Chapter 1121: Love Across Races (1)

Shi Yu was silent.

Ice Dragon was also stunned.

A genius Longevity Turtle had fallen in love with a snake?

What was going on, little brother?

Shi Yu had a strange expression.

[Ling, is it you?]

[Ling: Huh?]

In short, Shi Yu suspected that Ling's luck skill was giving him more trouble again.

What was he doing in Dragon Palace City this time? Finding an individual who could fuse into a Black Tortoise.

He happened to need turtles and snakes.

In the end, a tortoise and snake in a relationship came here?

This... This was simply a perfect Black Tortoise template.

Just like the Green Dragon, the Black Tortoise also had many images.

As for Emperor Wu's Black Tortoise, its evolution direction was towards the legendary Turtle Snake Black Tortoise image.

On Earth, Black Tortoises with the image of turtles and snakes were actually popular.

For example, after the Han Dynasty, the image of the turtle and snake fusion was left behind by the ancient clans that worshiped the turtle or turtle totems and the clans that worshiped the snake totems.

From this point of view, it was very scientific for a turtle and snake to mate and produce a black tortoise!

But in reality, this was actually very unscientific.

After all, with segregation, it was impossible to mate successfully.

In nature, only pure-blooded dragons with powerful bloodlines could cross races to mate.

Presumably, this was also the reason why the Longevity Turtle Race, which had difficulty reproducing, prohibited mating with other races.

There weren't many descendants to begin with, and they still had to waste them on other races. It was time to pass!

Shi Yu seemed to understand Father Longevity Turtle's anger.

"Minister Shi Yu?" The Turtle Prime Minister couldn't help but shout when it saw Shi Yu silent on the spot.

"Show me the information on these two guys you mentioned," Shi Yu said.

"Yes." The Turtle Prime Minister nodded and quickly flipped through their information.

Shi Yu looked at it.

[Race]: Longevity Turtle

[Stats]: Water

[Race Level]: High-level monarch

[Level of Growth]: Commander

< Introduction > It's the son of the Turtle Prime Minister of the Lightning Dragon Palace. It's talented and has a mutated body. It broke through to commander rank less than a year after it was born.

Later on, because he violated the clan rules, he was imprisoned by his father on the 0.5 level of the underwater prison to reflect...

The 0.5th floor of the underwater prison... That was a specially opened level. It was mainly used to lock disobedient second-generation heirs of the Dragon Palace. The internal environment was harsh, and it was a very terrifying place.

It was considered a childhood shadow that the experts of Dragon Palace City would casually mention to scare children when educating their heirs.

"What's going on? He's not even a year old, but he's already a commander rank???" Shi Yu was stunned.

Because the Longevity Turtle had a long lifespan, its growth was very slow.

"Did the Turtle Prime Minister of the Thunder Dragon Palace give it some crazy gold karats?"

The Turtle Prime Minister: "Ah... What resource is that? No, the Turtle Prime Minister of the Thunder Dragon Palace said that that little guy usually eats basic food. To be able to grow so quickly, it's purely a mutation."

"I think it's also because of the mutation that its mating concept is a little problematic..."

"Mutated creatures all have some strange problems. It's not strange for them to mature early and have strange mating orientations."

The Turtle Minister looked at Shi Yu with a gossipy expression and said, "Speaking of which, this is also related to you, Minister Shi Yu!"

Shi Yu: "?"

"What has it got to do with me?"

The Turtle Prime Minister said, "You forgot that the Turtle Prime Minister of the Thunder Dragon Palace has never had any descendants because he's too old and too strong. He even asked you for the Time Fruit..."

"It successfully had a son when it was old because it mated after eating the Time Fruit you gave it..."

Shi Yu: "?"

Ice Dragon:!!!

"After that little turtle was born, it has always had high hopes. It plans to start training when it grows up a little."

"But who knows..."

"Who knew that that little turtle would actually have such thoughts when he was only a year old? It's as if he has lovesickness and is obsessed with lovesickness all day. His cultivation speed has decreased greatly, making the Turtle Prime Minister of the Thunder Dragon Palace furious..."

Ice Dragon: Ah, this.

Shi Yu: "He's only one year old. No matter how I look at it, a child is insensible."

"Moreover, how did they come into contact?"

The Turtle Minister: "It seems that because a playful little turtle was injured somewhere in the Dragon Palace and was helped by the little princess of the Winter Water Snake Race."

"Then, the two parties met again at a banquet and completely became friends."

"Both parties are geniuses. They fight and spar every day, play every day, and grow and improve together."

"Then, the little turtle fell in love."

Ice Dragon: "Young people are really fancy."

Shi Yu: "It's good to be young."

The Turtle Prime Minister: "The Turtle Prime Minister of the Thunder Dragon Palace thinks so too, so it's only angry for a while before starting to personally educate it."

"We tried to stop it. Teaching it how to mate across races won't have a good outcome. Telling it that it's still young and that it doesn't know love at all. Moreover, the race rules don't allow the mating of races."

"The Turtle Prime Minister of the Lightning Dragon Palace originally thought that this would end and also thought that the child was insensible, but I didn't expect that little turtle to be quite stubborn..."

"In the end, it mustered its courage and secretly took out a dragon ball from the birth gift Lord Wex Dragon King gave it. It ran to confess to the little princess of the Winter Water Snake Race."

"And in the end?" Shi Yu ate the melon excitedly.

"In the end, the little princess of the Winter Water Snake Race rejected the little turtle very bluntly, making the little turtle lose its soul."

Ice Dragon: "Tsk, tsk, tsk, standard outcome!"

The Turtle Prime Minister said, "It's not over yet. The lost little turtle is completely listless. The Turtle Prime Minister of the Thunder Dragon Palace expected better from someone and threw it into the underwater prison to reflect. It said that it wanted it to be locked up for 100 years."

"But actually, it definitely won't be locked up for that long. I just hope it can wake up quickly."

Chapter 1122: Love Across Races (2)

"And the interesting thing is about to come. Who knew that after hearing that the little turtle was locked in the underwater prison, the little princess of the Winter Water Snake Race immediately ran to plead for leniency?"

"So the reason why the little princess of the Winter Water Snake Race rejected the little turtle is because the Dragon Ball is too precious. In addition, it also knows that the racial rules of both races don't allow interracial love, so it rejected."

"After all, the Winter Water Snake Race is an overlord race. It's very difficult to reproduce across races."

"It's precisely because it's more rational and knows that there won't be a result that it rejected it very directly. However, its true thoughts can't be hidden from a group of overlords."

"It also has a good impression of the little turtle. At this moment, it wasn't just the Turtle Prime Minister of the Lightning Dragon Palace who was silent. The Winter Water Snake overlord also fell silent and locked its daughter in confinement. Let it reflect on itself to avoid both parties falling completely later."

Ice Dragon was shocked. Damn it, there was also a big problem with this little Winter Snake princess.

Shi Yu looked at the information on the little princess of the Winter Water Snake.

[Race]: Winter Water Snake

[Attributes]: Water, Ice

[Race Level]: Low-level overlord

[Level of Growth]: Commander

< Introduction > She's the daughter of the Winter Snake overlord. Her talent is shocking. She grew to commander rank at the age of one.

It was proud.

Shi Yu: "?"

"This is also a year old! Don't tell me..."

"Ah, right, right, right. The little princess of the Winter Water Snake was also born because of Sir Shi Yu's Time Fruit. The Time Fruit you sent made Dragon Palace City welcome a fertility wave."

