

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 278

Everyone's eyes were a little surprised. Downton turned to Ashley with a doubt in his eyes. "What's the matter?"

"She didn't push it." Ashley looked at Bai nianxi, "I believe she should have seen my brooch loose before she reached out to help me do it again. It was my overreaction at that time and I fell down accidentally."

Everyone noticed that Ashley's brooch was missing.

Since Ashley said so, and the facts presented do not seem to have much problem, I believe she did not do it in vain.

"Thank you." Ashley reaches out her hand to Bai nianxi.

For Ashley's performance, Bai nianxi was a little surprised, but the surprise just flashed on her face. Bai nianxi also reached out to hold Ashley's hand, "it's really my action that is too abrupt to scare you. I'm sorry."

After a while, the atmosphere became inexplicably harmonious.

"Tyler, it looks like you've made a mistake." Downton glanced at Taylor with a touch of dignity in his eyes, which made people dare not look directly at him.

Taylor bowed his head with some guilt. "Ashley was scared at that time I was wrong..."

After that, she clenched her teeth tightly, and the resentment on her face was not obvious. She couldn't understand Ashley's performance just now.

She has already said that it was Bai nianxi who pushed her. Ashley even clarified for Bai nianxi in public. Then she became the bad woman who was the target of public criticism and wronged people?

Now that the matter had been settled, the crowd dispersed. Bai nianxi said goodbye and went back to the rest room.

Lolo is still listening to the book seriously. The book he is listening to today is Hawking's theory of gravity and cosmology. He has a very high talent in computer and a very strong interest in physics.

When he was immersed in the vast physical world in the book, he had no time to consider what happened in the outside world, so he didn't know what happened just now.

Bai nianxi went back to the lounge, went to the sofa and sat down, thinking about what had just happened.

When she just came back, she also looked at the place where the three of them had just stood. It seemed that there was no monitoring around them, which meant that if Ashley didn't clarify for her today, she would be recognized for pushing Ashley.

Even if she had cured Ashley's foot, she would not escape Mr. Downton's investigation. Although Shen Hedan's influence was enough to protect her, she would still bring a lot of trouble at that stage.

Ashley was able to clarify for her in a voice, which really surprised her. It was in the case that she was most likely Ashley's rival.

Bai nianxi's affection for Ashley increased a lot for a while, which was better than that Taylor.

Bai nianxi thought that he felt a little pain in his ankle, so he bent down to look at his feet, and suddenly there was a knock on the door.

Bai nianxi frowns. Who will it be now?

Go to the door and open the door. This time, the man standing at the door is Musi Li.

Mu Sili just came here. When he found Bai nianxi's lounge, he came directly to knock on the door.

"Nianxi." Musi looked at Bai nianxi and said.

He used to call her Miss Bai, but now he has changed her name.

It's hard to tell the emotion in his eyes. The last time I saw Bai nianxi in Germany, she was the old woman who had been disguised deliberately. Now, he really saw the face that often appeared in his dream.

White read Xi also Leng for a while, "Mr. mu."

They stood at the door for almost a minute, but Bai nianxi came back and asked Mu Sili to come in.

"Why are you here?"

"Why are you here?"

They asked almost at the same time.

After asking, both of them were stunned for a moment, and then both of them laughed. Mousse bent his eyes slightly and said, "two years no see. I didn't expect that we still have such a tacit understanding."

The smile on Bai nianxi's face did not diminish. When he thought of the questions they had just asked, they were both somewhat unreasonable. Naturally, he came here to attend the wedding, so he changed the question, "how long do you plan to stay in New York this time?"

Musi shook his head. "I don't know. I'll finish the work here. And you? "

Bai nianxi thought, "I don't know. It's because of aunt Xia's wedding. After the wedding, I should go back."

"Where to go?" Musi left some anxious to ask out, asked to find that he had some gaffe, seems to be too excited, impolite, a trace of blush on his face.

White read Xi Leng Leng, reply: "go back to my original place."

Seeing that Bai nianxi didn't mean to answer this question, Mu Sili didn't ask any more, but said with a smile, "what you've hidden is really deep."

"Since you want to hide it, of course you need to hide it deeper." Bai nianxi deliberately said it with ease.

After that, they were silent for a while. Somehow, Bai nianxi's words made Mu Sili's heart begin to spread a sense of discomfort. The corners of his mouth that had been raised were also slowly flattened, with a slightly serious look. He asked softly, "can I still see you?" Bai nianxi didn't answer. I don't think we will meet again in a short time.

Musili then said: "nianxi, I've been looking for you for the past two years, but I haven't heard from you. When I saw you in Germany that day, I suddenly thank God that you can live safely and happily."

As he said that, Musi's face moved slightly. Some words were held in his heart for too long. Under the influence of some emotion, he could not suppress any more.

"Nianxi, do you know what I have been thinking of you all the time?"

Mu Sili suddenly said such a sentence. Bai nianxi was a little stunned and had no way to swallow her saliva. She had realized what Mu Sili was going to say next, but she didn't have the courage to say it.

"Nianxi, I like you." When Musi Li said this, he kept staring at Bai nianxi's eyes, which were full of deep and dense feelings.

Bai nianxi and Mu Sili look at each other for a moment, then they dodge and move their eyes.

"This sentence has been pressing in my heart for a long time. I never said it to you because I thought that I only need to know that you are in the world. I only need to know that you are in a corner of the world and live happily."

"But when you disappeared two years ago, I found that I was wrong. The last time I separated from you in Germany, I found that I was wrong. I not only want you to live well, but also want to see you every day. I want to see you in my sight. If you can smile at me, or if you can't, I can look at your back. "

"Maybe it's abrupt for me to ask now, but I still want to ask once."

Speaking of this, moussili's Adam's apple rolled unconsciously. After a few seconds, he said, "nianxi, will you give me a chance?"
