

Beast Tamer 1301

Chapter 1301: The Scenery of Intent Manifests!

Jun Feng was momentarily taken aback upon hearing Fang Mu's words, for Fang Mu was never one to seek repayment for favors done.

Even if Fang Mu really owed him a favor, there was no need for Jun Feng's gratitude.

The fact that Fang Mu spoke in such a manner made Jun Feng realize that his chance was likely approaching; anything that made him feel grateful to Fang Mu must be of great importance to him.

Even someone as steady as Jun Feng found it hard to suppress his curiosity.

"Little Wood, what matter could possibly provide me an opportunity to express my thanks? Feel free to share so I can be delighted!"

When Jun Feng first started following Fang Mu, his words were filled with a strong sense of measure, which isn't always conducive to the relationship between two people.

A sense of measure often implies estrangement, and now the way Jun Feng spoke to Fang Mu suggested he truly considered Fang Mu one of his own.

Later, in the Infinite Tower, Fang Mu would make extensive use of the Scenery Fantasy Pearl, sharing them not only with Jun Feng but also with elders like Shu Liangjun.

Individuals like Fang Mu himself, Hu Tao, Jiang Tuo, and Fang Mu's brothers and sisters would also apply the Scenery Fantasy Pearl.

"Uncle Feng, have you ever heard of something that can help a Beast Master Comprehend Mysterious Patterns?"

Jun Feng nodded at the question. A Beast Master of Jun Feng's rank was already qualified to access and use ninety-nine percent of the world's resources.

Treasures that could aid a Beast Master in Comprehending Mysterious Patterns aren't non-existent; rather, they are so scarce that some are even unique.

Acquiring such an item relied on luck, and even those born into rich, powerful families or top-tier forces might not get the chance to use them during their lifetimes!

Jun Feng's straightforward nod was due to the Elixirs publicized by Han Ming at a prior Contract Garden gathering; these were concocted from Extraterrestrial Embryos.

According to rumors, these Elixirs could improve a Beast Master's ability to Comprehend Mysterious Patterns.

Jun Feng initially thought this was a great innovation of human civilization until Ning Hongshu followed the formula and concocted the Elixirs. After using them, Jun Feng could assert they were merely gimmicks.

Firstly, the cost of concoction was extremely high, and secondly, the Elixirs' effects were barely noticeable.

Han Ming's promotion was just a move to enhance his own reputation.

If the Elixirs were genuinely effective, Han Ming would not have released the formula publicly but would have sold the finished product bit by bit to accumulate supplies.

Still, Han Ming's discovery did have some significance, so Jun Feng couldn't entirely dismiss the research findings.

Although Jun Feng's loyalty was to the Saint Creator Qixing, he still held respect for both the Eternal Mother Yongle and Han Ming, both Grandmaster Creators.

“Little Wood, you must have heard about the Elixirs that Han Ming formulated from his research on Extraterrestrial Embryos.”

“I imagine that after testing, the other Grandmaster Creators wouldn’t spend much time on concocting such Elixirs.”

“I’d suspect that even Han Ming wouldn’t regard research on these Elixirs as the main task of the Tenthousand Nations Federation.”

Fang Mu smiled at this.

He had never used the Elixirs Jun Feng spoke of, and if asked to concoct them himself, Fang Mu wouldn’t know how to.

Fang Mu wasn’t in the habit of disparaging others, so when Jun Feng mentioned the Elixirs’ poor effect, Fang Mu didn’t agree with him just to elevate himself.

Instead, Fang Mu took out a Scenery Fantasy Pearl that Xi Xi had only recently condensed. He handed the pearl, engraved with an image of Jun Feng’s Epiphany, to Jun Feng.

Besides the recorded scene, the Scenery Fantasy Pearl also bore the Energy Fluctuations of Jun Feng’s body when he Comprehended a specific Mysterious Pattern.

With a look of astonishment toward Fang Mu, Jun Feng understood the pearl’s effectiveness and immediately realized the value of the Scenery Fantasy Pearl.

This Scenery Fantasy Pearl wasn't just capable of aiding a Beast Master in Comprehending Mysterious Patterns; it could help a Beast Master comprehend the same Patterns and condense higher-grade Mysterious Runes!

"Little Wood, may I ask presumptively, is it possible to mass-produce this crystal?"

Fang Mu shook his head in response.

"Uncle Feng, as you might have already felt, this item called the Scenery Fantasy Pearl is customized based on your own Comprehension."

"While it's extremely difficult to mass-produce something customized, it's still possible to help you condense one or two pearls each month!"

Jun Feng stayed in a state of shock for a long time after hearing this.

Two Scenery Fantasy Pearls a month meant over twenty in a year!

Jun Feng felt that if nothing went wrong, he would be able to condense One Mysterious Rune after using about four or five Scenery Fantasy Pearls with his Comprehension Power.

That was considering if luck wasn't on his side.

If luck was good, he might find success with every two or three pearls!

With the help of these Scenery Fantasy Pearls, condensing a Xuan Body seemed within reach!

Never before had Jun Feng felt such confidence in condensing a Xuan Body.

Beyond the shock and joy, Jun Feng recognized that the Scenery Fantasy Pearl might not only add value but also bring great danger to Fang Mu.

“Little Wood, I am extremely grateful that you are willing to provide me with such a treasure as the Scenery Fantasy Pearl. However, I feel it’s necessary to caution you.”

“While it seems that humans rule everything overtly in various federations, ancient forces with thousands or even tens of thousands of years of inheritance may have hidden methods at their disposal.”

Chapter 1302: The Grand Scenery Unveils!_2

“Being targeted is never a good thing!”

In his interactions with Jun Feng, Fang Mu knew that Jun Feng was not a person who acted with extreme caution.

Jun Feng’s bringing up this point was enough to alert Fang Mu.

In fact, Fang Mu had been aware of the value of the Scenery Fantasy Pearl from the very beginning, which is why he had not revealed it until he had gained the backing of a God Territory Powerhouse.

Fang Mu had gained control over Jun Feng’s soul through the Covenant Servant Soul Ant Queen and the Infinite Silver Silkworm, which was the core reason why Fang Mu had revealed the Scenery Fantasy Pearl to Jun Feng.

“Uncle Feng, I’m well aware of what you’ve said, my master has already cautioned me.”

“Since Uncle Feng also knows that such a thing should not be revealed, I’d kindly ask you to keep it a secret for me!”

Jun Feng was very grateful for Fang Mu’s trust.

“Otherwise, what would be the point of living to this age?”

“Once this trip is over, I’ll return to the Hall of Nine Poisons first. After I come back from there, I’ll stay by your side to ensure your safety!”

“With the situation you’ve created, I’m afraid many organizations are eyeing you, and without an Order peak-level strongman by your side, I really can’t rest easy!”

Fang Mu knew that Jun Feng was not a person to speak idly. There must be concerns behind Jun Feng’s words.

Fang Mu had always been aware that apart from the Contract Garden and the Ten-thousand Nations Federation, there must be other powerful forces in the human world.

However, these forces didn’t operate openly like the Contract Garden and Ten-thousand Nations Federation, nor took it upon themselves to protect the safety of the human continent.

Fang Mu had deliberately made his Qixing persona come across as particularly sharp and conspicuous during this time, to deter and intimidate those who might attempt to target him!

Fang Mu had no desire to become the target of any force, and if any force wished to go after him, they better be prepared for his revenge!

Fang Mu was never afraid of the openly known forces like the Evil Heart Sect, Eternal Alchemy Association, Ancient Genesis, or the Witch School.

Compared to these overt organizations, those hidden in the shadows were the ones Fang Mu was truly wary of.

“Uncle Feng, I’m counting on you then. Since you’re awake, we might as well get going!”

Before leaving, Fang Mu informed Lian Dai through the Dao Protector Mark, and then notified the Sea Clan Attendant who was responsible for his reception.

