

Beast 321

Chapter 321 World Tree's Game (1)

"Really?" Shi Yu was slightly stunned when he heard that. Then, he quickly took out his cell phone. Even the cat was no exception. It floated in the air and stared at Shi Yu's cell phone.

The timing of the World Tournament was very irregular!!!

No one expected that they could actually catch up in their lifetime.

After all, the last time the Seven Nation Alliance organized a world competition was 20 years ago.

Moreover, in the 200 years since the establishment of the Seven Nation Alliance, the World Tournament had only been held three times.

The timing of the event was completely dependent on the mood of the World Tree. In this situation, it would be strange if the entire country didn't explode when the news of the World Tournament suddenly appeared.

In the previous batches, because the technology was not advanced yet, the Beast Tamers had only heard of it. But this time, when they encountered it, it instantly caused a discussion among the people.

"Through the Sequence Ranking Battle, the selection of the ten strongest Beast Tamers under the age of 30 in Dong Huang will be held. Legendary Beast Tamers under the age of 30 can automatically enter the top ten. In addition, the top 100 Beast Tamers will be ranked by the officials of the Dong Huang Association according to their past battle results in major competitions such as the National League of University, the Heavenly King Cup of the Club, and the Beast Tamer Troops' internal martial arts competition."

"The others can register online and challenge the Beast Tamers in the rankings from scratch to increase their ranking. The higher their ranking, the richer the rewards. There are also rewards for defeating the challenger. Beast Tamers who already have rankings can also challenge higher. A year later, the ten remaining sequences will form the national team and participate in the world battle..."

"Holy shit."

After Shi Yu saw this news, he felt that things were not simple.

"Wow." The gem cat's eyes also lit up. Was the world competition coming again? It wondered if there would be a participant among the students who graduated from Ancient Capital University this time. At that time, it could also travel abroad together.

Food from abroad.

"Have you all seen the news?" The Tyrannical Sea Legend saw that many young people, including Zheng Hai, were looking at their cell phones with their heads lowered and said.

"Master, you already know?" Zheng Hai asked.

"Yes." Legend Sea Tyrant nodded. At this moment, everyone couldn't be bothered to eat anymore and looked at Legend Sea Tyrant.

“The situation of this world competition might be a little special. Among you, Zheng Hai, Zou Yun, there’s still some hope. If you have any thoughts, you can work hard.” In the opinion of the Tyrannical Sea Legend, if they didn’t reach the Legendary level or didn’t have the ability to fight against overlord-level creatures, they would also be sending itself to death in this World Tournament. It might not necessarily be able to return alive.

Therefore, he only suggested to Zheng Hai, the disciple of a legendary Beast Tamer under the age of 30, who was a top-notch master and could already fight against an overlord, Heavenly King Zou Yun, and his Beast Taming Space had already reached level seven. He was just short of an overlord-level pet to become a legendary Beast Tamer under the age of 30.

As for the others, they were basically ordinary masters at the fifth level of the Beast Taming Space. The difference between them and the competition criteria was too big.

“Ahhh, why is it only a year?” These people also knew. For example, White Brook looked at the date on it in pain and felt a little despair. She had just broken through to level five Beast Tamer and reached the master level less than a year ago.

The difficulty of reaching level six and level seven in the Beast Taming Space was several times higher than before. Even if there was another year, it was completely impossible.

“Damn it.” Yu Shu, an intermediate Beast Tamer who wasn’t even 20 years old, could only watch the news and cry.

As for Yin Zhengfan, he also clenched his fists with an indignant expression. If he had been born 15 years earlier, he would have been able to catch up to this year’s World Tournament.

This was a stage to compete with all the Beast Tamers in the world.

Without knowing that the next World Tournament would be held decades later, the Beast Tamers who couldn’t participate this time might very well have no hope in their lives.

After all, the blessings of the World Tree were only effective for humans under 30 years old. Their age wouldn’t stop growing.

“Don’t think too much. The world war this time isn’t necessarily a good thing. Perhaps the totem country will also interfere and kill a winner among hundreds of super geniuses. Do you think it’s that fun?” Seeing the dissatisfaction on the faces of these young people, the Tyrannical Sea Legend smiled coldly.

His words stunned everyone. What? The totem country could also participate in the battle?!

“Wasn’t the Seven Nation Alliance the only one participating in the previous world competition?” Zou Yun and Zheng Hai asked in disbelief.

The seven countries were all in the same alliance. Although there were injuries and deaths in the battle, it was more for the sake of winning the battle. If anything happened, it was caused by a slip up. If there was no deep hatred, under the circumstances that one could crush his opponent, he wouldn’t have done it so ruthlessly.

However, the totem country and the seven-nation alliance were powers that were incompatible like fire and water. The feud had been formed from the totem battle 200 years ago, no, even longer. There was really a deep blood feud. In this situation, it could no longer be called a competition.

It was the game of the World Tree. Under the gaze of the World Tree, it was very difficult for both parties to leave the battlefield alive.

Thinking of this, Zheng Hai and Zou Yun's expressions changed. Even they began to seriously consider whether they were qualified to participate in this world competition.

"This rule..." White Brook, Yu Shu, and the others didn't understand.

"No matter what, the battle of the Sequences in this country is still worth participating in. Every time the World Tree awakens, the entire Blue Planet won't be calm. It's a sign. The country should focus on nurturing Beast Tamers with potential next. Therefore, in this battle of the Sequences, the Dong Huang Association should invest a lot of resources. If you can achieve good results in it, even if it's not related to the World Tournament, it's still beneficial for you."

"As for the Blessing of the World Tournament..." Legend Sea Tyrant shook his head and said, "It's better not to bite off more than you can chew."

"That's true..." Zheng Hai and Zou Yun were still a little unwilling.

It was mainly because the blessings of the past World Trees were too fragrant.

For example, the Blessing of the World Tree could increase the pet's understanding and learning ability and increase the development efficiency of the pet's super skills.

For example, the Blessing of the World Tree was also equivalent to a meditation accelerator. It could allow the Beast Tamer to reach the legendary level very quickly. Legend had it that when Lin Feng participated in the World Tournament, he was only an ordinary legend. However, after becoming the champion, it only took two years to break through two levels and enter the legendary domain to become the youngest legendary Beast Tamer in the world. The World Tree Blessing was indispensable.

In addition, the Blessing of the World Tree and the effect of letting pets evolve could also increase the lifespan of Beast Tamers. The various effects were completely equivalent to giving a Beast Tamer the potential to become the strongest in the world. In this situation, which Beast Tamer wasn't tempted?

"Ah..." Shi Yu, who was looking at the cell phone screen, became a little shark that fell into deep thought again. He looked at the World Tree Blessing effect discussed on the Internet and immediately felt a little fragrant. What he was most worried about now was the leveling speed of the Beast Taming Space. If he could get a Blessing, wouldn't he be invincible very quickly? Of course, at the moment, the level of the Beast Taming Space seemed to be the greatest factor limiting Shi Yu's strength. If his Beast Taming level didn't go up, his physique wouldn't go up, and his pet's strength level would go up. Then, he wouldn't have any fate with the World Tournament...

Of course...

"To be honest, I'm not very interested in the World Tournament. The effect of the blessing... I might as well be given a Mythical cub for me to raise." Shi Yu looked at the news and muttered to himself in his heart. With the skill index, he could become a powerful Beast Tamer sooner or later. However, Shi Yu was very interested in the World Tree itself.

The embodiment of the planet's will... Was this thing not a Mythical life form? Didn't people say that the mythicals had already disappeared? Therefore, did this World Tree have power or intelligence? As the embodiment of the planet's will, could it possibly know everything that had happened to this planet in the past billions of years? For a moment, Shi Yu was suddenly extremely curious about this.

