. In his prime, he had yet to reach the Half-God Level. All his strength was maintained by absorbing energy. If he met a slightly more orthodox Half-God Level expert, he might not be able to do anything.

"You, who exactly are you?" Muiyang's calmness made him uneasy. Moro was now a strong person on the outside.

Muiyang revealed a smile. "Don't you hate Supreme Kai? I have an identity in the entire universe, and that is Grand Supreme Kai!"

As soon as he finished speaking, a divine pressure was released. The brilliant might of the heavens was insufferably arrogant. Not only was it the nemesis of the new beauties, but even the nearby star regions were enveloped by Muiyang's pressure, causing them to tremble.

Moro was the first to be crushed by the Level 9 Dimension's God Power. For a moment, his entire body sank, and he did not even have the strength to stand up.

Chapter 668

The pressure released by a Level 9 Dimension God was extremely brutal. Even a God of Destruction couldn't help but break out in cold sweat when faced with such pressure. Moro's strength was not even at the Half-God Level. When he was caught off guard against Muyang, he suddenly felt as if the entire sky had collapsed.

Tremble!

Surprise!

Fear!

Panic!

All sorts of unbelievable emotions welled up in his heart. The brilliant might of the heavens made one tremble in fear. Moro wondered if he was dreaming.

Moro bent his body and struggled to resist the God Power that came from the world. At this moment, Moro was no longer facing Muyang alone. Instead, he was facing the pressure of the entire Universe 7 and even the entire universe. In front of such heavenly might, his weak strength was as insignificant as an ant. It was almost negligible.

Moro's face was pale, and his voice was extremely weak. "No, how could your strength be so strong!"

"Even Supreme Kai... shouldn't be so powerful."

In the original story, with his own ability to absorb energy, Moro could deal with the Super Saiyan Blue Son Goku and Super Saiyan Blue Vegeta easily, but now he couldn't.

"Ignorant!" The voice was cold and full of majesty.

Muyang walked towards Moro. With every step he took, the pressure on his body increased. The atmosphere rolled and golden light flashed. The earth trembled and cracked. When Muyang walked in front of Moro, Moro was already trapped in a huge pit. He didn't even have the strength to stand.

Supreme Kai's strength represented Universe 7's rules. It was a restraint on Moro's strength. If not for the fact that the Fatty Supreme Kai from 10,000,000 years ago was not as strong as Moro, a mere Moro would have no chance of surviving.

If Moro in the original story faced the real "Super Saiyan God" like Muqiu instead of Son Goku and Vegeta, then the root would not be able to absorb the energy from the other party.

Pu...

Moro spat out a mouthful of blood. His expression was terrified, and his spirit became dispirited. He no longer had the arrogance he had before. He was like a stray dog that was in a sorry state. His eyes were filled with deep fear as he looked at Muyang.

"There is actually such a powerful god in the world!"

He knew that he was going to be defeated.

"No matter how strong you are, evil will be defeated by justice. Because you are facing the sacred and lofty Grand Lord Supreme Kai!"

Zamasu's face was filled with worship. It was as if the boat that had lost its way in the dark ocean had suddenly found the lighthouse that it pointed at. Zamasu became excited.

Due to the fact that Muyang's power was directed at Moro alone, besides feeling a sense of holiness, Zamasu and Birgil were not as terrified as Moro. On the contrary, because of the power that Muyang had displayed, their hearts were filled with confidence.

"Zamasu..." After leisurely looking at Zamasu and seeing the fanaticism on his face, Muyang raised his eyebrows.

"Ten million years! I can't accept this!" Moro's eyes suddenly shrank into a black dot as he roared.

Ten million years. It wasn't easy for him to escape from the Prison Planet. He hadn't even recovered his energy yet, yet he had encountered such a powerful god. Moro was furious, but at this time, it was useless. He could only swallow his teeth and his heart couldn't stop bleeding.

Muyang said, "You can only blame your bad luck for bumping into my hands. No more nonsense, just quietly disappear."

The palm came down from the top, and a power that could purge everything swept out. As this power appeared, Universe 7's rules seemed to be suppressed, and they retreated to the sides. This time, even Zamasu felt the terror in it, and his expression could not help but tremble.

"The power of Grand Supreme Kai actually made the entire universe tremble"

With a look of disbelief, Zamasu could not help but shout in his heart.

