

Beast Tamer 1091

Chapter 1091: He Wen's Submission!

Wang Xu rubbed the potion bottles inside the brocade box with his hand, his gaze fixed on He Wen.

He was always ready to summon the Senyue Angel to strike at He Wen.

He Wen pondered for a long while then suddenly raised her head to look at Wang Xu, asking with an extremely serious tone.

"Old Wang, I know what you mean, and I understand your thoughts."

"I'm willing to have the He family line stand behind you."

"It's just that I don't know what kind of benefits you can promise to my He family line!?"

"I'm using the life and death of the He family as a stake in this big gamble; there must be a future as a guide!"

He Wen had made this decision with great determination and was aware that it was her only option.

But when it came time to make the decision, He Wen had to seek benefits for the He family.

If He Wen did not do so, she would not deserve to be the head of the He family line!

Upon hearing this, a smile appeared on Wang Xu's face.

Wang Xu had no intention of trying to craft an image of a superior in front of He Wen.

Wang Xu was not even a superior; the young man named Yan Luo was.

When He Wen met Yan Luo later, she would know everything.

"I will indeed lead your He family line in the future, including you, the Great Archangel," he said.

"However, the person who will give you benefits is not I, but the Great One behind us!"

"That Great One will provide resources for your He family line."

"When you see that Great One later, you must perform well."

No sooner had Wang Xu finished speaking than he received a message from Fang Mu.

Wang Xu hurriedly took He Wen to the Mountain Manor.

In the past few days, Wang Xu had purposely inquired about the situation of this Mountain Manor.

He learned that the master of the Mountain Manor was named Fang Mu, a disciple of the Grandmaster Creator.

This involuntarily led Wang Xu to overlap the identities of Fang Mu and Yan Luo in his mind.

Yan Luo was also a young man of tender years.

Because Yan Luo had always worn a mask during their previous encounters.

Wang Xu could not be sure of Yan Luo's actual age.

Without stepping into the Order, Wang Xu could not directly ascertain a person's bone age.

Fang Mu had arranged to meet with Wang Xu and He Wen at the Mountain Manor, but Fang Mu did not want outsiders to know Jianmu was Yan Luo and Yan Luo was Jianmu.

When She Wan brought Wang Xu and He Wen into the parlor, they saw two young men sitting at the table.

One of them wore an outfit of blue and white, carrying a strong sense of affability.

The other young man was dressed in black, with a mask covering his face.

He exuded an aura of coldness that seemed to ward off strangers.

Wang Xu recognized the masked man as Yan Luo at first glance.

The other young man was most likely Fang Mu, the disciple of the Grandmaster Creator Qixing!

Wang Xu had not expected Yan Luo to have a private connection with Fang Mu, and it seemed they were quite close.

When the affable-looking young man saw the two guests, he immediately stood up and said to Yan Luo.

“Brother Yan, your guests have arrived, I’ll leave the parlor to you!”

“Let’s talk about our collaboration later in the evening.”

After saying this, the affable young man left the room.

Jianmu and Yan Luo were both identities of Fang Mu, and Fang Mu did not have the ability to clone himself.

The reason for the current situation was that Fang Mu had Liu Xi reconstitute a cadaver’s face to mimic his own.

This puppet was named Liu San and at times deliberately replaced Fang Mu’s identity as “Jianmu” to do certain things.

After Jianmu left, He Wen was thinking about how to communicate with the young man in front of her.

Being an older generation powerhouse, He Wen felt somewhat compelled to uphold her status in front of the young man.

Before He Wen could ponder further, Wang Xu beside her suddenly dropped to his knees.

He knelt before the young man.

“Master, I didn’t expect that fetching the Sleep Moss would take such a long time.”

“I hope you will not blame me!”

“This is another Great Archangel from our Truth Hall, He Wen, the one I mentioned to you who can cure Nightmare Level curses!”

It was not Wang Xu’s first time kneeling before Yan Luo.

The first time he knelt before a junior not much older than his own grandson, Wang Xu felt a lot of pressure.

But after doing so, Wang Xu accepted the act.

Demonstrating absolute submission to Yan Luo could bring Wang Xu great benefits.

Today, he had brought He Wen before Yan Luo; to He Wen, he was the one who introduced her.

To Yan Luo, however, both he and He Wen were subordinates, tools for controlling the Truth Hall.

Their relationship was one of pure competition.

The more submissive the behavior, the more Yan Luo would value and use him.

Fang Mu snorted coldly upon hearing this.

“It did indeed take a long time; do not make promises you can’t keep next time!”

“Do you understand?”

Those last four words, “do you understand?” were heavily stressed by Fang Mu, as if reprimanding Wang Xu.

Fang Mu was not upset by Wang Xu’s lack of punctuality.

Wang Xu’s delay in acquiring the Sequential Rank Sleep Moss had no impact on Fang Mu.

What Fang Mu was dissatisfied with was that if Wang Xu continued to make wrong judgments in the face of important matters and still affirmed to him.

It could potentially delay Fang Mu's plans and lead to a series of losses!

Fang Mu believed that this reminder would be sufficient for Wang Xu to learn his lesson.

If, having been reminded, Wang Xu still showed no improvement.

Then Fang Mu could simply replace Wang Xu and no longer have him manage the Truth Hall.

Chapter 1092:

It would be better to have Wang Xu assist in managing the Truth Hall.

Upon hearing the words "Do you understand," Wang Xu's body suddenly trembled.

Wang Xu already felt considerable pressure when he brought He Wen before Fang Mu.

Now that he had incurred Fang Mu's dissatisfaction, Wang Xu felt extremely apprehensive.

Wang Xu quickly spoke up.

“Master, the reason He Wen brought the Sequential Rank Sleep Moss so late this time was due to a delay caused by other angels within the Truth Hall.”

“Several other factions within the Truth Hall intend to encroach upon the He Family line.”

“He Wen really doesn’t have much say internally.”

“If I were to go and get the Sleep Moss, I could have obtained it quickly.”

“However, no matter what, this is my fault, and I will definitely avoid such issues in the future.”

“If such a problem arises again, I, Wang Xu, am willing to accept any punishment you mete out!”

Fang Mu raised his eyebrows upon hearing this, so that was the situation!

Fang Mu turned his gaze to He Wen, who stood beside Wang Xu.

No wonder Wang Xu recommended He Wen to him.

This Angel named He Wen who leads a line, can hardly mix in the Truth Hall anymore.

From the moment He Wen walked in, her eyes were fixed on him, with a look that was one-third appraisal, one-third entanglement, and one-third contemplation.

This indicated that Wang Xu had already communicated with He Wen beforehand, and He Wen knew the purpose of her visit this time.

He Wen maintained a calm exterior, but inside she was already cursing Wang Xu.

With just a few words, Wang Xu had exposed everything about her line's situation in the Truth Hall.

He Wen originally wanted to garner more benefits from Fang Mu.

But Wang Xu's words made He Wen completely passive.

How could she have the qualifications to negotiate terms with Yan Luo?

After Wang Xu returned from the last trip to the Ancient Battlefield, he mentioned the Infinite Tower more than once.

He also mentioned Yan Luo, the Infinite Envoy of the Infinite Tower.

That is to say, Wang Xu's acquaintance with Yan Luo was just one or two months ago.

In such a short period, Wang Xu could be bought off by the Infinite Tower.

This was enough to show the exceptional nature of the Infinite Tower.

Passive though she was, He Wen had decided to attach herself to Wang Xu.

Now she had no other choice.

He Wen didn't believe that if she suddenly changed her mind, she would still be able to leave this estate.

He Wen hurriedly bowed to Fang Mu.

"Sir Yanluo, hello, I am He Wen, an Angel of the Truth Hall."

Fang Mu did not respond to He Wen's reaction, but Wang Xu beside him already spoke up with a displeased expression.

"He Wen, this is your first meeting with Sir Yan Luo, when else would you offer grand respect if not now?"

"How do you expect to receive resources from Sir Yan Luo without demonstrating absolute loyalty?"

"If you don't know your place, there are more than just your family in the Truth Hall willing to pledge allegiance to Sir Yan Luo!"

It's one thing for Wang Xu to call Yan Luo his master, as in a master-servant relationship a subordinate can indeed refer to a superior as the master.

This is beyond reproach.

But calling him "sir" is a bit over the top!

After all, Yan Luo, this adolescent, couldn't possibly be a Grandmaster Creator.

"Grandmaster" is a title commonly used for Grandmaster Creators.

Wang Xu said there are several other families in the Truth Hall willing to come under Yan Luo's command.

