

Beast Tamer 241

Chapter 241: You're quite slick! _1

Koo Hsin-yi felt relieved when she found out that the Yi Family had lost to Jianmu and failed to get the Sakura Tempering Carp.

She felt like a lifelong single person who had suddenly started a promiscuous lifestyle.

Not only that, but Yi Han did not even win the All-Kinds Carp that he had shamelessly begged for from the Creator's Guild.

Now, Yi Han has become the laughingstock of the major powers behind closed doors.

Even though no one would dare to openly mock a Grandmaster Creator, not even the Yi Family's traditional rival, the Silver Family, would stoop so low.

However, the Silver Family held eight simultaneous weddings for the younger generation, and ten rounds of fireworks were set off for each couple.

A total of eighty rounds of fireworks were set off, each round producing ten thousand explosions.

This tally exactly matched the eight hundred thousand points that Jianmu had scored against the Yi Family.

Being arrogant right after becoming a Grandmaster Creator had caused Yi Han to snatch the position that rightfully belonged to him.

Well, he finally gets his just desserts!

Koo Hsin-yi, who was usually idle, decided to go on an impromptu trip to Cangyun Province.

Cangyun Province is one of the most suitable provinces for tourism in the Dragon Rising Federation.

The climate is suitable all year round and there are many specialty delicacies.

The only regret about this trip was that Shanliang insisted on joining her.

If she had known that Shanliang would ask about her plans for the trip, she would not have mentioned it!

Koo Hsin-yi wanted to enjoy the scenery and taste the specialty foods of Cangyun Province.

But Shanliang was interested in shopping, buying things wherever they went.

He even insisted on dragging her to Cangyun Market.

What was so interesting about Cangyun Market?

Could the goods in Cangyun Market be more comprehensive than those in the Imperial Shenglong Mall!?

And you're the kind of person who goes to Shenglong Mall almost every week!

How could you be interested in this place!

Shanliang was her elder and Koo Hsin-yi found it hard to refuse, so she reluctantly went with her.

Fortunately, what Shanliang said was music to Koo Hsin-yi's ears.

"Xinyi, the Silver Family is quite bold!"

"They're still picking on the Yi Family at this time, almost the same as when Yi Han was still a Master Creator."

Koo Hsin-yi gently shook her head at his words.

The Silver Family has calmed down a lot, or else they would have put pressure on the Yi Family face-to-face.

They would have held banquets specifically to mock the Yi Family!

Instead of using this underhanded method to disgust the Yi Family now.

Even if the Yi Family despises the Silver Family's actions, they can't do anything about it.

After all, the Silver Family's mockery was so subtle that their own younger generation setting off fireworks at their weddings was only natural.

If the Yi Family wants to retaliate, it would only serve to expose the Yi Family's pettiness and overreaction.

"Aunt Dan, it is said that the matriarch of the Silver Family has a close relationship with Master Shuoyang. Is this true?"

“I remember you have some association with the matriarch of the Silver Family.”

Hearing her question, Shanliang shot Koo Hsin-yi a curious glance.

“You impudent girl, how many times did I tell you to call me Sister Dan!”

“Also, don’t be so impulsive with your words. We better not pry into matters related to Master Shuoyang!”

Koo Hsin-yi smirked when she heard him.

Shanliang saying this must be because he doesn’t know what’s going on.

If Shanliang did know, his big mouth wouldn’t be able to resist telling her.

Suddenly, Koo Hsin-yi heard Shanliang utter a sound of surprise.

“Oh! This is a new brand!”

“There are not many cosmetic brands willing to open a store in the Official Mall nowadays.”

Koo Hsin-yi wasn't paying attention to the products around her.

Only when she heard Shanliang say this did she follow his gaze to the display area.

Koo Hsin-yi is not young anymore, she started taking care of her skin quite a few years ago.

She has tried almost all the cosmetic brands on the market.

Ultimately, Koo Hsin-yi chose "Snow Face" and has been using Snow Face's high-end cosmetic products.

Sometimes she would even prepare some Spiritual Liquid specifically for skin care.

As a Master Creator, who is second only to the Grandmaster Creators in this world, her status is equivalent to that of a Grandmaster-level Spirit-smithing Master.

Money is just a number to Shanliang and Koo Hsin-yi, they don't care about the price of an item.

So, after seeing this new brand, Peach Beguile, Koo Hsin-yi plans to buy a set to try it out.

However, Koo Hsin-yi felt that Peach Beguile was quite audacious.

The location of the store was just one clothing studio away from Snow Face.

Such a store location is indeed too aggressive!

Could it be that Peach Beguile is planning to compete with Snow Face right from the start!?

The reputation that Snow Face has built over the decades is not something a new brand can compare with.

People who are used to using Snow Face will only switch brands if they find a product much better than Snow Face, not if they find a similar or slightly inferior product.

As a Master Creator, Koo Hsin-yi has always admired the formula of Snow Face.

It's said that Snow Face engaged several Senior Creators to help develop an excellent formula.

Most of the ladies who get along well with Koo Hsin-yi are loyal users of Snow Face.

After carefully checking the prices of Peach Beguile's products, Koo Hsin-yi intuitively frowned.

The price was trivial to her, but definitely not affordable for the rich ladies of small and medium-sized powers.

