

Beast Tamer 201

Chapter 201: 'Jianmu Blow' and Everyone Stay! (Two in One) _1

Blood Knights, these heavy artillery-level beasts who have always dominated in battles against Gold-Stage Guardian Beasts.

Only those excellently nurtured Gold -Stage paramount Guardian Beasts can fight against a Blood Knight on the battlefield.

The power of the Blood Noble equals to that of the Blood Knight.

Yet, the bloodline of the Blood Noble is more noble than that of a Blood Knight.

The use of blood abilities surpasses that of a Blood Knight.

Since the Blood Noble in mid-air is created by Rainy Doll using the Skill Water Spirit Conversion, it doesn't fear the toxins covering the Thunder Horn Rhinoceros.

In addition to robust close combat abilities, after transforming into a Blood Noble through Water Spirit Conversion, a portion of blood ability instincts are retained.

Concentrated blood encases the long horn of the Thunder Horn Rhinoceros under the effect of blood abilities.

Viscous blood forms a gorgeous shape, just like the magnificent dark red gemstone inlaid on a rhinoceros's horn.

The horn became an art piece.

The Blood Noble, on par with gold stage paramount Guardian Beasts in terms of power, exudes incredible strength.

Grabbing the long horn of the Thunder Horn Rhinoceros, it viciously slammed the almost dilapidated body of the rhino onto the ground far from Fang Mu.

The sound of bone shattering echoed across the almost silent Duel Arena.

The body of the Thunder Horn Rhinoceros shattered on one side, leaving cracks in its solid skeleton.

Toxins successfully invaded the marrow of the Thunder Horn Rhinoceros.

Normally, with the White Plum Healing Deer's expended healing power unable to treat it, the Thunder Horn Rhinoceros wouldn't have been able to stand up.

Its fate would have been to dissolve into dense water on the ground, letting fungus bloom.

However, the Blood Noble that Rainy Doll transformed into didn't allow the Thunder Horn Rhinoceros to die peacefully.

Instead, it held the long horn again, hammering the now defenseless Thunder Horn Rhinoceros in a victorious manner.

Then, it grabbed the remaining head of the Thunder Horn Rhinoceros charging towards the terrified Huan Wang and the feeble White Plum Healing Deer.

The huge head became Rainy Doll's weapon.

Rainy Doll didn't choose whether to kill Huan Wang or the White Plum Healing Deer first.

Instead "gently" eliminated both with one strike of the rhinoceros head.

From Rainy Doll transforming into a Blood Noble, to dealing with the Thunder Horn Rhinoceros, White Plum Healing Deer, and Huan Wang, it only took seventeen seconds.

For these seventeen seconds, Huan Wang's live stream was silent.

Everyone was stunned by this unexpected turn and the violence in the fight!

Two minutes after Jianmu won and left the Duel Arena, an explosive amount of messages started pouring into Huan Wang's stream.

[Let Love Die]: Jianmu is so awesome! This silver-stage half-elf actually killed two gold-stage Guardian Beasts!

[Tan Ming Yue]: I'm dumbfounded! These aren't just two ordinary gold stage Guardian Beasts! They're two Guardian Beasts of perfect quality nurtured with superior resources!

[Limited by Poverty]: I'm laughing and crying, you're telling me this is a bronze-to-silver promotion match? Even skipping a rank isn't this outrageous, right!?

[Passer-by Guo]: Very satisfactory! I've decided to ship Jianmu and Young Huan! There should be a chance for such long-standing enemies to meet again, right!?

[Want to Hide]: Ship hell! Huanzi can no longer match Jianmu! Just based on Jianmu's silver-stage half-elf transformation into a Blood Noble, it's enough to hold its ground in the Gold Rank! Which Guardian Beast under Platinum could be a match for the Blood Noble?

Messages were rapidly scrolling in the stream. Despite Huan Wang's live stream, very few mention him.

Even if people mentioned Huan Wang's name, he was dismissed as a minor side character.

This kind of side character seems destined to be overshadowed by the protagonist, with no presence at all!

Huan Wang's mentality collapsed after the failure, almost completely closing down the stream and leaving the Battle Network.

Where did this nemesis Jianmu come from, and why does he have a grudge against him!?!

If he hadn't run into Jianmu, he would still be making money in the age group zone right now!

Selling one or two platinum spiritual instruments and several gold spiritual instruments every day, not counting the gifts rewarded in the stream, he would've been rolling in the money from the commissions! As a result of Jianmu's emergence, everything was ruined!

Yet, Huan Wang only dared to complain in his heart.

If he dared to lose control in the stream, rumors about him being a sore loser would immediately spread.

A Battle Network streamer can lose, but they must never be meek!

This is an unspoken rule among streamers.

The only outcome if it's violated is to be eliminated from the circle.

Even if Huan Wang is good at streaming, he didn't know what else he could say this time.

He was originally planning to win consecutive victories, making the wealthy fans in the stream reward him with more gifts.

The result was that he couldn't even achieve five consecutive victories and was interrupted by Jianmu who appeared out of nowhere.

However, after reflecting on the battle, Huan Wang felt he gave it his all.

Aside from his arrogance at the beginning, he held nothing back from start to end.

It wasn't him who was weak, but the opponent was too strong!

Huan Wang believed that anyone else in the Silver Segment would not have fared well against Jianmu.

It took Liu Tiantian a while to regain her senses.

Liu Tiantian knew, many people would have recorded the confrontation between Jianmu and Huan Wang.

Huan Wang's live stream also had a combat replay.

But these videos and recordings would probably disappear from the Battle Network by tomorrow..

Chapter 202: "Jianmu Blow" and Everyone Stay! (Two in One) _2

Liu Tiantian thought she had witnessed Jianmu's limits, but it turned out that what she considered the limit was only the starting point for Jianmu, the Silver Stage Half-Elf.

If Jianmu's Half-Elf indeed reached Legendary Quality as Mr. Tan Chen mentioned,

Then in this battle, Fang Mu's Silver Stage Half-Elf surely has other hidden cards not yet revealed!

Faced with a mystery at such heights, anyone with a bit of curiosity would yearn to unravel it.

Liu Tiantian has never had a good impression of Huan Wang.

But now, Liu Tiantian suddenly felt somewhat sorry for Huan Wang.

Given any other opponent, the two Gold Stage Guardian Beasts could easily ensure Huan Wang's rampage in the Silver Ranks!

The winds about Jianmu on the Battle Network have never ceased, and this night, they blew even stronger.

Even without video footage, the word spread rapidly from mouth to mouth.

Huan Wang thought he had lost all opportunities to make a comeback.

But during the live broadcast the next day, Huan Wang suddenly found himself with a new title, "Unlucky Guy".

It's hard to acquire a title on the Battle Network unless one is truly a top-notch player.

While inadvertently obtaining a title, the number of visitors in his streaming room actually increased rather than decreased.

What's more, his popularity was no less than when he was pretending to be a rich boy in the age-restricted area!

This discovery surprised Huan Wang and filled his heart with unexpected joy.

Huan Wang realized that, having encountered Jianmu twice, he was now riding the wind and about to take off with Jianmu's popularity!

Huan Wang changed his approach and didn't immediately start another battle like before.

Instead, he began to talk about his battles with Jianmu from his perspective as one of the parties involved.

Jianmu was exceptionally mysterious on the Battle Network.

Having fought twice with Jianmu, who better than him to talk about Jianmu?

Jianmu was a major figure he couldn't afford to offend, but surely complimenting him was safe!

No one had ever heard of someone committing an offense by singing praises.

