

《Billionaire CEO Won't Leave》

Chapter 106

Kangmobei looks at Bai nianxi, the meaning in the words is deep, and the eyes in the eyes are also deep.

"Aren't you leaving? I don't want to stay. If you leave, he will never see you again, neither will I

Connmobei said, his heart suddenly rose a touch of unfamiliar feeling.

Slow and slow, from the bottom of the heart slowly rising, diffuse on the apex of the heart, rich to cannot dissipate, continuous to cannot relieve.

Bai nianxi's breath is stagnant. He just wants to say something, but he doesn't continue this topic. His eyes turn to the computer again.

Mr. Abel's overnight flight should arrive this afternoon, and a press conference will be held as soon as it arrives.

When things go to extremes, public relations companies understand this truth better than anyone else. For the time being, they indulge in online rumors. After they spread and ferment wantonly, and deduce all kinds of fantastic versions, many rumors are broken by themselves.

Bai nianxi sorted out all the inspirations and ideas about the cover design and explained them in preparation for the afternoon press conference.

In the morning, there is a meeting with partner companies in the United States, because the cover involves plagiarism, which has had some bad effects on the cooperation between the two sides. The two sides need to communicate again.

After dealing with the work at hand, conumber turned off the computer, stood up, and covered his abdomen with one hand.

That voice is very small, also don't know is white Nian Xi ear sharp or how, then lift a head from the work.

"What's the matter?" The sound was a tension she didn't notice.

Conmber shook his head. "It's OK."

Stomachache. It's an old problem.

White read Xi Lian eyebrow, guess: "stomachache?"

Having said that, he stood up, reached for the coat hanger, took off the suit coat that conmber wanted to take, handed it to conmber, and then asked, "it's serious?"

"Not bad." Kangmo North voice with forbearance, took the coat is ready to start, Xing Secretary has pushed the door came in.

"Mr. Kang, everything is ready."

"Well, let's go."

Bai nianxi stood in the same place. He wanted to say something more, but he couldn't say it.

I stayed up all night without a second's rest. The continuous work has made the lip color of komobi look white.

Bai nianxi watched him go out with a trace of fatigue in his back.

He's not an iron man. He's just trying to hold on.

The press conference was held as scheduled.

It is expected that there will be a lot of people coming. Secretary Xing asked people to fill the stage with chairs, but even so, the number of reporters is still innumerable. The press conference, which officially starts at 15:30, will be full before 15:00.

Cameras and microphones were everywhere, and reporters were waiting for them to practice the questions they were going to ask in handbooks.

Secretary Xing is in charge of the press conference. Deputy general manager Ren, who is in charge of the public relations department of Kangshi group, appears at the press conference as usual. In the past, any major public relations press conference of Kangshi group was presided over by deputy general manager Ren.

Bai nianxi was surprised to find that Ren, vice president of the public relations department of Kang's group, was actually a good friend of Kang Mobei.

Still a suit straight, face leisurely, in see Bai nianxi also said hello.

"Miss White."

Bai nianxi also nodded in return, still did not say much, turned away. When she was working, she was still very different from her impression at that time. She was calm, calm, elegant and elegant.

As soon as the time came, he took the lead in coming to the stage. Bai nianxi followed him and went to the stage.

Countless dazzling flash lights flickered, and there was a sharp click under the stage. Bai nianxi suddenly felt that he was attracted by the public, but those eyes were not friendly.

However, she suffered more malice and gradually became invincible.

Stand up and face it.

Wu Ling turns on the TV in the ward. In the past two days, with the voice of a crusade against Bai nianxi on the Internet, she happily participates in it. I don't know how many ugly words she has mixed and how many slandering rumors she has spread.

She just wanted to ruin Bai nianxi and see her trampled on. As for who that person is, it doesn't matter.

Wu Ling eyes hate hate, white nianxi, you poke such a big basket, I see how you round back.

However, after a brief summary and clarification of the situation and one by one negation of all false rumors, it was Bai nianxi's turn.

"The cover design of this new product is fully responsible and designed by Ms. Bai nianxi of our company. There is no possibility of plagiarism. Next, she will explain to you that her inspiration in designing the cover design of new products comes from her concept of integration. I believe that after her elaboration, you will have a good idea."

Still finish saying, Bai nianxi already took out the manuscript and material that had been prepared long ago, begin to introduce.

This is a grand enough scene. Bai nianxi knows that there are not only hundreds of eyes in front of the stage, but also thousands of people behind the camera, waiting for her explanation. I have to thank Kang Mobei. After staying with him for a long time, Bai nianxi developed an extraordinary psychological quality. Even in this occasion, she is not stage fright, eloquent will be all her prepared information and explain clearly together.

A man with a lot of confidence can't have him.

It seems to be very convincing, and some reporters began to nod their heads from time to time.

Then there is the question session, which is still the most worrying part. Every time he comes here, it is the most chaotic time on the court. If he is OK, he has enough experience and momentum to cope with it, but it is very difficult for him.

Sure enough, when the microphones flooded in, and Bai nianxi was completely buried, even breathing became difficult, Bai nianxi began to feel a little weak.

There are all kinds of discourses around, and some problems are very tricky.

Bai nianxi wants to look up and explain clearly one by one, but finds that there is no way at all. It's all about questioning her.

Suddenly, a pair of hands appeared on her shoulder, and her familiar heat and temperature came from that hand. Bai nianxi looked up to see who it was. His hands had already wrapped around her shoulder, and he took her back to avoid the crowd and came to an open position.

Long spit out a breath, white read Xi finally return to the breath.

Looking up, I don't know when the hand on her shoulder has been released. Next to her is Kang Mobei with a proud and cold face.

When did he come?

Still ran had already walked to the side, slightly nodded: "Kang total."

The reporters were stunned at first, and then reacted that the man in front of them was actually kangmobei! The one standing at the top of a's power and wealth will only appear on the cover of high-end financial magazines!

This cover crisis is no more than a big crisis for Kang's group. Kang's ability to resist attacks has long been ignored after so many years of shopping malls. Now such a small clarification press conference has even bothered Kang Mo to go out of the mountain town?
