Gao Shun brings people to the gate of Yao Mei's villa.

"Take down the door!"

"Yes

A crackle, luxurious wooden door into a broken wood, into the villa, more than ten people explore together, but check no one.

"Run away?" Gao Shun frowned.

Yao Mei has already been on the plane of traveling abroad with his ticket.

Looking at the white clouds outside the window, the sun is also very bright and dazzling. Yao Mei gently draws the curtain of the window and darkens around.

"Well, the good play is still waiting for you." Yao Mei said quietly.

Killed my son, want to be safe for the rest of my life? Dream, you, as long as I am alive, you will not be better. Yao Mei said in his heart.

Lumi Island, when all kinds of construction projects are coming to an end, the whole Lumi island also looks beautiful, and a series of buildings, with modern style, have a perfect integration of nature and modern.

The man-made river rippling around the island, a drama group from the capital, took a fancy to the scene here, and reached a cooperation agreement with the business unit of commobei in advance - they funded the construction of Lumi island's photography city, and commobei only provided a place of Lumi island to earn income.

Lota entertainment, with its own crew, artists, front and behind the scenes workers, is one of the largest entertainment companies in China.

After the completion of the construction of the photography city, Lota entertainment naturally sent its own crew to film in Lumi island.

"The next blast! Take your place

"Blasters must pay attention to the timing! Not a second

"Actor, do it again! Make sure it's safe! "

The shouting spread throughout the cast. Three popular male stars, Lin Ze, Wen Guang and Zhuo Tian, signed by Letian, came to shoot the modern drama while the current popularity was booming.

The office building not far away from the photography city was suddenly surrounded by many people, and the discussion became louder.

"Wow! Run! It seems that these people are here to make trouble! "

"Run, run!"

"Wow, it's a hit!"

.....

Listening to the clamor, Meng Tongyuan, as a blaster, was suddenly attracted attention. He raised his eyes and looked not far away. He saw a group of people holding baseball bats and smashing whatever they saw.

"Blaster! what are you doing? Get ready to detonate! Hello, do you hear me

The director's roar came from the walkie talkie. The blaster quickly recovered and pressed the blasting button.

"boom! " In an instant, the fire was everywhere, and the sound of explosion shook the whole photography city.

"Ah!"

Lin Ze, Wen Guang and Zhuo Tian are still performing a fight according to the script. After the fight is over, they have to step on the time to escape from the abandoned building that is about to explode!

But the fight is not over! The whole building exploded instantly! Three male stars were engulfed by the fire! The air waves overturned them to the ground!

"The trough! What happened? How did the blaster detonate it? "

"Help me!! The stars are still in it! "

.....

Meng Tongyuan, the blaster, was stunned. The voice around him exploded instantly. After hearing the words like "save people", Meng Tongyuan suddenly found that he had made a big mistake?

The next second, Meng Tongyuan ran to the distance. He didn't know where he was going. He only knew he had to run!

"Er, what's the situation..." Wen Guang's whole body trembled and snapped on the cotton pad. He looked down and saw that his whole body was blacker than coke.

"Hiss, it's so hot Zhuo Tian? Are you ok? "

"....." Zhuo Tian seems to be in a coma. In the face of the inquiry, he lies on the cotton pad without any response.

Lin Ze's consciousness is very clear, and the pain on his body is faint and slow, but he still has the ability to move. He can stand up and walk around, although his legs are like coke, mixed with blood.

"Linze, don't move! Don't touch the wound Cried the assistant.

Lin Ze heard it, but he didn't want to listen. He just wanted to see what happened to his face, because just now, when he saw the light of the fire, he immediately fell into black and red, as well as the intense heat.

"And the mirror?" Linze asked stupidly.

Hearing this, the female assistant immediately burst into tears and hesitated. She handed the mirror to Lin Ze and then turned back in pain.

In the mirror, there was only one person with a dark face. He even lost his hair, eyebrows, eyelashes, and even the shallow beard he had no time to shave. Only his eyes were so clear.

"This Is that me Lin Ze Leng said.

"Mr. Kang! No! There are about 30 unidentified men in Lumi Island malicious smash! And wounded a lot of people! "

"What? What's the situation? " When conumber received the call, he couldn't respond to the situation for a moment."It seems that it was deliberately destroyed! Those people have smashed and run away! The wounded have been sent to the hospital! "

"OK, I see. Ask the head of the security team to follow up. We must give priority to the treatment of injuries. Other people should cooperate with the police investigation." Conumber calmly dropped the order and hung up.

As soon as he put down his cell phone, before komobei arrived, he told Bai nianxi, who was curious and waiting for the solution, that the door of the ward was rudely pushed open.

Shen Hedan trots into the ward and shoves his mobile phone in front of kangmobei.

"Something happened. There was an accident in Lumi island."

"According to the crew, the blaster ran away. I suspect it was an accident." Shen Hedan had already arranged people in a hurry and got inside information in various ways.

"Oh, so the smash up and this accident are two things. Well, I see." Conumber nodded.

"The top management of the capital Letian, the company of the production team, is coming by the opportunity. Maybe you also need to deal with it. Remember to be prepared." Shen Hedan put away his mobile phone and hastily told him that he planned to continue to work on his own.

"Wait a minute," Kang Mobei called Shen Hedan, "I suspect that the smashing incident has something to do with Yao Mei. You can deal with it for me in Letian. I want to deal with the smashing incident."

"..... Well, I see. "

"Mr. Tian! Linze, how are they? Is it serious? "

"Mr. Tian! Fans are very concerned about their situation! Can you tell me about their injuries now? "

"What's the progress of your investigation in this shooting accident?"

Tian Huarong, a senior executive of capital Letian entertainment, got off the plane and was surrounded by the media.

"I'm sorry, media friends, it's very urgent now. We will hold a press conference later to respond one by one. Please wait patiently. Now it's important to save people. Thank you! Please step aside! "

A crowd of security guards protect Tian Huarong, who has a cold face, to leave the airport smoothly. At the exit, a black car is waiting. After getting on the bus, Tian Huarong takes off his sunglasses.

"The preliminary investigation results show that this is a blasting accident, the blaster He ran away

After listening to the report, Tian Huarong's face darkened: "think of a way to get rid of the responsibility."

"Well..." Assistant a face of trembling, "it is learned that the incident at the same time, Lu Mi Island encountered malicious damage, we will find a way."

"Well, that's it." Tian Huarong said faintly.