Besides, the current trend was all about praising Jianmu.

As long as he rode this wave, he could probably fly even higher!

Therefore, Huan Wang, who was the most hostile towards Jianmu, unexpectedly became the biggest “Jianmu Fan” on the Battle Network.

Fang Mu was totally oblivious to all this.

Ever since Fang Yuan discovered Fang Mu was battling on the Battle Network, he started paying close attention to Fang Mu’s activity there.

Whenever he had spare time, he would silently watch Jianmu’s battles as an older brother.

Fang Yuan suddenly thought, Fang Mu must have paid such attention to him when he was fishing in the Beastmaster Web!

Fang Yuan didn’t say much but considered Fang Mu’s health.

He indirectly advised Fang Mu to get plenty of sleep and not to stay up late.

Completely unaware that from his own habitual late nights and intense work, he had no position to give such advice.

The She Family from Lu City especially dispatched four strongmen when they came to escort the Leopard Beast.

Two of them were high-ranking members of the Lu Dushe clan, each with significant influence.

These high-level individuals rarely leave Lu City as they are usually representing the Lu Dushe clan in various gatherings.

Their arrival here clearly indicated the She Family's emphasis on Fang Mu.

Otherwise, the Leopard Beasts could have been transported in a platinum Space Spirit Tool by a single strongman.

Because Fang Mu told She Wan to fully oversee the coordination with her family,

She Wan specifically requested her father keep things simple.

At most, send two people to escort the Guardian Beasts and not to linger around too much after delivery.

But She Wan did not expect her father to ignore her advice and choose a short-sighted approach.

There's nothing wrong with this approach, it's the same one used by the Lu Family for Keystone Construction.

There wouldn't have been any problem with this approach if Fang Mu hadn't reminded her.

But now that Fang Mu has warned her, her father's continued actions are undermining her efforts.

It highlights her inability to manage matters and casts doubt on her ability to liaise between Fang Mu and her family.

This is why She Wan is extremely displeased with her father, She Ruan!

If Fang Mu were not next to her, She Wan's scowling face would undoubtedly be glaring at the sky!

Seeing her father trying to strike up a conversation with Fang Mu, She Wan quickly stepped in to introduce him first.

“This is She Ruan, number two in the She Family hierarchy.”

“This is She Long, who ranks fifth in the She Family.”

“The other two are high-ranking experts sponsored by the She Family.”

“Young Master, let’s take a look at the Leopard Beasts first!”

During her speech, She Wan repeatedly threw significant glances at her father,

She Ruan, indicating he should keep his words concise.

She Ruan is a very clever man; his presence here wasn’t entirely due to ignoring She Wan’s advice.

He strongly felt that if the She Family did not send significant figures to personally escort over the Leopard Beasts, it would appear as if the She Family was not taking Jianmu seriously.

Seeing how strait-laced She Wan was in introducing him, even avoiding mentioning their relationship,

She Ruan understood that his actions had upset his daughter.

He might even have caused her trouble.

The Lu Dushe clan could frequently contact Master Creators, who were notoriously temperamental.

Their disciples and assistants behaved arrogantly, looking down their noses at others.

Therefore, She Ruan dares not speak further, fearing it would backfire.

Now that his daughter had become someone else's guard, had he upset Jianmu..

Chapter 203: "Jianmu Blow" and Everyone Stay! (Two in One) _3

The one who suffered wasn't someone else, it was Xiao Wan!

Upon hearing She Wan's introduction, Fang Mu subconsciously raised his eyebrows.

She Wan was a noble lady of the She family, and the fact that these two people had such a high rank among the family's influencers most likely meant that they were blood relatives of She Wan.

Fang Mu politely nodded at the two of them, but he did not say much.

He chose to make She Wan the bridge between him and the She Family in Lu City precisely because he didn't want to deal with trouble.

The more he learned about the situation of the Grandmaster Creator, the more Fang Mu felt that there was a problem with the way he had pretended to be the Grandmaster Creator's disciple in the past!

It's not that his acting was bad, but rather that he chose the wrong script.

The disciples of the Grandmaster Creator should be arrogant.

Even when they appear humble and polite, extreme confidence and superiority should underlie such manners.

If one only shows humility and politeness, behaving according to one's character in interpersonal relationships,

It would arouse doubt instead.

Currently, Fang Mu was starting to adopt and calibrate this inherent arrogance and superiority.

Practicing in front of a mirror has yielded early results.

Now, Fang Mu carried himself with the arrogance and superiority that underlay his politeness.

“Hmm, bring out all the leopard beasts!”

Fang Mu spoke gently, but his tone was distant.

However, when he turned his head to address Fang Yuan, he completely morphed into a teenager talking to his family.

“Second brother, carefully choose from these leopard beasts!”

“Ever since I mentioned this to Master last time, he has asked me once about what kind of resources you need to cultivate these leopard beasts!”

“You have not chosen yet, so I had no choice but to delay things on Master’s end.”

This was the last time Fang Mu would attempt to impress Fang Yuan, showing off his position by the side of the Qixing Grandmaster.

Hopefully, Fang Yuan would not feel burdened when using the resources Fang Mu provided for him in the future.

Besides, Fang Mu also acted this way to flex his muscles in front of She Ruan and She Long.

Flexing could make others take him more seriously.

After all, it doesn't cost anything to flex, why not flaunt it every now and then!?

If he could trade with the She Family in Lu City, or achieve cooperation on certain matters,

It would only benefit him and not harm him.

The She Family in Lu City was even larger than the Base Stone Jianmu, Origin Construction, and Mountain Opening Construction combined.

The Zhao Family in Lu City and the She Family in Lu City were both part of the Lu City Five Clans.

The Mountain Opening Construction was nothing more than a decent subordinate force under the control of the Zhao Family in Lu City.

Fang Yuan smiled and nodded when he heard Fang Mu's words.

On the other side, She Ruan personally took the platinum storage spiritual instrument from She Long's hands and took out five cages from it.

Each of the five cages contained elegant leopards of different appearances, colors, and sizes.

The She Family in Lu City had numerous leopard beasts.

The She Family was, after all, a power that specialized in cultivating beast familiars.

The leopard beasts, which were precious and rare in the eyes of others, were merely one of the resources that the She family in Lu City could produce daily.

High-end guardian beasts are the most valuable treasures in the guardian beast world.

High-end guardian beasts come in various grades.

To distinguish the value of high-end guardian beasts, the She Family in Lu has its own system for classifying the levels of guardian beasts.

The five leopard beasts brought this time were the only five that the She Family in Lu City had classified as S-rank.

She Ruan had considered bringing over all seventy-plus A-rank and S-rank leopard beasts.

However, when those A-rank leopard beasts were compared with the S-rank ones, they were instantly overshadowed.

Rather than having it all, it's better to have all treasures.

Just one glance was enough to show Jianmu the She Family's sincerity.

The current task is to select Guardian Beasts for Fang Yuan, it can be said that the person most excited about these five Leopard Beasts is none other than Fang Yuan himself.

Fang Yuan just glanced at the five Leopard Beasts and was immediately stunned.

Fang Mu used the Eye of Omniscience to investigate these five Leopard Beasts.

[Wind Shadow Leopard][Blood Claw Leopard][Musk Red-back Leopard][Wind-stepping Swift Leopard][Mad Cloud Leopard].

Each of these five Leopard Beasts has their own unique skills and traits.

The quality of the five Leopard Beasts has been upgraded to Epic Quality, and they can choose from one skill and two exclusive traits.

This is an opportunity many Beast Masters dream of!

