

Beast 621

Chapter 621: One Mythical, Two Legendaries (3)

“Lu Bai, you...” At this moment, Jie Yi was observing Shi Yu. From just now, she felt that something was wrong with Shi Yu. The changes in the Phoenix Mystic Realm clearly started when Shi Yu summoned his pet!!

Upon hearing Jie Yi’s words, everyone suddenly noticed this and looked at Shi Yu, who had just made a strange move.

With a look, they saw that the blue bird spirit was slowly fusing into Shi Yu’s body through the possession skill.

One second... two seconds... A cyclone began to linger under Shi Yu’s feet, blowing up dust.

Right on the heels of that, Shi Yu’s body began to turn cold. Blue sparks slowly erupted and lingered around him.

Buzz...

The fire threads slowly became dense. In the next moment, Shi Yu’s pupils gradually changed to the color of a sapphire. There seemed to be white ghost flames lingering inside the gem.

Apart from that, his hair slowly turned blue from his pale hair.

After a few seconds, the two parties finally matched.

With a boom, countless fire threads condensed. The cold Nether Ghost Flame turned into flames that wrapped around Shi Yu’s entire body. At this moment, his hair completely turned white and blue, like a death god.

Boom!

Shi Yu ignored everyone’s shocked gazes and directly flew with Chi Tong’s power, heading straight for the center of the flames. After possessing it, he and Chi Tong could sense that the hot flames had no effect on them at all. There was no burning effect at all.

Undying Dark Phoenix! Mother Phoenix! She wasn’t lying. This was really an inheritance!

At this moment, under the temptation of Mythical and Legendary resources, Shi Yu no longer cared about anything and charged forward.

At that moment, the best evidence that there was no danger was that the Dragon God Protection they carried had no reaction at all. Otherwise, if this flame that was enough to threaten the totems became hostile to Shi Yu and the others, the protective water created by the Dragon God would probably instantly extinguish this flaming mountain.

At that time, Shi Yu and the others could also take the resources and not be threatened by the fires!

In short, under various favorable conditions, Shi Yu, who had entered a special possession state, went straight to the core of the resource. His flying speed was so fast that Legend Xiao Yuan, who had just hit a wall, opened her mouth wide in confusion.

“How is this possible!” She saw that Shi Yu was fine. During the flight, countless sun flames retreated as if they had encountered their master. She was very confused.

“Not good.” Seeing this scene, Ji Xiang and the others from the Phoenix Court immediately realized that something was wrong, especially the Divine Master of the Phoenix Court. She directly summoned his contracted Flame Phoenix Master and tried to fly over together.

“You guys also try to enter.” At the same time, Ji Xiang of the Phoenix Court gave the witches of the Phoenix God Society an order.

Jie Yi and the others, as well as these witches with different strength, didn’t hesitate at all. They directly used various methods to advance to the resource core.

Even the president of the Temple Island and Legend Xiao Yuan, who had lost once, wanted to charge into the core area again when they saw that Shi Yu was unstoppable.

“Wait!!” Zheng Hai was about to move too. Although he didn’t know what had happened, he just had to snatch the resources. However, in the next moment, Senior Ke, who knew, grabbed him.

“Wha-!” Zheng Hai widened his eyes in confusion.

“Don’t go,” Legend Ke said.

As soon as he finished speaking, as expected, the many Phoenix Witches and even the three legends who followed Shi Yu to the core area triggered the resistance of the flames again. They sensed the shocking heat and were about to fly to the core area when Legend Xiao Yuan and the president widened their eyes up and were stunned on the spot.

Although the restrictions on the witches and the Divine Masters of the Phoenix Court with the Phoenix bloodline were relatively alright, as they approached, Sun Flame quickly swept through the Phoenix Mystic Realm and stopped them outside. The hot Sun Flame made each of their expressions change. They didn’t doubt that if they took another step forward, they would immediately be burned to death.

“What happened...”

At this moment, Ji Xiang of the Phoenix Court, who was flying in the sky, watched as the blue-haired and blue-eyed “Lu Bai” flew smoothly towards the core area. Her face was filled with confusion. She stared with a blank expression.

What was wrong with this guy?

Now, it could basically be determined.

He was the one who summoned the Phoenix Mystic Realm.

Moreover, apart from summoning the mystic realm, he also had a way to enter the core area of the mystic realm without letting the mystic realm hurt him!!

This Lu Bai was definitely not as simple as a new generation Beast Tamer who came to the Seven Islands to train.

From his smooth movements just now, this guy seemed to have planned it long ago.

Who exactly was this Lu Bai?

“Legend Ke, we need an explanation.” At this moment, being stopped outside the flames, the Divine Master of the Phoenix Court directly said to the motionless Ke Chuanqi.

“Explanation, what explanation... I’m also very confused now.” Legend Ke couldn’t take it anymore.

At the same time, the seven island Beast Tamers who were stopped outside the flames were also unable to deal with Legend Ke. They immediately recalled the bet agreement and their expressions darkened to the extreme.

At this moment, the Phoenix God Shrine had already become ruins. The commotion on Phoenix Mountain was very huge. In a short moment, nearby Beast Tamers had already arrived outside the divine shrine. They looked at the fallen divine shrine and the divine mountain covered in flames, and their hearts raced.

The matter of the Phoenix Mystic Realm was no longer a secret with the establishment of the divine temple and the rise of the Phoenix Court’s Ji Xiang. At this moment, many Beast Tamers immediately thought of something.

“This... Don’t tell me the Phoenix Mystic Realm appeared again!!”

At this moment, Shi Yu had already successfully arrived at the top of Phoenix Mountain. After the mystic realm overlapped with reality, it was in the core area.

The blue-haired and blue-eyed Shi Yu looked at the small tree with a burning gaze.

And the two spiritual flowers that looked like fire roses beside him.

After seeing these three resources, Shi Yu’s breathing almost stopped.

“We’re rich...” He said to Chi Tong!!

Coincidentally, the third index could detect these three resources. This meant that their usage methods, effects, attributes, and levels had all been recorded. These resources had been used by predecessors!

< Name > Sun Flame Flower

[Level]: Level 9 (Legendary-level)

< Introduction > It’s a strengthening resource. A flower that contains the power of the sun can be used to strengthen fire and light life forms. There’s a chance for pets to awaken Sun Flame skills.

There were two of these flowers. Both of them could increase the proficiency of Sun Flame. At this moment, Shi Yu finally understood why the Undying Dark Phoenix had let them come to this ruin.

He finally understood why there were resources here that could nurture Chi Tong. With this, even if it didn't do anything, if Chi Tong ate it now, it could immediately obtain the power of a top-notch overlord and approach the totem level!!

It could allow Sun Flame's skill proficiency to break through to perfection at a very fast speed and approach perfection.

Of course, this was not what Shi Yu was most concerned about. At this moment, what shocked him the most was that they were surrounding another fruit.

Because this white fruit had been detected by the index as a level-ten, Mythical resource!

This was the first time Shi Yu had seen a Mythical resource. The Wind Kirin fossil didn't count. After all, its level had already fallen.

< Name > Undying Fruit

[Level]: Level 10 (Mythical)

< Introduction > It can allow dead lives to reincarnate in the form of undead and live a second life. After reviving and reincarnating, the lowest level of life growth is the totem level. If it's higher than the totem level when it was alive, there's a high chance of inheriting the power when it was alive and reincarnating in a perfect state to live a second life. There's a very small chance of losing a portion of its power. It's an Undying Divine Medicine that legendary emperors have searched for and pursued. It's extremely precious!

