

Beast Tamer 151

Chapter 151 Xuan Wen (Mysterious Pattern) [Star Spirit System • Star Sequel]! (Two in One)_2

This left Fang Mu feeling slightly regretful.

The mysterious pattern of [Star Spirit System.Star Continuation] is simply too compatible with the guardian beast of the Star Spirit System angel species!

Just then, Fang Mu heard a hissing sound in his ear.

“Then, using the preserved scene, we can slowly condense the Scenery Fantasy Pearl!”

“But using the scene preserved by the Scenery Phantom Band to condense the Scenery Fantasy Pearl will slow down the speed.”

“Moreover, condensing the Scenery Fantasy Pearl from the scene preserved by the Scenery Phantom Band requires a lot of spiritual power.”

A look of surprise appeared on Fang Mu’s face upon hearing this.

So the shiny band grown on Sisi's metal hairs was named Scenery Phantom Band, and it even has this kind of function!

The words Sisi spoke not only made Fang Mu happy because he had the chance to condense the Mysterious Pattern [Star Spirit System.Star Continuation] into a First-Class Mysterious Chapter.

More importantly, Fang Mu could select and comprehend Mysterious Patterns in this way in the future.

Other strong individuals would first comprehend the Mysterious Patterns and Chapters, then contract new Guardian Beasts for cultivation based on these Mysterious Patterns and Chapters.

She Wan was an example of this.

On the other hand, Fang Mu could take the opposite approach and tailor-make mysterious patterns for his contracted guardian beasts.

This was something that traditional Grandmaster Creators simply couldn't do.

In this moment, a faint space force was bred in the galaxy surrounding Fang Mu's body.

This faint space power kept growing stronger, it was as if a life was about to tear through the galaxy made of starlets and be born into this world!

Fang Mu waited quietly, constantly feeling the connection between his bloodline and the life deep within the galaxy.

Finally, when the space force was strong enough, it finally tore a crack in the galaxy.

A leg made of starlight stepped out from inside, this leg wore armor made of starlight.

Imparting a sense of the divine element to this leg, full of strength!

Through the Eye of Omniscience, an innate divine ability of his Destiny Guardian Beast, the Fool's Shadow, Fang Mu probed the leg that stepped out from the galaxy.

[Beast Name]: Star Cloud Messenger

[Beast Species]: Star Guard Department / Star General [Beast Level]: Bronze (1/10) [Beast Element]: Space System/ Star Spirit System

[Beast Potential]: Silver [Beast Quality]: Ordinary

Skill:

[Space Star Guide]: Form a spatial portal by star positioning. Index the life that crosses the spatial portal to the pre-designated area. Protect the target during transmission. After transmission, condense a Space Star Mark on the target. The target can return to its original position through the Space Star Mark.

Evolution Path:

1: Star River Messenger, 2: Falling Star Sky Woman, 3: Sacrificial Fire Star Beast

Upon investigation, Fang Mu found that after the Descendant Star Messenger had absorbed the Contracting Blood, it indeed evolved into the Star Cloud Messenger.

Apart from the changes in its name due to its bloodline evolution, Fang Mu also keenly noticed that the species of the beast had changed as well with the evolution of the Descendant Star Messenger into the Star Cloud Messenger!

The previous Descendant Star Messenger belonged to the Star Guard Department / Star Servant species, but the current Star Cloud Messenger belongs to the Star Guard Department / Star General species.

Since it is only a contract, the beast level, element, and quality of the Star Cloud Messenger have not changed at all.

But the skill, Space Star Guide has been upgraded!

The previous Space Star Guide only had the ability to teleport in a specified direction and protect the teleportation target during the process.

Now, in addition to directional teleportation and protection, Space Star Guide can also condense a Space Star Mark on the target after teleportation.

The target after teleportation can return to its original position through the Space Star Mark.

If you are chased by an enemy even after multiple teleportations using the Space Star Guide,

You can activate the several Space Star Marks condensed on your body to change your position continuously,

Making the enemy lose track of you and escape successfully.

Fang Mu could never have too many skills for such escape abilities!

As for the evolution path, it is clear that the Star River Messenger is of evolutionary type, progressing along its own bloodline.

The Star Cloud Messenger can only have a chance to evolve into the angel species Star Scar Angel by evolving along the path of the Star River Messenger.

This is also Fang Mu's chosen target for evolution.

The second evolutionary path, Falling Star Sky Woman, is very similar to the previous evolution path of Descendant Star Messenger, the Fallen Star Old Lady.

If you grow strong enough, the Fallen Star Old Lady can summon meteorites to attack,

Then, the Falling Star Sky Woman can directly summon falling stars, boasting a formidable attack power.

Moreover, the appearance of Falling Star Sky Woman must be more attractive than Fallen Star Old Lady.

But no matter how delicate she looks, surpassing flowers in beauty, or as captivating as the bright moon,

For Fang Mu, it is not as attractive as the angel species guardian beast.

In addition, after choosing to evolve into a Falling Star Sky Woman, it will become dual-element Guardian Beast of the Star Spirit System and Earth System, and will no longer have the function of a messenger.

The Sacrificial Fire Star Beast, as a dual-element Guardian Beast of the Fire System and Star Spirit System, is the same.

During the time Fang Mu explored the data of the Star Cloud Messenger using the Eye of Omniscience, the Star Cloud Messenger had completely emerged from the galaxy.

The moment the Star Cloud Messenger emerged from the galaxy, the starlets of the galaxy turned into a hazy starlight, enveloping the Star Cloud Messenger.

Looking at the Star Cloud Messenger in front of him, which was five meters tall, with no distinct facial features and wrapped in magnificent armor, Fang Mu nodded in satisfaction.

To enhance the quality and level of the Star Cloud Messenger, life energy is required.

As long as there is enough life energy, the Star Cloud Messenger can condense the Star Spirit Force and Space Force by itself..

Chapter 152 Xuan Wen (Mysterious Pattern) [Star Spirit System • Star Sequel]! (Two in One)_3

For such a Guardian Beast, which only needs pure life energy to upgrade its level and quality, Fang Mu simply loved it!

Because such a Guardian Beast is exceptionally easy to keep!

Fang Mu has been cleaning up Alien Beast corpses in the Soldier-level Crematorium of the Scavengers.

He had a batch of Life Elixir with a purity of one hundred percent at hand.

This kind of Life Elixir with one hundred percent purity, Fang Mu was not convenient to show others.

He also dare not use it to exchange supplies with others.

But using it himself, Fang Mu felt no pressure at all.

Just as Fang Mu was about to take out a Life Elixir to give to the Star Cloud Messenger, the Star Cloud Messenger has already knelt on one knee in front of Fang Mu.

“Father, please bless me with a name!”

Upon hearing the words of the Star Cloud Messenger, Fang Mu was slightly surprised.

Fang Mu estimated that this humanoid Star Spirit System Beast wouldn't have a low intelligence, but he didn't expect it to be high to such a degree.

The Star Cloud Messenger could easily communicate with him, it seems that its intelligence wouldn't be lesser than the average human!

"Let's call you Starlight!"

"Starlight, how long will it take for you to upgrade to the Silver Peak and improve your quality to Legendary Quality if you absorb the high-purity Life Elixir now?"

Hearing this, Starlight gazed at Fang Mu. Before he had time to savor the name Fang Mu gave him, he already spoke.

"Father, I have no concept of high-purity Life Elixir, do you mind showing me different levels of high-purity Life Elixir?"

"Only then can I give a clear answer."

Upon hearing this, Fang Mu hurriedly brought out the Life Elixir of different purities that he had collected.

From sixty percent to a hundred percent, he had everything.

