Chapter 811

In the middle of nowhere.

The heavy forklift brought Bianca's car to a remote place in the middle of nowhere. They viciously smashed the car's windows with sledgehammers and then aimed guns at the passengers' heads, forcing them to get out from the bulletproof car.

Right after that, several black Rolls-Royce vehicles surrounded them.

Many masked men came down from the cars and brought Bianca and the others captive.

To prevent accidents from happening, the driver was taken to a different car from Bianca and her children.

Bianca was thankful that the group of thugs were not completely heartless. She would have completely lost her mind and done something foolish if they separated her from her children.

Bianca was taken to a military vehicle, and her phone was taken away.

The thugs smashed it to pieces right before her eyes.

Bianca's mouth was covered with tape while her hands were bound. It was almost impossible for her to even move an inch.

The three children were also tied up with thick, long ropes and gagged as well.

Bianca soothed her three frightened children with her gaze.

it matter if Luke was powerful? They still took away his wife right under his nose!

However, when the thugs' eyes fell on Bianca and they got a closer look, they could not believe what they saw.

She looked too good to be true! She was pale and pretty as the moon. Her eyes were big, round, and magnetic. Even though anger glittered in her eyes, she still looked lovely and seductive.

It was a pity that Bianca was tied up in the backseat while he was driving, so he could not take advantage of her at all. That left him a bit dispirited.

"Boss, this girl's body is hot as hell! Nobody would believe she's a mother of three. She's simply perfect. No wonder Luke married her. Oh, I'd do anything to have a hot wife like her!" The driver could not stop peeking at her.

"I'm gonna warn you right now, don't you dare lay a finger on this woman! Control yourself, or I'll castrate you to keep her safe!"

The driver of the car snapped his mouth shut. He was still horny, but he dared not say a word more.

The thug on the passenger seat turned around and looked at Bianca and her children. He nodded in satisfaction. Bianca was well-behaved, not crying or struggling. Even her children were exceptionally quiet, unlike the other children they had kidnapped in the past. They kept crying and thrashing till it drove him up the wall.

He only hoped that this operation went smoothly. If anything went wrong, he and his family would be done for.

Chapter 812

Meanwhile...

Luke had listened to Bianca on the phone while she was kidnapped by the group of unscrupulous thugs. Flames of anger ravaged his entire being.

The sheer audacity! Only the people from the League of Shadows could be this bold and put on such a display of arrogance! Kassy was the first person that came to mind when he wondered who could be pulling the strings behind the scenes.

He knew full well about Kassy's ruthlessness. Fearing for his wife and children's lives, he abandoned his luxury car, hijacked a motorcycle, and bolted to the scene of the incident as fast as he could.

However, he was already too late.

The crime scene had been cordoned off and about a quarter-mile of the main road was blocked.

About 120 people in total were gathered at the scene, comprising of security, special police officers, firemen, and police forces. Dozens of police vehicles could be seen. A large number of police officers and good citizens were helping with the accident. Many were injured and sent to the hospital for treatment.

Looking at the scene full of wreckage, Luke sent a heavy fist smashing into the motorcycle.

The motorcycle fell to the ground with a loud thud.

With his hands still trembling, he dialed a number before he even had time to calm the anger in his chest...

Percy and Jim arrived at the scene within ten minutes after picking up Luke's call.

Jim sympathetically patted Luke's shoulder. "Brother, what's done is done. No amount of worrying will help. Percy and I will do everything we can to help you find the culprit. These kidnappers clearly look like they have a plan and a purpose. From the look of things, they've been planning this for a long time."

Luke scanned the surroundings. "I suspect that the people who did it are from the League of Shadows. If my guess is correct, Kassy must be the one behind Bianca's kidnapping." His voice was calm with a hint of anxiety.

Percy's expression became solemn. "If it's confirmed that the League of Shadows is behind this, then Bianca and the children are in danger. Those people are heartless without any benevolence and morality. They're capable of doing anything. However, if Kassy is the mastermind, then they should be safe for the time being. That woman will definitely use them to make you do her bidding... We must find their hiding place before they make a move on Bianca, or the consequences will be unthinkable."

Percy had not dealt much with the people from League of Shadows, but he knew that that organization had always been genocidal and did not have any conscience at all when taking up assignments.

Although the leader of League of Shadows, Robert, had died in his hands, the organization was still active and was not a power to be underestimated.

Luke's heart completely sank. The thought that Bianca and the children may be hurt because of him made him overwhelmed and angry.