Shi Yu's eyes flickered.

"Unfortunately, it's not a strengthening resource... However, if the user commits suicide and revives, it'll be at the totem level. It's also a different strengthening resource?"

Chapter 622: Shi Yu's Totem Friends Descend (1)

Undying Fruit!

Mythical resources!

Its effect was still worthy of this level.

If it was said that there was only a one in ten chance for an overlord-level pet to break through to the totem level, then this Undying Fruit could definitely allow a pet to reach the totem level.

It could even let the newly born Awakening-level Green Silkworm reach the totem level!

This was the power of Mythical resources.

Of course, the premise was that the Green Silkworm killed itself after eating the Undying Fruit and lived a second life in the form of the Undead Worm.

Apart from that, the Undying Fruit actually had a certain restriction, which was that it was useless for users who were already undead. Of course, it was just that it couldn't revive undead lives again. It was still possible to directly strengthen this undead to the totem level.

The Undying Dark Phoenix said that Chi Tong could easily reach the totem level with the resources here. It probably meant the Undying Fruit and two Sun Flame Flowers. The former increased its realm, and the latter increased its skill level.

Upon seeing this resource, Shi Yu suddenly recalled the situation of the Undying Dark Phoenix.

According to the Undying Dark Phoenix itself, it had fallen once. At the start, it also mastered the pure power of the sun. It was one of the strongest races in the Phoenix Race, the Sun God Phoenix Race. It was later when it became an Undying Dark Phoenix.

Shi Yu suspected that the Undying Dark Phoenix itself should have eaten this Undying Fruit before!

Therefore, after falling and reviving, it still had the power above top-notch totems. The Undying Dark Phoenix at its peak was probably also a demigod-level big boss, a ceiling expert in the Phoenix Race.

After all, Mythical resources had always been exclusive to legendary experts and demigod experts in history. Even top-notch totems rarely had the chance to collect Mythical resources.

"I remember that back then, Zhong Xuan said that in order to heal himself, Emperor Wu used many Mythical-level Undying Divine Medicine, but he still couldn't escape the injury of Yun An. I wonder if Emperor Wu has used the Undying Fruit."

At this moment, Shi Yu made a decision the moment he saw the Undying Fruit.

If it was possible, if there was a chance...

He would eat it himself!

Giving it to Chi Tong was not the best choice. After all, for Chi Tong, the totem level could be easily reached without this thing. As long as Shi Yu wanted to break the contract and spend a few months to add points, the effect would immediately be equal to these three resources.

It was better to eat it himself!

Yes, the Undying Fruit was real. Even humans could eat it.

If they died, they could directly reincarnate into a totem-level undead life form.

It was equivalent to obtaining a second life after eating this.

Moreover, it was the kind of long life that could still live for at least a thousand years. At the same time, it also had powerful battle power.

Archeology was a rather dangerous thing, and so was Beast Taming. But with this, even if he didn't have the ability to control beasts in the future, without his pets by his side, he could still fly around.

Shi Yu was tempted.

Of course, he couldn't be too reckless. After all, at that time, although he had the power of a totem, his battle power was probably weaker than totems like the gem cat that relied on resources to break through. He could be said to be the weakest totem.

"After becoming an undead, losing the Beast Taming Space is inevitable, but I wonder if I'll lose the skill index. If I die one to two hundred years later, or die during archeology trips and reincarnate as an undead, if I can still retain the skill index talent, I wonder if I can add points to myself... From the totem level to the Mythical level..."

"Ghost God Shi Yu!"

"Even if I can't keep the skill index, a totem-level undead life form is not bad. If Eleven and the others have already been cultivated to the Mythical stage by me at that time, with them by my side, it doesn't seem impossible for me to live for thousands or tens of thousands of years in the future."

This number was almost eternal for the 20-year-old Shi Yu.

Shi Yu muttered in his heart. Initially, he didn't think it was a strengthening resource, but on careful thought, this was a top-notch resource that could be used on Beast Tamers. It was even more impressive.

Eating it was a huge life guarantee for him. This was much more stable than Chi Tong's soul surgery. After all, it was a resource recorded in the third index.

The third and eleventh index recorded that when the Dragon Emperor Dynasty was destroyed and the Space Emperor Dynasty was established, the ancient mystic realm descended, attracting a large number of overlords, totems, and human Beast Tamers to explore.

During this process, a titled legendary human Beast Tamer accidentally obtained the Undying Divine Fruit. Without a word, he ate it himself. Of course, this action also made the totem creatures angry and directly surrounded him.

Unfortunately, in this battle, all the pets of this titled legend died. The Beast Tamer himself also died.

Of course, he also successfully reincarnated because of the fruit. Although he successfully reincarnated and indeed obtained the power of a totem-level undead, unfortunately, his soul was still shattered.

This was one of the stories recorded in the Undying Fruit.

According to the legends, this Titled Legend didn't do it selfishly because of the effect of the Undying Divine Fruit, but because he didn't want such a Mythical resource to fall into the hands of the totem clans. He could only destroy it.

This was only one of the cases. The Undying Fruit was a very top-notch resource among the Mythical Undying Divine Medicine. There were many stories, and legendary emperors had searched for it.

The wealth of the Phoenix Race was really rich... And this was only the personal collection of the Undying Dark Phoenix?

Chapter 623: Shi Yu's Totem Friends Descend (2)

When he recalled that the Undying Dark Phoenix had said that it knew many mystic realms of the Great Empress Dynasty and the Phoenix Race's inheritance mystic realm, Shi Yu was tempted.

"If it were other Mythical resources... For example, resources that can only strengthen certain attributes, or Mythical resources like the Wind Kirin fossil that aren't very useful, it wouldn't attract too much coveting. After all, for the seven countries, they also have a few Mythical resources in their inventory, but this thing seems to be a little abnormal. I hope everything goes smoothly."

At this moment, when Shi Yu thought of the legends and stories, he fell silent again. He looked down from the top of the mountain. At the moment, be it the president of the Red God Island or the archeologist, Legend Xiao Yuan, they gritted their teeth and looked up. They wanted to come up, but they couldn't. They were anxious to death.

"But speaking of which..." Shi Yu looked at the three resources again.

No matter what, at least others had yet to see these resources. How should he store the Undying Fruit?

At this moment, Shi Yu had already determined that this was a fixed mystic realm. It was established at this place with spatial ability and couldn't be moved. Therefore, it was unrealistic to directly take it away with the mystic realm. Then, he could only take the resources alone.

Among them, the collection and preservation method of the Sun Flame Flower was recorded in the third index. It was enough to pluck it down to the roots and store it in a place with rich fire power. The energy of the resources would not wither and disperse for ten years.

If it was transplanted to a place with sufficient sun energy, it could still be maintained for a longer time. For example, here, the sun flames were everywhere, and it was a place with abundant sun power.

In Shi Yu's team, Buggy, Baby Ginseng, and Chi Tong could easily create a place to preserve the Sun Flame Flower and directly transplant it into the ruins space.

However, the index didn't record the detailed use and preservation of the Undying Fruit...

"Ling, is there anything special about plucking the Undying Fruit?" Shi Yu asked.

In the Beast Taming Space, Ling walked up to Shi Yu and fell into deep thought.