Just as Fang Mu took out all the Life Elixirs of different purities and looked up at the five-meter-tall Star Cloud Messenger.

He saw that the Star Cloud Messenger's gaze steadily fell on the vial on the rightmost side of the ground that contained one hundred percent pure Life Elixir.

Through Starlight's reaction, Fang Mu realized that this vial of one hundred percent pure Life Elixir would work best for the Star Cloud Messenger. Fang Mu simply put away all the other Life Elixirs of different concentrations.

Fang Mu had intended to use the one hundred percent pure Life Elixir for the Star Cloud Messenger in the first place.

The newly born Star Cloud Messenger, through Fang Mu's reaction, felt Fang Mu's compassion for himself.

"Father, the higher the purity of the Life Elixir, the slower I absorb it!"

"Just to absorb this one vial of Life Elixir, I need a week."

“But, judging by the content of Life Energy in this vial of Life Elixir, I guess it would take me about two months to upgrade to Silver Rank Level Ten with Legendary Quality!”

“But I can only guarantee the upgrade of level and quality, the chance of Bloodline upgrade is probably only thirty percent!”

Upon hearing this, Fang Mu was amazed at the convenience of communicating with high-intelligence Beasts.

In terms of cultivation, he can fully deliberate with the Beasts before making a decision.

He also lamented the difficulty of the Star Cloud Messenger’s Bloodline upgrade.

According to the speed of one vial a week, consuming eight vials of one hundred percent pure Life Elixir in two months.

The chance of Bloodline upgrading is only thirty percent, this probability can’t be said to be low.

This is enough to show that the descending Messengers of the other members inside the Starwheel, their Bloodlines should not be too high!

Thinking of this, Fang Mu recalled his own Destiny Guardian Beast, Blood of Abundance.

He took out five hundred milliliters of Blood Aged Wine from it, placed it in front of Starlight and asked,

“What if you use this as an assist!?”

The Star Cloud Messenger sniffed the aroma of the Blood Aged Wine and discovered that the Blood Aged Wine was full of Fang Mu’s scent.

This taste was very familiar to him, almost as if it was intertwined with his own bloodline.

After carefully savoring it, the Star Cloud Messenger asserted confidently.

“If I can have six servings of this potion as a supplement, I’m one hundred percent certain I’ll be able to break through my bloodline during my promotion to the Gold rank.”

From this, Fang Mu affirmed the difficulties the Star Cloud Messenger faced in bloodline advancement.

It actually requires a full three liters of Blood Aged Wine!

This quantity would be enough for three to eight other types of Guardian Beasts to elevate their bloodline!

Fang Mu could obtain three liters of Blood Aged Wine by donating blood once.

For his own Guardian Beast, there was nothing Fang Mu wouldn't give!

Moreover, because of the improvement in the quality of his Blood of Abundance, Fang Mu's ability to generate blood has been getting stronger and stronger.

He could coagulate two drops of Covenant Blood Essence per month.

So, taking out three liters of Blood Aged Wine to help the Star Cloud Messenger elevate his bloodline wouldn't affect Fang Mu's speed of forming Covenant Blood Essence.

He handed the whole eight bottles of hundred percent pure Life Elixir to the Star Cloud Messenger and chatted with him for a while before recalling him to his Destiny Guidebook.

Now, even without counting the Fool's Shadow and Blood of Abundance, Fang Mu had four Guardian Beasts in his Destiny Guidebook.

However, the only one who could fight at present was still the Rainy Doll.

After another half month, upon forming new Covenant Blood Essence and contracting Eden Greenfield, Fang Mu's combat capabilities would be enhanced once more.

However, Fang Mu often felt that functional Guardian Beasts were more precious than combat ones.

The capabilities of combat type Guardian Beasts are diverse and interchangeable.

But the abilities of functional beasts aren't replaceable.

Fang Mu, having contracted Star Cloud Messenger, felt that it was time to help Lu Xiaoyin evolve the Flame-winged Lion Scorpion into Glory Lion Scorpion!

Lu Xiaoyin had already succeeded in breaking through and becoming a

Four-pointed Star Beast Master before becoming his personal steward.

A Four-pointed Star Beast Master could already elevate the power of Guardian Beasts to the Diamond Rank.

Fang Mu could perfectly evolve the Platinum rank Level Ten perfect quality Flame-winged Lion Scorpion's bloodline into Glory Lion Scorpion.

Then by using Blood Aged Wine and a high-purity Life Potion, he could promote the quality of Flame-winged Lion Scorpion to Legendary Quality at the Platinum rank itself.

After all the enhancements, he would promote Glory Lion Scorpion to Diamond rank.

Through repeated research by many scholars and Creators, it's difficult for a Guardian Beast to go through bloodline evolution twice within the same rank.

Only by evolving separately could they ensure that Glory Lion Scorpion could evolve into Crown Scorpion through the induction of Fire Elemental Potion with 90 percent purity after its promotion to Diamond rank.

The perception of a Beast Master towards their Guardian Beast is restricted within a certain range.

The scope of perception is related both to the strength of the Beast Master's spiritual power and the level of the Guardian Beast.

The Jinghai Army Camp and the Creator's Guild Branch are located on opposite sides of JA City.

At such a distance, Luo Su lost his sense of the Shimmering River-Swallowing Python.

He didn't know when the Shimmering River-Swallowing Python was elevated by Fang Mu to a Rainbow Devouring Sea Python, and its quality improved to Legendary Quality!

For Beast Masters, losing control of their Guardian Beasts is a terrifying thing.

If it wasn't to strengthen the Guardian Beast, Luo Su would never let the Shimmering River-swallowing Python leave his side.

The night was deep and still but occasionally interrupted by the cries of cicadas outside the window.

Next door to Fang Mu, Lu Xiaoyin, who had entered a deep sleep and been snoring loudly, suddenly opened her eyes..

Chapter 153 Fang Yuan: Your Name Is Jianmu! (Two in One)_I

Through the Destiny Guidebook, Lu Xiaoyin could feel that his Flame-winged Lion Scorpion's bloodline had made a breakthrough.

It had evolved from the original Flame-winged Lion Scorpion to the Glory Lion Scorpion.

Checking the time, Lu Xiaoyin found it to be 2:15 in the morning.

The Flame-winged Lion Scorpion was extremely close to him, right next door.

Even at this time, Fang Mu hadn't gone to rest yet and was helping him enhance the strength of his Flame-winged Lion Scorpion.

This discovery left Lu Xiaoyin at a loss for words!

The initial reason for Lu Xiaoyin to follow Fang Mu was simply for a better future.

No one would willingly become another person's servant otherwise.

Lu Xiaoyin had prepared himself for the hardships that might come with being Fang Mu's servant.

However, what Lu Xiaoyin had anticipated never happened.

As a disciple of the Grandmaster Creator, Fang Mu was quite affable and never issued orders in a domineering manner.

More importantly, Fang Mu treated him very well, otherwise, he wouldn't let Lu Xiaoyin and She Wan live in the room next door.

Once again, Lu Xiaoyin felt the care of Fang Mu, his master, or perhaps the boss, for him.

As for why the Flame-winged Lion Scorpion had its bloodline enhancement in the room next door, Lu Xiaoyin had no doubt at all.

Three or four days had passed since he left Flame-winged Lion Scorpion with Fang Mu.

In these few days, Fang Mu had probably contacted his master and obtained elixirs from him.

The Grandmaster Creator would use bottle after bottle of reinforced elixirs to enhance the power and bloodlines of the Guardian Beasts.

Fang Mu could perform the enhancement remotely after getting the elixirs.

The time of the Grandmaster Creator was precious and he wouldn't possibly be feeding the elixirs personally.