"Percy, Jim!" Luke's voice was cold as he said, "Do everything you can. I must find out the whereabouts of my wife and children and Kassy at all costs!"

Percy narrowed his eyes. "Don't worry about it, Jim and I will do our best! How dare they kidnap Bianca in broad daylight?! These people must have balls of steel!"

Jim shook his head and began to order his men.

He had been friends with Luke for so many years, but never once had he seen Luke lose his cool like this—much less seen him being so fearful of anything. The current sight in front of him was an eye-opener.

Bianca looked around, observing her surroundings as if looking for an escape route...

One of the thugs used the butt of their rifle and slammed it into her head before roaring at her, "You'd better sit still! I'm going to dig your eyes out of you if you look around again!"

The eerie echo of his voice rang throughout the factory, making it sound even more spooky.

Bianca moved her gaze away as she felt her head pulsing with pain from the blow.

She glared fiercely at the thug who hit her in the head, but at the same time, they were already pushing her toward a metal pillar that had a girth of two grown adults.

The pillar was at the gates of the factory.

The vile thug tightly bound Bianca onto the pillar with a thick rope. The knots that he tied seemed to have no gaps in between them at all.

Then, he gripped her face with his black, sticky hands as he snickered. "So soft, this little lady is so soft..."

He had never given up his lust for Bianca. He grabbed her slender waist and sniffed the light fragrance on her body. In an instant, the thug was momentarily swayed.

It was only after Bianca watched him leave that she slowly relaxed and looked at the ground.

She gazed at her children with a worried look on her face.

They definitely could not withstand as much abuse compared to an adult. Plus, who knew if the thugs would give them enough food to eat? They had not woken up from their sleep just yet. She was now worried about their safety.

They were still very young. Could they even stand the effects of the drug? Would something happen to them?

Time passed, and Bianca felt the chilling cold all over her body as the frosty gale of the night blew through the windowless factory.

It was already the beginning of spring. The winds at night would chill anyone to the bone.

However, her children were still not awake yet and Bianca started to panic. She softly cried out to them, "Lanie, Rainie, Tommy, wake up. Look at Mommy, please?"

"Water, water..."

Rainie was half-conscious while crying out for water. At that moment, Bianca wanted to break free from her bonds and feed her daughter some water.

The sound of high heels clicked as they touched the floor, reminding one of the doom of hell. The noise rang throughout the entire factory, sending shivers down one's spine.

The thugs who were hiding in the dark fell into two files as they welcomed the woman's arrival.

Bianca's eyes could not help but constrict the moment she noticed a woman's tall and slim silhouette.

The blonde woman looked very young and beautiful, but there was an air of arrogance around her. The arrogance came from her very core. Her arrogance felt different from Mavis' as if she was born to be an empress. She looked down on every single person as if they were beneath her.

Kassy.

Despite the fact that Bianca had never met Kassy and everything she knew about her was from what Luke had told her, her sixth sense told her that this was the Kassy who had unfinished business with her husband.

Kassy was tightly surrounded by six bodyguards. They had a bulky mass around their waists, and Bianca was sure that those were guns!

Kassy looked down at Bianca from above.

Bianca was bound by those thick ropes, but she was still graceful and poised. When she got closer to have a look at this woman, it appeared that her skin could make anyone jealous. Bianca looked calm and collected even in the face of danger. That garnered Bianca some respect from Kassy.

Kassy stared at Bianca coldly as if she was mocking and dismissing her at the same time. “You’re quite smart, you’re able to guess who I am. It’s just a shame that your very existence is a huge mistake. I’m here to end that mistake once and for all!”

“Bianca, if it weren’t for you and these bastard children, Shawn would never have run away from our group, much less betray us! I’m his savior, and if it weren’t for me, he would have been blown to pieces in Moscow. Everything that he has is mine, so he should have listened to me and me only! I never thought that he would betray me for a typical, dumb woman like you. Ha! Say, how should I handle you and these bastard children of yours, hm?”

Kassy then glanced coldly at the children. Her snow-white hands clenched so tightly that there were a few audible cracks.

Bianca was still calm and composed. There was no way of telling what she was thinking about.

She looked at Kassy as if she was a crazy person. She chuckled as she listened to Kassy’s monotone voice. She said, “Miss Kassy, thank you very much for saving my husband’s life, but you merely saved him. That doesn’t mean he has to follow your every command his entire life just because you saved him once. There’s an old saying that goes, ‘Saving a life is worth more than enslaving seven’. I’m very grateful that you saved him, so I’m more than willing to return that favor on his behalf, but that doesn’t include giving him up to you.