Chapter 242: You are very slick!_2

Peach Beguile's facial cream is half as much as Snow Face's, yet it is more than twice as expensive.

The price of one jar of Peach Beguile's cream is almost equal to four jars of Snow Face's cream.

Koo Hsin-yi believes that if this batch of cream can't smooth out the wrinkles on a person's face, it's not worth its high price!

Koo Hsin-yi doesn't want to look like a fool. The thought of buying a set was quickly dismissed by her.

Whether one has money is one thing, wanting to be deceived is another.

In contrast, Shanliang is having a lively chat with the attendant, seemingly ready to set up camp in the sales area.

Koo Hsin-yi felt a bit of a headache and sat down on a rhino leather sofa in the sales area to quietly wait for Shanliang.

She decided then and there that no matter what, she wouldn't let Shanliang accompany her on her trips in the future!

If Shanliang insisted on following her, she would rather stay in the Capital.

It took half an hour for Koo Hsin-yi to finally meet Shanliang.

Koo Hsin-yi looked at the time and said,

"Sister Dan, let's go to eat first!"

"I will come back to accompany you for shopping tonight if you wish."

Koo Hsin-yi hoped that Shanliang wouldn't insist on continuing shopping after her suggestion to have a meal.

To Koo Hsin-yi's surprise, Shanliang didn't respond to her comment at all.

Instead, she exclaimed enthusiastically,

“Xinyi, the owner of this store is absolutely a business genius. He only sold me two limited-edition sets!”

“When I wanted to buy more, they refused, saying that one person could only buy one set from a product line!”

“When we get back, let’s use this set of cosmetics and have a nice SPA treatment.”

Hearing Shanliang’s words, Koo Hsin-yi could not see how Peach Beguile’s boss was a business genius.

The guy was a total idiot!

Not taking advantage of Shanliang’s big spending nature now, where are they going to find such a good opportunity to make money later?

The only interesting point of Peach Beguile that caught Koo Hsin-yi’s eye was the Spirit Cat pattern on their limited editions.

The pattern was very well-drawn, clearly the work of a top-notch artist.

Furthermore, it is completely consistent with the records in ancient books in terms of image.

It was obvious that Peach Beguile spent a lot of money and thought into the design of the Spirit Cat shape.

It wasn't until eight o'clock that night that Feng Chenhao got out of his custom-made clothes and prepared to go home and rest.

Their sales weren't that high for the day, but they made a lot of money.

The pricing of Peach Beguile products allowed Feng Chenhao to recoup all his invested funds in just one day.

This led Feng Chenhao to decide on hiring staff to set up a second store immediately.

He planned on using a snowball effect to spread Peach Beguile across the entire Dragon Rising Federation.

In the afternoon, Chu Tao had been discussing cooperation with Liu Shu, and everything went smoothly.

She took the initiative to get Lingfeng Biological and Yuen Fan Transportation to reach an agreement. Her grandfather praised her over the phone.

He promised that she would be fully responsible for all cooperation with Yuen Fan Transportation.

Thus, her elder brother wouldn't even have the chance to get a slice of the pie later on.

Sitting on the sofa, massaging her temples, Chu Tao suddenly remembered the makeup set Liu Shu had given her.

Chu Tao had never seen a cosmetic set costing four hundred and thirty-eight thousand before.

When she was unpacking Peach Beguile packaging, Chu Tao discovered that each product contained incredibly elegant Spirit Cat cards.

The Twelve-Tailed Spirit Cat on the card was elegant, with each of the three cards featuring a different image.

The serial number in the top right corner made Chu Tao immediately think of Peach Beguile's limited-edition concept.

Normally, Chu Tao would throw out any packaging items, but the drawings were so exquisite that she hesitated and placed the cards on her table instead.

Then Chu Tao called her masseuse and asked the masseuse to do a facial treatment for her using these products.

Chu Tao knew well that if she wanted to be the helmsman of Lingfeng Biological, she had to present herself properly to the outside world.

So even if she was busy, Chu Tao would have skincare treatments at least twice a week.

She had been using the current masseuse for more than three years and really enjoyed their gentle touch.

Each time she had a treatment, she could have a good sleep.

When Chu Tao woke up feeling refreshed, she saw that the masseuse, Sister Zhang, was looking at her in awe.

It looked as though something unbelievable had happened to her.

Chu Tao's heart skipped a beat. Could her skin have reacted to the Peach Beguile cosmetics?!

Chu Tao had sensitive skin which could breakout from many cosmetics.

Chu Tao dashed to the full-length mirror in just a few strides.

Looking at her reflection, Chu Tao was stunned.

Even with regular skincare to maintain youth, one's skin condition would inevitably worsen.

To others, she looked like a woman in her early twenties.

Yet, when she carefully examined herself in the mirror, she could still see fine lines around her eyes and neck.

However, her reflection now seemed to have regressed from twenty-eight or twenty-nine years old to twenty-four or twenty-five years old.

This was a thorough rejuvenation, completely different from just maintaining the facade of youth!

She had done a full-body treatment using Peach Beguile products, and she was rejuvenated!

Sister Zhang, who was standing aside, came over, held out her palm and softly told Chu Tao,

“Madam, after I massaged you...my hand looks much younger too. Many of my wrinkles are gone!”

