

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 450

Lin Ze was chanting because of the pain. Beside the bed, doctors and nurses were debridement for him.

This kind of day lasted ten days. I don't know when it will end.

"Pain Hiss... " The pain made Linze's heart tremble.

The same is true of Wen Guang and Zhuo Tian.

"It's time to pay your medical expenses. It's several hundred thousand in arrears." After the doctor's hands debridement and scar uncovering without expression, he slowly stood up, walked out and said in a low voice.

"Hundreds of thousands? Miss Bai didn't say... "

Before Lin's mother finished speaking, she was interrupted by Wen's father:

"when they came to talk about signing a contract, they were scolded away by the children They didn't come to us to ask for the early-stage treatment fee. It's already a mercy... "

"They have a responsibility! Why don't you care about us! " Linze growled in pain.

Wen's father can't bear to blame, but he still can't help saying, "the police haven't come up with the results of the investigation. What if they really don't have the responsibility?"

"Then, then look for lotta!" Zhuo day immediately anxious way.

"Ah Zhuo's father and mother sighed, "up to now, you've had an accident. Letian hasn't been here. They've called, and they don't answer at all. They want Letian to be responsible. How can they do it? They just don't want to be responsible."

Lin's mother was worried: "son, did you buy insurance before filming?"

Three young people shake their heads difficultly. If there is insurance, Lota may not push the responsibility like this. What he does is a mini play. Only this explosion play is the most important one. In the end, this kind of thing will happen

"Why don't you think about signing a contract with Qianqiu? I've read the treaty and the terms are pretty good." Zhuo Ma hesitated for a long time, and finally proposed.

Lin Ze was upset and confused. The physical and mental torture inside and outside his body made him miserable every second: "Mom, read it to me about signing a contract."

"Oh." Lin Ma picked up the contract in a hurry, put the document far away, and looked at it carefully with Lao Hua's eyes.

Bai nianxikai's conditions are very good. In addition to bearing all the medical expenses, he also provides a three-year recovery period. During this period, all the expenses are borne by Qianqiu group. The condition is that after their comeback, there will be no less than two music albums and no less than two film and television works every year, and the revenue will be divided according to the ratio of "artists to companies" equal to "three to seven".

The conditions are very good. After listening to his mother's reading, Lin Ze's heart shakes, but he has just experienced malice. He can't believe it's really good intentions.

"Ze, let's sign a contract, or the treatment fee will be..."

"Yes, you think about your family. Your mother is the only one in your family. How can she afford it?"

In a few words, the three fell into silence again, and their hearts wavered, unable to settle down for a long time.

They are not willing to shake in their hearts. They are not willing to be abandoned by Letian. They watch Letian make a big deal about his own tragedy and win all kinds of good names. In fact, they get nothing, even worse than a stray dog.

"Mo Bei, don't walk around. Those three young people are looking for me. I'll come over." Bai nianxi receives a phone call and hears that they are willing to sign a contract. Bai nianxi is very happy and wants to leave.

"Wait a minute," combo struggled to get up. "I'll go with you."

"No, you can lie down and recuperate. I'll go and come back soon." With a bright smile, Bai nianxi left the hospital in a hurry.

The signing ended in the form of video recording. The three young people wrote hard and signed their names on the contract. During the video recording, the contract was read again. The three young people also inquired in detail about the questions they wanted to ask one by one, and Bai nianxi gave a clear answer.

For example, whether the cost of treatment is borne by Qianqiu group.

"Now that the contract has been signed," Bai nianxi said calmly as he put away the contract, "the first thing I hope you will do is to testify when new Kang's lawsuit against Lota is needed."

"We only tell the truth." Linze still uphold the integrity of young people, firmly replied.

Bai nianxi chuckled: "well, I didn't mean to let you lie, but a few days ago you caused me psychological damage, slander me just to bear the minimum responsibility to pay medical expenses for your treatment, this matter, you should apologize?"

"....." Lin Ze habitually said hard, but hesitated for a moment, and finally said, "I'm sorry."

"I'm sorry." Zhuo Tian and Wen Guang speak in one voice, and then the voice says.

"I understand that you are suffering now, so it doesn't matter," Bai nianxi said with a smile. "Take good care of yourself and try to get better. You are still young."

After that, Bai nianxi is ready to leave with her bag.

Commo looked at the news, did not expect that this matter, even can become news?Dimly, conmohei always felt that there was another secret power in the commotion.

"Mr. Shen, Mr. Liang Chengren, President of front wheel duty, has been very close to the media recently. What do you think?" In Shen Hedan's office, the Secretary reports the latest news to Shen Hedan.

"Liang Chengren? Who is it? " Shen He can't remember who this person is for a moment.

The secretary was slightly stunned, and then said, "well, the former major shareholder of Qianqiu group, since Miss Bai reorganized the board of directors of Qianqiu group, Liang Chengren has become a minority shareholder. However, although he lost his position in Qianqiu group, he is still the representative of the minority shareholders."

"Poof..." After listening to the explanation, Shen Hedan subconsciously remembers that Liang Chengren's son Liang Minghao was beaten by comomo north. At that time, Liang Minghao was beaten because Liang Chengren used an excuse to exclude Bai nianxi from the company, and successfully forced Bai nianxi out of the position of president. He became the rotating president himself.

"Well? What would you like to do? " The secretary looked at Shen Hedan's puzzling reaction.

Shen Hedan straightened out a little and said slowly, "what's his intention now? Can you guess? "

"Well, there's a big news today about Miss Bai nianxi's signing a contract with three injured artists. I think Liang Chengren did it secretly. He..."

"Want to play the game of forcing the palace again?" Shen Hedan was smiling brightly without fear.

"Almost." The Secretary replied with a smile.

Outside Qianqiu group headquarters building, a group of middle-aged men made a lot of exaggerated banners and signs, shouting outside the building.

"It's a mess in the evening! Bai nianxi ignores shareholders' rights and interests! Bai nianxi came out to explain! " It was Liang Chengren who took the lead in the uproar. His son Liang Minghao also showed up to support his father.

In Qianqiu group, the Secretary suddenly heard about the sudden demonstration outside, and hurriedly contacted Bai nianxi.