He could choose not to fight in the competition, he could choose not to receive blessings. But couldn't he just bring a bag of melon seeds and a big watermelon to chat with the World Tree or its spokesperson and guardian?

Chapter 322 Mechanical Tyrant Dragon

The news of the world competition shook the country.

Now, everyone in the country was paying attention to the world competition.

Many higher-ups of the Dong Huang Association were also concerned about the world competition.

For a small matter like Heavenly King Zou contracting the overlord dragon heir, he couldn't even get second on the trending list.

Because second on the trending list, they were guessing the list of the top ten Echelon members of Dong Huang in this world competition.

Although there was still a year before the final confirmation, he could still judge the candidates now.

"Ah, this meal."

In less than an hour, the meal at the Binhai Training Hall dispersed.

During this period, no one discussed the matter of Dragon Palace City at all. The entire time, they surrounded the World Tournament as the exchange content.

Heavenly King Zou was disinterested. He felt that he had announced his dragon pet too early...

This world competition was too much of a scam, but he felt that he had to participate.

If he wasn't wrong, the hot topic on the Internet for the next year would probably be the changes in the ten major sequences of Dong Huang

If he didn't participate, it was equivalent to cutting off his own future.

In short, no matter what, he had to get into the top ten and get a participant spot. Only then could he ensure that he wasn't a has-been.

"Was the meal alright?"

Zheng Hai, the leader of the Bin Hai Training Hall, wiped his mouth. His mind had also drifted to the World Tournament.

As the disciple of the Tyrannical Sea Legend, his strength, potential, and talent might be even stronger than those legendary sons. He was naturally tempted to participate in the Sequence Battle of Dong Huang. "Very good," everyone replied.

"Are you returning to the ancient capital or Ping Cheng next?" White Brook sat beside Shi Yu and poked his arm.

"Let's return to Ping Cheng," Shi Yu said.

Next was to prepare for the National League, but the cooperation with Dragon Palace City was not over. It was not very convenient to go to the Ancient Capital to prepare for the National League.

Instead, when they were preparing for battle in Ping Cheng, behind the Ice Dragon Snow Mountain, it was connected to the ocean... And they could contact the sea beasts in Dragon Palace City at any time.

"Then I'll return to the ancient capital first. I heard from the Tyrannical Sea Legend that the rules of the National League might change. I'll inform you when I have news."

"Alright." Shi Yu nodded.

At this moment, the Tyrannical Sea Legend stood up slightly and said to everyone, "Then the trip to Dragon Palace City will be completely over. All the best, young people."

"In addition, Shi Yu, come with me."

"Eh!"

Shi Yu was stunned. Under everyone's gaze, he was called over by the Tyrannical Sea Legend.

In another room.

Legend Sea Tyrant stopped and said, "From your expression just now, you're interested in the world competition?"

"Uh." Shi Yu smiled in embarrassment. "I'm not interested in the World Tournament, but I'm interested in the blessings of the World Tree."

Tyrannical Sea Legend: ?

Wasn't that still interested in the world competition?

There was a difference?

Why were young people nowadays beating around the bush?

However, what the Tyrannical Sea Legend didn't know was that other people wanted to participate in the World Tournament because they wanted to obtain the title of World Legend and the blessings of the World Tree. They wanted to become the strongest to prove themselves.

As for Shi Yu, he wanted to

[Replication successful.]

(Divine skill has been recorded: Blessing of the World Tree.)

This was a skill that could increase the lifespan of humans.

Apart from that, chatting with the World Tree about the history of the planet was the most interesting thing!!!

Of course, Shi Yu couldn't say it directly.

"You" Tyrannical Sea Legend fell into deep thought. He actually didn't doubt Shi Yu's talent potential, but the problem was that Shi Yu was still too young.

There was completely no time.

Even if it was his disciple, to be honest, he didn't have much confidence. It had to be known that in the World Competition that year, Lin Feng won the championship with seven overlord-level pets.

As for the recent championship 20 years ago, although it wasn't as valuable as Lin Feng's batch, it wasn't much different.

In this situation, not to mention Shi Yu, even if some veteran legends older than 30 years old in the country participated, they would probably die.

For example, the legend Hua Xiajin in Divine Capital, as a legend who specialized in butterfly-type creatures, she had only an overlord-level pet.

Since the World Legend was the title for a legendary Beast Tamer, it meant that the strength of the legendary Beast Tamer who could win the World Tournament was already close to a Titled Legend like him. Even if he was still a little lacking at that time, he could quickly catch up after receiving the World Tree's Blessing

"You don't actually have to worry too much about the world competition."

"You're already very lucky to have the Blue Sea Sprite Reincarnation in the contract. This opportunity isn't necessarily worse than the Blessing of the World Tree. Have you already decided to establish a land branch of the Dragon Palace City's Ocean Environmental Protection Department in the Ice Dragon Snow Mountain of Ping Cheng?" the Tyrant Sea Legend asked.

"Yes, that place isn't far from Dragon Palace City anyway," Shi Yu said.

"Alright, I've already told Principal Feng, President Ye, and the others about Dragon Palace City. If nothing goes wrong, I should send some assistants to assist you in the next few days."

"Alright, I've already told Principal Feng, President Ye, and the others about Dragon Palace City. If nothing goes wrong, I should send some assistants to assist you in the next few days."

He estimated that it wouldn't be a problem for Shi Yu to charge into the top 20 or even the top 15 in a year. It wasn't impossible for him to even enter the top ten. However, even if he reached the top ten, the Tyrannical Sea Legend didn't recommend Shi Yu to participate in the world competition as a Beast Tamer who had important connections with the Blue Sea Sprites and Dragon Palace City.

After all, even the strongest Beast Tamer under the age of 30 in Dong Huang might not necessarily be first in the world competition, let alone only in the top ten.

And the first place in the World Tournament could only become a legendary Beast Tamer.

Chapter 323 Mechanical Tyrant Dragon (1)

A legendary Beast Tamer was only equivalent to a half-god. As for befriending Dragon Palace City and the Blue Sea Sprite, it was more like two and a half. After all, the Blue Sea Sprite still had many hidden guardians in the sea!

Moreover, the former had a chance of less than 1%, and it might be life-threatening. As for the latter, it was almost 100%. It was a very simple mathematics problem.

"I understand. Thank you, Tyrannical Sea Legend." Shi Yu humbly accepted the senior's suggestion, but he still planned to consider it carefully when he returned.

This Shi Yu mainly wanted to see his strength at that time. If he didn't have the corresponding strength, he wouldn't go even if the Tyrannical Sea Legend wanted him to participate by pointing a knife at him.

On the same day.

Ping Cheng

Shi Yu returned alone.

WE

As for the gem cat, it had not returned to Ancient Capital University for a long time. It was afraid that its working clones would be exhausted, so it wanted to go back and euthanize them before creating a new batch of clones to replace its work.

Therefore, this time, only Shi Yu returned to Ping Cheng himself.

Shi Yu returned silently and didn't inform anyone. The moment he returned, he lay on the bed lazily.

As for the pets, they didn't need Shi Yu's instructions at all. They started to do their own things.

Eleven continued training. Although it was exhausted from fighting for three days and three nights, it recovered quickly. After all, it was just fighting

On the other hand, Buggy and the others were in trouble. They no longer had the strength to train. For example, Buggy had continuously visualized the Dragon God Statue and drained its energy. In addition, it had created so many Ice Dragon Phantom badges, so it had yet to recover.

It was the same for Baby Ginseng. After creating so many Time Fruits and supplements for the team members to fight for three days and three nights, the exhaustion level could be imagined. It was also half-dead tired.