Lu Xiaoyin quietly got off his bed, unbeknownst to him, She Wan in the dark had been keeping her eyes wide open.

The almost 300 square meter room was quite spacious, with a foyer separating the two beds where She Wan and Lu Xiaoyin slept.

Moreover, She Wan was stronger than Lu Xiaoyin, so she didn't mind sharing a room with him.

However, she didn't expect Lu Xiaoyin to snore, and so loudly too!

She Wan simply couldn't stand the sound of snoring!

If it wasn't for the fact that Lu Xiaoyin worked with her for Fang Mu, as a private steward, he also managed her duties as a guard.

Otherwise, her hand would have slapped him already!

The keystone construction had embedded many fragments of Breathless Agate in the walls.

Breathless Agate was one of the best spiritual materials for blocking the aura in construction materials.

Large Breathless Agates would generally be made into accessories and worn by Beast Masters or Guardian Beasts.

The price of Breathless Agate was high, just the fragments cost 50,000 Dragon Rising Coins per kilogram.

A large number of Breathless Agate fragments were inlaid into the walls, preventing the craftsmen who constructed the keystone from sensing the aura released by the Flame-winged Lion Scorpion during its evolution to Glory Lion Scorpion.

However, as a Hexagram Beastmaster, She Wan with her spiritual power strength could still sense it!

Seeing this, She Wan who lay in bed, couldn't help but reveal a charming smile on her cold face.

She had thoroughly become Fang Mu's property.

Seeing everything that Fang Mu had done for Lu Xiaoyin, She Wan knew. As long as she did her job well by Fang Mu's side, her treatment wouldn't be bad either!

Right now, Lu Xiaoyin was already suitably dressed and standing straight in front of Fang Mu's door, his eyes filled with gratitude as he looked at the tightly closed door of Fang Mu's room.

Then, Lu Xiaoyin found his surprise was still to come.

The Flame-winged Lion Scorpion hadn't stopped after evolving into the Glory Lion Scorpion, it immediately broke through from its Perfect Quality and upgraded to the Epic Quality.

Even if the Flame-winged Lion Scorpion doesn't get upgraded in the future, Lu Xiaoyin could certainly say he had traded an air rifle for a cannon!

The Platinum Rank Level Ten Flame-winged Lion Scorpion of perfect quality was six meters long, with a wingspan of about nine meters when fully spread.

The scorpion tail lingered under itself, only rising high to swing its stinger when in battle.

Thus, the length of the scorpion tail was similar to the body length of the Flame-winged Lion Scorpion!

The form of the Flame-winged Lion Scorpion had dramatically increased by 1.5x after evolving into Glory Lion Scorpion.

Not only had the body size become relatively larger, but even the bones had become more robust.

The mane on its neck spread to its front legs, making a rustling sound as it swayed. Each and every strand was like a golden brown needle.

The originally black scorpion tail had now changed to a color closer to that of the mane, covered in the special chitin of insect beasts.

A strong deputy wing was grown on the interior of each of its originally thin six wings.

The wingspan of the double wings could reach fifteen meters when fully spread.

With the deputy wings fluttering on the inside, the Glory Lion Scorpion would become more agile once in flight.

A claw similar to a lion's claw had appeared on the front part of each deputy wing.

These were nothing less than lethal weapons in close combat!

Before the bloodline evolution, the Flame-winged Lion Scorpion ate two bites of Diamond Rank Sleep Moss, it wouldn't wake up until tomorrow night!

Fang Mu didn't choose to take the Flame-winged Lion Scorpion back into his Purple Ice Crystal Ring.

As the Flame-winged Lion Scorpion had a bloodline transformation and quality upgrade, Lu Xiaoyin couldn't possibly be unaware.

Fang Mu planned to let Lu Xiaoyin place the slumbering Glory Lion Scorpion directly back into the Destiny Guidebook.

Once he pushed the door open, Fang Mu found that Lu Xiaoyin was already standing at the doorway.

Without any surprise on his face, Fang Mu directly said,

“Xiao Yin, go and put the Glory Lion Scorpion away!”

Fang Mu had the Flame-winged Lion Scorpion eat the Sleep Moss in order to hide the existence of the Blood Aged Wine.

Fang Mu had just tried all sorts of ways to inject the Blood Aged Wine into the Flame-winged Lion Scorpion..

Chapter 154 Fang Yuan: Your Name Is Jianmu! (Two in One)_2

In the end, with no alternatives left, he chose the Scorpion’s abdomen.

If there was anyone to blame, it was the Flame-winged Lion Scorpion for sleeping with its mouth so tightly shut. Fang Mu simply couldn’t pry open the Scorpion’s sealed lips to stab into its soft palate.

An excited Lu Xiaoyin couldn't help but continuously thank Fang Mu as she watched the Glory Lion Scorpion.

Fang Mu smiled in response to her gratitude and then addressed her.

"Xiao Yin, there's no need for such formality with me!"

"This is an elixir that my master gave me, I originally planned to use it to feed the Glory Lion Scorpion."

"You could make better use of it!"

"My master said that if the Glory Lion Scorpion absorbs this Fire Elemental Potion with 90% purity, it won't be able to evolve into Crown Scorpion at the diamond rank."

"You should return the Glory Lion Scorpion to me, and after my master investigates the situation, he can reconfigure a new elixir."

While he spoke, Fang Mu handed over to Lu Xiaoyin a Fire Elemental Potion with 90% purity and two Life Elixirs with 80% purity.

Fang Mu had helped her to such an extent!

In a sense, she had obtained a chance to have a Grandmaster Creator customize an elixir just for her.

Evolving the Flame-winged Lion Scorpion into the Crown Scorio at the diamond rank was equivalent to maximizing its bloodline evolution potential.

The Crown Scorio could potentially evolve into one of the three variants of the Emperor Scorpion.

Lu Xiaoyin managed to compose her emotions and softly spoke.

“Little Master, I won’t disturb you further and you should rest soon.” “I won’t let you down, I will do everything possible to improve my strength!”

Lu Xiaoyin knew that doing her part well, being attentive to all matters concerning Fang Mu, was the best way to repay him.

In due time, when the Glory Lion Scorpion evolved into the Crown Scorio, she would be able to undertake the task of guarding Fang Mu.

No longer would she just be a housekeeper!

Hearing this, Fang Mu nodded. He too was indeed almost ready to sleep.

The potential of a Beast Master's beast was not only dependent on its individual skills but also its particular traits.

Many people had beasts whose bloodlines had evolved smoothly, with each level gaining great abilities.

Yet when it came to improving their quality and gaining exclusive traits, many beasts entirely failed!

Some exclusive traits not only failed to aid their beasts in battle, but the passive abilities of these traits also hindered the Beast Master's strength.

The Glory Lion Scorpion had done well. Its exclusive trait obtained after reaching the epic quality Ferocious Scorpion Fury was a perfect complement to the Scorpion Heart trait it received from achieving perfect quality.

The Scorpion Heart made the Glory Lion Scorpion invulnerable to pain, and any injury would enhance its ferocity.

The exclusive trait, Ferocious Scorpion Fury, on the other hand, increased its fury every time its ferocity was amplified.

Fury strengthened fire damage and also elevated the temperature of fire skills.

The traits Ferocious Scorpion Fury and Scorpion Heart worked well together, coordinating with all current skills of the Glory Lion Scorpion.

Fanged Wood was also pleased that such excellent exclusive traits could be obtained after his Beast had advanced.

For the following few days, Fang Mu was continuously striving to equip himself with more knowledge.

Time flew by quickly, and the start of school was getting closer.

