Chapter 8

Finally aware of who he angered, Bai nianxi shook his head in panic.

Conmber's eyes were fixed tightly. He didn't want to touch her, but his body reacted to her. Why did this woman make him feel dispirited?

With a sneer, he lowered his head, close to Bai nianxi's body, attached to Bai nianxi's ear, and said: "cheap woman."

Then he let go of Bai nianxi. With a cold face, he stood up from the sofa, picked up one side of the suit coat, and strode out.

"The Jiangshi group is not allowed to stay alive. All the affiliated enterprises will take care of my disability. I want Jiang's family, and they will disappear in a city from now on." Kangmobei took the phone and stood downstairs at bainianxi's house. He looked up at the room with the light on. His eyes narrowed slightly. "Unless, she comes to beg me."

Bai nianxi couldn't sleep all night. He didn't sleep until early in the morning. The next morning, a phone call woke him up.

On the phone was Yao Mei's shrill and angry voice, "Bai nianxi!"

Rubbing Zheng song's eyes, Bai nianxi's voice was a little hoarse, "aunt Yao, what's the matter?"

"You're still sleeping? How can you still sleep after such a big accident happened to the Jiang family?" Yao Mei roared at the phone, "how heartless are you? Ah? Zhi'ang got up from the hospital bed and ran to the company. Can you still sleep? The heartless thing

Yao Mei's scolding quickened Bai nianxi's soberness of mind. He jumped out of bed and ran to Jiang's company.

The employees in the company no longer work orderly as usual, but talk in groups.

Bai nianxi comes directly to Jiang zhiang's office, pushes the door and goes in.

Jiang zhiang is sitting in a wheelchair. His pale face is dignified. Gu xuanlin is quietly comforting him, and Yao Mei is worried.

"Zhiang, what happened to the company?"

"How do you like to come?" Yao Mei came forward with an angry face, "it's time for the Jiang family. You're still sleeping at home. What are you doing here now?"

Ignoring Yao Mei, Bai nianxi comes to Jiang zhiang, who is frowning. Jiang zhiang sees Bai nianxi coming and presents two statements.

Bai nianxi took a look and found the problem. All of a sudden, the big projects that had invested tens of millions of yuan were withdrawn, and the cooperation projects with other companies were also withdrawn one after another. Now the capital chain of Jiangshi company has been completely broken, and it is burdened with huge debts of the bank.

No matter what means Jiang zhiang uses, he is unable to return to heaven.

"Someone's going to take down my Jiang family." Sitting in a wheelchair, Jiang zhiang twisted his brows and said in a deep voice: "no one in city a, except the Kang family, can make our Jiang family come to such a state overnight."

"The Kang family?" "But we have nothing to do with the Kang family, and we have never offended the Kang family," Yao Mei said

Bai nianxi, like Lei Hongding, turns pale. If it's the Kang family, it can only be the Kang Mobei.

Noticing Bai nianxi's expression, Yao Mei overcast and asked Bai nianxi, "to be honest, is this something to do with you? Did you offend the Kang family

Yesterday at the door of the ward, Bai nianxi felt bad when Kang Mobei said that. Yao Mei said that too much. How can Kang Mobei let it go easily? Now it seems that it's really him.

"The man at the gate of zhiang ward yesterday was commobei."

Yao Mei's face was startled. He seemed to be a little incredulous. Thinking of what he said to Kang Mobei yesterday, he was afraid. In a panic, he rushed up and grabbed Bai nianxi's collar. "Is that Kang Mobei? Then why didn't you remind me? Well, Bai nianxi, you just want us to die, don't you? "

Ah, is Yao Mei really blaming her for her mistakes no matter what?

Frowning and ready to speak, Jiang zhiang's secretary suddenly pushed the door and came in, looking a little anxious.

Glancing at a few people in the office, he said: "no, Mr. Jiang, there are many people gathered downstairs. They say that the company has defaulted on their debts. Now they are blocking at the door of the company. I want to say it!"

Jiang zhiang's dignified expression brought a little doubt. Although the project was robbed and the company was almost divested, the company didn't default on anyone's debts. Jiang zhiang knew it well. At this time, someone came to the company. Was it the Kang family's instigation?

"Go downstairs, I'll see."

Despite Gu xuanlin's obstruction, Jiang zhiang shakes his wheelchair and walks out of the office.

The crowd at the gate of the company was full of violence, carrying banners and plaques with the slogan of "return my hard-earned money" and the slogan of "it's only right to repay my debts".

Seeing Jiang zhiang and Bai nianxi at the gate of the company, the crowd became more and more excited.

The leader, with sharp eyes, recognized Jiang zhiang in his wheelchair and yelled to him angrily, "boss Jiang, when will we pay back the money we owe you?" "Please don't be impatient. Listen to me first." Even at this time, Jiang zhiang is still a good-natured, warm-hearted man.

"As far as I know, our company is not in arrears with anyone. Is there any misunderstanding?"

"Misunderstanding?"

With a disdainful smile, the man at the bottom seemed to have expected Jiang zhiang's attitude. He didn't say much. He waved the sign in his hand and yelled: "listen to me! Everyone's money is hard-earned. Why is it exploited by these bloodthirsty bosses! It's a matter of course that if the Jiang family doesn't pay back their debts, we'll smash their company! "

When the crowd is agitated and angry, Bai nianxi realizes that the situation is not good and is on the alert. Suddenly he sees something flying in the crowd. Bai nianxi is surprised and subconsciously stands in front of Jiang zhiang.

"Be careful!"

Before the voice fell, a brown beer bottle fell on Bai nianxi's forehead. Bai nianxi's eyes were full of flowers. After a period of dizziness, a little blood was shed between his forehead.

I don't know what happened. Bai nianxi only felt that the scene was chaotic and noisy. It seemed that many people were pushing and pushing. In a trance, a huge stick waved towards her, but she didn't feel any pain.

Did someone stop her?

Vaguely heard a familiar voice, with her familiar overbearing and arrogant, "Bai nianxi! White night

Bai nianxi fainted.
