

Be Yours 801

Chapter 801 Don't Get Too Ahead of Yourself

Zeke's eyes swept across the room as he nodded. "You're right. There's nothing shameful as long as it's good for the family. Also, what's wrong with two single people getting married?" He gave Julian a pointed glare, clearly expressing his displeasure with his remarks. Julian wanted to retort, but Isabelle restrained him. Zeke had made his thoughts clear. He didn't care about Luke's intentions as long as they benefitted the Faustus.

Frustrated, Julian turned to Alec, asking with his eyes, "They're talking about your ex-wife. Why are you so calm?"

Alec didn't react. He silently ate his food, considering himself uninvolved in the discussion.

Zeke didn't look at him but said to Luke, "If you're interested in her, go after her. However, don't use any underhanded methods because I won't clean up after you." He knew Luke's character, so he had to remind him not to cause any trouble. Although the Walters were not on the same level as the Faustus, if there was a falling out between the families, the Faustus wouldn't benefit from it.

know what to do." Luke smiled, feeling confident now that Zeke had given him the Alec and said, "You've been doing well lately. That company you're in charge of has grown rapidly,

Those people are just trying to butter me up because I'm associated with the Faustus," Alec replied with a small smile, yourself. Why don't you start working at the headquarters tomorrow? We'll put you in was going on. "Of course, sure. I'll day. Without another word, he got up and went upstairs to Alec immediately felt

Chapter 802 Who in This Family is a Good Person?

After dinner, Alec did not stay in Faust Manor. Since he started managing a subsidiary company, he found an excuse to move out. After all, it was uncomfortable to live under their watch every day.

Seeing him leave like that, Xavier was furious. "Are you just going to let him act that way?" he asked Yakov.

Addressed by his elder brother, Yakov asked, "What are you planning to do? N

"If we have a fight, it's the Faustus' internal matter. We shouldn't let outsiders interfere, don't you think?"

Yakov nodded. "You're right."

so well and didn't attract the attention of Zeke, he wouldn't want to kill him. After all, if their father found out, he would likely be unhappy. However, if Xavier didn't get rid of him, something bad might happen. Hence, he decided to team up with proposal. Instead, he smiled and said, "Let's do as you say. I can't stand his the Fausts' inheritance. As Xavier said, the Fausts' internal matters should be resolved among themselves, and outsiders like Alec should not interfere. Since Alec was interfering Manor was a huge compound with separate smaller houses so each could have their they left, Julian asked, "Dad, are you really going to team up with Uncle Xavier? this family is a good up with him. If you have to team up with someone, Alec is been meaning to ask you this. Why do you think Alec is better than your uncle? Do you think he's a better person?" Yakov influenced by what Jenny had told him. Since then, he had been helping Alec. The realization terrified him. Why did she have such a big influence on him? Why was he listening to

Chapter 803 I'm Just Afraid I'll Disappoint You

The banquet was held half a month after Graham's discharge from the hospital. By then, his body had mostly recovered, but he was far from his former self.

In the lounge of the banquet hall, Jenny donned a light blue, high-end custom-made dress and left her long wavy hair styled loosely in a relaxed do. Although she was stunningly beautiful, her expression didn't carry much joy. She knew the purpose of the banquet.

"Dad, you're still young and capable of running the company. There's no need to pass it on to me now." She couldn't manage the company, and even if it was entrusted to her, it would only be managed by other employees and professionals, which was meaningless.

Graham sat down beside her. He wasn't angry when he heard her say that. "I'm getting old. After this incident, I suddenly realized something...! used to think there was still a lot of time, and I wanted to wait until later to look for your mother. Now, I understand that accidents are always around the corner. So I don't want to wait any longer."

to find Jenny's mother. It had always been

Although she technically didn't have to manage you. With them around, Walter Inc won't have any problems. Even if the company goes bankrupt, the funds I have name because he transferred all of it to Jenny's name. Hence, Jenny nodded. She understood that there was no turning back at that at Walter Inc for half a Walter Inc to Evan, partly to test his abilities and partly to let him gain some experience. If he could win Jenny's heart and gain the approval of everyone in Walter Inc, he of Evan, Jenny felt even more patted her head and said, "Don't think too much about it for now. Let nature

Chapter 804 Have a Great Time Tonight

Although Alec appeared expressionless, he was quite annoyed. His gaze shifted to Luke and Julian standing not far away. He knew what was going on between them since their previous dinner conversation. Although he knew it was impossible for Jenny to be interested in those two, he couldn't be sure if he understood Jenny anymore.

"Alec?" Blake saw that he was lost in thought while staring at Luke and Julian and asked worriedly, "What's wrong? Is there something going on with them?"

