

Beast Tamer 1411

Chapter 1411: Hopeless Beauty Goddess!

“Is Yan Luo’s opponent sick in the head or what? Why start criticizing Yan Luo as if they are on the same level? They’re clearly not; with a seven or eight-year age difference, standing together and still so shamelessly boasting!”

“Exactly, it’s my first time seeing someone attribute their strength directly to the upper echelon of a certain age division. This Battle Network ID named Yang Shi is just Golden Stage Level Three, not even in the Platinum Tier. Shouldn’t one at least reach the Diamond Rank to show their level?”

“If nobody recognizes you apart from Yan Luo, what’s there to boast about? If you’re so capable, go clash with those in the thirty to forty age division!”

“I used to be a casual fan of Yang Shi from watching his battles, but now I’ve turned into a hater. What on earth was I watching before!”

Yang Shi’s words were purely out of frustration, as young people often act impulsively without considering the consequences.

Now that these words have been spoken, they hit back right away without needing time to ferment.

Yang Shi intended to use the match against Yan Luo to gain popularity, but not by earning a bad reputation.

As Yang Shi deliberately belittles himself, Fang Mu naturally won’t treat Yang Shi politely.

Fang Mu wants to engage in an exhilarating duel, exhausting all of Yan Luo’s hidden cards. Even though Fang Mu didn’t care to waste words on a junior, he still said:

“Oh? Is this the strength of the upper echelon in the twenty to thirty age division? Before the battle, who knows who will be the opponent of whom.”

“You say my ability in the twenty to thirty age group isn’t anything special. Has the younger generation in this age group ever acknowledged your upper-tier strength?”

Fang Mu’s response to Yang Shi wasn’t a sharp retort but rather a very calm tone, as if chatting with a friend, without a hint of annoyance in Fang Mu’s voice.

This contrast made Fang Mu’s demeanor appear a level higher than Yang Shi’s.

Yang Shi was already panicking amidst the audience’s skeptical voices, realizing that he had misspoken.

Fang Mu’s words were like pouring oil onto a raging fire, becoming an excellent accelerant.

Yang Shi immediately had the Force devil cicada use the Skill [Cicada Sound], with the energy in the surrounding environment beginning to converge towards it.

Upon activating [Cicada Sound], the Force devil cicada leaped dozens of meters with a kick, pouncing towards the Fusion Tyrant, clearly intending to deliver a direct killing blow.

Over at Fang Mu’s side, after summoning the Guardian Beast, he didn’t stay idle. The Undead King from the Nether Realm activated the Skill [Land Contamination] and transformed the environment beneath.

The Dead Ground Silkworm reigned supreme on the [Land Contamination], while the Deathland Nightmare covered the land.

The Undead King from the Nether Realm immediately deployed its two Skills and one special trait. Having done all of this, it didn’t stop there and continued to use its special trait [Split Body Expanding Territory] to further expand the coverage of [Land Contamination] by splitting its body.

Fang Mu can be said to have chosen to drain all the energy from the Undead King from the Nether Realm right from the start, solely to create a beneficial tactical environment for other Dead Creatures.

With multiple Guardian Beasts at Fang Mu's disposal, it was the best choice to sacrifice one to enhance the combat abilities of his own units when facing a formidable enemy.

Land Contamination is a paradise for Dead Creatures, a forbidden land for the living. The Nine Coffin Sacrifice Father is fully absorbing the surrounding Dead Qi, prompting the Coffin Spirits inside the Nine Black Coffins to evolve.

The Corpse Fragrant Teaching Mother pounced on the now energy-drained Undead King from the Nether Realm, gnawing directly on its body and using the energy from its body to produce Soul-burning Foster Child.

All of these actions took place within the pervasive nightmare energy. Yang Shi couldn't see any of it, and the spectators also lost their grasp on the battlefield situation almost immediately.

Upon understanding the situation, the Second World officials promptly intervened, allowing spectators to watch this battle between Yan Luo and Yang Shi from a God's-eye view.

So, the audience saw hordes of busy Dead Creatures, these Dead Creatures working together on Land Contamination to build both offensive and defensive structures, showcasing Fang Mu's excellent command of the Guardian Beasts.

While charging, the Force devil cicada lost its battle vision, which Yang Shi didn't pay much attention to.

Brimming with energy, the Force devil cicada didn't fear these Dead Creatures at Diamond Phase Level One.

Initially, the Force devil cicada wasn't targeting the Fusion Tyrant, but sought to feign an attack and instead strike at the Corpse Fragrant Teaching Mother.

Yang Shi deduced the importance of the Corpse Fragrant Teaching Mother in Yan Luo's combat system from the last battle between Yan Luo and Shi Chengfeng.

Eliminating the Corpse Fragrant Teaching Mother pretty much equates to disrupting this coordination.

Even if Soul-burning Foster Child were to split the Soul Flame, resurrecting the Corpse Fragrant Teaching Mother would require a considerable amount of time.

During the Soul-burning Foster Child splitting the Soul Flame process, Yang Shi felt he had ample time to command the Force devil cicada to kill one or two more of Yan Luo's Dead Creatures.

Frankly speaking, Yang Shi never took Fang Mu seriously from the start, their power difference being obvious.

Like with Shi Chengfeng's battle against Yan Luo, Yang Shi could easily dispose of him, not needing to put as much effort as Yan Luo did to take down Shi Chengfeng.

Chapter 1412: Heartless Goddess of Beauty! _2

While the Force Devil Cicada targeted the Fusion Tyrant, the Fusion Tyrant was also targeting the Force Devil Cicada.

Fang Mu, after reviewing the skills and exclusive traits of the Force Devil Cicada, was clear on the devastation those skills and traits could cause.

Limiting the Force Devil Cicada with the Fusion Tyrant was a way to minimize losses.

Fang Mu had already noticed that his current opponent did not take him seriously and was underestimating his strength.

It was clear from the fact that after letting the Undead King from the Nether Realm cast [Death Ground Nightmare], Yang Shi still instructed the Force Devil Cicada to attack.

Recklessly allowing one's Guardian Beast to enter the enemy's domain is a major taboo in Beast Master confrontations, which Yang Shi must be well aware of.

He did so probably because he was overconfident in his own strength, as previously, the Fusion Tyrants were merely used as meat shields.

Fang Mu hadn't specifically prompted the Fusion Tyrant to showcase any particular skills or exclusive traits before, but now he had it deploy the Skill [Flesh Erosion Trap] and the Exclusive Trait [Life Sacrifice Restraint].

Directly enwrapped the Force Devil Cicada into its embrace.

The Fusion Tyrant, modified by Fang Mu with black technology, used spiritual materials generated within its body from various Guardian Beasts to firmly restrain the Force Devil Cicada.

Despite the Force Devil Cicada's struggles, it could not break free from the Fusion Tyrant's restraint for the time being.

After employing the Exclusive Trait [Life Sacrifice Restraint], the soul flame of the Fusion Tyrant linked directly with the Force Devil Cicada.

The moment the Force Devil Cicada tried to break free from the Fusion Tyrant's body, it could only succeed once the soul flame of the Fusion Tyrant was extinguished.

The flesh on the Fusion Tyrant was like dough, the insect limbs of the Force Devil Cicada couldn't find any leverage on the body of the Fusion Tyrant, sinking deeper the more it struggled.

Despite the Fusion Tyrant being several ranks lower than the Force Devil Cicada, its body contained over ten different parts from Sequential Guardian Beasts.

These parts from the Sequential Guardian Beasts are indestructible by the Force Devil Cicada.

The Restrained Heart Maggot Girl moved forward, and successively launched [Heart Touching Whip], [Chaotic Heart Claw], [Heart Sea Torture], and [Curse Finger].

These attacks from the mind, soul, and heart had a significant effect on the Force Devil Cicada.

Yang Shi, realizing the difficult situation the Force Devil Cicada was in, finally started taking it seriously.

When he really engaged these Diamond Rank Level One Dead Creatures, Yang Shi realized how tough these Diamond Rank Level One Dead Beasts could be.

Yang Shi instructed the Force Devil Cicada to use the Skill [Spiky Ground Assault].

The Force Devil Cicada's antennae and forelimbs were stuck in the body of the Fusion Tyrant, and if the Force Devil Cicada were to spit [Adhesive Acid], it could affect itself.