Chapter 243: You’re pretty slick, huh!_3

“Where did you purchase your cosmetics? This brand’s products appear to be more effective than those you used previously.”

At this moment, equally as astounded as Chu Tao were Koo Hsin-yi and Shanliang.

Koo Hsin-yi and Shanliang did not look into the mirror after their spa treatments.

However, when they looked at each other, they were shocked by the changes in their appearances.

As Koo Hsin-yi was significantly younger than Shanliang and had always taken good care of her skin, she only seemed a couple of years younger after the treatment.

However, Shanliang, who was older and had been taking care of his skin, still appeared to be in his forties.

After using the Peach Blossom Brand’s product for a spa treatment, Koo Hsin-yi found Shanliang looked exactly as he had when he used to lecture her as a young man.

Koo Hsin-yi quickly took a mirror out from her Space Spirit Tool and handed it to Shanliang.

As soon as Shanliang saw himself in the mirror, his eyes welled up with tears, as memories from his youth flooded back.

Half an hour later, Shanliang and Koo Hsin-yi reappeared on the 26th floor of the Cangyun Market.

All the shops in Cangyun Market operate 24/7, open for consumers at any given time.

Shanliang and Koo Hsin-yi initially intended to purchase several sets of Peach Blossom products to stock up, but only Koo Hsin-yi managed to buy the August limited-edition box and the Spirit Cat limited-edition box.

After having previously purchased, Shanliang had lost his eligibility to buy again.

This was a stipulation specifically set by Feng Chenhao, and the two attendants in the shop could do nothing about it.

Feng Chenhao did this to ensure the excessive stocking of Peach Blossom products was limited, allowing more people to purchase them.

He didn't want someone to hoard all Peach Blossom products once they discover how efficient they are.

Moreover, if someone genuinely wanted to make a purchase, they could simply get someone else they knew to make the payment for them.

There was fundamentally no way they'd be unable to purchase!

Watching the display boxes that she couldn't buy, and considering each series was limited to a hundred sets, Koo Hsin-yi estimated that once the effects of Peach Blossom products were recognized, all sets would be sold out by tomorrow evening.

The Peach Blossom Brand store opened in Cangyun Province instead of the Capital.

If Peach Blossom didn't intend to open branches, it wouldn't be convenient for her to purchase.

"I'll pay double for ten sets!"

"Could you please get in touch with your boss? I'd like to speak with him personally!"

When the two attendants heard about this large order, they didn't dare to reject it outright.

However, it was already too late and couldn't contact Feng Chenhao conveniently.

Yet, maintaining their ethic of putting the shop first, they still phoned Feng Chenhao.

Although Feng Chenhao was tired from a long day, he was not sleepy at all.

He was filled with aspirations and expectations for Peach Blossom's future development.

When the attendant mentioned that someone was willing to pay double for ten sets, Feng Chenhao's initial instinct was to agree.

However, considering Peach Blossom's brand positioning, Feng Chenhao decided to reject the offer reluctantly.

"You two listen closely!"

"Regardless of how rich any wealthy woman is, no matter how much she wants to spend, each person can only buy one set per series!"

"Inform them that there will be limited-edition sets released every month."

"The Double Ninth Festival is approaching soon, and we will also release festival-limited sets."

Having said that, Feng Chenhao hung up the phone.

Feng Chenhao was clear about the need to maintain Peach Blossom's brand style and keep it above other brands in terms of sophistication.

Good products alone weren't enough!

If Peach Blossom resorted to underhanded tactics, it would inevitably lead to a negative reputation.

Fang Mu had no lack of money.

If Peach Blossom's reputation was ruined, he would have failed Fang Mu!

Koo Hsin-yi and Shanliang never expected that the boss of Peach Blossom would be so uncompromising.

Not only did he refuse to sell, but he also denied them a chance to communicate with him directly.

Meanwhile, Feng Chenhao was lying in bed ready for sleep, oblivious to the fact that he had just denied two Master Creators.

Generally, not many customers visit Cangyun Market after midnight.

Those who do generally shop for spirit materials and Guardian Beasts between the first and fifth floors.

Since the Cangyun Market operates all day, people usually have already purchased what they need during the day.'

However, the 26th floor of Cangyun Market was exceptionally bustling this evening.

Even Koo Hsin-yi and Shanliang had to resort to asking acquaintances in Cangyun Province to help them make payments in order to purchase more sets.

In the night, a wave of beauty transformation swept across.

By day, those who had used Peach Blossom products walking on the streets under the sunshine would seem to have brought a breath of spring to the entire Dragon Rising Federation.

Those who had applied Peach Blossom products would resemble peach blossoms in a mountain temple.

Feng Chenhao reported sales to Fang Mu almost daily via text messages.

Fang Mu had already anticipated Peach Blossom being destined to lead cosmetic trends but had still underestimated the purchasing power of these wealthy ladies.

In just a day and a half, all Peach Blossom products were sold out.

In light of this, even without guidance from Fang Mu, Feng Chenhao had already contacted illustrators.

He was preparing to choose the fifth and sixth epoch's Guardian Beasts for another collaboration from the ancient texts.

This time, Feng Chenhao had his eyes on a legendary God Bird recorded in the annals.

Night turns into day, illuminating in all directions.