Zamasu had seen many powerful gods. His teacher, Gowasu, and Supreme Kai from other universes were all great gods. However, in Zamasu's impression, only the God of Destruction could cause the entire universe to tremble so easily!

No, even the legendary God of Destruction was not as powerful as Lord Grand Supreme Kai.

Zamasu looked at it with excitement. His eyes were fixed on it. He saw the tall Goat Moro struggling painfully in the power released by Muyang. He screamed miserably, and then his whole body seemed to be broken. From the bottom to the crystal powder, he disappeared completely in the blink of an eye.

This is true death, even the soul will not be left...

Sadly, Moro had not even stepped onto the stage when he had completely disappeared.

"The power of Grand Supreme Kai is far above that of the God of Destruction." With this understanding in his heart, Zamasu became even more respectful.

"Zamasu." Muyang suddenly shouted.

"Lord High God." Zamasu waited respectfully for Muyang's instructions.

"You have changed a lot during you stay in New Planet Namek, especially when New Planet Namek is in danger. As a God, you have basically met my requirements. Your teacher, Gowasu, will be very pleased to know about it. So today, I will restore your strength. I hope that you can become a qualified Supreme Kai in the future.”

Zamasu listened excitedly, his attitude very sincere.

Muyang continued, “No matter what ideas you have in your heart, remember to maintain a calm heart.”

“As a Supreme Kai, everything must be equal and fair. The world are not benevolent, treating all things like dogs. All things need fairness. You should understand this principle. Do not do things that go against fairness because of inner joy and evil.”

“Yes.” Zamasu respectfully replied.

Muyang nodded. With a wave of his hand, he removed the shackles on Zamasu. A familiar power returned to him. Zamasu bowed deeply to Muyang.

Zamasu was just an insignificant nobody to Muyang. Instead of looking at Zamasu, Muyang turned to Birgil. “Because this Goat Moro, Namekian suffered a great disaster. Quickly use the dragon pearl to revive the dead.”

Namekian Elder said worriedly, “The explosion just now destroyed everything within a 100,000 meter radius. I’m worried that one of the Dragon Ball might have been destroyed during the explosion.”

Muyang was stunned for a moment. He spread out his thoughts and quickly captured the situation in the distance. “Don’t worry, that Dragon Ball is fine. The alien just now have already found the Dragon Ball.”

Birgil Isaid, “I’ll go and capture him.”

Muyang said, “There’s no need to go through so much trouble.”

His eyes stared into the void, and a beam of light shot out. The space in front of him cracked open like glass. Muyang reached his hand into the deep black hole, and with a grab, the alien who was originally a subordinate of King Cold was pulled out. At the same time, a football-sized Dragon Ball rolled down the ground.

“My lord, please spare my life. Everything was forced by Moro. I don’t want to come to Planet Namek.” The alien prostrated on the ground and wailed.

Birgil frowned and sent out a wave of energy to burn the other party to ashes.

“Elder, inform the other villages to send the Dragon Ball over.”

“Understood.” The chubby elder nodded.

After giving orders to the village elders, Birgil greeted Muyang with a smile. Muyang smiled and followed Birgil to his secluded place. When Zamasu saw Muyang leaving with Birgil, he hesitated for a moment and followed him.

“By the way, how is Piccolo now?”

In the residence where Birgil was living in seclusion, Birgil took out tea to entertain him.

Muyang said, “He has a great improvement in God Mu Central Star training. You are no longer his match.”

After fusing with the Old Kami, Piccolo had recovered his super innate talent as a combat type Namekian. In the past ten years, his strength had become much deeper, and he was worthy of being called the Super Namekian.

Birgil nodded in satisfaction when he heard this. The truly powerful warriors of the Namekian were only him, Piccolo, and Nail. Even Trea, who had assimilated dozens of clansmen, could not be called a combat type Namekian.

Piccolo’s strength made Birgil feel gratified.

Chapter 669

“Grand Supreme Kai, let me do it.”

Zamasu picked up the teapot and made a cup of new tea.

Muyang took a sip of the tea and could not help but look at Zamasu. After this guy calmed down, the tea he brewed was much better. No wonder Supreme Kai, who was in the Universe 10, often asked Zamasu to make tea. He did have some skills!