Ling felt that this beast tamer was being unreasonable.

How could it know the problem that wasn't recorded in the index?

"Master, let's transplant the Sun Flame Flower first. It's quite time-consuming to transplant legendary-level resources... I'll immediately analyze the situation of the Undying Fruit," Ling said.

"Why don't we eat it directly?" Shi Yu looked at the Undying Fruit and fell into deep thought. In the records, it shouldn't be a problem to eat it directly.

“Come, come, come, let’s confirm together and see if it’s okay to eat this. Is there any danger? Don’t let it be the Undying Dark Phoenix’s conspiracy.”

[Undying Dark Phoenix:?]

Heavenly Rainbow Island, the venue of the Road to Champion challenge.

The huge change in the Red God Island quickly spread to the Heavenly Rainbow Island.

The legend of the Warring States was the in-charge of receiving the Dong Huang exchange team. His strength could be ranked in the top three of the Seven Islands’ Beast Tamers, already at the top of the Seven Islands’ power.

At this moment, the legend of the Warring States and the legend of the Tyrannical Sea were watching Ning Tianming mess around and challenge the path. At that moment, Ning Tianming had already challenged the seventh level and was about to enter the eighth level.

At this moment, the legend of the Warring States suddenly received a message. After taking a look, his expression changed drastically.

[Legend of the Warring States, bad news. After the Dong Huang exchange team led by Ke Yingzong, Lu Bai, and the others arrived at the Phoenix God Society, the Phoenix Mystic Realm descended. A powerful energy wave was transmitted from the mystic realm. There seems to be one Mythical resource and two Legendary resources.]

[President of the Temple Island, Legend Xiao Yuan, the Divine Lord of the Phoenix Court, and the others can’t approach the core of the mystic realm, but Dong Huang’s Beast Tamer, Lu Bai, can ignore the obstruction of the mystic realm. At the moment, he has already come into contact with resources...]

What?!

The legend of the Warring States widened his eyes.

It meant that... the Phoenix Mystic Realm... had been cracked by the Beast Tamers of Dong Huang?

“Bastards!!!” On the sky ship, the legend of the Warring States was suddenly furious. His gaze exploded as he stood up with a bang.

Holy shit, holy shit, holy shit, what was going on?

Logically speaking, Lu Bai and the others should have just arrived at the Phoenix God Society not long ago.

Why was the Phoenix Mystic Realm cracked? Impossible!

Moreover, one Mythical resource and two Legendary resources were about to fall into the hands of Dong Huang’s Lu Bai. Was he serious??

“!!!” Along with the legend of the Warring States was the Tyrannical Sea Legend. He also widened his eyes and suddenly received the connection from Ke Yingzong and the others.

He learned that Shi Yu had already cracked the mystic realm and came into contact with a Mythical resource and two legendary resources.

Awesome!

In an instant, the Tyrannical Sea Legend felt refreshed and looked at the Warring States Legend.

Legend of the Warring States: ???

“The challenge on the road to champion continues. I suddenly have something to do. I’ll leave first,” the legend of the Warring States said, directly summoning his strange pet.

It was a huge demon with a crab-like black body, a black goat head, and meat wings on both sides of its body.

The legend of the Warring States immediately boarded the pet’s huge body that was nearly ten meters tall, attracting everyone’s attention.

“Count me in.” Tyrannical Sea Legend chuckled and also summoned his invincible Giant Leviathan. Two Titled Legends who could fight totems suddenly summoned their pets, immediately stunning the Beast Tamers here.

At this moment, the legend of the Warring States couldn’t be bothered with the Tyrannical Sea Legend anymore. He directly flew in the direction of the Red God Island.

“This...” A moment later, Legend Xiao Shuang, the legendary noble son Jiang Tianyang, and the others, as well as Legend Ju Qian Yao, Legend Suzi, and the others from the Seven Islands who received the Dong Huang exchange team together, immediately knew about the change in the Red God Island. They widened their eyes.

Chapter 624: Shi Yu’s Totem Friends Descend (3)

In an instant, the Crimson God Island became the center of a storm.

“No... What happened?” At this moment, Heavenly King Zou and the others were considered the third wave of Beast Tamers who had obtained the internal information of Dong Huang. They stood on the sky ship. Heavenly King Zou looked at his cell phone and the information obtained by the Tyrannical Sea Legend and fell into deep thought.

The descent of the Phoenix Mystic Realm... Lu Bai... cracked... One Mythical and two Legendary resources...

“Holy shit! Holy shit, holy shit, holy shit!!!” Heavenly King Zou was directly stunned. Wait a minute, although Lu Bai had passed the path to champion and completed the bet agreement, wasn’t this cracking speed a little too ridiculous?

The battle wasn’t over yet!

Moreover, for Heavenly King Zou, this information style felt so familiar...

“Is this guy human?!” His eyes were extremely red.

“Moreover, one mythical and two legends. F*ck, can the exchange team still successfully leave the Seven Islands?” While feeling sour, Heavenly King Zou was suddenly stunned.

Even if they could leave successfully, after returning to the country, his battle results would be even more useless compared to Lu Bai’s battle results. What should he do? It could be said that Zou Yun, Ji Feng, Tong Yan, and the others, who had also received the news at this moment, were like the Beast Tamers of the Seven Islands. They opened their mouths in shock and gradually lost their ability to think.

....

Outside Phoenix Mountain.

In a short period of time, a large number of Beast Tamers had already gathered here. Among them, the legendary Divine Master of the Red Fire society, the legendary Beast Tamer of the Unknown Fire Family, and the top experts of the legendary factions native to the Red God Island were also rushing over at an extremely fast speed.

“President, Divine Master, Legend Xiao Yuan, what happened!!”

The legendary Divine Master of the Red Fire society was the first legendary expert to rush over. He descended into Phoenix Mountain and looked at the situation in front of him in shock.

At this moment, the three of them didn’t have the time to care about him. The weak, pitiful, helpless, and lost witches of the Phoenix Shrine could only act as commentators.

At the side, Zheng Hai was already stunned. He tugged at Senior Ke and whispered, “Could it be that the commotion is a little too big?”

Senior Ke’s expression didn’t change. “What’s there to be afraid of? We have a bet agreement. The greater the commotion, the better. The greater the commotion, the harder it is to go back on your word. Moreover...”

Senior Ke’s expression didn’t change. “What’s there to be afraid of? We have a bet agreement. The greater the commotion, the better. The greater the commotion, the harder it is to go back on your word. Moreover...”

[Give me some time. It’s a plant-type resource. The transplant requires time. Don’t worry about the Seven Islands. Our reinforcements will be here soon.]

At the same time, Senior Ke also heard Shi Yu’s voice transmission from afar. He took a deep breath.

“This, this, this, this...” At the same time, the Divine Master of the Red Fire society, who had rushed over, gradually understood what was going on.

His expression kept changing. A Mythical-level resource and two legendary-level resources were given to Dong Huang just like that?

How could this be!

“Legend Ke, is Lu Bai or his pet a hybrid of the Phoenix Race!” At this moment, Ji Xiang of the Phoenix Academy asked Ke Yingzong.

Otherwise, there was no reason for him to enter the mystic realm directly like this.

Moreover, the most ridiculous thing was that it was as if Lu Bai was the owner of this mystic realm. How was that possible?

The witches of the Phoenix Court also looked at the top of the mountain with complicated expressions.