Regardless of the nature of his relationship with Lian Dai behind the scenes, he knew it was important to show due courtesy.

The Contract Garden was about to start liaising with the Sea Clan, and Lian Dai would update him on the situation before handing over the King-level Exotic Body to him.

Fang Mu informed his brother and sister, Hu Tao and Jiang Tuo, that he would soon be returning to the Dragon Rising Federation.

The three of them had known Hu Tao even before she moved in.

Jiang Tuo was the grandson of a Forging Spirit Grandmaster under the auspices of the Jianmu Commerce Association, and Fang Yuan had been communicating frequently with Jiang Weng lately.

Jiang Tuo and Hu Tao were both polite and likable, and Fang Yuan, Fang Qin, and Yan Wood treated them like younger siblings.

Jiang Tuo had been feeling pent up, but after consistently dueling in the Second World, he brushed off his previous frustrations, seeming invigorated.

Hu Tao, after guidance from Fang Mu, no longer dwelled on her Battle Network live stream status and shifted her focus to the Second World.

Compared to Jiang Tuo and Hu Tao, Fang Yuan, Fang Qin, and Yan Wood faced significant setbacks.

Their initial record in the Second World was quite good, mostly winning with a few losses, but as they reached the Golden Rank, their losses increased!

Fang Qin had played five matches without a single win, which shattered her confidence.

After receiving Fang Mu's resource investment and nurturing, Fang Qin's Guardian Beast's foundation was solidified, gaining the opportunity to upgrade the Dragon race bloodline within it to that of a Master Dragon.

Fang Qin was unable to defeat his opponents because, as a Beast Master, his Star Level lagged one level behind his peers of the same age, who were top talents.

Even though he had the Infinite Silver Silkworm that could enhance his Guardian Beast's rank, while others could reach level ten within the same tier, Fang Qin's Guardian Beast could only reach level one!

Once Fang Qin's Beast Master Star Level was increased, his combat power would greatly enhance.

The promotion of a Beast Master's Star Level required time to accumulate, but fortunately, Fang Qin's current level had already reached the peak of the Three Point Star, only one step away from the Four-pointed Star Beast Master.

He should be able to ascend to a Four-pointed Star Beast Master before the Dragon Rising Federation's age selection in the East Competition District for those aged twenty to thirty, if all went as expected!

Fang Yuan and Yan Wood faced similar setbacks as Fang Qin, with all three encountering akin problems in the Second World.

Only through continuous accumulation could they transform!

Fang Qin had always felt that Fang Mu had been a bit reclusive since childhood, so he was quite happy that Fang Mu had two friends to progress with.

Shu Liangjun teleported everyone with Kong Zhiluoman, and after a brief transit to facilitate Jun Feng's return to the Hall of Nine Poisons, they arrived directly at the Mountain Manor.

Fang Mu had been out for quite a long time, and it had been a while since he last saw his family.

At the dinner table, Fang Mu first inquired about Hu Tao and Jiang Tuo's studies, then engaged in lively conversation with everyone.

After dinner, Fang Mu and Fang Yuan went to a quiet room where Fang Mu poured a cup of tea for Fang Yuan and smiled as he asked,

"Big Brother, how did you feel about your meeting with the Grandmaster Creator of the Ten-thousand Nations Federation?"

Fang Yuan had been very nervous about the meeting, as it often takes courage to step into the spotlight.

Especially since he was facing a Grandmaster Creator.

But upon actually meeting Zhuang Herui, Zhuang Herui was so friendly towards Fang Yuan that he didn't even get a chance to feel nervous.

"Little Wood, when I met the Grandmaster Creator this time, he was extremely kind to me, solely because of you!"

“If it hadn’t been for you, the Grandmaster Creator would never have been so friendly to me.”

Previously, just after stepping out of school and into society, Fang Yuan had become the Golden Gloves of the Mu Commerce Association, meeting all kinds of people.

Back then, even a Low-Level Creator could be bossy with Fang Yuan, let alone a Grandmaster Creator whom he was dealing with now!

Fang Mu chuckled upon hearing Fang Yuan’s words.

Fang Mu did not encourage Fang Yuan to step into the spotlight to be slighted; if Fang Mu wasn’t confident that he could protect Fang Yuan’s dignity, he would not have allowed the meeting with Zhuang Herui.

Fang Mu wanted Fang Yuan to take center stage to gild his reputation, to make his name known among the top forces of humanity, just like his own.

Fang Yuan nodded at these words, having heard that Fang Mu’s master was not just any Grandmaster Creator, but a Saint Creator.

It was Fang Mu’s status that gave Fang Yuan confidence.

Otherwise, even if Fang Yuan sometimes wanted to be assertive, he was afraid of troubling Fang Mu.

“Little Wood, Mr. Zhuang took a total of five hundred Spirit Capturing Boxes. After completing this transaction, I’ve found that we have hardly any inventory left.”

“I’ve told Jiang Weng to stop making spiritual instruments and to focus entirely on producing Spirit Capturing Boxes instead.”

“The benefits that these Spirit Capturing Boxes have brought us far exceed that of the spiritual instruments.”

Fang Mu responded with a smile,

“Big Brother, you can handle these things as you see fit; you’re the strongest among the four of us siblings when it comes to managing power.”

“Let’s discuss the development of the Jianmu Commerce Association in the Second World next!”

Chapter 1303: 17 Prayers to Heaven’s Tears!

Fang Mu had entrusted Fang Yuan with full authority over the management of Jianmu Commerce Association, the planning of Jianmu-related matters, and even some dealings within the Infinite Tower.

It wasn’t just because Fang Yuan was Fang Mu’s brother; while Fang Mu did look out for his family, he didn’t practice nepotism.

Fang Mu placed such importance on Fang Yuan because of his exceptionally strong abilities, which ensured that everything under his charge was well-managed.

Fang Mu was both relieved and grateful for Fang Yuan’s management skills.

Without Fang Yuan’s strong management capabilities, the Jianmu Commerce Association wouldn’t have been able to develop so quickly.

Besides, Fang Mu wouldn’t be able to trust anyone else in the same way he trusted Fang Yuan.

The rapid development of Fang Mu’s power can be largely attributed to Fang Yuan’s assistance.

As soon as Fang Yuan learned about the opening of the second world, he was the first to visit and thoroughly investigate the situation, advising Fang Mu to purchase some lots and shops in the second world early on.

In addition to Fang Mu stocking up on high-quality lots in the Central Sacred City and the four major cities of the northeast, southwest, and northwest, Fang Yuan also used the resources of the Jianmu Commerce Association for investment.

He purchased shops and lots in many areas representing the Dragon Rising Federation's big cities.

In the second world, Fang Yuan still viewed the Dragon Rising Federation as fertile ground for the Jianmu Commerce Association, and Fang Mu fully approved of Fang Yuan's investment strategies.

Just over a span of a few days, the value of the lots and shops in the second world had risen by at least thirty percent.

Now, if Fang Yuan were to sell these acquired lots, he could make a killing.

However, what Fang Mu wanted to discuss with Fang Yuan was not these smaller properties, but rather the subsequent development of the lots and shops in the four major cities as well as the Central Sacred City.

Lu Xiaoyin had been sent by Fang Mu to oversee Tide Bay, no longer serving as Fang Mu's personal butler.

But the connection between Fang Mu and Lu Xiaoyin had never been severed.

Besides supervising the development of Tide Bay and the Chang Le Pavilion, Lu Xiaoyin also served Fang Mu in other ways.

Lu Xiaoyin collected information about lots and shops in the second world and reported it all to Fang Mu through the Legend Butterfly.

The lots and shops that Fang Mu had purchased in the four major cities and Sacred City were now completely sold out in the second world, becoming priceless commodities.

Some major powers who had missed the opportunity offered more than triple the price to acquire them but did not receive any response from the forces in control.

