

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 383

Bai nianxi drinks a glass of water in the empty living room to calm down. As she puts down the glass, there is a vibration from her mobile phone.

Yu Feixue is very abide by the spirit of the contract, which is less than half an hour, Yu Feixue sent the video.

After a cursory look at the video, Bai nianxi subconsciously gives a wry smile and surmises Yu Feixue's inner injury.

I hope you will abide by the agreement.]

Bai nianxi, a new text message from Yu Feixue, only faintly answers the word "um", and then presses the phone to turn off the screen and plugs it into his pocket.

Conmobei came down from the second floor with a cautious look on his face.

"Are you all right?" Asked commo, who was very close to the north.

Bai nianxi shook his head: "Yu Feixue said that she will testify in court. Your ex fiancée will be in prison soon."

The word "ex fiancée" almost choked him without drinking water.

"Jealous?" Asked conmobeir cautiously.

Bai nianxi slightly half closed his eyes: "eating this kind of vinegar shows that I don't trust you, so are you sure to ask like this?"

"No, no, don't ask," said Kang Mobei, who sat down beside Bai nianxi. He actually had a question that had already been answered. He just wanted to hear the answer from Bai nianxi himself. "That day, after mu Rushun was released in court, you immediately sued mu Rushun. Why are you so persistent? Is it because of your grandfather?"

Bai nianxi was stunned for half a second, then he immediately dropped his head slightly and said with a bitter smile:

"I always think that if I hadn't been in the hospital that day, mu Rushun wouldn't have appeared in the hospital. If it hadn't been for me, Mu Rushun wouldn't have done such childish behavior. However, her behavior made the old master use his life as a price. I I feel very guilty, so I don't do anything. I always feel sorry for the old man. "

"Ah..." Kangmobei suddenly looked up and looked at the empty ceiling. "I'm sorry, I thought of this. I don't have to blame myself. It has nothing to do with you. Originally, my grandfather could live longer. I didn't want to make him too painful, so I chose to give up treatment."

"You did the right thing." Bai nianxi continued to hang his head, face expressionless, fists, but continued to grip.

"The spirit of grandfather in heaven, will be very happy, because to see you do this for him, good, nianxi." Kangmobei raises his hand and holds Bai nianxi's shoulder tightly.

Bai nianxi leaned against Kang Mobei's shoulder and sighed heavily.

Half a month later, the court heard again.

Yu's father was the first to appear in court.

Facing the lawyer's inquiry, Yu's father stated Yu Feixue's "crime" according to the script. Yu's appearance in court instantly turned the situation around. The prosecutor who won the first trial always frowned because he felt great pressure.

"Witness Yu Feixue appeared in court."

After leaving home that day, Yu Feixue voluntarily turned himself in. The half month's detention was really hard. Yu Feixue, who appeared in court, was haggard.

Seeing Yu Feixue appear in court, mu Rushuang looks forward to Yu Feixue's "truthful" confession so that she can get out of prison.

"Ms. Yu Feixue, 15 days ago, you turned yourself in to the public security organ and truthfully confessed your conspiracy with the defendant mu Rushuang, didn't you?" The prosecutor asked with a blank face.

After carefully listening to the prosecutor's question, moussili immediately frowned - conspiracy? Didn't you say it was abetting?

"What you say, Mr. prosecutor, is the truth." Yu Feixue looks at the prosecutor firmly.

The prosecutor looked through the document: "on the afternoon of April 29, Ms. Yu Feixue took the initiative to come to the public security organ and made a statement. According to the statement, Ms. Yu Feixue admitted that three days before the crime, mu Rushuang offered to retaliate against Ms. Bai nianxi. She immediately said it was feasible. Three days later, Ms. Bai nianxi suffered a serious car accident."

After a pause, the prosecutor continued:

"although the traffic accident did not cause Ms. Bai nianxi to be seriously injured, the direct reason for Ms. Bai nianxi's not being injured was Mr. Kang Mobei's desperate protection. According to the hospital's examination and identification report, Mr. Kang Mobei's protection behavior led to comminuted fracture of his right leg, fracture of his right upper three ribs, and serious internal fixation According to the appraisal report provided by the hospital, Mr. Kang Mobei meets the requirements of 5.9.3 of the standard for the appraisal of the degree of human injury, grade I of minor injury, comminuted fracture of long bone of limbs or two or more fractures, and grade II of severe injury, grade II of 5.9.2, ankylosis or functional loss of any major joint of four limbs, which is more than 50% Because the criminal act instigated by the defendant mu Rushuang was seriously infringed, the procuratorate held that the defendant mu Rushuang should be sentenced to 10 years' imprisonment according to law for his criminal act. "

"In addition, after being brought to justice, Ms. mu Rushuang pleaded guilty with a bad attitude and showed no remorse, so she was given a heavier punishment according to law." The prosecutor made a long list of statements at one go.

"Mr. judge!" Mu Rushuang's defense lawyer raised his hand to express his objection.

The judge reached for him to speak.

"What Mr. prosecutor stated has been stated in the first trial. Now the focus of the second trial lies in the determination of the mastermind who abetted the crime," the lawyer looked at Yu Feixue, "Ms. Yu Feixue, you said you personally surrendered and truthfully confessed the crime, but your testimony is false! Is the so-called conspiracy mentioned by Ms. mu Rushuang and Ms. Yu Feixue true? "Mu Rushuang understood the lawyer's meaning and shook his head: "no, she lied! I didn't mention to retaliate against Bai nianxi at all. She has been lobbying me to find someone to hurt Bai nianxi secretly. I was just confused at the instigation of her! "

Yu Feixue looks at the play with a sneer and thinks that no matter how to act, you will die.

"Your honor The prosecutor stood up again in accordance with the order of the debate, and said harshly, "yesterday, the procuratorate added a new piece of evidence, which can directly prove that Ms. Yu Feixue's testimony is true, and now apply for broadcasting in court."

"Approved." The judge signaled the bailiff to turn on the multimedia and play the evidence video.

[dad, you have made up your mind to accept a hundred million yuan from Mu family and let me take the blame for mu Rushuang?]

[Feixue, the Mu family made a fortune by means of ruthless capitalist ideas. Although the Yu family is related to them, they can only be cannon fodder when a disaster comes. They can't even struggle. Don't blame Dad]

[money, do you receive it?]

[yes, Feixue, I asked the lawyer. What musili said is right. You will be in prison for three years at most. With the 100 million yuan in our family, your brother will run the company well. After you come out, your family will support you for life!]

[I'd like to check the transfer record and confirm that the money has arrived. I'll turn myself in myself.]

"Wow!! Mujiacai is very generous

"My God? A hundred million to blame Yu Feixue? "

After a few minutes of the video, the court was in an uproar.

Taking advantage of the noise, the prosecutor glared angrily with cold eyes, and then said in a loud voice: "your honor! The video clearly shows the transfer record that Yu's family received a hundred million yuan from Mu's family! This is more direct proof that the defendant mu Rushuang is from the heart and has no repentance