“This, I don’t know either.” Legend Ke shook his head. At the same time, he looked at the top of the mountain with a burning gaze and said, “However, according to the bet agreement, it can be confirmed that it was Lu Bai who cracked the mystic realm and also the resources obtained by Lu Bai. Everyone, please don’t try to snatch the resources like just now. This is already a violation of the bet.”

The bet!

At this moment, when they heard Legend Ke mention this, the expressions of President Si Island, Legend Xiao Yuan, and the others changed, but they didn’t know how to refute for a moment.

Because at their level, it was not enough to openly tear up the agreement between the Seven Islands Association and the Dong Huang Association. They couldn’t bear the consequences at all.

The only outcome of this was to start a war with Dong Huang.

At this level, at least a Titled Legend or a guardian had to give the order.

However, watching helplessly as top-notch resources were taken away from their territory by others made the legends of the Seven Islands extremely uncomfortable.

At this moment, they were racking their brains to think of ways to reverse the situation and distort the truth.

“According to my research, only the direct bloodline of the owner of the Phoenix Mystic Realm can be immune to the damage of those flames. Even extremely close bloodlines will be rejected.” At this moment, the legend of the Phoenix Court still didn’t give up.

She said, “I don’t care about resources now. I just want to know why ‘Lu Bai’ can avoid being injured by the mystic realm.”

Due to his respect for the owner of the Phoenix Mystic Realm, the legend of the Phoenix Academy only wanted to know the truth.

Their Phoenix Shrine couldn’t decide the ownership of the bet agreement and the Phoenix Mystic Realm. However, if Lu Bai or his pet was really a direct descendant of the Phoenix Mystic Realm’s owner, then the Phoenix Shrine, which had received the Phoenix Mystic Realm’s favor, should at least not stand opposite Lu Bai and the others under any circumstances.

Due to her childhood experience, the issue of the ownership of the Phoenix Mystic Realm was even deeper than the Seven Islands. It could be said that the owner of the Phoenix Mystic Realm was the number one faith figure of the Phoenix Divine Society.

“Well, you can ask him yourself later. I don’t know either.” Ke Yingzong shook his head, unable to explain.

Chapter 625: Shi Yu’s Totem Friends Descend (4)

Soon, the legendary Beast Tamer of the Red God Family arrived. The situation at the scene became more and more complicated.

More and more high-level forces gathered on the Seven Islands.

Just as the few parties had different thoughts, the greatest change appeared!!!

Boom!!!

In the sky above the mystic realm of Phoenix Mountain, a huge dimensional vortex appeared. The sky became even redder, and a scarlet wave gradually condensed into a flaming face that looked like a demon.

A totem-level aura was undoubtedly revealed from its body.

The flaming pupils instantly passed through the Sun Flame and sensed the power of legendary and Mythical resources on the mountaintop.

In the Seven Islands area, there were a total of six totem-level guardians. They were all guardian beasts left behind by ancient experts in the Seven Islands area. Together with the seven island female weapons, they protected the Seven Islands.

Among them, a guardian was sleeping in the depths of the Red God Island. It was a totem-level elemental life form. Its form was a ball of fire. Because it was red, it was called “Red God”.

At this moment, not only did the Beast Tamer Association of the Seven Islands sense the powerful energy fluctuations produced by the fusion of the Phoenix Mystic Realm and reality, but even this fire guardian also sensed the attraction of the Sun Flame’s power. It was restless and woke up from its sleep to descend into the world again.

“I didn’t expect to be so lucky.” Red God, who was in the sky, was extremely excited. Although it didn’t sense what the Mythical resource was, the power of the two Sun Flame Flowers was completely sensed by it.

It instantly judged that if it ate those two flowers, it could enter the top totem level.

In addition to that unknown Mythical resource, perhaps there was hope for demigod level?

It was crazy.

Such a top-notch resource actually appeared in the territory he was protecting, making Red God extremely excited.

However, just as it was excited, it suddenly sensed the disappearance of another resource power.

After being stunned for a moment, Red God was furious. He realized that someone was plucking his “resources”.

“Bastard!!”

It directly condensed a huge flaming hand, wanting to pinch the resources at the top of the mountain.

“Lu Bai...” As Red God appeared, the Beast Tamers below opened their mouths wide and looked at the guardian of the Red God Island in shock. Among them, Senior Ke and Zheng Hai’s pupils constricted when they saw Red God suddenly attack.

The gem cat in the alternate space also frowned. It wanted to teach this weakling a lesson, but it quickly stopped condensing its strength.

Because the power of the Phoenix Mystic Realm was something that even the fire totem couldn’t cross.

Boom!!

In the next moment, Red God, who wanted to pluck the resources in the flames, instantly sensed the Sun Flame power that was difficult for even him to cross.

The huge heat wave instantly burned it very painfully, making its huge eyes shrink as it retracted its strength.

“Bastard!” It cursed again.

At the same time, its huge eyes frowned as it looked below.

At this moment, the Beast Tamers of the Seven Islands below had long noticed this person.

Hadn’t this master been sleeping for more than ten years?

It was... attracted by the fluctuations of resources?

“Lord Red God!!!” As the descendant of a Red God Beast Tamer, the Divine Master of the Red Fire society, who believed in Red God, was instantly extremely excited to see his ancestor.

“Oh, it’s you, kid.” Red God also recognized the bloodline of the Red Fire society’s Divine Master and said, “Hurry up and think of a way. I want the resources inside.”

“But...” The Divine Master was immediately unable to deal with Red God.

“But? This is the resource left to me by my Beast Tamer, your ancestor. Look, we’re all fire-element!” Although Red God didn’t know what was going on, he directly announced the ownership of the resources in the Phoenix Mystic Realm in a high-profile manner.

This shameless statement stunned the witches of the Phoenix Shrine.

However, it made the expressions of the president of the island, Legend Xiao Yuan, and the others suddenly happy.

This was inappropriate.

A guardian was taking the blame.

“Legend Ke, you also heard it. The situation seems to have changed. The resources of the Phoenix Mystic Realm seem to be the inheritance left behind by the seniors of the Seven Islands to Lord Red God. It can’t be considered an unsolved mystic realm. We still have to discuss the specific situation a little. Please hand the resources inside to the Seven Islands for safekeeping first. The Seven Islands will definitely give Dong Huang a reasonable explanation.”

The president of the island said. At this moment, with the Red God standing on their side, they were more confident. At least, at least, they couldn’t let Dong Huang take all the resources. As long as two legendary resources were left behind, it would be a profit. On Dong Huang’s side, under the circumstances where there were benefits, it definitely wouldn’t fall out with the Seven Islands for a legendary resource. It was best if everyone had meat to eat.

“Indeed.” The Divine Master was naturally on Red God’s side. He also looked at Legend Ke forcefully. Legend Xiao Yuan also nodded. How could they give Dong Huang the initiative completely?

Even if Dong Huang was powerful, there was definitely still room for negotiation. At least, here, the Seven Islands were stronger.

When that Lu Bai came out, the resources would definitely not be given to him.

“What are you talking about!!!” Legend Ke cursed. Were they trying to cheat?

Not only could Legend Ke not stand these words, but even Ji Xiang of the Phoenix Court revealed a sullen expression. She said to the guardian of the Red God Island, “Lord Red God, before you speak, you have to think carefully. Don’t make things up, right?”

