

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 355

"This madman!"

"Brake now!"

"Stab" sound, piercing the sky to see the sound, resounding through the street intersection, the man driving a black car decisively stepped on the brake, but the car is still inertial force, fast sliding to the front of the white car.

Connobei's eyes were stunned. He quickly drilled from the driver's seat to the back seat and protected Lolo in his arms!

"Bang!"

The huge crash broke the eardrum of passers-by, and passers-by screamed and fled.

This impact, called Bai nianxi in the trunk, inertial impact to the front, wait for the car to stop, she was thrown out of the trunk because of inertia.

Kangmobei only heard the sound of bone fracture all over his body, but he didn't have time to feel the severe pain. He urgently confirmed whether Lolo in his arms was injured.

"Wuwu Daddy Help Mommy... "

"Are you all right?" Kangmobei was ferocious because of the pain, but he didn't know how terrible he was.

Luoluonuo cried and nodded. With his elbow, kangmobei smashed the broken window into a big hole, and then quickly went out.

Smelling the gray smoke emitted by the collision, connobei stares at the two men in the black car with murderous eyes.

Even though the two men saw his killing eyes, they also saw the right leg of connobei, which was limply dragging on the ground.

"His leg is broken! Drive and run The man in charge of the co driver yelled.

The man who was driving was shocked, so he quickly got into gear again, prepared to back up and left here.

"Ah! You die for me With a roar, conmobei drags his broken leg and flies to the man who controls the gear lever.

The man in the driver's seat couldn't cope with it. The collar was suddenly tight. It was the iron fist that came from behind the broken window. When he couldn't react, the iron fist full of broken glass had already pulled his collar tightly and pulled him out of the car from the window full of broken glass.

Bai nianxi was thrown out of the trunk because of her inertia and fell to the ground heavily. Time seemed to stop. Even the actions of passers-by were like slow motion movies in her eyes. She struggled to stand up and almost broke with pain.

Kangmobei roared and hit the iron fist on the man's face one after another. With only a few blows, the man's chin would show unnatural dislocation in front of him.

The man who has been hit so hard is just about to open his mouth to his companion for help. He opens his mouth, but it's the broken teeth that slide along the blood.

"Be careful!" Luo Luo's crying voice suddenly came. Conmobei subconsciously looked back, but saw another man smashing himself with a wrench.

"Er..." The man with the wrench suddenly twisted his eyes and gave out a dull hum.

Kang Mo North bypasses that person's face and looks to the rear, but sees that Bai nianxi is holding an iron bar, which has fallen on that person's back.

The dull sound of "bang" also exploded in kangmobei's mind. Bai nianxi's rescue measures did not let him avoid the impact of the wrench. Even though the man took some strength, the wrench still hit him along the inertia.

The dull shock reverberated in conmber's brain. The next second, his eyes were red with blood, and everything in front of him was suddenly scarlet.

"Mobei..." When Bai nianxi saw that his rescue didn't let Kang Mobei avoid a blow, he suddenly stayed in the same place.

"Get up!"

The man with broken teeth, blurring, yells at his companion angrily, because he sees someone on the side of the road who is calling the police!

All this happened in a few seconds, passers-by are slowly back to God.

The man who fell to the ground covered his back and tried to climb up. He stretched out his hand toward the back, intending to pull Bai nianxi into the car. Bai nianxi retreated in horror. Kangmobei wanted to kick them down, but this action made him tear his heart apart!

"Hiss!" Conmobei realized that his leg had been broken long ago, but the intention of the two men was very obvious. He couldn't fall down! Even if His eyes were blurring.

"Let go of me!"

Incoherent shouts, accompanied by fierce kicks, fall on Kang Mobei. Kang Mobei is using his last will to hold them tightly with both hands.

"Nianxi Take Lolo Come on I can't hold it any longer... " Conmber was in a daze, only the pain kept him awake.

Bai nianxi casually wipes her face full of tears, resolutely goes around to the driver's seat of the white car, gets into the car, drives the car to make a sharp turn, and the front of the car is straight towards the two men and the komobei. The next second, she will drive and involve the three people under the car

See the situation changed, two men decisively kick open komobi, get into the already deformed black car, run away!

Bai nianxi's heart almost jumped out of her chest. She pretended to look at death as if she were going home. She even tried to kill Kang Mobei. Fortunately, this strategy worked.

"Bibu ~ Bibu ~"

the sound of the police car's whistle was the last sound he heard. The second after he fell into a coma, he felt as if he had fallen into the void His body, in a void, kept falling"Daddy

As kangmobei kept falling, a cry came from his ear, saying that he couldn't see anyone

"Is I'm dead? " Kang Mo North sad eyes, unwilling to in this empty dream, from asked.

"Selfish." The cold voice pierced his eardrum, and the feeling of falling immediately dissipated. It was too late to feel his down-to-earth feeling. In front of commo's north,

Bai nianxi, dressed in white, was looking at him coldly.

"Nianxi I... "

"It's selfish. If you leave like this, I won't forgive you all my life." Bai nianxi looks at him coldly with hate eyes.

"I won't go, you take me back, I won't go!" Kangmobei quickly reaches out his hand and is about to touch Bai nianxi. Bai nianxi disappears like a wisp of mist.

"Nianxi!"

Shouting, like calling something, in front of him suddenly a pale light, he can't help subconsciously raise his hand to cover the dazzling light

"Doctor! We have to get him back! Doctor, please

The reality is that Bai nianxi is chasing the stretcher car, while Kang Mobei is still on the stretcher.

The doctor used a flashlight to stimulate the pupil of conumber. Conumber's pupil gave the doctor a contraction reaction.

"Pupil response! Push the operating room The doctor ignored Bai nianxi and scrambled for the time needed for rescue.

Bai nianxi is stopped outside the operating room. When she comes back to herself, she finds that her fingers, unconsciously, are deeply pinched into Lolo's shoulder. Lolo's face is crying, and she doesn't seem to realize the pain brought by her deep pinching.

"Wuwu, Daddy..."