It was said that this God Bird had dazzling azure blue feathers that could ignite a glaze-colored flame.

Moreover, this God Bird could sing.

Feng Chenhao couldn't help but grumble inwardly at this time.

“Despite your singing skills, you’ll never make it as a broadcaster!”

Chapter 244: You are very slippery!_4

You should know that it’s not allowed to livestream beast taming activities in the Dragon Rising Federation.

Fang Mu estimated that he should be able to form his fourth drop of Covenant Blood Essence in the next few days.

Today was Tuesday, and school would officially start the next Monday.

Fang Mu would then become a senior student in school.

He had planned to take a good rest this week, and then collect a few good Frog and Cicada Beast Spirits.

Once he had formed a soul agreement with Eden Greenfield, he could directly plant the Ling Poison Dark Lotus there.

A flower and a leaf from the Ling Poison Dark Lotus could absorb the spirit of both a Frog Beast and a Cicada Beast.

Once he had contracted a second beast for battle, Fang Mu planned to try and raise his ranking all the way to Gold.

He was curious whether any major clubs would recruit him after he reached the Gold ranking.

However, unfortunately, Fang Mu's plan was interrupted by a call from Yi Han.

"Dear Nephew, I'm wondering if you have time to come to the Capital lately?"

"The Chang Le Pavilion is willing to trade the Catastrophe Class Ghost System Summoning Beast with me."

"But they need me to prove that I'm doing the trade on your behalf."

"Of course, if you're busy, I can think of something else."

Upon hearing Yi Han's words, Fang Mu's eyes narrowed.

Even though Fang Mu wasn't sure what kind of force the Chang Le Pavilion had, he knew they couldn't ignore the prestige of a Grandmaster Creator.

If Yi Han had just expressed his wish to trade, Chang Le Pavilion would have agreed without setting additional conditions.

Yi Han was being a bit slippery!

He obviously wanted to act as a channel between Fang Mu and Chang Le Pavilion, but he didn't say it directly.

He didn't want to owe Fang Mu a favor.

But Fang Mu didn't want to give him this chance.

This was the first time Fang Mu was working with Yi Han, and he didn't want Yi Han to think that he was someone easy to deal with!

"Uncle Yi, it's just that my Master is keen to meet you."

"He plans to hand over the elixirs you ordered directly to you after the meeting."

"It's just that my Master is in seclusion, and I don't know when he will be out to meet Uncle Yi."

When Fang Mu said these words, his voice was full of smiles, but his tone was somewhat cold.

Upon hearing Fang Mu's words, Yi Han immediately felt that something was wrong.

When Jianmu still unscrupulously competed with him even after knowing that he became a Grandmaster Creator, he realized that Jianmu didn't put him in his eyes, and accepted this reality.

After all, Jianmu had a Senior Creation Zenith Master as a Master!

And this Master was just a step away from becoming a top-level Creation Grandmaster!

Yi Han somewhat regretted treating Jianmu as a child when he had consistently addressed him as "Uncle Yi".

Yi Han quickly corrected himself.

"Nephew, Chang Le Pavilion wanted to meet you."

"They asked me to discuss it with you."

“Chang Le Pavilion hasn’t actually given me the Catastrophe Class Ghost Series Summoning Beast yet.”

“I...”

Fang Mu didn’t wait for Yi Han to finish his sentence and laughed.

“Uncle Yi, I was just teasing you a little while ago!”

“I told my Master about your request that same night, and now these four bottles of elixirs are in my hands.”

“I happen to have some time to go to the Capital.”

Upon hearing Fang Mu’s words, Yi Han felt relieved, but also a little uncomfortable.

He had just tried to manipulate Fang Mu, and Fang Mu immediately retaliated through his own ways.

This made Yi Han realize Fang Mu’s bottom line, and understand that in future dealings, he couldn’t treat Fang Mu as a teenager.

He must treat him as an equal!

This young man would not let himself be taken advantage of, if he tried he would just be criticized.

In order to access the resources produced only by Senior Creation Zenith Master, he must fawn over Fang Mu!

“Nephew, I’ll send a strong man from the Yi Family to pick you up and bring you to the Capital.”

“Once we get to the Capital, I’ll take you to enjoy the city’s sights personally!”

Upon hearing this, Fang Mu directly refused Yi Han.

“No need to worry Uncle Yi, I’ll just use the Beastmaster Alliance’s Space Transfer Formation to get to the Capital.”

“This not only saves my time, but also saves you the trouble!”

Chapter 245: Chang Le Pavilion and the Thirteen Exceptionally Beautiful!_1

The space transfer formation of the Beastmaster Alliance is a signature of the Beastmaster Alliance.

It is also an important support for the operation of the Beastmaster Web and the Battle Network.

The reason why so many people choose to buy supplies and pick up bargains on the Beastmaster Web has a lot to do with the timeliness of shopping and delivery.

As an executor, Lu Yuyu has the right to use the Beastmaster Alliance's teleportation array.

But Lu Yuyu does not have the right to bring Fang Mu, a foreigner, with him for the teleportation.

There is a clear hierarchy within the Beastmaster Alliance, and both executors and directors are M4.

Only personnel with an M2 level or above can allow non-internal members of the Beastmaster Alliance to use the teleportation array.