Staring at the translucent, green fluid, Bianca suddenly had a bad feeling in her gut.

She had no idea what Kassy wanted to do, but she could tell from the expression on her face that it was nothing good. Bianca realized that she and her children had landed themselves in big trouble today.

Kassy strutted over to Bianca like a cat with the syringe in her hand.

She noticed Bianca staring at the syringe, so she explained it to her, "Do you know what this is? This is an aphrodisiac specially made by the League of Shadows. With just one drop, even the purest of women will become the wildest, most promiscuous female in the world. Do you want to have a taste of this, hm? Say, if all of the liquid is injected into your body, I don't think that all of the men here will be enough to satisfy you..."

Bianca shook with fear when she noticed the sinister smile on Kassy's face.

This woman had the face of a goddess but a heart full of poison!

The words that came out of Kassy's mouth next made Bianca's chest tighten even more. "Oh, you must be curious what these other three syringes contain. It's good stuff. It can change your gender completely. It can change a man into a woman, and a woman into a man. It shrinks one's sex organs and makes the sex organs of the other gender more prominent. In the end, they'll become a hermaphrodite.

tsk, these three little creatures are beautiful, but I wonder what they'll look like if they switch genders? They're still young, so we'll groom them and sell them off to the underground brothels when they get older. They might just fetch me a good amount of money. I'm excited just thinking eyes glowered at Kassy, but she could not help but feel anxious. "Kassy, if you dare touch my kids, I swear that I'll come for you even after I die. You'll never find peace! Luke will never let you go either. He'll hunt you down to the very ends of the

I wonder who gave you the guts to do so, eh? Do you think that I'm afraid of ghosts and vengeful spirits? I'm telling you, I'm not a good person. Thousands of people have died at my hands and all of them threatened me just before they died. But that only made them die even faster. I've been sleeping very peacefully throughout these years. Bianca's heart sank even more.

Kassy was vicious, but she was meticulous. She had intelligence that surpassed a normal person's. If Luke did not save her in time today, then they would end up being Kassy's lab rats.

"Kassy, calm down. Let's talk things over. I know that you're obsessed with Luke, but he doesn't have any feelings for you. You can't force things like this. Doing this will only make things worse and push him further away from you. Besides, do you really think that Luke won't be able to find this place? You know very well how sharp and smart he is. Do you think that all your problems will be gone after you wipe the footage? There were many witnesses earlier. Besides, you kidnapped us in broad daylight. Surely, there were people who recorded the incident. If you left just a small trace on the scene, Luke will definitely find you—"

"Hmph, even if he finds you, you'll be ruined and all bloodied. As for your brats, they would've turned into monsters by then. So what if he makes it here? Of course, if you kneel down and beg me, I might just spare your worthless lives out of kindness. Come on, beg me..."

Kassy took her phone out and was getting ready to record Bianca begging her like a dog.

If she sent that video to Luke, the look on his face would be priceless!

Bianca realized that Kassy was not going to let her go that easily, so she spat in her face and roared, "You witch! I'll die before I beg you! Since I'm already in your hands, do your worst! Don't you dare take me for a fool... You kill people and have no heart, so you won't let me go even if I beg you. You want me to beg a witch like you? You must be out of your mind!"

Kassy injected the fluid completely into Tommy's body as she laughed maniacally.

To her, the kid was as despicable as his mother. They should both go to hell!

Bianca stared at them in disbelief as her heart ran wild. Her nails dug into her palms, making them bleed. Her tears also flowed down her cheeks like a river as she called out in pain and agony, "No, Tommy, my baby!"

She knew that Kassy was evil, but she never expected that she would be so extreme that she would not even spare a three-year-old kid!

The fluid that Kassy injected Tommy with was the world's strongest aphrodisiac. An adult could not even resist its effects, much less a toddler who had not even grown up yet.

Bianca could not imagine what kind of pain her child would have to go through after being injected with that liquid...

"You despicable woman! I never thought that you'd be so evil that you wouldn't even spare a kid... No wonder you can never win a man's heart. You deserve it! Hahaha, your life is destined to be a sad story. Even the worst man in the entire world would throw you aside. Kassy, this is your retribution!"

Kassy yanked the syringe out of Tommy. Her beautiful face now had a frenzied look on it.

She grabbed Bianca's collar and choked her as she said to her, "No, you're wrong. As long as you die and your kids vanish, he'll forget everything about you one day. When that time comes, he'll be with me once more. I'm the only one fit to have the title of Mrs. Crawford. No other woman is qualified! Kassy kicked Bianca a few times as her eyes looked like they were bulging, resembling an angry frog. She simply refused to believe that a man as clean and perfect as Luke would actually do something like that for this woman.