"Among them, using this opportunity, many breeding standard soldiers were also born in the Dragon Palace. Not only did they give birth to one child, but they also gave birth to a second child, a third child!"

"I remember that these overlords who have children at an old age gave Sir Shi Yu gifts. Didn't you receive them..."

Shi Yu: ...

His memory was bad.

Perhaps the gift was too light.

If it was a legendary resource, he would definitely remember it!

Ice Dragon looked at Shi Yu. So, was there a problem with the descendants born from the Time Fruit?

Why did they all like to fall in love across races?

However, talent did sound pretty good.

"So, Minister Shi Yu, what do you want to do with the information about the Tortoise and Snake Race?" the Longevity Turtle asked.

Shi Yu was silent for a moment before looking at him and saying, "Me."

"I plan to nurture two new pets. The race I choose is the Turtle Snake."

"What do you think?"

The Longevity Turtle widened its eyes.

They looked incredulous.

Holy shit.

A world legend had defeated the eldest prince of Dragon Palace City, the second prince, the third prince, and the strongest super Beast Tamer of the younger generation on Blue Planet. Sir Shi Yu planned to nurture a new pet?

Moreover, it planned to contract the Turtle Race and the Snake Race in Dragon Palace City?!

"What, what, what, really?" Ice Dragon was also shocked. "What's there to nurture in a turtle snake? Why don't you take my goddaughter away?"

Shi Yu said, "No."

Ice Dragon: "Ah."

Shi Yu said, "We'll look at the other information later. I plan to see the Longevity Tortoise and Winter Water Snake you mentioned first."

The Ice Dragon King and the Turtle Prime Minister looked at each other.

....

Soon.

Shi Yu descended to the underwater prison. After greeting the Golden Dragon King from afar, he entered.

In the depths of the underwater prison, the corners of the Golden Dragon King's mouth twitched, but he still came out to welcome them.

The last time the Golden Dragon Prince applied to challenge Shi Yu, it agreed. It didn't expect that it would be a depressed son who returned.

It even lost the faith of the citizens in his territory.

What a sin.

"What brings Minister Shi Yu here?" The Golden Dragon King circled in the air and said.

Shi Yu chuckled and said, "It's nothing. I'm going to see a second-generation heir locked on the 0.5th floor. Golden Dragon King, go do your work. I can do it myself."

"Second-generation heir, which one is it?"

"The son of the Lightning Dragon Palace's Turtle Prime Minister."

"It?" The Golden Dragon King had some impression. After all, it had just been locked in not long ago.

Moreover, these second-generation heirs had to be taken extra care of.

After all, the environment here was harsh. He couldn't really let anything happen to them.

A moment later, Shi Yu arrived outside the prison. He paid attention to the inside without being detected.

Inside the lone prison surrounded by rocks, black water surged, lightning flashed, and thunder rumbled. Demonic winds howled, and it was very oppressive. A small blue turtle was quietly... training on a huge rock?

It was a Little Longevity Turtle, only half a meter tall.

It had a pair of bright red and black eyes and a wavy tail.

Its watery blue body was wrapped in a hard black shell, and its abdomen was white. It was the appearance of the Longevity Turtle when it was young.

At this moment, this little Longevity Turtle was doing "heavy lifting" with difficulty, holding the huge rock to train.

"What's going on?" Shi Yu asked.

"Love makes turtles crazy." The Golden Dragon King sighed. With a harem of 300, it was extremely loving and knew this very well.

The corners of Shi Yu's mouth twitched.

After a casual guess, he understood that this blue turtle probably wanted to work hard to become stronger and obtain the right to speak through strength.

Wasn't this quite ambitious? He wasn't depressed at all. It looked like he had understood.

Shi Yu directly teleported into the prison.

He stood on the huge rock opposite the Longevity Turtle and looked at it quietly.

"Hu... Hu..." At this moment, the Longevity Turtle was exhausted and its consciousness was blurred. It didn't notice anyone coming at all.

"Hey." Only when Shi Yu spoke did the Longevity Turtle, who was training, suddenly jump in fright. It broke open the stone and took a step back to look at Shi Yu in shock.

Right on the heels of that, he accidentally fell off the rock and fell flat on his face. Then, he quickly got up.

Chapter 1123: Love Across Races (3)

"Hu... Hu...!" The Longevity Turtle looked at Shi Yu cautiously.

Obviously, it didn't know who Shi Yu was.

"Looks like you don't know me." Shi Yu looked at it and said telepathically, "I heard that you were locked in because of your puppy love?"

"Hu!" The Longevity Turtle's expression was firm. Don't even think about convincing it.

Its willpower could be Gritted.

It directly regarded Shi Yu as the guy its father had sent to persuade it.

However, that was impossible!

Even if the entire world stopped it, it had to persist. It believed that as long as it worked hard, it could definitely catch up to the other party.

"Continue. We'll meet again." Shi Yu chuckled.

He could see the other party's determination.

Next, it was time to see the situation of the little princess of the Winter Water Snake.

If it was really as the Turtle Prime Minister had said and also had a good impression of this blue turtle, Shi Yu didn't mind matchmaking it and taking it away.

Wasn't it just that it was very difficult to reproduce across races and was forbidden by his family?

Was this a problem?

Shi Yu didn't believe that the other party would refuse if he told the Turtle Prime Minister of the Lightning Dragon Palace and the Winter Water Snake overlord to take them away to give birth to Black Tortoises.

"You're leaving just like that?" At the same time, the Golden Dragon King, who had sent Shi Yu away, had a strange expression.

He was very confused by Shi Yu's behavior of leaving after only whispering a few words to the Longevity Turtle.

At the same time.

Winter Water Floating Island.

In the territory of the Winter Water Snake Race.

Shi Yu descended again.

As soon as he came over, he displayed his huge Spirit Psychic power.

In the depths of the Winter Water Snake habitat, the Winter Water Snake overlord was suddenly shocked and quickly flew out. Then, it was shocked to see Shi Yu standing on the island.

"Minister Shi Yu??"

As a little transparent in Dragon Palace City and even the Environmental Protection Department, the Winter Water Snake overlord didn't understand why a big shot like Minister Shi Yu would suddenly come to its territory.

This thick blue-bodied white-striped snake immediately flew over ingratiatingly and said, "Minister Shi Yu, why are you free to come to me? Do you have any instructions?"

Shi Yu looked up at the Winter Water Snake overlord that was slowly descending and smiled. "Long time no see, Winter Water overlord."

[!!] The Winter Water Snake overlord didn't expect Shi Yu to still have an impression of it. They had clearly only met at the Dragon Palace banquet that time, and they didn't communicate the whole time.

"I came this time to investigate some situations. Did you give birth to a daughter after you received the Time Fruit from the Environmental Protection Department?"

The Winter Water Snake nodded crazily and thanked him happily. "Yes, yes, and the talent is quite good. Thank you, Minister Shi Yu."

"I heard that your daughter has some problems with the son of the Lightning Dragon Palace's Turtle Prime Minister?"

The happy expression of the Winter Water Snake overlord stopped abruptly. It said awkwardly, "It's like this. My daughter is really useless. Her talent is so good and she's so young, but she's actually obsessed with love. I've already locked her up to reflect!"

"How is the situation with that right now," Shi Yu asked.

"...Not good, it hasn't eaten in a long time. It said that when that Longevity Turtle is released from the underwater prison, it will be willing to eat. Our family is unlucky!!" The Winter Water Snake overlord's eyes were filled with tears.

What kind of sin was this?

It was only one year old, only one year old.

Shi Yu was silent. He could understand the Winter Water Snake overlord's mood.

