

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 392

If you look around the left and right rings, there are still woods about 10 meters on the left and right sides, so the buildings on the ground decades ago should be deliberately selected in the secret forest.

The collapsed arched entrance seems to go deeper and lower. After seeing the outline of the building from the outside, Musi has no courage to enter.

"Musili!"

In the seclusion, the echoes of ethereal shouts reverberate in the middle of the forest, which makes Mu Sili feel even more withdrawn. At the same time, reason is gradually coming down the line He is aware that his mood seems to be turning into an angry child. The grievance that he had no choice in the past is driving this mood to grow stronger

In the end, this childish spirit got the upper hand. Mousse turned away from him and went in through the arched entrance. The next second, he took out a lighter from his pocket and lit the candle.

"Musili!"

After entering the building leading to the underground, the voice of calling his name forms a more ethereal echo in the underground building. The repeated echo makes Musi Li think that he has heard the illusion.

On the ground, there are air dried animal carcasses almost every few steps, some of which are dried with feathers of seabirds, some of which are white bones of mice, some of which are covered with white rabbit fur, and even some of which are huge wild boars. The dried meat is black and red, which makes the bones white ...

"Musili! Where are you? " Bai nianxi has summoned up the courage to get into the dense forest. However, every step forward, she loses one point in her courage to continue to search. Standing in the same place, she feels the fear brought by the strange cold, but she is afraid that something will happen when Musi leaves. She feels that she has no choice but to continue to look

When his courage was about to run out, Bai nianxi stood at the broken arched entrance.

"No Are you in? " I dare not go in even if I'm killed. Besides, it's a person! This is Bai nianxi's true thought.

Mousse walked about 12 meters from the inside and found that the underground building should be an air raid shelter. It was obvious that the winding passage structure of the air raid shelter. The light of the candle was not enough for mousse to judge how long the air raid shelter was, unless he went to the end.

He stopped walking forward, thinking that every corner of the scene seems to be almost the same, Musi left slowly turned and walked towards the entrance.

"Musili! Are you in there? Can you answer me? " Bai nianxi cries out anxiously, hoping that if Musi Li is in it, Musi Li can hear it.

Mousse could see the light of the entrance. When he was about 10 meters away from the entrance, he heard the cry again.

"Air raid shelter, sound insulation is good..." Mu Sili muttered to himself, guessing that he didn't hear the urgent cry just now, maybe because he went too far.

"Nianxi." After drilling out of the air raid shelter, Mu Sili raised his eyes and looked at Bai nianxi with a faint smile.

Bai nianxi's time seems to have been slowed down. When she saw that musili really came out of the room, she didn't have time to breathe a sigh of relief. Her anger and anger took control of her mouth first:

"are you here to explore? Can you join others in exploration? What should one do in case of any danger? "

In the face of a series of angry accusations, moussili pretended to have a shallow bad smile:

"do you care about me?"

Bai nianxi didn't get angry. He was so worried about him: "yes! I care about you! No way? This is the prison island of the Korean War! Nobody's been here for decades! What if something dangerous hasn't been dealt with? Are you not afraid that something will happen to you? "

"Well," moussili put away his smile, and his expression gradually returned to seriousness. "I haven't told you why I came this time. Do you want to listen?"

Looking at Mu Sili's gradually serious expression, Bai nianxi's mind also gradually rises different from just now. Just now, he was afraid of the unknown, but now I'm afraid of him. His expression seems to tell me that he has changed

"Silence is acquiescence?" So far, there was no smile on Musi Li's face. "In fact, what I said in the afternoon was not a joke. I was born in a position opposite to you. What do you want me to choose? So, I'm sorry. "

"You..." Bai nianxi's fear surged into her heart. She could not help but stagger back two steps.

"Ah, my family name is mu, so my position can only be mu family. I have no choice. So you are so cruel to my sister. What kind of position should I take? Can you understand?" As he spoke, there was an imperceptible pain and struggle on his face.

Bai nianxi was too frightened to speak: "you Don't do stupid things. "

"It's not stupid, it's just that I have no choice but to be right. Anyway, I'm sorry!"

After that, Musi quickly and forcefully grabs Bai nianxi and drags Bai nianxi to the air raid shelter.

"Help In the face of a man without hesitation, Bai nianxi's struggle has no effect. Mu Sili's dragging makes Bai nianxi's arms scratched by the broken wall, and the dense scratches begin to ooze blood.

The reason why he didn't have time to feel the pain came from the darkness in the air raid shelter. Bai nianxi was a little afraid of the darkness. What's more, now that he was imprisoned, he was still on a desert island with no sign of activity for decades!

"Help! Mousse leave you, let me go Bai nianxi pulled her throat and screamed for help.

However, mousse turned a deaf ear at all, and didn't even have the idea to cover her nose and mouth. It has been confirmed just now that this air raid shelter has a good sound insulation effect.

I thought the building length of this air raid shelter was only about 40 meters. Just now, Musi Li didn't come to the end. Unexpectedly, the depth of this air raid shelter was at least 60 meters. Musi Li couldn't judge which direction of the desert island was above the end of the air raid shelter.

"Hoo Such a long distance of drag, let Musi from also feel a bit tired, but it doesn't matter, a little big breath twice, rapid breathing can gradually calm down.

Bai nianxi's eyes are desperate. She looks at Mu Sili with desperate eyes. She looks at this Men who used to be nice to themselves Why is it like this

"Don't look at me, it's useless, unless I have another choice, unless at the beginning Don't let Shen Hedan save me from prison. Hehe, it's too late to say anything now. Do you regret it? Regret letting me go? " Musi Li sneers, takes off his coat and tears it into coarse strips to bind Bai nianxi.