When school started, Fang Mu would become a high school senior.

If Fang Mu hadn't become a Beast Master or awakened the Destiny Guidebook, In the next semester, he would have been diligently attending classes in school and would have spent all his spare time in the library.

Through acquiring knowledge to broaden his horizons, he would have been more likely to be an assistant Creator after graduating college.

Times have indeed changed, and Fang Mu's circumstances have transformed.

Fang Mu naturally would not arrange his time as he had before!

In school, Fang Mu had always held a special role.

Previously, since Fang Mu wasn't a Beast Master, he never participated in the practical combat classes in the afternoon.

Therefore, he generally attended only morning classes.

Given the knowledge Fang Mu had mastered, everything the teacher said in the morning class was already crystal clear to him.

While other students were learning, Fang Mu was revising.

Fang Mu planned to simply spend the morning reading in the library next semester and reserve the afternoon for his own activities.

In fact, Cui Ruochen had suggested many times that Fang Mu shouldn't waste all his time in class.

Cui Ruochen was the teacher who hated students who didn't pay attention in class the most.

The reason Cui Ruochen urged Fang Mu was because he understood Fang Mu's academic situation.

He believed that Fang Mu spending all his time in the classroom was a waste of time.

As for the practical combat class in the afternoon, Fang Mu had no plans to participate.

If he told Fang Qin, Yan Wood, and Fang Yuan about him becoming a Beast Master, the trio would only be happy for him.

They wouldn't doubt him in the slightest.

On the school's end, all Fang Mu needed to do was call Feng Lin and she would help him settle everything.

Fang Mu was interested in practical combat, but like he didn't participate in the silver rank competition in the Battle Network these past few days,

Fang Mu couldn't engage in practical combat with schoolmates either.

In practical combat classes, students' beasts could spar with each other without withholding any strength, all within good control.

But the Rainy Doll couldn't do that!

The Rainy Doll's venom was potent and even golden-rank beasts could hardly withstand it.

Once attached, if the venom wasn't removed promptly, it could corrode the beast's origin..

Chapter 155 Fang Yuan: Your Name Is Jianmu! (Two in One)_3

Fang Mu didn't want to participate in the field training classes only to end up with all the Guardian Beasts he battled being injured.

Having made plans for himself, Fang Mu was about to head to the Creator's Guild as usual.

Through the people that Lu Yuyu had arranged for him, he was going to mail the hundred batches of Life Elixirs with sixty percent purity that he had to his brother Fang Yuan.

But before He Qing could drive Fang Mu to the Creator's Guild, his phone began to ring.

"Loving you as you walk alone through dark alleys, loving your unyielding stance, loving you as you confront despair, refusing to shed a tear."

Upon hearing his ringtone, Fang Mu knew that the call was from Fang Yuan.

Just as he was about to answer, Fang Mu suddenly sneezed.

After answering the phone, he heard a doubtful voice from Fang Yuan come through.

“Jianmu?”

At these words, Fang Mu couldn’t help but show a dumbfounded expression.

He almost dug a fantasy castle on the floor of the Beast Car with his toes.

If it wasn’t for the fact that Fang Yuan had verified his identity, with his personality, he would never call him by this name.

Did Lu Yuyu tell Fang Yuan!?

Although Fang Mu didn’t remind Lu Yuyu, Lu Yuyu definitely wasn’t someone thoughtless enough to just outright tell someone.

How on earth did Fang Yuan find out!?

“Bro, yes, I’m Jianmu!”

Fang Yuan had been planning a secret visit to check in on his family, hoping to surprise Fang Mu and Fang Qin.

Knowing that it was now the holidays, he figured Fang Mu would probably be at home most of the time.

So after arriving in JA City from the Capital, he immediately hailed a Six-Hoofed Yak Car to head home.

When he arrived home and just opened the door, taking a deep breath of the air within, Fang Yuan immediately furrowed his brows.

He sensed keenly that no one had been living in the house for at least two weeks!

The dust density in the air was exceeding normal limits.

But even if no one had been living there, so long as the Domestic Beast, “Susu” was there, the place shouldn’t smell like this.

Could something have happened at home?!

Fang Yuan immediately dismissed this idea as soon as it crossed his mind.

For one, he’d been in regular contact with Fang Mu and Fang Qin. If something happened at home, they wouldn’t have kept it from him.

And if there really was an issue, Fang Qin, who’s in JA City, would’ve resolved it.

“Little Wood! Susu!”

After calling out a few times and getting no response, Fang Yuan put on some slippers from the shoe cabinet and walked into the rooms.

However, before Fang Yuan could even consider checking Fang Mu’s bedroom, he caught sight of the invitation lying on the dining table in the living room.

Any ordinary invitation wouldn’t have caught Fang Yuan’s attention.

However, this invitation had the words “Inshore Commerce” emblazoned on it!

Having worked at Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce, Fang Yuan knew full well the power and influence of the local Jinghai Province’s Inshore Commerce.

From an overall strength perspective, Inshore Commerce was even stronger than Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce.

Fang Yuan had considered working at a local commerce branch in Jinghai Province to take care of Fang Mu and Yan Wood, who hadn’t gotten into college yet, before he joined Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce.

At that time, he had applied for a position at Inshore Commerce, only to be eliminated in the first round.

The reason being that he had no prior experience in the commerce industry and had only contracted with one Guardian Beast.

The stringent recruitment process of Inshore Commerce alone was enough to demonstrate its stature and prestige.

The appearance of an invitation from Inshore Commerce in his house was indeed quite abrupt!

Upon opening the invitation, Fang Yuan immediately saw the words “Sir Jianmu” on it.

The moment he saw those words, Fang Yuan was first surprised, then realized, and finally felt an irrepressible thrill and excitement.

This excitement made the otherwise world-weary Fang Yuan slightly teary-eyed.

Many things Fang Yuan hadn’t been able to figure out before made sense now.

Turns out his little brother was Jianmu! The disciple of Grandmaster Creator Qixing!

No wonder Jianmu had always trusted him unconditionally and provided him with so many resources being a Creator.

He had considered him, a mere Golden Gloves from a second-tier commerce branch, as Red Sleeve, leading the development and construction of an emerging commerce company.

The opportunity that had made him so excited and jubilant all this while was actually given to him by Little Wood!

The reason why Fang Yuan was so excited to the point of tearing up wasn't because of Fang Mu's identity.

But rather knowing that Fang Mu had become a Beast Master and even possessed a Sequential Spiritual Instrument and a Silver Stage Half-Elf!

Now, Fang Yuan no longer needed to worry about Fang Mu's future.

With a turn of his mind, Fang Yuan more or less guessed Fang Mu's situation.

Fang Yuan had first met Jianmu because of a post Jianmu had made on the Beastmaster Web.

Fang Yuan had purposefully investigated and found that the post had disappeared not long after their communication.

So it could be said that Fang Mu had intentionally gotten in contact with him after knowing his work situation.

Perhaps at that time, Fang Mu had just recently been taken as a disciple by the Grandmaster Creator!?

The fact that Fang Mu, right after becoming a disciple, had thought of helping the family tugged at Fang Yuan's heartstrings but also caused him to worry slightly.

Fang Yuan was afraid that Fang Mu's actions would affect him adversely.

Fang Yuan and Fang Qin shared the same mentality.

After sorting out his thoughts, Fang Yuan decided to call Fang Mu and get straight to the point.

Because Fang Yuan wanted to caution Fang Mu sternly, asking him to think of himself first.

After Fang Mu secretly helped to build their commerce home base, providing so many high-star Creator resources and inviting three construction corporations with Grandmaster Craftsmen, incurring the attention of the Grandmaster Creator, he could not help being concerned.