If anyone's daughter was already like this at the age of one... As a father, he would definitely go crazy.

Moreover, this was foreign love...

But from the looks of it, the little princess of the Winter Water Snake Race had pretty deep feelings for the blue turtle.

"Can I take a look?" Shi Yu asked.

...

A moment later, Shi Yu also saw the legendary proud Winter Water Snake between the cliffs where the little princess of the Winter Water Snake was imprisoned. Just like the Longevity Turtle, the fusion skill could be taught.

At this moment, it was cold on the ice Rock, relying on sleep to reduce the physical consumption of not eating.

Shi Yu looked around. Indeed, only the Turtle Race and the Snake Race could learn the fusion skill developed by Emperor Wu.

As expected, it was more suitable to change this fusion skill to Turtle Snake Fusion and Black Tortoise Fusion.

"I'll wake it up now." Although the Winter Water Snake overlord didn't know why Shi Yu wanted to see its daughter, it was very happy.

No matter what, Shi Yu was half a father to its daughter!

If this could be connected, wouldn't it take off?

"There's no need," Shi Yu said. "Winter Snake overlord, have you thought about what will happen in the end if you don't stop it from developing with that Longevity Turtle?"

The Winter Snake overlord was stunned, not understanding what Shi Yu meant.

At this moment, Shi Yu and Buggy's spirits had already invaded the dream of the little princess of the Winter Water Snake.

Now, he also had to understand the thoughts of the little princess of the Winter Water Snake. After all, he couldn't randomly matchmake them.

In the dream.

The Winter Water Snake Princess's subconscious was looking at the human and the green dragon in front of her in confusion.

"Do you like that Longevity Turtle?"

Shi Yu and the others went straight to the point. In Buggy's dream control, it was very difficult for the other party to lie. Even if it was lying, they could understand the other party's true thoughts.

At this moment, when the little blue snake heard the young man's question, it was immediately angry. A trace of red appeared on its face as it turned around in disdain.

[Who would like a turtle?]

Shi Yu and Buggy: ???

Didn't the information say that it had a proud personality? This was clearly a proud personality. Why was its face red and its heart beating faster!

In the outside world.

"Minister Shi Yu, you mean..." The Winter Water overlord was confused.

Shi Yu looked at it and said, "I'm just about to nurture a Black Tortoise. That Longevity Turtle and your daughter have the potential to evolve into Black Tortoise together. In the future, they might even be able to breed True God Black Tortoise. If I want to take them away from Dragon Palace City and let them train and grow together, I wonder if it's feasible."

Shi Yu planned to follow the thoughts of the other party's elders. After all, both parties were only one year old and very young. Once he brought them out, they would follow him for a longer time.

The Winter Water Snake overlord opened its mouth wide in shock. Shi Yu wanted to nurture a Black Tortoise? It knew that Shi Yu had already personally cultivated an orthodox Green Dragon. Now, he wanted to nurture a Black Tortoise? Moreover, he had chosen its daughter?

"You might not believe me, but I actually think very highly of them too. However, the rules of the Longevity Turtle Race are strict. I don't have the power to change these at all, Minister Shi Yu! My daughter's happiness depends on you, Minister!" The Winter Water Snake overlord cried.

Shi Yu: "?"

At the side, Buggy was silent. Why did it feel that the Turtle Prime Minister of the Thunder Dragon Palace would also say the same thing later... They were too real!

Unscientific Beast Taming

Chapter 1124: Abnormal Two New Pets

Next, the Winter Water Snake overlord followed Shi Yu to the Ice Dragon Palace. It was nervous and excited along the way.

It trusted Shi Yu very much.

After all, without Shi Yu, its Winter Water Snake Race would have been cut off.

It was all thanks to Shi Yu's miraculous revival that it could have descendants.

It didn't know if Minister Shi Yu had received the silk banner he had given him.

It was 99% thanks to Shi Yu that this daughter could be born, so it naturally had no objections to whatever Shi Yu wanted.

Moreover, this wasn't a bad thing. It was a huge good thing.

After all, Shi Yu had taken the Little Water Snake away to nurture the "Black Tortoise".

Among the relatives of the transcendent creatures, there were actually far fewer strong emotions than the humans.

The evolution of races was the strongest desire of transcendent creatures to reproduce in the next generation. The goal was to pass down their best genes.

Then, he would let this race reach the peak one day. This was an obsession engraved in the bloodline genes of transcendent creatures.

Now that there was a shortcut, it would be a waste not to take it. The Winter Water Snake overlord had already decided. If the Thunder Dragon Palace's Turtle Prime Minister didn't know what was good for him... It would... It would...

In the Ice Dragon Palace.

After Shi Yu and the Winter Water Snake overlord arrived, they got the Turtle Prime Minister of the Ice Dragon Palace to call the Turtle Prime Minister of the Thunder Dragon Palace over.

"Lord Ice Dragon King." The Winter Water Snake followed Shi Yu and looked at the Frost Demon Dragon carefully.

It happened to be a race protected by the Ice Dragon King in the Ice Dragon King's domain.

"Ah." Ice Dragon nodded.

The Winter Water Snake Race was indeed beautiful.

Its body was slender, and its entire body was covered in ice-blue scales. Its abdomen was snow-white, and its scales that were like snow clouds in winter covered both sides of its head. It was extremely beautiful.

However, it still had a strange expression, not understanding why the Longevity Turtle liked snakes.

Although both parties were blue and water-element...

But the difference in image was too big.

As expected, there was a problem with the Time Fruit... It couldn't eat more in the future.

"This time, it's the Genius Tortoise that fell in love with the Hack Dragon," Shi Yu muttered beside him. This made sense. Both parties were in the same egg group.

Unfortunately, it wasn't the same set.

However, if he really wanted to fall in love across races, it wasn't like Shi Yu couldn't think of a way to reproduce.

First, both parties evolved towards the dragon element and used the powerful genes of the dragon element to reproduce.

Secondly, both parties used the Black Tortoise Fusion Technique to temporarily fuse and evolve into Black Tortoises. Then, they relied on the Black Tortoise state to reproduce the next generation of Black Tortoises.

However, no matter what, both parties were no longer the Longevity Turtle and the Winter Water Snake. Moreover, every method was very difficult for people other than Shi Yu.

Soon, the Turtle Prime Minister of the Thunder Dragon Palace arrived. It was still stunned and didn't understand why the Turtle Prime Minister of the Ice Dragon Palace had called it over.

Could it be that the Ice Dragon planned to attack the Lightning Dragon Palace?

This new Ice Dragon King had recently spread the faith of the Green Dragon in Dragon Palace City very violently. Several Dragon Kings' spheres of influence had been corroded!

It even included the Golden Dragon King's territory!

"No, we have to protect Lord Lightning Dragon King's territory. No matter how many benefits the Ice Dragon King gives, we can't..."

"Ah, Minister Shi Yu?! The Winter Water Snake overlord is also here?"

At this moment, as they arrived at the Quas Dragon Palace, the Turtle Prime Minister of the Lightning Dragon Palace saw Shi Yu and even the Winter Water Snake overlord. He was immediately stunned again, not understanding the situation.

"I'm not looking for you, it's it." The Ice Dragon King saw that the Turtle Prime Minister of the Thunder Dragon Palace didn't look very smart and pointed at Shi Yu.

At this moment, after seeing the Wex Dragon Palace's Turtle Prime Minister, Shi Yu smiled.

"Prime Minister Turtle, long time no see. I heard that after you used the Time Fruit, you finally have a son in your old age. Congratulations."

