

Billionaire CEO Won't Leave

Chapter 453

Bai nianxi, after listening to Kang Mobei's words and Lin Ze's decision, smiles happily.

"Linze, although Qianqiu group has been faced with ups and downs, it can still be your driving force and support. As long as you have the determination and action to take care of your injury and get better early, if you want to seek justice, Qianqiu entertainment will help you." Bai nianxi looks at Lin Ze and comforts him.

Lin Ze was very sad, but he could not cry. His tears would touch the wound and cause a burst of burning pain.

Bai nianxi looks at kangmobei with admiration and leaves the hospital with kangmobei.

"It's a good way to solve people's problems." On the bus, Bai nianxi joked with Kang Mobei.

Kang Mo North light smile: "let the other party feel that you are thinking for him, no difficulty."

"Well, you can go back to the hospital. Your wound is not healed yet." Bai nianxi said.

"No, I'm going to see Shen Hedan. The police are not willing to investigate the case separately. I have to find evidence to prove that the two things are not related." With a serious face, Kang Mobei drove straight to Kang's home.

Put Bai nianxi down first, then he can turn around and find Shen Hedan.

Bai nianxi hesitated for a while. She hoped that Kang Mobei could concentrate on healing. After thinking for a while, she didn't know what to say, and finally acquiesced in his plan.

Shen Hedan sat in his office angrily. Since he left the Shanghai Stock Exchange, he has been negotiating with the police. As a result, the situation is similar to that of conmobei, so he is a little angry.

"Here comes conumber." The Secretary said faintly.

Shen Hedan nodded, raised his hand and made a gesture to ask everyone in the office to leave for a while. He wanted to have a chat with Kang Mobei alone.

There are many mixed incidents, and the clues are more messy than the wool group. They need to calm down, think one by one and break through one by one.

"It's better to solve Yao Mei's problem first. As long as the investigation of my assassination, poisoning and smashing cases is finished first, the rest of the blasting accidents can be tried by the public security alone." As soon as he came in, he said his plan.

Shen Hedan didn't say anything and was still thinking.

Seeing this, Kang Mobei continued: "the three artists need time to recover, so the blasting accident can be put on hold for a while. When they are almost recovered, they are more capable of handling this matter. So, before that, they will close all the three cases of" blind eye "and it will be easier to handle them. After all, Letian is not a good persimmon."

"It's reasonable, but even if Yao Mei is missing, how can we develop it? There's no evidence. " Shen Hedan said.

"What about the fake doctor who poisoned me? He can testify. " Asked conumber.

"The man has been put under house arrest by me. He has no idea who paid him to do business. He only knows that the other party is a woman, and he can't push out as a witness." Shen Hedan explained.

Kangmobei knows that it's really difficult to make progress in the face of Yao Mei's old fox, but there must be some ways, but I haven't thought of them yet.

"Let's do what we can do first," said conumber. "Although the blasting accident is going to be shelved, the relevant evidence still needs to be collected. Otherwise, there will be no evidence at that time. Has the blaster sent someone to look for it?"

"Well, like Yao Mei, it's like the world has evaporated." Shen Hedan twisted his brows impatiently.

"I thought about it later. When something so serious happened suddenly, was the first reaction of the party really absconding?" Conumber felt his chin thoughtfully.

"You mean He was instigated to escape so simply? " Shen He Dan asked.

Conumber nodded: "if I were a blaster, my negligence led to a disaster. My first reaction Should be a timely stop, rather than escape, suddenly in the face of an accident, I know even if escape can not escape, as positive face

"Well..." Shen Hedan nodded with approval.

After thinking for a few seconds, conmobei immediately contacted the technical department of Lumi Island: "can we find a way to collect all the call records of Lumi island at the time of the explosion accident?"

"Well If you know someone in the Ministry of industry and information technology, it should be OK. After all, the signal can be traced. "

"OK, you will call the record of half an hour before and after the incident. I will use it. As soon as possible." Kang Mo asked and hung up.

Looking up at Shen Hedan, Kang Mobei said faintly: "after the accident, if the blaster was ordered to run, he would leave a call record. The first reaction of the person would not think too much, but he would directly call the relevant person in charge. As long as the number he dialed belongs to the capital, he would leave a clue. If it is the same as what I guessed, it would be a blast The teacher must not have evaporated in the world, but was hidden by Yue Tian. "

"The reasoning is beautiful, tut tut." Shen Hedan admires Tao.

"This is just the first step. After confirming this point, tune out the recording of the call, and the truth of the incident may be revealed," he continued. "This matter is so simple. The rest depends on what the three young people want. At that time, he plans to give it back to Lota at one time." "Yao Mei, I suspect that she has escaped from the country. It's useless to investigate the entry-exit records. After leaving the country, she goes to other countries halfway, and the tracking clues are broken. It's OK to find the next breakthrough. Even if she can't catch Yao Mei, the key is to close the three cases. The first is the poisoning case. Push the fake doctor out, and all the charges are on him. "Conmber said coldly.

Shen Hedan nodded and agreed to his plan. The complicated events gradually became clear.

"Mr. Shen! There are a lot of people coming outside, and they are all holding signs! " The Secretary pushed the door in in a hurry and said, frowning.

Therefore, just before the Qianqiu group's small shareholder demonstration, Shen Hedan and Kang Mobei subconsciously thought, who is going to demonstrate.

"What's the situation?" Shen He Dan asked.

The secretary was at a loss: "it seems that They are fans of Lin Ze's three artists. Do you want to see them? "

"Ask one of them to come in as a representative." Shen He Dun frowns. I'm afraid I'm looking for trouble. How can I find myself here?

Is it Tian Huarong, President of Lota, who announced that he was the one who negotiated with him that day? Shen Hedan guessed silently.

In the conference room, fans looked excited. Seeing Shen Hedan and Kang Mobei come in, she said: "Hello, we are fans of Lin Ze, Zhuo Tian and Wenguang."

"Oh, and then?" There's no expression on the north side of Como.

"If Linze hadn't updated the news on INS, our fans would have been kept in the dark, you see." With that, the representative of the small fans pushed the mobile phone in front of them.

[Hello, I'm Lin Ze. I'm seriously injured at present, but there are things that need to be clarified. Because Weibo is under the unified management of the company, and INS is our own account. The updated blog on Weibo is a unilateral act of Lota, which has nothing to do with me, Zhuo Tian and Wenguang. So far, we haven't made any statement, because we are severely injured We are now officially expressing our attitude. 1. Letian's cold-blooded abandonment behavior after our serious burns, we will protect our rights to the end; 2. Thank Qianqiu group of a city for appreciating our talents, signing a contract with us immediately after Letian unilaterally announced the termination of the contract, and bearing our huge medical expenses; 3. Qianqiu group and Xinkang group of Lumi Island are husband and wife group, and Qianqiu group has no responsibility for its actions Guan, the explosion accident is the major fault of Lota.]