Later, he chatted with Birgil about many questions about the training side. It could be considered to answer the questions in the other party’s heart. Zamasu listened carefully as he served. Muyang’s deep and shallow answers also made him suddenly understand and learn a lot of things.

As they chatted, they talked about the event where Zeno held the Tournament of Power. It was only then that Birgil, and Zamasu realized that something so important had actually happened at the top of the universe without them knowing it.

After staying at Birgil, residence for a while, the sky was suddenly covered by a black cloud.

Zamasu was shocked, thinking that something had happened to Planet Namek.

“Don’t panic, it’s the Namekian who is summoning the Porunga.”

“Porunga?”

Zamasu hesitated for a moment, but he also knew that New Planet Namek had the Dragon Ball.

To be honest, the Dragon Ball was like a divine object in the eyes of mortals, but in the eyes of Supreme Kai and the God of Destruction, it was not a great thing. Even if it was as powerful as the Super Dragon Ball, it might not be able to move a god like the God of Destruction, Lord Beerus.

This kind of profound realm was incomparable to mortals.

Although Zamasu was not the formal Supreme Kai, after his mind was pure, he was not far from the true Supreme Kai realm.

The appearance of God Porunga came quickly and quickly. After a while, the sky resumed clarification. The pressure that had just enveloped the New Planet Namek disappeared and all Namekian who died of Goat Moro resurrected. After the second Grand Elder, Moori transformed the Namekians Dragon Ball, it revived most people in one go.

Time passed quickly, and soon it was time to say goodbye.

After bidding farewell to Birgil, Muiyang and Zamasu left the New Planet Namek... Two figures suddenly appeared in the dark and deep universe.

Muiyang said to Zamasu, "Go back by yourself. Remember not to have any bad thoughts."

Zamasu nodded. "We will follow the teachings of the Grand Supreme Kai."

Muiyang nodded, indicating that Zamasu could leave.

Zamasu straightened his body, his hands pressed against his thighs, and bowed deeply to Muiyang. Then, he turned around and instantly moved away from Universe 7.

"I hope he can become a qualified Supreme Kai..." After muttering to himself, Muiyang chuckled. This guy, Zamasu, was very obsessed. It was very rare for him to be able to improve. Anyway, he was just a trainee Supreme Kai. He was not afraid of him repeating in the future.

Because after the Grand Minister took back the Time Ring in Supreme Kai's hand, it was impossible to cross the parallel world again. This was the maximum limit of stopping the scale of all kinds of disasters. Even if there was a problem with a world, it would not sweep into other worlds. In the original story, the matter of Zamasu cleaning up the mortals of various universes would not happen again.

"But the matter of Prison Planet is a little strange."

This thought flashed through his mind, and Muiyang's figure gradually became blurred in the sky of stars.

...

Universe 7, Prison Planet.

The dark and deep universe space was a dark red color. Other than the light and elegant starlight that constantly flickered in the distance, there was almost nothing else in the universe.

Although the Prison Planet was located in the galaxy, it was actually in another dimension. This dimension was above the Heaven, only below God of Destruction Planet and Sacred World of Kai. The Prison Planet was divided into different security regions according to the level of the prisoners inside. The higher the level of the place, the stricter the guard was.

It was more like a separate universe space similar to a ball.

Even if the Grand Kai was here, he only had the right to supervise, and there was no internal management.

For countless years, there might be cases of prisoners escaping from the outer region, such as Galaxy Soldiers Zangya and the others, but the inside was like an iron wall, and there were very few serious omissions.

This time, it was not a normal thing for Goat Moro to escape from the Prison Planet.

Suddenly, a gorgeous brilliance penetrated through the void and flew out of the water like a dragonfly touching the water, quietly stopping in the empty void of space.

In the faint light, two figures stood side by side.

“Gaia, look at that planet. Is there any sign of man-made destruction?” MUYANG brought Gaia to the space where the prison planet was located.

Gaia said, “There is a power of darkness.”

“It is mixed with space-time energy. It seems that someone deliberately escaped from the prison planet.” A silver light flashed in his dark eyes. MUYANG cast a time reversal to the space in front of him, and the images of the past appeared.

Sure enough, he found a special figure.

Just before Moro escaped from the Prison Planet, a dark red figure appeared in the space of the Prison Planet. MUYANG immediately recognized that the person was Demon Kai MECHIKABURA’s subordinate Towa.