The authority Fang Mu held was given to him by Qian Yan when he delivered the Sakura Tempering Carp and two All-Kinds Carps to Fang Mu.

It is considered as a way for Qian Yan to make friends with Fang Mu.

If Qian Yan brought supplies and other things to Fang Mu, Fang Mu would likely refuse.

Because he could simply exchange the Life Elixir for whatever he wanted using his Grandmaster Disciple's status.

However, Fang Mu could not refuse the teleportation array usage authority granted by Qian Yan.

This authority could save Fang Mu a great deal of travel time.

In the future, no matter which city in the Dragon Rising Federation he wants to go to, he could get there within three hours.

Fang Yuan had returned to The Capital a couple of days ago.

Immediately after returning to The Capital, Fang Yuan took over the work of the Jianmu Commerce Association.

He had originally planned to find a time to give the Spiritual Liquid that Fang Mu entrusted to him to Fang Yan, and then explain the situation to her gradually.

Fang Yuan could imagine how excited Fang Yan would be when she heard that Fang Mu had become a Beast Master.

Fang Yuan has always felt that he and Fang Qin are much older than Fang Mu.

With the early misfortune at home, he and Fang Qin see Fang Mu more like a son than a younger brother.

Compared to that, Fang Yan, who is only three or four years older than Fang Mu, is more like a brother and sister relationship.

Compared to him and Fang Qin, Fang Yan's feelings for Fang Mu are no less.

Even her actions are more passionate and unrestrained.

Fang Yuan didn't expect Fang Yan, who is careless and even too lazy to eat breakfast, would persist in making breakfast for Fang Mu every day!

However, compared to Fang Qin, Fang Yan's cooking skills are not that good.

Especially Fang Yan's tofu brain!

Fang Yan Xian is currently practicing with her mentor outside, and the kind of course that requires outdoor survival is the most taboo against distractions.

Even if there are teachers accompanying during the outdoor survival class, accidents can still happen.

When Fang Yuan participated in the combat practice outside Jinghai Tianyu University, he witnessed a female classmate who was busy replying to her boyfriend's message on her phone.

As a result, she was directly cut in half by a Wild Shadow Mantis.

Even though she was rescued eventually, she could only sit in a mechanical bucket for the rest of her life.

She needs full assistance for eating, drinking, and going to the bathroom.

Both the news of Fang Mu becoming a Beastmaster and being accepted as a disciple by the Grandmaster are enough to disturb Fang Yan's mind.

So Fang Yuan plans to tell Fang Yan when she comes back.

Fang Mu intended to take this opportunity while visiting The Capital to see Fang Yan and to get in touch with the Chang Le Pavilion.

He also intends to see if there are any other troublesome issues that Fang Yuan cannot resolve with the operations of Jianmu Commerce Association.

As for Fang Mu's rejection of him, Yi Han was not surprised.

The purpose of Yi Han's words was just to show courtesy to Fang Mu.

Even if he sent a sequential expert, without using the Beastmaster Alliance's teleportation array, it would take at least two days to rush from The Capital to JA City in Jinghai Province.

Going there and back would be four days.

Does a disciple of a Grandmaster Creator have so much time to waste on the road!?

"Nephew, when should I pick you up from the headquarters of the Beastmaster Alliance?"

At present, Fang Mu did not have anything to do.

Fang Mu is very interested in the Chang Le Pavilion.

A force that can obtain a Heaven Calamity Ghost Series Beast can help him in many ways.

However, Fang Mu is not planning to make contact with Chang Le Pavilion immediately upon arrival in The Capital.

It seemed too eager for him to immediately accept the invitation from Chang Le Pavilion immediately after they attempted to get to know him through Yi Han's channel.

Fang Mu planned to meet with Fang Yuan first.

Fang Yan called Fang Mu before she went out for the outdoor combat class, and she will probably be back tomorrow night.

Fang Mu plans to have a reunion dinner with Fang Yan and Fang Yuan first, and then find Yi Han to introduce him to Chang Le Pavilion the day after.

After the contact with the Chang Le Pavilion is completed, it should be time for him to return to school for class!

Fang Mu has been the top student in liberal arts for the past year and a half, and high school fundamentally focuses on liberal arts.

So the school plans to let Fang Mu give a speech at the new students' opening ceremony.

If it were before, Fang Mu would have accepted the school's invitation without hesitation.

Because the freshman speech can effectively enhance his fame.

It allows Fang Mu to remain in the sight of those creators even if he is not a Beast Master.

To gain the opportunity to become the Maker's Assistant of these creators.

Now Fang Mu feels that it's better for him to keep a low profile.

It would be inviting jealousy to have himself, who is seen as just a knowledgeable common person, to represent the Beast Masters of the entire school and give a speech.

In the school, apart from a small number of people who admire his liberal arts results, most people don't know how they think of him in their hearts!

Fang Mu does not believe in the so-called good or evil nature of people.

But Fang Mu knows that the human heart is complex and is the least capable of being probed.

Chapter 246: Chang Le Pavilion and the Thirteen Exceptionally Beautiful!_2

Hu Tao was the only one in high school who had that special connection with Fang Mu.

“Uncle Yi, let’s not be so formal with each other!”

“I’ll call you the morning after tomorrow, and we can get in touch then!”