Yang Shi planned for the Force Devil Cicada to use [Spiky Ground Assault] to free its limbs, and then directly deploy the Diamond Level Skill [Force Devil Strangulation] to crush the Undead King from the Nether Realm using earth elements.

In fact, seeing the Guardian Beasts summoned by Yang Shi, Fang Mu did not feel more pressure than when facing Shi Chengfeng.

Because Yang Shi's contracted Guardian Beasts, without exception, were all insect type, and Fang Mu just happened to possess a trump card for controlling insect-type Guardian Beasts, the Death Herald Beauty Butterfly!

Previously, Fang Mu, to ensure the metamorphosis of its bloodline, had kept its rank suppressed at Golden Rank One of Legendary Quality.

The Death Herald Beauty Butterfly had done spectacularly, successfully transforming into the Heartless Beauty Butterfly upon ascending to the Platinum Tier.

Now, the Heartless Beauty Butterfly had been promoted by Fang Mu to the Diamond Rank, and as early as its ascension to Legendary Quality, it had acquired an Exclusive Trait named [Butterfly Domination].

The Exclusive Trait [Butterfly Domination] allowed the Heartless Beauty Butterfly to use its allure to attract other insect creatures, and through the scales on its wings, it could deepen the bond with the insect creatures.

Turning those creatures attracted by the allure of the Heartless Beauty Butterfly into its minions.

This was a power triggered by the Beautiful Goddess Butterfly Bloodline, offering unimaginable control over insect-type Guardian Beasts.

Fang Mu had conducted tests, and the Heartless Beauty Butterfly had a strong influence even on Sequential Rank insect-type Guardian Beasts.

At the moment Fang Mu summoned the Heartless Beauty Butterfly, the outcome of this battle was actually already devoid of suspense.

A butterfly creature, its body shimmering with rich purple and pink hues yet not appearing garish at all, fluttered ethereally over the Death Ground Nightmare.

This beauty was not only appreciated by insect beasts, but any race could genuinely admire such beauty.

The audience in the stands suddenly fell silent upon witnessing the Heartless Beauty Butterfly, deeply shocked by its beauty.

Those major figures watching the duel recognized the bloodline carried by the Heartless Beauty Butterfly. This Yan Luo actually possessed a beast from the dead creatures, harboring the bloodline of the Beautiful Goddess Butterfly!

The Beautiful Goddess Butterfly belongs to a legendary beast bloodline in the Beastmaster world, and according to the records, its legend is not only limited to The Seventh Era but was also a legend in the fifth and sixth epochs.

How was such a beast bred!?

It was becoming evident that Yan Luo could present a butterfly beast that carried the Beautiful Goddess Butterfly bloodline.

Unless the Dragon Rising Federation has other Saint Creators besides Saint Creator Qixing, Yan Luo must be related to Saint Creator Qixing!

Fang Mu was also stunned by the beauty of the Heartless Beauty Butterfly.

Fang Mu did not focus his attention on the Heartless Beauty Butterfly during this period. Although it was not a butterfly creature controlled by Yan Yubanruo through the exclusive trait [Puppeteer Control], the Heartless Beauty Butterfly had always been cultivated by Yan Yubanruo.

Fang Mu did not even know the skills acquired by the Heartless Beauty Butterfly as it advanced from Gold Rank to Diamond Rank.

Fang Mu used the Innate Divine Skill [Eye of Omniscience] of Fool's Shadow to inquire about the Heartless Beauty Butterfly.

[Beast Name]: Heartless Beauty Butterfly

[Beast Species]: Nymphalidae/Beautiful Goddess Butterfly Genus

[Beast Level]: Diamond Level (1/10)

[Beast Element]: Undying/Soul Series

[Beast Potential]: Diamond

[Beast Quality]: Legendary

Skills:

[Death Omen]: Forms a curse with Dead Qi to condemn the living, placing them in a weakened state, enhancing the damage taken, and after successfully cursing, it will autonomously blink to a specified position.

[Flash Butterfly Illusion Mirror]: Creates clones through flashing scales, individual clones have independent action capabilities to employ skills and exclusive traits, the original can swap places with a clone when taking damage, and the clone's death does not harm the original.

[Enchantment of Death]: Unleashes its own allure to bewitch the target, incapacitating the target's combat abilities under the charm while doubling the effects of Death Omen on the bewitched target.

[Beauty Blessing]: Temporarily enhances its own charm at the cost of its own energy, enhancing its control and attraction over other creatures (the more energy consumed, the greater the enhancement of its charm).

[Insect Slave Domination]: Marks controlled insect creatures with a slave symbol, creatures marked will bring energy to the original, and its attacks can spread its charm to affect the target with enslavement effects, helping to enslave more targets.

Exclusive Traits:

[Butterfly Funeral Praise]: Enters the body of a dead creature, causing the Soul Flame of the dead to burn fiercer, enhancing strength while obtaining a curse effect.

[Death's Blessing]: Enters the body of a living being before their life ends, using its own Dead Qi to temporarily sustain the life of the living, during which the living is tainted by Dead Qi and ultimately transformed into an undead life, with the soul unable to be salvaged.

[Butterfly Domination]: Those insect creatures attracted by its beauty are controlled by its mind, deepening the bond between them through the pollen on its wings, turning those creatures into its minions.

Evolutionary Path:

①: Heartless Goddess Butterfly, ②: Death Command Beauty Butterfly, ③: Billion Dried Resentful Butterfly.

Chapter 1413: Yan Luo Ascends to the Summit!

Upon probing, Fang Mu couldn't help but sigh once again at the Heartless Beauty Butterfly's control ability over other insect species.

The Heartless Beauty Butterfly, when it was still an Omen Flash Butterfly, had skills and unique characteristics developed from the bloodline of dead creatures due to its inconspicuous bloodline.

These skills and unique characteristics were all related to Dead Qi, but as the bloodline of the Heartless Beauty Butterfly continuously advanced, the skills and unique characteristics it acquired began to be closely related to its own Beautiful Goddess Butterfly Bloodline.

The Beauty Blessing skill obtained at the Platinum Tier allowed the Heartless Beauty Butterfly to enhance its own charm by consuming internal energy, with the charm increasing more as more energy was used.

This ability gave the Heartless Beauty Butterfly the capability to attract and control insect creatures beyond its own strength.

During the cultivation of the Heartless Beauty Butterfly, Yan Yubanruo almost every few days would request Fang Mu to allow it to control the Heartless Beauty Butterfly through [Golem Paper Control].

However, Fang Mu rejected the request of Yan Yubanruo, who had a reasonable desire for the Heartless Beauty Butterfly.

The Skill [Insect Slave Domination] obtained by the Heartless Beauty Butterfly when it advanced to the Diamond Rank, as the name implies, made other insect creatures directly become slaves to the Heartless Beauty Butterfly.

These insects controlled by the Heartless Beauty Butterfly would not only become weapons against enemies for the Heartless Beauty Butterfly, offering up their energy.

They also served as a medium for the Heartless Beauty Butterfly to control other creatures during the attack.

After being summoned, the Heartless Beauty Butterfly used its exclusive characteristic [Butterfly Domination] on the Force devil cicada, fluttering its wings and sprinkling its scales on the body controlled by the Fusion Tyrant.

The rank of the Force devil cicada was not a whole tier higher than the Heartless Beauty Butterfly; normally, there was no need for the Heartless Beauty Butterfly to use [Beauty Blessing].

However, as this was Fang Mu's first time commanding the Heartless Beauty Butterfly in battle, it consumed half of its internal energy to prove itself by enhancing its charm.

In just a moment, the Force devil cicada stopped struggling.

The Fusion Tyrant was about to take advantage of the situation to launch an attack on the Force devil cicada with those secret weapons inside its body, but its action was halted by Fang Mu.

"Fusion Tyrant, let go of this Force devil cicada. It is now part of our strength!"

The Death Land Mystery Smoke continued to spread, keeping Yang Shi from seeing the situation on Fang Mu's side.

Yet, at the moment when the Heartless Beauty Butterfly took control of the Force devil cicada, Yang Shi felt his contract creature, the Force devil cicada, actually initiate the termination of their contract!

What's going on? His contract creature, the Force devil cicada, actually betrayed him! This plunged Yang Shi into a state of disbelief.

The Force devil cicada was controlled by an unknown method of the opponent, and even if not considering whether the Red Curse Demon Spider could defeat Yan Luo's dead creatures, it was also no match for the Force devil cicada.