For one, those capable of purchasing these shops and lots in advance weren't short of money and wouldn't be shortsighted enough to use these properties to make quick money and then exit the market.

Secondly, the prices of these shops and lots were expected to rise further in the short term, so even those in urgent need of liquidating their assets were not in a rush.

Fang Mu thought to himself that he had indeed made a fortune by decisively acquiring these lots and shops!

Fang Mu had purchased only the most prime locations. In each of the four major cities, he had bought four adjacent lots and two shops.

In the Central Sacred City, he bought slightly more, with five lots and three shops.

Now, it was time to put these lots and shops to use!

Fang Yuan was aware of the properties Fang Mu had acquired in the second world. With the second world in a phase of rapid development, the lots and shops that Fang Mu had gotten his hands on were bound not to be sold.

The sooner these shops and lots were developed, the more their value could be realized.

"Little Wood, I had been thinking about how to develop Jianmu Commerce Association so that it could stand out from the Dragon Soaring Federation," said Fang Yuan.

“While it’s true that by using the Spirit Capturing Box, we could quickly establish a reputation for the Jianmu Commerce Association, there aren’t many forces capable of dealing in Spirit Capturing Boxes.”

“The value of a Spirit Capturing Box exceeds that of ordinary spiritual instruments; aside from those forces, individuals would find it challenging to afford one.”

“The second world, however, has given Jianmu Commerce Association an opportunity to develop beyond the Dragon Soaring Federation!”

Hearing this, Fang Mu smiled. The opening of the second world was indeed a great benefit to the Human World.

“If Jianmu Commerce Association can stand out from the Dragon Soaring Federation, thanks to this opportunity,” Fang Mu said, “we can directly turn it into a powerful association recognized by all forces in the second world.”

After pondering for a moment, Fang Yuan replied,

“To achieve what you’ve mentioned, Little Wood, would be quite challenging. All the major forces are determined to develop their influence in the second world.”

Fang Yuan was always diligent and cautious. Even with the smooth and favorable development of Jianmu Commerce Association, he never exhibited the slightest arrogance.

Fang Mu said with a smile,

“Fang Yuan, there are many ways for Jianmu Commerce Association to make a name for itself—what may be difficult for other forces is not a problem for us.”

“I have prepared two core plots of land and a shop in the main cities and Sacred City of the second world for you. I doubt there’s any other association in the world capable of such a grand gesture.”

Upon hearing Fang Mu's words, Fang Yuan paused, then voiced his agreement,

"If we proceed as you suggest, Little Wood, Jianmu Commerce Association could indeed make a big name for itself in no time!"

In a sense, Fang Mu's actions could be likened to unleashing "Cash Ability"—for a commerce association, cash flow was of utmost importance.

No other association would sacrifice cash flow to show such grandeur in the second world!

Chapter 1304: 17 Prayers to Heaven's Tears!_2

Fang Yuan did not reject Fang Mu's offerings, as what Fang Mu contributed to Jianmu Commerce Association was tantamount to consolidating the resources of the Fang clan.

Fang Yuan never considered himself the actual manager of the Jianmu Commerce Association, but rather always saw himself as Fang Mu's steward, assisting in managing these foundations.

Fang Yuan always lacked a sense of security, deeply fearing that one day the Qixing Meeting might blame Fang Mu for providing so many resources to his own family.

Should such a situation arise, Fang Yuan was determined to keep developing the Jianmu Commerce Association, so that Fang Mu could repay the resources invested into the commerce association to Qixing.

This way, Fang Mu would have no future concerns.

"My second brother only needs to pay a creation fee at the service center to forge a domain in the Second World, and hire a few outstanding Grandmaster Craftsmen for the design," said Fang Qin.

The Second World was a virtual world, where forging a domain on its land required no material costs.

However, if one wished to demonstrate grandiosity, much thought had to be given to the design.

Even possessing the best plots of land, a mediocre design would make the Jianmu Commerce Association seem rustic.

“Little Wood, our Jianmu Commerce Association has always been collaborating with Keystone Construction, and you’ve already seen the design skills and capabilities of those Grandmaster Craftsmen,” said Fang Qin.

“How about we continue to entrust them with the design?”

Upon hearing this, Fang Mu nodded. He had recommended Keystone Construction to Fang Yuan not solely because of his good relationship with Lu Yuyu, but that was not the main reason.

Fang Mu chose Keystone Construction to forge the headquarters of Jianmu Commerce Association because he really admired the architectural styles of those Grandmaster Craftsmen.

To become a Grandmaster Craftsman, one must possess strong professional abilities.

There were strikingly distinct architectural styles among the Grandmaster Craftsmen with no clear superior.

In their partnership with Jianmu Commerce Association, Keystone Construction had always demonstrated good judgment, fully aware of what it meant to help the association construct headquarters and branches within the four major cities and Sacred City in the Second World.

This was also an opportunity for Keystone Construction to make a name for itself within the Human Federation.

Fang Mu was confident that Keystone Construction would seize this opportunity!

“Second brother, you can make decisions on these matters yourself, and you will also be the one to contact Keystone Construction,” advised Fang Mu.

“After all, the future development of the Jianmu Commerce Association should still focus on accumulating resources.”

“Second brother, in a while, I will give you a batch of high-level Creator resources, which you can use to expand your network.”

“Afterwards, trades between the Jianmu Commerce Association and other forces will all be personally overseen by you!”

“I will assign a Grandmaster Creator to stay by your side, whom you can command as needed,” Fang Mu decided after much thought, choosing to let Zhang Yue accompany Fang Yuan.

Fang Mu originally planned to introduce Hu Tao and Jiang Tuo as disciples to Zhang Yue, hoping they would become Zhang Yue’s disciples.

But Zhang Yue had just expelled his disloyal disciple, Chen Tong, and had no intention of taking on new disciples in the short term.

Naturally, Fang Mu respected Zhang Yue’s personal wishes, so he did not force Zhang Yue.

Fang Yuan needed guidance, and having Zhang Yue by his side meant that even if Zhang Yue wasn’t acting as a mentor, he could still nurture Fang Yuan to the best of his ability.

Having a Grandmaster Creator at Fang Yuan’s side not only provided him a safety net but allowed him to act with greater confidence in anything he did.

Because of the education he had received since childhood and the hardships he experienced early on, Fang Yuan was somewhat insecure when it came to his endeavors.

Fang Mu’s goal was for Fang Yuan to become thoroughly confident!

Fang Mu and Fang Yuan, the two brothers, upheld their own little piece of the world for the Fang Family, sparing Fang Qin and Yan Wood the concern of managing family affairs.

Fang Mu had just assigned a Grandmaster Creator to him, a Grandmaster Creator!

Fang Yuan had never imagined that there would come a day when he could give orders to Grandmaster Creators.

But once he thought about Fang Mu being a disciple of a Saint Creator, Fang Yuan felt that none of this was incomprehensible!

Those Grandmaster Creators would surely gather around Saint Creators as much as possible, hoping to seize the chance to advance their own Creator abilities from them.

"Alright Little Wood, I will do my utmost to handle all the tasks I've taken over,"

"I might not be able to help much with your issues, but remember one thing, prioritize your own safety above all else, don't push yourself too hard!"

"Your big sister, Xiao Yan and I would rather have you return safe and successful than see you become famous and accomplished!"

Upon hearing these words, a warm and heartfelt smile appeared on Fang Mu's face. Perhaps only in front of his own family could Fang Mu smile so peacefully.

Suddenly, Fang Yuan thought of something and took out something resembling a deer's antler from his Spatial Equipment and placed it in front of Fang Mu.

"Little Wood, this is something a Beast Controlling Force brought to me five days ago to pass on to you, they said it's something you've already discussed."

Fang Mu felt the presence of the Cang Lu Clan from the antler, deducing that this object might be a piece of Spatial Equipment made from the antler of the Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage.

Within this antler lay the Prayers to Heaven's Tears!