“I need to deal with the Commerce Association’s matters these days.”

With that, Fang Mu hung up the phone.

Yi Han could sense from Fang Mu’s continuous refusals that Fang Mu had no intention of giving him face.

This also proved that Fang Mu was a very polite but difficult person to make friends with.

Courtesy alone wouldn’t be enough to befriend Fang Mu.

That made Yi Han more and more convinced that Fang Mu wasn’t like a typical teenager.

As a newly promoted Grandmaster Creator, Yi Han's network was amongst the elite in the Dragon Rising Federation.

Even with the Scavenger suppressing the news, Yi Han still found out about Fang Mu's true identity.

Could a boy who lost his parents early on could really be this mature during high school?!

Was Qixing keeping Fang Mu's identity as a Beast Master a secret to help train Fang Mu's mentality?

Fang Mu had mentioned the Jianmu Commerce Association in a previous call, and brought it up again this time.

If before Yi Han thought Fang Mu casually mentioned it,

Now, after understanding Fang Mu's strategy, Yi Han realized that Fang Mu's words weren't random.

So, if he wanted to curry favor with Fang Mu, he should focus on the Jianmu Commerce Association.

The Red Sleeve of the Jianmu Commerce Association was Fang Yuan.

Which means that the Jianmu Commerce Association was Fang Mu's personal enterprise.

Often, when a new commerce association opened, influential forces would give congratulatory gifts.

Not only should he attend the inauguration ceremony of the Jianmu Commerce Association, he has to prepare a generous gift as well!

After deciding on his itinerary, Fang Mu immediately approached She Wan, intending for her to travel to the Capital with him via the Beastmaster Alliance's teleportation array.

To protect him on the journey.

In the Beast Car driven by He Qing, Fang Mu said to She Wan.

"Sister Wan, this time I'm going to the Capital, I want you to accompany me to meet with Chang Le Pavilion."

Upon hearing the words "Chang Le Pavilion", She Wan immediately widened her eyes, surprised about how Fang Mu got intertwined with Chang Le Pavilion.

Didn't the two leaders of Chang Le Pavilion always bear a grudge against men?

However, when she thought about Fang Mu's status as a Grandmaster Disciple, She Wan started to think of the possibility that Chang Le Pavilion might want to actively approach Fang Mu.

She Wan sighed deeply saying,

"Young Master, before I became your guard, joining Chang Le Pavilion was my dream!"

Fang Mu targeted Chang Le Pavilion as a topic to pry something out of She Wan, which indeed bore fruit!

The fact that She Wan considered joining Chang Le Pavilion a dream, suggested she knew quite a bit about this power.

Starwheel was an extremely inclusive power, never excluding its members from joining other forces.

Fang Mu vaguely felt that amongst the official members of Starwheel who sat on the twelve Golden Chairs, there must surely be people who were important figures in some forces.

Powerful Beast Masters generally either establish their own power or join forces with others.

Because gaining resources from powers is often much easier than getting them individually.

“Sister Wan, I don’t know much about Chang Le Pavilion.”

“Could you not join Chang Le Pavilion with your previous strength?”

Upon hearing his words, She Wan’s face showed a complex expression.

“Young Master, you do know that Chang Le Pavilion is a force entirely comprised of women, right?”

“Chang Le Pavilion is led by two owners, the Big Leader has a quirky temperament and ruthless methods while Second Proprietor is gentle and fond of music.”

“However, both of them have an extreme dislike for men.”

“It’s not difficult to join Chang Le Pavilion, as long as you are a Beast Master with good looks, you will have a chance to be accepted.”

“But once you join Chang Le Pavilion, you have to sever all ties with the outside.”

“I am a Noble Lady from the She Family, I cannot disregard She Family just to join a force.”

“So, I’ve never managed to join Chang Le Pavilion!”

When Fang Mu heard She Wan’s words, he subconsciously thought of the Transfer Flower Palace leaders, Lian Xing and Yao Yue in the TV Show “Peerless Twins” he watched in his past life.

However, clearly, the two owners of the Chang Le Pavilion are different from Lian Xing and Yao Yue.

Lian Xing and Yao Yue wanted to kill all the men in the world, whereas the two owners of the Chang Le Pavilion surely hadn’t done that.

If they were to do so, the Dragon Rising Federation would certainly refuse to accommodate Chang Le Pavilion.

“Hate men?”

Fang Mu involuntarily asked back.

Usually, a woman who hated men would have been hurt by a despicable man.

Otherwise, even if the owners of Chang Le Pavilion were lesbians, they wouldn't dislike men to such an extent.

Fang Mu pondered in his heart whether or not he should interact with Chang Le Pavilion.

Fang Mu didn't like the organization that viewed people like him as disliked demographics.

Upon hearing Fang Mu's rhetorical question, She Wan realized she may have made a generalized remark.

"Young Master, it's inaccurate to say that the two lay masters of Chang Le Pavilion have a grudge against men."

"To be precise, they detest promiscuous men."

"They can still respect men who are faithful and loyal!"

By She Wan's remark, Fang Mu knew that he had guessed right.

Certainly, the two owners of Chang Le Pavilion had been "wronged" by men before.

Although, why was She Wan surprised when I said that Chang Le Pavilion wanted to contact me?

I treat you like a good guard, but you think of me as a playboy?!