As for Chi Tong, its consumption was relatively normal, it was one of the ones in the team who could move normally. As for Susu, after returning, Shi Yu had it eat the last resource, the Sea Flame Sprite core..

The Tears of the Mermaid helped it awaken the rain and the steam explosion. The million-year-old turtle shell awakened the water guardian. Shi Yu was very curious about what skills the Sea Flame Sprite core could awaken this time. As expected, after eating this, Susu fell asleep again.

After returning, Shi Yu slept for a whole day and night. After all, he had not slept in Dragon Palace City for a few days. He was staying awake on supplements. This time, with Chi Tong's clone possessing him and the support of the recovery effect, he slept for another day before feeling completely energetic.

On the ground, Shi Yu, who was covered in fiery flames and looked like he had just come out of the cremation furnace, slowly got up and opened his eyes.

“Ha ~”

Shi Yu got up with sleepy eyes. Chi Tong's clone quickly separated and disappeared. After waking up, Shi Yu glanced at the time and suddenly recalled something. He wore his pajamas and arrived at a certain place in the ruins space with a thought.

This was the Mechanical Stone Research Institute.

It had always been used by Shi Yu, Buggy, and the others to study the mechanical modification of the phantom beast species.

The so-called phantom beasts were pets created with illusions. Shi Yu took a look at the motionless dragon circle and knew that the group of little Tyrant Dragon illusions they raised had exhausted their energy and disappeared.

“Sigh.” Shi Yu entered the research institute and glanced at the Mythical fossil that Buggy had yet to conquer from Dragon Palace City and the Tyrant Dragon fossil that, although it had been conquered, couldn't be modified mechanically. He felt a sense of loss.

“Buggy, let's try again.”

After Shi Yu shouted, Buggy, who was lying on the ground and fighting the Dragon God Phantom in a dream, opened its eyes. Tiredly, it instantly teleported to Shi Yu.

“You've visualized the Dragon God Statue for three days and three nights. Theoretically speaking, the Dragon of Imagination skill should have improved. Let's create another mechanical Tyrant Dragon to try!”

“Wu!!!”

Buggy nodded, although it still felt that there was no chance.

Soon, Shi Yu took out a set of golden and silver armor from the fossil mechanical research institute.

This mechanical armor was clearly not prepared for humanoid creatures. From the structure, it was clearly for creatures like the Tyrant Dragon.

However, the size of this mechanical armor was not big compared to the real Tyrant Dragon. It was only about a meter tall.

It was mainly because it was still in the experimental stage. Shi Yu didn't want to use expensive materials to experiment.

[Dream Mechanical Alloy), this was the name of the material for this mechanical armor. This mechanical alloy could transform electricity into dream spiritual energy. It was the core material of the mechanical beast [Mechanical Dream Beast).

Mechanical Dream Beasts were mechanical beasts that could help life forms improve their sleep quality, were good at hypnosis, and created various dreams. They mainly relied on charging to maintain their activity.

Buggy's illusion was essentially a dream illusion. The energy was also dream spiritual energy, so it shouldn't be wrong to use this dream mechanical alloy that could be converted into dream spiritual energy as a shell.

The current armor was something that Shi Yu had bought and assembled with a pile of basic materials after investigating various information.

However, he only prepared armor materials and intelligence chips. For things such as skill chips and even more complicated battle equipment... He definitely didn't prepare them. After all, what he wanted to create wasn't a mechanical dream beast, but a mechanical Tyrant Dragon. Moreover, it was only the initial stage of its birth. Everything was still in the experiment, so there was no need to pursue perfection.

In Shi Yu's concept, illusions were the chips that carried all skills, so what he needed to do now was to connect the illusions to these mechanical parts as a whole and awaken it into an intelligent life form.

Chapter 324 Mechanical Tyrant Dragon (2)

In the huge fossil research institute, the super metal (Dream Mechanical Alloy), which was intertwined with gold and silver, hung in the room. Under Buggy's imagination, a shrunken Tyrannosaurus figure slowly filled the mechanical armor.

A moment later, the connection device of the mechanical armor was inserted into the body of the Tyrant Dragon Phantom. A mechanical Tyrant Dragon Beast in gold and silver mechanical armor, with huge [Eleven Special Lightning Rod Claw] on its arms, and the shell on its back was the prototype of the strongest shield (Eleven Special Lightning Rod Shield).

The special quality of one of the materials in the (Dream Mechanical Alloy) was that it could be relatively perfect for charging materials. Shi Yu took the materials for this charging material on the spot and naturally chose Eleven's hardening substance. After all, it could perfectly attract lightning. When the time came, he could rely on the lightning in nature to charge it.

After everything was assembled, the intelligent chip inserted into the phantom's body by the mechanical armor also lit up. However, at this moment, Shi Yu did not show any joy. This was because, just like before, the intelligent chip was not compatible with the Tyrant Dragon Phantom, causing this mechanical life form to be unable to undergo subsequent awakenings.

“Change, change for me.”

“Change, change, change.”

Shi Yu held the Awakening Mirror and shone it on the smart learning upgrade chip installed in the Tyrant Dragon’s body for a long time. There was no reaction at all. This situation gave Shi Yu an especially headache.

Assuming that he had used the Dream Mechanical Alloy and the intelligent chip to create the mechanical dream beast according to teaching skills, he would definitely have succeeded now. At the moment, there were only a few more changes. Changing the various templates of the mechanical dream beast into phantom templates, the process would directly be stuck, and it would be very uncomfortable.

“Forget it, it’s just a fantasy to create mechanical beasts of overlord races according to the teaching materials of the Mechanic Department of Ancient Capital University. I’ll try it slowly after the National League.” Shi Yu stretched and gave up struggling again.

However, it wasn’t that this mechanical Tyrant Dragon couldn’t fight or move...

After Buggy also sighed, it immediately gave the Tyrant Dragon command with the power of imagination.

Soon, this mechanical Tyrant Dragon opened its violent eyes and jumped up to celebrate the failure of this experiment again.

The illusion was created by Buggy, so it could naturally give it commands. However, although this way, the mechanical Tyrant Dragon could move around and could also rely on mechanical armor and lightning to maintain the energy needed to move, the current it couldn’t be judged as a life at all. It was just a phantom wearing mechanical equipment, no different from those machines on Earth that could move after charging.

Not only would Shi Yu’s index not react to it, but it was also impossible for a Beast Tamer’s contract to successfully contract a phantom wearing equipment. Therefore, in essence, it wasn’t considered a living life form or a mechanical life form.

After all, even mechanical lives had the most basic requirement: to learn the ability to think and grow on their own.

In the current situation of the mechanical Tyrant Dragon, it was even inferior to the forbidden weapon that suppressed its ability to think.

“Stop giving it commands. Don’t give it any commands. Let it try acting instinctively and see if it can give birth to intelligence,” Shi Yu said.

“Wu!” Buggy nodded. In the next moment, it canceled the command to broadcast gymnastics to the mechanical Tyrant Dragon.

“Roar?”

The mechanical Tyrant Dragon, which was in the midst of jumping, was stunned. Then, its gaze became even more violent.

It was a pair of ferocious eyes without any rationality, only retaining the most primitive hunting desire of the Tyrant Dragon in the dream. In an instant, Shi Yu determined that the current mechanical Tyrant Dragon still couldn't be called a mechanical life form, but a proper killing machine.

“Roar!!!! (I am the Overlord of the Earth!!)” Buggy only left behind the most primitive instinct of the Tyrant Dragon in the Tyrant Dragon's dream that was replicated through the dream stealing skill. This mechanical Tyrant Dragon, which was more than a meter tall, stared at Shi Yu with a ferocious gaze. It opened its bloody mouth and roared. A blazing wind instantly blew over.