Chapter 626: Shi Yu’s Totem Friends Descend (5)

Red God’s Beast Tamer’s experience was known to everyone, and it was the same for Red God. It was definitely unrelated to the Phoenix Mystic Realm. This Phoenix Court’s Ji Xiang was very certain! The other party’s words were a trampling on the Phoenix God Society’s existence!

“Huh? You’re doubting me??” Red God frowned.

“I’m just advising Lord Red God to be honest,” Ji Xiang said.

Red God didn’t say a word. A huge pressure pressed down on Ji Xiang of the Phoenix Court, making her expression change and reveal an incredulous expression. She didn’t expect the guardian of the Red God Island to be so unreasonable.

She was just about to resist when someone directly helped her in the next moment.

“Hey, hey, hey.”

At the same time, out of thin air, a totem-level deterrence flowed upstream from the alternate space, squeezing the pressure of the Red God into the sky.

At this moment, Red God's expression changed.

Boom!!!

Two totem-level deterrence directly tore through space. In the black spatial crack, a gem cat slowly walked out and stepped in the sky. It looked straight at the fire monster in the sky and said, "Big guy, I suspect you're playing with fire."

Another totem!!!

"This is... a gem cat?? How is this possible!!"

As the gem cat appeared and displayed the power of the totem, the legends of the Seven Islands widened their eyes. This was because the race of the gem cat was not high. Even after it evolved with the gem, the highest was only a monarch race.

How could it reach the totem level!

Moreover, this gem cat was too unfamiliar. The Beast Tamers from the Seven Islands didn't know it.

Even the legends of the Phoenix Court were stunned. They looked at the gem cat in disbelief, not knowing why it wanted to resist the pressure for them.

"It's Senior Ying..." Legend Ke was delighted. Beside him, Zheng Hai was also stunned. Wasn't this the guardian overlord of Ancient Capital University?

At this moment, the matter was becoming more and more complicated. In the sky above the sea outside the Crimson God Island, a large number of flying overlords rushed to the core of the incident at an extremely fast speed. The goat demon rode by the legend of the Warring States, the Giant Leviathan rode by the legend of the Tyrannical Sea, and Legend Xiao Shuang and the others were rushing over at an extremely fast speed.

Around Phoenix Mountain, the low-level Beast Tamers sensed the deterrence on the mountain and looked at Red God in the sky. They felt hot sweat flowing and felt that something was wrong. A huge battle might happen here!

"And who are you..." At that moment, the most angry one was still the totem Red God. It looked at the weak totem cat in front of it and said, "Do you want to fight me?"

The gem cat yawned and said, "I'm just saving you."

"I advise you not to plot against the resources on the mountain and not to disturb the people inside. Otherwise, the consequences will be unimaginable."

"In addition, you have to repay me for saving your life. Remember, you owe me a legendary resource."

Red God: "?"

The seven island legends: ???

"Huh??" Red God smiled and was angry. As one of the guardians of the Seven Islands, it had never seen such an arrogant totem in its territory.

“It’s coming,” the gem cat whispered.

At this moment, Red God still didn’t understand, but in the next moment, its expression changed drastically.

One, two, three, four, five...

One, two, three...

It felt an endless powerful aura suddenly approaching.

Among them, there were at least six totem levels, and among these six totems, there were even top-notch totems!!

“How is this possible!!!”

Red God was shocked. This number...

At this moment, a crack suddenly appeared in the higher sky, a huge black crack.

Dragon roars came from the crack, resounding through the world, making Red God’s expression change even more.

It also made the Beast Tamers of the Seven Islands gradually stunned.

A huge frost dragon dozens of meters tall was the first to fly out of the spatial crack, bringing with it endless cold air.

Its cold gaze stared at the entire Phoenix Mountain, causing the temperature here to plummet.

Totem level, frost dragon!

Following closely behind.

A hundred-meter-long sea-blue Eastern Divine Dragon, a white Eastern Divine Dragon, flew out of the spatial crack. their huge bodies circled the sky.

Dragon Palace City, Sea Dragon King, Azure Dragon King!!

Their huge dragon eyes stared down, searching for someone.

This wasn’t the end.

Under the sound of lightning, the golden Eastern Divine Dragon, which was also a hundred meters long, appeared with the totem dragons in front!!

Dragon Palace City, Thunder Dragon King, Immortal Dragon King.

In the end, as the spatial crack shrank, a nearly illusory and transparent divine dragon came out. Dragon Palace City, the Space Dragon King!

Its heavy voice resounded in all directions. “Seriously, it’s this close and you still want me to tear open space.”

Six totems!!

Apart from that, the shrunken crack didn't completely close. The Sky Penetrating Whale, the Rakshasa General, the Space Jellyfish, and the other top overlords of the Environmental Protection Department of Dragon Palace City followed closely behind the totem dragon kings and descended here.

A terrifying aura that filled the sky suppressed the Red God Island.

Six totems and more than ten top-notch overlords had descended!!!

At this moment, even the flames of Phoenix Mountain were much weaker.

Looking at the six totem dragon kings that had suddenly descended, the legendary Beast Tamers of the Seven Islands, the nearby low-level Beast Tamers of the Seven Islands, their pets... They felt their hearts almost stop. They were almost unable to breathe. They widened their eyes and couldn't believe their eyes.

Even Red God was so scared that it was about to pee its pants. It didn't understand why the hooligans of Dragon Palace City would suddenly descend on the Seven Islands.

Even during the totem battle, the Dragon Kings of Dragon Palace City had never traveled together like this.

Of course, Legend Ke and Zheng Hai were also stunned and shocked.

This group of Dragon Kings was originally called by the evidence of the Environmental Protection Department to ask for an explanation from the Seven Islands. They planned to use the Poison Dragon Totem to extort some resources.

However, on the way, they were stopped by the gem cat clone and were informed that someone was bullying Shi Yu, so they came here first.

Shi Yu couldn't be bullied. After all, this was the master of the Blue Sea Sprite, the Beast Tamer chosen by the Dragon God, the son of the Ice Dragon King. They were all family!

At this moment, as the totem dragon kings descended, Shi Yu, who was collecting resources, seemed to have entered the end. In the flames, a blue figure slowly flew up.

Shi Yu, who flew up from the core of the mystic realm, immediately became the focus.

On his body, the Ice Slime King was hanging. It was too hot...

At this moment, when Red God saw this little thief who stole his "resources", his gaze was filled with hatred.

Legend of the Seven Islands and the others also looked at Shi Yu, having yet to recover from their shock.

Right on the heels of that, an even more shocking scene appeared. The totem dragon kings' actions made everyone's eyes explode.

The totem dragon kings were slightly stunned when they saw Shi Yu. The gem cat had already told them about Shi Yu's disguise, so they could still recognize him at this moment. After being stunned, they said unevenly, "You're pretty energetic. I heard from that cat that someone is bullying you. Who is it? They're very bold."

Shi Yu looked aggrieved.

“It’s that guy.” Shi Yu pointed at the unreasonable Red God. He needed to at least be compensated one legendary resource from this guy, or it wasn’t over!

Red God: “???”

The seven totems looked at Red God.

Red God’s mentality exploded: QAQ, what the hell... No way, no way!!

Chapter 627: Opening the Door and Letting Shi Yu In (1)

Red God’s current mentality was quite broken.

To be honest, this was the first time it had encountered such a situation.

Even in the last totem battle, when it fought alongside its Beast Tamer, it had never seen so many totems at the same time.

Moreover, every one of them here was a dragon with powerful battle power!