He Wen wasn't sure if Wang Xu had already made contact and spoke thus, or if he said it just to remind her?

Wang Xu's words instilled a sense of crisis in He Wen.

Under Wang Xu's urging and for the future of the He line, He Wen ultimately knelt down.

The moment she knelt, He Wen found it absurd.

Since becoming a Hexagram Beastmaster, He Wen never thought she would spend the latter part of her life kneeling before a junior whose strength didn't surpass that of One-point Stars.

Fang Mu hadn't insisted on making He Wen kneel before him.

Each strong individual has their unique aura and temperament; not many are as spineless as Wang Xu.

Wang Xu's ability to drive He Wen to this point indicated that the situation of the He line within the Truth Hall was likely even more difficult than what Wang Xu had described!

Fang Mu directly tossed a Soul Parasite Ant and an Infinite Silver Silkworm towards He Wen.

“Since you’re willing to serve under my command, bind yourself with these two items!”

He Wen recognized the function and effects of the Soul Parasite Ant at a glance.

By binding herself with this Soul Parasite Ant, she would be completely controlled by the young man before her.

He Wen had also just recently encountered the Infinite Silver Silkworm.

It turned out that the Infinite Silver Silkworm Wang Xu gave her was obtained through the hands of this very young man!

He Wen considered the Infinite Silver Silkworm a reward.

It never crossed her mind that the Infinite Silver Silkworm was, in fact, another tool to control her!

Having already kneeled, it was, of course, impossible not to bind with the two Guardian Beasts.

He Wen reluctantly proceeded to bind with the Soul Parasite Ant.

While binding with the Infinite Silver Silkworm, He Wen couldn't help but say to Fang Mu,

"Sir Yanluo, this Silkworm Type Guardian Beast isn't much help to us Hexagram Beastmasters."

"But it's an excellent thing for the younger generation."

"May I give this Silkworm Type Guardian Beast to a junior in my family to bind with?"

Fang Mu had already roughly understood what kind of person He Wen was.

He Wen was extremely responsible and willing to sacrifice for her family, the He Family.

Facing a treasure like the Infinite Silver Silkworm, she still thought first of the juniors in her family at such a time.

A person like that would surely live a burdensome life.

But such a person also had an advantage, that is, being easy to control.

Fang Mu tapped his fingers twice on the table and said in an exceedingly authoritative tone,

“You should just bind with whatever I tell you to bind with!”

“Since you have chosen to follow me and are willing to swear allegiance, I will naturally take responsibility for your loyalty.”

“Here are five Infinite Silver Silkworms, which you can take to your clan to cultivate your He Family’s juniors.”

“As for other resources, I won’t give them to you directly right now.”

“Instead, you will get them after you and Wang Xu return to Truth Hall and achieve certain results.”

Fang Mu had previously recruited Wang Xu because he had designs on Truth Hall.

He wanted to hunt down Truth Hall.

He Wen was brought into the fold by Wang Xu's efforts, and Fang Mu gave her a substantial amount of resources the moment she pledged her loyalty.

Wang Xu would inevitably have thoughts.

Since Fang Mu had placed great emphasis on using Wang Xu as his spokesperson in Truth Hall, he was determined to treat Wang Xu most generously.

Truth Hall was composed of a total of twelve families.

Two families had united and joined his command.

They could already stir up some trouble within Truth Hall.

Awarding them after they achieve results would prevent his subordinates from treating him as a sucker.

Fang Mu was not one to act like a sucker either.

To He Wen's words, there was not the slightest surprise.

He Wen didn't expect that by pledging her loyalty to the young man before her, he would provide her with a batch of resources.

The several Infinite Silver Silkworms were already enough for the He Family's line to turn the tide in the younger generation's competition in Truth Hall.

Wang Xu was quite pleased upon knowing Fang Mu's attitude towards He Wen.

Fang Mu's treatment toward him seemed much better in comparison!

When he first joined Fang Mu, Fang Mu immediately offered him a wealth of resources.

He didn't wait for Wang Xu to accomplish anything before rewarding him!

This showed that Fang Mu valued him deeply.

"Master, let me feed these Sequential Rank Sleep Moss to the Senyue Angel!"

"Seven or eight pieces of Sequential Rank Sleep Moss will be enough to put the Senyue Angel to sleep for nearly a month."

Fang Mu shook his head upon hearing this.

“It doesn’t need to be as long as a month, three to five days will do.”

“In a few days, I will be leaving this place. Before I go, I will extract a natural bloodline from within the Senyue Angel.”

“Otherwise, the conflict between two natural bloodlines within the Senyue Angel will make it impossible to surpass the threshold of Order.”

“You will need to choose between the Wood and Earth Systems.”

“Given the current state of the Senyue Angel, choosing the Wood property is the most correct decision!”

“Once the Mountain Bloodline is stripped from the Senyue Angel’s body, the Senyue Angel’s exclusive traits and skills related to the Mountain Bloodline will change.”

Chapter 1093: Heaven Shooting

Fang Mu knew that Wang Xu must have been aware of the Senyue Angel’s situation.

Still, Fang Mu told Wang Xu what needed to be said.

After all, it was inappropriate to rashly extract a natural bloodline from the Senyue Angel without making it clear to Wang Xu.

Once extracted, Fang Mu couldn't possibly return the bloodline to Wang Xu.

Upon hearing this, Wang Xu looked utterly shocked.

What! It would only take three to five days to extract a bloodline from the body of a Senyue Angel!

How... how is that possible!?

Without their own Grandmaster Creator at the Truth Hall, in Wang Xu's understanding, anything a Grandmaster Creator could complete within a month was considered fast.

"Master, it's all up to you!"

"If it only takes three to five days, then I will feed the Senyue Angel just two pieces of Sleep Moss."

Fang Mu nodded upon hearing this.

The Nuwa Carp, which had evolved from the All-Kinds Carp, was responsible for extracting the natural bloodline from the Senyue Angel.

Fang Mu had already communicated with the Original Blood Nuwa Female.

The capability of the Original Blood Nuwa Female to extract the Senyue Angel's Mountain Bloodline had nothing to do with her strength or quality.

She just needed to filter the bloodline of the Senyue Angel once, and it could be done in one to two days.

Fang Mu said it would take three to five days because, firstly, he didn't want to overly expose the capabilities of his side.

Secondly, Fang Mu had to ensure that the Senyue Angel wouldn't wake up prematurely during the extraction by the Original Blood Nuwa Female.

Angel Species Beasts have extremely strong resistance, and Wang Xu probably hadn't induced such a deep sleep in the Senyue Angel with something like Sleep Moss before.

Therefore, Wang Xu would have difficulty controlling the dosage.

Fang Mu watched as the heroic Senyue Angel gobbled down two pieces of Sleep Moss under Wang Xu's urging.

And fell asleep at Fang Mu's feet like a dead pig.

Wang Xu tentatively asked,

"Master, shall He Wen and I wait for you at our previous residence?"

Fang Mu's masked face showed no expression, but he detected the probing intent in Wang Xu's words.

However, Fang Mu was not displeased with Wang Xu's probing.

Wang Xu was testing Fang Mu's intentions, indicating that Wang Xu had completely submitted to him, preoccupied with how to please his master.

"My relationship with Jianmu is excellent, and I will ask him to prepare two guest rooms for you."

"Before I leave, you should stay here."

“In two days, two Grandmaster Creators will come here.”

“This is a resource from Jianmu’s side, and staying here also gives you the opportunity to meet these two Grandmaster Creators.”

Having said that, Fang Mu pointed at the Senyue Angel on the ground; nothing further needed to be said.

He Wen and Wang Xu then picked up the Senyue Angel.

She Wan and Shu Liangjun both knew that Jianmu and Yan Luo were the same person.

They were Fang Mu’s two different identities.

Although both were unclear why Fang Mu was doing so, they acted very professionally.

Under She Wan’s management, they first carried the Senyue Angel to the breeding room designated by Fang Mu in advance.

Then they directed the Attendants to arrange two guest rooms for Wang Xu and He Wen.

Before entering the guest rooms, they coincidentally met with Su Qing.

They knew of Su Qing's identity as the leader of Chonghuaju.

The leader selected by Chonghuaju is the next master of Chonghuaju.

Chonghuaju was somewhat stronger than the Truth Hall.

After all, none of the angels in the Truth Hall possess an Order Level Angel.

Moreover, it was rumored that there was a Grandmaster Creator in Chonghuaju.

Both Wang Xu and He Wen were willing to believe such rumors.

Otherwise, Chonghuaju's ability to breed so many Four Winged Flower Spirits purely through the Grandmaster Creator's channels was simply not feasible.