Boom!!!

At the same time, it immediately bit at Shi Yu, as if it wanted to hunt food and fill its stomach.

Bang!

However, the moment the mechanical Tyrant Dragon attacked, Shi Yu swung his fist and hit its face. The huge impact sent several of the mechanical Tyrant Dragon's teeth flying, causing its face to completely deform. Then, it flew backward with a whoosh and hit the wall.

“What king are you??” Shi Yu asked.

Although this guy had inherited all the skills of the overlord race's Tyrant Dragon, including super skills, the initial battle power that Buggy had set for it was transcendent, so it naturally couldn't defeat Shi Yu.

Of course, it couldn't understand Shi Yu's words either. The mechanical Tyrant Dragon had no intelligence at all. Even if Shi Yu had telepathy, Shi Yu couldn't communicate with it normally.

This intelligence was simply inferior to the Green Silkworm.

“Roar...” After suffering the impact, the mechanical Tyrant Dragon immediately wanted to escape instinctively.

Buggy :”...”

It looked up at Shi Yu. What else could it do?

Shi Yu sighed. “Forget it, I'll let it maintain the most primitive wild activity in the dream first. I'll lock it in the dragon ring. This time, I'll let the phantom maintain a mechanical state for a longer time. Let's see if it can slowly develop feelings with the smart chip.”

“In any case, there's a battery. As long as it doesn't destroy itself, it shouldn't disappear so quickly.”

“Wu!!” Buggy understood.

The next moment, the mechanical Tyrant Dragon without intelligence and missing teeth was instantly teleported into the dragon circle and continued to roar at the sky.

“Roar!!!! (I am the overlord of the earth!!!)”

After tormenting the mechanical Tyrant Dragon without any results, Shi Yu and Buggy decisively gave up.

Shi Yu stretched and pulled Buggy out to eat ice cream to reward Buggy.

Buggy was actually pretty interesting. Although it didn't work as hard as Eleven during normal training, it easily did what Eleven and the others couldn't.

Even when sleeping and resting, it could train in its dreams.

“Wu!”

In such a situation, Buggy felt that apart from the cheat Water Slime, it might be the second big boss in the team who could train its will to the intermediate level after the leader!

After all...

“TT_TT Mi... Mi...”

Just as Shi Yu and Buggy came out of the ruins space, they heard a strange sound.

Shi Yu and Buggy looked at each other in confusion. Then, they quickly teleported to the living room.

Chi Tong, in the form of a sword spirit, was watching the television with tears in its eyes. It hugged the ice basin and cried.

Of course, its tears were fire silk.

“It's really you.”

“Mi-” Chi Tong pointed at the screen with tears all over its face.

Shi Yu and Buggy looked over. It seemed like a movie had just ended. At this moment, it was broadcasting the ending song and the situation of the producers.

Shi Yu and Buggy were immediately confused.

“Mi!! (Look at my willpower, has it become an overlord's will!)”

Chi Tong cried as it said to Shi Yu.

Shi Yu: “?”

Buggy:???

What did it mean?

Although Shi Yu didn't understand, he still took a look.

Skill: Interlocking Sword

[Teaching success rate]: Medium “Huh??!”

This look stunned Shi Yu and he revealed an incredulous gaze.

Chi Tong and Buggy looked at the shocked Shi Yu.

“Although it hasn’t reached the stage of the overlord’s will, it’s just one level away. Your current will stage is already close to eleven, surpassing Buggy and Baby Ginseng. How did you do it?”

Shi Yu was stunned.

In his opinion, Buggy, who had visualized the Dragon God Statue and tempered its will, should be the first to reach medium will.

In the end, Little Chi Tong, who had always kept a low profile, overtook them silently.

“Huh???” When he heard Shi Yu say that Chi Tong’s willpower improved faster than its, Buggy was instantly stunned and revealed a confused expression.

It didn’t make sense.

On the other hand, Chi Tong, who was crying, bent its sword and smiled. It was in a much better mood.

“Mi!!” With that said, it explained to Shi Yu and Buggy how it operated.

It asked Susu what it needed to do to train a powerful will.

Susu’s answer: A firm goal.

A firm goal that could make one sacrifice one’s life.

Then, Chi Tong thought about the meaning of its birth.

As a “heroic spirit”, it existed to protect Beast Tamers.

Even without a contract, the heroic spirit hatched by the Beast Tamer could still have a close connection with the Beast Tamer. Therefore, its most determined goal was to protect Shi Yu from any harm.

It wanted to strengthen this belief!

For this, Chi Tong began to flip through a large number of movies with protection as the topic to watch, hoping to understand the true meaning of protection. It finished 13 movies a day and night, but after watching them, its heart was calm.

This was very uncomfortable.

Then, it saw a “healing-type” movie on the website. Chi Tong, who wanted to change its taste and change its mood, directly clicked on it to watch. However, who knew that this movie was really so healing?

Chi Tong was quite happy watching the first half of the story. The plot was also quite healing, but later on, the protagonists and supporting actors died one after another. In the end, no one could protect each other. Chi Tong was directly depressed, and it cried as it watched.

It felt that its mentality had collapsed. After collapsing, it recombined. Its willpower seemed to have improved, and its willpower to protect Shi Yu became even stronger.

“Mi!” Chi Tong showed an expression as expected of himself.

Buggy: ?????

“Wu!! Ji!!! Wu wu! Ji!!” After Buggy heard that, it was very confused and asked Shi Yu crazily. Was this reasonable! It had trained so hard while awake, and even when it was asleep, it trained. Its willpower had yet to break through, but Chi Tong had already broken through after watching a movie. Was this reasonable!!

Shi Yu was silent. He didn't know if this was reasonable or not, nor did he dare to ask, but...

Shi Yu glanced at the name of this movie. “Black Forest”. Chi Tong, how did it get this title related to a healing-type movie??

“This is very scientific. Not only is willpower related to experience, but it's also related to race. Some races are born bold and brave, while others are born timid and weak. This will all affect their willpower after birth. Chi Tong is a heroic spirit race, born to protect. Its goal is firm. In addition, its General Mu Huiyin's power reincarnation is similar to Susu's situation. It's very normal for its willpower to increase quickly...” Shi Yu comforted Buggy beside him.

Buggy: (@ _ m)?? Its race was naturally timid and weak. Wasn't he talking about the Green Silkworm?

Shi Yu squeezed Chi Tong with a smile and said, “Little Chi Tong is still the best!”

“Mi!!”

However, after pinching Chi Tong, Shi Yu was a little worried. Chi Tong's greatest dream was to protect him. Was it alright?

amn

Shi Yu fell into deep thought. In fact, he didn't want his pet's dream to be related to him.

For example, the greatest dream of the Blue Sea Sprites was to cleanse filth and protect the sea.

Baby Ginseng wanted to change the fate of the supplements and become a powerful battle ginseng. It wasn't bad.

Even if he was gone one day, they could still continue their dreams.

However, if Chi Tong's dream was to protect himself, with the lifespan of humans that was only two to three hundred years, wasn't this a scam?

Compared to the undead race, the lifespan of humans was less than one percent of the other party's life.

After he died, wouldn't Chi Tong become a salted fish that had lost its dream?

Unless he could really obtain the blessings of the World Tree and become a longevity type.

Shi Yu thought for a moment and felt that it was better to find a more serious dream for Chi Tong to pursue. The heroic spirit race was too stubborn. It wasn't like he had never studied this. Almost all the undead born in the heroic spirit ruins had this personality trait.

After rubbing Little Chi Tong's head, Shi Yu looked at the television.

After the movie was broadcast, the show automatically switched to the relevant fluff.

