

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 311

Now is the beginning of the school season. Bai nianxi plans to send Lolo to school. Lolo always has to receive formal education and learn to integrate into the environment.

Although Luo Luo's eyes still can't see now, his knowledge level has already surpassed that of primary school. There is no problem keeping up with the school's learning progress. The atmosphere in the school is always better. Bai nianxi also hopes that Luo Luo can make more friends.

Bai nianxi first picked a circle from the school materials presented by an Qing, picked out a few more satisfied schools, and then took a school in Luoluo to see.

Bai nianxi first came to a private international noble primary school. During the opening season, there were always many people at the entrance of the school, but the entrance of the international noble primary school was in good order.

After anqing finds a place to park the car, Bai nianxi takes Luo Luo into the school.

Lolo's eyes are bandaged, walking on the road, attracting many people's attention, especially many children, cast a curious look at Lolo.

Bai nianxi ignored those unintentional or malicious eyes and took Lolo to the outside of a classroom.

Aristocratic schools are different from other schools. To recruit students here, they not only need to have a good family background, but also require students to have a good educational foundation.

There is an interview for the students in the classroom. Bai nianxi reported the name of Luo Luo in advance. He didn't wait long outside, and soon a teacher came out to call Luo Luo's number.

Interview can't be accompanied by parents, but Luo Luo's eyes are inconvenient, so Bai nianxi leads Luo Luo in.

Several interviewing teachers saw Lolo with bandages on his eyes and looked at each other. After a while, they were embarrassed and asked Bai nianxi: "this parent, what's your child like? \"

Bai nianxi takes a look at Lolo and explains with a smile: "teacher, our eyes of Lolo have just been operated on recently. \"

"but he can't see. Can he still attend our interview? \"

A male teacher was puzzled.

Their interview, mainly test Chinese, mathematics, English three subjects, Lolo's eyes can't see, how to do?

Knowing what the teachers were doubting, Lolo simply asked himself to dispel his doubts and said, "no problem, just read the questions to me. \"

Lolo just used spoken English. His fluent accent and confident attitude seem to make people feel that his strength is beyond doubt.

Although the male teacher on the stage still felt suspicious, he didn't say anything. He just asked Bai nianxi to go out first, and then started the interview with Lolo.

Bai nianxi waited outside for a while. Luo Luo pushed the door and came out. Here, Lu bainianxi took him through, and he had written it down.

Seeing Luo Luo come out, Bai nianxi squats down. \

"Baby, how are you feeling? \"

"OK. \

"Luo Luo's face is expressionless, but he still turns his mouth to Bai nianxi.

Behind a female teacher also followed out, with a happy expression on her face. At this moment, her look at Lolo has been completely different.

After he came out, he praised Lolo, saying that he had never seen such an excellent student for a long time.

In the interview just now, in addition to English, Chinese and mathematics, Lolo also answered in English. In all kinds of questions and answers, he not only showed his amazing memory, but also his outstanding expression ability, rigorous logical thinking ability and strong reasoning ability.

When the female teacher praised Lolo, she directly gave Lolo the qualification of exceptional admission.

After thanking the teacher, Bai nianxi left the interview room with Lolo and said, "Lolo, what do you think of this place? \" in the game of choosing and being chosen, it is obvious that Lolo is the one who has the right to choose.

Lolo said faintly: "it's OK. \"

added:" I prefer challenging places. \"

" challenging? \"Bai nianxi smiles," then it should be good here. \" the other two are public schools. The selection of students is not as strict as that of international noble schools. Naturally, the students selected here have a better foundation.

If Lolo likes it better, Bai nianxi will listen to Lolo's own opinions and let him choose for himself.

Bai nianxi took Lolo to see around the school again. If Lolo goes to school here in the future, he needs to get familiar with the environment ahead of time.

There are some children playing on the school lawn. Bai nianxi and Lolo find a place to sit down and have a rest.

After sitting for a while, Bai nianxi received a phone call and found that it was the headmaster here.

Maybe the female teacher in charge of the interview was shocked by Lolo's performance and called the principal to say it. The competition between schools is also very fierce. When she meets students with extraordinary talent, she can't let it go.

Students like Lolo are the best signs of a school.

The headmaster asked Bai nianxi to come to the office to have a talk. Bai nianxi hung up and gave an explanation to Anqing, then left here temporarily. Luo Luo sits quietly in the same place, defends in Luo Luo's side, soon feels the atmosphere not to be right.

Not far away, small groups of people, from time to time toward this side of Lolo cast to look at, and then simply stand together, pointing to Lolo.

Anqing frowned unconsciously. He knew that young master Luo had no expression, but with his hearing, these sounds must have been very clear to his ears.

\"Young master, let's sit in another place? \"

" why? \"

An Qing looks at the group of twittering children not far away. Although he also feels angry, he is not good at being angry with a group of young children.

"What do they say about them? Why do I have to run away because of their indifferent words?"

there is no expression on Luo Luo's face when he talks, but this indifferent tone always makes an Qing listen with a kind of faint panic.

Not far away, the voices of those little people were getting louder and louder, and their words were more and more provocative.

"Why is he sitting there motionless?"

"you see, he wrapped his eyes with cloth. Can't he see now?"

"I can't see it. "A tiger like little boy holds his arms in his hands. He looks very powerful." if you don't believe me, let's make faces at him."

with that, the leading boy took the lead to make a face at Lolo. Naturally, Lolo didn't respond. On the contrary, Anqing frowned deeper and deeper, and waved his fist at the little dots to warn them.

But this not only failed to scare the little ones, but also made them laugh.

The little boy holding his stomach said with a smile: "ha ha ha, I'm really blind. No wonder I need bodyguards around me!"

"if you speak so loud, what can you do if he hears you?"