This woman, no matter if it was the original Evil Android 21 or the current Moro, her shadow would be everywhere.

“She is Towa.” Gaia also recognized the other person. Her ice-blue hair fluttered.

MUYANG nodded. “I wonder what she’s up to.”

“Can we catch her?”

MUYANG thought for a moment and said, “This is not difficult, but I need your cooperation.”

Gaia raised her head, “How do you want me to cooperate?”

“Use the power of the Dragon Ball in your body.” Gaia’s original body was the dragon soul left in the Super Dragon Ball by Dragon God ZALAMA. Now that she had absorbed two Black Star Dragon Balls, she was equivalent to an active Dragon God. Towa was also a person who grasped the power of time and space. It was not easy to catch her.

“Yes.” Gaia blinked her beautiful eyes and listened to MUYANG’s instructions.

MUYANG whispered something into Gaia’s ear. Gaia’s eyes lit up and then released the energy of the Dragon God. MUYANG received the power of Gaia and controlled the power of time and space at the same time.

An ethereal energy slowly rose, like ripples of water. The mist-like space gradually distorted, and then a rapid flash of light followed. MUYANG and Gaia directly disappeared.

Another node.

At the moment when Moro had just escaped from the Prison Planet, Towa pursed her lips and glanced at the chaotic Prison Planet in the distance. There was a hint of coldness and mockery in her eyes.

Just as she was about to leave, the space froze, and her space-time energy actually did not work.

The space in front of her seemed to soften and suddenly rippled.

Seeing this, Towa's expression changed drastically and he cried out involuntarily, "Crap."

In her line of sight, two figures appeared. The two of them were wearing ice-blue elegant windbreaker, golden belts, and white shirts. They were Muiyang and Gaia who had traveled through time.

"Towa, I finally caught you."

Muiyang confined the surrounding space and time, using the power of Gaia to find the time when Towa appeared.

Chapter 670

Towa struggled to break free from the restraints of Muiyang's power. However, no matter how hard she tried to resist, an invisible force locked her in the air like a pair of iron pincers. Towa's face paled, and her charming face was filled with terror.

"It's you again!" Towa couldn't help but cry out in alarm.

This was not the first time she had met Muiyang. From the beginning of Evil Android 21, her opponent's strength had increased at an astonishing speed. Facing Muiyang, Towa didn't even have the strength to resist. Her companion Mira had been crushed by Muiyang's energy wave.

"You've finally fallen into my hands. You don't have to resist. I've imprisoned the entire time. It's impossible for you to break free."

Towa's expression changed. "You aren't from this time. Could it be that the time is already in the past?"

Muiyang said, "That's right. Isn't it normal to jump a bit in order to catch you?"

Towa was shocked when she heard this. She, who also had the power of time and space, understood the difficulty of jumping and turning the timeline. Especially since she inherited the power of the Demon Kai Mechikabura, she should be unique in the timeline.

Since the other party said that she came here by jumping time, it meant that she had already completed the task of destroying the Prison Planet a long time ago. Her real body had already returned to the Dark Demon Realm to report... So why was her real body still here?

Ordinary power could not materialize her past.

Towa looked at the "little girl" next to Muiyang, and his eyes suddenly shrank!

It was her!

This mysterious girl had caused the power of Mechikabura to fail.

“It can actually break the power of Lord Mechikabura...” Towa felt bitter in his heart. He had never thought that there would be a time when the power of time was ineffective.

Gaia chuckled at Towa. Muyang glanced at Towa. “What is your purpose in destroying the prison planet?”

“In order to release the Goat Moro.”

“Just for this?”

Muyang was surprised. Although a mere Moro could be considered powerful below the Half-God Level, and if he was not careful, even the Half-God Level would be affected. However, he did not believe that Towa had gone through so much trouble to destroy the prison planet just to release Moro.

Towa revealed a bitter expression. Her deep gaze stared at Muyang and Gaia. Knowing that she could not escape, she simply did not say anything. Seeing the other party’s uncooperative appearance, Muyang frowned.

Gaia pulled Muyang’s sleeve, and Muyang looked at him.

“Lord Muyang, I can let her tell me everything she knows.”

“What can you do?”

Muyang looked at him curiously.

“Leave it to me.” Gaia said seriously.

Muyang nodded and pulled Towa over to her. “I’ll give her to you.”