The Force devil cicada was a violent attacking unit, while the Red Curse Demon Spider was better at controlling the field and assisting, serving as Yang Shi's secondary C.

The Heartless Beauty Butterfly gracefully landed on the Force devil cicada's head. Under Fang Mu's command, it took control of the Force devil cicada and charged out of the smoke towards Yang Shi's direction.

The Force devil cicada continuously spewed out [Adhesive Acid], attempting to dissolve the webs in its way, lunging towards Yang Shi enveloped in layers of silken traps on the edge of the battlefield.

Yang Shi was accustomed to using the tough spider silk of the Red Curse Demon Spider to protect his fragile Beast Master's body.

This guarding method had prevented Yang Shi from direct attacks by enemy Guardian Beasts in many battles.

But such defensive fortifications often served both as a shield and a prison.

Now, Yang Shi was thoroughly trapped.

Unable to defend effectively, Yang Shi, in his desperation to survive, could only command the Red Curse Demon Spider to fend off against the charging Force devil cicada.

During this process, Yang Shi constantly tried to call out to the Force devil cicada, but realized that it had no response to his call whatsoever.

The very partner who had once been so close was now treating him as an enemy.

This made Yang Shi lose his trust in the Force devil cicada.

Although it was just a Virtual World battle and the Force devil cicada was influenced by the enemy Beast Master's methods, this sense of distrust would carry over into reality after the battle, possibly taking a long time to fade away!

With his calls unanswered, Yang Shi had no choice but to let the Red Curse Demon Spider use [Teleportation Network Stinger], utilizing its eerie Teleport capability to move instantly onto the web and launch an attack on the Force devil cicada.

Yang Shi focused on the Heartless Beauty Butterfly perched atop the Force devil cicada's head, viewing it as the primary target for the Red Curse Demon Spider, sensing that the termination of the contract with the Force devil cicada was guided by this butterfly creature.

If he could kill this butterfly creature, he might have the chance to reawaken the Force devil cicada.

Such functional butterfly creatures often have extremely poor Defense Capability. Once the Skill [Red Curse Strangler] of the Red Curse Demon Spider took effect, and it managed to mark three Red Curse marks on its body putting it into a Vulnerable State, the next attack would be enough to eliminate this butterfly creature.

Little did the Red Curse Demon Spider know, while considering the Heartless Beauty Butterfly as its target, it itself was also a target for the Heartless Beauty Butterfly.

Each saw the other as prey and hunter alike, each aiming to catch the other in a single sweep.

Chapter 1414: Yan Luo at the Summit! _2

Red Curse Demon Spider took advantage of the Force Devil Cicada being bound by several layers of spider webs and was about to spray adhesive acid to break free when it Teleported directly to the side of the web.

Facing the Heartless Beauty Butterfly perched above the Force Devil Cicada, it delivered a stinging strike, and its abdomen suddenly ejected a [Penetrating Red Thread] with piercing properties.

The Force Devil Cicada, as if anticipating this, activated the [Power Demon Crystal Wing] Skill and used its crystal wings to staunchly protect the Heartless Beauty Butterfly.

The Heartless Beauty Butterfly then enhanced its own charm through Beauty Blessing and used its unique [Butterfly Domination] trait, coupled with [Insect Slave Domination], to make the Force Devil Cicada contribute a considerable amount of energy to it.

The previous scene of the Heartless Beauty Butterfly controlling the Force Devil Cicada replayed.

Just as the Force Devil Cicada was easily controlled by the Heartless Beauty Butterfly, so too was the Red Curse Demon Spider controlled by it.

The Red Curse Demon Spider broke its contract with Yang Shi, who was utterly abandoned by his two Guardian Beasts, transforming him thoroughly into a lone man.

The Red Curse Demon Spider then turned to attack Yang Shi, who was already within the defensive fortifications made of spider silk by the Red Curse Demon Spider.

The Red Curse Demon Spider Teleported inside the web but did not immediately kill Yang Shi; Fang Mu gestured, and the Undead Domain servants immediately removed the Death Land Mystery Smoke.

Fang Mu's seven Dead Creatures neatly lined up on both sides, with Fang Mu standing amongst them, smiling at Yang Shi.

"You claimed your strength ranks among the upper echelon from ages twenty to thirty, but it seems somewhat overestimated!"

"You should still have other tricks up your sleeve, why not use all your cards."

Fang Mu's actions were not to mock Yang Shi but because Fang Mu was acutely aware that to gain popularity in such a public exhibition match, one must generate certain topics of interest.

Yang Shi had just mocked him, and Fang Mu had to respond.

Fang Mu did not want to be perceived as a person without personality and temper.

Yang Shi could feel the sharpness of the Red Curse Demon Spider's spear at his neck.

Indeed, Yang Shi had other cards; his Destiny Guardian Beast and Ghost System Beast had not yet been deployed.

Yang Shi's Destiny Guardian Beast was incredibly strong, and while his Ghost System Beast was not offensive, it also possessed formidable support and control abilities.

However, Yang Shi's primary combatants had been the Force Devil Cicada and the Red Curse Demon Spider, and the Ghost System Beast required joint deployment with them.

The Force Devil Cicada and Red Curse Demon Spider, easily controlled by the Butterfly Beastmaster and severed from his control, suggested that summoning his Destiny Guardian Beast would likely end the same way.

Yang Shi lost the battle thoroughly but was not convinced.

"If your Butterfly Beastmaster did not coincidentally have control over the Insect Beast, you would not be my match at all!"

Fang Mu looked at Yang Shi in surprise, unsure whether Yang Shi was blinded by anger or genuinely foolish.

The victor is king, and in many situations, battle outcomes are instantaneous; winning means winning, and losing means losing.

Even if one felt unconvinced, such excuses should be comforted privately rather than publicly, especially in front of so many spectators.

This kind of excuse-making after a defeat is very detrimental to one's public image.

Yang Shi's argument drew the disdain of many spectators present, particularly those within the twenty to thirty age range.

Many of these spectators, not knowing Yang Shi and already dissatisfied by his self-proclaimed upper-tier strength in that age range, found Yang Shi's excuses after boasting and losing both embarrassing and unreasonable. Does not the Butterfly Beastmaster also belong to Yama's capabilities without Yama's summoning?

Fang Mu spoke smoothly, maintaining the same tone as before.

"That's not necessarily true; even if I hadn't summoned it, you might not have beaten me."

"Since you're not planning to summon any more Guardian Beasts, then I'll just advance to the Hall Stage!"

"Once I advance to the Hall Stage, perhaps we'll have another chance to match up."

With that, Fang Mu had the Heartless Beauty Butterfly command the Red Curse Demon Spider to deliver a single stinging strike that finished off Yang Shi.

Yang Shi, along with the Red Curse Demon Spider and Force Devil Cicada, vanished from the Arena.

Fang Mu waved to the audience all around and took his leave from the Battle Hall without further delay.

Winning three consecutive matches in the promotion competition for the Hall Stage was enough to be talked about for a long time and became the biggest news among all age groups in the Second World, which greatly displeased Duan Tu.

Duan Tu was the one who most opposed the idea of Yama being promoted to the Hall Stage on his first try, let alone advancing by consecutive wins.

Yama truly was eerie, even possessing a Guardian Beast with the Beautiful Goddess Butterfly Bloodline!

Such a Butterfly Beast was a lethal weapon specifically against Adoring Butterfly Fairy Valley!

Duan Tu thought Yang Shi could have held off Yama, but it turned out that Yang Shi was no match for Yama either.

However, Yama defeating Yang Shi and advancing was not without its benefits; at least now no one could accuse his arrangements of being rigged.

Now that Yama had reached the Hall Stage, no matter how reluctant Duan Tu was, the glory due to Yama could not be diminished at all.

Eternal Mother Yongle was already informed about Yama summoning a Guardian Beast with the Beautiful Goddess Butterfly Bloodline during the fight, and she had concluded that Yama was most likely Jianmu, a disciple of Qixing.

As a subordinate of Eternal Mother Yongle, Duan Tu knew she was keen on fostering a good relationship with Qixing.

He could not afford to drag his feet on something that could impede Eternal Mother Yongle.

After the promotion matches, Fang Mu did not bother with anything else and directly left the Second World.

Fang Mu had been dueling for a whole day; the three matches of the promotion competition left him extremely exhausted, his head even felt somewhat swollen.