"Nothing," Alec shook his head, not intending to say anything to her.

Blake's face fell. Since Alec's memory recovered, he had not been as transparent with her as before. It was clear that he had his guard up against her. That was not good news, and she needed to find a way to overcome it.

However, since Jenny was the star of the event, she had to come for her best friend. However, the lights in the venue dimmed, and the announced that Jenny would be taking over the Walters and Walter Inc while he would be stepping down from the microphone, she smiled at the crowd. "Thank you all for attending the event today. As my father just said, starting today, I will be taking over Walter Inc. However, as you all know, a very humble statement, and everyone

Walter Inc just because I lack experience.

stage, making them nervous. Her sharp gaze made them tense, as if she could see through their little schemes with just one look. They all laughed made it clear that she was not easily bullied. "Well then, have a great and took the microphone. He smiled and said, "Besides my daughter today, there is

Chapter 805 Please Get to the Point

Once the three of them exited the stage, Jenny muttered, "Dad, why didn't you stick to the plan?"

"From now on, Evan will help you manage Walter Inc. Why not let everyone know about your relationship?" Graham laughed as if he couldn't see the resentment in Jenny's eyes.

Jenny rolled her eyes, thinking to herself, "Are you serious?"

Feigning ignorance, Graham made an excuse and left, leaving the two of them alone.

Evan smiled at Jenny and said, "Don't be angry with Mr. Faust. He only wants what's best for you and hopes you have more people to rely on." 1

"In this day and age, it's every man for himself, and the devil takes the hindmost. Can we truly rely on others?" Jenny had never considered such a thing.

but laugh at her. He even playfully flicked her forehead. "You're still give her anything, even his life. Standing so close together,

His expression wasn't good, to begin with.

Jenny spotted him, she trembled. However, she quickly composed herself and talk to you," he tell me first? If it's about Walter Inc, you don't need to look for Jenny.

what Alec was up to and refused to allow him to get conversation with Jenny?" Alec merely go and do something else? Didn't Dad want to introduce some people to you? Go meet them," Jenny suggested, not wanting didn't object. "Alright, take care. Let me worry." Jenny gave him a reassuring look,

Evan left, Jenny looked at Alec, and her smile disappeared instantly." Mr.

Chapter 806 Sorry

Evan, who was standing nearby, had been observing everything. His face was shrouded with gloom, and his eyes flashed with a murderous gleam, but he quickly composed himself because he was beside Graham.

Blake also noticed Alec and Jenny as she never let Alec out of her sight. When she saw him leave with Jenny, she was tempted to rush over and scream that Jenny was a homewrecker. But she held herself back. She was at the Walters' event, representing the Watkins. It would not be good for either of them if she did that.

Alec locked the door behind him after they entered the lounge.

Jenny frowned and eyed him suspiciously. "What are you doing?"

I would harm you?" Alec asked with a wry smile. Was he such a terrible person she just found his behavior puzzling." Can we talk about it walked over to sit down. He motioned for her to sit as he needed to have a serious talk with her. Jenny frowned again but still sat opposite him and waited for him to speak. 'My memory has fully said that. She was the one her, Alec's face carried many emotions. Above all of them was love—restrained mood plummeted. She had no idea why her mood had were resolved, you would agree to be with me. But I lost my memory when it finally happened. I was so close to having you back. On the day my memory was restored, I only felt pain, so much pain. But it wasn't the pain from the surgery. It take Evan as his successor that day, he knew that if he delayed it any longer, he would silent. She lowered her head so Alec couldn't see the tears in her eyes. Finally, she composed herself

Chapter 807 Give It Some Thought

Alec didn't argue against that. He nodded and said, "Yes, even if I lose my memory, I will fall in love with you again."

Jenny opened her mouth, but no words came out of it.

"Isn't it true? Haven't you noticed that even though I lost my memory, I still paid more attention to you than others? I still cared about the other men around you and felt unhappy about them." Alec sighed. Even he had to admit that he was bound to Jenny by fate.

Jenny felt a pang in her heart. Perhaps she believed him, or perhaps she felt that Alec was making excuses. Looking at him, she said, "There's no point in saying all these now. After all, you have a girlfriend.'

"Blake and I are just in a business relationship.' Alec knew she misunderstood, so he quickly explained.

"A business relationship?" Jenny sneered at the thought. She was not a young child who was easily deceived.