Gaia smiled brightly. Her soft body suddenly turned into a blue transparent object and wrapped around Towa like jelly. Towa was shocked by her form and screamed, “Go away, don’t wrap around me.”

“Ow...” Gaia did not pay any attention to Towa’s reaction. Her blue body continued to expand. When she reached the height of a person, she directly swallowed Towa.

After completing all of this, Gaia turned back into a ball-like shape like a pillow, standing quietly in the void, as if she was digesting something.

Gaia actually swallowed Towa.

Muyang was a little surprised. He looked at it calmly on the surface, but in his heart, he wondered if it would affect his body if he devoured his life so casually. However, on second thought, he could even devour Black Star Dragon Ball. It seemed that a little baby was nothing.

After a long while, Gaia leaped high into the air and returned to her human form.

“Lord Muyang, I have absorbed the memory of this woman.” After absorbing Towa, Gaia became more spirited, and she grew about a centimeter taller.

Muyang said, "Tell me what they are plotting."

Gaia said, "Towa destroyed the prison planet just to release Goat Moro. But this is because Demon Kai Mechikabura has received a commission from an old friend. Mechikabura also wants to recruit Moro as his subordinate."

"So that's how it is."

"Lord Muyang, I have another piece of information here. Mechikabura and Towa actually secretly contacted the Universe 4's God of Destruction Quitela, and they reached an initial agreement to cooperate. Quitela helped them find the Black Star Dragon Ball, while Mechikabura sent people to kill the God of Destruction, Lord Beerus, in the past time and space!"

Hearing this, a cold light flashed in Muyang's eyes.

"God of Destruction Quitela is impatient."

There was a hidden anger in his voice. The entire universe and the Dark Demon Realm were opposing each other. If Quitela dared to have contact with Mechikabura, no matter if it was intentional or not, she would be courting death.

"Has Mechikabura made a move against Lord Beerus?"

Gaia said, "The candidate has been sent out. It is a man named 'Demigra'. It was originally the strongest magic of Ancient Era. After being given to Mechikabura, he was given the power of Demon God and became one of the creation gods of Dark Demon Realm, but After being defeated by Chronoa, it was sealed in the Crack of Time."

"Originally, Mechikabura planned to seal Demigra, but recently, in order to find the Black Star Dragon Ball, he has already reached an agreement with Demigra."

Muyang narrowed his eyes. "The Demon God, Demigra, should not be as strong as the God of Destruction Lord Beerus, but it is enough to deal with the past Lord Beerus."

"Yes, they plan to eliminate him before Lord Beerus becomes the God of Destruction."

Gaia nodded. After absorbing Towa's memories, she was like the largest resource warehouse. The secrets of the Dark Demon Realm were exposed in her eyes.

"I understand, Gaia. Let's go to the distant past."

"Okay."

Gaia nodded obediently, and then the two of them worked together to open the passage of time. Mist ripples appeared again, and Muyang and Gaia took a step forward, disappearing from the prison planet.

At this time, the prison planet was in chaos. Countless criminals fled outside with their lives on the line. Among them was an old goat. When he escaped from the outer perimeter of the prison planet, he casually grabbed an alien who had just been locked up. The two of them rode a spaceship and fled towards the North Area.

However, they did not know that what awaited them was a fated death.

...

Dark Demon Realm, Demon Kai Mechikabura sat under the golden clock. In front of him were three orange-red Dragon Balls. A ripple flashed and Towa arrived in front of Mechikabura. She respectfully presented a Black Star Dragon Ball.

Mechikabura looked at the four Black Star Dragon Balls on the plate in surprise and joy. He said happily, "In this way, there are only three left."

"Putine has contacted the past God of Destruction Quitela and he will find the fifth Dragon Balls for us."

"That's good." Mechikabura nodded in relief.

Towa also revealed a bright smile, but at this moment, Towa's expression suddenly froze. His whole body was like a clay figurine, constantly showing signs of cracking. There was no time to say anything, and his body broke into a pile of powder and disappeared.

Seeing this, Mechikabura was shocked, and his face immediately darkened.

"Impossible, Towa's past has been completely cut off, it is impossible for her to die because of this, but other than the power of the past, what power can kill her..."

Mechikabura suddenly woke up, gritted his teeth and said, "Could it be Supreme Kai of the Time, Chronoa?"