"Wu wu wu, thank you, Minister Shi Yu." The Wex Dragon Palace's Turtle Prime Minister looked excited. Thank you so much.

With such a huge favor, it would not hesitate to sacrifice a trace of Lord Wex Dragon King's benefits even if it had to climb a mountain of blades and go through a sea of flames.

"I heard that something happened between your son and the son of the Winter Water Snake overlord?" Shi Yu looked at the Winter Water Snake and then at the Turtle Prime Minister.

Upon hearing that, the Turtle Prime Minister was stunned. Then, it looked at the Winter Water Snake overlord.

"Sigh, it's a long story! However, I've already controlled that kid in time. Next, I'll definitely let it study the Sage Book hard and assist the next Dragon King well," the Turtle Prime Minister's heart skipped a beat and he quickly said.

"No, I mean, there's actually no need to be so strict."

Shi Yu said, "We can completely let our descendants fall in love freely and decide their future themselves."

Prime Minister Turtle: Huh??

"Ever since I cultivated one of the four holy beasts, the Green Dragon, I have the intention to nurture another Black Tortoise. Your descendants, the descendants of the Winter Water Snake overlord, are the best partners in terms of compatibility. They have the potential to evolve into Black Tortoise together. In addition, they were all born because of my Time Fruit and are fated with me. If I want to take them away from Dragon Palace City and let them train and grow in the outside world together, I wonder what Prime Minister Turtle thinks."

The Turtle Prime Minister was stunned and opened its mouth wide in shock.

Holy shit, Black Tortoise?!

Only then did Ice Dragon and the Quas Dragon Palace Prime Minister know what Shi Yu wanted to do.

Ice Dragon was immediately shocked. Why didn't Shi Yu do anything humane all day?

The Turtle Prime Minister of the Ice Dragon Palace was even more jealous. It was still "young" and wasn't in a hurry to have a child. If it had known, it would have given birth to a little turtle no matter what and tried its luck.

In Dragon Palace City, the faith of the Green Dragon was popular, but apart from that, the Black Tortoise was also very famous. After all, in the ocean, apart from dragons, there were also turtles.

Unscientific Beast Taming

Chapter 1125: The Abnormal Two New Pets (2)

The Turtle Prime Minister of the Wex Dragon Palace naturally knew what the Black Tortoise was.

If it were anyone else who said this, it would definitely sneer, but the one who said this was Shi Yu.

Shi Yu had indeed cultivated a real green dragon!

The overlord-level Green Dragon killed a totem-level hybrid dragonman in one hit! It was invincible!

It even easily defeated the eldest prince. It had heard this!

These were the Four Holy Beasts!

If its descendants could evolve into a True God Black Tortoise, the Turtle Prime Minister didn't even dare to imagine it.

After all, the Black Tortoise Race was an existence more honorable than the previous Dragon Gods of Dragon Palace City.

With a boom, the Turtle Prime Minister of the Wex Dragon Palace felt that a huge pie had hit its head.

The Turtle Prime Minister cried.

"Minister Shi Yu, you might not believe me, but I actually think very highly of them. However, the rules of the Longevity Turtle Race and the Winter Water Snake Race are strict. I don't have the power to change these at all, Minister Shi Yu! The happiness of my child depends on you, Minister!"

"The life of parents is difficult! If Minister Shi Yu needs help, I won't hesitate to give up my old life!"

Winter Water Snake Overlord:???

Bullshit!!!

The Winter Water Snake overlord suspected that the other party had copied its lines, but there was no evidence.

Shi Yu and Buggy: ...

"In other words, you guys are actually okay with it, right?" Shi Yu asked.

"Of course." The Turtle Prime Minister and the Winter Water Snake overlord looked at each other. Was there a problem? No.

After a moment of silence, Shi Yu said, "Then there's no problem. Next, I'll take them away directly."

"Heh, moreover." Shi Yu revealed a hearty smile and said, "I don't plan to let them know all of this first."

"Their willpower is still too low. I'm not sure if they can withstand the test in the end and obtain my full cultivation."

"I'll train them alone first to test the determination of both parties."

"Only if they can survive the training together will I do my best to nurture them. Therefore, the two of you have to be mentally prepared. They can be sent back at any time."

"Gulp." The Turtle Prime Minister and the Winter Water Snake overlord of the Wex Dragon Palace were extremely nervous.

Shi Yu said, "But don't worry, they're still children. I won't give them too strict training. It's just some basic training that the new pets in my team have to undergo."

"No problem, right?"

The Turtle Prime Minister and the Winter Water Snake overlord of the Wex Dragon Palace heaved a sigh of relief.

Their descendants were all geniuses. It was just basic training, so it shouldn't be a problem.

"Of course not. Minister Shi Yu, just treat it as your child," the Turtle Prime Minister said.

"Same, the same," the Winter Water Snake overlord said.

Shi Yu: ...

No way.

Would a normal person torture their child?

But there was definitely no psychological pressure to train a blue tortoise in love.

"Then it's decided."

....

In the Deep Sea Prison, the unconscious Little Longevity Turtle, in the forbidden area of the Winter Water Floating Island, the Little Winter Water Snake, which had fallen asleep to offset its hunger, was put into the legendary ruins with a mysterious power with an even harsher environment.

This ruin was the battlefield of Little Ji and Duckie. The chaotic sea area and the dry land were not good places for sea creatures or land creatures.

A long time later.

The Winter Water Snake on the Chaotic Island woke up immediately. After waking up and sensing the unfamiliar environment around it, it looked around in a panic and saw Shi Yu sitting on the huge rock beside it.

"Wu wu ~" The Winter Water Snake looked at Shi Yu cautiously. It kept feeling that Shi Yu was a little familiar.

It seemed to have... seen it in a dream!!!

It recalled carefully and suddenly recalled that there seemed to be a person who had asked it if it liked the Longevity Turtle!

"Don't be nervous," Shi Yu said with a smile as he looked at it.

"Let me introduce myself. I'm the minister of the Ocean Environmental Protection Department of Dragon Palace City, Shi Yu. I don't know if you've heard of me, but it's alright if you don't."

"Now that you're no longer in the forbidden area of the island, you were sent to me."

The Winter Water Snake was stunned. It felt that it had indeed heard of the name Shi Yu.

It could be said that without Shi Yu, without Baby Ginseng's Time Fruit, there wouldn't be it. Therefore, the Winter Water Snake overlord always mentioned Shi Yu, so it naturally remembered the name Shi Yu.

"I heard about you and that Longevity Turtle. I can help you." Shi Yu smiled.

Winter Water Snake: !!!

"Wu ~?" The Winter Water Snake looked at Shi Yu. Could Shi Yu save the Longevity Turtle from the deep sea prison?

"Of course, that's not a problem. Not only that, I can also let you guys be together."

"Wu ~!" The Winter Water Snake's body stiffened. It turned its head, indicating that it couldn't understand what Shi Yu was saying.

Shi Yu: ...

Shi Yu looked at the Winter Water Snake and said,

"However, I can only help you a portion. In the end, you were stopped because your strength isn't strong enough and you don't have the right to make your own decisions. I can give you a venue to become stronger, a way to become stronger, and resources to become stronger. If your strength can be on par with the totem dragon king, I believe no one will stop you."

"In another place, the Longevity Turtle will also face the same test. I'll become your temporary Beast Tamer and let you undergo training in the Environmental Protection Department. Whether you can become stronger depends on yourselves. So, are you willing to accept the test?"

"Wu ~!" At this moment, the Winter Water Snake was stunned. It suddenly looked at Shi Yu seriously.