Sis, you're so mean!

It was true that Fang Mu didn't have a girlfriend in his previous life of more than twenty years, but that didn't mean no girls pursued him.

Chapter 247: Chang Le Pavilion and the Thirteen Exceptionally Beautiful!_3

Fang Mu had never spent much time dealing with feelings, so he dared not call himself sentimental.

But he was sure he was monogamous!

Doesn't the Sea King get tired of hopping among so many girls?

He could be using that time to read more books and accumulate knowledge.

Continuing her introduction of Chang Le Pavilion, She Wan turned back to Fang Mu.

“Master, the influence of Chang Le Pavilion is extensive. In Chang Le Pavilion, besides the two proprietors, there are thirteen peerless beauties.”

“These thirteen beauties are rooted in thirteen different lines of work.”

“Chang Le Pavilion has widespread business involvement, with the second proprietor seldom showing his hand in terms of force.”

“However, the main proprietor’s Guardian Beast surely ranks among the top, probably even reaching the third level in the Sequential list!”

By now, Fang Mu had a general understanding of the situation in Chang Le Pavilion.

The beast car driven by He Qing had now pulled up in front of the JA City Beastmaster Alliance Branch.

Fang Mu and She Wan directly went into Lu Yuyu’s office.

Lu Yuyu had spent some time supervising construction in the Capital.

When Fang Yuan went back, he took over Lu Yuyu’s work, enabling Lu Yuyu to rush back hurriedly to JA City.

As an assigned executor taking a long holiday and not working at his post, this had a significant impact on Lu Yuyu's image.

Qian Yan had granted Fang Mu permissions in front of Lu Yuyu.

While leading Fang Mu to the teleportation hall, Lu Yuyu questioned him.

"Brother, do you have any experience with long-distance teleportation?"

"To get from here to the Capital requires a total of fifteen teleportations."

"A single spatial teleport can potentially make you feel dizzy and nauseous."

"If you have no experience, teleporting to the Capital will probably take at least an entire day in bed to recover!"

All members of the Beastmaster Alliance, without exception, have undergone special teleportation training.

Lu Yuyu was very sensitive to spatial teleportation.

In the beginning, he vomited every day for three months until his gastric juices burnt his throat, leaving him hoarse for half a year.

Even after teleporting for several decades, short-range consecutive teleportation still made Lu Yuyu extremely uncomfortable.

Lu Yuyu felt obliged to clarify the situation to Fang Mu in advance.

Upon hearing Lu Yuyu's words, Fang Mu raised an eyebrow.

He had never considered the negative sensation caused by long-distance teleportation.

However, he had made a pact with the Star Cloud Messenger of the Space System/Star Spirit System.

Even if he didn't summon the Star Cloud Messenger, it could still protect him.

Therefore, Fang Mu felt he could give it a try.

Lying in bed for a day was better than spending two or three days on the road!

“No worries Brother Lv, I think I can handle it!”

Upon entering the teleportation hall, Fang Mu immediately spotted the Space-based Beasts lined up beside the spatial array.

These high-order Space-based Beasts were constantly channeling spatial energy into the spatial array.

In the middle of the array was a group of silver creatures that looked like slugs.

These silver creatures absorbed the space energy released by these high-order Space-based Beasts and continued to draw on the array beneath their feet with the secretion from their bodies.

Seeing Fang Mu’s gaze fixed on the array, Lu Yuyu explained with a smile.

“In fact, the spatial array is both a treasure and a burden for the Beastmaster Alliance.”

“Every day, to keep the array running, at least twenty Diamond Level Space-based Beasts need to be tapped dry for each.”

“There are exactly seventy-two of these arrays in the Dragon Rising Federation.”

“Each diamond rank space series Beast Master has to recover for about three days after being drained.”

At these words, Fang Mu couldn't help but marvel.

According to Lu Yuyu's estimation, the Beastmaster Alliance had to keep a minimum of over six thousand Diamond Level Space-based Beasts.

Who knows how many Dragon Rising Coins the cost of feeding alone would be?

If the role of these high-level Space-based Beasts was only to provide spatial energy, then the key to the array was the silver slugs in the middle.

Fang Mu used the Eye of Omniscience to explore these silver slugs.

Upon investigation, he found out that these silver creatures were called Silver Shuttle Space Slugs.

The Silver Shuttle Space Slugs functioned similarly to the Dream Beasts.

The Silver Shuttle Space Slugs could establish a connection with different individuals that had each other marked.

They could replace the matter around them with spatial energy.

Each Silver Shuttle Space Slug could only sense a limited distance.

However, when numerous Silver Shuttle Space Slugs came together and were boosted by a specially forged spatial array by Spirit-smithing Masters, the thousands of spatial circuits on the array could enhance the long-distance sensing capability of the Silver Shuttle Space Slug swarm.

The more Fang Mu explored the Beastmaster world, the more he was fascinated.

On one hand, Guardian Beasts held infinite possibilities through evolution.

On the other, Guardian Beasts were integrated into every corner of the Beastmaster world and became an inseparable part of people's lives.

Ordinary people could also enjoy the benefits brought by Guardian Beasts.

For example, once an ordinary family got a Gear Broom, they wouldn't have to worry about housework anymore.