Tomorrow Fang Mu had important matters to attend to; the Clan Leader of the Bamboo Green Pale Deer clan had responded to Fang Mu saying that the High Priest of the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan wanted a meeting to discuss potential cooperation with Fang Mu.

Having obtained a significant amount of Prayers to Heaven's Tears, Fang Mu was actually not very concerned about cooperating with the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan.

But cooperation with the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan was not just about resource acquisition; it also held a critical position within the Beast Controlling Force.

Fang Mu then set his sights on exploring and conquering the Dimensional World.

The Beast Controlling Force of this world, like the Sea Clan, could also be converted into an aid for Fang Mu.

This made Fang Mu place great importance on the upcoming meeting with the leader of the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan.

Fang Mu left the Second World, Took a Bath, and went to sleep, but the discussions and buzz about Yama in the Second World were exploding feverishly.

Hu Tao asked the busy Liu Tiantian.

"Sister Tiantian, there's so much going on here, can you few really handle it?"

"If you're feeling pressured, I can summon some more people to assist you!"

Hu Tao and Liu Tiantian were indeed somewhat privately acquainted, but when it came to matters concerning Fang Mu, Hu Tao was never sloppy.

Currently, the discussions about Fang Mu Yama's identity were erupting, and proper handling at this moment could maximize the attention Fang Mu received.

If Liu Tiantian and her team couldn't cope, it would reduce the attention Fang Mu received.

Hearing this, Liu Tiantian quickly said,

"Little Peach, if it were just me, I definitely couldn't handle it, but now that I have help, I can manage the upcoming situation."

"Don't worry, I wouldn't take it all on myself if I couldn't handle it."

"I can distinguish between pros and cons, and since you and Sir Jianmu value me so much, I will definitely take responsibility!"

"This is also a good chance for you to see what our team is capable of!"

Hearing Liu Tiantian's assurance, Hu Tao was relieved, as Fang Mu's fan group had already surpassed eight-digit numbers, ranking in the top ten among under twenty year olds.

Moreover, the fan group's numbers were still growing explosively, and Hu Tao couldn't help but marvel at the speed at which Fang Mu was gaining popularity.

Originally, Fang Mu obtained popularity on the Battle Network just as rapidly.

The way Fang Mu gained popularity was something no one else could duplicate, for replicating Fang Mu's growth entailed having the capability to dominate among peers and even those older than oneself!

Chapter 1415: Demigod Qi Yue!

Liu Tiantian and her several assistants were busy all night, and they perfectly resolved all situations related to the identity of Fang Mu Yama in the Second World.

The next morning, after learning about the situation, Hu Tao informed Fang Mu about it over breakfast.

Fang Mu responded with a smile.

“Sweet Sister and her team must have had a hard time last night. Ah Tao, how about giving each of them two hundred thousand World Coins when you log into the Second World?”

“Also, ask Sweet Sister if they can also look after Jiang Tuo’s and your agent responsibilities in the Second World.”

“If they can, it would be much more convenient for us three to have our identities in the Second World managed by one team.”

Seeing Fang Mu caring for both herself and Jiang Tuo, Hu Tao replied with a smile.

“Ah Mu, I asked Sweet Sister about this yesterday, and she said they can handle it.”

“However, they’ll need to recruit some more people later to help with the management.”

“In terms of hiring staff, Sweet Sister seems to want the autonomy to select and make decisions.”

Last night, Hu Tao had a long chat with Liu Tiantian and she was very candid about her thoughts.

Whether as a dedicated reporter or a personal agent, Liu Tiantian has her own way of doing things.

Liu Tiantian feared that Fang Mu would carelessly assign her several people who might be difficult to manage, and if any issues arose, she would likely be blamed.

After much thought and the possibility of being reutilized by Fang Mu, Liu Tiantian firmly put forward her request.

Fang Mu, understanding Liu Tiantian’s intent from her request, was willing to grant Liu Tiantian this basic demand as he had chosen her and she had proven her capability the night before.

Speaking for himself, if Fang Mu was in a leadership position, he would definitely want to have the power to make his own decisions rather than being a puppet without real authority.

“Ah Tao, if Sweet Sister says she can do it, let’s entrust all our affairs in the battle zones of the Second World to her!”

“I’ve got something to attend to for the next few days. Now that you’ve become a Two-Ray Star Beast Controller, you can spend more time in the Second World to strengthen your combat skills.”

Fang Mu did not set the meeting with the High Priest of the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan in his Half Mountain Manor in JA City but chose Lu City instead.

Calculating the time, Lu Ke, along with the High Priest, should be arriving in Lu City this afternoon, so Fang Mu needed to arrive early to prepare.

Since She Wan had been away from the Lu Dushe clan for a while, it was a good opportunity for her to visit home while Fang Mu was traveling to Lu City.

Upon arriving at his residence in Lu City, Fang Mu found that the Qingyang and Tianshan Snow, two famous seasonal plants he had planted in the Lu City residence, had already covered the high walls.

Lu City, being close to the sea, is warm and humid, creating an ideal environment for the growth of plant-type beastmasters’ Guardian Beasts.

Uncle Feng, walking beside Fang Mu, jokingly said to him, looking at the two plants.

“Little Wood, these two plants must be at least Middle Grade Auspicious level. Your residence doesn’t even have a guard, and these famous plants have already climbed over the walls, aren’t you afraid someone might steal them?”

Fang Mu replied earnestly.

“Uncle Feng, you may not be aware, but in our Dragon Rising Federation, the security is excellent, especially in places like Lu City, where such incidents you mentioned are almost nonexistent.”

“If it weren’t for the sudden openings of Dimensional Rifts causing chaos, the crime rate in both large and small cities within the Dragon Rising Federation is approaching zero.”

Fang Mu took pride in his identity as a person from the Dragon Rising Federation as he said this.

Fang Mu, as a beneficiary of the Dragon Rising Federation’s excellent security, did not experience much hardship in his life as an ordinary person.

The Dragon Rising Federation’s ranking among the Ten-thousand Nations Federation has been rising for a reason over the years.

Jun Feng showed a surprised expression upon hearing this.

The vast power of the Hall of Nine Poisons has several federations under its control and has been supporting these federations.

However, the crime rates within these federations during their development remained high, causing many people to lose their lives and properties.

The Hall of Nine Poisons sought solutions, but most were only effective short-term and not fundamentally sound; they paled in comparison to Fang Mu's description of the Dragon Rising Federation.

If that's the case, with the Saint Creator Qixing present, the development of the Dragon Rising Federation would surely continue to thrive.

Fang Mu finished speaking to Jun Feng and then turned to She Wan.

"Sister Wan, with Uncle Feng here with me, you should take the opportunity to visit your family for a few days since you haven't been home in a long time!"

Indeed, She Wan had not been home for a while. During this visit to the clan, she planned to bring back some resources to assist her father, She Ruan, in increasing his strength.

That way, her father could more fully embody his role as the Clan Leader of the She Family in Lu City.

"Young Master, then I'll go back to the family for a few days. I should return before tomorrow night."

"If you plan to leave before tomorrow night, just let me know!"

Not long after She Wan left, Fang Mu got a message from Lu Ke.

After receiving the message, Fang Mu informed Lu Ke of his location, and soon Lu Ke arrived at Fang Mu's residence with an old lady.

Chapter 1416: Demigod Qi Yue!_2

This old woman had silver hair tied into a braid that hung down to her feet, her face filled with wrinkles.

This is a manifestation of life at its extreme old age.

Fang Mu saw that the old woman's eyes shone with a bright silver-blue color, as if one was gazing up at the sky.

Guardian Beasts under normal circumstances are completely unable to transform into human form, even if a Guardian Beast's strength surpasses the Divine Realm level, they still couldn't achieve such a transformation.

Up to now, the only human-shaped Guardian Beasts Fang Mu had encountered were this old woman, Lian Dai, and Longze.

Lian Dai could exist in human form because she possesses the Mermaid Bloodline, and Longze could because his race is the Illusory Dragon Tribe.

The Illusory Dragon Tribe itself possesses the ability to magically transform their bodies into human form.

According to Fang Mu's understanding, the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan's bloodline doesn't support transformation into human form, so the fact that the High Priest of the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan could exist in human form must be due to some sort of anomaly.

Even before Lu Ke could introduce her, this old woman spoke to Fang Mu with a voice that was aged yet kind.