Apart from that cat.

No matter how slow Red God was, he could understand what was going on.

The human who took the resources had several thighs that he leaned on, and these thighs were especially thick!

At this moment, Red God was filled with endless anger.

It was not for Shi Yu, not for the totem dragon kings, but for the president of the island, Divine Master of the Red Fire, and the others.

As the totem guardian of the Seven Islands and a guardian beast left behind by the former experts of the Seven Islands, its status in the Seven Islands was very high. Therefore, when it saw the resources unearthed in its protective territory, it subconsciously wanted to take them for itself.

This was originally a very normal thing. In the Seven Islands, it was said that the Valkyrie couldn’t come out of seclusion. None of the other five guardians were fire-element. Who else could this resource be given to!

The agreement of the island’s president, the Divine Master of the Red God society, and the others at the start also made Red God very satisfied.

But from the looks of it, Red God really wanted to curse these two guys.

A Beast Tamer with such a rich background that he could even summon the totem dragon kings of Dragon Palace City. Why didn’t they say this in advance??

If they had said in advance, of course it wouldn't do anything like this!

It'd sit down and talk to these foreign friends!

Red God immediately felt that it was the president of Temple Island and the others who had harmed it. It was wronged!

At this moment, the reason why Red God was so afraid was that the aura of these seven totems had locked onto it!

Several terrifying deterrence wrapped around it like a cage.

This feeling of approaching death at the limit even made Red God have no time to think about why a Beast Tamer who wasn't from the Seven Islands would pick resources in its territory.

This was no longer important. After all, in this world, the strongest fist was the law. At this moment, it was clearly being beaten up by a group of big fists.

"It's a misunderstanding..."

Red God wanted to explain and push the blame to the president of Temple Island and God Lord Chi Huo, who believed in it, but the totem dragon kings of Dragon Palace City didn't plan to deal with it simply.

Although it wasn't enough trouble for them to just destroy the Red God, as one of the seven island guardians, it was undoubtedly more convenient for it to see the difference in strength with its own eyes so that things would be easier in the subsequent compensation segment.

"Seven Islands, you're getting more and more bold."

The Sea Dragon King widened its eyes and glared. Its dragon eyes were filled with an unreachable deterrence. The front of its long body slapped at Red God with its dragon claws.

"Wait!"

Seeing this, Red God's expression froze. At the same time, it cursed in its heart. Just as it was about to resist, it suddenly felt that it seemed to have been instantly deprived of the right to control the fire elements!

"Wait!"

Although it was only for an instant, it still shocked Red God.

It felt as if it had entered another world at once, and the laws of fire in this world were completely different from the previous world.

"Anti-magic."

In the sky, the mysterious Space Dragon King that Shi Yu had never seen before looked at Red God with a deep gaze.

In an instant, transparent spatial fluctuations spread and gathered into a domain, restricting Red God and immediately depriving it of its ability to control flames.

Transcendent level, Anti-magic Domain!

“Roar...”

This was not the end. As the Sea Dragon King attacked, the dragon might of the other totem dragon kings also completely erupted. Like a spatial vibration, it made the sky pitch-black, causing the spatial crack to wrap into a huge black hole, emitting a shocking aura.

“Top-notch totem...”

As soon as the Space Dragon King attacked, Red God knew that it was completely not this guy’s match. Just this spatial divine dragon was enough to suppress it. Moreover, the other big guys were also not to be trifled with.

Crimson God was immediately filled with sorrow. What a sin.

At this moment, the joint suppression of the many totems made it impossible for the Red God to resist. It could only watch helplessly as the Sea Dragon King’s huge dragon claw enveloped the sky and earth and smashed towards it!

With a boom, Red God felt its mind tremble. This dragon claw wrapped in dragon might directly suppressed the flames that filled the sky and knocked it out of its original form, making its body like a rain of fire as it smashed towards Phoenix Mountain!

The huge flaming face kept distorting, turning into a strange elemental life form with a demon face that looked like a huge rat.

“Squeak...”

The claw was slapped down, and the intense pain made Red God cry out. The place it landed instantly formed a sea of fire that squeezed the Sun Flame area of the Phoenix Mystic Realm.

In the sea of fire, the pupils of the huge rat Red God constricted as it glared at this group of bastards.

He cursed, “Let’s talk about it!”

“Do you want to start a war with the Seven Islands!”

“Are you even qualified to represent the Seven Islands?” The Sea Dragon King continued to slap over from afar.

The dragon-shaped water claw and the surrounding six to seven totem-level dragon might directly made Red God burn with anger, and its pupils constricted.

“You #¥#@, Beast Tamers of the Seven Islands, what are you still staring at? Hurry up and call for reinforcements!”

“Also, you injured me. The legend of the Seven Islands won’t let you off...” It revealed an extremely arrogant expression, and its expression gradually distorted.

Boom!!!

With another slap, the flames around Red God were all destroyed. As for Red God's main body, the five to six-meter-long fire rat, it directly curled up on the wet ground, looking extremely miserable.

The Anti-magic Domain continued to envelop it, and seven totem-level deterrence wrapped around its body. It couldn't spare any strength to deal with the Sea Dragon King's huge claws.

Chapter 628: Opening the Door to Release Shi Yu (2)

"Squeak..."

At this moment, the miserable state of the Red God fell in the eyes of the Divine Master of the Phoenix Court, the president of Temple Island, Legend Xiao Yuan, the Red Fire Divine Master, and the others, attacking their hearts at all times.

"Lord Red God..."

The Red Fire Divine Master trembled as he wanted to help the other party, but be it him or the overlord pet beside him, they felt the aura formed by dozens of pressure in the sky and didn't have the courage to stand out at all.

At that moment, Ke Yingzong and Zheng Hai also swallowed their saliva crazily, stunned by the scene in front of them.

It was too ferocious.

This was the guardian of the Seven Islands. Why was it as miserable as a primary school student being bullied by an evil force?

"Ah, ah, ah."

At this moment, Shi Yu finally heaved a sigh of relief.

In fact, when Red God appeared and stretched out his big hand to grab the top of the mountain, he panicked for a moment. He didn't expect that the guardians of the Seven Islands would be summoned like this.

However, the current Shi Yu was completely at ease.

It didn't expect that there were his dragons in the sea.

"Bingbing, steady." Beside a pile of totem dragon kings, the cute gem cat mixed in also released deterrence while secretly praising the frost dragon.

At first, the gem cat thought that there were probably only two or three Dragon Kings who had come to the Seven Islands, but it didn't expect that the boss of the Dragon Palace City's Environmental Protection Department, Ice Dragon, was so awesome. It called the Thunder Dragon King and the Space Dragon King, two big shots whose battle power was also at the top of the Dragon Palace Dragon Kings.

It looked like Ice Dragon was doing pretty well in Dragon Palace City.

Could it be that from the perspective of a dragon, Bing Bing was also a great beauty?

The gem cat fell into deep thought.

“Eh, heh.” Ice Dragon also maintained its seriousness and was secretly excited.

This was much better than participating in the totem battle with Mu Huiyin. The situation at that time was so torturous. It was difficult to rely on the strength of an overlord to fight top-notch totems, unlike now.

After joining Dragon Palace City, it casually gathered a totem team and bullied totems from other countries. It was like bullying a child.

“What exactly do you want—”

At this moment, Red God suspected that it couldn't survive today. It was extremely regretful and didn't understand why it woke up today.

