

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 287

It wasn't until he found a circle in the room and turned over the bottom of the flowerpot that Bai nianxi finally decided that there was no one in the room.

They all left here?

Shen Hedan's mobile phone ran out of power, so he couldn't get through. Not to mention, Bai nianxi couldn't get in touch with him, so he had to go back to his room first.

Luo Luo had the habit of morning exercise. Shen Hedan used to take Luo Luo with him. But today, he can't find Shen Hedan. Bai nianxi has to take Luo Luo with him.

Fortunately, the hotel has a lady's sports shirt. Bai nianxi asked the waiter to take a suit. After changing, he took Lolo to the park downstairs.

The hotel downstairs is a park, the environment is very beautiful, stone path, garden, fountain, lake, the scenery is very good.

The air is fresh in the early morning. There are not many people here. They are all guests living in the hotel. Bai nianxi pats Lolo's head. "We're going to start running. Follow mommy's steps and be careful of wrestling."

Then they ran along the path in the park.

Although Luo Luo is young, his physical strength is very good. Shen Hedan used to take him to do some physical training. At a young age, he developed abdominal muscles.

Bai nianxi is more used to doing yoga in the morning. After running for a while, he feels that his breathing is uneven and his pace slows down.

Luo Luo followed Bai nianxi and slowed down his pace, which was more than enough for him.

Suddenly, a man came over behind him, a man in a sports shirt. The man's step was very steady. When he passed by Bai nianxi, he looked slightly. Bai nianxi also noticed that this man was Kang Mobei.

Commobei's eyes didn't stay much. He ran past without any surprise. Bai nianxi was stunned for a moment, and then he heard Luo Luo say: "Mommy, is that man just now daddy?"

Luo Luo is very familiar with the smell of conmbere, and can always be very keen to detect it. Bai nianxi gives a sound and stops slowly. "Luo Luo, Mommy is a little tired and can't run any more."

"Well, let's have a rest." Lolo also stopped.

Bai nianxi was already out of breath, but Luo Luo was still calm, as if the movement just now was just a warm-up for him.

Heart suddenly some guilt, "Lolo, I'm sorry, Mommy physical strength is not good, harm you can't exercise well."

"No, Mommy." Luo Luo goes to Bai nianxi and puts out his hand to pat Bai nianxi on the back. He wants to help Bai nianxi get along. Although he is not as tall as Bai nianxi's back, his heart is enough to move Bai nianxi.

"By the way, Mommy, do you know when daddy will leave?"

When Luo Luo asked this, Bai nianxi was stunned, then shook his head, "Mommy doesn't know."

Lolo, oh, no more talking.

Although the young voice seems very calm, Bai nianxi can still hear it. Luo Luo's words hide some disappointment.

He also wants to be able to get along with commobei for some time after he has been separated from commobei for such a long time.

After walking for a while, Bai nianxi's chest was full of breath. At this time, kangmobei caught up with him again. Kangmobei was very fast and had already run for a while. When passing by Bai nianxi, Bai nianxi called out: "Mr. Kang."

Kangmobei's steps slowly stopped, standing a few meters away from Bai nianxi, his eyebrows slightly frowned to show his doubts.

Bai nianxi patted Luo Luo on the shoulder, "Luo Luo, go and run with daddy for a while, let daddy take you to exercise."

Luo Luo Leng Leng, standing in the same place did not move, but Kang Mobei first reaction, toward Luo Luo waved, "Luo Luo, come here."

Later, Luo Luo ran to the north of Kangmo, and Bai nianxi said, "Luo Luo's eyes are not good. You can take him with you."

The communication between two people seems very common, as if the only connection between them is Lolo.

Bai nianxi looks at the back of Kang Mo Bei and Luo Luo. The big one is tall and handsome, the small one is thin but tall and straight, and they are in harmony together. I can't help but smile at the corners of my mouth. It's good for Lolo and conumber to get along for a while.

Even with Wei Xia's gaze, it's not too much for father and son to communicate with each other. On the contrary, if kangmobei doesn't show any nostalgia for Luo Luo, it's not true.

After giving Luo Luo to kangmobei, Bai nianxi walked around alone along the path in the park. After a few steps, he met Mu Sili again.

When Bai nianxi saw Musi Li, he was practicing boxing in a place with few people in the park.

This park should be specially built by the hotel for its guests. There are a lot of fitness facilities installed in this area. There are not many people here. Musili is wearing a white short sleeve T-shirt with a pair of sports pants. He keeps hitting the sandbag in front of him with his hands clenched. His fists are very fast and powerful. I don't know how long I've practiced. My whole body is sweating. Even my hair is soaked with sweat.

Musi from practice is very focused, did not notice that Bai nianxi came over, Bai nianxi stood not far away, quietly watching, such a Musi from her has not seen, white compassionate contrast of his whole person clean and fresh, at the moment he, look focused, eyes through the fierce, let a person even eyes dare not put light a bit.

After watching mousse fight for a while, he seemed to be indefatigable and never stop.

Bai nianxi sighed a little, thinking that he was probably in a bad mood. So he turned and left.

After Bai nianxi left, Mu Sili finally stopped and looked at Bai nianxi's back. His head was full of sweat and his chest was undulating violently.

He saw Bai nianxi early in the morning, but he didn't know how to face her. Last night's drunkenness was enough.

The side of the fist unconsciously clenched some, at the moment, his fist has been covered with wisps of blood, he was here, practicing for nearly a night.

"Pa", moussili hit the sandbag in front of him again.

Bai nianxi is walking. She saw two of the three clients last night. Is there another one?

The phone doesn't work, and no one can be seen. Where did Shen Hedan go!

Luoluo follows kangmobei, but Bai nianxi doesn't have to worry about it. After morning exercise, kangmobei will take Luoluo to take a bath and have breakfast. After two rounds in the park, the sun gradually rises. Bai nianxi plans to go back to the hotel room.

Suddenly I heard a melodious music, which attracted Bai nianxi's attention. It was not because the music was so shocking, but because it was the most common ancient music in China.

Have all the square dancing ladies in China expanded their territory to New York?