Fang Mu could distinctly feel that Fang Yuan had entered a state of indecision.

Not to mention Fang Yuan being in a quandary, even Fang Mu himself was exceptionally conflicted internally.

If his own Destiny Guardian Beast were a Vicious Leopard Demon, and he were faced with this situation to make a selection,

He wouldn't even know which two to choose for a contract.

Seeing Fang Yuan had hesitated for a full minute without making a decision,

Fang Mu thought about how Fang Yuan's Destiny Guardian Beast, the Vicious Leopard Demon, was continually increasing its power and would enhance its ability to reduce the spiritual power needed for beast contracts.

Contracting with four Leopard Beasts was not Fang Yuan's limit. Without another thought, Fang Mu turned to She Wan and said,

"Keep all five of these Leopard Beasts!"

These Leopard Beasts were brought out by She Ruan. Normally, Fang Mu should communicate directly with She Ruan.

Yet, Fang Mu ignored She Ruan and clearly portrayed his intent to let She Wan communicate with the She Family.

Seeing Fang Mu's reaction, both She Ruan and She Long muttered to themselves,

They were lucky She Wan had reminded them not to speak rashly earlier. Otherwise, it would have been embarrassing!

Although She Wan is a noble lady of the She Family, she would marry one day.

As a result, the She Family's attention to She Wan is dwindling day by day.

Even She Ruan's attitude towards She Wan was the same.

But now, She Wan held a connection to a Grandmaster Creator, and this Grandmaster Creator did not wish to communicate with the She Family.

She Wan became the only bridge between the two parties.

At this year's family gathering, She Wan would likely be directly invited to join the elder council.

The She Family hadn't had an elder under the age of fifty for nearly a hundred years.

Fang Mu's attitude at this moment brought great surprise to She Wan.

If she told the family that Jianmu only wanted to communicate with her, they might suspect her of ulterior motives.

They might think she was unwilling to assist the family, or even manipulating them.

But now that Fang Mu had said this out loud, the family had no choice but to believe it.

Being Jianmu's retainer not only provided access to high-ranking Creator resources, but also significantly elevated her position within the family.

This was all happening shortly after she became Jianmu's Guard.

She Wan composed herself. At this point, she fully considered herself Fang Mu's Guard.

From the perspective of Fang Mu's guard, she spoke to She Ruan.

"Our young master wants all five of these Leopard Beasts. I wonder what is the ideal price your She Family has in mind?"

She Wan's words made She Ruan increasingly uncomfortable.

What did she mean by 'your She Family'?

It's as if she weren't part of the She Family herself!

Chapter 204: The Great Opportunity of the Vermilion Sun Crane! (Two-in-one)_I

It is quite ordinary for a woman born into a noble family to devote her life to striving for the family.

This was the first time She Ruan felt the sensation of her daughter extending her loyalties beyond the family.

Since She Ruan had brought these five leopard beasts, ranked as S-rank within the She Family, this meant she was willing to sell them all!

Otherwise, She Ruan would not have brought them with her.

At such levels, she might have considered these Guardian Beast resources for trading with other forces.

However, if these resources could build a good relationship with a disciple of the Grandmaster Creator, then no amount would be too much!

A power whose main function is cultivating guardian beasts is most in need of master creators.

Up to this point, the She Family only has access to Master Creator level resources.

The Lu Du Five Families have been competing in Lu City for hundreds of years, and each family is striving to rise above the other four.

If the She Family could obtain Grandmaster Creator resources, it would theoretically have the qualifications to surpass the other four families.

So now that Fang Mu plans to take all five, She Ruan will definitely agree without hesitation!

However, She Ruan is unsure about what price would be appropriate.

As She Ruan was struggling with this, she saw a hint from her daughter, She Wan.

She Wan blinked at She Ruan lightly, then looked at She Long's bald head.

There was a tacit understanding between She Ruan and She Wan, and She Ruan immediately understood what She Wan meant.

She Ruan took a deep breath and spoke to Fang Mu in a very respectful tone.

"Sir Jianmu, it is an honor for these five leopard beasts that you are willing to welcome them!"

“If you don’t mind, our She Family will give you these five leopard beasts as a gift! ”

She Ruan spoke very calmly.

If these five leopard beasts of this calibre were to be auctioned off in a trading conference, it would cost at least two hundred million Dragon Rising Coins.

Using resources worth two hundred million Dragon Rising Coins to befriend a disciple of a Grandmaster Creator was a great bargain.

Even if it did not work out, there would be no loss!

At least they would know that this disciple of the Grandmaster Creator could not be befriended, thereby saving future investment losses.

She Wan was very satisfied with her father’s performance.

She Wan knew that Fang Mu was not the kind of person who liked to take advantage of others!

To establish cooperation between the She Family and Fang Mu, actions were needed, not just her contribution!

She Wan had personally seen how Keystone Construction, Origin Construction, and Mountain Opening Construction made huge profits in their dealings with Fang Mu.

In addition to She Wan being a member of the Starwheel, she had kept her membership a secret from her family.

This was She Wan's own opportunity!

Though she couldn't talk to the seniors due to her position as a member of the North-South Sky Constellation Chair during meetings, she could still know the content of the Starwheel meetings.

Fang Mu had attended the Starwheel meeting on behalf of his master, emphasizing equal benefits multiple times.

This explained the principles of the Grandmaster Creator behind Fang Mu.

She Wan had spent some time with Fang Mu.

Upon careful consideration, she realized that Fang Mu also adhered to such principles.

That's why she hinted to her father to say so.

The She family did not know about She Wan's participation in Starwheel, therefore they didn't know that She Wan's soul was under the control of Jianmu.

They thought that it was by mere coincidence that she had established a relationship with Jianmu.

If she really acted against the interests of the family, it would be hard for She Wan to explain to the others.

Fang Mu remained indifferent upon hearing She Ruan's words.

Because Fang Mu knew why She Ruan did so.

However, this was the first time Fang Yuan had seen Fang Mu dealing with other powerful forces, and he was totally unprepared for the current situation.

She Ruan's actions were completely one-sided pleasing.

The second-in-command of Lu Du's She Family came in person and humbled himself in this way.

If Fang Yuan hadn't witnessed this with his own eyes, he would have had a hard time believing it.

Fang Yuan simply loved these five leopard beasts!

Fang Yuan could even feel the excitement and trembling coming from his own Destiny Guardian Beast, the Vicious Leopard Demon.

The Wind Shadow Leopard is as swift as the wind, capable of camouflaging itself in the darkness.

As a Guardian Beast of the wind and darkness system, the Wind Shadow Leopard is like an elegant and dexterous assassin.

The Wind-stepping Swift Leopard and the Wind Shadow Leopard are like a pair of sisters.

The Wind-stepping Swift Leopard is a pure Wind System Guardian Beast, and although it doesn't have as many attack abilities as the Wind Shadow Leopard, it takes speed to the extreme.

In an academic paper written by several Senior Creators, they evaluated the speed of Platinum-tier Guardian Beasts.

In the end, only a hundred Guardian Beasts of different kinds made the list.

The Wind-stepping Swift Leopard is on this list.

Moreover, the Wind-stepping Swift Leopard is not like some other Guardian Beasts on the list that only have speed.

Wind-stepping Swift Leopard also has a respectable combat power.

The Blood Claw Leopard is no bigger than a regular housecat, with orange and dark brown stripes on its body.

Its appearance is even better than some pet guardian beasts.

Its feet had four claws larger than its own head, looking like four plump red dragon fruits.

