Chapter 16

"There will be an exhibition in three days. You will go with Lolo."

He suddenly felt that with her, Lolo must Will become like a normal child, and his life in recent years is very different.

And he, too.

The exhibition activities mentioned by conmobei are not the exhibition of ordinary people, but the individual exhibition of the most popular painter at present, Jenny mace.

Recently, Jenny mace is the most famous new artist in the world. Once a pair of "Jiuzhou landscape" was published, it was famous for its unique painting method and beautiful painting style.

Jenny mace, the original little transparent painter, also stands out from the painting world.

Although there are more than ten paintings on display in this exhibition, most of the people who come to see the exhibition are based on the book of Kyushu mountains and waters, and conmobei is no exception.

It can even be said that conmbe is running for Jenny mace.

The people who came to the gallery to watch the paintings were very dignified and dignified.

In this way, Bai nianxi's casual white lace blouse with irregular cut denim skirt is a bit casual in the crowd, but it's not very eye-catching.

However, where kangmobei is, of course, is the place where his eyes gather. Bai nianxi, who is standing beside kangmobei and holding the young master of the Kang family, has to be exposed to the public.

An old man dressed as an English gentleman came over with a crutch. He took off his dome cap and nodded to him. He also bowed to him and said, "how are you, Mr. Ji?"

Ji Lao is an old painter who is well-known in the world and a leading figure in the field of Chinese painting. This time he came to the painting exhibition of Jenny mace, we can see how popular this new artist has been recently.

"Not bad, not bad." Ji Lao nodded with a smile.

"Hello, Grandpa Ji." Xiaotuanzi came out from behind Bai nianxi, bowed and asked respectfully.

Ji Lao nodded with a smile on his face. He is also half of Luo Luo's teacher. Luo Luo is very smart, quick witted, and has great talent in painting, which is very popular with him.

"Who is this?" Eyes fall on Bai nianxi, who is next to kangmobei. Kangmobei never brings any woman to any occasion. This woman suddenly appears beside kangmobei, which makes people suspicious.

"Miss Bai, the counselor of Jinchuan." Conmobei's polite introduction.

The doubts on Ji's face dissipate. He once heard that the young master of the Kang family has the habit of nightmares at night. It's no surprise that Kang Mobei asked him a psychological counselor.

After greeting Bai nianxi, a bright and clear voice rang from behind. "Uncle Ji, why are you here?"

Bai nianxi looks over. The girl in a high set red dress stands behind Ji Lao with a graceful smile. Although she is greeting Ji Lao, her eyes fall on Kang Mobei, and her eyes are shining.

"Here comes Jenny?" Ji turned around happily and pulled Jennie to the front of him. "To introduce you, this is my niece, Jennie, and this is Kang Zong, President of Kang group."

"Hello." Conmobei nodded slightly with a faint look, but Jennie extended her hand warmly, "Hello, I'm Jennie."

When Jennie's hand stopped in the air, conmber seemed to think for a moment. Then he reached out and touched Jennie's fingertip. He was very polite.

Bai nianxi can feel the unnatural grip of Lolo's fleshy little hand in his hand. Looking down, he finds that Lolo is staring at Jenny with big round eyes, alert, with some inexplicable hostility in her eyes.

He can't understand these women's thoughts about Daddy as long as he looks at them. Hum, daddy is a big butterfly and a big bug.

"You're just in time. Moby told me he wanted to see you before." Ji said to Jenny with a smile, "since you're here, let's talk business with Mo Bei."

With a touch of shame on her face, Jenny nodded with a smile and said, "OK, uncle Ji."

Looking at Kang Mobei again, he has changed his affectionate name to "Mobei brother, let's go."

Kang Mobei was stunned for a moment, then nodded. Before he left, he told Bai nianxi, "take Luo Luo to see the painting. He knows what to do. You just need to look at him."

Bai nianxi nods, and then prepares to lead Luo Luo to leave. However, he finds that Luo Luo seems to have a root on the ground, but he doesn't walk. His eyes fall on the direction where Kang Mobei and Jenny leave.

"Lolo, let's go," she whispered

Luo Luo snorted, "Xiao Xi, can't you see it? This Jenny is interested in Daddy

Bai nianxi laughed, half bent down and scraped the tip of Luo Luo's nose, "you are really a little kid."

How could Jennie not see the love in her eyes? But it's none of her business. It seems that Lolo hasn't had a mother all these years. It's normal for other women to appear around him.

I wanted to persuade Lolo to be open-minded, but I think it's normal for Lolo to mind such things. I didn't say more, but I love Lolo a little more. Looking at the back of combo North leaving, Jenny follows combo north, vaguely meaning to be close. But combo North has two hands in his trousers pocket, with a big step and a sense of deliberately keeping a distance. When she comes to the corner, combo north looks back.

Just to the eyes that Bai nianxi cast in the past, there was a kind of strange brilliance flowing in the eyes of Kang Mobei.

Taking Lolo to the gallery to see the paintings, conmobei explained that she only needed to take him with her, and she didn't care about anything else.

Along the way, Bai nianxi's eyes fell on today's play, Jiuzhou landscape.

Just a look, Bai nianxi's face became very white, showing a very complex emotion.

this picture is as like as two peas painted in the Paris Academy of fine arts.

At that time, she spent a lot of effort, first conceived for more than a year, and then spent more than half a year to draw this painting. This should have been her graduation work, but it disappeared one month before graduation!

This directly led to her failing to hand in her graduation work and unable to graduate. She tried her best to enter the Paris Academy of fine arts, but failed to get her diploma. This was a heavy blow to her and she was depressed for a long time.

Looking at the painting "Jiuzhou landscape" on the wall, Bai nianxi clenched her lips and clenched her fist. It was clearly her painting! It's her work! Why are you here now? With other people's names?

In a trance, suddenly a voice came, very familiar, "Bai nianxi?"