Fang Mu took the antler and confirmed that there were a total of seventeen droplets of Prayers to Heaven's Tears inside.

The Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage was very keen on collaborating with him, hoping to multiply their lineage massively through his help.

This request was basically identical to that of the Luminous Snake Clan.

For this request, the Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage would definitely give their all in assisting Fang Mu; obtaining seventeen Prayers to Heaven's Tears from the Prayers to the Cyan Deer Clan must have been their utmost effort.

Fang Mu handed three droplets of Prayers to Heaven's Tears over to Fang Yuan.

The Prayers to Heaven's Tears was a translucent yellow crystal, adorned with a ripple-like azure halo, far more beautiful than most gemstones!

If it weren't so precious and extremely beneficial for Beast Masters, the Prayers to Heaven's Tears would actually be quite suitable for making jewelry.

"Second Brother, hand the other two over to Big Sister and Third Sister. Have them refine the crystals with their own Soul Power while their spiritual and soul energies are full; it can help enhance their Soul Power."

“After the enhancement, there is a certain chance that they could contract an additional Ghost System Guardian Beast, and at the very least, they could contract an additional Ghost Device!”

Fang Yuan was not privy to the high-end supplies like Prayers to Heaven’s Tears and wasn’t aware of what they truly were.

However, understanding the benefits described by Fang Mu immediately revealed to Fang Yuan the preciousness of the Prayers to Heaven’s Tears.

The current Fang Yuan no longer declined Fang Mu’s supplies as he used to.

Now, Fang Yuan accepted Fang Mu’s supplies with the sole intention of quickly improving himself, to become stronger and more capable of assisting Fang Mu!

After Fang Yuan left, Fang Mu contacted Lu Ke through the Legend Butterfly. Having touched base with Fang Mu after arriving in the Dragon Rising Federation, Lu Ke mentioned he wanted to meet with Fang Mu upon his return.

Fang Mu did not refuse Lu Ke’s request as he happened to have the time for a meeting.

Lu Ke and the Clan Leader of the Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage, Deer Life, were staying in JA City. As a Guardian Beast staying within the Human Federation, there were many inconveniences, but Deer Life had been patiently waiting along with Lu Ke.

In the meantime, Deer Life had personally gathered some information about Fang Mu within the Dragon Soaring Federation and ascertained Fang Mu’s status as a disciple of a Saint Creator.

If Deer Life had not confirmed Fang Mu’s identity himself, he would always fear that Lu Ke was deceived.

Being swindled of seventeen Prayers to Heaven’s Tears suddenly was not too serious; the Cang Lu Clan had a strong foundation, but it would become a laughingstock among all the Beast Controlling Forces.

The Cang Lu Clan still cared about their face!

Previously, it was Lu Ke who was more concerned about the cooperation with Fang Mu, but after Deer Life learned of Fang Mu's identity, he became even more interested in the cooperation.

Under normal circumstances, as a Beast Controlling Force, the Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage would normally never have the chance to collaborate with a human Saint Creator.

Chapter 1305: Attitude Towards the Beast Controlling Force!

The resources allocated by the human Saint Creator possessed the ability to allow the Cyan Deer Tribe to reproduce and grow rapidly at an unprecedented rate.

Upon seeing the response from the Legend Butterfly, Lu Ke immediately initiated communication.

"Sir Jianmu, it has been a while, have you obtained the Prayers to Heaven's Tears?"

"The Prayers to Heaven's Tears produced by our Prayers to the Cyan Deer Clan varies in quality, and the ones we provided are of the highest grade, yielding the most effective results among them."

There was no personal relationship between Lu Ke and Fang Mu, their interaction was purely one of utilisation and cooperation.

In such a relationship, it was a wise move for Lu Ke to lay out all his and the Cyan Deer Tribe's efforts for Fang Mu as he did.

Fang Mu smiled upon hearing this.

"I have already inspected the seventeen Prayers to Heaven's Tears; indeed, the quality is commendable."

"Seeing your Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage's sincerity, you must be currently in JA City, correct?"

“If you are in JA City, why not pick a time for us to meet and discuss in detail the cooperation between my side and the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage.”

Originally, Fang Mu wanted to use Lu Ke to contact the Praying Sky Cang Lu lineage to cooperate with them.

But clearly, Lu Ke had his own biases!

Rather than reaching out to the Praying Sky Cang Lu lineage, Lu Ke preferred that the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage initiate cooperation with him.

Fang Mu’s principal aim was to obtain the Prayers to Heaven’s Tears, and since the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage met this need, Fang Mu did not mind forming a connection with them.

Lu Ke’s greatest fear was being dismissed by Fang Mu, and he constantly pondered over how to discuss the meeting arrangements with Fang Mu.

Now that Fang Mu had obtained the Prayers to Heaven’s Tears, if he chose to disregard the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage, there was nothing Lu Ke could do about it.

The Bamboo Cyan Deer secretly cooperating with humans was an act of betrayal against the entire Beast Controlling Force!

“Sir Jianmu, the Clan Leader of my Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage and I are in JA City; please provide us with an address so we can come over immediately!”

Upon hearing this, Fang Mu directly gave Lu Ke the address of the Mountain Manor, certain that Lu Ke had already inquired about his whereabouts after arriving in JA City.

Lu Ke's choice not to directly mention coming to the Mountain Manor was out of respect for Fang Mu.

Although Jun Feng was not currently by his side, as a Divine Realm Level Strong from the Han Yang Empire, Lian Dai had become Fang Mu's Dao Protector.

If Fang Mu were truly in danger, he could summon Lian Dai, a Divine Realm expert, through the Dao Protector Mark.

If the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage had any ill intentions upon arriving at the Mountain Manor, Fang Mu had nothing to fear.

The bodies of high-grade Guardian Beasts were extremely precious supplies.

However, unless he was really in danger, Fang Mu would prefer not to trouble Lian Dai with a visit!

Once Lian Dai showed up, her presence in the Dragon Rising Federation would definitely cause a large commotion and could expose the relationship between herself and Fang Mu.

It would be better to keep his relationship with Lian Dai hidden!

Listening to the communication between Fang Mu and Lu Ke, Deer Life felt relieved.

Taking a deep breath, he realized the upcoming interaction with Jianmu, a Qixing Disciple of the Saint Creator, would largely depend on him.

Whether the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage could rise depended on this communication!

For the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage, the most critical issue was the population; as long as Jianmu could resolve the reproduction issue for the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage, Deer Life was willing to overextend their resources, even if it meant making excessive demands!

In a Beast Controlling Force, reproduction outweighed everything.

Once the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage resolved its reproduction issue and had an adequate population, they could pursue other goals.

After ending the communication with Lu Ke, Fang Mu located Hu Tao and Jiang Tuo and handed each one a Prayers to Heaven's Tears.

Both were recognized team members by Fang Mu and had the privilege of using supplies of the caliber of Prayers to Heaven's Tears.

After initially distributing the Prayers to Heaven's Tears, Fang Mu was left with eleven, which he planned to give to Jun Feng, Zhang Yue, Ning Hongshu, Jiang Weng, as well as Mo Shang, who was almost his brother-in-law, and Yi Han, who was among the first to join forces under him.

Of course, individuals like She Wan and Lu Xiaoyin, who had always been by his side, would also be granted Prayers to Heaven's Tears.

These supplies, capable of directly enhancing a Beast Master's foundational strength, were far more valuable when used than simply kept in hand.

Fang Mu intended to use these resources to enhance the capabilities of his people as much as possible.

Considering the abilities of She Wan and Lu Xiaoyin, it was still acceptable for She Wan to receive a Prayers to Heaven's Tears.

Lu Xiaoyin truly did not qualify to receive a Prayers to Heaven's Tears!

However, more than anything else, Fang Mu valued Lu Xiaoyin's diligence.

Fang Mu would not be stingy with these loyal experts under his direct control through various means.