Unscientific Beast Taming

Chapter 1126: The Abnormal Two New Pets (3)

Really?

Minister Shi Yu was willing to guide it to become stronger?

"Of course."

The Winter Water Snake's gaze became even more serious.

Although it didn't know why Shi Yu was willing to help it,

However, this opportunity was rare.

It indeed had a good impression of the Longevity Turtle, but after this incident, it also made the Winter Water Snake understand that strength was the most important.

It had nothing to do with the turtle. It just wanted to become stronger and control its fate. It hoped that Shi Yu could train it.

It wanted to become an existence like the Dragon God. Before that, it no longer planned to date. Love would only drag it down in its footsteps to become stronger.

It was relieved that the Longevity Turtle was fine...

As for them... Unless the Longevity Turtle could catch up to it. It would wait for the Longevity Turtle, hoping that the other party would have the same determination as it.

In addition, in return, it would serve the Environmental Protection Department and Minister Shi Yu well.

At this moment, Shi Yu sensed the change in the Winter Water Snake's mood.

He couldn't help but have a strange expression.

He kept feeling that something was wrong.

Just now, it was still a romance template. Why did it suddenly seem to have awakened some female lead and strong woman template?

Forget it, things had already come to this. Let's leave it to the Longevity Turtle to have a headache. We'll take it one step at a time.

Shi Yu said, "Alright, from today onwards, you will train here with my Spirit clone."

....

On the other side, the Longevity Turtle was also shaken awake by Shi Yu.

After waking up and discovering that it was in a special environment and on the dry ground, the Longevity Turtle was also shocked. It suddenly shrank into its shell and slowly stuck its head out. It looked around nervously and saw Shi Yu.

The Longevity Turtle still had an impression of Shi Yu.

It was the strange life form that had suddenly entered prison.

"Hu! Hu!!" It retreated again and looked at Shi Yu cautiously, asking what Shi Yu wanted to do to it.

Shi Yu used the same introduction as before to introduce himself to the Longevity Turtle again.

After the introduction, the Longevity Turtle was shocked.

"Hu! Hu!!"

Minister of the Environmental Protection Department?!

Unlike the Winter Water Snake, the Longevity Turtle was a relatively long-lived and smart race. It was also the most knowledgeable race in the faction of Dragon Palace City.

Because to assist the Dragon King, not only did they have to train their strength to grow quickly, but they also had to learn a lot of knowledge.

Although this Longevity Turtle was only a year old and had yet to start learning knowledge systematically, its knowledge reserves were not what ordinary sea beasts could compare to.

Compared to the Winter Water Snake, it knew Shi Yu's status in Dragon Palace City better. Moreover, the Turtle Prime Minister of the Thunder Dragon Palace had mentioned Shi Yu in front of it many times.

It could be said that the transcendent lives born in Dragon Palace City because of the Time Fruit had more or less heard their parents mention Shi Yu. After all, he was Doctor Shi.

At this moment, the Little Longevity Turtle also didn't understand why a big shot like Shi Yu would look for it.

"To put it bluntly, I like your potential."

"In addition, you were born because of me. We're very fated."

"In the future, I might need your help in some things, but the premise is that you can become better."

"I'll give you a chance to become stronger and let you train beside me. Think about it." Shi Yu smiled and said, "By the way, if you become stronger, you'll have the ability to break some of the rules of the Dragon Palace and pursue your true love."

The Longevity Turtle was stunned.

Then, seawater spread from its eyes.

After so long, after so long, was there finally someone who could understand it?

It just wanted to pursue true love. What was wrong with that? Not only did its family not understand, but the outside world also didn't understand, let alone the Dragon Palace.

But he didn't expect that there was actually someone willing to help it.

"Hu!!" It directly made a loyalty gesture to Shi Yu that only Prime Minister Turtle would do to assist the Dragon Kings. Its eyes were firm.

Please give it a chance to become stronger and break through the restraints. It would definitely become the most reliable Turtle Prime Minister and assist Minister Shi Yu in obtaining the position of Dragon God in Dragon Palace City!

Shi Yu: "?"

"Wait, wait, the thing I want your help with isn't usurping the throne!"

The Longevity Turtle covered its mouth and nodded. "I understand. I can't say it out loud. We have to quietly... turn it upside down."

Chapter 1127: Little Ji Duck's Quasi Divine Skill

After coming into contact with the Winter Water Snake and the Longevity Turtle one by one, Shi Yu was certain that two more problematic children had come.

However, he had already received the goods. Shi Yu, who found it troublesome, couldn't be bothered to return the goods.

Next, just as he had planned at the start, Shi Yu didn't plan to let them meet early.

After all, only by separating the two places could one have the motivation to become stronger.

With a goal, it was easier to train Resistance.

At the moment, the will levels of the Winter Water Snake and the Longevity Turtle were both low.

Shi Yu could still accept it. After all, the two little guys were only a year old. It was abnormal for their Resistance levels to be too high.

It was already very good to have low-level Resistance at this age.

Shi Yu planned to train them to medium Resistance before contracting them and teaching them the system.

Emperor Wu's Black Tortoise Fusion was a super Skill. At the very least, it would only be easy to teach it to a middle-level Resistance.

"Next, your training goal is to conquer the land."

In the Legendary Ruins, on an island, Shi Yu said to the Winter Water Snake.

The Winter Water Snake looked confused, indicating that it didn't understand.

"Not far away, a drought envelopes the ground, and even a trace of water will be evaporated. The hot magma devours the ocean like a demon. That's a very harsh environment. You have to train in that harsh environment."

"Wu wu..." After being stunned, the Winter Water Snake nodded slightly with a firm gaze.

< Name > Winter Water Snake

[Attributes]: Water, Ice

[Race Level]: Low-level overlord

[Level of Growth]: Commander

[Race Skill]: Quas Gravel (Low-level ice-element Skill), Water Spear (Low-level water-element Skill), Quas Tail (Intermediate-level ice-element Skill), Frost Water (Intermediate-level water-element Skill), Blizzard (High-level ice-element Skill), Qi Yu (High-level water-element Skill), Absolute Zero (Ice-element super Skill), Vortex Strangulation (Water-element super Skill)

The Winter Water Snakes weren't a race that was good at attacking. Their super Race Skills were inclined towards support.

For example, Absolute Zero was an ice-element domain skill that froze energy flow and Spirit activity.

As for the Vortex Water Ring, it was a super skill that mainly restricted the enemy. Its damage was not as strong as water-element super skills like the Wave Cannon and the Water Tornado.

Apart from that, their high-level Skills were also mainly weather skills.

In a real battle, it was definitely weaker among overlord races.

Therefore, Shi Yu planned to let it resist the harsh natural environment to train its Resistance first. This way, it would be more efficient and he could also practice these support skills. Fighting the weather in Little Ji's territory was also an extremely difficult special training.

"I'll take you to the land to take a look first."

...

On the other side of the Legendary Ruins, Shi Yu's other Psychic clone was correcting the thoughts of the young Turtle Prime Minister with incorrect awareness and political positions.

"Hu! Hu!!" Upon hearing Shi Yu's denial, the Longevity Turtle gradually became clear.

Too small, too small.

It was still too narrow-minded.

Minister Shi Yu was a human. Compared to the position of Dragon God in Dragon Palace City, he definitely still wanted to be the big boss of Dong Huang!!

It secretly gave Shi Yu a thumbs up.

He had to assist Shi Yu well. Only such an ambitious lord was worth following.

"You're still too full. The training in the underwater prison doesn't seem to be enough for you."