That Jianmu's residence could retain a figure like Su Qing!

Jianmu's connections really were not small!

When Su Qing saw Wang Xu and He Wen, she nodded and greeted them.

Had they met outside, Su Qing would not have bothered with them at all.

The peak of the Sequential Strong is still within the sequence.

It is very degrading for an Order Strong to greet a Sequential peak Strong.

Su Qing took the initiative to acknowledge Wang Xu and He Wen entirely because they were guests of Fang Mu.

Fang Mu then headed directly to the breeding room.

Looking at the Senyue Angel asleep on the ground, Fang Mu checked the state of the Senyue Angel.

After confirming the Senyue Angel was completely knocked out by the Sleep Moss, Fang Mu raised his hand and summoned the Original Blood Nuwa Female.

Although the Original Blood Nuwa Female's stage had not grown, her quality had incredibly improved from before!

[Beast Name]: Original Blood Nuwa Female

[Beast Species]: Carp Family/Nuwa Carp Genus

[Beast Level]: Gold (1010)

[Beast Element]: Blood Series

[Beast Potential]: Platinum

[Beast Quality]: Legendary

Skills:

[Blood Sucking]: Sucks the blood of the target, draining the energy from the target's blood and condensing it into special Essence Of Blood.

[Purifying Blood Blessing]: Removes substances in the target's blood not inherent to the blood itself while enhancing the blood's metabolic capability.

[Koi Blood Regeneration]: Absorbs the blood in the target's body and combines it with its own Nuwa Bloodline, then the Nuwa Blood nourishes the target, inducing the target's genetic template to regenerate.

Exclusive Traits:

[Creation of Blood]: Enhances the creativity of the blood, allowing the consumption of her pure blood energy to replicate blood, with the replication time depending on the blood's quality.

[Heart of Koi]: When using blood for creation, the production capacity will greatly increase, and raising her stage will enhance the effect of the increased production capacity.

Chapter 1094: 523

[Nirvana Blood Embryo]: Facing a target with bloodline within its body, if the target is in a vibrant state, the user can create an embryo by attaching itself and using its own energy to the target. Once the possessed target dies, the embryo will immediately develop into the state the target was in at the time of attachment. If the target lacks vitality, the user can sacrifice its bloodline energy to activate the target's genes to form an embryo, allowing the target to undergo reincarnation.

Evolutionary Path:

①: Sacred Blood Nuwa, ②: Blood Sea Witch Carp, ③: Blood Dominating Carp.

The climb up the hierarchy for the Original Blood Nuwa Female was not smooth.

On the contrary, it could even be described as fraught with adversity.

Not because Fang Mu had not provided the Original Blood Nuwa Female with sufficient energy and high-quality resources.

On the contrary, within the Blood of Abundance, the Nuwa Female benefitted from the nurturing environment, which could be said to be the most suitable living environment for the Original Blood Nuwa Female in the world.

Otherwise, a mere All-Kinds Carp would never have made it this far!

But Fang Mu discovered that the Blood of Abundance was constantly making adjustments to the Original Blood Nuwa Female.

When it was still the Origin Blood Wad Carp, its Epic Quality skill acquisition was [Nuwa Adhere].

It was because of the influence of the Blood of Abundance that it forcibly extracted the blood energy from within the Origin Blood Wad Carp.

It led the Origin Blood Wad Carp to correct its exclusive traits in an unconventional way.

This development made Fang Mu rather despondent.

Because Fang Mu had taken a liking to the ability of [Nuwa Adhere].

[Nuwa Adhere], similar to the ability of Backtracking Bell Sparrow, was even more enigmatic than the Backtracking Bell Sparrow's ability.

Through Fang Mu's investigation using the Eye of Omniscience, he found that the guidance and adjustments from the Blood of Abundance on the Original Blood Nuwa Female did not result in any changes to the inherent genes within the Original Blood Nuwa Female.

Hence, when the Original Blood Nuwa Female advanced to Legendary Quality, it acquired an exclusive trait similar to the original [Nuwa Adhere].

But its effects were certainly much stronger than [Nuwa Adhere].

[Nuwa Adhere] targeted only non-living things.

But the exclusive trait obtained by the Original Blood Nuwa Female when reaching Legendary Quality, [Nirvana Blood Embryo], targeted not just living entities but also non-living things.

Fang Mu required extraterrestrial embryos, which are in a state of non-living things.

The Original Blood Nuwa Female, through the exclusive trait [Nirvana Blood Embryo] and by sacrificing its bloodline, could use the extraterrestrial embryos to hatch Outer Domain Spirits.

However, Fang Mu had no intention of personally breeding Outer Domain Spirits.

Firstly, because the bloodline consumed by the Original Blood Nuwa Female was extremely challenging to replenish.

Secondly, extraterrestrial embryos weren't particularly rare items.

The caravans almost always had them in survival, and now they had all caught up with a special period, making extraterrestrial embryos even harder to obtain.

Fang Mu issued a command to the Original Blood Nuwa Female, instructing it to use the skill [Blood Sucking] to extract the Mountain Bloodline from the Senyue Angel's body.

While executing the skill [Blood Sucking], Fang Mu also had the Original Blood Nuwa Female cast the skill [Koi Blood Regeneration].

[Koi Blood Regeneration] would allow the Original Blood Nuwa Female to combine the blood it absorbed from the Senyue Angel with its own Nuwa Bloodline.

This Nuwa Bloodline would in turn nourish the Senyue Angel.

Nuwa Blood is exceptionally precious; the Origin Blood Wad Carp evolved from the All-Kinds Carp after absorbing the Blood Aged Wine.

Blood Aged Wine is unique to Fang Mu's possession, so Nuwa Blood is also only available from Fang Mu.

This Nuwa Blood could aid the Senyue Angel in initiating a gene template, allowing the Senyue Angel's gene template to regenerate.

This meant that even if the Original Blood Nuwa Female forcibly extracted the Mountain Bloodline that had integrated with itself from the Senyue Angel using the skill [Blood Sucking],

It would still not harm the Senyue Angel's essence.

Watching the Original Blood Nuwa Female lay the foundation for an Angel Species Beast's transformation through blood, Fang Mu suddenly entered a special state.

After a while, a mysterious pattern with green and red hues appeared on Fang Mu's forehead.

[Blood Series·Blood Born]: Transforms blood energy into life energy that can nourish all things, healing targets around with the intensity of blood energy.

Xi Xi had already used [Sealing Scenery] to condense several Scenery Fantasy Pearls, preserving the current environment when Fang Mu entered the Enlightenment State.

If Fang Mu values this blood series pattern [Blood Series·Blood Born],

Xi Xi will continuously replicate the current scene to condense more Scenery Fantasy Pearls.

Fang Mu attempted to comprehend more of the [Blood Series·Blood Born] mystical patterns of the bloodline.

Feeling the newly acquired mystical patterns, a smile appeared on Fang Mu's face.

He converted blood energy into life energy, healing targets around him.

This made Fang Mu immediately think of his transformed state.

In his transformed state, a blood-red fog enveloped him.

Applying the [Blood Series·Blood Born] mystical pattern to Blood of Abundance would transform Fang Mu from a powerful killer into a compassionate High Priest to all beings.

This provided Fang Mu with a means to completely change his abilities.

Fang Mu was very clear about how strong the bloodline energy was around him when he was in his transformed state.

The [Blood Series·Blood Born] mystical pattern allowed Fang Mu to heal targets around him with the intensity of the bloodline energy.

In actual combat, this frightening ability could make Fang Mu and targets around him become undying bodies.

Rushing to sustain injuries and recover from them.

Fang Mu spent most of the day observing the transformation of the Senyue Angel.

When the Original Blood Nuwa Female withdrew the last traces of the mountain bloodline from within the Senyue Angel, a vigorous vitality began to emanate from the angel's body.

It was as if vast forests had risen before Fang Mu.

Fang Mu knew that the Senyue Angel had now transformed into the Dense Forest Angel.

It seemed that all of its skills and unique characteristics were now associated with the bloodline of the forest.

Fang Mu used the Fool's Shadow's Innate Divine Skill [Eye of Omniscience] to examine the Dense Forest Angel.

[Beast Name]: Dense Forest Angel

[Beast Species]: Angel family/Power Angel genre

[Beast Level]: Sequential first level

[Beast Element]: Wood/Light

[Beast Potential]: Sequential first level

[Beast Quality]: Legendary

Skills:

[Forest Sting]: Select a location and sprout the power of the forest; the forest will surge from the ground like spikes, launching an area attack on the target.

