

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 289

Today's itinerary, according to Shen Hedan, is to bring their wives out to see the world.

Although Shen Hedan's words made Bai nianxi just want to roll her eyes, she still took Luo Luo out for a walk. Her long depressed mood needs to be released. Anyway, what she is spending today is Shen Hedan's money. She can sweep the goods at will.

Several people went to shopping malls, amusement parks, and then came to a Chinese restaurant.

This Chinese restaurant is very famous in the Chinese area. I heard that the taste here is very authentic. Not only Chinese, but also local New Yorkers come here. Generally, when they come here to eat, they have to make an appointment at least a week in advance. Sometimes they can't wait for a month to get the number.

Shen Hedan takes Bai nianxi and Luo Luo upstairs and enters the best box inside. The box is still by the window. Open the window and you can see the beautiful scenery outside.

Bai nianxi went to the window, opened the window and took a look at the scenery outside. Below is a garden full of flowers. It seems that someone in the restaurant has specially taken care of it. In the green, there are lots of beautiful flowers, which is a bit of classical beauty of Chinese garden.

Bai nianxi took a few deep breaths of air, then turned back and asked, "when did you make an appointment here?"

Shen He took a leisurely time to pour himself a cup of tea, "in my capacity, do you still use an appointment?"

"I'm afraid I didn't take advantage of one of your friends again?" Bai nianxi chuckles. Shen Hedan has so many friends. Shen Hedan can occupy such a good position. Who is the boss of this restaurant.

"Who else can I take advantage of? Since I want to sit here..." Shen Hedan often behaves badly in front of Bai nianxi. Bai nianxi is used to it, but before Shen Hedan finishes his boasting, the door of the box is pushed open.

"I want this box, nothing else!" A woman stood at the door and walked in directly, followed by the manager of the restaurant. The manager had been explaining something to the woman, but was interrupted by the woman directly and rudely.

The manager of the restaurant looked at Shen Hedan and lowered his head. "Mr. Shen, I'm sorry, this lady has to come in."

The woman who opened the door saw Shen Hedan and Bai nianxi, with disdain on her face, "why, I said I want to sit here, you still don't go out?"

Shen Hedan, who had talked so much before, was sitting on the chair now and didn't speak any more. He just looked at the woman in front of him with a pair of eyes.

Seeing Shen Hedan's reaction, the manager of the restaurant couldn't help beating a drum. It was obvious that Shen Hedan was angry.

"This lady, this box is occupied. We have something else..."

"I don't want anything else. I'll take this one." The woman impatiently interrupted the restaurant manager.

Bai nianxi thought that Shen Hedan and Luo Luo were also in line today. Now that there are people here who want to sit, she has to be reasonable. She stood up and asked, "Hello, is this box reserved by you?"

"I'd like to sit here. This is my seat." Women are very rude.

The manager of the restaurant behind him explained: "this lady has no reservation. She just came here, and then she called the roll here."

Bai nianxi doubts that if they had occupied other people's seats, she would have let them, but now it doesn't seem to be.

"What are you doing here? Why don't you get out of here?" The woman is bossy and wants to drive Shen Hedan out.

Looking at the woman carefully, Bai nianxi found that she should be very young. Although she was wearing mature clothes and had delicate makeup on her face, she could still see her childish face.

About seventeen or eighteen years old, should be spoiled by the family of Jiao miss, so used to such Jiao pretty domineering.

With the end in mind, Bai nianxi smiles, "what's the name of this lady, please?"

The woman put her arms in her arms and said, "you deserve to know my name?"

Bai nianxi didn't get angry when he was treated like this. He just said with a smile, "if you don't tell us your name, then I can only give you a nickname to address you. I have no culture. I'm afraid you don't like it."

"Well, hillbilly." Hearing Bai nianxi claim that she has no culture, the woman's tone is even more disdainful.

Bai nianxi then said, "in our village, we often call other people Er Gouzi and heiwazi. Girls are called Cuihua and Er Ya. Which name do you prefer, Cuihua or er ya?"

The woman frowned, "the earth is dead."

Bai nianxi is noncommittal. She looks at the woman with a smile and doesn't speak. After a few moments, the woman turns her lips and says, "Liu Xiaoru."

Bai nianxi pick eyebrow, originally called Liu Xiaoru. "Then I'll call you Miss Liu?"

Liu Xiaoru didn't speak, which was tacit approval.

"Miss Liu, you also said that you didn't make a reservation in advance. Since you didn't make a reservation, you should follow the rule of first come, then come. We came first in this room." "So?" Liu Xiaoru frowned discontentedly.

"So we won't give it to you." When Bai nianxi spoke, he always had a smile on his mouth. His face was kind, but what he said was firm, which made Liu Xiaoru feel disgusted.

"You mean you won't leave anyway?" Liu Xiaoru's tone rose and her eyebrows wrinkled.

Seeing that Bai nianxi didn't answer, she went to the table and sat down. Liu Xiaoru was angry, but she had no choice. She had already told her friends that she would invite them to dinner here today.

She also knows how difficult it is to determine the position here, but from small to large, her requirements have hardly been met.

It's not easy to want this room? Originally, it was just a phone call from her father, but recently, her father is too busy to take care of these trivial things.

However, if you can't do what you say, won't it make her lose face in front of her friends?

Liu Xiaoru suppressed her anger, thought about it, and said, "well, I'll give you money, and you'll go to other places to eat."

Give money?

Bai nianxi and Shen Hedan's eyebrows pick at the same time. This is the first time that someone wants to take money to let Shen Hedan go.

The restaurant manager standing behind Liu Xiaoru bowed his head and did not dare to say anything more. Liu Xiaoru didn't know Shen Hedan. She did. Liu Xiaoru didn't know Shen Hedan's methods, but she had seen them.

Liu Xiaoru's performance at the moment can only be summed up in one sentence - I don't know the superiority of heaven and earth.