Once it launches an attack, the four red claws of the Blood Claw Leopard can burst forth with immense lethality.

It is one of the few guardian beasts that can fight higher ranks with regular attacks.

The Musk Red-back Leopard is one of the few healing series leopard beasts in the group of guardian beasts..

Chapter 205: The Great Opportunity of the Vermilion Sun Crane! (Two-in-one)_2

The Musk Red-Backed Leopard Musk has a healing effect on external injuries and a calming effect on the mind.

It can potentially calm down a Guardian Beast which has just exhibited furious abilities and bring it back to a normal state.

Among these five leopard beasts, the Mad Cloud Leopard is the weakest in power before reaching the platinum level.

However, the Mad Cloud Leopard possesses strong potential in its bloodline, comparable to the Extreme Electric Cloud Leopard that Fang Mu now controls.

If the Wind-stepping Swift Leopard and the Wind Shadow Leopard rely on the wind element to enhance their speed,

Then the Mad Cloud Leopard utilizes the wind element to deal high damage, taking the cutting effect of wind element to the extreme.

The Mad Cloud Leopard is also a Guardian Beast that possesses large scale damage capability.

What Fang Yuan lacks most at the moment is wide range large scale offense.

The Mad Cloud Leopard fills this gap for Fang Yuan.

It is because these five leopard beasts would all fit well with Fang Yuan, a highly decisive person, that hesitating.

Fang Yuan hadn't expected that after only thinking for one minute, Fang Mu would generously get all five leopard beasts for him outright.

When Fang Qin spoke to Fang Yuan over the phone, she mentioned more than once that she felt loved by Fang Mu.

Fang Yuan thought that Fang Qin must have a serious lack of security, and nobody was always there for her to rely on.

That's why Fang Yuan encouraged Fang Qin to find a partner in the Jinghai Army.

Now Fang Yuan understood he was wrong. There was no problem with Fang Qin feeling that way.

Fang Qin's feelings didn't arise because she didn't have a partner.

Because Fang Yuan also felt cared for by Fang Mu at this time.

This feeling is a bit like a doting father...

Pah! It's more like a caring brother!

The She Family showed such sincere intentions of befriending Fang Mu, so Fang Mu chose not to exploit them.

Fang Mu knew what She Family truly wanted now.

What the She Family wanted most was the high-purity life potion that only a Grandmaster Creator could produce.

Since the She Family had shown enough sincerity.

Furthermore, if the She Family hadn't treasured these five top-quality leopard beasts.

Fang Mu wouldn't know how much time it would take for him to collect them for Fang Yuan outside.

Since the She Family had helped his second brother, Fang Mu was willing to return the favor.

At the same time, it was to truly win over the She Family!

“The thing I hate most is to take advantage of others.”

“I have a bottle of life elixir with a purity of ninety percent here, I will give it to She Wan later.”

“I think She Wan has great potential, and I believe your She Family thinks so too.”

“When the time comes for this ninety-percent purity life elixir to be distributed, the Sheman family will decide for themselves!”

At this point, rather than wanting to hammer the concept of equivalent exchange into the She family’s minds,

Fang Mu mainly wanted the She Family to know that trading with him would be profitable.

Just show more of the good stuff at the bottom of your family box in front of me!

However, Fang Mu himself felt a bit out of place when he said “The thing I hate most is to take advantage of others”.

Because only those who really love to take advantage of others would say such things all the time.

She Wan and She Ruan were shocked when they heard Fang Mu’s words.

Both of them caught the meaning in his words.

She Wan did not expect Fang Mu to be so lavish on his first transaction with the She Family.

A life elixir with ninety percent purity fetches a market price of two hundred million.

For such an item, even if it were priced at three hundred million, there would still be many forces scrambling to buy it.

Fang Mu had given the She Family a huge bargain!

She Wan knew beyond the hidden meaning in Fang Mu’s words when he deliberately mentioned her,

Fang Mu hoped that the She Family would invest the resources of the high-grade Creator obtained into her.

She Wan was naturally very willing to do so.

Fang Mu already has the resources of the high-grade Creator to reward her, and if she can get resources from the family as well.

After consuming both resources, her own strength would increase drastically.

In some way, this could be considered as Fang Mu's favor for her.

At the same time, Fang Mu was also seeking benefits for himself.

As Fang Mu's guard, the stronger she was, the more beneficial she would be to him.

The older she became and the more she transitioned from the younger generation to the middle-aged generation.

She Wan would come to realize the limitations of her position as a woman in the family.

If Fang Mu hadn't said these words, even if she as a noble lady had the right to fight for the high-grade Creator resources from the family received in the transaction with Fang Mu,

The family would probably prefer to give these resources to her younger brother or nephews.

Now that Fang Mu has spoken, and the family has witnessed Fang Mu's generosity.

In the end, to better cooperate with Fang Mu, the elders in the family would discuss and even argue over it in their meetings.

But in the end, they would definitely give the high-grade Creator resources traded from Fang Mu to her.

What mattered most to She Wan was the increase in personal strength and the rise in family status.

She got both through Fang Mu.

So, in addition to her duties as a servant, She Wan was also full of gratitude towards Fang Mu.

When She Ruan heard Fang Mu's words she looked at She Wan in surprise.

She Ruan suddenly felt that her own daughter was quite capable, to be so highly valued by Jianmu!

The She family has always been led by the direct descendant..

Chapter 206: The Great Opportunity of the Vermilion Sun Crane! (Two-in-one)_3

However, the direct line of descent was far from consolidated prior to the establishment of the next head of the She Family. It had countless branches.

The competition among each branch of the direct line was far more challenging than that among the side branches.

Although there wouldn't be a drop of blood spilled on the surface, and all actions were ostensibly for the future development of the family.

However, endless bloodless tactics kept emerging.

Not long ago, She Ruan just suffered a surreptitious loss from his younger brother, losing a Sequential Spiritual Device that should have been in his possession.

She Wan was his daughter and their reliance was on each other.

She Ruan would prefer his daughter to enjoy the resources of a high-starred Creator more than sharing them with others in the family. She Ruan first turned his head and said to She Long. "Fifth brother, you heard what Sir Jianmu said.'

"Please bear witness for me and Sir Jianmu here!"

"All the resources that the She Family trades with you in the future will be given to those whom you deem promising."

"If you find any youngster in the She Family to your liking in the future, please let us know."

"Otherwise, all Creator resources currently traded from you will be given to She Wan!"

Having said this, She Ruan turned to She Wan.

"She Wan, after you get this Life Elixir, you don't have to hand it over to me."

"I will explain for you on the family's behalf."

Upon hearing her father's words, She Wan couldn't help but show a look of surprise on her face.

In She Wan's impression, her father was not a decisive person.

Especially for the sake of advancing his position in the council of elders, he was always concerned about other family members' perspectives.

But now why does her father seem to have changed?!

For a moment, She Wan subconsciously felt that She Ruan was somewhat unfamiliar.

She Long was also somewhat surprised.

However, She Long could roughly guess what was on She Ruan's mind.

His second brother would do this, mostly because he was stimulated by their third brother, She Hang.

After all, after She Wan's generation grew up, the competition between their generation would also come to the final showdown in a few years.

To fight for the position of the current head of the She Family!

He had always regretted siding with She Ruan in the past.

Because She Ruan's actions were always thoughtful, but too gentle and not hard-hitting enough.

He was often suppressed by their eldest brother She Rui and third brother She Hang both overtly and covertly.

Facing the suppression, She Ruan had always remained quiet.

It was only when his ally was targeted that She Ruan would stand up.