So after Fang Mu admitted that he was Jianmu, Fang Yuan immediately voiced his concern.

"Little Wood, giving me so many high-star Creator resources and asking those three construction firms to build a base for our commerce company..."

Fang Mu knew what Fang Yuan wanted to say, as he had already heard the same from Fang Qin.

However, Fang Mu didn't interrupt Fang Yuan. He waited until Fang Yuan had finished what he wanted to say and then replied. "Bro, don't worry, our Master likes me a lot!"

"Many of these things were actually Master's ideas."

"And elder sis also knows about this. She just cautioned me about it recently, so I'll be careful!"

Fang Mu mentioned his Master to reassure Fang Yuan.

Now mentioning Fang Qin was actually to spread the repercussions!

He had "fished" Fang Yuan and had been keeping it from him for quite a while now.

The fantasy castle that appeared at Fang Yuan's feet would definitely be bigger than his own!

Sorry, big sis, let's split the grudge from Fang Yuan for being "fished" equally between us!

There were now more rooms in the manor over these few days.

Why not just go home to pick up Fang Yuan and have him stay at the manor!?

Fang Mu had already given his completed blueprint to Lü Jihong.

Within the blueprints, he had specially designed rooms for Fang Yuan, Fang

Qin, and Yan Wood.

“Bro, let me come get you. Let’s stay in the new house together!”

“Also, I have a Guardian Beast for you!”

Chapter 156 Fang Mu: I am just too poor! (Two in one) _1

Fang Yuan felt as if he had just gone through a brainstorming session.

He had come home to surprise Fang Mu and Fang Qin.

But upon his return, he found out that there was nobody at home, and it had obviously been unoccupied for a long time.

This gave Fang Yuan a big shock, fearing that something might have happened to his family.

But before Fang Yuan had time to worry, he understood everything after seeing an invitation from the Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce.

So many things had happened in a span of just a few minutes, causing Fang Yuan's mind, capable of managing a commerce group, to go into overdrive.

Listening to Fang Mu now, Fang Yuan unconsciously nodded in agreement.

Since childhood, there hasn't been a single request from Fang Mu that Fang Yuan has refused. For this, Fang Yuan often took the blame on behalf of Fang Qin.

But after agreeing, Fang Yuan suddenly had a realization.

Fang Mu said he had a Guardian Beast for him.

At this moment, Fang Yuan felt that whatever he had just said was in vain.

Managing a commerce group with family, that's business.

Business can make money.

Fang Mu is now a disciple of a Grandmaster Creator.

Given Fang Yuan's understanding of Fang Mu, the Guardian Beast that Fang Mu has prepared for him must be very precious.

Giving a precious Guardian Beast to the family, for the Grandmaster Creator behind Fang Mu, it is something without any return.

If Fang Mu has been a disciple of this Grandmaster Creator for three to five years, there might be no problem with Fang Mu doing this.

But on the contrary, Fang Mu has only been a disciple of that Grandmaster Creator for just a few months.

In such a short time, even if the Grandmaster Creator appreciates Fang Mu, it would be difficult to form a deep bond, right?

Just like when Fang Yuan had just become a Golden Glove of the Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce.

Although Tang Xiao appreciated him, he absolutely couldn't do anything against the interests of the Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce.

Otherwise, not only would Tang Xiao not show any mercy, but he would also be greatly disappointed with him.

Since Fang Mu is just coming to pick him up, Fang Yuan plans to talk to him about certain things when he sees Fang Mu.

Fang Mu, having lived two lives, has accumulated more than forty years of age.

Fang Mu did not dare to claim that he had a lot of experience, as his previous life was spent in academia, not in business.

But as for his own elder brother's thoughts, Fang Mu could guess them.

Fang Mu did not make much explanation either.

Once Fang Yuan saw where he was going to live and the furnishings inside the house, he naturally felt at ease.

Of course, he still needed to put on a show for the master whenever necessary.

Otherwise, many high-star creators would refuse to accept resources from him, and Fang Yuan would definitely not accept them.

Strangers and friends alike compete to get resources from him.

But when it comes to family, these resources always come second to him.

This could be considered a sweet and warm dilemma!

Fang Yuan waited at the front door after hanging up the phone.

Usually, Fang Mu would take about ten minutes to get home from the Creator's Guild on a Six-hoofed Yak Car.

Now driven by He Qing on a Stepping Crystal Tamed Deer Cart, it only took about two or three minutes to get to the front door.

From a distance, Fang Mu saw Fang Yuan waiting at the front door.

At first, Fang Yuan didn't pay much attention to the Beast Car driven by He Qing.

A Beast Car drawn by Platinum-ranked Deer Type Beast of Guardianship attached with two Sea Wind Winged Snakes for acceleration and an Inch Bone Soft Snake as reins was considered high-end in JA City.

Although the house where Fang Yuan and the others lived was located in an alley, the alley was a shortcut to the Beast of Guardianship Medical Center.

So, high-end Beast Cars would often pass by their front door.

But soon, a familiar voice echoed in Fang Yuan's ears.

Turning his head, Fang Yuan locked eyes with his brother, Fang Mu, who was peeking out from the carriage.

With a jump, Fang Mu hopped off the Beast Car.

Advancing a step forward, Fang Yuan immediately gave Fang Mu a bear hug.

Adding it up, he hadn't seen Fang Mu for eight months since the end of the year.

Fang Yuan could distinctly feel that Fang Mu had grown taller, and the light in his eyes was more radiant.

But no matter what Fang Mu turned into, he was always the same "little dumpling" with gaps in his teeth in Fang Yuan's heart.

What Fang Yuan was unaware of was that Fang Mu looked at him with more affection than he showed Fang Mu.

There was a nine-year age difference between Fang Mu and Fang Yuan.

When Fang Mu was born, he was a soul in his twenties looking at a “little kid” who was only nine years old.

Fang Yuan was embracing his little brother, and Fang Mu felt like he was embracing his “son”.

Everyone had their own interpretation, and everything was just fine!

The expression of feeling between brothers is more profound and restrained than that between brother and sister.

Sometimes a hug meant saying all the words that needed to be said.

He Qing knew the least about Fang Mu, but both Lu Xiaoyin and She Wan had been with Fang Mu for a long time.

In their impression, Fang Mu was not someone who liked to wear his emotions on his sleeve.

Perhaps only when facing his family would Fang Mu seem more like a teenager!

Lu Xiaoyin, She Wan, and He Qing did not disturb the hug between Fang Mu and Fang Yuan.

Only after Fang Mu and Fang Yuan's hug ended, the three of them stepped forward to greet Fang Yuan respectfully.

Sitting in the Beast Car, Fang Yuan looked at Fang Mu sitting next to him. At this moment, Fang Yuan had a certain understanding of Fang Mu's situation.

Such understanding was not from Fang Mu's narration, but what Fang Yuan felt based on Fang Mu's situation.

Fang Mu specifically mentioned when She Wan was introducing herself to

Fang Yuan, that she was a Hexagram Beastmaster who had a Sequential Beast..

Chapter 157 Fang Mu: I am just too poor! (Two in one)_2

Fang Mu wasn't a person who loved to show off, especially with his family.

Fang Mu only said this to reassure Fang Yuan.

To also let Fang Yuan understand how well he is treated by his teacher.

However, what surprised Fang Yuan was not the strength of She Wan.

After graduating from college, he has always stayed in the Capital, working in the most challenging commerce association.

Fang Yuan, as a member of Golden Gloves, has connected with many important people, so he is very sensitive to the surname "She".

Almost every time he heard the surname "She," he subconsciously thought of the Lu Dushe clan.