Though a Grandmaster Creator already stood at the pinnacle of the human world, supplies like Prayers to Heaven's Tears were not necessarily within a Grandmaster Creator's ability to obtain.

For someone like Yi Han who had just become a Grandmaster Creator, it was impossible to gain access to resources and channels for acquiring Prayers to Heaven's Tears.

Chapter 1306: Attitude Towards the Beast Controlling Force!_2

Originally, Fang Mu should have given Fang Yuan one more Prayers to Heaven's Tears, allowing Fang Qin to directly hand over this Prayers to Heaven's Tears to Mo Shang.

But after some thought, Fang Mu felt that it was most appropriate for him to personally deliver the Prayers to Heaven's Tears to Mo Shang.

Mo Shang, having been guided by Fang Mu himself, had joined the Infinite Tower and contracted with the Infinite Silver Silkworm, becoming an official member!

By personally delivering the Prayers to Heaven's Tears to Mo Shang, to a certain extent, it also represented Fang Mu's trust and valuation of Mo Shang.

Before the people of the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage arrived, Fang Mu had already distributed all the Prayers to Heaven's Tears.

People like She Wan, Zhang Yue, Shu Liangjun, and others did not know about Fang Mu's actions targeting the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage.

Only Jun Feng was fully aware of Fang Mu's actions regarding the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage, and Jun Feng had anticipated that Fang Mu would grant him the Prayers to Heaven's Tears after obtaining them.

Fang Mu thought not just of himself, but also of Ning Hongshu.

To Jun Feng, bestowing something as precious as the Prayers to Heaven's Tears to his subordinates seemed like an unprovoked reward.

The people under Fang Mu's command had merely fulfilled their duties; they hadn't made any significant contributions.

Fang Mu was very willing to cultivate the people under his command, which presumably was also the intention of Saint Creator Qixing.

Otherwise, Fang Mu would most likely not distribute these resources so casually.

Even Jun Feng, an Order peak-level strongman, felt life had become very promising while serving under such a person!

Shu Liangjun, She Wan, and others felt extraordinary joy in their hearts, as receiving the Prayers to Heaven's Tears allowed their strength to fundamentally improve.

Especially since Fang Mu had also promised to help She Wan forge a highly compatible Ghost Device.

She Wan looked at the Prayers to Heaven's Tears in her hand, her heart filled with a myriad of feelings.

By following Fang Mu, She Wan continually expanded her horizons.

Having been Fang Mu's Guard for half a year, her strength, originally at the rank of a Sequential Seven Silver Void Purple Spider, had already advanced to the level of Sequential Five.

A half-year's improvement of two minor levels was an explosively fast pace by the standards of the Beastmaster world!

Perhaps, after another half-year at Fang Mu's side, her strength would surpass even that of her grandfather!

Before her father became the actual controller of the Lu Dushe clan, She Wan had always been concerned about the struggle between her father and great-uncle.

The struggles within large and influential families were no trifling matter; the losing side could lose everything in an instant.

But now, from She Wan's perspective, those things she used to care about seemed like a joke.

She would soon become the strongest in the Lu Dushe clan!

Once she became the strongest in the Lu Dushe clan, all the clan members would have to act regarding her disposition.

By then, she would become the actual controller of the Lu Dushe clan.

Even if her father lost the competition to her great-uncle, it would still be the same!

In just half a year, She Wan's expanded horizon far surpassed what she had expanded over the previous decade.

In these past few months, Yi Han had simply been conducting transactions with Fang Mu as per their original agreement, without any extra opportunity for Yi Han to communicate more with Fang Mu, let alone thinking about approaching Qixing!

Yi Han, having joined the Contract Garden meetings, finally suppressed the pride in his heart.

Only after joining the Contract Garden did Yi Han realize his insignificance, as all its members were somewhat stronger than him.

After receiving Fang Mu's reward, Yi Han could finally settle down completely.

Of course, the happiest to receive the Prayers to Heaven's Tears had to be Lu Xiaoyin.

Lu Xiaoyin had always been clear about her own shortcomings; in fact, the moment She Wan became Fang Mu's Guard, Lu Xiaoyin deeply understood that she was no longer suitable to stay by Fang Mu's side.

Fang Mu entrusted Lu Xiaoyin to oversee the cooperation with Chang Le Pavilion indeed out of trust for her.

But Lu Xiaoyin did not necessarily see it that way; she was afraid that this would result in her being marginalized by Fang Mu.

Deep down, Lu Xiaoyin lacked that kind of self-confidence.

The Prayers to Heaven's Tears allowed Lu Xiaoyin to know that she still held a very important place in Fang Mu's heart, he hadn't forgotten her!

Once the collaboration with Chang Le Pavilion was thoroughly sorted out by her, she still had a chance to return to Fang Mu's side!

After distributing the allocated Prayers to Heaven's Tears, Fang Mu only had two left in his hands.

Fang Mu didn't feel the slightest regret for having used up so many Prayers to Heaven's Tears.

Because Fang Mu was very clear that after his collaboration with the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage, they would provide him with even more Prayers to Heaven's Tears.

Liu Yi and Liu Er, who served as stewards in the manor, one for internal and one for external affairs, worked in perfect tacit understanding.

In terms of stewardship, Liu Yi and Liu Er's performance was not inferior to Lu Xiaoyin's at all!

Liu Yi and Liu Er were puppets controlled by Liu Xi, and both were completely under the control of Liu Xi's consciousness.

As Liu Xi's consciousness was connected with Fang Mu, Lu Xiaoyin, no matter how attentive in her duties, could never compare with Liu Yi and Liu Er.

Before Lu Ke and the others arrived at the Mountain Manor, Fang Mu and Jun Feng were already waiting in the reception room.

Jun Feng spoke to Fang Mu with great earnestness,

"Little Wood, the Cyan Deer Tribe is born from the Beast Controlling Force, which has always been competing with our Human Forces over resources."

"The Emperor Beast Court has long held deep grudges against the Contract Garden, the relationship between humans and the Sea Clan might have room for negotiation, but it's extremely difficult to mend ties with the Emperor Beast Court."

"Therefore, in the process of interacting with the Cyan Deer Tribe, I suggest we take a dominant approach and not be overly courteous, otherwise they will surely overstep!"

"Our Hall of Nine Poisons once collaborated with the Beast Controlling Force, and even when they were in a weak position, they would devise ways to take advantage of us."

“In a fit of rage, the Hall of Nine Poisons completely cut off collaboration with the Beast Controlling Force.”

“This matter caused great losses to our Hall of Nine Poisons!”

Like Shu Liangjun, Jun Feng had come to see Fang Mu as a junior, and when communicating with Fang Mu, Jun Feng would appropriately offer advice to prevent Fang Mu from being at a disadvantage!

Fang Mu not only didn't resent Jun Feng's advice, but was exceptionally grateful for it.

When heading to the Sea Clan, Jun Feng continually warned Fang Mu, allowing Fang Mu to avoid many detours.

Despite Fang Mu having lived through two lifetimes, together they only amounted to just over forty years.

In terms of experience, Jun Feng's was much greater than Fang Mu's.

Having an elder by his side to give advice frequently allowed Fang Mu to progress faster!

“Thank you for the reminder, Uncle Feng, I will be careful!”

Up until now, Fang Mu could say that he had only collaborated with the Luminous Snake Clan, and the collaboration was still ongoing.

But the whole of the collaboration had been entrusted to Fang Yuan to manage.

Every so often, Fang Yuan would engage in resource exchanges with the Luminous Snake Clan.

Each party held what the other required, the Light Element Potions and Life Elixirs supplied by Fang Yuan to the Luminous Snake Clan greatly increased the number of their newborns.

The resources provided by the Luminous Snake Clan to Fang Yuan made the resources of Jianmu Commerce Association's reserves increasingly substantial!

After the Luminous Snake Clan's population saw a significant increase, they no longer relied on the collaboration with Fang Mu's side as before.