[Forest Heal]: The summoned forest can self-heal when it is destroyed, continuously splitting into new individuals emerging from the selected location, causing an unending series of strikes.

[Crazy Forest Light Rain]: The summoned forest goes berserk, transforming into tree golems as light rain falls from above. The light rain stimulates the fighting will of the tree golems and restores their life energy.

[Forest Cleanse]: Uses the purifying power of the forest to dispel negative effects on the target, including toxins, curses, and controls from the mental and soul levels, with no definite effect on physical controls.

[Forest Surge]: Changes the surrounding environment to condense the mountains and forests with the power of bloodline, providing buffs to one's own defense and strength, enhancing one's resistance to attacks.

[Energy Gathering Forest Dance]: Absorbs the energy from the forest for self-buffing, sacrificing trees within a certain range to provide immunity to damage and the trees' empowerment and transformation into healing abilities for the body.

Exclusive Characteristics:

[Light Sacrifice]: Sacrifice internal light elemental energy to multiply other elemental energies, and after transformation, one cannot absorb light elemental energy for a certain period.

[Forest Surge]: In the forest one creates, the forest will embellish one's power, continuously amplifying one's strength until the forest is destroyed, the amplification not lessened by any foreign force.

[Heaven Shooting]: Refine tree spirits by bonding with old forest spirits during combat; the host transforms the tree spirit into a shooting gun for its own use, with piercing, bleeding, and tearing effects.(Actual effects depend on the type of tree chosen.)

Evolution Path:

①: Forest Spirit Angel, ②: Forest Sea Angel, ③: Power King Angel.

Seeing the data of the Dense Forest Angel, Fang Mu nodded slightly.

As the Senyue Angel, the Dense Forest Angel changed two skills and one exclusive characteristic.

Those two skill changes were standard, nothing to brag about.

But the exclusive characteristic [Heaven Shooting] seemed to Fang Mu to be an exceptionally excellent characteristic.

This characteristic even gave the Dense Forest Angel the potential for cross-tier combat!

Chapter 1095: Brilliant Stars Ascending!

Beast Masters have always had a love-hate relationship with those skills and unique traits that require private effort.

The “Heaven Shooting” is exactly the kind of existence that requires effort in private.

First, if you want the unique trait “Heaven Shooting” to come into play, you need to refine tree creatures.

“Heaven Shooting” requires the Dense Forest Angel itself to refine tree creatures of high age.

The better the bloodline of the tree creature and the older it is, the stronger the “Heaven Shooting” crafted from it will be.

The Dense Forest Angel can command these tree creatures transformed into shooting spears to fight for it.

Refining tree creatures only consumes the energy of the Dense Forest Angel.

However, after refining them into shooting spears, it is necessary to enhance these tree creatures.

To make the strength of these tree creatures keep up with the Dense Forest Angel's pace requires much more resources.

These "Heaven Shooting" spears not only come with effects like penetration, bleeding, and tearing, but are also linked to the innate characteristics of the trees themselves.

Fang Mu will give Wang Xu some resources to strengthen the Dense Forest Angel.

But Fang Mu will not give too many resources to the Dense Forest Angel.

Wang Xu's existence is only to allow Fang Mu to take control of the Truth Hall.

It is not about greatly expanding the Truth Hall.

Or to have Wang Xu follow him for protection.

Even if Fang Mu has ample resources, he treats different people in different ways.

The Original Blood Nuwa Female condensed the collected Mountain Bloodline into essence blood and handed it over to Fang Mu.

This Angel Species Beast of the natural element with the Mountain Bloodline, collected from a peak sequential Angel, is extremely precious!

This natural series bloodline can be used to cultivate Earth Attribute Angel Species Beasts in the future.

It can let an Earth Attribute Angel Species Beast's bloodline leap several major levels at once.

As Fang Mu put away the essence blood condensed from the Mountain Bloodline, he also returned the Original Blood Nuwa Female back to the Blood of Abundance.

As for the Dense Forest Angel, just let it slowly sleep in this room.

Once it wakes up, this Dense Forest Angel will naturally go to find Wang Xu.

Fang Mu hadn't even left the breeding room when he felt the call of the Star Wheel Land through his Messenger.

Fang Mu immediately summoned the Star Sea Messenger.

Originally at Gold tier level ten, the Star Sea Messenger was still a Star River Messenger.

Thanks to Fang Mu's contract with the Spirit Mayfly, the Star River Messenger was able to evolve.

In the evolution process, its bloodline was enhanced, transforming from Star River Messenger to Star Sea Messenger.

Its quality also climbed from Epic to Legendary!

[Beast Name]: Star Sea Messenger

[Beast Species]: Star Guard Sect/Star General Category

[Beast Level]: Platinum (1/10)

[Beast Element]: Space System/ Star Spirit System

[Beast Potential]: Diamond

[Beast Quality]: Legendary

Skills:

[Space Star Guide]: Uses the position of the stars to form a spatial gateway, indexing the life form that crosses the gateway to a pre-determined area and protecting the target during the transfer. After transfer, a Star Mark will condense on the target, allowing them to return to their original location through the mark.

[Spatial Blessing]: Whether actively transferring through spatial energy or being pulled into a spatial environment passively, it can effectively protect itself or a designated target to prevent damage from spatial energy.

[Star River Infusion]: In an environment with starlight, uses starlight as a medium to recover energy for the target. During this process, every loss of energy by the target will generate energy within them, increasing their internal energy.

[Star Sea Transforming Armor]: Gathers the starlight of the Star Sea with its body, turning the starlight into armor and battle blades. As the armor and blades wear out, they are replenished through the starlight.

Exclusive Traits:

[Starlight Tempering Body]: Draws the power of the starlight to temper the body, enhancing its own strength and physical attributes. When the physique reaches a certain level under the tempering of the starlight, it can heal wounds through the starlight treatment.

[Stars' Blessing]: Blessed by the starlight, increases one's resistance to curses, effectively preventing the effect of curses (When cast on other targets, the energy consumption is doubled!).

[Brilliant Stars Ascending]: Sacrifices half its own Life Energy to enter an ascended state. In this state, all its attacks will carry a divine flame effect, which has burning and sublimation properties on the target.

Evolution Directions:

①: Star Scar Angel, ②: Migrating Star Messenger, ③: Sizzling Scarred Giant Beast.

Fang Mu originally thought that the Star River Messenger would evolve into the Star Sea Messenger only upon reaching the Diamond tier.

He never expected the Star River Messenger to be so outstanding.

This made it highly possible for Fang Mu to evolve the Star Sea Messenger into the Star Scar Angel before it stepped into the sequential rank.

Becoming a true Angel Species Beast.

Upon evolving into the Star Sea Messenger, its already dazzling body became even more splendidly lustrous.

The starlight on its body merged into a torrent, condensing into star swirls on its surface.

Looking at it, it seemed as if one were immersed in a sea made up of stars.

On this visit to the Star Wheel Land for the gathering, other Star Wheel Members who see the Star Sea Messenger following him will surely be greatly astonished!

Once the Star Sea Messenger advances further, Fang Mu will be able to enter the Star Wheel's Heritage Land to select an item.

Fang Mu is very much looking forward to this.

Fang Mu is very curious about what exactly is inside the Star Wheel's Heritage Land.

Chapter 1096: Brilliant Stars Ascending!_2

Every formal member of the Stardisk had impressive strength and backgrounds, and these individuals were not lacking resources to nurture messengers.

However, messengers did not possess any combat capability and merely served as tokens and guides for the Stardisk Meeting.

Members of the Stardisk would rather allocate their resources to their other Guardian Beasts.

This offered a higher cost-effectiveness.

As the rank and quality improved, the Star Sea Messenger acquired a new skill and an exclusive trait.

In Fang Mu's view, the skill "Star Sea Transforming Armor" was relatively standard.

The Star Sea Messenger used the starlight to transform into its own armor and battle blade, effectively enhancing both its offensive and defensive capabilities all around.

This greatly increased its offensive and defensive capabilities.

This skill made the Star Sea Messenger more than just a simple functional Guardian Beast, and gave it the potential to fight.

Fang Mu believed the notable aspect of the “Star Sea Transforming Armor” skill was that the armor and weaponry could replenish themselves with starlight if they were damaged during combat.

This meant that the battle blades and armor shared a significant portion of the damage on behalf of the Star Sea Messenger.

Eventually, all these damages were compensated for by the converging starlight.

Fang Mu found the exclusive trait of the Star Sea Messenger, “Brilliant Stars Ascending,” more significant than the “Star Sea Transforming Armor” skill.

“Brilliant Stars Ascending” required the Star Sea Messenger to sacrifice half of its life energy to activate.

