

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 365

"Yes." White read Xi light way.

The unexpected answer confused Musi Li for a moment. After waking up, Musi Li stammered out two words: "thank you, thank you."

"Don't thank me, because my letter of understanding is useless. Now the victim is not me, it's the grandfather of conbmer." Bai nianxi calms down.

Mousse left his subconscious to celebrate that he had not come and was happy, otherwise he would be very lost and confused now: "well, I want to see commobei, and Master Kang, can you help me? I don't think they would like to see me. "

Bai nianxi takes a look at the door of Luo Luo's room. What will happen when they meet? Bai nianxi doesn't have to guess.

"It happens that I have something to talk to commobei. Please wait for me at the gate of the hospital."

After that, Bai nianxi hung up the phone, turned off the TV and got up to go out.

Mu Sili nervously put away his mobile phone and drove straight to the gate of the hospital where Kang Taiye was hospitalized.

Soon, Bai nianxi arrived. With a light look in his eyes, Bai nianxi asked Mu Sili to follow her.

Kang Mo Beiman's head is full of philosophical questions, as well as questions related to life and death.

When he heard the sound of footsteps and raised his eyes, Kang Mobei first saw Bai nianxi walking in front of him. It seemed that Mu Sili, who was hiding behind Bai nianxi, came into his eyes.

Kangmobei sneers, gets up and walks to Bai nianxi. Before speaking, Bai nianxi opens his mouth.

"He wants to see you."

Kangmobei stares at Mu Sili's face. Without waiting for mu Sili's apology, he hits Mu Sili's nose with a cold fist. When he raises his face again, Mu Sili's face is covered with blood.

"If you beat me, I'll beat you! Please write me a letter of understanding Mousse stood humbly against the wall and called to conumber.

"Ha ha, do you deserve the letter of understanding?" Asked conumber coldly.

"I know Rushuang has done wrong, but her imprisonment can change..."

It was another loud fist falling down, which resounded in Musi Li's head. With this fist, Musi Li's mind began to be in a trance.

"You fight! As long as you write a letter of understanding! I'm at your disposal! " Standing unsteadily, moussili stumbled and fell in the corner of the wall, leaning against the wall, not even wiping the blood on his face.

"Well, I can write a letter of understanding on the premise that my grandfather can recover! Can you do it! "

The roar of conumber reverberates in the open corridor. The fierce voice makes the medical staff and security personnel dare not approach.

Mu Sili still doesn't know how serious Master Kang is. If he knows, does he have the face to come?

"Nianxi, do me a favor, call the doctor for me, and let the doctor tell him what the cruel woman mu Rushun has done!" His voice trembled and his whole body trembled with anger.

Bai nianxi calmly passed by musili. Less than a minute after entering the doctor's office, he came to musili with a look of indifference.

"Doctor, please tell him how sick my grandfather is because of his sister." Kangmo North hate hate word by word.

Doctors listen to the short way: "patients inhale insecticides containing asbestos ingredients, leading to the aggravation of pulmonary fibrosis. At present, there is no effective treatment. After complete pulmonary fibrosis, patients will die of asphyxia."

Mu Sili's heart was smashed: "this..."

"Ha ha, I don't think it's enough to be buried with your whole Mu family. Do you need a letter of understanding?" Kangmobei squats in front of Musili, sticks out his finger and pokes Musili squatting on the ground.

Musi Li slowly stood up from the narrow gap, staggered for two steps because of pain and shock, immediately said "I'm sorry" and "I'm sorry", and ran away in a panic.

Waiting for the figure of Musi to disappear completely in the sight of Kangmo north, Kangmo North seems to be exhausted, still squatting on the ground.

Bai nianxi just wants to walk away, but he hears Kang Mobei speak behind him:

"nianxi, grandfather hasn't seen Lele with his own eyes, you..."

"I see." Bai nianxi understood what he meant without saying that. He continued to walk, ready to go home, waiting for Lolo and LeLe to have a look at their granddad.

Kangmobei takes a deep breath. In the ward, Master Kang is still sleeping, and kangliqing can only go back to preside over the overall situation because of the pressure from the company.

"Grandfather, when do you wake up?" Conmber said to himself with a bitter smile.

Kang Taiye did not have any response, even the ECG did not have any fluctuations.

Doctors routinely come to check the data of various indicators. After reading, there is no doubt that they will leave after registration.

"Doctor, I want to ask you a few questions." Conmber stood up, and his eyes were scarlet.

The doctor nodded, and conmber followed him out.

In the doctor's office, although he had something to say, he was silent for a long time. Until the doctor was impatient, he said: "My grandfather just has breathing problems. Why does he sleep all the time?"

"Because of the lack of oxygen in the brain, the young and middle-aged people may be able to sustain the lack of oxygen in the brain for a minute or two. Your grandfather is an old man, and a few seconds is a serious hazard." The doctor said faintly.

"You mean, maybe my grandfather would, just fall asleep all the time?" Conmber clenched his fist nervously.

The doctor looked down and thought, "no, I'll wake up, but I'll be more sleepy than the average old man."

Conmobei was so happy that he could at least make his grandfather take a look at his great grandson and granddaughter.

"But I'm not sure," the doctor said solemnly, "it's possible to wake up and leave in a dream."

Kangmobei quietly pursed his lips and raised his eyes. A solemn topic finally came out: "if you leave in your sleep, you won't be in pain, will you?"

The doctor shook his head: "there is still a sense of suffocation, but the body will not have any reaction."

"Well," he asked. At last, as if he didn't ask, "I want to make my grandfather comfortable and leave the world. Before I leave, let my grandfather have a look at his two great grandchildren. Can I do that?"

.....

Bai nianxi brings Luoluo and LeLe to the ward. In addition to the silent Kang Xinyue, no one comes in for a long time.

Half an hour later, kangmobei, who was squatting outside, stood up and walked into the ward. He fell over to his grandfather. After taking a look at Lolo and Lele, he said with a smile, "grandfather, you can have a look at Lolo and LeLe right away."

A few minutes later, the doctor was pushing a cart full of medical equipment and medicine.

"Mobei, who are you?" Kang Xinyue asked.

"I want grandfather to have a look at Lolo and LeLe for the last time." Commo North Light Road.