“Teacher Yan Junyi, do you have any thoughts about the overall box office earnings of ‘Black Forest’ breaking through 3 billion and becoming the most popular movie in the history of Dong Huang?” In the scene, a reporter holding a microphone was interviewing a woman with an oval face and a very gentle appearance. This woman was very beautiful, and Shi Yu recognized her at a glance.

The other party was the most famous actress and female celebrity in Dong Huang, Yan Junyi. When he saw that the movie Chi Tong was watching was the other party’s main lead and that the box office was so high, Shi Yu immediately understood why Chi Tong only had feelings when it watched this movie.

It couldn’t be helped. There were too few good movies that could stir people’s emotions. Most of the time, it was a lousy movie. It was like you didn’t even watch it. It was rare for a movie with a reputation and explosive box office. It was normal for Little Chi Tong to feel a little uncomfortable after watching it.

“Wu!!!” Buggy was excited. It was a rich lady!

It looked at Shi Yu. It was three billion yuan at the box office. Was there a need to get to know each other?

“There’s no need.” The corners of Shi Yu’s mouth twitched. There were so many rich ladies. How could he get to know them all?

Shi Yu looked at the television again.

This Yan Junyi was also a Beast Tamer. In this day and age, no matter what, even if it was filming a movie, it would still look very unprofessional if one didn’t have a Beast Tamer title. Moreover, the hottest topic now was still a movie about Beast Tamers. If the main lead was a powerful Beast Tamer, the audience would be very convinced.

As a currently popular female star, this Yan Junyi was naturally not weak either. She was a famous top-notch master. She had contracted an overlord species pet, Flower Fairy, and was also known to have a legendary figure. In short, like Heavenly King Zou, she was a celebrity-type Beast Tamer. However, she basically specialized in filming movies, while Zou Yun specialized in competing. His focus was a little different.

“She doesn’t seem to be 30 years old. I wonder if she’s interested in the World Tournament. Well, such a beautiful woman should stay in Dong Huang to raise the eyes of the netizens. It’s not suitable for a place like the World Tournament where people fight and kill,” Shi Yu muttered before looking at Buggy.

Buggy was also looking at him. “Why are you looking at me?” “Wu...” Buggy’s eyes were filled with tears. It didn’t want to watch anymore. It wanted to go back and train.

“Don’t worry, the movie looks pretty good. I haven’t seen it yet. Watch it with me.”

Buggy fell into deep thought.

Wasn’t this a waste of time? It wasn’t confident that it could break through just by watching a movie like Chi Tong...

“This is also a form of training. After watching it, write me a review. I won’t make things difficult for you. Just replay every scene, every scene, and every frame in the two-hour movie with the Imagination Domain.”

Buggy: ???

“This is equivalent to training super skills.”

“In addition, it’s also considered to be nurturing a secondary role for you. Look, movies are so profitable. This three billion box office isn’t the highest. When the day comes when you can use the Imagination Domain to create an explosive movie, under the situation where the actors, venues, special effects, and clothes are all saved, you’ll earn the most. This is much easier than selling equipment, right?”

“If we film a blockbuster movie, we can even buy legendary-level resources.”

Buggy: Wu?!!

Wait a minute?

Buggy’s eyes gradually lit up as it looked at Shi Yu. That seemed to be the case. This seemed to be easier than selling equipment one by one?

It understood. It would apply for an account now and train from filming to uploading short videos.

Then, it would film a few more “Legend of Mu Huiyin”, “Emperor Wu vs Yun An”, “The Things About the Undying Dark Phoenix and the Empress”, “The Love of the Dragon Emperor and the Dragon God that Crossed Thousands of Years”, and “Shiyu Causing Trouble In the Seas”. When the box office exploded, it would directly buy ten legendary resources to guarantee totem level!

Shi Yu: “?”

ne.

“I just want you to watch a movie with me What do you know?? Can these things be filmed?”

Was it sure the other party won’t come and show off your ashes after it filmed the Dragon God’s movie? And what the hell was Shi Yu messing around with the sea?

“Mi! (I want to be the female lead of ‘Mu Huiyin’s Legend’... sword.)” Chi Tong and the worm director applied for the dragon costume position.

“Why are you joining in the fun... Go and prepare to break through to the monarch level first.” Shi Yu pulled Chi Tong up. It was time to break through to the middle level of will. The other pets were the same as Eleven. They would break through to the middle level of will. The overlord will was too difficult. It could slowly train after the monarch level. The main reason was to suppress his meditation speed. Without strength, how could he touch the World Tree?

If possible, his requirements weren’t high. He would get a national team reserve position, the tenth sequence at the bottom, and follow to the World Tree to touch it and broaden his horizons. If it was a real battle, he would leave it to those super geniuses.

Chapter 326 Breaking Through Monarch Level for Chi Tong

The sun was shining brightly today. In the cold villa area of Ping Cheng, Shi Yu hugged the pillow with the cute panda picture and swiped through the movie Chi Tong had just finished.

After watching it, Buggy cried hard, completely destroying the dreamy form of the Butterfly of Imagination.

“Wu, Wu, wu, wu.”

Buggy couldn't help but cry. The person who wrote the script was definitely sick.

“Pfft—” Shi Yu took a tissue and wiped his red eyes before blowing his nose.

He had no objections to writing the protagonist and supporting role to death, but it was too much to write everything to death in the end, even though the front part was so well filmed.

Even if he was spoiled by Chi Tong in advance, he almost couldn't recover.

“This Yan Junyi is not only the main lead, but also the author and director of the script?”

Shi Yu looked at the comments on the Internet and immediately understood that this was a ruthless bad woman.

“When we encounter her in the battle of the Sequences, let's eliminate her. What kind of stupid play is this? She was just giving out candy when she suddenly attacked.”

“Mi!”

Chi Tong was stunned. Wasn't this a little too targeted? Why would the audience take revenge on her for making a movie? Sob, sob, sob.

Although the plot was a little depressing, at least it had broken through.

“Wu!!” Buggy looked at Chi Tong. Stop it, it was even more depressed after hearing this. Why didn't it break through after watching it!!

Director Bug decided that it didn't want to film something like this. It wanted to film something inspirational!

It was bitter first, then sweet.

Legend of Mu Huiyin!

The story of the ostracized mixed-blood girl growing into the number one general who established the dynasty!

Most importantly, after the first movie ended, it could continue to film the second movie, “Mu Huiyin's Legend of Second Rebirth, Chi Tong”. It could earn more money!

Even the external story “The Phoenix Race's Conspiracy” “Mu Huiyin and the empress” ... could be filmed.

“Mi!!” Chi Tong's eyes lit up.

It still wanted to be the female lead's sword!

After watching so many cartoons and movies, it was very interested in going on screen.

Although it could only be the sword of the female lead and had almost zero presence, it was not bad.

"You guys are really torturing..." Shi Yu pondered.

"Modifying and distorting history... You have to go to jail."

"Wu!! (This movie is purely wishful thinking...)" Buggy added. "Let's not talk about this anymore. We can't shoot anything else, but this Legend Mu Huiyin is indeed alright."

IO

Seeing that Buggy and Chi Tong were really interested, Shi Yu said.

Mu Huiyin's history was not recorded.

Although the hundreds of people in the heroic spirit ruins knew the reason.

However, most Beast Tamers in Dong Huang didn't know that there was a person like Mu Huiyin.

The Beast Tamers in Ping Cheng and even Icefield didn't know the true identity of the Ice Dragon's owner.

Those who could come into contact with Mu Huiyin's information were all extremely core upper echelons.

Generally speaking, this archaeological discovery could be announced.

However, at that time, because Shi Yu was only an intermediate Beast Tamer and was too weak, it was not good for him to be so weak and related to the heroic spirit of a sensitive figure like Mu Huiyin.