The number of times haggling occurred in the collaboration became more frequent.

The behavior of the Luminous Snake Clan provoked Fang Yuan's dissatisfaction, as the bigger the Jianmu Commerce Association grew, the more resources channels it could tap into.

Fang Yuan certainly didn't want to endure the airs of the Luminous Snake Clan or be manipulated by them in trade.

In helping Fang Mu manage Jianmu Commerce Association, Fang Yuan always understood one thing clearly.

That was, he had been relying on the momentum of a Grandmaster Creator all this time.

And now, this Grandmaster Creator had transformed into a Saint Creator!

It was precisely because he understood whose momentum he was relying on that Fang Yuan was able to develop Jianmu Commerce Association so well!

Chapter 1307: Myriad Emerald Bamboo!

Of course, Fang Yuan also never relied on Fang Mu's influence to be arrogantly overbearing, as Jianmu Commerce Association's reputation within Dragon Rising Federation's various commerce associations was already comparable to those of the established ones.

Jun Feng, seeing that Fang Mu had taken his words to heart, revealed a smile.

Jun Feng and Ning Hongshu had never had children, but because of Fang Mu, Jun Feng no longer worried about longevity.

If Fang Mu's side could help him extend his life, surely it could help extend Ning Hongshu's life as well.

With careful nurturing from himself and Ning Hongshu, Jun Feng did not expect his child to be as remarkable as Fang Mu, being half as good would suffice!

Under the nurture of himself, a Peak Order Practitioner, and Ning Hongshu, a Grandmaster Creator, their child would certainly stand out among peers!

Fang Mu was unaware that Jun Feng's thoughts had shifted to procreation, as Fang Mu was seriously pondering how he should negotiate with the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage.

Having learned his lesson with the Luminous Snake Clan, Fang Mu was determined not to fall into the same issue twice!

After arriving at Jianmu Commerce Association, Lu Ke and Deer Life were escorted by Liu Er to the reception room where Fang Mu was located.

Both exhibited much restraint, not out of fear of Fang Mu, but rather due to their concern for the future of the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage.

If the negotiations failed this time, there might not be another opportunity to discuss in the future.

Led by Liu Er, Lu Ke and Deer Life met Fang Mu. Lu Ke bowed to Fang Mu and then stood aside.

Today's negotiations between Fang Mu and the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage would be mainly conducted by the Clan Leader, Deer Life.

Lu Ke first nodded to Jun Feng, then directly presented a green bamboo stick to Fang Mu.

Upon seeing the bamboo stick, Jun Feng glanced at Deer Life; Myriads Green Pale Bamboo, exclusive to the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage, grew only in their bamboo forests.

The bamboo leaves of Myriads Green Pale Bamboo possessed the ability to break Curses and boost the evolution potential of plant-type beastmasters, and countless human forces and Beast Controlling Forces had sought to obtain it from the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage.

The Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage did not agree to human force requests, nor did they yield to those Beast Controlling Forces.

Only a few tribes with longstanding good relations with the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage were granted Myriads Green Pale Bamboo.

This made Myriads Green Pale Bamboo somewhat symbolic of friendship with the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage.

Fang Mu, unlike Jun Feng, was not fully aware of what Myriads Green Pale Bamboo signified, but through the Eye of Omniscience, he understood its effects.

Due to having contracted the Field-type Magical Beast Eden Fantasy in his exclusive feature [Above the Green Field], Fang Mu had indirectly contracted several plant-type beastmasters.

Realizing that the junior Fang Mu was unaware of its significance, Deer Life explained as he handed over the bamboo,

"This bamboo, born from our Cang Lu clan's bloodline, grows only in our Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage's millennia-old territory, absorbing our ancestors' marrow — it's a token of good fortune for our Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage!"

"Previously, only those Beast Controlling Forces with longstanding good relations could obtain Myriads Green Pale Bamboo from us."

"I think this bamboo adequately represents our Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage's sincerity!"

Upon hearing this, Fang Mu arched an eyebrow and naturally took the Myriads Green Pale Bamboo.

"When you handed over the seventeen Prayers to Heaven's Tears, I already saw your Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage's sincerity."

"But as you also said just now, this Myriads Green Pale Bamboo holds more symbolic significance."

"I think your Cang Lu clan, when cooperating with us, would not hope for us to merely present a symbolically significant item to flaunt our friendship!"

"I believe your Cang Lu clan, like us, prefers more practical tokens!"

If nitpickers heard Fang Mu's words, they might perceive them as a slight toward the Myriads Green Pale Bamboo representing friendship with the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage.

Even Lu Ke harbored similar thoughts.

However, as the Clan Leader of the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage, Deer Life was not only undisturbed by this but was rather rejoiced.

As it turned out, what Deer Life most hoped for was that Fang Mu was pragmatic by nature.

From the beginning, Fang Mu had maintained an absolute high stance and had brought Lu Ke under his command, forcing Lu Ke to fulfill his own objectives.

They had already handed the Prayers to Heaven's Tears to the youth before them, securing seventeen Prayers to Heaven's Tears which sufficed for the core members of a force.

Chapter 1308: Myriad Emerald Bamboo!_2

If Fang Mu were to disregard the collaboration with the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage with a dismissive attitude, it would truly be the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage that suffered the loss.

The Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage was trying to cooperate with humans,, and just the news of this attempt would significantly impact the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage within the Beastmaster world.

"Sir Jianmu, what you said is exactly what I've been thinking!"

"Our Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage sincerely hopes to engage in a meaningful cooperation with the other party, and our only request is that you can strengthen our Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage!"

Fang Mu smiled upon hearing this; Chief Deer Life of the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage was surely a clever one! Fang Mu enjoyed collaborating with such smart individuals.

If Deer Life had started with high-sounding talk about the meaning of cooperation between the two parties, Fang Mu might have already lost interest in dealing with Deer Life!

“Your requests from the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage sound simple,, but what you truly need are high-purity Life Elixirs and Wood Element Potions,, and the purity you require has already reached the level of human Grandmaster Creators.”

“Such high-level resources are hard for any human forces to trade, as these resources are equally needed on the human side.”

Fang Mu’s words dimmed the light in Deer Life’s eyes—Fang Mu’s statement was essentially conveying his reluctance to offer too many Creator resources in the trading process with the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage.

If that was the case,, the transaction between the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage and Fang Mu would be meaningless.

Deer Life’s heart shrank a little; if he couldn’t strengthen the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage and resolve their population issue, then there was no need for the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage to continue cooperating with Fang Mu!

As the hesitation in Deer Life’s heart grew stronger,, Fang Mu suddenly took a different tone.

“Our side has already promised cooperation with Lu Ke of the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage,, and it isn’t a good trait to promise and not deliver!”

“Even if Creator resources are equally important to us humans,, I am willing to provide the corresponding resources to your Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage.”

“But I wonder what kind of return you can bring to us?”

“Whether our cooperation can be achieved depends on the attitude of your Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage!”

Fang Mu was well aware of how desperately the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage wanted to expand their population; his initial moves were actually a way of testing the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage to push them to offer as much as they could.

Fang Mu's strategy was very effective,, as the solemn expression on Deer Life's face clearly showed he was contemplating Fang Mu's words.

He was also estimating what the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage needed to offer to satisfy Fang Mu!

Before coming here, Deer Life had some expectations; now Deer Life directly laid out all his expectations.

"Sir Jianmu, as long as you can help our Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage increase by thirty newborns each year,, our Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage is willing to form a defensive and offensive alliance with Master Qixing."

"In the future, if any force threatens Master Qixing,, our Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage will unhesitatingly come to help!"

"Even if the opposing force is another Beast Controlling Force,, our Cyan Deer Tribe can assist Master Qixing in secret!"

"In terms of resources, our Cyan Deer Tribe can commit to collecting as much Prayers to Heaven's Tears as possible."

"However, as it takes time for the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan to produce these tears,, we hope you can understand the speed at which we can collect the Prayers to Heaven's Tears!"