However, deep down, she wholeheartedly believed everything Bianca said. It was because of this contradiction that she had made herself a laughing stock.

Kassy's kicks were powerful, striking Bianca in the chest until her bones almost broke. She could even feel her organs shifting positions within her body.

However, she only grunted a little. She gritted her teeth and refused to let out another groan.

Bianca's despondent gaze rested on Tommy. The child had collapsed on the ground and was curled up into a ball.

His delicate face slowly turned purple as he writhed on the ground. He cried out with his childish voice, "Mommy, it hurts so much. It hurts so much. Am I about to die? Sob... Sob..."

Bianca watched him with heartbreak. She wished that it was her suffering that intense pain instead.

She wanted to hug her youngest child, but the ropes on her body would not let her do so. Her face became streaked with tears as she cried out, "Tommy, just hang in there, baby. Daddy is coming to save us right now... You're the best, so just hang in there, okay?"

Perhaps Bianca's sorrowful voice had comforted him or because he could not take the liquid's effects anymore, but Tommy suddenly stopped struggling. He went into a deep slumber once more...

"I'll kill you! I'll kill you!" Bianca closed her eyes in agony once more. It was the first time that she felt so useless as a mother, and it was also the first time that she hated a woman so much that she wanted her narrowed her eyes as she observed Tommy's reaction to the

On the other hand...

Tommy's reaction disappointed her after he was injected with the liquid. It made her doubt the authenticity of the drug, but Kassy still ordered the thugs to inject the remaining two children.

After all, drugs like this were priceless. Every single one had been meticulously made, so there was not even a spare vial for use.

She roared at the thugs, "Inject these brats with the liquid. I want to turn them into monsters!"

"No! Don't hurt my babies. Kassy, didn't you want me to kneel and beg? Please, just please let go of my kids... You can do whatever you want to me, but the kids are still too young. They're innocent. As long as you let them go, I'll do anything, I swear..."

Bianca did not let out even a sound when she was being beaten by Kassy. She would rather suffer those beatings than see any harm befall her children.

The children were her armor, but they were also her Achilles' heel.

From the moment Kassy made her move on Tommy, a piece had broken off Bianca's heart of steel.

How could she watch her kids be tortured by this woman?

Kassy was snickering. She did not plan on giving up this easily. "Oh, so you're scared now? Weren't you all tough just a moment ago? Why can't you go on now? I'm telling you, you had one chance. A group of men stared at the supple and weak Bianca.

The woman had a delicate face and snow-white skin. Her hair was messy due to her struggles. It made them want to ravage her through and through.

This woman was a beauty. There were not many others like her in this world.

Furthermore, she was Luke Crawford's woman. That title was more than enough to make the men's blood boil.

If they could get their hands on the wife of the richest man in Asia, that would be a delightful pleasure.

Even if it was just once, it would be enough to satisfy them for the rest of their lives!

"Kassy, karma will come for you. For what you do to me today, I'll do to you a hundred times over!" Bianca's eyes were red, her voice cracking as it grew raspy.

Kassy snickered when she saw that Bianca still had the strength to retort, "You really don't know fear until you've tasted death, huh? Go on boys, this woman is classy stuff. You'll have to enjoy yourselves, stop dallying around."

The thugs who had ill intentions for Bianca before were even more spirited right now.

One of the thugs loosened the ropes around Bianca. The sedative's effects were still not completely gone, so she collapsed onto the floor like a ragdoll. However, her eyes dilated as hatred seeped through her pupils. She glared hatefully at Kassy. Bianca wanted to cut Kassy piece by piece.

Chapter 818

Listening to the rough sounds and the agonized moans of the woman coming from the inside, all the male thugs wished that they could rush into the room.

The sharp-faced thug grumbled unhappily, "Sigh. I wonder when Boss will be done with her. How long is he going to let us wait? He'd better not overwork that little b*tch. We haven't had our fun yet."

Another thug chuckled pervertedly. "What's the rush? It'll be our turn sooner or later, and the later it is, the better. That woman might still be trying to resist. After Boss is done with her, she might be a lot more submissive. That'll give us an easier time, won't it?"

He could not help but rub his chin. Bianca's slender and curvaceous body and her tender face made his passions flare.

He had lost count of the women he had slept with, but it was rare for him to encounter a woman that was both beautiful and noble.