Once activated, the Star Sea Messenger entered a critically wounded state.

But if a battle were to occur, the Star Sea Messenger would undoubtedly have assistance.

Once Fang Mu’s Eden Dreamland was initiated, the Star Sea Messenger would be restored.

The skill “Star River Infusion” could also help recover the energy expended by the Star Sea Messenger.

Under the ascended state, every attack from the Star Sea Messenger would be accompanied by a divine light flame effect.

First, the divine light flame effect was devastating to creatures of the Dark Attribute.

The divine light flame is a very rare variant of Light Attribute energy.

Even real angels might not possess this holy flame before evolving into a Star Scar Angel, which certainly was a fantastic stroke of fortune.

Beyond its scorching effect, the holy flame also had a sublimation effect.

Sublimation directly transforms a solid into a gas, essentially vaporizing a tangible object.

This high-end trait of sublimation was beyond comparison to mere local traits.

Fang Mu was exceptionally satisfied with the exclusive traits earned by the Star Sea Messenger upon its enhancement.

Fang Mu snapped his fingers and, following the guidance of the Star Sea Messenger, joined the grand meeting.

Long-unseen old friends were present.

In the Stardisk Meeting, Fang Mu alone was dispensing Grandmaster Creator resources outward.

This made him the center of attention as soon as he appeared at the Stardisk Meeting.

But soon, people's attention shifted from Fang Mu to the Star Sea Messenger standing behind him.

The formal members present in the Stardisk were all influential figures accustomed to the public eye.

Yet, they couldn't help but utter several exclamations of amazement at this time.

The messenger behind Fang Mu reaching the level of a Star Sea Messenger indicated, on one hand, that Master Qixing truly possessed strength.

Since the last time Fang Mu used Spiritual Elixirs as chips for trading, many members of the Stardisk had already acknowledged Master Qixing as a Saint Creator.

Now, this Star Sea Messenger further validated several members' thoughts in the Stardisk.

On the other hand, it also showed that Master Qixing was very willing to provide resources for Fang Mu.

Otherwise, he would not have elevated a contract-based functional Guardian Beast to such a level.

Trading was part of the steps before the end of a Stardisk Meeting.

Every Stardisk Meeting started with idle chatter that exchanged news, which always brought great gains to Fang Mu.

However, Fang Mu had not expected that one day, at a Stardisk Meeting, he would end up being the subject of gossip himself.

Sagittarius sat there, resolutely with his light golden hair swinging near his neck.

His hair was styled up, slightly disheveled.

This messy hairdo added a wild beauty to the masked Sagittarius.

“Aquarius, I want to buy a piece of information from you,” he said.

“Do you know who the new Saint Creator at the Contract Garden really is? Do you have any information related to him?” he asked Shui Miao, then raised his voice to the rest of the members.

“If any of you have relevant information, I hope you can tell me.”

“I am willing to pay the price!”

The inquiry of the Sagittarius had unmistakably turned into a trade.

It caused the gazes of the official Star Wheel members present to shift.

However, since everyone was wearing masks, no one could discern the expressions on others’ faces.

Shui Miao glanced at Fang Mu subconsciously.

Shui Miao felt that the newly joined Saint Creator in the Contract Garden was very likely the Master Qixing of Fang Mu.

Firstly, Master Qixing possessed such a level of skill.

Where would a Saint Creator come from without making any noise? It wasn't possible for one to just emerge out of nowhere.

Secondly, as the Pavilion Master of the Twelve Pavilions, Shui Miao had his own channels.

Shui Miao knew that the Contract Garden had sent two Messengers to the Dragon Rising Federation, one of whom had left the Dragon Rising Federation.

The other Messenger was still within the territory of the Dragon Rising Federation, engaging in exchanges with Shuo Yang, a seasoned Grandmaster from the Dragon Rising Federation.

Both of these Messengers had been to JA City, which coincidentally was the city where Fang Mu resided.

All these coincidences pointed towards Fang Mu, and the conclusion was mentioned without saying.

Su Qing was thinking the same.

Shu Liangjun had seen Xu Fengnian and Wang Mi with his own eyes and knew the full context of this matter.

Shui Miao, Su Qing, and others were not people who spoke without consideration.

Whether to respond to the Sagittarius depended entirely on Fang Mu's own will.

Shui Miao gestured a bow towards the Sagittarius, indicating that he was unaware of the situation.

Even if Shui Miao could ascertain that the newly joined Saint Creator in the Contract Garden was indeed Master Qixing, with Fang Mu present, Shui Miao would not disclose more than necessary.

Fang Mu pondered for a moment and felt that there really was no need to hide this matter.

When the Contract Garden holds a meeting, every creator would surely have his own naming.

At that time, Fang Mu just needed to announce the name of Master Qixing, and he would soon be acknowledged by everyone.

The only impact this matter would have on Fang Mu was that his status would shift from being a disciple of a Grandmaster to a disciple of a Saint Creator.

The current Fang Mu was already capable enough to uphold this identity!

By revealing his own identity, the attitude of the Star Wheel members towards him would inevitably change.

It would also facilitate more trade between him and the Star Wheel members in the future.

Fang Mu lazily raised his hand.

“Sagittarius, the person you asked about happens to be my Master.”

“I am unsure of the important matter you have for my Master, but I will convey it on your behalf.”

“My Master’s seclusion hasn’t ended yet; it will continue for at least a few more years, if not longer.”

Fang Mu’s words were very tactful.

He not only confirmed that Master Qixing was the newly joined Saint Creator in the Contract Garden but also emphasized that Master Qixing was in seclusion and would be for at least a few more years.

This effectively blocked the mouths of the Star Wheel members, preventing them from requesting a meeting with Master Qixing.

Jin Ya stared blankly at Fang Mu.

So, Fang Mu's Master was not just an advanced Grandmaster, but a Saint Creator!

This was something Jin Ya had not anticipated.

Jin Ya planned to inform Qin Shao about the situation immediately after attending the Stardisk Meeting.

Upon learning of Fang Mu's identity, Jin Ya felt a faint sense of loss.

If Fang Mu was a disciple of a Saint Creator, he would become one of the top young figures standing at the pinnacle of this era.

Her status no longer matched that of Fang Mu.

Fang Mu was already the focus of everyone's attention.

After Fang Mu finished speaking, the few Star Wheel members who had not interacted with him in real life regretted deeply.

Among the Star Wheel members present, several had already met Fang Mu in real life.

Those who had met him earlier were more likely to gain Fang Mu's favor and form profound ties with him.

There were only ten official members in the Star Wheel.

Even though Fang Mu was a disciple of a Saint Creator, the resources he could offer were not unlimited.

Fang Mu would definitely prioritize those Star Wheel members with whom he had better relationships.

Chapter 1097: The Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes!

At this moment, a feeling of competition rose among the members of the Starwheel.

Such sentiment amongst members within a single faction was not a good sign.

Yet, the emergence of this feeling among everyone at present was, indeed, an unavoidable affair.

Because no one wanted to be left behind in trading resources from a Saint Creator.

If previously, in the trading of Grandmaster Creator resources, everyone had their own channels.

Now, in the trading of Saint Creator resources, not a single Star Wheel Member dared claim they could secure a channel for Saint Creator resources.

There were only a handful of Saint Creators in the world, and each of them operated their own powers.

They would never easily reveal their Saint Creator resources.

The Saint Creator is the producer of the Saint Creator resources, capable of completely monopolizing them.

Master Hanming of the Ten-thousand Nations Federation had always done just that.

In doing so, Cicada Cry did not draw criticism but instead made more people eager to please Hanming.

This alone sufficed to prove how immense the authority and high the status of a Saint Creator were.

The gap between a Saint Creator and a Grandmaster Creator was much wider than that from a Master Creator to a Grandmaster Creator.

Many Star Wheel Members gradually shifted their gaze from Fang Mu to Shui Miao.

Who could have thought that Shui Miao, when invited to the Stardisk Meeting, turned out to be a Saint Creator!

Stardisk Meetings had already been convened many times.

If Sagittarius were to take the initiative to ask, it was clear that Jianmu had no intention of revealing Qixing's identity.

This indicated that Qixing must be extremely low-profile.

A low-profile Saint Creator like Qixing was far more mysterious than a Saint Creator like Hanming, who had made themselves known to all.

Each Saint Creator had their own network of relations, despite both being Saint Creators.

Should a conflict arise between two Saint Creators, it was feared that the whole world would be affected.

The conflict between the Ten-thousand Nations Federation and Bliss Palace was fierce.