Especially after knowing that She Wan was a Hexagram Beastmaster who possessed a sequential Guardian Beast.

After careful observation, Fang Yuan found that the demeanor of She Wan perfectly matched that of a noble lady from an influential family!

Such demeanor can't be nurtured in an ordinary family.

It is said that the current noble lady of the Lu Dushe clan obtained her sequential Guardian Beast at the age of forty or fifty.

This plain clothed alluring beauty is very likely the present noble lady of the Lu Dushe clan!

It makes sense for a Grandmaster Creator to arrange a Hexagram Beastmaster, who possesses a sequential Guardian Beast, to guard his disciple.

But to arrange the current noble lady of the Lu Dushe clan to guard his own disciple, this shows how much he spoils his disciple!

The foot pedals of this Beast Car were inlaid with Breeze Beryl, and the Auspicious Peaceful Cicadas were hung on the four corners of the car, constantly fluttering their wings, making a sound like "peace." The interior of the car was exquisitely decorated, with the mark of a Grandmaster Craftsman seen everywhere.

At this moment, Fang Yuan finally believed what Fang Mu said about how good his teacher was to him.

This also gave Fang Yuan some peace of mind.

Fang Mu noticed the change in Fang Yuan's facial expression and his lips curled into a light smile.

Once they arrived at the manor, Fang Mu knew there was no longer any need to explain much.

Fang Yuan would no longer nag him or give him lectures!

"Brother, You haven't been able to rest properly recently. When we get home, you should take a good rest first." "Then I'll call our elder sister. She should be able to come home tonight."

"At that point, we can all get together!"

Fang Qin had once told Fang Mu that if one day Fang Yuan came home, she would also come back for a reunion.

At that time, Fang Mu only thought it was a casual remark by Fang Qin, who probably had already planned to return home.

Fang Qin just never told him about it.

Fang Yuan rubbed his temples upon hearing this.

After working non-stop for almost half a month, even though he had slept for a day, he wasn't fully-rested yet.

Originally, Fang Yuan should have rested for a few more days before considering going home.

However, as he was impatient to return home, he didn't rest and rushed back straight away.

As a result, he felt spaced out, and his head was a bit swollen.

Too much good news came all at once today, and the biggest worry in Fang Yuan's heart was also resolved.

He felt he should take a good rest now.

Otherwise, with his mind in a constant daze, he won't be able to truly enjoy the joyful time with his family!

"Little Wood, I really should have a sleep when I get home."

"I'll make the call to elder sister. I just happen to want to ask her when she found out!"

Fang Mu smiled at Fang Yuan's words and then seriously said to him.

"Brother, the Mu Commerce Association is our own business, you don't have to work so hard!"

"If your body gives out, the establishment of the Mu Commerce Association will not only be meaningless, but rather, Elder Sister, Third Sister and I would all be upset!"

"You used to always tell me not to stay up too late reading and to rest early."

"I feel the same way towards you now!"

A warm feeling filled Fang Yuan's cold eyes when he heard this.

Fang Yuan placed his hand on Fang Mu's shoulder.

"Little Wood, I have taken your words to heart!"

"Don't worry, from now on, I will make sure to sleep at least six hours or more every day."

"You should take it easy too!"

Since learning that Fang Mu is Jianmu, the tension Fang Yuan had been carrying seemed to finally ease up.

Firstly, Fang Yuan no longer felt the pressure to support the family.

Previously, Fang Yuan had always carried the responsibility of supporting the family.

He was afraid that if he messed something up, Jianmu would see it as a failure on his part, and that he would no longer choose to trust him.

Although he was part of the Golden Gloves of the Jianmu Commerce

Association, his status and honor were completely dependent on Jianmu.

The Golden Gloves could be replaced by someone else with just one word from Jianmu.

Now that Fang Mu has taken over the responsibility of supporting the family, Fang Yuan no longer worries about Fang Qin, Yan Wood and Fang Mu not having enough money to spend or enough resources to enhance their Beast Master's strength.

Secondly, as Fang Mu said, it is their own business, allowing Fang Yuan to have more autonomy in managing the Jianmu Commerce Association.

He won't have to consult with Jianmu on every matter which hampers his performance.

Now, Fang Yuan can finally return to tranquility and re-evaluate his dreams and his role as a Beastmaster.

He has started to consider investing resources to strengthen his Guardian Beast.

When he was very young, he knew that awakening the Destiny Guardian Beast was a remarkable achievement because of the frequent mentions of it by his parents due to Fang Qin's situation.

Therefore, ever since he awakened his Destiny Guardian Beast, Vicious Leopard Demon, Fang Yuan is very confident and looked forward to his career as a Beastmaster.

But as he grew, Fang Yuan deeply understood the dilemma faced by Beast Masters due to a lack of resources..

Chapter 158 Fang Mu: I am just too poor! (Two in one)_3

To fully utilize a creature like the Vicious Leopard Demon, it requires nurturing two Leopard Beasts, and both must be raised as main battle Guardian Beasts in order to unleash the full power of the Vicious Leopard Demon Destiny

Guardian.

Upon understanding this, Fang Yuan found himself feeling a bit disappointed.

In the end, he even chose to abandon his own dreams to make his sister's, brother's, and younger brother's dreams come true.

Now, not only can Fang Yuan reclaim his old dreams, but he also has the ability to make those dreams blossom splendidly.

Fang Yuan wasn't negligent of the fact that Tang Lingxi had feelings for him and had been pursuing him persistently.

However, his own circumstances and the situation of his family prevented Fang Yuan from responding to Tang Lingxi's feelings, even if he did harbor some himself.

To put it bluntly, Fang Yuan didn't want to hold Tang Lingxi back, nor did he want his girlfriend to feel obligated in any way, when providing resources to Fang Qin, Yan Wood, and Fang Mu.

Perhaps now it's not just a time for dreams to bloom, but also a time to explore the realms of romance.

Upon arriving at the manor, Fang Yuan found that the construction team of Fang Mu's manor held almost the same standard as Jianmu Commerce Association's building team.

Both were led by Grandmaster Craftsmen with Master Craftsmen and numerous Mystic Beasts working together.

Currently, these Grandmaster Craftsmen were carving the eaves of the main house, transforming them into crane ready to take flight.

The crane was encircled by a soaring dragon, with a sprinting leopard on the dragon's left side.

Whether it was the crane, the dragon, or the leopard, they were all surrounded by misty clouds, from which a soft rain seemed to fall.

At one glance, Fang Yuan knew that the design on the eaves had to be Fang Mu's unique creation.

It seemed that the rumors about Jianmu on the Battle Network were true Fang Mu indeed had a Silver Stage Half-Elf that could summon rain!

The dragon on the eaves symbolized Fang Qin, the leopard represented himself, and the crane represented Yan Wood.

The soft rain and clouds symbolized Fang Mu.

If these designs weren't carved by Grandmaster Craftsmen, they probably wouldn't carry much aesthetic appeal.

Just like when Fang Yuan named his Beastmaster Web [YuanQinYanMu].

During this period of construction, most of the rooms in the main house have been completed.

The entire main house spanned four floors, with Fang Qin and Yan Wood's rooms situated at the top, and Fang Yuan and Fang Mu sharing a room on the third floor.

Seeing the furniture crafted by Grandmaster Craftsmen positioned within the rooms, Fang Yuan's worries finally dissipated.

If the Grandmaster Creator hadn't genuinely adored Fang Mu, he would never have allowed Fang Mu to live like this.

At the same time, Fang Yuan was beginning to get a sense of what it would be like once the Jianmu Commerce Association was established.

Feeling relieved, Fang Yuan called Fang Qin and promptly fell asleep in his room.