If it wasn't for the fact that once a person was chosen, there was no room for change.

The She family internally did not approve of the partnership between She Ruan and himself.

Perhaps She Long would have switched to She Hang's side a year ago.

But now, She Ruan finally showed his tusks for the first time and made a commitment to Jianmu.

He is prepared to use Jianmu's name to put pressure on the council of elders.

He was sure that the council of elders would choose to compromise for the channel of the Grandmaster Creator behind Fang Mu.

This move by She Ruan essentially checkmated all other competitors.

Because She Ruan had been warned by She Wan in advance.

So, after completing the trade, he immediately left.

Ready to give an explanation to the council of elders after returning to the She family.

Then he would apply for some supplies to give to She Wan from the council of elders and see if these supplies would interest Jianmu!

The more the She family trades with Jianmu, the more benefits they will get in the end.

For the remaining few days, Fang Mu still adopted a laid-back attitude, enjoying peaceful time with his family.

With the arrival of the seventh day, Fang Qin's vacation came to an end.

As a member of the Quiet Sea Army, Fang Qin could not afford to be late, no matter what.

Since he would be returning to The Quiet Sea Army Headquarters the next day, Fang Qin went out and bought some high-quality ingredients to cook for Fang

Mu and Fang Yuan.

He even especially invited Lu Xiaoyin and She Wan for the dinner.

Fang Mu couldn't possibly find excuses to leave for Lu Xiaoyin and She Wan every day.

So She Wan and Lu Xiaoyin had been subject to the "sweet attacks" of Fang Qin's cuisine several times!

While eating, Lu Xiaoyin and She Wan felt as if their tongues, throats, digestive tracts, stomachs, small intestines, and large intestines had all experienced "sublimation"!

In the eyes of Lu Xiaoyin and She Wan, everyone in the Fang family was ruthless.

Only the ruthless could get used to eating Fang Qin's cooking since childhood. Fang Qin looked at Fang Yuan and Fang Mu, feeling a pang of reluctance in his heart.

Because apart from during the new year, it was rare to have a family reunion on regular days.

At this small family gathering, Yan Wood was absent as she couldn't leave school due to her exchange student programme.

Now that Fang Mu, Fang Yuan, and himself had found clear goals, they had bright futures ahead.

Therefore, no matter how reluctant he was, Fang Qin would not hesitate.

Early tomorrow morning, before dawn, Fang Qin would be setting off on a journey dampened with morning dew.

Fang Yuan, wanting to accompany Fang Qin for part of his journey, chose to leave at the same time as him.

Fang Mu picked up his cup of melon juice and raised it to Fang Qin and Fang Yuan.

The three cups of iced honeydew juice were clinked together and drained instantly.

No matter how sweet the honeydew was, it could not compare to the sweetness of the three hearts beating as one!

Placing his empty cup on the table, Fang Mu took out two leather cases.

These two leather cases were specifically made by the Creator's Guild using snow weasel fluff, which has an incredibly strong shock absorption effect.

They were standard products of the Creator's Guild, each selling for as much as three hundred thousand Dragon Soaring Coins.

Only those valuable elixirs were worthy of being stored in such high-class leather cases.

When they saw the leather cases that Fang Mu took out, not only did the eyelids of Lu Xiaoyin and She Wan twitch, but so did those of Fang Qin and Fang Yuan.

Because She Wan and Lu Xiaoyin were present, both Fang Qin and Fang Yuan chose not to open the cases directly.

But the weight of the cases told Fang Qin and Fang Yuan that there were certainly plenty of elixirs inside!

Fang Mu spoke to Fang Yuan.

“Second brother, you have already made up your mind to contract the Blood

Claw Leopard and Mad Cloud Leopard first.”

“The first layer of the case contains the supplies you need to raise these two guardian beasts.”

“The supplies on the lower layer are all for Third Sister to raise Vermilion Sun

Crane.”

“During the New Year, Third Sister mentioned that the Vermilion Sun Crane was beginning to show signs of knocking its feet together.”

“I think the Vermilion Sun Crane is very likely reverting back to a one-legged crane species.”

“If that is the case, Third Sister will need to lure the Vermilion Sun Crane with high-purity Fire Elemental Energy.”

“Who knows, Third Sister might stumble upon a great opportunity!” After finishing speaking to Fang Yuan, Fang Mu turned to look at Fang Qin.

“Big sister, there are some elixirs in the second layer of your case that I want you to give to Sister Luo Su, I’ve marked them.”

“When the time comes, you, second brother, and third sister shouldn’t hesitate to use them.”

“There’s no point in saving them!”

Upon saying this, Fang Mu laughed and felt the commotion of the Frost Tone Snow Dragonling and Cangluan Ying Jiao in his Purple Ice Crystal ring.

Fang Mu suddenly thought that having this male and female pairing of pure-blooded Jiaolong beasts bond emotionally and produce a little Jiaolong might be a good decision!

Thanks to the steady nature of Cangluan Ying Jiao, his big sister didn’t need to expend much energy looking after the mischievous Frost Tone Snow Dragonling every day.

“Big sister, my master has already given me your guardian beasts!”

“See if you can still recognize the Iron Thorn Carp!”

While speaking, Fang Mu took out Fang Qin's two guardian beasts from his Purple Ice Crystal ring..

Chapter 207: The Battle of the Sacred Relics Begins! (Two in One)_1

Two long cries of Jiaolong resounded not far from Fang Mu.

One cry was high and deep, while the other was melodious and bright.

A pale blue Jiaolong, more than ten meters long, lifted its single horn on its head, its body swirling with frost and snow.

In the scorching midsummer, a thin layer of frost and snow actually formed within a radius of three meters around this Jiaolong.

Another Jiaolong, more than twenty meters long, in a blue-violet color, moved its wings that spanned over thirty meters like a crystal structure.

With every flap of its wings, a gust of wind sprang up. Then, the Jiaolong turned around and charged towards Fang Qin.

Its body swirled, enveloping Fang Qin in the middle.

This sudden turn of events startled Fang Yuan, who almost ordered the Sabretooth Snow Leopard squatting by the side to attack.

But Fang Yuan quickly came to his senses.

This Jiaolong, who seemed very unfamiliar to him, was the Guardian Beast that

Fang Mu's master had strengthened for Fang Qin.

Fang Yuan had seen the Frost Language Snow Dragon that Fang Qin had contracted with. The difference in appearance between the Frost Language Snow Dragon and the Frost Tone Snow Dragonling was slight, making it easy to distinguish.

Fang Qin had only contracted two Guardian Beasts, so this huge winged blue-violet Jiaolong, which emanated the pure aura of a Dragon Bloodline, must be the evolved form of the Iron Thorn Carp.

Fang Yuan was not a Creator nor a Maker's Assistant.

However, it wasn't difficult for him to deduce that this winged Jiaolong has the Bloodline of Ying Dragon, one of the twelve main dragon species.

Before this, Fang Yuan's realisation of the capability of high star Creators was through one potion after another.

But witnessing the transformation of Iron Thorn Carp into this winged

Jiaolong, Fang Yuan had a new understanding of Grandmaster Creators.

Regarding the behavior of the Cangluan Ying Jiao, Fang Mu didn't find anything inappropriate.

As a Guardian Beast of the Dragon Clan, it would only wrap those who are closest and most trustworthy to it within their bodies.

The belly was the most vulnerable part of the Cangluan Ying Jiao.

It wouldn't have made such an action unless it sincerely trusted someone and was confident that the person would not hurt it.