Therefore, in order to let Shi Yu not be targeted by the totem clans, the news about Mu Huiyin was temporarily sealed.

However, now, Shi Yu felt that there was no need to seal the news at all, because he already had the initial strength to protect himself.

A genius that had yet to grow up needed protection, but a genius that had grown up needed a bright sword, not restrained, but showing off.

Gao Xuan's Awakening Talent was the same as the mechanical legend. His potential posed a greater threat. Why did he dare to reveal it?

This was because he could release a small forbidden weapon. Even if the totem didn't appear, an overlord could still shatter when it came. This was his confidence.

Similarly, Shi Yu was now considered one of the best among the masters. In this situation, even if Chi Tong's race was announced, Shi Yu felt that it was nothing.

They had already contracted the Blue Sea Sprite that had enmity with the Abyss Sea, so why would they be afraid of involving the totem power Mu Huiyin had offended?

The more the debt, the greater the pressure!

“General Mu Huiyin chose to hide her history because of the social situation at that time, but the situation now is different.”

Shi Yu recalled Mu Huiyin’s heroic spirit’s evaluation of the empress as “I’m inferior to her”. That relieved tone made Shi Yu understand that Mu Huiyin actually cared a lot about the evaluation of her as a mixed-blood general in the future.

Aunt Ice Dragon had also said that Mu Huiyin was actually a cold person on the outside but warm on the inside. She very much wanted to be acknowledged. Unfortunately, due to her childhood experience, apart from the pets she contracted, Mu Huiyin had never opened her heart to anyone.

Shi Yu felt that it was time to restore General Mu Huiyin’s heroic deeds. He could also leave Chi Tong’s true race to fate and not deliberately hide it.

“Shoot. Let’s make a one-minute trailer to warm up first. Dig a pit on the short video platform and make it better.” Restoring history through Buggy’s Imagination Domain! If he filmed it well, he might even be able to snatch a few of Heavenly King Zou’s trending topics.

“Wu!!” Buggy’s expression was excited. Alright.

“Mi!!” Chi Tong was instantly excited when he heard that he could also participate in Mu Huiyin’s legend.

“Why don’t we go to the Ice Dragon Snow Mountain to film? We can also let Chi Tong break through there.” Shi Yu smiled.

Ice Dragon Snow Mountain.

Although the interior had already become a flaming mountain, the outside world was still an ice and snow environment. Many snow ferocious beasts lived here.

This time, Shi Yu really didn’t bring any bodyguards into the Ice Dragon Snow Mountain.

With Shi Yu’s current strength, he wasn’t afraid of anything. Under Chi Tong’s possession, he directly swept the flames through the snowstorm area.

Chapter 327 Breaking Through Monarch Level for Chi Tong (1)

Soon, they arrived at their destination.

Perhaps it was because the snow mountain had been cleared previously, but when Shi Yu and the others came this time, they didn’t even encounter a ferocious beast blocking the way. It was especially smooth. Apart from the fact that the natural environment was a little difficult to deal with, everything was alright.

Hu hu ~

At the border of ice and fire, Shi Yu looked at the ice and snow on the side and at the Flaming Torrent at the side. He sighed. It was really the difference between ice and fire.

The environment here had been changed by the small forbidden weapon, the Sun Rose. It was a very good place to sense the power of the sun. Shi Yu planned to let Chi Tong break through here.

Just like how Eleven triggered the heavenly lightning to strengthen its breakthrough back then, Little Chi Tong definitely had to learn it and stimulate the power of the sun to break through.

“Mi ~” After reaching their destination, Chi Tong and Shi Yu separated and looked up at the fiery red sun in the sky.

Eh?

However, as they watched, Chi Tong and Shi Yu were quickly stunned.

In the sky, two black dots gradually appeared. Soon, the red and blue figures gradually enlarged and emitted a fierce cry. It was a huge ice and snow bird with wings like ice crystals, as well as a huge fire bird with three heads and shining flame feathers.

< Name > Ice Feather Bird

(Level of Growth): Commander Level

[Name]: Flame Three-Headed Bird

(Level of Growth): Commander Level

Shi Yu quickly saw their figures and was puzzled. It was fine if there were Ice Feather Birds here, but how could there be a Flame Three-Headed Bird on a snow mountain?

However, he didn't encounter any trouble along the way. When he arrived at his destination, trouble came out. This was something Shi Yu didn't expect.

“Jiu!!! (Darling, let's settle them. We finally found a place suitable for the two of us to stay at at the same time. We can't be disturbed.)”

“Jiu Jiu Jiu!! (Alright, my dear, you actually took advantage of our fusion of ice and fire to invade. Too detestable.)”

Shi Yu and Chi Tong: “?”.

Did they think they couldn't understand?

When did this place become your habitat?

These guys clearly couldn't be together, there was reproductive isolation going on. How come they were mingling?

There were all kinds of strange creatures in nature, so how could they be better at playing than the dragons in Dragon Palace City?

Shi Yu felt that these two guys might have moved over from somewhere.

He didn't expect that the Ice Fire Snow Mountain had attracted "compatible" wild creatures in such a short period of time...

"Jiu!!!"

"Jiu!!!"

As the Ice Feather Bird and the Flame Three-Headed Bird communicated, they swooped down together, wanting to add a meal before "mixing" their ice and fire parts.

Shi Yu naturally couldn't let them do as they pleased.

He glanced at Chi Tong and sighed slightly. Then, he waved his arm and said, "Since they like the fusion of ice and fire so much, Chi Tong, satisfy them."

"Soul Slash!"

"Mi!" As Shi Yu finished speaking, Chi Tong also waved gently in the form of a little sword spirit.

Boom!

In the next moment, the Soul Slaying Sword Domain formed. A gray transparent sword domain instantly enveloped the attacking Ice Feather Bird and the Flame Three-Headed Bird, stunning them.

In the next moment, in the sword domain, two transparent gray sword lights slashed out. Although they were also commander rank, the difference in strength was several times, making them unable to fight back at all against Chi Tong's ability. The gray sword light directly slashed into their bodies in their frightened eyes.

However, what shocked the Ice Feather Bird and the Flame Three-Headed Bird even more was that this sword light did not cause any damage to their bodies and minds!

But it wasn't like it didn't affect them at all.

In a short second, the Ice Feather Bird and the Flame Three-Headed Bird were extremely afraid. This was because they discovered that after this gray sword light slashed into their bodies, it was like an agile scalpel. It was as if it was tearing apart their bodies one by one, wanting to separate their souls from their bodies!

During this process, they felt an extremely repressed power that made them unable to control their movements. They could only watch helplessly as their souls were perfectly sliced apart by this sword light.

"The saber slashes the body, the heart slashes the soul, so the two of you will always be loving."

As Shi Yu finished speaking, with a snap of his fingers, the souls of the Ice Feather Bird and the Flame Three-Headed Bird in the Soul Sword Domain quickly left their body under the push of the sword pressure.

Under Shi Yu and Chi Tong's bad taste, the Ice Feather Bird's soul that was perfectly extracted from its body was pushed into the Flame Three-Headed Bird's empty shell body. The Flame Three-Headed Bird's soul was pushed into the Ice Feather Bird's body...

With a simple operation, the Ice Feather Bird and the Flame Three-Headed Bird in midair immediately shuddered. Then, like kites with their strings broken, they fell down with widened eyes. As they fell, they looked at each other in disbelief.

Skill: Soul Slash

< Introduction > It's a high-level undead skill. It can release Soul Slash and double the damage to undead creatures.

If it was a perfect-level Soul Slash, it would naturally be a simple Soul Slash. However, a max-level Soul Slash had many uses. For example, it was like a soul scalpel that could perfectly cut the enemy's soul away from the body...

