

《Billionaire CEO Won't Leave》

Chapter 227

That day, kangmobei came again, and Bai nianxi was sitting on the sofa with a stomach of five months chewing an apple.

Kang Mo North glanced at her one eye, light way: "sit posture is not elegant."

"It's up to you." Bai nianxi didn't have a good way: "you have the ability to drive me out."

"No ability." Conmobeir said that it was not difficult for him to admit that he had no ability.

Bai nianxi once worried that she would become old and ugly because of giving birth to a child. Kang Mobei just squinted at her and said, "how much room do you think you have to become ugly?"

Although this sounds very irritating, but after all, komobei hired a special team for her to be responsible for her body and skin management during pregnancy.

During the whole pregnancy, Bai nianxi kept a good figure, her skin was white and red, and there were no pregnancy marks. For this point alone, Bai nianxi thought kangmobei was kind.

Even if it's just for the sake of her having a baby for him.

During pregnancy, because of hormones in the body, pregnant women's mood will not be too good, white night is the same.

I always like to do some fatal things, such as telling conmbe to do things for her.

He handed the finished apple to commobei, and motioned him to help him to throw it away. Sometimes, the garbage can was in her hand.

Conmobei never reached out to pick it up. He always said coldly, "lose it yourself."

"I can't walk."

Conmobei will glance at her gently, with a faint chill in her eyes, and then put the trash can at the foot of Bai nianxi.

Later, conmobei came up with an idea.

He made a portable garbage can and hung it on Bai nianxi.

Bai nianxi has never seen Kang Mobei smile. He always has a cold face, like an iceberg, with a faint chill all the time.

Their communication is also very little. Most of the time, it is Bai nianxi who deliberately finds fault with her, but kangmobei doesn't pick up her fault. She always gives Bai nianxi a lot of money, choking her speechless.

It's really boring to live with this person.

Even the handsome and amazing face of Kang Mo Bei couldn't get back his score in Bai Nian Xi's heart.

"I said, don't you think about a problem?" Bai nianxi nibbles at the apple and says to kangmobei.

Conmber put his eyes on the newspaper in his hand, and did not move them.

"He said

Bai nianxi chewed and said, "you asked me to have a baby for you, but what if one day this baby is not yours?"

"Do you want to be a big wrongdoer to the end?"

Conmobei finally moved his eyes from the newspaper and looked at Bai nianxi.

Bai nianxi had never seen such a cold look in her eyes, which made her shiver.

"You mean, this child, not mine?"

The voice is very plain, but Bai nianxi hears a threat to life.

"No, no, that's not what I mean..."

Conmobei took his eyes back, but the chill was still there, and he said, "if it wasn't for me..."

"Then you'll pay for everything you've spent here."

"How can that be calculated?"

Kangmo looked at the apple in Bai nianxi's hand. "This should be the 132nd apple you ate. This apple was airlifted from Japan. The unit price is 3051, and the total price should be 4026."

What is it? He is a big president. He remembers how many apples she ate and how clear the account is. It's abnormal!

Conmbert paused. "If you round it up, it's just in case."

.....

"And you..."

"No, no, no!" Bai nianxi almost roared out and patted his belly, "I promise you, this child must be yours! It must be yours

Kangmobei's eyes narrowed discontentedly. She patted her stomach like this. What if she gave birth to a fool?

In this world, not many people remember Bai nianxi, even if she disappeared, no one would find out.

Bai nianxi had been living in the other courtyard of Kangmo North for several months, but no one came to him until the baby was born.

Bai nianxi gave birth prematurely, and the delivery date was advanced by a full month.

The reason is that she accidentally fell in the bathroom.

After Bai nianxi fell to the ground, he first felt a dull pain in his stomach, and then felt something flowing out of his lower body.

Bai nianxiben has no experience. Fortunately, in recent months, the medical management staff invited by kangmobei is very responsible. With the help of kangmobei, she constantly instills all kinds of maternal and child knowledge into her who is like an idiot every day.

Bai nianxi felt that she was going to have a baby. Now she should have broken her amniotic fluid.

But she couldn't get up again. The ground was too slippery, and her body had already become heavy with her growing stomach, so she could only sit on the ground humming. For the first time in his life, Bai nianxi realized the shortcomings of being rich.

Although the house is only a private courtyard, it is still too big for Bai nianxi to fall in the bathroom. Even if he opens his voice, people outside may not hear him.

The key is that before she takes a bath, she sends out the servant.

It is reasonable to say that the servant should be waiting outside all the time because of Kang Mobei's orders. He thinks that Bai nianxi will come in to have a look at the situation when he is about to finish taking a bath. But I don't know what's going on today. The servant hasn't come here for a long time.

The pain in his stomach has become more and more obvious, from the beginning of dull pain to bursts of pain. When the pain comes up, Bai nianxi can only sit on the ground, and even has no strength to cry.

It hurts.

A trace of blood also gradually spread from Bai nianxi's legs, dyed her original white skirt red, and Bai nianxi felt bad.

If she had lost her baby because of this fall, would conmba have killed her?

A trace of despair rose in his heart. Bai nianxi felt that he might faint at any time, and the scene in front of him began to blur.

Just then she saw a figure push the door and come in.

It's a man.

The man was wearing a mask. At the moment when he saw Bai nianxi, his eyes that were exposed outside the mask flashed a trace of joy. He came forward and first asked, "are you Bai nianxi, Miss Bai?"

Bai nianxi was dizzy and nodded.

Then he felt a needle in her arm, and the man took a tube of her blood.

When the man finished smoking, he called out to the outside and called the people from the outside. Then all the servants came to him. Around Bai nianxi, who was about to faint, his face was flustered.

Bai nianxi just wanted to sleep, but the pain in her stomach forced her to wake up. In a daze, she seemed to hear someone saying, "where's Mr. Kang?"

"Mr. Kang is out on a business trip and may come back in two days."

In other hospitals, there was a medical team and delivery room that had already been arranged by komobei. Instead of being sent to the hospital, Bai nianxi gave birth to her baby in other hospitals.

It's a boy.
