

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 254

In the past two years, a painter named "Luoyang Qiushui" suddenly appeared in the world. I heard that the painter was very mysterious and could not find any background information. The fire started because of a painting named "black forest".

When black forest first appeared, it was on the Internet. At first, it didn't make any waves. All of a sudden, there was a rich man who offered $10 million to buy the painting.

Such a high price painting naturally attracted people's attention. What's more surprising is that in the face of a high price of US $10 million, the painter named "Luoyang Qiushui" refused.

You know, before that, "Luoyang Qiushui" was just a person who didn't find this person in the international painting world, and the painting "black forest" didn't have any fame. There was no reason why someone would not agree to pay such a high price for the painting.

With this one, "black forest" has attracted a lot of attention, and gradually, people also found that the rich man who bought paintings at a sky high price is really a wise eye.

"Black forest" is indeed an excellent work, with a high artistic height. In the next three months, it won several heavyweight awards in the international painting circle, and became famous for a while.

But the painter behind "Luoyang Qiushui" never showed up. Even on the podium, he just sent a simple letter of thanks.

The mystery of "Luoyang autumn water" makes people have endless speculation and fantasy about his identity.

There are several paintings behind "Luoyang Qiushui", almost every one of which can be regarded as fine art. Surprisingly, "Luoyang Qiushui" has put all the four paintings on the Internet for auction.

The proceeds from the auction will be donated directly to the United Nations Children's Fund.

People can't understand this practice at all, but they admire it very much.

Among the four paintings, only one painting has a different style. This painting is the only one without the signature of "Luoyang autumn water", which means that this painting is not necessarily made by "Luoyang autumn water".

The name of the painting is "stone". People who don't know how to do it may think that who is the ghost of the painting. The color of the whole painting is chaotic and depressing. It seems that they want to tell something, but they can't tell anything.

Sure enough, these four paintings have been on the Internet for half a month. The prices of the first three paintings have soared all the way, and only the fourth one has been ignored.

However, only the fourth painting is what Bai nianxi really wants to convey to the world.

She didn't sign her name on the stone, just thinking, will someone understand her heart?

In the past half a month, Bai nianxi has refreshed the website from time to time. The popularity of the other three paintings has completely exceeded expectations. Similarly, the popularity of the fourth painting has also completely exceeded expectations.

Bai nianxi habitually opens the web page and refreshes it at will. Suddenly, the hand clicking the mouse stops abruptly, and his eyes looking at the computer screen are also pulled straight.

There's a bid.

I still can't imagine the sky high price.

The price is 100 million.

The unit is US dollars.

Bai nianxi blinked his eyes and renewed his confirmation. After counting for several times, he was sure that it was 100 million US dollars.

In the past two years, with Shen Hedan, Bai nianxi has lived a life of no lack of money. Shen Hedan is very generous to her sister, and the way to express his love is the same as that of kangmobei.

Whatever she wants, give it to her.

He even directly assigned several companies to train Bai nianxi's operation, and Bai nianxi was also gifted. He didn't let Shen Hedan down with the money he appropriated. Just through the network, he developed his company little by little.

Money has long been a piece of cake for her.

One hundred million dollars is not a huge sum of money, but it would be incomprehensible to buy such a painting that seems to be a ghost.

Bai nianxi stares at the computer screen for a while. He seems to be thinking about something and is lost in thought.

Shen Hedan came over behind him and leaned down to see the computer screen. Before, he just said casually: "has someone bid?"

After seeing clearly the quotation displayed on the computer, Shen Hedan's voice suddenly rose, "100 million dollars?"

There was also an obvious disbelief in the voice.

It's strange enough that someone can take a fancy to this painting. What's more, it's hard to give such a huge price.

"Is this man with a bad brain or bad eyes, or is he just burning too much money?" Shen Hedan shook his head again and again. It was clear that he didn't approve of other people's spending money on paintings.

Different from the previous seriousness and ferocity, Shen Hedan at the moment is that he often has a loose dandy posture.

White read a night an eye knife to split past, split of Shen He delay straight shiver.

Shen Hedan touched his chin and solemnly explained: "I mean, I think I'm the only one in the world who thinks you can draw anything pretty. I didn't expect that anyone else would think so."

If you are like him, you can't see the beauty of this painting."Congratulations, though." Shen Hedan patted Bai nianxi's shoulder with some emotion, "you finally meet a bosom friend."

Without paying attention to Shen Hedan's words, Bai nianxi puts his mind back on the string of numbers displayed by the computer in front of him.

It's a huge price of US $100 million, conditional.

The condition is that the man will have a meal with Bai nianxi.

The time and place can be decided by Bai nianxi. The person can also guarantee that there are only two people on the table, he and Bai nianxi.

Even if they meet, no one else will know Bai nianxi's true identity.

It sounds like there's no reason to refuse.

Bai nianxi turns off the computer. It's six o'clock in the evening. It's time for dinner.

Bai nianxi and Shen Hedan go to the restaurant together, "where's Lolo?"

"Probably still swimming." Shen He Dun looked at the waiting king and motioned him to bring Luoluo.

In this endless Gobi desert, Shen Hedan specially built a swimming pool for Luoluo to play and keep fit.

Before Lolo came, they had a chat.

"When can Lolo's operation be done?" When Bai nianxi asked Shen Hedan, his eyes revealed a vague worry.

Shen Hedan's face was dark for a moment. "It shouldn't be long. After all, Wei Xia has already made an agreement."

"Will she really promise to cure Lolo?" Bai nianxi still has some doubts.

"There's no room for her not to agree." Shen Hedan's voice went on coldly, "it was she who set up a plan that led to the consequences of Luo Luo now. To treat Luo Luo is her responsibility and obligation."

Two years ago, Lolo fell off the roof.

Although he was held in his arms by Bai nianxi at the moment when he fell down, the impact was still not small. In addition, after staying in the cold wind and rain for so long, he still couldn't stand it and had problems.

Lolo's eyes are now half blind.

Shen Hedan invited many doctors to diagnose, and the top ophthalmologists all over the world were invited by Shen Hedan one by one, but they either couldn't find any problems or didn't determine the specific treatment plan.

It was not until Dr. kahal's appearance that Lolo's treatment of the eye took a turn.

Dr. kahal pointed out the problem of Lolo's eyes and gave a specific treatment plan.

It's just that Dr. kahal is from Wei Xia's side.