Neither Hanming nor Eternal Mother Yongle, these two Saint Creators, had truly entered into the fray.

Once both Saint Creators really entered the fray, the situation would instantly escalate beyond control.

Contract Garden would not allow Hanming and Eternal Mother Yongle to do so.

As Saint Creators, neither Mother Yongle nor Hanming would be threatened by Contract Garden.

But neither would be the first to enter the fray.

For the one who did so would inevitably push the other Master Creators of Contract Garden to stand against them.

Sagittarius said to Fang Mu with utmost sincerity,

“Jianmu, I know Golden Bull, Aquarius, Virgo, and others have all met with you privately.”

“Although Master Qixing is your master and you’ve revealed the answer to me, I will still deliver the reward to your hands.”

“I wonder if you would grant me the opportunity to meet you privately?”

“I have a request for you in private, and I hope you can accommodate it!”

Sagittarius had always been forthright.

Now, as he said these words, Fang Mu could see from Sagittarius’s eyes the full sincerity and seriousness.

Fang Mu did not immediately agree but directly responded,

“When I joined the Starwheel, I proposed the principle of equal trade.”

“This principle was established by my master, and I am merely relaying my master’s words.”

“As long as they are not enemies with malicious intent, I am very willing to make friends in reality!”

“Sagittarius, your visit is naturally welcome.”

“However, I cannot guarantee that I will be able to fulfill the trade you propose.”

Fang Mu didn’t just directly accept the offer, which instead brought a sense of calmness to Sagittarius’s heart.

From their few interactions, Sagittarius had come to like Fang Mu, a reliable and down-to-earth young man.

Sagittarius had previously traded with Su Qing in private and knew well what kind of person Su Qing was.

The fact that Su Qing could collaborate with Fang Mu so pleasantly and forge a deep friendship proved that Jianmu was certainly not bad!

After Sagittarius expressed this, Scorpio also couldn’t wait to declare,

“Libra, do you have time soon? I hope I can have the opportunity to meet you privately.”

“Just name a time, and I can come to you any time.”

Compared to Scorpio, Cancer, a man mighty as a steel tower, was always measured and reserved, rarely speaking up at Stardisk Meetings.

Unlike Jin Ya and Shu Liangjun, who would tease other Star Wheel Members.

After Scorpio finished speaking, Cancer very succinctly said to Fang Mu,

“Jianmu, I’m the same as Scorpio, if you are willing to trade with me, I will definitely offer you satisfactory compensation.”

“And I will owe you a favor for every transaction.”

Compared to Scorpio and Cancer, Capricorn was undoubtedly much calmer.

Normally, Capricorn would let the rag doll in hand make sounds to speak on their behalf.

This time, Capricorn took the rare step of speaking out personally,

“Libra, I might not be able to meet with you privately.”

“However, if you are willing to enter into three trades with me, I can give you a chance to search for treasure at the Brocade Dragon Pool.”

“You must have heard about the Brocade Dragon Pool formed from the dead Brocade Rui Dragon?”

Upon hearing this, Fang Mu’s brows slightly furrowed.

He had never heard of such a thing as the Brocade Dragon Pool.

Fang Mu was also unsure of what kind of dragon-type creature the Brocade Rui Dragon was.

The Rui Dragon is not among the twelve Primary Dragon Bloodlines.

But from Capricorn’s implication, this Brocade Rui Dragon seemed to be more formidable than those Guardian Beasts possessing Primary Dragon Bloodlines!

Seeing Fang Mu did not respond to his offer, Capricorn prepared to explain to Fang Mu.

Chapter 1098: Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes!_2

Capricorn had no intention of strong-arming Fang Mu.

In fact, Capricorn had once given face to Fang Mu, knowing that he was going to explore the large ancient battlefield in the Panfeng Federation.

To avoid competing with Fang Mu, Capricorn had proactively withdrawn from that contest.

Latter, Capricorn only traded a few rare Undead Species Guardian Beasts with Fang Mu.

If Capricorn had really gone to that large ancient battlefield, her gains would have been much greater than from trading with Fang Mu.

The truly talented Undead Species Guardian Beasts were all kept by Fang Mu for his own Ghost Type Beast Yama Pragya to control.

He did not trade them to Capricorn.

But before Capricorn could say anything, Scorpio had already taken the initiative to explain to Fang Mu.

“Libra, the Rui Dragon Species Guardian Beasts are not part of the Main Dragon Species, but rather belong to a holy dragon lineage with a single bloodline inheritance.”

“The bloodline carries on with uniqueness.”

“After a Brocade Rui Dragon dies, its Dragon Ball turns into a sanctuary that nourishes a corner of the world.”

“In this world, many beings with extremely high potential are born.”

“The Brocade Rui Dragon resurrects by utilizing the merit of its dead body to activate the Dragon Ball.”

“There were legends of the Brocade Rui Dragon circulating four hundred years ago, so it seems likely that the legacy of this branch has been obtained by Capricorn.”

“Now that the Brocade Rui Dragon is in the state of a Dragon Ball, for you, Capricorn, to let Fang Mu enter the sanctuary formed after its death and still demand three opportunities for trade is rather unreasonable!”

“The gains from one exploration of a sanctuary are, after all, not much due to the rules of the Brocade Rui Dragon’s Dragon Ball!”

As soon as Scorpio spoke, he clarified the situation.

Scorpio’s origin was equally extraordinary, and he was not afraid of Capricorn.

He was more than willing to use Capricorn as a way to show goodwill to Fang Mu.

Capricorn's anger was provoked by Scorpio's words, and with a voice that was indistinguishable between male and female and somewhat childish, she coldly said.

"Entering the Brocade Dragon Pool, aside from collecting supplies and seeking rare Guardian Beasts, you can also try to resonate with the Dragon Ball of the Brocade Rui Dragon."

"If it were someone else entering, even if they resonated with the Dragon Ball of the Brocade Rui Dragon, I wouldn't let them take the Dragon Ball away."

"But if Libra can resonate with the Dragon Ball, I can decide to let Libra take away the Brocade Rui Dragon's Dragon Ball!"

"Of course, if Libra cannot turn the Dragon Ball into the Brocade Rui Dragon within ten years, then the Dragon Ball must be returned to me!"

"Libra has already stated that he follows the principle of equal trade; I will not take the slightest advantage of Libra."

Upon hearing this, Scorpio did not say anything more.

If things were as Capricorn had said, this trade would actually be more beneficial for Fang Mu's side.

However, in the end, it would most likely conclude with Fang Mu returning the Dragon Ball of the Brocade Rui Dragon to Capricorn.

To resurrect through merit alone, the Dragon Ball of the Brocade Rui Dragon would need at least a thousand years.

With the legends of the Brocade Rui Dragon having been interrupted for just over four hundred years, even a Saint Creator would likely not be able to make the Brocade Rui Dragon regenerate prematurely.

What Capricorn had done was both a trade and a bold gamble.

If Qixing really had such ability and managed to hatch the Brocade Rui Dragon, then this Holy Dragon would have slipped right through Scorpio's fingers.

If Qixing couldn't hatch the Dragon Ball of the Brocade Rui Dragon within ten years, he would inevitably provide a significant amount of resources for the Dragon Ball.

Then, the resources Qixing provided for the Brocade Rui Dragon would end up in Capricorn's hands.

Fang Mu looked up at Shu Liangjun.

Seeing this, Shu Liangjun nodded at Fang Mu, indicating the feasibility of the trade.

Fang Mu remembered that he was only a Saint Creator disciple in the Stardisk Meeting, not a Saint Creator himself.

Fang Mu did not immediately agree to Capricorn's proposal; instead, he spoke very earnestly,

"Capricorn, I will inquire about this matter with my master after I return."

"I will give you a reply during the next Stardisk Meeting."

Capricorn showed no surprise at his response.

For Fang Mu to consult the Saint Creator behind him about such a trade was the most sensible action.

If Fang Mu had agreed on the spot, it would have made Capricorn suspicious.

Fang Mu would use the time of just over a month until the next Stardisk Meeting to figure out exactly what kind of being the Brocade Rui Dragon was.

Gain a thorough understanding of the knowledge regarding the Brocade Rui Dragon.

If, after learning about the Brocade Rui Dragon, Fang Mu determines that he cannot hatch the Dragon Ball of the Brocade Rui Dragon ahead of time with his own hidden abilities, he will directly refuse the trade with Capricorn.

Fang Mu will not become arrogant just because he possesses two mysterious Destiny Guardian Beasts.

Nor will he carelessly play the fool.

After the conversation, Fang Mu and Sagittarius agreed to bring up the matter of an offline meeting again at the next Stardisk Meeting.

