

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 337

"Ha ha ha, Teddy in the living room!"

Early in the morning, the staff of Qianqiu group were discussing the funny news one after another.

"Fortunately, Mr. Bai has drawn a clear line with conmobei, otherwise Tut Tut, I didn't expect that kangmobei was such a person. "

"That's right. I read other news that commobei went to Mu's house to ask for money because he was in debt."

"Yes? How much debt does he owe? "

"Hundreds of millions..."

"Wow! My God

The discussion about kangmobei flies in every corner of Qianqiu group. Bai nianxi is too lazy to take care of it and is busy with his own affairs.

After a big fight in the Mu family, although musili was angry, he didn't care whether he was alive or dead. In desperation, musili took him to the mental hospital.

The doctor covered conmber's head with discs, even stripped his clothes, and gave him a mental test.

"Mr. mu, the patient is a little serious. Come with me." The doctor took the psychiatric report of conmber and went to his office.

After mousse left his seat, the doctor slowly said, "you see, the patient's serotonin, norepinephrine, aminobutyric acid and other neurotransmitters in charge of emotion are in disorder. Serotonin alone, which is in charge of hyperactivity, exceeds the reference value by 10 times. He has suffered from a very serious emotional disorder and must be hospitalized for treatment."

"This..." Mu Sili just wanted to let the mental hospital temporarily detain commobei, but he didn't realize that he was really insane.

However, he is only an outsider. Whether kangmobei is hospitalized in a mental hospital depends on his family.

The Kang family has gone insane. It's a big scandal. Journalists with a keen sense of smell are flocking to follow all the people in the Kang family. Once they have the chance to ask questions, they are bound to talk incessantly.

Kangli qingben is in the hospital to take care of the old master who is enraged by Kangmo north. Suddenly, he receives a call from Musi Li. He is absolutely shocked.

When they came to the mental hospital, reporters flocked with them.

"Mr. Kang! Is your son diagnosed now? Are you really mentally ill? "

"Mr. commobei has been labeled" living room Teddy. "What do you want to say? "

"Ha ha ha!" As soon as the word Teddy came out of the living room, there was a burst of laughter around.

Kang Liqing's face is blue and white, ignoring the reporter's questioning. After he has finished the hospitalization of Kang Mobei in a hurry, he quietly returns home from the back door of the hospital.

But even if you go home, the things that come out of the Commodore north also follow the door.

Before I could have a cup of tea to calm down, the door of Kang's house was smashed.

"Commobei! Get out of here! Pay back the money

"Pay back the money!"

"Bang, bang, bang!"

"Commobei! If you don't pay back! You're not just Teddy! You have to make your Kang family continue to lose face! Don't pay the debt! The Kang family is not good

The noise outside the door makes Kang Liqing very upset. In the face of the public opinion, if the Kang family is involved in the Commobity, it will make things worse.

Helpless, Kang Liqing paid Kang Mobei's blocking debt, trying to buy a quiet.

This is not good enough. If we leave kangmobei to stay in China, the Kang family will have to continue to follow us.

Kang Liqing plans to send Kang Mobei to the United States for treatment in a mental hospital in the United States.

In Bai nianxi's office, everything is as usual. From time to time, she touches her raised abdomen. She doesn't look up to see Shen Hedan, who has been here for more than ten minutes.

Shen Hedan actually had a lot to say, but he knew that Bai nianxi didn't want to hear them.

"I'll go back to America first. It's time to do something about the Wei family." Shen Hedan pretended to be relaxed.

Bai nianxi stopped his busy work, raised his eyes, and finally said, "what's the truth, kangmobei?"

Finally, she hears the name of kangmobei from Bai nianxi. Shen Hedan knows that she still cares about him in her heart. Now she just pretends to be indifferent.

Not out of playfulness, Shen Hedan deliberately didn't say the key points she wanted to know, but said faintly:

"kangmobei is just a psychopath with no power and no power now. How can he suddenly ask him something?"

White read Xi light smile: "just feel interesting, don't think more."

"I didn't think much about it. I think much about your explanation." Shen Hedan smiles meaningfully and gets up to leave.

"It's a pity that kangmobei has become a psychopath. For the Wei family's plan, the chance of winning is three points less, but it doesn't matter. On the contrary, it can make the Wei family relax their vigilance. I can do it alone."

Bai nianxi heard the sound of the door closing three days later, at the exit of the airport in California.

Kangmobei playfully dragged his luggage and walked towards the distant King ting.

"Ah, liberated!" Kangmobei impolitely handed the luggage to Jinting, then stretched his waist and made a look at Jinting, indicating that Jinting looked at the two people behind him. Jin Tingxian nodded helplessly to show that he knew. Then he drove to the unknown direction with kangmobei and the two guards from Kangjia.

On the side of the road, it was desolate. Jin Ting stopped the car. After Kang Mobei got off the car first, he waved to the two guards and signaled them to get off the car. They got off the car obediently. As a result, they were beaten by Kang Mobei. The two people who fainted were robbed of their passports and left on the desolate side of the road.

"Mr. Shen is waiting for you. Don't play with me any more." Jin Ting was dissatisfied with the impropriety of conmobei.

"Well, drive your car." Conmobei sat comfortably in the front passenger's seat, leaning back in his chair and keeping his eyes closed.

Shen Hedan is sitting in the office. On his desk, there are some papers and some keys.

Hearing the sound of opening the door, Shen didn't have to look up to know who was coming.

Kangmobei sat on the sofa carelessly, pouring tea for himself.

"Enough? "Teddy." Shen Hedan asked lightly.

"I didn't expect that. It was fun." Kangmobei took a sip of tea with a smile. As he swallowed the tea, his smile dissipated.

"Take your Swiss account. With the fake debt blocking, it's almost $1 billion, but is that enough?" Shen He Dan asked.

Kang Mobei's sudden change of nature is just a play. With Shen Hedan's secret cooperation and the heated discussion of public opinion, he successfully escaped to the United States by pretending to be a "neurotic with nothing". There are two key points, one is Shen Hedan's plan for the Wei family, the other is I'll have to wait for president Bai to pick up my little teddy home.

Picking up the documents and bank network shield on Shen Hedan's desk, Kang Mobei said: "don't worry, even if there isn't a billion yuan, I can help you, but I miss her..."

"Well, you miss her, she doesn't miss you." Shen Hedan pretended to sneer.