“Sir Jianmu, I’ve long admired your reputation. I am Qi Yue, the High Priest of the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan. I hope you can convey my regards to your master.”

While High Priest Qi Yue was speaking, Fang Mu could distinctively feel the sense of decay emanating from her.

This sense of decay could even be described as having turned into Dead Qi.

Logically speaking, the lifespan of the High Priest of the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan should have already reached its end. It’s unknown by what means Qi Yue managed to forcibly sustain her own life, preventing herself from dying.

This method of sustaining her own lifespan must have come at a great cost, the secrets held by the High Priest of the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan must be extraordinary!

The moment he saw the High Priest of the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan, Jun Feng’s body tensed up.

Jun Feng could feel that the strength of the High Priest of the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan was also at the Peak of Order, yet the High Priest had awakened the Xuan Body, making her somewhat stronger than himself.

Jun Feng wasn’t sure if he could ensure Fang Mu’s safety against the High Priest of the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan.

Although he himself was also a God-Realm Expert, Jun Feng communicated with Fang Mu through the soul, something that the High Priest of the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan would not know about.

Jun Feng explained the situation to Fang Mu.

Fang Mu was somewhat surprised; the strength of the High Priest of the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan was incredibly formidable!

By comparison, the strength of the High Priest was much greater than that of the leader of the Bamboo Green Pale Deer clan.

With an unchanged expression, Fang Mu spoke to the High Priest of the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan.

“Miss Qi Yue, I am truly the one who has long admired your great reputation. I will pass on your greetings to my master!”

Fang Mu remained so composed in the face of such a High Priest, a Nearly Divine Realm expert, because he held his own strong assurances.

The unique trait of Blood of Abundance, [Ash-Dyed End], had always been used by Fang Mu to continuously refine Blood Aged Wine and Contracting Blood with his own blood.

Unless it's someone constantly facing death, under the judge of [Ash-Dyed End] they would be immediately executed.

Fang Mu has been consistently using Flower Spirits from Exhausted Beyond Blood to curse himself, accelerating his blood production.

Every day, Fang Mu had to consume several Life Crystals of 100% purity to restore his Life Energy.

Fang Mu had been doing this for nearly four months now, every blood donation he made contained enough blood to kill an adult two to three times.

The stakes Fang Mu placed on [Ash-Dyed End] had already reached a terrifying level.

This gave Fang Mu great confidence when facing any formidable foes.

Qi Yue, being a well-treated High Priest of the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan which is not adept at fighting, likely never suffered any severe injuries.

Lu Ke did not expect Qi Yue to speak first; now that Qi Yue had already introduced herself, Lu Ke found no need to introduce her and awkwardly stood aside, unsure of what to say next.

“Sir Jianmu, won’t you invite me in to sit for a bit? I think there’s really no need for us to be strangers, perhaps in the future we could find opportunities to cooperate!”

Fang Mu had encountered many important figures and spoke with them countless times.

Fang Mu could feel that Qi Yue was deliberately trying to control the pace of the conversation. Qi Yue was indeed attempting to take charge.

Fang Mu had no intention of complying with Qi Yue’s wishes, as Fang Mu intended to control the conversation for a while.

In terms of cooperation with the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan, Fang Mu must take absolute control. This was Fang Mu’s bottom line.

If Qi Yue’s demands could not be met, Fang Mu wouldn’t mind rejecting cooperation with the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan outright.

Fang Mu only needed to continue cooperating with the Bamboo Green Pale Deer clan afterwards.

“This villa has not been cleaned for a long time, and now is the best season in Lu City, with the roses in the yard in full bloom. Let’s talk in the yard if you have matters to discuss!”

“With Miss Qi Yue and Uncle Feng’s strength, outsiders can’t eavesdrop on our conversation.”

After saying this, Fang Mu walked outside, changing the location of the conversation and regaining the initiative.

Fang Mu's action not only aimed to take initiative in this cooperation but also to show his stance to Qi Yue.

Qi Yue's eyes flashed subtly as she watched Fang Mu, and she did not attempt to take control again.

Qi Yue wanted to take the lead in order to dominate the conversation and cooperation with Fang Mu, largely to secure benefits for the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan.

Qi Yue could feel that after saying such words, Fang Mu displayed an obvious aversion, and Qi Yue did not want to fall out with Fang Mu over the matter of control, which would prevent further discussions.

Lu Ke, the clan leader of the Bamboo Green Pale Deer clan, clearly communicated the situation to Qi Yue and indicated that Fang Mu had access to a large number of high-level Creators.

These high-level Creators could help the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan strengthen their tribe.

If it weren't for this, given Qi Yue's current physical condition, she would not have made the trip personally.

Following Fang Mu to the rose wall, Qi Yue didn't initiate the conversation this time, but waited for Fang Mu to speak first.

Qi Yue had already given up on seizing control.

Sensing the change in Qi Yue's attitude, Fang Mu smiled and spoke.

"Miss Qi Yue, before we discuss the cooperation with the Pray to Tune Cang Lu clan, I'd like to engage in a private trade with you first."

Having said that, Fang Mu paused and continued.

“It’s somewhat inaccurate to call it a private trade. Rather, it is more like I am helping you!”

Hearing this, Qi Yue showed a surprised expression.

“Oh? Helping me? I really don’t know what help I’m supposed to need!”

“Could it be that you can help my strength advance further, allowing me to break through to the Divine Realm!?”

Qi Yue holds no favor towards humans who have consistently coveted the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan.

Previously, there were always humans hunting the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan. If it weren’t for the protection from the Emperor Beast Court, the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan might have already been driven to extinction by humans!

Qi Yue did not believe that the human Saint Creator would genuinely help a powerhouse from the Beast Controlling Force break through.

From Qi Yue’s words, Fang Mu could sense her hostility towards humans, as he knew from talking with the Bamboo Green Pale Deer clan’s leader.

“Helping your strength evolve into the Divine Realm, given our current relationship, is not yet possible.”

“But I can try to help you lift the burden of your life reaching its end!”

The first part of Fang Mu’s statement did not surprise Qi Yue; in fact, she found Fang Mu somewhat candid.

But the latter part of Fang Mu’s statement made Qi Yue’s breathing halt abruptly, and she asked with some disbelief.

“What, you can help relieve me of my lifespan troubles, granting me more lifespans!?”

“Are you, as part of the human forces, really willing to do that!?”

Chapter 1417: Trading with the Demigod!

Qi Yue truly felt from the bottom of her heart that the relationship between humans and Guardian Beasts was irreconcilable. Human Beast Masters would contract with Guardian Beasts, and those Contract Beasts would be treated as partners by their human Beast Masters.

However, human Beast Masters were only responsible for the Contract Beasts they had tamed.

At the same time, they would hunt and kill other Guardian Beasts in large numbers, using the resources produced by other Guardian Beasts to cultivate their own Contract Beasts.

In the eyes of the free Guardian Beasts, being contracted by human Beast Masters was in itself a kind of bondage, for not every Beast Master had abundant resources at their disposal to enhance the strength of their Contract Beasts.

Humans regarded the Spiritual Materials produced by Guardian Beasts as wealth and resources. Those Guardian Beasts that did not gather in tribal units could easily have their offspring stolen by human adventurers once they were born in the wild.

Qi Yue did not only consider things from the perspective of the Guardian Beasts. Being capable of taking human form in order to understand humans better, she had lived for over two hundred years in the Human World in the guise of a Beast Master.

Some types of Guardian Beasts took attacking human cities as a form of hunting, launching assaults on human cities near forests or wastelands.

This resulted in deeply rooted subconscious hatred between humans and the Beast Controlling Force.

As a Peak Order Practitioner in the Beast Controlling Force, she was part of its upper echelon. If Qixing had the ability to help her extend her lifespan, her chances of stepping into Gods' Domain would undoubtedly greatly increase.

How could humans possibly wish for the Beast Controlling Force to gain such a powerful being!?

Indeed, human Creators would sometimes choose to cooperate with the Beast Controlling Force, but in such partnerships, the Beast Controlling Force did not gain much long-term benefit.

Instead, it is the human Creators who gained significantly from their cooperation with the Beast Controlling Force.

Because Qi Yue understood the relationship between Guardian Beasts and humans, she reacted with such surprise.

Fang Mu reaffirmed to Qi Yue with certainty.