This time, Fang Mu's side already has enough manpower to fight for the Growth Type Secret Land, so there is really no need to drag Sagittarius along.

In a month's time, the contention for the Growth Type Secret Land will mostly have ended.

There is no need for Fang Mu to have his first meeting with Sagittarius and ask Sagittarius for help.

As for Fang Mu making prior arrangements with Sagittarius, Scorpio, and Cancer all expressed considerable regret.

However, it was indeed Sagittarius who brought up the topic first and invited Fang Mu.

After the conversation, it was time for the routine trade.

Fang Mu once again obtained a large number of patchwork hackers, Shadow Eye Stones, and Evil Spirits.

Among them, the Evil Spirits that Capricorn traded to Fang Mu were the most, totalling fifteen bottles of Spiritual Elixir with a purity of seventy percent obtained from Fang Mu.

These Soul of Death can not only help Fang Mu consolidate Liu Xi's rank but also allow Fang Mu to cultivate new Evil Spirits.

As for the Evil Spirit Sisters with the ability to create barriers, the Star-Gazing Beauty and the Awake Moon Beauty, Fang Mu still hadn't had the chance to nurture them!

Returning to the real world from the Stardisk Meeting, Fang Mu organized his gains.

While Fang Mu was sorting out his gains, other powers were also scheming over that Growth Type Secret Land.

...

The Bixi Federation is located on the Ocean Stone Continent and is the most prosperous country there.

On the southeast side of the Ocean Stone Continent are various Elemental Bixi Ores.

Even those of lower quality Elemental Bixi Ores can produce massive wealth.

The prosperity of the Bixi Federation, which is built upon numerous veins of Elemental Bixi Ore, depends on a power called the Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes on its periphery.

The members of the Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes call themselves Snake Guards, and each is adept at breeding Serpent Beasts and using them for battle.

They worship a deity known as the Spirit Snake Shaman.

In the Beastmaster world, not all Federations are materialists like the Dragon Rising Federation.

Indeed, many Federations have rather complex beliefs.

The Bixi Federation sustains the Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes with Elemental Bixi Ores, and in return, the Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes protects the Bixi Federation, fending off invaders.

This cooperative relationship causes many small and unsupported Federations to envy.

Yet, the nobles of the Bixi Federation are very clear that the existence of the Bixi Federation is, strictly speaking, nothing more than a breeding ground for the Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes.

The entire Federation's authority is controlled by the upper echelons of the Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes.

At the core of the Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes' power is the Temple where the Spirit Snake Shaman is worshiped.

Around the Temple stand tens of thousands of serpent-shaped statues, with groups of people worshiping in front of each one.

These people watch the serpent-shaped statues with serious expressions, muttering incessantly to themselves.

Whenever someone walks away, a new group takes their place.

The red light that shines above the serpent-shaped statues sways with the wind, reminiscent of a snake's flickering tongue, both eerie and dangerous.

Apart from the dignified and sacred temple, other buildings of the Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes power appear much more rugged and wild.

At this moment, in a Tree Fortress, six men and women wearing huge double snake earrings and headdresses resembling snake-shaped crowns are engaged in a heated exchange.

Among them, a woman with a long scar running down her face to her neck spoke loudly,

"I disagree with cooperating with the Witch School!"

"The Witch School has not screwed us over just once or twice."

"Helping the Witch School to contend for this Wood Attribute Growth Type Secret Land does not benefit us in any way."

“Do you really believe that the Witch School will share the Supplies within this Wood Attribute Growth Type Secret Land with us!?”

Chapter 1099: The Lineup of Six Witches!

The anger in this woman’s eyes surged as she spoke, as if she had suffered many grievances at the hands of the Witch School.

Hearing the woman’s words, an old woman playing with a purple-golden double-headed small snake in her hands asked coldly,

“Biao Ling, I know you have always been at odds with the Witch School and have suffered a lot at their hands.”

“But you can’t give up such a ready opportunity just because you suffered that one time!”

“If we’re really talking about it, the overall strength of the Witch School is stronger than our Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes, and it’s our Forest that is benefiting from the Witch School’s influence.”

The woman named Biao Ling, caressing the scar that ran from her cheek down to her collarbone, didn’t feel her anger subside because of the old woman’s words; instead, it intensified.

The losses she had incurred at the hands of those crafty witches from the Witch School were not due to personal vendettas.

It was during a partnership between the Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes and the Witch School.

Her injuries weren't caused by someone from the Witch School, yet they were undeniably linked to them.

This injury hadn't been suffered by anyone else; otherwise, they wouldn't still be thinking this way.

Before Biao Ling could retort, a man playing with a turquoise dagger embedded with large stones spoke,

"This time the Witch School hopes to borrow two Order members from us."

"Currently, only two of us have successfully reached the Order, Mi Jia and I."

"Since Mi Jia also agrees with this partnership with the Witch School, let both Mi Jia and I go!"

"The others who are not involved should continue to handle affairs within the Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes."

"The birthday of the Spirit Snake Shaman is just a few days away, and this year we must sacrifice a million essence blood of Serpent beasts to him."

“Almost all the Serpent beasts on the Ocean Stone Continent have been sacrificed, so we should trade as much as possible with other federations and forces.”

Upon hearing what the man in front of her said, Biao Ling was at a loss for words for a long while.

Yes, this operation was a cooperation between the Order-level strong of the Witch School and the Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes.

Her own strength was still some distance from stepping into the Order.

When Mi Jia had first been at the same level as her, the Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes' allocation of resources was still quite fair.

But once Mi Jia stepped into the Order and became the strongest in the Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes, the distribution of resources in the Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes began to be controlled by Mi Jia alone.

Peng Lang's strength was middle to lower among the six.

The reason he was able to reach the Order in such a short time was due to Mi Jia's investment in him.

The relationship between Peng Lang and Mi Jia was unknown to others in the Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes.

But it was no secret among the six.

An old man with skin piled up like chicken skin said in a hoarse voice,

“We celebrate the birthday of the Spirit Snake Shaman every year.”

“In previous years, either I or Biao Ling presided over the Spirit Snake Shaman’s birthday, and Mi Jia has also presided a few times.”

“Every year, as long as there’s no major accident, the most we can capture is around five to six hundred thousand Serpent beasts.”

“And some of those have to be distributed to the core members of the Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes as contractual items.”

“In the best harvest year within the last fifty years, we captured only about six to seven hundred thousand Serpent beasts.”

“Peng Lang, it’s your first year managing the ceremony; there’s no need to aim too high.”

“From my personal point of view, it’s really unnecessary to trade with other federations for this.”

“If we do this, the Bixi Federation’s resources will definitely become income deficient in the coming decades!”

“Our Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes’ plan to recruit new members will also have to be postponed because of your decision.”

The words of this old man echoed the sentiments of Biao Ling and the others.

A million Serpent beasts were nearly double the usual amount needed for two Spirit Snake Shaman birthday celebrations.

You have to know that nowadays on the Ocean Stone Continent, the reserve of Serpent beast resources is much smaller than before.

Decades ago, we could capture seven to eight hundred thousand Serpent beasts each year.

Now, managing to get three to four hundred thousand in a year is barely sufficient.

If Peng Lang wanted to make a name for himself during his first time presiding over the Spirit Snake Shaman's birthday ceremony after stepping into the Order, it was not incomprehensible.

According to the sequence, this year shouldn't have been Peng Lang presiding over the Spirit Snake Shaman's birthday ceremony.

Peng Lang added a bias, yet he was preparing to participate in the partnership with the Witch School before the ceremony started.

This was indeed somewhat disrespectful to the Spirit Snake Shaman's ceremony!

If it were not for this, the old man would not have spoken to single out Peng Lang.

In a clan, when an Order Strong questions an Order-level strong,

it doesn't benefit the Order-level strong in any way.

Not everyone is as stubborn as Biao Ling.

Biao Ling, about to say something upon hearing this, only heard Mi Jia say coldly,

“The action with the Witch School has already been decided.”

“Preparing a million Serpent beings for this birthday of the Spirit Snake Shaman is also a sign of respects to the Spirit Snake Shaman.”

“The Bixi Federation has established relations with several federations, purchasing a few hundred thousand Serpent beasts won’t be difficult.”

“By the next festival, we can return to the usual five hundred thousand!”

Ever since Mi Jia stepped into the Order, the Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes had become his one-man show.

No one had the power to oppose Mi Jia’s decisions.

Even if they did oppose, it would be futile.

Biao Ling and the old man both shut their mouths.

The other two who had not reached the Order also had very unnatural expressions on their faces.

The Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes' annual resource harvest was fixed.