It was a very safe and clean skill to collect soul power and physical materials of ferocious beasts.

Right now, the Ice Feather Bird and the Flame Three-Headed Bird were equivalent to exchanging souls, so after they fell to the ground, they were extremely stunned.

It was really a fusion of ice and fire.

Such a strange event made them think that they were dreaming. In addition to the powerful soul aura emitted by Chi Tong just now, they couldn't care less about their bodies and souls. After two screams, they controlled their new bodies with difficulty and flew into the sky, trying to escape.

Chapter 328 Breaking Through to Monarch Level Chi Tong (2)

Shi Yu didn't stop them. He touched his nose that was covered in snowflakes. After wiping away the water droplets, he shook his head regretfully.

How could they show off their love and still want to kill a single guy like him... Farewell. There are only a few days left to live. Treasure it well.

Although Chi Tong could cut the other party's soul out of his body without being injured, it couldn't perfectly let a soul enter another object. The soul would be in the outside world for a long time or in an incompatible object. If it couldn't evolve into an undead race in time, then what awaited them was the destruction of their souls.

The level of the Soul Slash skill was still too low. Otherwise, it would be pretty good to draw a soul for the mechanical beast to use as a brain.

If he wanted to do this, Shi Yu estimated that he had to at least use a super skill, Soul Exchange. Moreover, the skill proficiency couldn't be low.

In fact, Shi Yu was still more hungry for the skill that Emperor Shi's undead and time dual-element that could create heroic spirits... In theory, Emperor Shi could completely use this skill to transform himself into an extraordinary life form and obtain a longer lifespan, right?

"Continue breaking through," Shi Yu said. "Mi!" Chi Tong nodded.

Sun Flame+Energy Storage Beam instantly summoned the power of the sun from outer space.

Sparks quickly gathered on the little sword spirit floating in the air... At this moment, the power accumulated in Chi Tong's body, under the control of the energy control trained by its super high skill proficiency, swept up the power of the sun that descended from the sky and began to crazily baptize its spirit body.

In the sky within the range of the Ice Fire Snow Mountain, an extremely grand scene appeared. The Sword Spirit Body completely formed by orange-red sun flames became larger and larger. Countless sun flames scattered in all directions to form a fire bird, and then it grew into a fire phoenix covered in orange-red sword feathers. In the end, it integrated into the Sword Spirit's body.

All the flames began to converge inward. The flames carried a shocking phoenix might. The orange sword light that shot into the sky instantly filled the sky.

Shi Yu held his breath and carefully observed the changes after Chi Tong's breakthrough.

Chi Tong's rising aura was actually a manifestation of the change in energy value.

The perfect fusion of microscopic energy into the body brought about a transformation in the level of life and strength. It could allow Chi Tong to be reborn and its strength to increase greatly.

500,000...

1 million...

2 million...

Just like Eleven's breakthrough, after Chi Tong broke through, he easily exceeded the basic energy level of ordinary overlord-level pets.

It was still increasing crazily.

3 million... 3.5 million...

"Can it break 4 million?" Shi Yu was curious.

< Name > Heroic Spirit: Chi Tong

[Attributes]: Fire, Undead

[Race Level]: High-level overlord (Quasi Mythical)

(Level of Growth): Monarch Level

[Race Skill]:

Advanced: Soul Slash (Dao Proficiency), Possession (Dao Proficiency), Light Flame Sword (Dao Proficiency)

Super level: Interlocking Sword (Initiate), Sun Flame (Initiate), Spirit Release (Expert)

[Taught Skill]:

Intermediate: Super Sight (transcendent), Energy Storage Beam (transcendent)

Advanced: Deterrence (Transcendent), Absolute Sleep (Transcendent), Clone (Transcendent), Multiplication (Transcendent)

Energy Points: 3,910,000

In the end, Chi Tong's energy level stopped at 3.91 million. However, Shi Yu didn't have much regret. He looked at Chi Tong, who had restrained all its flames and aura and returned to its little sword spirit form, and nodded happily.

Not bad.

Although it was a little worse than Eleven's Normal State of more than four million, much worse than Eleven after its eruption, Chi Tong could possess him. Its max-level possession was even more ferocious than Eleven's restrained sharpness at the moment. In addition, the proficiency of the Spirit Release was easy to farm. It would quickly reach the perfect level and unlock the overlord new form. It might be the first to reach the overlord level in the team. If it wasn't it, it would be Susu. These two had the greatest hope.

"Congratulations," Shi Yu said.

"Mi!!!! (When do we start filming a movie!!!!)" Little Chi Tong flew over quickly.

"...What's the hurry?"

A day later.

Shi Yu, Buggy, and Chi Tong returned to Ping Cheng exhausted.

Buggy picked up its cell phone and used Shi Yu's identity card to register an account in the cultural community and video platform where the young people of Dong Huang were gathered.

ere

Account nickname: Time Traveler

Then, it sent the video it had filmed onto the screen. The content was simulated by the Imagination Domain, and the camera used was from a cell phone. There was a reason why cell phones in this world were expensive. They had good functions in all aspects, and they weren't inferior to the top cameras on Earth.

The title was "Lost History 001: Legend of Mu Huiyin".

Chapter 329 Slime of the Overlord Race

Dong Huang, Demon Capital.

At the Pyro Company's headquarters.

Pyro was now a cultural community and video platform where young people of Dong Huang gathered.

Celebrity Beast Tamers like Zou Yun, Yan Junyi, and the others had stationed stations and were head traffic figures.

Buggy finally chose this platform to release its carefully composed and edited “Mu Huiyin Legend”.

The reason was very simple. Recently, there was an activity here. There was an event to help newbies rise.

As a newbie, Buggy wanted to be taken care of.

Not long after it was uploaded, the backstage team received the video released by Buggy from the video review editor of the Pyro platform.

“Once the website starts an event, all the random things come at us. Do they even know how to make videos?”

The review editor, Wang Dahu, numbly reviewed one video after another.

Although his job wasn’t to judge the quality of the video, but to review whether the video was suitable to be released, whether it was inappropriate, or whether there were sensitive topics, watching the video was, after all, a process of receiving information. He still subconsciously evaluated the level of the video in his heart.

For example, a video like “What would the outcome be if you gave the Green Silkworm ten peppers” or “Change my pet, the Flame Monkey, into a maid costume” might even have some views.

But was there a problem with those distributors who didn’t even have pet elements in the video? Did they know what the hot topic was now? They didn’t even do their homework and came to participate in the event!

Beautiful girls, handsome guys, strong pets, cute pets! If it really couldn’t be done, one could even use the truth to gain popularity. For example, he could create a world competition player tier list for the audience to fight over.

If he didn’t have any of this, how dare these participants still want to get an award?

The review editor, Wang Dahu, reviewed a video in ten seconds and quickly flipped through it. Soon, he reviewed “Lost History 001: Legend of Mu Huiyin”.

“What kind of lousy title is this? Will someone click on it?” He muttered and opened the video.

[Even the overlord of ice and snow can’t suppress my power?]

At the start of the video, a female voice that hit the soul came from the black screen.

The moment the female voice landed in the ears of the review editor, Wang Dahu, he subconsciously judged that this might be a video of a certain edited cartoon and movie. If it weren’t for the voice talent that had undergone professional training, how could a normal person say such a transient voice?

In the next moment, the scene changed. The black screen gradually became clear. In the background of the endless snow mountain that was blowing snow, on the snow, a woman with peerless charm and extraordinary boldness appeared in silver armor and a fire-like red cloak.

Her back was facing the scene, but soon, the scene changed to the front with the snow and wind, allowing the review editor to see her face clearly.