"You should know our respective goals in coming to see me this time."

"Our Infinite Tower has now deepened our cooperation with the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage, and resources have already been invested into them."

"Such cooperation, once started, will bring our two sides very close together, and ensuring more life for you also means securing the stability of the Qi Tian Cang Lu clan."

"However, your current situation is quite special, Miss Qi Yue. From what I see, your lifespan should have already been exhausted."

"How have you managed to cling to life, causing such an abundance of Dead Qi to accumulate in your soul?"

Not only did Fang Mu reaffirm his position to Qi Yue, but he also directly pointed out her current situation.

By doing so, Fang Mu wanted to tell Qi Yue to be more forthright and not to come into the conversation with too many prejudices against humans.

By revealing that he had a way to extend life, Fang Mu was showing his hand.

Fang Mu could call forth Lian Dai, a true God Territory Powerhouse, at any time through his Dao Protector's contract.

Not only had Lian Dai enhanced her Bloodline through Spiritual Elixirs, but she also purified her body of impurities using Nuwa Blood, greatly increasing her power.

It seems that with Lian Dai's current strength, she could control or even kill Qi Yue.

Should Qi Yue choose not to cooperate with Fang Mu, he would do so without hesitation.

With the death of Qi Yue, the High Priest of the Qi Tian Cang Lu clan, the clan would be headless.

The Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage, the most combat-skilled among the four lineages of the Cang Lu clan, could quickly take control of the clan's situation with the infusion of Fang Mu's resources.

By then, Fang Mu would still achieve his goal of controlling the Cang Lu clan, though the process might be more complicated.

Fang Mu truly hoped to cooperate with Qi Yue. This way, he would effectively gain a voice with considerable influence within the Beast Controlling Force.

Qi Yue's voice carried much more weight than that of Zhuo An.

Hearing Fang Mu's words, a gleam of light flickered in Qi Yue's eyes, clearly perceiving the implications in his words.

Fang Mu's statements profoundly shocked Qi Yue, who had never taken this younger generation seriously.

In Qi Yue's eyes, Fang Mu represented Qixing.

When Qi Yue first began communicating with Fang Mu, she always wanted to dominate the conversation for two reasons: first, to guide Fang Mu's words and thereby gain a lot of information from him.

The one who captures the voice in the conversation could guide the speech of the other.

Secondly, Qi Yue thought that she had been snubbed, expecting to personally meet with Qixing itself, feeling slighted.

Now, through communication with Fang Mu, Qi Yue was somewhat surprised by Qixing's vision.

If Qixing could truly help her restore her lifespan, it would equate to securing the prosperity of the Qi Tian Cang Lu clan, which would be an even greater benefit than strengthening the clan itself!

Ever since Qi Yue became the High Priest of the Qi Tian Cang Lu clan, she had begun to nurture younger members capable of inheriting her mantle.

Fearing that taking on too many disciples would lead to vicious internal competition, Qi Yue chose only one to cultivate.

However, the disciple she had carefully nurtured died while exploring the Ancient Battlefield a hundred and fifty years ago.

Chapter 1418: Trading with the Demigod!_2

The Prayers to the Cyan Deer Clan indeed had other powerful individuals besides myself, but like me, they are all old-timers.

The Prayers to the Cyan Deer Clan is currently in a transitional phase where the old and new generations fail to connect, which is exactly why Miss Qi Yue endures the pain of her soul being eroded by Dead Qi every day, yet she still insists on living.

Fang Mu treated me with such sincerity and kindness, and Miss Qi Yue also became candid in her speech.

“My lifespan should have been exhausted six years ago, at which point I should have become a pile of dry bones.”

“I am indeed prolonging my life through special means. Contract Garden once launched a list of precious resources, where the heartwood of the Endless Wood ranked third among treasures of the Wood property.”

“Initially, a Federation with two Grandmaster Creators prepared to act against the Endless Wood to take its heartwood.”

“The Endless Wood was planted within the territory of the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan, and our Cyan Deer Tribe managed to protect the heartwood of the Endless Wood, but the Endless Wood itself was deprived of its vitality.”

“My life is hanging by a thread bound to the heartwood of the Endless Wood, but it won’t last for more than a few years.”

Fang Mu was aware of the list of spiritual treasures released by Contract Garden, as each of the famous materials listed could truly be described as a treasure.

Humans and the Emperor Beast Court had signed an agreement, reducing conflicts between the two sides.

The incident Miss Qi Yue mentioned must have taken place before the agreement was signed.

If the heartwood of the Endless Wood could indeed sustain the life of someone whose lifespan is coming to an end.

The fact that it could only extend Miss Qi Yue's life by a few years has a lot to do with her strength.

For a Sequential Rank creature, the heartwood of the Endless Wood could even prolong life by hundreds of years.

With such candid disclosure from Miss Qi Yue, Fang Mu realized that she understood his intentions.

Fang Mu spoke very seriously.

"Miss Qi Yue, are you aware of the blow that would be dealt to the Prayers to the Cyan Deer Clan should your lifespan come to an end? The few years of life you have will hardly allow you to accomplish much."

"Take our humans, for example; those noble families that have carried on for tens of thousands of years would see their families fall into decline with the death of their strongest members."

"Do you, Miss Qi Yue, have any plans in place for the future of the Prayers to the Cyan Deer Clan?"

Fang Mu asked about the difficulties faced by the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan and the problems that troubled Miss Qi Yue the most.

With a desolate expression, Miss Qi Yue said.

"Of course, plans must be made, but even my plans may not be able to change the dilemma faced by the Cyan Deer Tribe."

Even Miss Qi Yue, a powerhouse at the Peak of Order, has deeply realized that human effort has its limits.

In the few remaining years of her life, she truly cannot cultivate someone within the Prayers to the Cyan Deer Clan to take over.

Miss Qi Yue had already made up her mind while revealing the situation of the Prayers to the Cyan Deer Clan to Fang Mu.

That is, if Fang Mu deceives her and cannot restore her lifespan, she would never allow the Prayers to the Cyan Deer Clan to cooperate with him.

If they continue with such cooperation, the Prayers to the Cyan Deer Clan would definitely become puppets controlled by Qixing after her death.

As for threatening or taking revenge on Fang Mu, Miss Qi Yue did not dare to entertain such thoughts.

Fang Mu was merely a spokesperson for Qixing, and threatening him was pointless.

If any problems arose during Fang Mu's interactions with her, the wrath of Qixing would certainly fall upon the Prayers to the Cyan Deer Clan.

The Bamboo Green Pale Deer lineage had gained great benefits from cooperating with Qixing, and now they were highly dependent on Qixing.

The other three lineages of the Cyan Deer Tribe were constantly suppressed by the Prayers to the Cyan Deer Clan, and internal strife would most likely arise first within the Cyan Deer Tribe after her death.

Jun Feng was someone Fang Mu could trust, and Lu Ke had already been controlled by Fang Mu.

With no outsiders present, Fang Mu spoke directly to Miss Qi Yue.

“The Dead Qi that has accumulated in your soul over these years has already eroded your spirit. Only you can find a way to expel the Dead Qi from your soul, but my master can restore a full thousand years of your lifespan, allowing you to develop the Prayers to the Cyan Deer Clan for another nine hundred years or so.”

“You are well aware of how precious a thousand years of lifespan is, Miss Qi Yue. In this world, there are no benefits without cost.”

Fang Mu initially thought of interacting with Qi Yue in the same way he did with Lian Dai, ultimately turning Qi Yue into a role similar to his own Dao Protector.

But Fang Mu quickly abandoned the idea.

Qi Yue’s hostility towards humans also targeted himself, which meant that Fang Mu could not appeal to personal feelings with Qi Yue; they could only discuss transactions.

Therefore, Fang Mu’s attitude towards Qi Yue was now completely that of discussing a trade.

Fang Mu’s words shocked Qi Yue so much that her pupils dilated slightly.

A thousand years of longevity! When Qi Yue heard Fang Mu speak, she almost thought she had heard it wrong.

Qi Yue scrutinized Fang Mu, staring at him for a long time without seeing any hint of mockery in Fang Mu’s eyes.

Even though Qixing is a Saint Creator, Qi Yue still had her doubts about the truthfulness of Fang Mu’s words.

If she really could gain a thousand-year lifespan, allowing her to develop the Qi Tian Pale Deer Clan for over nine hundred more years.