After sending Luo Su a quick message, Fang Qin immediately made his way home.

Unlike his usual routine, Fang Mu didn't spend the afternoon at the Creator's Guild's Soldier-level Crematorium, cleaning up Alien Beast corpses.

Instead, he spent his time in his room, organizing his resources while awaiting Fang Qin's arrival and Fang Yuan's awakening.

After sorting out his resources, Fang Mu looked at the hundred bottles of Creator's Elixirs in his possession and suddenly felt utterly poor!

Because despite having these high-grade Creator resources, Fang Mu had no money!

In many situations, resolving issues with Dragon Rising Coins is much more convenient than using high-grade Creator resources!

Fang Mu couldn't possibly purchase items worth hundreds of thousands of Dragon Rising Coins with a bottle of high-concentration Life Elixir.

Fang Mu needed to figure out how to safely and discreetly exchange his high-grade Creator resources for a large sum of Dragon Rising Coins.

Although once the Jianmu Commerce Association formally opens for business, Fang Mu can use his existing Creator resources to breed a large number of high-end production Guardian Beasts.

The resources produced by these high-end production Guardian Beasts would undoubtedly sell well.

However, even with the Gnomes' effort, the official opening of Jianmu Commerce Association will take at least a month.

As the Red Sleeve of Jianmu Commerce Association, Fang Yuan certainly needs to find a Grandmaster Weaver to custom tailor several suits.

Otherwise, it would seem rather inconsistent for the furnishings of Jianmu Commerce Association to be crafted by Grandmaster Craftsmen, while the Red Sleeve is dressed ordinarily.

Also, Fang Qin and Fang Yuan's daily expenses won't just involve high-grade Creator resources.

Both of them need Dragon Rising Coins to purchase the spiritual materials required for daily use by the Guardian Beasts.

While Fang Mu can obtain various supplies in his capacity as a Scavenger, attempting to exchange these for Dragon Rising Coins could raise suspicion from Feng Lin.

Not to mention Starwheel.

According to the previous conversation with Shui Miao, among the nine people currently occupying the twelve golden seats, eight are not from the Dragon Rising Federation.

Exchanging resources with these people for Dragon Rising Coins would be a joke.

Only exchanges for things like Shadow Eye Stones or hearts of high-level Blood Tribe would make sense.

Even if Fang Mu wanted to exchange his high-grade Creator resources for Dragon Rising Coins with his friends, he would need a valid reason.

The friend Fang Mu has been in contact with the most lately is Lu Yuyu.

Lu Yuyu has always been very dedicated to handling matters for Fang Mu.

During their last call, Lu Yuyu mentioned that he had obtained a channel to compete for the Sacred Relic, Sakura Tempering Carp, on behalf of Fang Mu.

Lu Yuyu feels sincerely sorry that he couldn't be of more help, even though he still owes Fang Mu a favor.

However, when it comes to the foundation of Jianmu Commerce Association, Lu Yuyu was instrumental in connecting Fang Mu with Mountain-opening Construction.

Mountain-opening Construction has had no prior dealings with Fang Mu and thus, does not owe him anything.

Yet, they were willing to provide Fang Yuan with as many as one hundred and fifty pieces of furniture made by Grandmaster Craftsmen.

In return, Fang Mu should offer something to Lu Yuyu and Mountain-opening Construction.

With their significant investment, Mountain-opening Construction must be eagerly awaiting a response from him!

This provided Fang Mu with the perfect excuse to exchange his high-grade Creator resources for Dragon Rising Coins.

After Lu Yuyu mentioned Mountain-opening Construction, Fang Mu took some time to investigate about them.

As a top-tier construction group in Lu City with numerous Grandmaster Craftsmen in their family, they surely are not lacking in cash flow!

Therefore, Mountain-opening Construction has the capacity to absorb the high-grade Creator resources that Fang Mu is ready to supply.

Jianmu Commerce Association had just been established, and covers a wide range of operations.

In order for Jianmu Commerce Association to establish a reputable reputation, the higher the end the resources they sell, the better.

Mountain-opening Construction is an excellent channel for gaining resources crafted by Grandmaster and Master Craftsmen.

Displaying and selling furniture crafted by Master and Grandmaster Craftsmen in the Jianmu Commerce Association can significantly enhance its appeal.

Fang Mu planned to take this opportunity to build a long-term trading channel between the Jianmu Commerce Association and Mountain-opening Construction..

Chapter 159 I still have two senior brothers! (Two in one)_I

High-star Creator resources are the hardest to obtain in the world of Beast Masters.

Fang Mu is essentially standing at the very top of the resource chain.

Which makes both the Spirit-smithing Master resources and craftsman resources seem very cheap to Fang Mu.

But in reality, for other factions, whether it's high-star Spirit-smithing resources or high-star craftsman resources, it's something they could not necessarily get even if they pleaded for them!

Every piece of Master-level and Grandmaster-Level Artisan Furniture stored in Mountain-opening Construction is the pinnacle product of craftsmanship.

If they don't offer resources that are more valuable than Grandmaster

Craftsman resources in exchange for Mountain-opening Construction...

Mountain-opening Construction would never let go of these resources that represent the financial power of the family.

However, Fang Mu is fully confident about convincing the people from Mountain-opening Construction to cooperate eagerly with him.

Fang Mu immediately dialed Lu Yuyu's number.

The call was quickly answered by Lu Yuyu.

From the other end of the phone, Fang Mu heard a series of booming sounds, as if the earth was shaking.

Lu Yuyu on the other end of the phone yelled out.

"Bro, I'm supervising construction at the Mu Commerce Association!"

"Now the Ground-shaking Elephant is levelling the ground, wait a few minutes for me to find a quieter place and I'll call you back!"

"Otherwise I can't hear your voice!"

After speaking, Lu Yuyu pressed the mute button, but did not choose to hang up the call.

Instead, he left the decision to hang up the call to Fang Mu.

Fang Mu was a little surprised upon hearing this.

The young generation of Keystone Construction is not many, and Lu Yuyu can basically be considered as the junior family head of Keystone Construction.

After obtaining Grandmaster Craftsman resources for the family with Lu

Yuyu's help, there's absolutely no need for him to stick around for supervision.

As an externally dispatched executor of the Beastmaster Alliance, Lu Yuyu has plenty of things to keep him busy!

Fang Mu, who had just hung up the phone, poured a glass of water. Before he could finish the water in the glass, Lu Yuyu's call came again. "Bro, the noise here isn't as loud now, you can tell me anything you need!"

"I'm really sorry that I couldn't help with the Sakura Tempering Carp supply route!"

These words from Lu Yuyu were very sincere.

In this period of time, while Lu Yuyu was feeling relaxed, he also felt immense guilt.

After all, he had promised Fang Mu a lot and yet failed to deliver, making himself look like a person who doesn't keep his word!

Fang Mu chuckled when he heard Lu Yuyu's words.

"Brother Lv, it's inevitable that the supply route would be hard to get with so many competitors."

"What's there for me to fret about!?"

"You don't need to worry about it!"

"My brother recently went home and told me that Mountain-opening Construction had given a lot of craftsman resources?"

Hearing Fang Mu's words, all Lu Yuyu wanted to say was that Fang Mu was really a meticulous person!

Because Mountain-opening Construction was brought over to help by him, Lu Yuyu had not disclosed this matter to Fang Mu.

For an average person, even when they hear about this matter, they generally won't talk about it, after all, it's not like they'd demanded the help in the first place.

But after Fang Mu heard about it from his second brother, he proactively called him up.

Although Fang Mu didn't mention his purpose, Lu Yuyu got the hint quickly.

