

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 431

"Released?" Shen Hedan was surprised. On the other end of the phone, it's Kang Mo Bei.

"Well, you can do it as agreed." Kangmo North light a, mention moussili want things.

Shen Hedan gave a deep smile: "so, do you also think that Musi is trustworthy?"

"No, after all, I can be released, thanks to musili, and there are strange places. In a word, you promised to invest in musili. First tell him, so that he can safely implement it. As for the strange places, I'll tell you after I check." Conmobei said that and hung up.

The strange thing about commobei is why musili has a recording.

Who can immediately respond to the sudden occurrence of an emergency by recording or video? Conmobei feels very strange, unless there is something listening on Musi all the time.

Shen Hedan thinks to himself what the meaning of kangmobei is. However, since kangmobei is relaxed, he also urgently needs to establish a solid foundation in a city, and it is a good choice to support the Mu family after the golden cicada's shelling.

Mu Sili was invited to Shen Hedan's office. Shen didn't talk much nonsense and said frankly, "I've heard about kangmobei, but what I want to say has nothing to do with it."

After a pause, Shen Hedan continued: "the things I promised you before, and the things I invested to help your Mu family rise again, I plan to invest to you now, one billion, is that enough?"

The good news came a little fast, and mousse didn't know what to say for a moment.

Billion, although much smaller than the original scale of mu, but as a start-up capital, it is already a huge sum of money.

Mousse nodded and accepted the offer.

"I only need 30% of Mu's equity, and the remaining 70% is in your Mu family's hands. This is the only condition. I will not interfere with your business planning." Shen Hedan added slowly.

It's reasonable that musili is silent from beginning to end and only nods in response.

It's sunny, the sky is high and the clouds are white.

Standing on the side of the road, mousse got through.

"Dad, I've raised 1 billion yuan. If you have a plan, you can carry it out." As long as Mu's return to the mall, Mu Sili's heart will be settled.

"Really? Great, "Mulian city was very happy on the other end of the phone." well, I plan to start over in the United States. There are many things to do. Sili, you should pay attention to safety. "

Father's concern, moussili nodded in response: "you too, I hung up."

"Well Well Mu Liancheng wants to talk but stops, and finally he doesn't say much.

A month later, in a helicopter airfield in which country or region even moussili did not know, moussili followed Shen Shimei and landed.

"Take it." Shen Shimei wears sunglasses and looks up at the dazzling sun.

Mu Sili raises his hand. Shen Shimo delivers a document bag, which contains passport, ID card and all kinds of identification materials.

According to the information, he is a Thai.

"After you get on the ship, you must not take off the respirator. Find the location of the Fuehrer on the ship, release the medicine and run away immediately. Remember?"
Silent when silent face expressionless exhort way.

Mousse was very nervous from his heart. He didn't think he would really do it.

"Well, let's go. Don't think about it any more. Here, a little flaw will affect your life safety."

When he finally said that, he left Musi.

The two black people who followed were not polite to Moussili. After they left in silence, the two black people pushed Moussili to an unknown place.

Cruise ship, no external ticketing, Moussili from a cleaner dress, was pushed on the cruise ship by two black.

It's very empty and there are not many people on it, but the people we often see are either the crew on the ship or the security guard of some big man, wearing a straight black suit.

After finding the position of the Fuehrer, release the potion and go Musi murmured the words that Shen Shimo told him.

"Well

"Shh

All of a sudden, Musi Li's mouth was hard covered, and there was a tingling in his back neck. When the tingling came to an end, all his strength was drained.

Let the people behind him hold himself into the bottom of the cruise ship. Musi Li tries to dispel the blurred vision and shakes his head. He sees someone standing in front of him.

Someone holding a sharp blade, cold face with a blade, seems to cut the back of Musili's ear, hands up and down, two implanted objects were taken out.

"You..."

"Shh..."

Como north? Moussili was surprised and surprised.

Commobei coldly put the microphone and tracker implanted in Moussili's body into the compartment carefully, and confirmed that the conversation would not be eavesdropped again. Commobei spoke:

"do you think you are being monitored, but we didn't find out? Just like being used by others? Are you stupid, too? ""You Why are you here? " Musili's doubts are in urgent need of answers.

Connobei twitched helplessly and sneered: "your performance is very strange from the beginning to the end. If you eavesdrop reversely, you will know that you will be here."

"....." Musi was unable to speak, and subconsciously remembered that he had done something stupid, as if he should not intervene to help connobei get rid of the lawsuit, otherwise it would not be I was followed here.

A sound of electricity came from the receiver: "Musi Li? What happened? "

Moussili quickly got into the compartment where the eavesdropper was located, and replied in a low voice, "no, No

Hearing the voice of silence in the receiver, Musi subconsciously showed that nothing happened: "I tripped just now. It's OK. It's very smooth."

"Well, make a quick decision." When Shen Shimo said that, the sound of electric current in the receiver suddenly stopped.

Close the compartment carefully, and muse returns to the front of commobei. He can say that commobei is following him, but he doesn't know why. Subconsciously, he chooses to hide.

"I'm surprised you tried to kill me." Connobei spoke again and said coldly to musili.

"What's the purpose of your following, and what is Shen Shimo doing?" Musili asked tentatively.

"Things between you and me need to be solved first," said connobei, not responding positively, but continuing his own voice. "Shen Hedan's investment in your Mu's billion is recommended by me. I didn't expect that you are still so persistent and have to go back."

Mousse was entangled in his heart and didn't know how to answer for a moment.

The sound of rustling came from outside, and connobei immediately raised his vigilance, his eyes staring at the entrance door.

"Sure enough, here they are. They killed both of them!"

At the same time, the door was kicked open by brute force. Five black suit thugs stared coldly at musili and kangmobei, showing their killing intention.