Then the successor of the Qi Tian Pale Deer Clan would certainly have been nurtured!

In those thousand years, she would also have the opportunity to break through again and become a genuine God Territory Powerhouse.

By then, the lifespan she would gain would be far more than a thousand years!?

Jun Feng's lifespan had been increased by Fang Mu; at the time, Fang Mu had extended Jun Feng's lifespan by a hundred years.

After Fang Mu granted Jun Feng a hundred more years, he mentioned the possibility of adding over a thousand years to one's lifespan.

Now that Jun Feng was certain Qixing indeed had a way to add a thousand years to his lifespan, as a member of Qixing's force, Qixing would most likely replenish his life when it ran out.

By then, his lifespan could last a thousand years.

Jun Feng was very excited inside, among the four people present, only one person had complicated thoughts because of Fang Mu's words, and that person was Lu Ke!

The Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage and the Qi Tian Pale Deer Clan were in competition, especially under the situation where both had pledged allegiance to Qixing.

If Qixing were to restore a thousand years of lifespan to Qi Yue, the High Priest of the Qi Tian Pale Deer Clan, the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage would have no chance of coming to the forefront no matter how it developed.

However, fortunately, the Qi Tian Pale Deer Clan and Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage both belonged to the Cyan Deer Tribe, a shared community of interest.

Lu Ke planned to inform the Clan Leader of the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage of what he learned today, so the Bamboo Cyan Deer lineage would no longer compete with the Qi Tian Pale Deer Clan.

Qi Yue said in an extremely serious tone.

“If you really can increase my lifespan by a thousand years, allowing me to continue guarding the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan.”

“As long as it does not harm the interests of the Cang Lu tribe, I can agree to anything you ask.”

As the High Priest of the Qi Tian Pale Deer Clan, Qi Yue was concerned not only with the Qi Tian Pale Deer Clan but also the entire Cyan Deer Tribe.

The interests of the Cyan Deer Tribe were the bottom line for Qi Yue.

Qi Yue did not mention the Beast Controlling Force, as in her heart what Qixing did for her was enough for Qi Yue to give up her fixation with the Beast Controlling Force, and willing to work for Qixing within the Beast Controlling Force.

As for what specific tasks Qixing wanted her to do, as long as it did not break Qi Yue’s bottom line, it was already unimportant.

Fang Mu smiled and reached out his hand.

“Since that’s the case, welcome Miss Qi Yue to join the ranks of my force!”

Seeing Fang Mu extending his hand, Qi Yue reached out and shook hands with Fang Mu, well aware that this handshake would change the destiny of both herself and the Cyan Deer Tribe.

After shaking hands with Qi Yue, Fang Mu spoke in an extremely solemn tone.

“My master will pay a great price to increase your lifespan by a thousand years, Miss Qi Yue, after all, what we’re doing is something difficult even for the cores of a hundred trees of Endless Wood.”

“And such an increase in lifespan does not even require any price from you, Miss Qi Yue.”

“So, Miss Qi Yue, I hope you can cast your Qi Tian Pale Deer Clan’s unique Pray for Sky Covenant on me, which will also facilitate our subsequent cooperation.”

“Let the master be able to invest resources without worry to help strengthen the Qi Tian Pale Deer Clan!”

Chapter 1419: Pray for Sky Covenant!

The Pray for Sky Covenant is a kind of oath woven by the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan using their own souls and the ability to foresee the future.

Implementing the Pray for Sky Covenant does not require the Qi Tian Pale Deer to pay any price, but the covenant itself imposes restrictions on the Qi Tian Pale Deer.

Once the covenant is violated, the initiator of the oath will suffer recoil, losing the ability to foresee the future.

And it will curse the bloodline itself, severely affecting the descendants of the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan.

Such matters that seriously affect the bloodline of the clan are enough to restrain Qi Yue, a powerful being like Qi Yue would not be willing to be controlled by Covenant Servant Soul Ant Queen.

Especially when Qi Yue harbors deep hatred towards humans.

Fang Mu’s words made Qi Yue hesitate for a moment, and Qi Yue spoke hesitantly.

“Of course, the Pray for Sky Covenant is a form of protection for you. I cannot simply be granted an extended lifespan.”

“Master Qixing is willing to invest resources in our Qi Tian Pale Deer clan, so I must ensure that Master Qixing feels secure about investing those resources!”

“However, our Qi Tian Pale Deer clan needs to witness the Pray for Sky Covenant through celestial bodies, which will inevitably cause significant celestial phenomena that cannot be shielded.”

“Therefore, I suggest you leave the Dragon Rising Federation with me before I bestow the Pray for Sky Covenant upon you, otherwise it will allow those with intent to lock onto the Dragon Rising Federation’s location.”

“After I have bestowed the Pray for Sky Covenant, I believe we can have a good talk about subsequent cooperation with my Qi Tian Pale Deer clan!”

The conversation between Fang Mu and Qi Yue seemed very brief to finalize the cooperation, but in fact, the cooperation between the two parties is complex both in terms of position and interests.

The reason why the deal was struck so easily without a final agreement from both sides is that Qi Yue has no other choice but to trust Fang Mu.

And Fang Mu, on his part, is indifferent to whether Qi Yue keeps her word or honors her commitments.

If Qi Yue breaks the covenant, it does not constitute any loss to Fang Mu, but Fang Mu will definitely retaliate against the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan!

As Fang Mu’s power grows in his hands, he becomes more unrestrained in the cooperation.

“Miss Qi Yue must be extremely busy overseeing the Cyan Deer Tribe, so this junior will not waste more of your time.”

“I can leave with Elder Qi Yue right now!”

“One of my juniors, a Dao Protector, has the ability to teleport; if I call him over, he can directly transport us to the territory of the Beast Controlling Force, where you can then bestow the Pray for Sky Covenant upon me.”

“The resources invested in the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan have been prepared in advance by my master, and once the Pray for Sky Covenant is established and you, Miss Qi Yue, have checked the resources, I will discuss the obligations the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan should fulfill.”

Shu Liangjun has recently been busy at the headquarters of the Jianmu Commerce Association, helping Jiang Weng trade Spirit Capturing Boxes with the Ten-thousand Nations Federation.

The Ten-thousand Nations Federation has once again increased its demand for Spirit Capturing Boxes.

Zhuang Herui has always been in charge of the transactions with the Ten-thousand Nations Federation and, although he does not know Jiang Weng, he has seen Shu Liangjun who has been following Fang Mu.

Zhuang Herui left the Dragon Rising Federation yesterday, and Shu Liangjun was finally free.

Fang Mu contacted Shu Liangjun through the Dao Protector’s contract, and Shu Liangjun hurried to Fang Mu’s residence in Lu City at top speed.

Immediately after, he took Fang Mu, Qi Yue, and Jun Feng to the Solitary Star Forest located on the right bank of Cold Water River.

According to Contract Garden’s division of the competition areas, Solitary Star Forest is located at the junction of the southeast competition area, an area dominated by the Beast Controlling Force.

Bestowing the Pray for Sky Covenant here is indeed most appropriate.

The Pray for Sky Covenant has no impact on the person receiving the oath, but out of respect for Fang Mu, Qi Yue still explained the situation in advance, and then bestowed the Pray for Sky Covenant on Fang Mu.

The bestowal of the Pray for Sky Covenant caused a crescent moon and a sky full of stars to appear even during the day.

The crescent moon and stars, along with the sun, showered their radiance upon Fang Mu, creating an ethereal connection between Fang Mu and Qi Yue.

When Qi Yue established the Pray for Sky Covenant, her heart was full of complexity.

If someone had told Qi Yue before that she would make a Pray for Sky Covenant with a human, she would have never believed it.

Now, Qi Yue, who made the covenant, must ensure that she does not break the Pray for Sky Covenant under any circumstances, otherwise the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan's bloodline will be cursed, and the entire clan will suffer misfortune because of the oath she made.

At that point, she, the High Priest of the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan, will become the sinner of the tribe.

After completing all this, Qi Yue turned her gaze to Fang Mu, intending to ask about the subsequent cooperation between Master Qixing and the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan.

Before Qi Yue could speak, Fang Mu took the initiative and said,

"Elder Qi Yue, the Pray for Sky Covenant has been established, please take a look at the Supplies inside this Spirit Capturing Box!"

"These Supplies have been invested in advance by my master for the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan, after you check them I will state my demands on the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan."