This person had soft snow-white skin, fiery red hair that draped over her shoulders, and a very beautiful face without any makeup. The most unique thing was her deep starry eyes.

Mu Huiyin stood on the snow. On the ground in front of her was a fiery red longsword with the tip of the sword slightly sunk into the ground. Her hands naturally pressed on the hilt of the sword as she stared at the towering snow mountain in front of her.

“Holy shit, who is this?”

In an instant, the review editor was stunned by General Mu Huiyin’s extraordinary aura and beautiful face. He quickly recalled which movie this was, but before he could react, with a boom, Mu Huiyin’s body in the scene erupted with flames that shot into the sky. The flames shot into the sky. In an instant, the world changed. The snow on the entire snow mountain actually started to melt and evaporate, and white mist swept through the sky.

“Roar!” Then, countless ferocious beasts in the snow mountain raised their heads in shock, looking at the drastic change in the sky and the shocked expression of sensing the heat wave coming. In a few seconds, the ferocious beasts that appeared involved transcendent races to overlord races, the snow wolves that looked up collectively, and the Ice River Spine Beasts whose pupils constricted on the snow mountain. The figures of more than ten thousand ferocious beasts appeared in the scene and were forced back a few steps by the sudden hot wind.

Such a spectacular scene stunned the review editor, Wang Dahu, because he had bragged about seeing countless movies. However, he swore that if there were such a big movie, he would definitely have watched it before. He wouldn’t be so stunned now.

In just ten seconds, the reviewing editor was fully focused. He didn’t review it quickly, but watched carefully and seriously.

Then, the scene continued to change. The huge title of “Lost History 001: Legend of Mu Huiyin” appeared in the video again. Then, other voices began to appear in the video. However, the dry, heavy, and blurry voices made people feel that this voice didn’t sound like it was made by humans. In fact, the figures that appeared were also some ferocious beasts and alien races.

(It looks like that hybrid Beast Tamer named Mu Huiyin.)

(This woman will be our greatest threat.)

They had been evaluating a special figure.

Just as they finished speaking, with an incomparable explosion, the female general and the woman they were talking about at the start of the video swept up orange flames in the smoke. She rode a frost dragon and landed in the enemy camp with a flaming sword in hand.

Following that, it was the grand and explosive battle scene. Countless words appeared.

[A mysterious female general with two bloodlines.]

[The earliest Beast Tamer to be given a title in the ancient country.]

Chapter 330 Slime of the Overlord Race (1)

[Suppressing the totem with her own strength.]

[Annihilating 39 overlords, destroying countless monarchs.]

In just a minute, the video was stuffed with a lot of content. The battle scene occupied the core, allowing people to clearly experience Mu Huiyin's strength. She didn't rely on any pets at all. All the pets were even just mounts. A person and a sword killed countless overlords. The fiery sword light covered the sky and the ground.

In the video, Mu Huiyin and her holding the longsword called Red Sparrow that could emit the cry of a phoenix were absolute protagonists.

[From today onwards, you are the Ice Dragon General of the Dong Huang Dynasty.]

A dignified voice sounded.

However, what appeared in the scene was the figure of the woman leaving the seed of power on the heroic spirit altar that many people were familiar with before gradually leaving.

[This place doesn't suit me.]

(A snow mountain is not enough to isolate the huge ocean empire. Leave the border of the dynasty to me. Remember to erase my information.)

As the final voice fell, the video ended.

"Lost History: Legend of Mu Huiyin", please wait for more.

A few big words appeared again, making the review editor, Wang Dahu, fall into deep thought. "What's going on, what's going on...!"

He stopped work and opened the webpage. He searched for the words "Mu Huiyin" on the webpage, but he got no results.

He used the video to check the heavy software and compared this video in the resource bank. The result was also that this was a very new original video.

What the hell...

He widened his eyes. Don't tell him that this was created by a newbie. Are you sure this isn't a promotional film for a huge movie worth hundreds of millions?

However, this level 1 alternate account named Time Traveler didn't even have a certification. It didn't look like the official account of a big company at all. The review editor couldn't be rectified immediately.

"Lost history... Remember to erase my information... General under Emperor Shi? Holy shit, what does this video mean?"

Icefield, Ping Cheng.

An hour after Buggy posted the video, the assessment finally passed. Buggy ran to Shi Yu excitedly with its cell phone.

"It passed?"

Buggy used its mental strength to control the cell phone to show Shi Yu the video interface. Shi Yu, who was meditating, was slightly stunned.

It was pretty fast.

However, the video had just passed the review. There were only six views, and there were no comments.

"This won't do. The video is not bad, but there's no reach..."

Shi Yu took out his cell phone and sent Senior Lu a message.

Shi Yu: "Senior, do you have a Pyro account? Do you have a lot of fans? Help me repost a video!! The Legend of Mu Huiyin we talked about yesterday is done!"

A moment later.

Lu Qingyi: "..."

Senior Lu: "...You really did it. There is an account, but there aren't many fans, and there's no identity verification."

Shi Yu: "Ah, forget it then. I'll call Principal Feng."

Senior Lu: "He definitely doesn't have such a thing...?"

Shi Yu: "It's not a big problem. He can use the Ancient Capital University's official account." Lu Qingyi: "?"

Soon, Principal Feng, who was at Ancient Capital University, let out a puff. He used the video software he had just downloaded to swipe "Mu Huiyin Legend" while speaking to Shi Yu through voice chat. He was infinitely stunned.

"Why are you so fast!!" Yesterday, Shi Yu had just told him that he was preparing to announce General Mu Huiyin's deeds and even wanted to film a documentary movie with General Mu Huiyin as the protagonist. Why was it filmed today?

“Which film company did you hire? How did you do it!”

After watching the video, Principal Feng was immediately shocked.

“Isn’t there the Butterfly of Imagination?”

“Wu-” On the other end of the phone, Buggy’s proud voice came.

“Uh.” Principal Feng was stunned. Holy shit, was this how the butterfly of imagination of the overlord race was used?

“You...” Principal Feng sighed.

Regarding Shi Yu being able to do things related to history, even in a way that he, an old man, wasn’t familiar with, Principal Feng was quite gratified. At least, it was more in line with Shi Yu’s identity than playing with feeding and even machinery. However, publicizing the truth of history... Why was he making such a big scene, making his blood boil, and why was it so exaggerated?

Moreover, was the preview appropriate? Why was it incomplete?

“Why didn’t you finish it in one go?” Principal Feng asked.

“It’s too tiring. According to my experience, continuous dramas are more popular. At the same time, the trailer can also stimulate the curiosity and desire of the audience to explore. When the time comes, it will be archaeological for everyone. Isn’t this more meaningful as clearly exploring history instead of crushing it, and feeding it to people in one go?”

“Principal Feng, times have changed. How can there be so many young people who care about history now? Using this kind of movie preview model will stir up more discussion and also let more people know the truth of history. The news released by the archaeological Association isn’t as high as Heavenly King Zou’s selfie traffic... Don’t worry, I’m a professional.”

“I plan to announce General Mu Huiyin’s deeds in ten videos! Every time, it won’t be long, mainly because many people don’t watch it for too long.”

Principal Feng :”...” Principal Feng pondered. Really?

Don’t lie to him.

“Alright... I’ll get Ancient Capital University to... certify you.”

With Principal Feng’s nod, the official account of the Pyro Company of Ancient Capital University helped repost this video.

He even left a message: Big archaeological discovery!! Thumbs up!

Most of the people who paid attention to the official account of Ancient Capital University were students of Ancient Capital University. For a moment, the students of Ancient Capital University, especially the archeology students of Ancient Capital University, also gradually refreshed this video.