At the same time, the Beast Tamers present still knew what was going on. The Beast Tamers who rushed over were even more stunned.

In the distance, the legendary Beast Tamers from the Seven Islands and Dong Huang, including the Warring States Legend and the Tyrannical Sea Legend, were rushing towards the Phoenix Temple with all their might.

One mythical and two legendaries. The legend of the Warring States clearly wasn't willing to hand all of these resources to Dong Huang.

As for the Tyrannical Sea Legend, he could also predict that the Seven Islands were definitely unwilling. Therefore, they also had to come to the scene as soon as possible in Dong Huang's position to pressure the Seven Islands.

Both parties originally thought that after arriving at the Phoenix God Shrine, it would be a battle without blood and merely a theoretical battle. However, as terrifying fluctuations came from the distance, as they approached the Phoenix God Shrine, the legends of the two countries were stunned.

From afar, the Legend of the Warring States of the Seven Islands saw the six huge totem dragons circling above Phoenix Mountain and was shocked to the extreme.

He naturally knew these guys. It was because he knew them that his brain suddenly rumbled and he had an extremely bad feeling.

“This...” After the Tyrannical Sea Legend sensed that the Dragon Palace people were on Shi Yu's side, he was also shocked. He accelerated like the War State Legend. When they descended, they directly saw a rather shocking scene.

In the sky.

A blue-haired and blue-eyed young man with a Frost Slime King on his shoulder looked down gently.

Behind him, six terrifying totem dragon kings flew in the sky and dominated the sky. Their dragon might was peerless. Behind the young man, there were also ocean overlords that revealed top-notch might one after another. They had evil expressions as they stared at the miserable Flame Rat totem below with him.

“Real Bullying”.

In this terrifying scene, apart from Red God who still dared to curse, the president of the island, Legend Xiao Yuan, and the other legends had already lost their ability to think. They didn't even dare to interrupt, afraid that the deterrence revealed by the totem dragon kings would erase their minds.

“This is... What's going on!!!”

When the Legend of the Warring States saw the miserable appearance of the guardian totem of the Red God Island, the blue-haired young man whose appearance could still be vaguely seen as “Lu Bai”, and the terrifying lineup behind him... For a moment, He almost fainted and lost his ability to think.

Following that, Legend Ju, Legend Suzuki, and the others revealed shocked expressions. Looking at the scene in front of them, even the legends of Dong Huang were silent the whole time, not knowing what to say.

“Titled legend.”

As the legend of the Warring States arrived, the Sea Dragon King and the others could also sense this guy's strength. Their sixth sense told them that this man was even stronger than that Red God.

Was he considered the head of the Seven Islands?

They looked at the man, making the legend's expression turn cold.

“You are the Dragon Kings of Dragon Palace City.”

After the legend of the Warring States arrived, he asked with a shocked expression, “Why did the Dragon Kings of Dragon Palace City come to the Seven Islands? Do you want to start a war?!”

In the Seven Islands, there was legendary battle power and that human-type forbidden weapon. Legend of the Warring States didn't believe that the Dragon Kings of Dragon Palace City would come to the Seven Islands for no reason and even attack their guardian.

Chapter 629: Opening the Door to Release Shi Yu (2)

“This is what we want to ask!”

Under the Sea Dragon King's low voice, it looked at the legend of the Warring States angrily.

“Beast Tamers of the Seven Islands, your Seven Islands colluded with the totem country and controlled the Poison Dragon Totem to invade the Dragon Palace sea area and hurt countless lives under Dragon Palace City. Now, you have the intention to hurt the friend of the Dragon Palace. Do you want to start a war!”

“If you want to fight, our Dragon Palace City will entertain you!”

“What nonsense are you talking about!” The expression of the legend of the Warring States changed drastically.

“Nonsense?”

The Sea Dragon King looked at Red God and said, “Just now, this guy intended to attack our friend from Dong Huang, a friend of Dragon Palace City. Countless people witnessed it. What do you have to say!”

The legend of the Warring States looked at the Phoenix Mystic Realm below and at Shi Yu, who was scratching his head in front of him. He opened his mouth slightly. Soon, he analyzed what was going on. Most likely, Shi Yu had cracked the Phoenix Mystic Realm and the fluctuations of resources had attracted the attention of the Red God, causing a conflict between the two parties.

It would be fine if it was just a conflict, but the most incomprehensible thing was why the Dragon Palace people had also descended on the Seven Islands and were even caught red-handed!

“Of course, this is only a situation we accidentally encountered when we descended.”

“Our goal in coming to the Seven Islands is to ask for an explanation.”

“A few months ago, a crazy Poison Dragon Totem that mutated due to the radiation pollution of a forbidden weapon invaded the Dragon Palace sea area during the Dragon Palace banquet, causing countless creatures in Dragon Palace City to die tragically. According to our investigation, that Poison Dragon Totem came from your Seven Islands!”

“We’ve investigated and confirmed that the Poison Dragon Totem is the biological weapon sent by your Seven Islands!”

“How do you explain this?”

The Sea Dragon King was aggressive and questioned the legend of the Warring States with a murderous aura.

“We need an explanation.”

“Human, give us an explanation.”

“Otherwise, we will regard the actions of the Seven Islands as a declaration of war against Dragon Palace City.” The Thunder Dragon King, the Space Dragon King, the Azure Dragon King, and a few other Dragon Kings released a huge deterrence one after another, enveloping a huge area with the Phoenix Divine Society as the center.

In this range, countless Beast Tamers from the Seven Islands who had rushed over could hear their words clearly with shocked expressions.

Until the deterrence wave expanded and enveloped the entire nearby city.

At this moment, the most confused and shocked person was still the legend of the Warring States. He only felt that Dragon Palace City was so unreasonable and suspected that Dragon Palace City was framing and extorting!

“Impossible!!” Legend of the Warring States said angrily. “Our Seven Islands have always loved peace and have always followed the alliance contract. It’s definitely impossible for us to collude with the totem country and hurt the allies of the seven countries. Don’t slander us.”

“Impossible??” The Sea Dragon King was angry and smiled at the same time. “Looks like you won’t shed tears until you see the coffin. After Dragon Palace City was attacked, we’ve been investigating. In the end, the leads pointed at the power of your Seven Islands, the ‘Ke Yuan Financial Group’, and we’ve already obtained concrete evidence and now took control of your several biological experimental research institutes scattered all over small islands. Even the Poison Dragon Totem is being suppressed and imprisoned by our Dragon Palace. Do you dare to confront us?”

“The one who colluded with the totem country is your faction, the ‘Ke Yuan Financial Group’. Do you dare to call all the core Beast Tamers of this faction out for a confrontation?”

The expressions of the seven island Beast Tamers changed again. The Beast Tamers of Dong Huang here suddenly sensed that things were not simple. The descent of the totem dragon kings was not only because of the incident just now, but also for another reason!

“So you’ve investigated it.” Legend Sea Tyrant took a deep breath. This also meant that the seven island factions were colluding with the Yun An faction!

At this moment, the Tyrannical Sea Legend also said to the Warring States Legend in a low voice, “Mr. Tian Jiang, at the Dragon Palace banquet a few months ago, I happened to be in Dragon Palace City. There was indeed a Poison Dragon Totem that invaded the Dragon Palace. You have to give an explanation for this. In the contract of the Seven Nation Alliance, Dragon Palace City is an ally of our Dong Huang. It is regarded as one with Dong Huang. Invading Dragon Palace City is invading Dong Huang!”