Qi Yue, full of anticipation, took the Spirit Capturing Box from Fang Mu, and as soon as her spiritual power entered the Spirit Capturing Box, she was stunned by the Supplies it contained!

Inside the Spirit Capturing Box were several hundred bottles of Life Elixir with a purity of over ninety-six percent, and there were also as many as a hundred bottles of Spiritual Elixir!

Chapter 1420: Pray for Sky Covenant! _2

Such resources are unimaginable for Beast Controlling Forces that don't include a Creator within.

In fact, not only for the Beast Controlling Forces, even Human Forces seldom see such high-end resources.

Qi Yue calculated that providing these resources to the Qi Tian Pale Deer Clan could not only enhance her own strength with these resources but also allow the Qi Tian Pale Deer Clan to have thirty to forty more offspring in the next five years!

The Qi Tian Pale Deer clan is sparsely populated; having more offspring could fundamentally strengthen the power of the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan.

However, while being surprised and delighted, Qi Yue's heart also sank.

With such an abundance of resources given to the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan, surely the tasks they are expected to perform will be quite substantial!

Benefits and costs are often equivalent.

Qi Yue took the initiative to ask Fang Mu.

"Sir Jianmu, I am somewhat surprised by the amount of Creator resources here; I, on behalf of the Qi Tian Pale Deer clan members, extend our thanks to you and Master Qixing."

"I wonder what Master Qixing needs our Cyan Deer tribe to do?"

"As long as it does not violate the bottom line I just mentioned, we can do other tasks and will certainly do them well!"

When Qi Yue said this, she emphasized her bottom line again, reminding Fang Mu not to make them do anything that would endanger the internal rights and interests of the entire Cang Lu clan.

Fang Mu understood the implications of Qi Yue's words; from the beginning, Fang Mu had no intention of affecting the internal rights and interests of the Cang Lu clan.

Fang Mu did not immediately tell Qi Yue his requirements but instead asked her,

"Miss Qi Yue, now the Human Forces are at odds with the Beast Controlling Forces like water and fire. Do you think it's really necessary for it to be this way between Humans and Beast Controlling Forces?"

Qi Yue did not answer immediately but pondered the implications of Fang Mu's words.

It is very normal for Humans and Beast Controlling Forces to be antagonistic as Human Forces and Beast Controlling Forces are always competing for survival resources.

Humans extensively hunt other Guardian Beasts to train their Guardian Beasts, and many Guardian Beasts choose to prey on humans.

Deep down, Qi Yue does not believe that Humans and Beast Controlling Forces can coexist harmoniously.

But since Fang Mu asked this, it indicates that Qixing intends to promote peace between Humans and Beast Controlling Forces.

Facing Fang Mu, Qi Yue did not hide her true thoughts but seriously shared her inner thoughts with Fang Mu.

"Sir Jianmu, the current antagonism between Human and Beast Controlling Forces isn't the fault of the Beast Controlling Forces, nor is it the fault of Humans."

“It is the ecological niches of both parties that dictate their relationship.”

“Humans and Guardian Beasts have different ecological niches, making it impossible for them to coexist harmoniously. If it weren’t for the presence of the Emperor Beast Court, the relationship between Humans and Guardian Beasts would be even more strained.”

“It is the Emperor Beast Court that is limiting the various Beast Taming Tribes, preventing these tribes from clashing with Humans.”

“Although some Beast Taming Tribes are disobedient, due to certain special reasons they still trigger beast tides.”

“However, the impact of Guardian Beasts on Humans is overall much less.”

“The restrictions of the Contract Garden also prevent Humans from overtly attacking Beast Taming Tribes.”

“However, many Human Forces are still targeting Beast Taming Tribes in secret; ultimately the Contract Garden didn’t punish these Human Forces, which has caused the suppressed conflicts between Humans and Beast Controlling Forces to gradually intensify.”

“Take Master Qixing, for example, I am able to cooperate with him here, isn’t it also because Master Qixing has manipulated the Bamboo Green Pale Deer clan?”

Fang Mu smiled at Qi Yue’s words, as he agreed with what she said.

However, Fang Mu perceives the situation from a different perspective than Qi Yue.

“Indeed, it is because our side intentionally captured the members of the Pale Deer clan who were contesting for the Wood Attribute Growth Type Secret Land that facilitated the opportunity for you to communicate with us now.”

“But Miss Qi Yue, if you think about it the other way around, whether we cooperate with or trade with the Praying Sky Pale Deer clan, they are the beneficiaries.”

“Miss Qi Yue always focuses on the conflicts between humans and Guardian Beasts. Don’t you know that Guardian Beasts also kill each other, leading to a lot of slaughter!?”

“In disputes, annihilating the opposing tribe is a common occurrence, and the struggles between Beast Taming Tribes are much more brutal than those between humans and Guardian Beasts.”

“Miss Qi Yue, what are your views on all this!?”

Fang Mu’s words momentarily stumped Qi Yue; from the bottom of her heart, she felt that the internal struggles among Guardian Beasts and Beast Controlling Forces were not the same as those involving humans.

But saying so herself would seem less like answering the question and more like arguing.

Qi Yue changed the topic and did not continue to answer Fang Mu’s question but directly said to him,

“Master Qixing, just tell me directly what you want me to do. Even if you want me to facilitate cooperation between the Beast Controlling Force and Human Forces, despite my efforts, it might end up contrary to what is desired.”

“If I fail, I hope Master Qixing won’t blame me, and thus displace anger onto my Pale Deer clan!”

As a high-ranking member of the Emperor Beast Court, Qi Yue was very aware of Emperor Beast Court’s attitude towards humans.

If it weren’t for the Prophet of the Lingmao Clan constantly mediating, the Emperor Beast Court would have likely torn up the contract signed with the Contract Garden over a decade ago.

Fang Mu's goal is to explore the Dimensional World along with the elite of the Beast Controlling Forces to help him control the Dimensional World.

Fang Mu is about cooperation with the Beast Controlling Forces, and if it were really about merging Beast Controlling Forces and Human Forces, Fang Mu himself admits that he currently lacks the capability to achieve this.

"The recent tide of the Sea of Domains is enough to make us aware of the impact of the Dimensional World on us."

"The tides of the Sea of Domains, after overflowing this time, will inevitably occur again."

"This time the Sea Clan and humans withstand everything, in the future the Beast Controlling Forces will undoubtedly be affected by the tides."

"And at the other end of the Sea of Domains, only the union of strong members from humans, the Sea Clan, and the Beast Controlling Forces can intervene."

"I hope you can help to get the Beast Controlling Forces, humans, and Sea Clan to jointly confront the Dimensional World on the other side of the Sea of Domains, and even explore the other end of the Sea of Domains together."

"The Dimensional World at the other end of the Sea of Domains is both a crisis and an opportunity for us."

"With the entire world facing the problem of resource shortage, perhaps the Dimensional World at the other end of the Sea of Domains may have the resources needed by both humans and the Beast Controlling Forces!"

"The disputes between humans and Beast Controlling Forces, to put it plainly, are both sides competing for resources. If the Dimensional World at the other end of the Sea of Domains can expand resources, it will inevitably ease the relationship between humans and the Beast Controlling Forces."

Qi Yue pondered Fang Mu's words for a long time in her heart, and she truly had not expected that Master Qixing had chosen to cooperate with her for such purposes.

If Master Qixing harbors this purpose, then this matter will truly benefit humans, the Sea Clan, and the Beast Controlling Forces.

As a powerful being, Qi Yue possesses a strong spirit of exploration, as those without such a spirit can hardly improve their strength beyond the Sequential level.

The Emperor Beast Court has internally mentioned topics regarding the other end of the Sea of Domains recently.

A vast majority within the Emperor Beast Court support exploring the world on the other end of the Sea of Domains.

But before exploring the Dimensional World on the other end of the Sea of Domains, the Emperor Beast Court considered the internal strength of the Beast Controlling Forces, deeming that the current strength of the Beast Controlling Forces was still insufficient to explore the world at the other end of the Sea of Domains.

This has made many within the Emperor Beast Court, despite harboring such ideas, give up on them.

These high-ranking strong members within the Emperor Beast Court all have a massive Beast Taming Tribes behind them, and they cannot ignore the safety of these tribes.

"If it is about exploring the Dimensional World on the other end of the Sea of Domains, I am willing to support Master Qixing with all my might!"
