

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 372

Mu Liancheng suffered from chest pain. The way he didn't want to use was finally used in front of the Kang family. For the Kang family, who had just died, this method was undoubtedly shooting at their hearts.

Seeing Kang Liqing crying over his chest, Mu Liancheng and Mu Sili subconsciously want to step forward. The next second, they realize that they are not qualified to be miserable.

Kangmobei tries to pacify his father's chest and help him breathe, but kangliqing's dyspnea becomes more and more serious. Kangmobei tightens his brows and quickly greets the people around him to help send his father to the hospital.

Mu Rushuang was puzzled about the sudden change for a moment. She still didn't realize her mistake. She was convinced that she didn't think she was wrong. She was just a prank, but she was unlucky. She spent a week in custody for no reason.

Kangmobei clenches kangliqing's hand and takes kangliqing to the hospital nearby. Kangliqing is only one of the witness stands. His absence does not affect the trial, so the trial continues.

The doctor urgently provided kangliqing with artificial oxygen. When kangliqing's breath calmed down, a nurse injected several drug injections into kangliqing. Kangmobei saw that the indicators on the blood pressure detector were falling.

"The patient suffered from sudden high blood pressure due to stimulation, and his heart function was not very good. It is suggested that he should be hospitalized for observation in the near future, and pay attention not to make the patient excited again." The doctor took the stethoscope out of his ear and said faintly to Commodore.

"When the sedative works, just wait for the patient to wake up naturally." The nurse picked up the injection and said to conumber.

"Thank you." With a polite voice, conumber realized that he had been holding his father's hand for a long time.

Release the hand that clenches father's arm, Kang Mobei suddenly has a sense of loneliness that he is about to lose. He raises his eyes and now sleeps peacefully. However, his father looks very different from his father who was just excited and angry. His father now looks calm.

"Hello, nianxi. My father has high blood pressure. I can't go back at noon." Kangmo North dials Bai nianxi's phone and says slowly to Bai nianxi on the other end of the phone, with no emotion.

Bai nianxi, surprised by the unexpected words, immediately asked in a calm tone, "is it ok now?"

"Well, dad is sleeping now." Kang Mobei's eyes have been looking at Kang Liqing's face.

"I see. I'll take Lolo and LeLe with me in a moment, and lunch." Bai nianxi raises a shallow smile at the corner of his mouth, which is too shallow to be noticed.

The court, because of the inhuman defense statements of the lawyers employed by the Mu family, fell into a fierce debate.

Kang's lawyers constantly stressed that the pain of pulmonary fibrosis and mu Rushuang were the main culprits of Kang's pulmonary fibrosis. They chose to give up treatment because they did not want him to suffer.

However, the lawyer of Mu family has been holding on to the real cause of death, which is regarded as mu Rushuang's escape from the crime. The more fierce the argument is, the more guilty and uneasy Mu Sili and Mu Liancheng are. Mu Rushuang is impatient, and she only wants the result.

After the trial lasted for three hours, the judge announced the result of the trial - Mu won the lawsuit and mu Rushuang was exempted from prosecution.

Murushuang subconsciously smiles and looks back at her brother, hoping to meet her brother with a winning smile and eyes. However, murushuang only ushers in his eyes which are colder than ice cellar. Murushuang's smile first solidifies and then gradually dissipates.

The bailiff released mu Rushuang in court and untied her handcuffs. When he looked back, Mu Liancheng and Mu Sili had already left.

Mu Rushuang takes a taxi home alone. At the gate of the court, he surrounds the reporters waiting for the result of the trial. Seeing mu Rushuang come out, he quickly surrounds her.

"Miss murushuang! Are you satisfied with the result of the trial? "

"Is mania real? Or is it the usual way to get rid of crime? "

"Miss murushuang! Lord Kang has just passed away! Your defense lawyer uses the cause of death as the defense reason, which is undoubtedly stabbing Kang's chest! Mu family and Kang family are likely to break up because of this! Is there anything you want to say? "

.....

"Get out of here!" Mu Rushuang's impatient roar showed his manic nature. He was stunned by the roar. Shen'er's reporters were stupefied for three seconds. Mu Rushuang's face was very blue. He called for a taxi to stop and quickly got in.

Mu Sili and Mu Liancheng, looking like enemies, sit in the living room of Mu family in silence, thinking about the problems they will face next.

This is a complete offense to the Kang family. The Kang family is not even willing to write a letter of understanding. What's more, how can they be forgiven for stabbing them in the chest at this time

"Dad, I'll go to the hospital and see Uncle Kang." Moussili said in a low voice.

"To fight? Hum Mu Liancheng hummed coldly. Although Mu family was not afraid of Kang family, he still had self-knowledge in his heart, although he was really sorry.

"Then call them. We are sorry..."

"Shut up Mu Liancheng said, "I'm sorry, but I can't help it. If they didn't want to kill Rushuang, we wouldn't use such a defense, Rushuang?" Musi looked up at the gate and said, "I should be back soon."

"Hum," Mu Liancheng angrily stood up and walked towards the study, while he told Mu Sili, "when she comes back, you can watch her for me, and you are not allowed to leave the house!"

"Yes, Dad." Musi should be separated.

Mu Rushuang is sitting in a taxi. The taxi driver seems to be in a good mood. All the way, he is blowing a tune with his mouth. When he listens to Mu Rushuang, he is upset.

"Can you shut up? It's awful! " Mu Rushun said impatiently.

Surprised, the driver suddenly stopped whistling, and then from time to time with the inverted mirror, secretly observed Mu Rusheng.

Mu Rushuang got out of the car at the door of Mu's house. The driver saw that the house was familiar. He tried to recall why he was so familiar. After a long time, he remembered that the coarse woman who had lost her legs was mu Rushuang.

"Hum, rich second generation." The driver scorned and drove away.

Shen Shimo recovered from general anesthesia. He had two artificial teeth planted in his front teeth. He had several incisions because of the operation, but he couldn't feel the pain. Maybe the doctor gave him an injection to relieve the pain.

"Young master, are you awake?" One side guards under the hand surprise to open a way.

Silence when a mouth, it is a severe cough.

"Cough, cough!"

"Oh, sir, slow down! Don't break the wound

Silent cold face, throat pain really uncomfortable: "throat also do surgery?"

His hands shook his head: "should be gas anesthesia to intubate even gas tube, rest two days do not hurt."

"Well." Shen Shimo opened his clothes, and there was a knife edge in his abdomen.

"That Here comes the lady, and I'll call her in

"Here comes my mother?" Shen Shimo was surprised, "isn't she in America?"