Even with its partner, a wild Dragon Clan Guardian Beast would not behave this way, this kind of behavior is reserved for their offspring.

The fact that Cangluan Ying Jiao was doing this was a clear demonstration of the affection and trust it has towards Fang Qin.

Fang Mu had asked Fang Qin for her Guardian Beast so that his master could strengthen them. Lu Xiaoyin and She Wan knew all about it.

Both of them were curious about how Fang Mu's master would enhance Iron Thorn Carp and Frost Language Snow Dragon.

If Lu Xiaoyin was just curious, She Wan had a more investigative interest in the matter.

Through the evolution of a Guardian Beast, one can often indirectly demonstrate a Creator's abilities.

She Wan never doubted Fang Mu was a disciple of a Grandmaster Creator, but among Grandmaster Creators, there were strong and weak ones.

For example, the old man presiding over the Creator's Guild headquarters in the Dragon Rising Federation was stronger in terms of Creator's abilities than Shuoyang Grandmaster who was stationed at the Dracoid Research Institute.

Fang Mu, as a greeting gift, gave her a Life Elixir with a purity of ninety-two percent.

This Life Elixir proved that Qixing, the Grandmaster Creator behind Fang Mu, was not a Junior Creation Master.

She Wan was extremely curious about Qixing's upper limit.

A Frost Language Snow Dragon, a copper rank Guardian Beast, even with maximum compression of its Bloodline, can only be promoted to a Dragon race Guardian Beast.

Any Grandmaster Creator has the ability to do this.

Therefore, the real point of interest was never in the Frost Language Snow Dragon, but in the Iron Thorn Carp.

Even if She Wan had many expectations and preparations in her heart, she would never have thought that this Iron Thorn Carp could leap over many thresholds and achieve the Bloodline of one of the twelve main dragon species, the Ying Dragon Bloodline.

In She Wan's eyes, the Iron Thorn Carp was not appreciated.

She Wan could see that from the beginning of the cultivation of this Guardian Beast, it had not invested much high-quality resources.

For Guardian Beasts like this that have a chance to awaken the Dragon Bloodline, if you are not willing to invest resources in cultivation, it's better to contract a purebred Fish Beast, which can be better improved in terms of strength and will be stronger.

Through Fang Qin's contracted Iron Thorn Carp, She Wan could see how difficult Fang Mu's family was in the early days.

She Wan always thought that this Iron Thorn Carp, at most, could only evolve into Hidden Jiao when promoted to Diamond Rank.

After all, Iron Thorn Carp was not cultivated from copper rank or silver stage.

Its ranks had already been promoted to platinum, and even for a Grandmaster Creator, it was very difficult to have any more operating space.

But this water and earth dual attribute Yingjiao in front of her now, gave She Wan a feeling of not being able to measure up.

This Platinum rank, dual attributes Yingjiao, its quality has even been upgraded to Epic Quality.

It was definitely aimed at further enhancing its Bloodline and quality when it was promoted to Diamond Rank.

The Grandmaster Qixing most likely used a sequential Ying Dragon Dragon Ball when enhancing the Iron Thorn Carp.

She Wan could understand using such resources on one's own disciple.

But being able to do so for one's disciple's sister showed how high Fang Mu's status was in Qixing's heart.

If Fang Mu did not resemble Fang Yuan by seven or eight points, and had many similarities with Fang Qin in terms of their mouths and noses,

She Wan would have suspected that Fang Mu was Qixing Grandmaster's illegitimate child!

The appearance of the Cangluan Ying Jiao made She Wan believe that Grandmaster Qixing could at least concoct a Life Elixir with a purity of ninety-four, or even ninety-five percent..

Chapter 208: The Battle of the Sacred Relics Begins! (Two in One)_2

Only in this way can a reasonable explanation be given for Cangluan Ying Jiao's existence.

Even She Wan was so surprised, let alone Lu Xiaoyin!

But among the few people present, the most surprised was undoubtedly Fang Qin.

Because compared to others who could only sense Cangluan Ying Jiao's aura and bloodline, Fang Qin could also sense Cangluan Ying Jiao's skills and exclusive features.

If it can be said that for becoming a disciple of Dragon Mother, Fang Qin had some ideas after hearing Fang Mu's words, but she did not have enough confidence and courage.

Now that his Iron Thorn Carp has transformed into Cangluan Ying Jiao, and they have gained skills like "Respect the Ocean" and exclusive features like "Mountains and Seas".

Fang Qin suddenly gained a lot of confidence.

The Frost Tone Snow Dragonling partook affinities only with Fang Qin.

But seeing Cangluan Ying Jiao coiled around Fang Qin, Frost Tone Snow

Dragonling did not dare to burrow into Cangluan Ying Jiao's coiled body.

When Cangluan Ying Jiao was still Iron Thorn Carp, and Frost Tone Snow Dragonling was Frost Language Snow Dragon, it was often abused by Iron Thorn Carp.

At that time, the Frost Language Snow Dragon could resist using its bloodline power.

Not only can it no longer compete in terms of strength, but it also cannot compete in bloodline now!

Therefore, Frost Tone Snow Dragonling has now completely become an obedient “Explosive Fur Little Wolfdog” in all matters.

Cangluan Ying Jiao also knew what its metamorphosis meant to Fang Qin.

The relationship between a Guardian Beast and its contractor is very pure.

Even if the contractor does not give enough resources to the Guardian Beast, when its own power and bloodline limit the development of the contractor, Guardian Beast usually feels very guilty.

Even rumors abound that many contractors encountered opportunities and Guardian Beasts chose to end their lives in order to free up space in the Destiny Guidebook for the contractors.

But rumors are not credible in Fang Mu’s view.

The higher the intelligence of a life form, the more complex its thinking and more willing to do justifiable things.

Rather than saying that those Guardian Beasts committed suicide, it is more believable to say that they were artificially handled by Beast Masters themselves.

This kind of behavior is very disgusting in the Beastmaster world.

No power is willing to accept someone who harms his own Guardian Beast.

So anyone who dares to do such a thing will definitely cover it up.

When it was still Iron Thorn Carp, Cangluan Ying Jiao never had the idea of ending its own life.

But since knowing that Fang Qin wanted to acknowledge Dragon Mother as her master, itself had shifted from Fang Qin's most reliable partner to a weak link.

Cangluan Ying Jiao has been feeling low.

Now that the burdens of its mind were broken, the Iron Thorn Carp, which had been promoted to Cangluan Ying Jiao, gently rubbed Fang Qin's shoulder with its soft mane on the large serpentine neck.

It's like saying "old pal, I'm back".

Fang Qin stretched out her hand and touched the neck of Cangluan Ying Jiao, then put Cangluan Ying Jiao back into the Destiny Guidebook.

Then she comforted Frost Tone Snow Dragonling's emotions somewhat.

Fang Qin turned her head and looked steadfastly at Fang Mu.

Even though she knew there was no need to say thanks among family members, Fang Qin still said very solemnly, "Thank you, Little Wood".

Looking at Fang Qin's gaze, Fang Mu didn't say what he originally wanted to tell Fang Qin not to thank him.

Because Fang Mu knew that Fang Qin wasn't thanking her younger brother as a sister, but was thanking him for fulfilling her dreams, aspirations, and ambitions as a Beast Master.

The fish turns into a dragon, soaring in the sky.

The former Fang Qin was a fish, and the current Fang Qin is a serpent dragon.

As for whether it can become a dragon, the Creator resources in Fang Mu's hands can only play a supporting role.

How to do it still depends on how Fang Qin will grasp the path ahead.