Having said this, Deer Life paused, revealing his biggest bargaining chip.

"Our Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage has been accumulating supplies for tens of thousands of years,, and we've only been using those that align with the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage."

“The rest of the resources were only partially used to exchange for supplies, and most have been stockpiled by our Cyan Deer Tribe!”

“When forming a defensive and offensive alliance with your side,, you can exchange for the supplies accumulated by our Cyan Deer Tribe at a very low cost!”

Compared to humans, the greatest advantage of the Beast Controlling Forces lies in their accumulation of resources.

The heritage of the Beast Controlling Forces has a much longer history than that of the current human forces,, and Deer Life believed this offer would surely persuade Qixing!

As a junior,, Jianmu truly couldn’t make decisions in the cooperation with the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage; the real decision-making power still belonged to the Saint Creator Qixing.

Chief Deer Life thought that Fang Mu would first inform Master Qixing of his side’s decision after hearing what he had said, and then wait for Master Qixing to respond before negotiating with him.

But unexpectedly, Fang Mu simply shook his head.

“The words you spoke indeed demonstrate your side’s sincerity, but we do not wish to keep the collaboration between our sides merely superficial.”

“I am somewhat disappointed by the ambition of your Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage.”

“What your Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage seeks in the collaboration with us is merely to have thirty more newborns each year. We dislike forces with no ambition!”

“An annual increase of thirty newborns is not enough to rapidly strengthen the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage.”

“I hope your Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage can broaden your horizons, look squarely at your own ambitions, and then come to communicate with me.”

“Hasn’t your Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage ever harbored the idea of controlling the entire Cyan Deer Tribe?”

“Given the increasing number of your Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage members, achieving this doesn’t seem too difficult!”

The first part of Fang Mu’s words puzzled Chief Deer Life, making him think that Fang Mu was dodging the collaboration because he didn’t want to cooperate.

His side had already spelled out their terms so clearly, yet Fang Mu said he was disappointed in the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage!

However, after hearing what Fang Mu said next, Chief Deer Life was suddenly stunned, and his thoughts began to surge.

How could the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage possibly lack ambition? For thousands of years, the four lineages of the Cyan Deer Tribe had been managed by the Prayers to the Cyan Deer Clan.

Firstly, it was because the abilities of the Prayers to the Cyan Deer clan were indeed stronger than the other three lineages of the Cyan Deer Tribe, and secondly, it was also related to the insufficiency of the other three lineages.

If the other three lineages of the Cyan Deer Tribe were strong enough to suppress the Prayers to the Cyan Deer clan, then it would naturally befall upon them to lead the Cyan Deer Tribe.

Especially since the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage had no bonds with Fang Mu's side yet.

To develop the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage to be able to govern the entire Cyan Deer Tribe, the annual increase in members of the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage group must at least reach two hundred or more.

And they would also need to obtain the resources necessary for the growth of these newborn Bamboo Cyan Deer, a consumption that Chief Deer Life found hard to imagine!

Did the young man say this because Master Qixing wanted to support the Cyan Deer Tribe?

If so, it would truly be fortunate for the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage!

If Master Qixing could truly accomplish this step for the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage, the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage could completely let go of all pretenses in front of Fang Mu.

Chief Deer Life said excitedly,

"How could my Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage lack ambition?"

"If your side could help the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage govern the entire Cyan Deer Tribe, my Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage is willing to do anything for your side!"

"My Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage can meet all of your demands without hesitation!"

Fang Mu could feel Chief Deer Life's determination from these words, but mere determination was not enough for cooperation to succeed.

"Chief Deer Life, if our side could help the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage govern the entire Cyan Deer Tribe and thereafter allow your lineage to continually grow and elevate its status within the Beast Controlling Force,"

"How would your Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage show loyalty to me?"

“I don’t want my side to work hard to support your Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage from the ground up, only to end up being betrayed by you!”

“My side has not only cooperated with your Cyan Deer Tribe, but through working with other Beast Controlling Forces, we’ve already learned how unprincipled your Guardian Beast forces can be!”

Chapter 1309: The Transformation of Fool’s Shadow!

Fang Mu’s remarks were extremely forceful, amounting to a full-on bombardment against the entire Beast Controlling Force.

Deer Life heard these words but did not counter Fang Mu, for Deer Life knew that what Fang Mu said was indeed true.

Many members of the Beast Controlling Force had acted despicably in their collaborations with humans, and it wasn’t an exaggeration to say they were discarded after being used up!

This led to fewer and fewer Human Forces willing to work with the Beast Controlling Force, unless both sides could gain substantial short-term benefits from the cooperation.

Having been taken advantage of by the Beast Controlling Force before, Fang Mu’s side inevitably became more cautious.

Fang Mu’s remarks effectively amounted to an acceptance of the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage’s request to help them control the entire Cyan Deer Tribe.

Moreover, they could elevate the status of the Cyan Deer Tribe within the Beast Controlling Force.

Had someone else made such a promise to him, Deer Life would have never believed it.

But these words coming from Fang Mu were as good as a promise from the Saintly Truth Creator to him!

What he needed to do now was to show Fang Mu the Cyan Deer Tribe’s loyalty.

Deer Life thought for a long time but didn't know what kind of promise to make, so he gritted his teeth and said,

"Sir Jianmu, our Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage is full of sincerity, but I don't know what to say to satisfy Master Qixing!"

"As you are Master Qixing's disciple, perhaps you can offer some advice to our Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage!"

"Our two parties have already talked to this extent; I believe you should have felt our Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage's sincerity!"

"Our Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage is willing to pay any price to gain the trust of Master Qixing!"

Upon hearing these words, Fang Mu tapped his fingers lightly on the tabletop a few times.

"Since the newborns of your Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage are born with our help, let's have each newborn helped by us be controlled by our side."

"This way, we would naturally feel more assured and resolute when providing supplies to the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage!"

After Fang Mu finished speaking, Deer Life had no reaction, but Lu Ke's expression turned particularly ugly.

Lu Ke had already been controlled by Fang Mu; his life was in Fang Mu's hands.

After careful attempts, Lu Ke found that he couldn't free himself from Fang Mu's shackles no matter what he tried.

Deer Life was aware of this.

Although Fang Mu did not seek to control the old members of the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage, controlling all their newborns was tantamount to controlling the future of the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage!

Members of the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage had long lifespans, but they couldn't escape the cycle of life.

Under such circumstances, the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage would eventually be completely controlled by the Jianmu Pavilion, and the entire tribe would lose their freedom.

If the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage no longer had their own will, then even if they became stronger, it was strength without a soul.

As it stood, Lu Ke could not defy any of Fang Mu's will.

Lu Ke thought Deer Life would outright reject the proposal, yet instead of rejecting, Deer Life began to ponder over Fang Mu's words.

Previously, the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage had never conducted similar transactions with Human Forces.

For Fang Mu, a transmigrator, this kind of arrangement was nothing out of the ordinary; it was akin to a major conglomerate from his previous life making an angel investment in a company.

As the investor, it was only natural to ensure one's interests by gaining full control over the invested party!

Fang Mu considered himself a decent angel investor and by controlling the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage, he wouldn't make them do too much for him.

Fang Mu had already made his requirements clear; he was doing all this to secure a safety net for his side.

To prevent problems like the ones that had arisen in dealings with the Luminous Snake Clan!

Fang Mu certainly wouldn't provide Deer Life with reassurances; Fang Mu wanted Deer Life to prepare mentally by himself.

After completing this mental preparation, he would then lead the Cyan Deer Tribe to fully submit to him!

As long as the Cyan Deer Tribe was willing to join him wholeheartedly, Fang Mu was willing to offer them an excellent future!

Deer Life was caught in an intense internal struggle, having assumed that Fang Mu cared about the Supplies collected by the Cyan Deer Tribe, only to find that Fang Mu was actually interested in the tribe itself!