Shi Yu and the Longevity Turtle were at the border between the dry land and the ocean. Shi Yu pointed at the sea opposite and said,

"Do you see over there?"

After the Longevity Turtle turned around, it nodded.

The calm Taihai Sea...

Boom.

Just as it finished speaking, dark clouds filled the sky in the distance. Lightning flashed and thunder rumbled. A monstrous black rainstorm descended, raising a tsunami more than ten meters tall, drowning an island and shattering the island.

The island sank, and a huge vortex condensed, Devouring all the shattered rocks around it. A moment later, the sea returned to calm, and the world was peaceful.

The Longevity Turtle: ...

"Hu..." The Longevity Turtle retreated. Why did it feel that it was even more dangerous than an underwater prison?

"Of course. The people on the 0.5th floor of the underwater prison are all second-generation heirs. Can they really put you in danger?" Shi Yu muttered in his heart. The environment on the 1st to 6th floors of the underwater prison was much harsher than the 0.5th floor.

It was just a small black room on level 0.5.

"Next, your training goal is to conquer the ocean."

"In this sea area, a storm interferes with the calm of the sea area. The aura of the Demon God destroys the peace of the water element. It's a very harsh natural environment. You have to train in this harsh environment."

"With the goal of becoming a water god, calm the roar of the sea."

"Hu!! Hu!!" The Longevity Turtle also revealed a determined expression, indicating that there was no problem. How could the sea be peaceful? How could there be true love?

< Name > Longevity Turtle

[Stats]: Water

[Race Level]: High-level monarch

[Level of Growth]: Commander

[Race Skill]: Water Spear (Low-level Water-element Skill), Spin Impact (Low-level Water-element Skill), Spirit Water (Intermediate-level Water-element Skill), Water Shield Wall (High-level Water-element Skill), Guardian Water (High-level Water-element Skill), Water of Life (Water-element super Skill)

As for the Longevity Tortoise, Shi Yu's training content was also very simple. After all, the Longevity Tortoise was even less good at battle than the Winter Water Snake. After calculations, the Longevity Tortoise only had two attack Skills, and they were all low-level. One relied on the turtle to spew water, and the other relied on the shell to fight head-on.

Compared to combatants, it was also more like a support. The Spirit Water could increase energy and reduce fatigue, and the Water of Life could be treated. It had nothing to do with battle.

However, that was in the past. Even Baby Ginseng could be cultivated into a combatant. There was nothing impossible with Shi Yu. One was a Longevity Turtle, and the other was a Winter Water Snake. Sooner or later, Shi Yu would have to cultivate them into real Black Tortoises.

Chapter 1128: Little Ji Duck's Quasi Divine Skill (2)

"Let's swim around first," Shi Yu said as he pointed at the sea that had become the Chaotic Sea due to the interference of the duck's power.

"Hu!!" The Longevity Turtle jumped into the water with a bang.

Just like that, the Winter Water Snake and the Longevity Turtle immediately began the team entry test. However, Shi Yu's clone, who was standing on the shore, forgot to tell them that the natural environment here was not static.

Every once in a while, two monsters would enter to fight. They also had to withstand the terrifying pressure from the aftermath of the other party's battle.

....

After taking away the Winter Water Snake and the Longevity Turtle, Shi Yu didn't stay in Dragon Palace City for long.

However, before leaving, he gave the Wex Dragon Palace's Longevity Turtle and the Winter Water Snake overlord a few more Time Fruits with stronger Effects.

It meant that he was embarrassed to take away their new child...

If you guys are lonely, strike while the iron is hot. Have two more!

In any case, this pair couldn't expect to reproduce normally for them.

Uh-huh.

After bidding farewell to Dragon Palace City, Shi Yu began to return to Ping Cheng.

During this period, his main training target was Little Ji and Duckie of the second team. He planned to completely unearth Little Ji and Duckie's divine power.

Little Ji relied on the Mythical Revival to awaken the quasi-divine skill of the Earth Divine Dragon's vibration law, while Duckie relied on the power of the Abyss Liberation and the Reincarnation Fruit to unearth the Abyss Seed to awaken the quasi-divine skill of its previous life.

As for the pets in Team One, they weren't in a hurry to add points.

Apart from the few new skills that Eleven had awakened that needed to be added points, their skills were basically already maxed out. Unless they broke through to the totem level, there was no more to add. They were all in a bottleneck state.

Shi Yu's hard work caused him to become a hindrance again.

As expected, the hard work of most individuals would only make others better...

In this situation, their training content was to train faith skills and quasi-divine skills themselves.

Buggy continued to condense the meteorite, and Susu continued to condense the Sea Cleansing Spirit. As for Eleven, Baby Ginseng, Chi Tong, and Ling, they used the background of the first revival of the laws to quickly deepen their understanding of the use of the power of laws.

In the training of quasi-divine skills, comprehending the laws of heaven and earth was the most important. The importance of comprehension was greater than normal training. With the help of the World Tree Fruit, there would be no problem with their comprehension.

Therefore, after returning to Ping Cheng, Shi Yu immediately started to call Little Ji and Duckie.

"Roar!!!" "Quack!!!" Little Ji and Duckie were already prepared to receive the additional points wholeheartedly and were eager to give it a try in the Beast Taming Space.

As Shi Yu took off his coat and threw it on the sofa, he went to take the drink from the fridge and said telepathically, "After the additional points are added, be careful when you go to the ruins to fight and experiment with Skills. I've put two newbies in."

The two pets expressed that there was no problem, but Shi Yu was still worried. He sighed. Forget it, he had his Psychic clone watching inside anyway.

"Prepare yourselves."

"After I finish eating..."

"Add points, begin!"

....

At the same time that he added points to his pet, Shi Yu also entered a high-intensity meditation mode. He charged to level eight and prepared for the battle with Yun An in this space and time.

Shi Yu also paid extra attention to the Alliance Meeting that President Lin and Shi Yu had mentioned previously. After all, he might face a divine beast.

During this period of time, the establishment of the Blue Planet Alliance was the most attention-grabbing thing on Blue Planet at the moment. Not only was the Seven Nation Alliance advancing Impetus, but the totem countries were also paying attention. Although President Lin had already discussed it with Shi Yu in advance, the official meeting voting and official announcement had yet to be carried out.

During Shi Yu's bitter cultivation, President Lin held an online meeting. The ten titled legends of Dong Huang, including Shi Yu, were all invited.

Among them, apart from the two newbies, Shi Yu and Lu Qingyi, who had obtained their titles at level seven, the other eight were all level-eight Beast Tamers. The unified characteristic of these people was that they all had the battle power to resist and even defeat totem level. They were considered an important part of Dong Huang's high-end battle power.

Apart from that, the Mechanical Army, forbidden Arms, and the national guardian were all Dong Huang's confidence as a superpower.

"Master, it's about to begin." After Shi Yu's little secretary, Ling, helped Shi Yu enter the meeting, she whispered to Shi Yu, who was meditating beside her.

"Yes." This was the first time Shi Yu had participated in such a high-end meeting. They were all titled legends! However, it was nothing. He was relatively familiar with a few of the nine people here. This time, it was basically just a formality.

[Eh, Dr. Shi Yu is here this time too?] Before the meeting started, an old man in a gray formal suit said.

Gold legend, Jiang Wenzhou, the richest man in Dong Huang, and three of the five major financial groups in Dong Huang were all related to him. He was known as the richest titled legend. Most of the pet's skills were paywall skills, so his battle power was very strong.

The cat's paywall skill was probably inspired by him.

