

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 404

The next day, before Shen Shimo came to the office specially set up in China, Musili seemed to have been waiting here.

"Oh, what brings you here?" When Shen Shimo saw Mu Sili, he was very surprised. Then he asked with interest.

Mu Sili raises his eyes. His scarlet eyes seem to tell Shen Shimo that he hasn't slept all night. At first sight, Shen Shimo is scared. Shen Shimo's first reaction is that Mu Sili comes to him with a deep hatred.

"Are you happy that Kang is down?" Musi Li asked with a sneer.

"Of course," Shen Shimo thought he had guessed the follow-up voice, "why, I'm afraid your Mu family will come to the same end as the Kang family?"

"No, my Mu family will not come to such an end," said Musi, looking up at Shen Shimo firmly. "Let's join hands and let the Kang family not only lose Kang's family, but also break it up."

When he was silent, he was startled. A few seconds later, he reflected his intention: "you Did you take the wrong medicine? My Wei family and your Mu family join hands? Hehe, you look too high on your family, don't you

"Putong" came from the sound of Musi Li kneeling in silence without hesitation.

"Oh, I'm not dead yet. Are you cursing me with such a big gift?" He stepped away in silence and exaggeration, his face full of displeasure.

Musi left kneeling in the same place, saw Shen Shimo move away, still motionless, continued: "the Kang family has Bai nianxi, can make a comeback at any time, Bai nianxi is Shen Hedan's sister, you are not afraid of this good play, director Bai?"

"....." Shen Shimo thinks it's reasonable, but he doesn't want to admit it, "so what? How can we fight Wei family for several rounds? Hum, I don't even care about Shen Hedan, let alone your family. "

"As long as my status is stable and my sister can get out of prison, as long as you speak, I don't want any reward. I'll listen to you for what you say and what I do." Mu Sili slowly explained his thoughts.

Shen Shimo looked at Musili like a clown: "you do what I say, don't you? Then listen to the barking of a dog. It must be standard. "

"....." Musili was surrounded by a huge sense of humiliation in his heart. He struggled for a few seconds to suppress his anger. Musili decisively barked, "woof, woof, woof

"Ha ha ha ha ha!" Shen Shimo was very happy. Around him, a royal lawyer and secretary, as well as the security guard at the door, couldn't help laughing.

After laughing, the lawyer came to Shen Shimo's ear with a funny face and whispered, "his sister has been sentenced to ten years' imprisonment. She has no chance to appeal, so she can only go to prison honestly."

"Oh," Shen Shimo nodded to show his understanding. Looking at Mu Sili in front of him, Shen Shimo never realized that business war could be so interesting. He asked the lawyer casually, "that is, there is no way to get his sister out of prison?"

After thinking for a while, the lawyer mysteriously came to Shen Shimo's ear: "yes."

"Tut Tut, it's more interesting." Shen Shimo raised his hand and asked the lawyer to step aside.

Let Mu family helpless things, his royal lawyer said there is a way, the fun instantly doubled.

Mu Sili knelt down with his head down and his fists clenched tightly. He was thinking that if Shen Shimeimei agreed to join hands, it would be better. If Shen Shimeimei was only teasing himself, then even if the Mu family could not defeat the Wei family, he would solve it with his fists.

"Well, get up. It's cold on the ground." Shen Shimo goes around to the back of his desk, sits on the boss's chair and turns it. Shen Shimo looks at the scenery outside the French window, and glances at Musili.

"You agreed to join hands?" Mousse stood up with no expression on his face and asked in silence.

"Well, that's right," Shen Shimo said as he pondered. "Our Wei family's headquarters are in the United States, and there has been no suitable foothold in China. Therefore, I have two conditions: first, the Wei family will make a round of investment in your Mu family, and let out 50% of your Mu family's shares as our Wei family's foothold in city a; second, what the lawyer next to me asked you to do in the future, You have to obey unconditionally. "

Mu Sili raised his eyes and looked at the lawyer who whispered to him. Although he whispered just now, Mu Sili didn't hear what he said.

The lawyer's face was also flattered. Moussili secretly thought about the meaning of this condition. Lawyer Nature has something to do with the law. Isn't it In the future, the lawyer will order him to do all the illegal things?

If so, of course, he can not easily agree.

"Lawyer song, tell him what you just said." Silent play with fingers, a face relaxed said.

Lawyer song hesitated for a moment. After organizing the language, he said cautiously: "your sister, there is a way to save her. You can use it..."

"Wait a minute!" Silence interrupted the lawyer's follow-up voice in a cold voice. "The specific method is to wait until he agrees to the conditions. Are you stupid to recite the regulations? Can you just say it? "

"I promise you the terms." Hearing that his younger sister was saved, musili resolutely agreed to Shen Shimo's two conditions."Good!" Shen Shimo stood up and looked at Mu Sili with a smile of approval. Then he said to the lawyer, "go and draw up a cooperation agreement."

The lawyer nodded and left quickly.

Mu Sili was eager to know the way to save his sister, so he looked at Shen Shimo expectantly: "you tell me the specific method, otherwise I can't believe you."

"If you sign your name on the cooperation agreement, the lawyer will naturally tell you. I am a lawyer, but I am a top lawyer proficient in global law. Of course, you can go back and think about it. I'm not in a hurry." Shen Shimo said with a smile, hanging his appetite.

Still have to think carefully Mu Si left the dark road, so he got up in a hurry and left Shen Shimo's office.

The lawyer soon printed two copies of the proposed cooperation agreement and brought them into the office. Shen Shimo was not interested in looking at the content of the cooperation agreement. He just looked up at the lawyer and asked a more curious question:

"you just said there was a way to save his sister? What is the solution? "

The lawyer looked shy and serious, and said, "didn't musili break the law in South Korea a few days ago? I also watched the playback video of the trial. The debate was very exciting, mainly around..."

"Make a long story short!" Shen Shimo is impatient.

The lawyer nervously pushed his glasses: "it's the extradition treaty. You can use the extradition treaty to save his sister. It's a long story You see, if there is a criminal act in South Korea and all the evidence points to his sister, the South Korean side will definitely request the extradition of the suspect... "

"Even if the extradition is over, don't you still go to jail?" Shen Shimo still doesn't understand.