Jenny everything—from the moment he was awakened by Blake to their collaboration and the development however, seemed mildly surprised. "So, you got in a relationship with Blake just was way you can win the Faustus over? Is faking a relationship with abilities. Did he need to work with Blake in such a way? So what if Blake was the daughter of the Watkins? Did she have any say in the family? Perhaps the only reason she had some say now was that she was together with Alec. After all, the Watkins also wanted not wrong for you to work with the Watkins," Jenny said." However, you must choose the right way. Did you really need to work with Blake like that? I don't think so. If you offered them enough benefits and incentives, the Watkins would have cooperated with you even without Blake in lost some confidence in himself, or that his choice to work with Blake was silent, Jenny stood up and ready to leave. After all, she was the main character of the event, so she couldn't waste time here with asked, "Jenny, can you give me another chance

Chapter 808 Who Knows?

Jenny did not return to the event immediately after leaving the lounge. Instead, she went to the restroom to touch up her makeup. After confirming that she looked fine, she was about to return to the venue.

"What is going on between Evan and the Walters? From the looks of things, they're grooming him to be their successor."

Before Jenny could leave the restroom, she heard the discussion outside the door. Not wanting to be discovered, she quickly hid in a nearby storeroom.

"Who knows? Maybe he has an extraordinary background."

"An extraordinary background? Well, I think Mr. Walter wants to find a son-in-law, and Evan is the person he chose."

After that was said, everyone was shocked, but after thinking about it, they felt it made sense. How else could they explain Graham's actions?

Graham must be worried, so

"But I heard that Jenny and Alec from the Faust family were Alec. He is now with the Watkins' daughter. With their support, he might be able to take over the Faust one thought Zeke would hand over the family to an to their discussions, especially when they mentioned that Evan would become the son-in-law of the Walters, Jenny felt particularly uneasy. Evan was very capable. Even if he didn't join the Walters, he could still make a name for left the restroom, and Jenny followed suit, returning to the venue.

wrong?" Evan appeared beside her. He was a bit worried seeing Jenny

If it was only him, Jenny couldn't care less. However, the person next to Brandon

she was about to forget about

Walter." Brandon walked up to Jenny. "No, I should call you President

Chapter 809 What Do You Want to Talk About?

Jenny reluctantly replied to Brandon with a smile. Although she disliked him, she wouldn't disrespect him on such an occasion. After a few exchanges, he left.

Soon after, Yvonne came to talk to Jenny. "Let's talk, Jenny," she said calmly.

Jenny, mildly intrigued about what she had to say, let out a light chuckle as she asked, "What do you want to talk about?"

"Let's forget about the past and focus on our new lives. I won't come to trouble you in the future, and I hope you won't make things difficult for me either," Yvonne said.

worried that if Brandon knew about her grievances with pursue greater things. If Jenny caused her any problems, her plans would say such things, she asked, "You? Trouble me? Yvonne, do you think you are in the Even if she hadn't, had Yvonne ever prevailed against her? Someone of being targeted by others, right? I'll tell you straight up." Yvonne continued to threaten. "I finally slapped her. "Do you want to know where we are? This is my family's territory. How dare you threaten me here? Let me tell you, even if I kill Brandon was. Although he liked women, he wouldn't lose his mind

Chapter 810 Satisfy My Curiosity

Yvonne made no retort to her accusations. In the face of such a large power disparity, refuting Jenny was futile. It would only result in a more severe beating.

"Get lost! Disappear from my sight," Jenny said, frustrated. The very sight of Yvonne disgusted her.

Yvonne got up and left, but she made a mental note to make Jenny pay when she married Brandon and took over the Britts. She thought she could manipulate someone as long as she shared the same bed with them as she had in her previous marriage. However, she forgot she was in Bardoff City, and no one there was that easy.

Jenny was so angry that it took her a while to calm down. When she turned around, Evan was still there. He had seen everything that had just happened, which made her feel a little embarrassed.

Evan handed her a glass of juice and said, "Are you thirsty? You talked for so long."

"Thank you, Evan," Jenny said as she took the glass from him. The juice tasted rather good.

words. I'll make sure she disappears and never shows up in front of you again," he surprised. "Evan, how do you to be taken aback. He didn't expect Jenny to ask that." Don't think too much, Jenny. I just want her to leave Bardoff City, way Evan had spoken earlier made her feel like he wanted to kill Yvonne. She worth it," Jenny said, not wanting Evan to waste his time on Yvonne, I'll do what you say. After all, you're large, established corporation, so it wouldn't be easy for Evan to make a name for himself there. It might be more rewarding for him to join a startup or start his own his decision." Jenny, being a head of a department in Walter Inc is what many people dream of. I'm happy just thinking about it. I wouldn't have had this so why do you act like I'm losing out? Jenny, you don't need to be like this," Evan said,

"Evan..."