

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 409

Conmobei didn't give a positive answer. If ICP certification can't be approved, the game business can't be launched.

Just in time, Bai nianxi called.

"Hello?" Conmber picked up the phone.

Bai nianxi: "from today on, Lumi island will be handed over to you. Qianqiu is under a lot of pressure. I can't distract myself from dealing with Lumi island."

"Well, the new Kangshi group is announced to be established today. What Shen Shimo wants to do is to rush me." In his eyes, Shen Shimo was never a threat.

"....." Bai nianxi stopped. At the moment of commercial attack, conmobei announced the establishment of new Conrad, which is not a good thing for the new company. It is likely to be strangled in the cradle because it can't bear the attack. "Don't worry, I'll announce it when I deal with it."

"No, just today, the reporters will be here soon. Don't worry, I can." Everything is not a problem.

[this legal game is very beautiful. What do you want to do? Please do it again in 10 days. Otherwise, even if Mu Rushun escapes to the ends of the earth, she will not have a safe life one day.]

the most fundamental solution is for people. After sending a short message to musi, commobei instructs the staff to continue to do what they can, put the second batch of M + game equipment into production, and then go home to wait.

In the evening, Kang Xinyue prepared a table for dinner, but after six o'clock in the evening, Kang Mobei and Bai nianxi still didn't come back. It seems that they are very busy outside.

The two elders of the Kang family, who are used to having dinner with a large family, naturally wait for the two who should come back to eat together.

"Lele, it's called Gu Nai ~" Kang Xinyue teases Lele in her arms. After taking Lele for a long time, Kang Xinyue will feel tired, but Lele is too pleasant. Kang Xinyue's heart is full of this little baby.

"Let's take Lele to sleep in the room. She didn't sleep much in the afternoon." Kang Liqing looked at the newspaper and looked up at Kang Xinyue.

"Well, I see." Kang Xinyue's eyes are full of love for lovely Lele. He coaxes her and goes upstairs.

Soon, the two people who should have come back finally came back, and it was already 7 p.m. kangmobei's face was as usual, while Bai nianxi's face was tired.

"Come back, eat." Kangliqing put away the newspaper and told the servants to heat up the meal.

"You haven't eaten yet?" Kang Mo North asked casually, because at this time, Kang Li Qing and Kang Xin Yue should have eaten for a long time.

"Wait for you." Kang Xinyue replied casually and continued to eat with chopsticks.

Kang Li Qing took a look at Kang Mo North: "how, should be nothing?"

Although I don't know what happened, Bai nianxi's tired face clearly says that today's workload is a little big.

Conmber shook his head: "it's OK, it's all dealt with." - moussili received a text message from commo north. Although he didn't take the initiative to do those business attacks, he didn't intend to raise objection to the orders and actions of Shen Shimo, and of course, he was not qualified to block his actions.

Seeing the threatening text message, mousse locked his brow.

Although the 50% equity of Mu Shi has fallen into the hands of Shen Shimei, Mu Liancheng is still sitting in the position of president.

"Dad, the company has sent out a lot of lawyer's letters. For frost, you should withdraw them tomorrow." Musi left slightly bowed his head and said to his father without any confidence.

Mu Liancheng is very dissatisfied with Mu Sili's betrayal of Mu Shi. Now he doesn't even have a good face: "how, now not only can Shen Shimei ride on my head, but also you can give orders to me?"

"I don't mean that," said moussili, still drooping his head. "It's just that there are some agreements to abide by. You can withdraw them tomorrow. It's just that you do something for Rushuang."

“.....” Mu Liancheng glared at Mu Sili and said, "I know. Let's go out."

Musi looked up at Mu Liancheng, confirmed that his father should be under, then left his father's study.

The next day, as if in a dream, Bai nianxi received a message from the Secretary: all the lawsuits have been withdrawn, which was voluntarily withdrawn by the plaintiff.

You don't have to think about it. It should be what conumber did.

"Mu suddenly dropped all the lawsuits, you..." Bai nianxi calls kangmobei to inquire about the situation.

After hearing the speech, Kang Mobei was a little satisfied with his smile: "well, musili is quite obedient, but don't relax your vigilance. It's only temporary. Before long, they will make a comeback."

"How did you do that?" Bai nianxi is curious about this.

"I just told him that I need ten days. If I'm not satisfied, I will fight back. Once I fight back, it's his pain, so Well That woman's name, Kang Mo North doesn't want to mention, also don't want to let Bai Nian Xi hear from oneself.

Bai nianxi thinks silently about what is the biggest pain of musili. Soon he thinks of Mu Rushan and praises kangmobei. He does things cleanly and straightforwardly. Bai nianxi suddenly has a strong curiosity about the future of Lumi island. He is curious about what Lumi island will be like under the management of kangmobei."Well, see you in the evening. Work hard." Bai nianxi said with a smile.

"Don't be too tired. If you're tired, leave it to me." Kangmobei still loves Bai nianxi's tired face last night, which he doesn't want to see.

"I'm fine. I'm doing what I like to do. Hang up." Bai nianxi responded easily and hung up.

Looking up, Ji Zhiye seems to have been waiting outside the office for a long time. After seeing her hang up, Ji Zhiye dares to disturb her and knocks on the door that has not been closed.

"Is it about shooting? Will South Korea allow us to continue shooting? " Bai nianxi is very concerned about this film, because this film is not shown on the upper court line, but after shooting, it is given to komobei.

Ji couldn't see much on his face, but he didn't smile: "South Korea allows us to continue shooting near Juji Island, as long as the venue fee is in place, it's just..."

"It's just that the site was destroyed by the explosion, so we need to rebuild it." Bai nianxi guessed his intention.

Ji Zhiye bowed his head and acquiesced.

This film, twists and turns, encountered a lot of obstacles, but Bai nianxi always felt that this is a good thing.

A rough mental calculation shows that tens of millions of dollars have been wasted before the film is finished. Although Bai nianxi cares a little, he still has to go on.

"The funds will be in place. Next, we will strengthen the security and employ more strictly." White read Xi light way.

Ji Zhiye was grateful, but he didn't dare to put on a happy expression: "I'll do it well. Thank you, Mr. Bai."
