

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 317

Connobei was attracted by the cheers on the first floor of the shopping mall.

In the past, he didn't like to be lively, but somehow, now he is occasionally attracted by the noise.

He has lived in his own world for too long. His world is too quiet and lonely. For the rest of his life, he will struggle and swim in this boundless loneliness, and no one can save him.

That's why I'm attracted by the excitement. The laughter is something that will never belong to him.

The tall and straight posture of Commo North stands beside the glass guardrail on the second floor of the shopping mall and looks down slightly.

It seems that the following activities are being held. There is a lot of people. It's very lively. Connobei's eyes are attracted to the past, and he glances at the crowd at will.

And then it landed in a place and settled down.

Gujing wubo's black eyes suddenly have brilliance, carrying the vitality of life. The eyes before Comber were deep and terrible, only the darkness that people couldn't see.

It's not until now that I see Bai nianxi and Luo Luo in the crowd on the first floor that my eyes are just like withered wood in spring, emitting the brilliance that a living person should have.

Bainianxi and Lolo, how can they be here?

The two figures downstairs are still outstanding even in the crowd. They are like a powerful magnet. They firmly hold the eyes of Comber.

Bai nianxi and Luo Luo are standing under the stage, waiting to be on the stage. The host has divided into groups, and now it is the first group performing on the stage.

Bai nianxi leads Luo Luo, squats down and says, "Luo Luo, are you the one who wants to guess or the one who wants to make a gesture? \"

Lolo almost did not hesitate to guess. \"

\" why? \"Bai nianxi touched Luo Luo's head.\" you are so smart and lovely. How suitable you are to perform the figure painting? \"

Lolo shook his head without expression.\" that's naive. \"

Bai nianxi tugs at the corners of her mouth and grins twice, which seems to be what Lolo would say. However, Lolo thinks that the performance is too childish, and then she naturally accepts this too childish role?

After a while, the performance of the first group was finished, and it was the turn of the second group.

The cheers under the stage suddenly rang up, the atmosphere on the scene suddenly became much more enthusiastic, even the smile on the host's face became much more prosperous than before.

It seems that everyone is looking forward to Bai nianxi and Lolo in the second group, especially Lolo. After he came on stage, he almost caught everyone's eyes. Everyone likes this cool little guy with sunglasses.

Before the formal competition, the host took the microphone to the contestants one by one, let's do a simple self introduction.

When the microphone is delivered to Lolo, the love on the host's face is almost lost.

\" Lolo. \"

\" Wow, the name of the handsome boy is as handsome and lovely as you! \"The host laughs to say an official sincere praise, and looks at the expressionless Lolo, it seems that there is a question.

\"Lolo looks so cool. Can you take off your sunglasses and let us have a look at your handsome face? \" according to Lolo's temperament, he wants to refuse.

But after the host said this sentence, the cheers under the stage became extremely enthusiastic. Although it had no influence on Lolo, it had a great influence on his mother.

Bai nianxi bowed down and said to Lolo: "Lolo, it's impolite to wear sunglasses all the time on the stage. \" in fact, she is selfish. She is such a handsome girl that she can't bear to hide.

Besides, the light in the shopping mall is not too strong. Lolo doesn't wear sunglasses for a while, so it's not a big problem.

Luo Luo understood Bai nianxi and took off his sunglasses.

The crowd gave out bursts of praise, and Lolo's appearance on the stage didn't disappoint them at all.

The posture of heaven and man is just like this, isn't it? If there is a star Scout at the scene, I'm afraid I'm going to pull Lolo directly.

It's just that this handsome boy seems to be familiar with what he thinks.

Only one person's eyes were particularly hot. Conmber's eyes were fixed on Lolo's eyes, looking at the treacherous brilliance in his eyes like a black gem.

The last time I saw Lolo, it was at his engagement ceremony with mu Rushun. At that time, Lolo's eyes were still bandaged. Now, the bandage has been removed.

Lolo's eyes are different from the emptiness he saw when he was in New York. It seems that Lolo's eyes have recovered.

Conmobei's fist on his side tightened unconsciously, and Lolo finally saw the light again. This is a good thing.

Murushuang in the shoe store has been optimistic about many pairs of shoes. The performance of murushuang doesn't disappoint the waiters in the shoe store at all. Basically, they recommend to murushuang, and murushuang asks for them. More than ten pairs of shoes. Mu Rushuang asked the people in the shoe store to wrap it up, and then gave an address for the shoe store to send someone to send it.

\ "Mobei, we \ "When mu Rushun turned his head, kangmobei was no longer around.

Some doubts turned his head, mu Rushuang with his eyes in the shop search for some, and then saw standing outside the shop at the guardrail of the north.

Seems to be looking at a place, to see the trance.

Shaking his wheelchair, he came to kangmobei and said, "Mobei, let's go."

Kangmo stood in the same place, as if he didn't hear mu Rushun's words, and didn't respond at all.

Mu Rushuang frowned slightly and said, "Mobei?"

Kang Mobei came back to his senses. He turned his head and saw the admiration around him. The mood in his eyes changed. "What's the matter with you?"

Mu Rushuang saw the emotional changes on kangmobei's face very clearly, and seemed to notice something. With doubts, she said: "Mobei, what are you looking at?"

Connberg shook his head, "Nothing. Let's go."

Just saying that, his eyes seemed to sweep a place downstairs with reluctance and attachment.

Mu Rushun can't understand more. In this world, apart from Bai nianxi and Luo Luo, who else can he look at with such deep feelings?

The expression on mu Rushuang's face gradually changed. Her eyes slowly sank down, biting her lips, as if she was restraining something. The hands on both sides of the wheelchair buckle the handlebars tightly, and the fingertips are white.

There seemed to be a trace of hysteria in her heart. She hated and hated all this.

"Come on, let's go and have a look." Mu Rushuang said. Finish saying, mu Rushuang pushes wheelchair, Wu from leave to one side.

Kangmobei wanted to say something, but he had to follow him. Of course, he knew where mu Rushuang was going. She already knew what he was looking at.

That's right.

In this world, there are too few people who can let him stay at his destination.