Shi Yu looked at the screen of the richest man, Jiang Shoufu. His impression of him was that one of the other party's juniors, Jiang Tianyang, was a Sequence Beast Tamer. As for him, Shi Yu had never come into contact with him much. It should be a deliberate restriction from the association. After all, Shi Yu was considered a Beast Tamer of the official system, and the five major financial groups were equivalent to civilian capital.

[It's indeed rare.] The legend of the Tyrannical Sea, Yu Hui, was also very surprised. After all, in recent times, there had been at least five meetings. This was the first time Shi Yu had appeared.

The first-rank Ye Xing's grandfather, the titled legend Ye Bing, who led the three major armies of the Beast Tamer Troops, also looked at Shi Yu's screen. The four armies under Shi Yu had developed rapidly recently. Among them, the latest information about the Iron-eating Beast Corps shocked him.

Unscientific Beast Taming

Chapter 1129: Little Ji Duck's Quasi Divine Skill (3)

Heavenly King Du Ruo: "Dr. Shi Yu is at the high-speed stage of growth. It's a bad thing to be involved in a large number of things like us too early. For example, Qingyi is clearly young, but she looks much more haggard recently."

Lu Qingyi: "...It's alright."

She could still accept finding divine beasts. It was similar to archeology. It was really tiring, but at least it wouldn't be boring. It was much more interesting than guarding a certain place.

[Hello, seniors.] Shi Yu smiled and said: [I've been busy cultivating recently.]

Everyone believed it, but they also suspected something. Shi Yu was from Bureau 11. As an archeologist, he didn't look like he could cultivate obediently no matter how they looked at it. After disappearing for so many days, didn't he really go somewhere to explore ruins? If he was just cultivating, was there a need to miss the meeting?

At this moment, President Lin saw that the time was up and started to speak.

"The content of this meeting is about the Alliance Meeting. I believe everyone has already heard that the seven countries are going to send a Titled Beast Tamer to participate in the battle. After careful consideration, I plan to recommend Shi Yu to represent Dong Huang in the battle."

"In this Alliance Meeting, battle power is the main criterion. Everyone has seen Shi Yu's strength. Next, we'll vote. If anyone has a better choice, you're welcome to discuss it."

As President Lin finished speaking, everyone was silent. Before Shi Yu became a titled legend, the strongest titled legend in Dong Huang was President Lin.

This kind of meeting was actually basically for the presidents of the various countries to go. In the end, President Lin didn't go himself and chose to let Shi Yu go. What else could everyone say?

Even President Lin felt that Shi Yu was stronger than him now. They naturally didn't think that Shi Yu didn't have this qualification. Shi Yu, who had contracted a Mythical Race pet, was undoubtedly the strongest below the Legendary level under the one-on-one rules.

The rules this time were a dual pet 1VS1 system. Every Beast Tamer could at most have two summoning slots in each battle. They could choose two out of all the pets they contracted to fight, but in battle, they could at most send one pet to participate in the battle and fight one-on-one with the other party's pet. Only when one side lost its ability to fight could they change pets. If either side's two pets lost their ability to fight, they would lose.

President Lin must have also considered this kind of big matter that concerned the national interest carefully. Moreover, not many people present thought that their strength under such rules would steadily defeat Shi Yu.

Soon, the matter of Shi Yu representing Dong Huang in the Alliance Meeting was unanimously approved by Dong Huang's top battle power! Moreover, three days later, the seven countries made a world official announcement.

The Alliance Meeting this time would be broadcasted live to the seven countries. After all, the competition this time was for worldwide influence. It could be said to make up for the regret that Shi Yu's world competition couldn't be broadcasted live.

That time... the main competition had ended before it even started. He had yet to tell the World Tree. Damn it.

"Hey, hey, hey, what a joke." Three days later, after the news was broadcasted, countless Beast Tamers held their cell phones with incredulous expressions.

"The Blue Planet Alliance is about to be established. The members of the former Seven Nation Alliance will each send a Beast Tamer to participate in the Alliance Meet to represent their country in the pinnacle battle."

What was a pinnacle battle?

According to the list announced by the Seven Nation Alliance...

Snowfield sent the Beast Tamer, the president of the Snowfield Nation Association, the Star God Meng Kalov.

Shen Feng sent the Beast Tamer, the president of the Shen Feng National Association, and the Mechanical God of War, Logan.

Ming Hua sent the Beast Tamer, the president of the Ming Hua Association, Reincarnator Ashaya.

Rongguang sent the Beast Tamer, the pope of the Divine Church of Light, the Son of Light, Ralph...

These names made the Beast Tamers of Dong Huang curse. It was really a pinnacle battle. They were just short of making the Legendaries of the various countries directly fight.

This was simply calling out the strongest Beast Tamer below the Legendary level in various countries. What were they doing?

Moreover, what shocked everyone the most was that on Dong Huang's side, the one representing Dong Huang was not the mysterious President Lin, but another person.

Dong Huang sent the Beast Tamer, the world legend, Shi Yu!

"The Beast Tamers representing Snowfield, Shen Feng, Ming Hua, and the Seven Islands are all the current presidents of the associations. Rongguang is the pope of the Divine Church of Light, and Tingxiang's is an unknown sprite name. Our Dong Huang is Dr. Shi Yu..."

"What's going on? Has Dr. Shi Yu usurped the throne? According to the formation, shouldn't it be President Lin? I've long felt that... he has a little too many dreams. It's abnormal."

"Is there a possibility that Dr. Shi Yu's strength has already exceeded President Lin and is more suitable to represent Dong Huang in battle?"

"Is President Lin sick? I feel that Marshal Ye is more suitable..."

The content of the official announcement this time, be it outsiders or experts, was a very interesting topic.

There were very few public battles of this level. Moreover, there was a titled legend who could be said to be the strongest in every country who wanted to fight at the Alliance Meet. It was simply ridiculous.

Coupled with the establishment of the Blue Planet Alliance and the changes in the Seven Nation Alliance, many people guessed that this battle might decide something. Therefore, the strongest titled legend of the seven countries represented them in the battle.

"It has actually grown to this extent?" However, looking at the name list, many people still didn't react. It was very unbelievable that Shi Yu could represent Dong Huang in the battle.

After all, looking at the representative list of the other countries, they were all the number one people below the Legendary level in the various countries. When it came to Dong Huang, it immediately became a young man. Although Shi Yu's battle results from the Inatella World Tournament half a year ago were incomparably shocking, President Lin and the others had long become famous outside. In the hearts of the older generation, their recognition was even deeper.

Unscientific Beast Taming

Chapter 1130: Little Ji Duck's Quasi Divine Skill (4)

President Lin had already been the president of the Dong Huang Association for a hundred years. A hundred years ago, he had the battle record of hunting totems and obtaining a title. It could be said that he had grown up with Dong Huang and was even a descendant of Lin Feng's Legendary. He had always been known to the outside world as the number one person below Dong Huang's Legendary.

The other Beast Tamers who represented them were also the strongest legends of the various countries who had been famous for decades. Even Ming Hua's Reincarnator, Ashaya, had lived a second life and was a reincarnation. In her previous life, she was already a very famous ancient legend in Ming Hua, so it was very difficult for everyone to not think too much about this list.

To put it bluntly, although Shi Yu was a genius, because he was too young, the World Tournament was also a competition of the younger generation, making many people have an inherent prejudice impression. Even if Shi Yu's battle results were already very out of reach, they were still more willing to believe in the deeply rooted authority.

At that moment, no matter how stormy the outside world was, Shi Yu still buried his head in cultivation and began to crazily add points to Little Ji and Duckie.