When the sharp-faced thug heard that, he hurriedly asked, "When it's our turn, should we do it one by one, or should we go all at once?"

"I think we should take turns. She doesn't look like she could take all of us at once."

"No, I think we should go all at once. That's more fun..."

The thugs had different opinions, and they nearly broke out in fisticuffs. That made Kassy extremely irritated.

The mental image of Bianca's eyes glazing over in agony and despair, her beauty and grace completely gone, gave Kassy a feeling of catharsis. She had managed to overcome her biggest obstacle to winning Matthew's heart!

That woman was not going to live past today.

Anyone standing in her way to Luke deserved to die!

The sky gradually darkened. Several light bulbs in the factory cast a dim yellow light; Kassy had ordered her lackeys to install those.

She was getting tired after standing outside for so long. She yawned, then sat on an all-terrain vehicle and continued to wait.

Another ten minutes passed.

Kassy's patience was utterly depleted. The leader of the thugs had been inside for so long, and he should have been done by now. Why was he still inside?

She suddenly had a strong feeling of apprehension.

Her intuition told her that everything had gone a little too smoothly. If she did not deal with that woman as soon as possible, she had a feeling that there would be a lot of trouble.

Kassy took a closer look at the messy scene. The woman looked as though she had been thoroughly violated, but Kassy could not help but think that something was amiss.

She turned around, inspected the leader of the thugs from head to toe, and smirked. "You're an efficient person. It's barely an hour, and not only have you had your fill with her, but you've also cleaned her up before we came in."

The leader of the thugs remained impassive. "I've always been a clean freak. No matter where I am, I like to keep my surroundings clean and tidy. Also, I didn't go all out on her because I sympathize with her. You should understand what I mean, Ms. Kassy."

Kassy grunted coldly and stretched out her palm at him. "I want to see the video that you shot. Give it to me."

She had always been a suspicious woman. She would only be relieved if she saw the video of Bianca being violated.

The leader of the thugs frowned and tossed a mini-camera at her. "If you don't trust me, there's nothing much I can say, Ms. Kassy. Now that I've done what you've ordered, I'll be bringing my men and leaving. You're on your own now."

Kassy took the camera and told the leader of the thugs, "I'll transfer the remainder of the money to your account. The reception is bad here, so it might take a few hours before you see the money."

To be frank, Kassy trusted that man a lot.

The man was famous in the criminal underworld for being trustworthy and courageous. That was why she had hired him.

Also, she believed that no man could resist Bianca's charms.

Meanwhile, a rope was thrown from each of the helicopters. Several dozen fully-armed men in camouflage were descending rapidly and rushing toward the factory.

"Quick, kill them all, quick!"

Kassy shrieked crazily and ordered her lackeys to act quickly.

She did not expect that Matthew could find her in a few hours.

She could not imagine how terrifying that man was or what would happen to her if she fell into his hands.

Her lackeys were about to pull out their guns when a few grenades flew toward them. Several of them managed to dodge, but the ones who were slower to react were instantly blown into bits.

As Luke looked at Bianca curled up pathetically on the floor, the pain that came from within him was like a metal claw that tore his innards into shreds.

At that moment, his blood turned into ice, and every single last cell in his body hummed and buzzed.

Kassy's face turned as pale as a ghost when she saw Luke.

She understood that the delay had caused her to miss the only chance she could kill that woman and her children.

Luke slowly crouched down and hugged Bianca. "All of you... how dare you harm my wife and children!" His voice was cold, but one could sense the anger in it.

The biting chill and ferocious anger in his voice caused Kassy and the thugs to take one step back subconsciously.

Luke's people had surrounded them and pointed guns at their heads. They dared not make a sound.

As Luke glanced at them, they dared not meet his eyes.

The sharp-faced thug who had perverse thoughts about Bianca almost wet his pants.

His fingers slipped, and his gun fell on the floor. His lips trembled as he wanted to beg for mercy, but words failed him, and he fell on his knees with a thud.

Luke glared coldly at Kassy. She remained proud and smug, as though nothing around her bothered her. That was a stark contrast with Bianca.

Fury flared in his eyes. How dare those people harm his most beloved!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

A silver handgun suddenly appeared in his hands. He turned around and fired a shot at the thugs closest to Bianca and the children!

Luke's marksmanship was impeccable. The thugs died in one shot.

They did not even have the time to react as they fell on the ground with their eyes still wide open.

"Ahh!"

The surviving thugs screamed in panic while covering their heads. All their arrogance from earlier was gone.

Only the Kassy and the leader of the thugs remained calm.
