

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 412

"You see, you have done so many things, and the result is that you are blind." Wei Xia is not very angry. Seeing the mess in the living room caused by silent venting, she has nothing to say in her heart.

"....." He snorted his heavy breath in silence and impatience.

"It's really good-looking. Not only didn't hit kangmobei, but also achieved him. Ha ha, you really make me look at the Wei family's industry with new eyes. I dare not give it to you. If you go on so rashly." Wei Xia expressed her disappointment to Shen Shimo.

"You wait and see, Commodore is only good for mud under my feet! Let me step on it When the silence refuses to accept a, then rub of get up, leave the living room.

Anger accumulated in the chest, coupled with the mother even accused, the heart of depression and anger need to vent.

The first thing I think of is Musi Li.

"How come you haven't heard anything recently?" Shen Shimo is impatient with the mursal tone on the other end of the phone.

Moussili gave a wry smile: "you didn't give any instructions."

"Oh, don't forget, you are my dog. The dog should know what the master is thinking, and then act consciously. Are you wood? A kick? " He said fiercely in silence.

"....." Musi from the sullen gradually accumulated, "what do you want me to do."

"Lumi island! Even if you blow up Lumi island! I don't want to see the news of Lumi island again He growled in silence.

"Real or fake?" Musili thought he was joking, which is not something that can be said casually.

"Are you teasing me? "Ah?" The voice of the silent and angry shout is a little bit louder, "or the conumber falls down! Or Lumi Island blew up! "

Shen Shimei fell off his cell phone heavily, and lay on his back in bed, his chest heaving with anger.

The next day, in the sales hall of Lumi island's office buildings and apartments, a luxurious sand table model was placed in the center.

Because the recent performance of kangmobei is too bright, Lumi Island, a small and remote place, has also attracted a large number of home buyers.

Hello, sir. Do you want to buy an office or an apartment

"How much is the flat now?"

"It depends on the floor. The average price of the low floor is 15000, and that of the high floor is less than 20000."

"Tut, it seems that this side will become a new city. Can you have a look at the model houses?"

"Yes."

The sales lady took the prospective owner to the apartment building not far away. But before she took ten steps, there was a violent explosion behind her.

The explosion was not made in one place. Even the sales center of the office building across the road broke out a wave of distorted air. A second later, smoke and dust rolled in.

"Ah!!! It's exploding

A large number of future property owners who came to buy their own homes were scared by the unexpected situation.

Only a few security guards were at a loss. When they reacted, they could only see the black smoke coming out of the sales center.

"What? "Explosion?" Conmobei was still at home. When he received the call, it was about ten minutes after the incident.

By the time he arrived at the scene, two fire engines had sprayed the sales center with foam in a mess, and 120 ambulances had arrived, ready to take the injured to the hospital.

Fortunately, no serious consequences happened. After learning that the injured people were only skin injuries, he was secretly relieved.

At the same time, he also guessed that no one else could do this vicious hand and foot except silence.

The counterattack must be aimed at Mu Shi, the foothold of Shen Shimo in a city.

Calm face back to the office building, commobei quickly transferred all the available funds into the stock account, did not see how much money a share of Mu's stock is now, and immediately took a large position.

A few days later, even if the loss is a little, commobei did not hesitate to withdraw all the funds. After the sudden position of Mu's stock was suddenly sold, commobei's public relations team quickly organized the stock instructor to release the shareholding suggestions for Mu's group.

[there are too many uncertain factors in Mu's stock, and its recent performance is ups and downs, so it is recommended to wait and see.]

mild words, however, directly point to the confidence of all investors in the stock of Mu Shi. The investors have chosen to wait and see and sell their stocks while they are high. The stock of Mu Shi has ushered in the beginning of a slump.

Mu Liancheng feels very puzzled. I don't know what happened to Mu Liancheng. As Mu's stock trend continues to soar, the soaring market value drops by more than 3% every day.

"Is it revenge?" This is what Mu Liancheng thought of in his first reaction.

After all, Shen Shimei and kangmobei don't deal with each other. They attack each other secretly. Naturally, kangmobei's counterattack is on Mu Shi.

Mu Liancheng, angry that Shen Shimo didn't say hello to himself, angrily went home and asked Mu Sili:

"did you partner with Shen Shimo again?"

Mu Sili felt that he was being torn in the opposite direction by the two pulling forces. He was about to be torn to pieces. Mu Sili didn't know how to answer his father's question "I don't know."

"I don't know? Did you do anything to conmbert? " Mu Liancheng didn't believe him.

"Don't you watch the news?" Mousse kept his head down and didn't look at his father's face. He wasn't interested in it and didn't have much confidence in it.

Mu Liancheng is so angry that he can't find the answer he wants. He can only turn on his mobile phone to look through it. Only then can he see the latest news about kangmobei, which is that his Lumi Island property is suspected to have been maliciously exploded.

"You Can you do such a thing? " Mu Liancheng was so surprised that his voice stuttered, "such a childish and short-sighted thing, can you do it?"

"Ha ha, yes, I did it," said moussili. He had no patience any longer. All parties were willing to please him. "Shen Shimo told me to do it..."

"Even so! Even if you do! Can you tell me? " Mu Liancheng said angrily, "I'm not even ready to deal with it! Are we children's toys? No maintenance! "

"I'll tell you next time." Mousse is tired. After feeling tired, his IQ is offline and his reaction is slow. In other words, he wants to escape from this situation.

"Ah! You're so sweet

"Can you stop blaming me? Shen Shimo threatens me with his sister's safety. What can I do? I'm tired. I didn't expect the consequences for a while, so I didn't say it. Besides, I don't have any choice. Otherwise, you should bear all the pressure. I'm really tired. I'm going crazy. " Moussili looked up at his father with despair and sadness in his eyes.

I've never seen my son put on such a look. Mu Liancheng's anger seems to have met a fire extinguisher, and the fire is gradually extinguished.