He first revived Little Ji's Mythical Revival and pointed it at the transcendent level.

When Shi Yu upgraded Little Ji's Mythical Revival to perfect level, it completed a new round of transformation, the evolution of a god.

In the Legendary Ruins, under the vibration of the sound of laws, the entire ruin, the ground, and the ocean trembled violently.

If not for the fact that Shi Yu hurriedly protected Little Quas and the turtle, they would definitely have fainted from fright.

< Name > Catastrophe

[Stats]: Earth, Space

[Level]: Quasi God-level

< Introduction > With the help of the vibration law, it triggered the vibration of the natural and spatial power of the planet and swept up a world-destroying disaster.

After the Mythical Revival reached perfection, Little Ji successfully awakened a quasi-divine skill that contained the vibration law.

This skill was considered a high-level skill of a series of vibration-type skills such as Earthquake and Space Quake.

Even among the many divine skills, the destructive power was very terrifying. In terms of the large-scale destructive power caused, the Effect was even above the Immortal Slaying Sword Formation and the Yin Yang Millstone.

It was a large-scale skill at the country-destroying level, just like the Dragon Star Group.

As Shi Yu raised the Mythical Revival to transcendent, the proficiency of the Cataclysm also reached the proficient level. For the time being, it wasn't that difficult to control Crowd Control. Little Ji's strength had been strengthened by the epic level.

Although he had yet to upgrade other super Skills, he finally had the ability to compete with the first team.

Then, Shi Yu opened it and added points to Duckie. He mainly added points to its Abyss Liberation and Demon Subduing Pestle to nearly transcendent. At the same time, with the help of the Reincarnation Fruit, he completely stimulated the divine-level abyss power contained in the divine-level resource, the Abyss Seed.

Under the enhancement of the Abyss Liberation and the neutralization of the Demon Subduing Pestle, Duckie also successfully completed its divine evolution at the overlord level and awakened the quasi-divine skill from its previous life.

< Name > Heart of the Abyss

[Stats]: Dark, Water

[Level]: Quasi God-level

< Introduction > It contains the corrosion law and condenses all the power of the abyss into a heart and blood. By corroding one's rationality, it accelerates the beating of the heart and the flow of blood to obtain a super strong eruption. In the state of the Abyss Heart, the attack has the corrosion Effect. It will increase the enemy's consumption and damage.

Be it Little Ji or Duckie's newly awakened quasi-divine skills, they were both the type that gave Shi Yu a headache.

The former's destructive power was too great, and it was even harder to control than the Dragon Star Group. If not for the fact that he had relied on Mythical Revival to increase it to the proficient level, Shi Yu definitely wouldn't have dared to let Little Ji use it randomly.

This guy had a history of hitting his own people with an earthquake.

As for Duckie's skill, it was the same as Little Ji's reverse scale. It was a powerful power exchanged by sacrificing its rationality. After sacrificing its rationality, it would activate several times its battle talent and strength. It was a very dangerous move.

If it weren't for the fact that Shi Yu had maxed out the Demon Subduing Pestle and maxed out the Heart Sword, Purification, and other skills, Duckie definitely wouldn't be able to control this skill at the overlord level.

A month was neither fast nor slow. Shi Yu felt that before he could do anything, time had slipped away in the blink of an eye. Even Little Ji and Duckie's other super Skills had yet to be maxed out.

However, it was already very close. Shi Yu obtained bad benefits through their attribute feedback. Their strength also had top-notch totem battle power.

At this stage, Shi Yu decisively didn't dare to let them fight randomly. It was fine if Duckie went berserk, but if Little Ji went berserk, Icefield City might not exist anymore...

...

The next day.

When it was time to meet President Lin, Shi Yu rode his beloved aerial battleship to the sky above Alliance Island.

"Shi Yu, are you here?"

In the blue sky, Shi Yu stood on the battleship and picked up President Lin's call.

"We're here. I'll go down now?"

"Come on." President Lin was silent and did as he pleased.

During this period of time, he had thought of taking a few days to call a few guardians to be Shi Yu's sparring partner and help him prepare for the Alliance Meeting.

Unfortunately, it was rejected by Shi Yu.

It made President Lin feel that his good intentions had been treated as ill intentions.

This was because in Shi Yu's words at that time, it was more suitable to let Divine Source Legendary be a sparring partner...

However, it was impossible for Divine Source Legendary to be the sparring partner. In order to have a longer lifespan, Divine Source Legendary modified itself into a mechanical life form. Every time it woke up and fought, it needed to consume a lot of energy. It could only use longer sleep to make up for the consumption. It was too extravagant to be a sparring partner.

Seeing that Shi Yu was confident, President Lin didn't force it.

After all, Shi Yu's answer to him was that he was invincible below the demigod level in 1VS1.

The Alliance Meeting was about to begin. At this moment, the gazes of the world focused on the Alliance Island. Shi Yu slowly landed here.

In a luxurious building in the Dong Huang area, Shi Yu, who was wearing a casual shirt, casually knocked on the door. After waiting for an answer, he entered and greeted the young man inside.

"President Lin, you don't look old even if you work all day. Are there any more of the resources you eat? Give me two."

President Lin: "?"

"You ate the Eternal Flower, why do you still need such resources?"

Shi Yu: "It's not bad to give it away as a gift."

"No." President Lin's face darkened.

"There's really no more," Shi Yu said. He would go to the parallel universe another day to intercept its resources... Forget it, it was immoral. However, he could bring the Undying Fruit of the Phoenix Mystic Realm. If it weren't for the fact that the Phoenix Mystic Realm hadn't been established by the Undying Dark Phoenix before the empress era in the Emperor Wu Era, he would have gone to the Seven Islands to fly no matter what. After all, it was a divine-level resource.

"That's it."

"Did you look at the information I sent you seriously?" President Lin asked.

"Although some of the pet information representing Beast Tamers from these countries is dozens or tens of years ago, it still has some reference value."

"Apart from that, you have to be careful of the new pets they might contract, such as the Angel God of the Rongguang Pontiff... The other party must have already kept this information strictly confidential."

"In addition, your information will definitely be a key research subject of the various countries. When the time comes, you have to be especially careful."

"If you encounter a bitter battle and an accident happens, there's no need to force a victory. Don't hurt yourself because of this. This Alliance Conference is only fighting for mid to low-level rights. It's important, but not that important. It's definitely not as important as you."

Shi Yu nodded, but he felt that his information had even less reference value. The version update was too fast. The second team already had a Mythical Race at the overlord level. Who could have expected this?

"Then I'll start the second team and give them a surprise," Shi Yu said with a smile.

President Lin: "??? Although I said it's not important, you don't have to take it seriously, right?"

How could the second team do this!

Shi Yu said, "It's the original mechanical Tyrant Dragon and the Abyss Demon Duck. Their strength isn't much different from the first team now. They've both evolved into Mythical Races and awakened quasi-divine skills. In addition, the mental resonance I learned from Lu Qingyi is rarely matched at the level of top-notch totem battle power. Moreover, there's still the first team at the back. If they attack later, they can also fight the opponent more specifically to avoid being targeted by the opponent."

"What did you say???"

President Lin was stunned again. F*ck, the second team was already at the Mythical Race overlord level? What had he been doing this month!

He looked at Shi Yu seriously and realized that Shi Yu didn't seem to be kidding.

"Forget it, it's good that we can win." President Lin immediately fell silent. Damn it, when the various countries were still flirting with the divine beasts, Shi Yu actually even made the second team a Mythical Race. It was too much. This time, he wanted to watch the presidents of the associations of other countries get beaten up in the audience!