Even though the Beastmaster world honors power as the highest status, having strength does not guarantee respect.

Like the Evil Heart Sect, Ancient Genesis, Eternal Alchemy Association and other evil organizations that are rampant around the world, any small leader is a strong person.

But these strong individuals have a notorious reputation and have no respectable qualities whatsoever.

Responsibility and protection are the authority by which a strong person can be crowned with honor.

This is also why the Scavengers are respected and ranked among the top of the eight official organizations in the Dragon Rising Federation.

After Fang Qin and Fang Yuan left the next morning, Fang Mu directly called He Qing to the Scavenger Division.

He then returned to his regular routine.

The time for Fang Mu to condense his fourth drop of Contract Blood and the beginning of the school term is getting closer and closer.

During this time, Fang Mu's life was both steady and peaceful, but he couldn't avoid some strong parties' invitations and harassments.

Like the Coastal Commerce, which is a big shot in JA City or even the entire Jinghai Province, has invited Fang Mu at least four times through various methods and channels.

However, Fang Mu did not give the Coastal Commerce any face at all.

Not because Fang Mu was acting aloof, but because Fang Mu didn't want to waste time on unnecessary social interactions.

If Fang Yuan was not able to secure the relationship with Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce, and have people from Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce to provide protection for Fang Yuan.

Fang Mu would have had some interest in a power that functions as a commerce.

But now the Coastal Commerce cannot bring any benefits to Fang Mu.

In fact, social interaction for the purpose of interest is itself a transaction.

In the case that Coastal Commerce is asking for something but Fang Mu is not, this transaction is unfair from the beginning.

At this time, He Qing's mother has completely removed the venom of the Curse Night Mamba Snake from her body.

She specifically called to instruct He Qing to thank Fang Mu properly.

At the same time, she made a generous commitment to He Qing, promising not to go to Snake Island to pick Serpent beasts again.

Rather, she accepted an offer from a local middle school to become an outdoor survival teacher..

Chapter 209: The Battle of the Sacred Relics Begins! (Two in One)_3

Being a teacher may not have the chance of striking it rich like catching serpent beasts in the wild, but it offers stability and safety.

A capable mother is willing to help her children, whilst an incapable one would not want to be a burden to them.

He Qing's mother didn't probe too much, but she understood that He Qing must have loaned substantial amounts to procure the antidote for the Curse Night Mamba Snake.

As a wilderness survival course teacher, one could earn more than twenty thousand Dragon Rising Coins annually.

He Qing's mother had planned to save money at home and gradually help He Qing pay off her debts.

He Qing had always wanted to express her gratitude to Fang Mu.

But since Fang Mu's brother and sister were home recently, it didn't seem appropriate to invite him over for dinner.

Now that her mother had fully recovered, He Qing believes that she owes Fang Mu a proper expression of gratitude.

She specially invited Manli to ask Fang Mu to have a seafood hotpot meal together.

Eating hotpot in a comfortably air-conditioned room during the hot weather made them feel awesome!

Fang Mu's phone rang, shortly after he finished his meal with He Qing and Manli and returned to the Cleaner Division.

Picking up his phone, Fang Mu found it was Hu Tao calling.

He involuntarily smiled at the thought of Hu Tao's round face with her big, expressive eyes that seemed like they could speak.

A year ago, Fang Mu had noticed that Hu Tao enjoyed involving him in everything she did and her attention always seemed to be on him. Fang Mu, who answered the phone, was the first to speak up.

“How did it go? Was your trip successful?”

Fang Mu knew Hu Tao was straightforward, and her emotions were often apparent.

Just by looking at her expressive face, one could tell Hu Tao’s current mood.

Hu Tao’s emotions were quick to change.

Whether she had truly comprehended the Mysterious Pattern was already a thing of the past for Hu Tao.

“Super successful! Fang Mu, you’re my lucky star!”

“Do you remember when you said the Earth System embodies stability and tolerance?”

“Even though it might not seem as inclusive as water, when water consumes earth, it turns murky, while nothing changes when earth consumes water.”

“Thanks to this statement of yours, I suddenly understood two mysterious patterns!”

“And these two patterns are exactly the same!”

“Does that mean, if I comprehend another Earth System Pattern, I can condense an Earth Xuanzhang!?”

Fang Mu was stunned by Hu Tao’s words.

Hu Tao had unexpectedly grasped two identical mysterious patterns at once! That was undoubtedly a stroke of enormous luck!

But since when did he become her lucky star?

His understanding of the Earth System embracing stability and tolerance was accurate.

But did he ever give the next analogy?

Suddenly, Fang Mu remembered using a skewed analogy to explain the distinction between different elemental patterns to Hu Tao.

It was the only way to get through to Hu Tao's little brain on the topic of elemental attributes.

Of course, Fang Mu did not think the two identical Earth Patterns Hu Tao comprehended had much to do with him.

Because comprehending mysterious patterns required more sudden realizations; a flash of enlightenment.

During the moment of enlightenment, the mind goes blank.

There's a feeling of a mental overload, like a brainstorm.

Fang Mu had personally experienced this profound state of enlightenment twice.

During this process, one couldn't have any thought at all!

Just as Fang Mu prepared to congratulate Hu Tao, he heard her say.

"Fang Mu, I'll be home around seven tonight."

“Let’s go for dinner together!”

After extending the invitation, Hu Tao pursed her lips.

Her face clearly displayed anticipation and nervousness.

But the next words from Fang Mu filled Hu Tao’s gleaming eyes with disappointment.

“I might not be able to make it tonight.”

Before Hu Tao’s trip, Fang Mu had planned to invite her out for dinner.

Now that Hu Tao had managed to comprehend two mysterious patterns in a row, they definitely needed to celebrate.

However, tonight, Fang Mu was set to engage in the most high-stakes contest since he arrived in the Beastmaster world.

The ownership of the Sakura Tempering Carp, a Sacred Relic, would be decided in the contest tonight.

Since the sacred relic, Sakura Tempering Carp, was currently stored in the Beastmaster Alliance, the Alliance was in charge of setting up the contest for its possession.

The Beastmaster Alliance proposed a total of twenty competitive channels.

The competition for the sacred relic, the Sakura Tempering Carp, is of great importance, and even involves the Grandmaster Creator.

So, for each channel, the Beastmaster Federation dispatched an executor who would personally accompany the contestant.

They would take over conveying bidding information on behalf of the contestants to the headquarters during the three hours, ultimately determining the ownership of the Sakura Tempering Carp.

What is most feared in such a competition involving many big players is a mix-up.

Assigning an executor to help with the bidding, starting with checking the resources, can avoid mix-ups to the maximum extent.

Lv Yuyu would be arriving in JA City soon to wait for Fang Mu in his private nurturing chamber at the Creator's Guild.

The competition for the Sakura Tempering Carp happened to start at seven in the evening which collided with the time Hu Tao had invited him.

After hearing Fang Mu's refusal, Hu Tao whispered.

"Then, let's have dinner together when we get a chance!"

This was not the first time Fang Mu had refused Hu Tao on such matters.

Only this time it was different; this time, Hu Tao, full of surprise, wanted to share her joy with Fang Mu.

At the same time, Hu Tao suddenly had a thought — since Fang Mu hadn't awakened his Destiny Guidebook, was her action akin to stabbing Fang Mu's heart?

Fang Mu could sense Hu Tao's disappointment from her tone.

Originally, Fang Mu was planning to invite Hu Tao to have lunch together the next day.

But now, Fang Mu changed his mind.

“I won’t be able to finish my work until after ten o’clock tonight.”