Fang Mu's demands made Deer Life feel like a fish on the chopping board.

But upon further consideration, Fang Mu's request was not unreasonable.

Fang Mu wanted to control those newborns who were born with the help of his side's resources.

If one day Fang Mu no longer invested resources into the Cyan Deer Tribe, he would naturally lose the right to control the newborns of the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage.

If the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage truly turned against Jianmu Pavilion, the worst-case scenario would be for them to abandon those newborns who had been nurtured with Fang Mu's resources.

The Beast Controlling Force's structure was largely stable, and in the current schema, not to mention a single Cyan Deer lineage, even the whole Cyan Deer Tribe would struggle to improve their status.

Both the Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage and the Cyan Deer Tribe needed an opportunity to break the status quo.

And this could be the only chance for the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage to change their destiny!

Deer Life seemed gentle in his daily life within the tribe, but he was actually very decisive in his actions.

Deer Life, firm in his determination, said,

“Sir Jianmu, if our Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage agrees to your demands, what kind of promise can you make to our Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage in return?”

Chapter 1310: The Transformation of Fool’s Shadow!_2

Fang Mu spoke with determination and seriousness.

“All the promises I give are verbal, and such promises cannot be counted on.”

“Instead of expecting promises from me, you, the Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage, might as well choose to trust us.”

“Our side’s collaboration with the Cyan Deer Tribe isn’t any less sincere than your Cyan Deer Tribe’s. The resources we are about to give to the Cyan Deer Tribe are genuine.”

Fang Mu did not casually throw out promises, which instead reassured Deer Life.

Indeed, in this matter, our side had no choice but to trust Saint Creator Qixing, a human, since the initiative was entirely in his hands.

Naturally, when Qixing decided to control the Cyan Deer Tribe, it was also a testament to their trust in the Cyan Deer Tribe.

“Good, we, the Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage, agree to your side’s demands, but when will our collaboration take place?”

“We also want to prepare in advance!”

Fang Mu gave Deer Life another calming pill.

“The Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage needs to prepare, but our side has already prepared all the resources.”

“You, the Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage, are to compile a list of the resources you will need and report them to me, and I will provide them. However, there will be someone specifically assigned to oversee the use of these resources.”

“By that time, I hope that your Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage can cooperate with our work and not let any misunderstandings arise in the supervision process!”

Deer Life had already agreed to Fang Mu’s side’s control over the Cyan Deer Tribe, so naturally, he wouldn’t reject such a request.

His side would fully cooperate with Fang Mu to ensure that more resources could be confidently allocated by Fang Mu’s side.

Deer Life genuinely hoped that this beneficial trade with Fang Mu’s side would continue indefinitely.

At this rate, within ten years, the Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage could take charge of the Cyan Deer Tribe!

Maintaining the position of the Cyan Deer Tribe within the Emperor Beast Court for thirty years, even if they couldn’t rank in the top five, they would definitely be stable within the top ten!

“Rest assured, our Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage will fully cooperate!”

“It is inevitable that some situations may lead to misunderstandings between both parties during the collaboration. If your side is dissatisfied with our Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage during the collaboration, please inform us immediately!”

After confirming the collaboration with Fang Mu, Deer Life immediately returned to his tribe with Lu Ke.

As the clan leader, Deer Life had the authority to finalize this cooperation, but the ultimate implementation of this cooperation still had to go through a formality within the Elder Council.

Deer Life was a highly ambitious leader; since he became the clan leader of the Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage, it had become a one-man show.

However, there were still some disobedient old folks within the Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage.

Deer Life planned to clean out these disobedient elders before collaborating with Fang Mu, to ensure the collaboration would proceed seamlessly.

He didn't want some individuals targeting him and affecting this extremely significant cooperation for the Cyan Deer Tribe!

After the members of the Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage left, Jun Feng looked at Fang Mu in amazement.

However, Jun Feng had not expected Fang Mu's negotiation skills to surpass many older powerhouses!

Jun Feng believed that even if he negotiated with the Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage himself, the outcome wouldn't be better than Fang Mu's current negotiation results!

Even if Jun Feng could offer the Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage as many benefits as Fang Mu did, he would likely not dare to make a demand like controlling all the newborns of the Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage.

As long as this cooperation proceeded smoothly, the Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage would effectively become Fang Mu's private power!

Suddenly appearing, Saint Creator Qixing, aside from the human forces, was also plotting against the Beast Controlling Force and the Blood Race.

Jun Feng always felt that Qixing's motives were not simple!

However, Jun Feng did not care about Qixing's purposes and thoughts, because at that time, Jun Feng was also a member under Qixing's command.

Given Jun Feng's personality, even if Fang Mu did not use the Covenant Servant Soul Ant Queen and Infinite Silver Silkworm to control him, Jun Feng would never betray his life-saving benefactor.

Moreover, the kindness Qixing showed him was far more than just helping him restore his lifespan.

In the future, he might become a true God Territory Powerhouse with the help of Qixing!

"Little Wood, if you plan to send someone to supervise the Cyan Deer Tribe on your behalf, I suggest that this person must be powerful and skilled as a Creator!"

"You told me about the Jianmu Commerce Association before, and you sent Zhang Yue there, so the Master Creator originally in the Jianmu Commerce Association lost his significance."

"Why not send this Master Creator to the Cyan Deer Tribe."

"I will arrange for A Shao from the Hall of Nine Poisons to send a few powerhouses to assist this Master Creator when the time comes."

“Do not be deceived by how agreeable the Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage seems now; agreeing and doing are completely different matters!”

“Once our supervision slackens even slightly, the resources intended for the newborns of the Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage will definitely end up in the hands of those old folks of the lineage.”

“Even if those old ones from the Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage skim off a few elixirs, it would be a great loss!”

“This kind of Indicating Elixir will not spoil the original components of the elixirs but will mark those who consume the elixirs with a response that lasts for a long time.”

“I think it is necessary to take such measures!”

“Remember, you are aiming to control the newborns of the Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage, not those old folks in power in the lineage!”

Hearing this, Fang Mu took Jun Feng’s words to heart.

Indeed, Fang Mu did not have many people available for use, having been recruiting for the Infinite Tower recently.

Fang Mu always maintained the principle of valuing quality over quantity in the process of building his forces.

Those included in the Infinite Tower were either unparalleled prodigies like Mo Shang, Master Creators like Ning Hongshu and Zhang Yue, or contemporary powerhouses like Jun Feng.

Indicating Elixirs, which could only be mixed by a Master Creator, had no market among humans, but were extremely necessary in transactions with the Beast Controlling Force!

Since Master Lu Zhong had sworn allegiance to him, Fang Mu had never stinted in providing resources for Master Lu Zhong.

Now it was time for Master Lu Zhong to make his contributions!

Master Lu Zhong had a granddaughter who, due to Yan Wood's recommendation, had recently become Yi Han's assistant.

Yan Wood recommended Master Lu Zhong's granddaughter to Yi Han because she had demonstrated her profound talent as a Creator at a very young age.

With his granddaughter being recommended as an assistant to Yi Han, a Grandmaster Creator, Lu Zhong had no concerns at all.

As for Lu Zhong himself, given the chance, he was also willing to become an assistant to Yi Han and learn from him.

By having Lu Zhong participate in this mission to the territory of the Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage, Fang Mu would provide him with ample benefits.

With the resources invested by Fang Mu, Lu Zhong's strength would increase in a short period, providing him an opportunity.

After arranging this task for Lu Zhong through Fang Yuan, Lu Zhong was very willing to follow Fang Mu's instructions and head to the territory of the Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage.

In the following period, all Fang Mu needed to do was wait for Zhuang Herui to hand over the Spirit Capturing Box and arrange for the delivery of the second batch of Exotic Bodies and the King-level Exotic Body through Lian Dai.

Although Fang Mu's Destiny Beast, Fool's Shadow, had not increased in quality and remained of Legendary Quality,

there were already some subtle changes in Fool's Shadow!