“In addition, the Seven Islands Guardian even openly attacked our Beast Tamer and tore up the bet agreement. I also want to ask, do the Seven Islands want to start a war with Dong Huang?”

Legend of the Warring States, Red God: ??

Many Beast Tamers of the seven islands had their hearts stop.

At that moment, the expression of the legend of the Warring States, Tian Jiangzhi, darkened to the extreme. He completely didn’t expect things to develop to this extent. However, at this moment, what he wanted to know the most was what Dragon Palace City meant by the Ke Yuan Financial Group colluding with the totem country!

At least, from what he knew, the core higher-ups of the seven islands definitely had no intention of betraying the Seven Nation Alliance.

However, he didn’t know the situation of the scattered factions on the seven islands. The Keyuan Financial Group, the faction of the Red God Island, started with technology. He looked at the president of the Red God Island Association, the local legend of Red God Island, the Phoenix Court, the Unknown Fire, the Red Fire Society, and the others.

Because of the commotion here, the local legends of the seven islands were basically all here. Only the helmsman of the Keyuan Financial Group was not here. This suddenly made the legend of the Warring States sense that something was wrong.

“Impossible!!” Red God, who was beaten up before the legend of the Warring States, was the first to say angrily, “The seven islands definitely can’t collude with a totem country.”

Back then, it participated in the totem battle. Many companions and Beast Tamers died in the hands of the totem country. There was a blood feud here, and the guardians of the other islands were in a similar situation. It definitely wouldn’t accept the false accusation of Dragon Palace City.

“The seven islands definitely have no intention of betraying the alliance. There must be a misunderstanding.” At this moment, the situation was pressing. Legend of the Warring States took a deep breath and said, “Everyone, please wait a moment.”

Chapter 630: Releasing the Beast Shi Yu (4)

“President of Temple Island, I want to know the situation of Legend Bai Chuan. Where is he now?” Legend Warring States asked the President of Temple Island.

“Can you contact him?”

At this moment, the president of the Temple Island stood on the ground and trembled. When he heard the question, he was first stunned. Then, he swallowed his saliva and said, “I can give it a try, but I need time.”

The legend of the Warring States looked at the many totem dragon kings and said, “We’ll find the leader of the Ke Yuan Financial Group now. Please give us some time. There’s definitely a misunderstanding.”

Apart from the legend at the helm of the Keyuan Financial Group, the guardians of the other islands and the other titled legends had to be awakened and informed. The legend of the Warring States was covered in cold sweat. He felt that the Seven Islands were in the most dangerous moment.

He alone definitely couldn’t handle the current situation.

“Five minutes.”

“I’ll give you five minutes.”

The Sea Dragon King’s expression was cold. At the same time, spatial cracks appeared in the sky. Buildings that looked like experimental laboratories were pulled out by the Space Dragon King and thrown down.

Apart from research institutes, there were also researchers from the Keyuan Financial Group in white research clothes with extremely frightened expressions, as well as monsters with deformed bodies that emitted strange radiation.

These were all secret experimental labs of the Ke Yuan Financial Group that Dragon Palace City had destroyed in various secret places.

At this moment, when he saw these people and these radiation monsters, the expression of the legend of the Warring States changed. Regardless of whether what Dragon Palace City said was true or false, even if it was a false accusation, the scene in front of him was enough to show that Dragon Palace City had made full preparations.

And if it were true, then it was even more disadvantageous for the Seven Islands to have a traitor inside.

“These are part of the evidence!” the Sea Dragon King said.

“There’s definitely a misunderstanding,” Legend of the Warring States said with a dark expression.

Seeing the aggressive appearance of the Dragon King of the Dragon Palace, the legend of the Warring States knew that regardless of whether it was true or false, Dragon Palace City would definitely not let the matter rest. This included Dong Huang. This time, they had seized the opportunity to ruthlessly extort the Seven Islands. This time, the legend of the Warring States estimated that the Seven Islands probably couldn’t avoid it. At least, the Seven Islands definitely couldn’t withstand the joint pressure of Dong Huang and the Dragon Palace.

Unless other countries were willing to help the Seven Islands.

However, this was clearly impossible. Without benefits, who would help? No matter what, the Seven Islands would lose a piece of flesh.

“Regardless of whether it’s a misunderstanding or not, I only want an explanation now!”

“If your Seven Islands don’t have the intention to start a war with Dragon Palace City, then hand over the culprit we’ve investigated and let us confront him in person!”

“The Ke Yuan Financial Group is still operating normally on the Seven Islands. If you don’t hand over the culprit, we have reason to confirm that you’re protecting the mastermind!” the Sea Dragon King said.

Legend of the Warring States gritted his teeth and looked at the president of Temple Island. “Wait a moment.”

Below, the president was covered in sweat. This was because he couldn’t reach the numbers of any of the core higher-ups of the Keyuan Financial Group that he had personally recorded. This situation was abnormal, too abnormal.

Even if he dialed the next level of management of the Keyuan Financial Group, the other party said that he had not seen the higher-ups of the financial group led by Legend Bai Chuan for a long time.

One possibility was that the higher-ups of the Ke Yuan Financial Group really had colluded with the totem faction. Moreover, before the problem occurred, they had already sensed the news and fled. The second possibility was that this group of people had already been secretly killed by Dragon Palace City. There was no evidence. No matter which one it was, it was extremely disadvantageous to the current situation.

At this moment, the president of the island couldn't understand why a "simple mystic realm exploration" gradually upgraded to a fuse in the battle between the two countries.

Both parties were in a stalemate.

At that moment, Ji Xiang, Jie Yi, and the others from the Phoenix Court were extremely silent. Compared to what Dragon Palace City had mentioned, they were more concerned about the young man flying in the sky.

What was wrong with this guy?

Not only did he easily crack the Phoenix Mystic Realm, but he could also make so many totem dragon kings stand behind him. From the situation, it seemed like he knew every totem dragon king, and they all knew him. How was this possible!

Even the Titled Legends of Dong Huang couldn't possibly know every Dragon King of Dragon Palace City. Was this guy the illegitimate son of the Dragon God of Dragon Palace City!

"Why are you so slow?" At this moment, seeing that the Dragon Kings were no longer attacking him and had turned their attention to the leader of the Ke Yuan Financial Group, Red God urged the president of the island.

President of Temple Island: "¡ Legend Tianjiang, Lord Red God, this, this, Legend Bai Chuan and the others can't be contacted!"

His face was pale.

As soon as these words were spoken, although the Dragon Kings of Dragon Palace City had expected it, they were still furious. The Seven Islands were too useless. It was fine if they couldn't supervise the traitor, but they actually let the other party escape without a trace.

In fact, Dragon Palace City also didn't believe that the core upper echelons of the Seven Islands would openly betray the alliance. It was very likely that a rat had appeared inside, but it didn't matter. No matter what, it was an indisputable fact that the forces of the Seven Islands had invaded Dragon Palace City. They naturally had to use this as an excuse to make a fuss and get enough compensation.

"What do you mean!" The Sea Dragon King glared at them and said, "You mean you can't present anyone?"

The legend of the Warring States broke out in cold sweat and cursed the president of the island. Would it kill him to answer slower?

Just as the legend of the Warring States was about to explain, the Tyrannical Sea Legend beside him spoke.