Fang Mu wanted to offer a corresponding reward to Mountain-opening Construction.

Lu Yuyu quickly responded.

"Bro, you've already provided me with a considerable amount of Creator resources, and all these resources have brought tremendous benefits to my entire Lu family."

"I'll take care of the compensation for Mountain-opening Construction, you don't need to intervene!"

"I couldn't even help with the Sacred Relic Sakura Tempering Carp supply route, if you don't give me another chance to express myself, I'll really have no face to meet people!"

Upon hearing Lu Yuyu's words, Fang Mu narrowed his eyes.

Lu Yuyu was doing well in everything, but acting this way was just thoughtless!

If I don't get involved with Mountain-opening Construction, how am I going to find a perfect reason to trade high-star Creator resources for supplies!? "Let's keep things separate, Brother Lv, I'm sure there will be other things I need your help with in the future."

"Once the Mu Commerce Association is established, I hope that if your Lu family has any Master-level or Grandmaster-level furniture for sale, you can give the consignment opportunity to the Mu Commerce Association!"

Now, Lu Yuyu is touched and grateful towards Fang Mu.

Given Lu Yuyu's current state, he would agree to anything Fang Mu asked of him.

Moreover, what Fang Mu suggested essentially gave Keystone Construction the chance to be thoroughly associated with the Mu Commerce Association.

Even if Lu Yuyu was bent out of shape, he wouldn't reject it!

If he really refused this opportunity, once the elders of the family found out, they would certainly kick him out without considering the potential extinction of the Lu family line!

Lu Yuyu also guessed Fang Mu's intention of seeking out Mountain-opening Construction.

Most likely, Fang Mu hopes to obtain the authorization of Mountain-opening Construction after the Mu Commerce Association is officially established.

"Bro, I have you on QWeChat."

"Why don't I make a group chat and pull you, the person in charge from Mountain-opening Construction, and Ah Su all into it."

Fang Mu chuckled softly, this was the sensible Lu Yuyu!

"Okay, Brother Lv, thanks!"

"We'll talk on the group voice call if there's anything later."

After finishing speaking, Fang Mu hung up the call.

Soon, a prompt popped up on Fang Mu's QWeChat, stating that he was added to a group chat.

As soon as Fang Mu opened the group chat, he saw a person with the QWeChat name [Always Silent] greet him right away..

Chapter 160 I still have two senior brothers! (Two in one)_2

[Always Silent]:Greetings Sir Jianmu!

For some reason, when he saw the name [Always Silent], a melody started playing in Fang Mu's mind.

"My love for you is always silent, in exchange for your occasional concern.

Clearly a movie fit for three, yet I never get a name."

Upon this, Fang Mu hurriedly shook his head, feeling that he was thinking too much!

The avatars of Lu Yuyu and Luo Su were a couple's avatars, which were very recognizable.

So, this person named [Always Silent] must be the person in charge of Mountain Opening Construction, and also his main trading target from now on.

[Lu Yuyu]: Bro, this is Lin ZiYuan, the head of Mountain Opening Construction, and also my good buddy!

[Lu Yuyu]: When I was out calling you, he was helping oversee work at the Jianmu Commerce Association!

After Lu Yuyu actively introduced Lin Ziyuan, he tried to sell a good introduction to Fang Mu.

As Lin Ziyuan's brother, Lu Yuyu really hoped to promote the cooperation between Mountain Opening Construction and Fang Mu.

Of course, this premise is that both parties can benefit from it.

Otherwise, if either party suffers a loss, Lu Yuyu will feel uncomfortable about

It was at this time that Fang Mu noticed that Lu Yuyu had already transferred the group owner to him.

Fang Mu immediately started the group voice chat, which was much more efficient than typing!

Soon, Lu Yuyu and Lin Ziyuan were connected via voice chat.

As soon as they connected, Lu Yuyu explained.

“Bro, Ah Su has several meetings on her side, and I just finished communicating with her an hour ago.”

“Estimate it will take at least three to four hours for the meeting to end.” Fang Mu responded quickly.

“I don’t have anything urgent either, I just heard from my brother that Mountain Opening Construction has been very helpful.”

“I don’t like to owe favors in my life, so I wanted to give Mountain Opening Construction a chance.”

“Can Mountain Opening accept the challenge?”

Upon hearing Fang Mu’s voice, Lin Ziyuan was surprised.

Although he had always heard Lu Yuyu say that Jianmu is a young man, Lin Ziyuan did not expect Jianmu’s voice to sound so young!

Looks like he is about sixteen or seventeen!

A person at this age has already owned the resources of a Grandmaster Creator and is willing to trade them.

Such people can be described as nobles of the heavens.

Mountain Opening Construction has brought out so much Grandmaster Craftsman resources and even gave up two major projects for this.

This is to build a good relationship with Jianmu and obtain some high-star master resources.

Even if they only obtain a tiny bit of Grandmaster Creator's resources, it is worth the investment for Mountain Opening Construction!

"Sir Jianmu, no matter what it takes, we at Mountain Opening Construction will embrace the opportunity you give us!"

Lin Ziyuan spoke firmly and decisively, not questioning what opportunities Fang Mu was giving.

He showed an attitude of trust and deference.

Fang Mu purposely raised his voice, adding a touch of teenage spirit and pride to it.

“Recently, my study has improved, and my master rewarded me with some Master Creator-level resources!”

“Then I asked my master for some Grandmaster-level resources, and as a result, my master gave me five freshly blended Life Elixirs.”

Fang Mu hates show-offs, but this way of speaking and doing things undoubtedly suits a teenager’s temperament.

Hearing Fang Mu’s words, not only did Lin Ziyuan’s breathing become rapid, but so did Lu Yuyu’s.

He actually gave out five bottles of Grandmaster Founding Level Life Elixirs at once!

What kind of god-like master is this, so generous to his disciple!

Before, Lu Yuyu always felt that Fang Mu’s master regarded Fang Mu as his pupil.

Now it seems that this pupil is not just an eye but a treasure of the heart!

One can still live without an eye, but certainly die without a heart!

Lin Ziyuan was meeting Fang Mu for the first time and hadn't had any private dealings with him before.

The reason why Lin Ziyuan showed such humility and propriety was naturally for the Creator resources in Fang Mu's hands.

Fang Mu's current display of power raised Lin Ziyuan's rating of Fang Mu higher than Lu Du Gao Clan in his heart!

The Lu Du Gao Clan was the power that Mountain Opening Construction had always relied on.

However, hearing what Fang Mu had said, Lin Ziyuan didn't dare to follow up.

Because he really didn't know how to respond to such a remark.

If he seemed too excited, he would appear greedy.

But if he seemed too bland, it would be as if he didn't value high-starlevel master resources!

While Lin Ziyuan was weighing the options, he heard Fang Mu say.

“If Mountain Opening Construction is willing to assign all produced high-star craftsman resources to the Jianmu Commerce Association for sale.”

“I can sell you these five Life Elixirs with a purity of 90% for two hundred million Dragon Rising Coins per bottle!”

Upon hearing Fang Mu’s words, Lin Ziyuan hurriedly responded.

“Not a problem!”

“So far, we at Mountain Opening Construction have not had a partner in terms of high-star craftsman resources.”

“After your brother makes his formal business in the Jianmu Commerce Association and has chosen a hundred and fifty pieces of furniture, the rest will all be displayed for sale at the Jianmu Commerce Association.”

Lin Ziyuan seemed anxious, as if he was afraid that Fang Mu would change his mind.

Generally, in discussions of cooperation and negotiations, the worst thing to do is to show your desire eagerly.

Because doing so puts that side in a disadvantaged position in the negotiation..