These resources were originally divided equally among the six.

But ever since Mi Jia alone reached enlightenment, Mi Jia took half of the resources for himself.

Chapter 1100: The Lineup of the Six Witches!_2

The remaining half was divided among five individuals, including Peng Lang.

After Peng Lang had stepped into the Order-level, he quickly became closely involved with Mi Jia.

From then on, Peng Lang alone took four-fifths of that half of the resources for himself.

Mi Jia and Peng Lang occupied ninety percent of the resources.

This made it very difficult for Biao Ling and others to improve their strength, as well as lacking resources to reward their subordinates.

Biao Ling and the rest could vividly feel the dissatisfaction among their subordinates.

In contrast, Peng Lang was exceptionally generous to his own people.

Despite taking resources from Biao Ling and others, Peng Lang still flaunted his wealth conspicuously.

Biao Ling and his peers came to regard Peng Lang as a thorn in their side, an irritant.

However, even without Mi Jia backing Peng Lang, Biao Ling and others of Sequential strength were powerless against Peng Lang of Order-level.

The meeting within the Tree Fortress thus concluded.

Two Order Strong from the Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes planned to collaborate with the Witch School to partake in the impending scramble for the Wood property Growth-Type Sanctuary.

Recently, it wasn't just the Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes scheming; many forces were engaging in similar plotting.

The tipping point of the major power struggles was approaching, with some forces quite confident.

Others had little expectation for this contest right from the start.

Of course, the key point was that the resource struggle in Contract Garden was carried out by the younger generation.

While the contest for the Growth-Type Sanctuary required the involvement of the older generation of strong individuals.

Xu Fengnian returned first to the Mountain Manor.

Xu Fengnian had stayed a while with Shuoyang Grandmaster, an old friend, assisting with the completion of a research project.

During this time, Xu Fengnian also reaped substantial rewards.

Wang Mi closely followed Xu Fengnian back to the Mountain Manor.

Wang Mi brought with him five Order-level strong individuals.

All five of these Order-level strong individuals were either Wang Mi's disciples or assistants, and they all knew of Fang Mu's identity from Wang Mi.

A disciple of a Saint Creator was a person whom even their own mentor, Wang Mi, sought to ingratiate himself with.

These Order Strong behaved exceptionally courteously around Fang Mu, not daring to assume the posture of Order-level strong individuals in front of Fang Mu.

Fang Mu took the initiative to introduce Wang Mi and Xu Fengnian to Su Qing.

Because of Fang Mu's introduction, Xu Fengnian and Wang Mi were very polite to Su Qing.

In the behavior of the two towards Su Qing, there was also the factor of the Granny of Repeated Flower Residence.

The Granny's Grandmaster Creator status was slightly higher than that of Wang Mi and Xu Fengnian.

Grandmaster Creators were more inclined to network with members related to other Grandmaster Creators.

People's energy is limited; few are willing to spend energy on those who are not worth the investment.

For example, Wang Xu and He Wen, Fang Mu did not take the initiative to introduce them to Wang Mi and Xu Fengnian.

He only mentioned them briefly in front of Wang Mi and Xu Fengnian.

Firstly, Fang Mu intended to separate his own identity from that of Yan Luo in front of outsiders.

Secondly, Fang Mu also noticed that Wang Mi and Xu Fengnian had no intention of networking with Wang Xu and He Wen.

This allowed Fang Mu to perceive the arrogance of a Grandmaster Creator from the sidelines.

Since everyone had arrived, it was naturally time to set off.

Fang Mu had not forgotten the promise he made to Zhang Renbin, stating he would take Zhang Renbin with him when heading out to contest for the Wood property Growth-Type Sanctuary.

Fang Mu asked She Wan to contact Zhang Renbin, and before She Wan could place the call, Zhang Renbin proactively reached out to She Wan through the Legend Butterfly.

Zhang Renbin made it clear that he would contact her only if something urgent arose that he couldn't resolve.

She Wan started to look into the information Zhang Renbin sent.

After reading the content from Zhang Renbin, She Wan furrowed her brows.

Someone like Zhang Renbin, who led a travel group across Federations, was only someone She Wan could once look up to.

Yet, under Fang Mu's command, Zhang Renbin seemed to fade into insignificance.

Although Zhang Renbin didn't have much presence, he indeed served a purpose.

Zhang Renbin had, through his own channels, made contact with the Witch School currently in control of the said Growth-Type Wood property Sanctuary.

He acquired quite a bit of insider information from the Witch School.

Fang Mu did not consider the Witch School an opponent, but getting to know more about the Witch School beforehand was not a bad thing.

Of course, the information provided by Zhang Renbin might not all be accurate.

The Witch School is known for its cunning and never acts in a straightforward manner.

Otherwise, back in The Capital of Panfeng Federation, the Witch School wouldn't have made itself the target of many for the sake of obtaining the first six pages of a book from the Town Rock Family.

They had been used by Fang Mu!

With utmost speed, Zhang Renbin arrived from the mainland to the Mountain Manor in JA City, where Fang Mu was located.

Xu Fengnian, Wang Mi, and others were all in their own rooms.

Upon arrival, Zhang Renbin was taken by She Wan to the reception room where Fang Mu was.

Fang Mu was drinking the deliciously sweet melon juice.

It was the season when the honeydews of the Dragon Rising Federation were at their sweetest.

A healthy body and the need for a high intake of nutrients meant Fang Mu was almost always eating when alone.

Looking at the travel-worn Zhang Renbin, Fang Mu gestured forward.

“Brother Zhang, please take a seat.”

“Sister Wan told me you’ve learned quite a bit about the Witch School’s situation, so feel free to share any intelligence you have directly with me.”

“Don’t worry whether the intelligence you obtained is true or false.”

Fang Mu’s words eased Zhang Renbin’s mind.

All the way here, Zhang Renbin was deeply conflicted.

Through the channels of Ji Feng Travel Group, Zhang Renbin put great effort into making contact with the Witch School.

The Witch School invited Ji Feng Travel Group to collaborate and shared many of the Witch School’s arrangements with them.

Zhang Renbin wasn’t sure if this was the Witch School showing off their capabilities, sincerely informing him, or if they were giving him false information, hoping he would pass it on and mislead other forces.

If his information caused any loss to Fang Mu, his guilt would be enormous!

Being dependent on Fang Mu for his livelihood, and controlled by him, if he were to lose Fang Mu's favor, he would be left with nothing.

Fang Mu wanted him to share all the information he'd got, regardless of its veracity, indicating that Fang Mu would only consider his intelligence with discretion.

The way Fang Mu addressed him as Brother Zhang made Zhang Renbin feel valued by Fang Mu for his organization Neon.

Fang Mu did not treat him like a servant to be ordered about, despite holding power over his life and death.

"Young Master, the Witch School invited the Ji Feng Travel Group to aid them, offering quite a substantial reward."

“To bring the Ji Feng Travel Group into their plan, they informed me that they would send out two Void Beast Witches, three Spirit Witches, and one Scout Witch.”

“I estimate these six witches should all be at the Order Level.”

“Otherwise, the Witch School wouldn’t have made a point of emphasizing them.”

“Moreover, it seems that the Witch School has also collaborated with a power named the Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes.”

“The Forest of Ten Thousand Snakes has inextricable ties with the Bixi Federation.”

“Within their power, they worship a wild deity and are fervent in their beliefs.”

“Every so often, they sacrifice a large number of Serpent beasts.”

“In recent years, this power has also seen the rise of Order Strong.”

“The visible Order Strong of the Witch School, even excluding any hidden elements, have already amounted to at least seven.”

“So Master, you should be more cautious in the contest for this Growth Type Secret land!”

Zhang Renbin mustered up the courage to say these last words.

His speech was for both Fang Mu’s and his own safety.

Because Zhang Renbin was to venture to the Sea Hook of a Thousand Gorges in the Desert Coast Mountain Range with Fang Mu!

Hearing this, Fang Mu’s eyes narrowed slightly.

The message relayed by the Witch School was intended to flaunt their power, aiming to attract forces like Ji Feng Travel Group to align with them.

“So Master, you should be more cautious in the contest for this Growth Type Secret land!”

Zhang Renbin spoke these final words with great boldness.

His speech was for both Fang Mu’s and his own safety.

Because Zhang Renbin was to venture to the Sea Hook of a Thousand Gorges in the Desert Coast Mountain Range with Fang Mu!

Upon hearing this, Fang Mu's eyes narrowed imperceptibly.

The Witch School's conveyed message had an air of showing off their prowess, aimed at drawing forces like Ji Feng Travel Group to ally with them.