“How about you find something to eat now, and I will take you out for something nice to eat around ten o’clock tonight?”

Upon hearing Fang Mu’s words, a bright smile appeared across Hu Tao’s face on the other end of the phone.

“Then I’ll wait for your call tonight!”

“You don’t need to rush, it’s fine to go out later!”

“I’ll just do some holiday homework now, or else Teacher Cui will have me stand out when school starts!”

Fang Mu had finished his holiday homework when he first started the holiday while organizing academic papers with Cui Ruochen.

Cui Ruochen will not be teaching next semester.

Instead, he would focus all his attention on the Creator’s exam.

Fang Mu had seen Cui Ruochen concoct a Life Elixir with a purity of thirty percent.

Even if he wants to directly take the Intermediate Crafting Master examination, there is a chance.

Cui Ruochen is very rigorous in academics and does not allow any carelessness. Otherwise, Cui Ruochen would not have chosen to seclude himself for an entire year.

Cui Ruochen has been very helpful to Fang Mu.

If Fang Mu had not become a Beast Master, the two papers might not have helped him become an assistant to the Creator.

But they could have made Fang Mu a decent scholar.

Moreover, Cui Ruochen, in secret, had expressed to Fang Mu his intention of accepting him as a disciple.

So, Fang Mu plans to help Cui Ruochen.

The person who had been concocting Soul Potion for him in the Creator's Guild was named He Deen.

He was a highly reputable senior creator.

Fang Mu planned to inform Lu Xiaoyin to get in touch with He Deen.

To let He Deen take the initiative to contact Cui Ruochen.

Getting guidance from a senior creator as a friend would be enough for Cui Ruochen at this stage.

Just as Fang Mu hung up the phone, he saw that during his call with Hu Tao, he had missed two calls, all from Lv Yuyu.

Lv Yuyu wouldn't call him twice in a row unless there was something important.

Just then, Lv Yuyu made a third call.

As soon as he answered, Fang Mu heard Lv Yuyu say anxiously.

"Brother, latest news!"

“In this competition for Sakura Tempering Carp, apart from Zhang Qing who is assistant to the Shuoyang Grandmaster, even the Creator’s Guild headquarters has set their sights on it!”

Chapter 210: Greed is Insatiable like a Snake Swallowing an Elephant! (Two in One)_I

Fang Mu’s expression didn’t change much upon hearing these words. He had anticipated that the Sacred Relic, Sakura Tempering Carp, would be sought after by many.

When those with capability come across good things, there is no reason not to seize them.

Now that Fang Mu had resources and capabilities, he would swoop on any Guardian Beast he set his eyes on, even if he couldn’t form a contract with it himself.

It’s these people who have hyped up auspicious Guardian Beasts to such an extent, that even the lowest grade ones can fetch high prices.

The Sakura Tempering Carp, being a Sacred Relic, can enhance the growth rate of a Beast Master’s spiritual power and can also be considered a middle-grade auspicious creature.

Carps, in general, are associated with good fortune.

Zhang Qing, Shuoyang Grandmaster’s assistant, represents the force of a Grandmaster Creator.

Whether he was competing with one or multiple Grandmaster Creators, it didn't make much of a difference to Fang Mu.

It was just a matter of blocking them off or covering up their schemes.

As long as it wasn't through combat, Fang Mu was not afraid of any economic competition!

"Brother Lv, this isn't really a big deal."

"We can talk it over when you arrive at my training room!"

"I'm just curious why the Creator's Guild Headquarters didn't announce their interest in the Sakura Tempering Carp earlier."

"Why are they suddenly intervening now?"

Upon hearing Fang Mu's question, Lu Yuyu answered uncertainly.

"Zi Yuan often has more accurate information than me."

“Zi Yuan said that the Creator’s Guild Headquarters suddenly decided to participate in the contention for the Sakura Tempering Carp and even forcibly seized a spot from a Master Creator!”

“However, Xiao Xiang, the Sect Master presiding over the Creator’s Guild, had openly stated that he would not participate in the contention for the Sacred Relic.’

“As a result, the Creator’s Guild had issued all three of their spots.”

“Sect Master Xiao Xiang is resolute in his actions; he would never change his orders instantly.”

Speaking so far, Lu Yuyu lowered his voice.

“It’s rumored that Master Yi Han of the Yi family has successfully taken the next step half a year ago.”

“It has been known that the Yi family and the Creator’s Guild have had a friendly relationship in recent years. Master Yi Han has been running to and from the Creator’s Guild Headquarters often.”

“If Master Yi Han has indeed ascended to become a Grandmaster Creator, it’s likely due to some favor from Sect Master Xiao Xiang.”

“If Yi Han really becomes a Grandmaster Creator and the Yi Family wants to obtain the Sakura Tempering Carp,”

“The Creator’s Guild might have reason to take back a spot for Yi Han!”

Although Lu Yuyu claimed it was a rumor, it was spoken with apparent certainty.

If it were an uncertain rumor, Lu Yuyu wouldn’t have mentioned it to him.

Given that Lu Yuyu had brought it up, it meant that this rumor was at least 90% accurate.

A second Grandmaster Creator suddenly came forward at the time of contention.

This left Fang Mu hesitant for a while.

What Fang Mu hesitated about was not whether he could acquire the Sacred Relic Sakura Tempering Carp in the face of two Grandmaster Creators.

Instead, he was wondering whether it was necessary to expose his strengths in order to secure the Sakura Tempering Carp and have the two Grandmaster

Creators leave empty-handed.

Lu Yuyu was originally very anxious.

After all, Zhang Qing was just an assistant to a Grandmaster Creator.

But Yi's family, who used the Creator's Guild's channel, was likely standing behind a real Grandmaster Creator.

However, Fang Mu's attitude eased Lu Yuyu's anxiety.

Fang Mu was not panicked at all, which showed that he definitely had the support of Qixing Grandmaster!

Thinking about the fact that he would soon participate in the struggle for resources backed by three Grandmaster Creator forces, Lu Yuyu felt a thrilling sensation throughout his body, much more exciting than Larosu's little hand!

In a small courtyard at the back of Sanitation Workers Headquarters, a young man was scrubbing a nearly hundred meter length, sturdy and majestic Red Violent Dragon with an extended brush.

The Red Violent Dragon, missing one toe, gave off an odd impression with each footprint it left.

The dragon, half-asleep, flicked its tail, and made a sound of comfort from its throat.

The occasional puff of breath made the flowers planted on the wall of Sanitation Workers Headquarters nearby shrink as if they were afraid of it.

An elderly woman, with a face full of wrinkles and white hair tied up in a bun at the back of her head, leaning on a long cane, watched the young man brushing the body of the Red Violent Dragon kindly.

The old woman's back was straight, despite her age, she had a dignified and imposing aura.

"Shang'er, stop brushing!"

"Every time you brush Crimson Armor, you get yourself soaked. As soon as you finish brushing, Crimson Armor would just roll around in the mud and get dirty again!"

Before the elderly woman finished speaking, a loud voice came from the Red Violent Dragon's back.

"Grandma, I've been washing Crimson Armor since I was little, brushing it for three hours each time is a good exercise!"

“Alright, it’s done brushing for now.”

“Let Red Satin help Crimson Armor dry off with its heat!”

While speaking, the physically well-built, black-haired youth jumped down from the Red Violent Dragon’s back.

Immediately after, flames spontaneously ignited from the youth’s palm when it touched the ground.

In the fire that resembled red satin, a divine Elemental Dragon with a body-length of only five meters and ruby-colored skin emitted a crisp cry..