After reminding Fang Mu and seeing him still determined to teleport, Lu Yuyu immediately directed the staff around them, urging Silver Shuttle Space Slugs to employ their skill, Space Leap.

Suddenly, Fang Mu felt a strong tearing sensation around him.

The sensation was similar to bungee jumping, but even more intense.

After the intense stimulation, Fang Mu felt a churning in his stomach.

At this moment, a faint starlight emerged from him.

Chapter 248: Chang Le Pavilion and the Thirteen Exceptionally Beautiful!_4

The unpleasant feeling vanished in an instant.

Fang Mu immediately realized how powerful the Star Cloud Messenger was in protecting him.

Right! The location of the Starwheel Land might not be within the Dragon Rising Federation.

After such long-distance teleportation, the Star Cloud Messenger managed to keep him safe.

Not to mention multiple short-distance teleports within the cities of the Dragon Rising Federation!

As a Hexagram Beastmaster, long-distance teleportation was a piece of cake for She Wan.

She Wan could resist the discomfort brought by spatial transmission with her spiritual power and physical fitness.

During the teleportation process, individuals cannot perceive each other.

She Wan thought that after teleporting once, she would need at least half an hour of rest with Fang Mu before teleporting again.

However, to her surprise, Fang Mu, who appeared at the next spatial array right after her, seemed unaffected as if nothing had happened.

She failed to take care of Fang Mu, but Fang Mu started to worry about her.

“Sister Wan, are you okay?”

“If you feel uncomfortable, we can rest for a while before teleporting again!”

Hearing Fang Mu's words, She Wan quickly shook her head and said.

"Young master, I'm fine, as long as you can withstand our joint teleportation!"

Fang Mu nodded upon hearing this.

He then notified the staff controlling the current array.

Off they went, teleporting towards the Capital.

Fang Mu knew where the headquarters of the Mu Commerce Association was located.

Because the decision to go to the Capital was made suddenly, Fang Mu did not inform Fang Yuan.

Fang Mu planned to directly head to the headquarters of the Mu Commerce Association.

Fang Yuan had returned home without notifying him, giving him a surprise.

Fang Mu planned to surprise Fang Yuan in return.

Upon arriving in the Capital, Fang Mu immediately called for a Wind Sprint Antelope Car using his mobile phone.

The Wind Sprint Antelope Car, among all the standard vehicles hired by transportation companies, belonged to the high-end category.

Its price was fifteen times that of the Six-Hoof Dish Sheep Car.

If you want to ride an even more advanced Beast Car, you need to hire a dedicated driver or call for a special vehicle!

Fang Mu chose to ride the less comfortable Wind Sprint Antelope Car because the Capital was much larger than JA City.

If one were to take a Six-Hoof Dish Sheep Car in the Capital, the journey from the Beastmaster Alliance's headquarters to the Mu Commerce Association would take at least four hours.

But by riding the Wind Sprint Antelope Car, they could arrive in less than an hour.

It's said that those who can afford to ride a Wind Sprint Antelope Car must have both a fat wallet and a robust behind.

As a Guardian Beast of the antelope family, the Wind Sprint Antelope instinctively jumps when it runs.

Even if a Beastmaster tries hard to suppress it and the carriage has a shock-absorbing function, it still tends to be bumpy.

Fang Mu had never ridden a Wind Sprint Antelope Car before, always thinking such descriptions were somewhat exaggerated.

However, after actually riding a Wind Sprint Antelope Car, he felt his behind was severely pounded.

Next time, unless he's in a rush, Fang Mu said he would never take a Wind Sprint Antelope Car again.

Actually, Fang Mu could have brought He Qing with him this time.

However, He Qing couldn't cope with continuous long-distance teleportation, nor could he drive a Beast Car after teleporting.

Fang Mu chose He Qing as his coachman to help He Qing.

Fang Mu planned to let He Qing serve as Lu Xiaoyin's personal coachman when he returned this time.

As his personal housekeeper, Lu Xiaoyin had many tasks to tackle each day.

With He Qing as a personal coachman, it would be a lot easier for Lu Xiaoyin to handle affairs outside and purchase living supplies for the manor.

As for his personal coachman, Fang Mu planned to find one during this trip to the Capital.

At the very least, his personal coachman should also be able to perform his duties immediately after a long-distance teleportation.

In less than an hour, the Wind Sprint Antelope Car stopped at the entrance of Mu Commerce Association.

The Mu Commerce Association was built with the participation of gnomes, and the framework was already completed.

Looking at the grand door of the Mu Commerce Association and its interior arrangement, even She Wan, who came from the prestigious She Family of Lu City, couldn't help but appreciate its grandeur.

A person of insight would clearly see that the entire Mu Commerce Association bore the signature craftsmanship of a Grandmaster Craftsman.

Chapter 249: Let Me Set the Rules! _1

During the time that Jianmu Commerce Association was busy with infrastructure construction, the key members of Jianmu Commerce had to go out every day to search for their respective supply channels.

It was impossible that all supplies relied on Fang Mu to provide.

Fang Mu could provide a variety of high-end supplies. The Life Elixirs provided by Fang Mu to the Association could cultivate many high-quality resources.

But a power functioning as a commercial association cannot exist without low-end commodities.

Fang Yuan had discussed with Fang Mu about the purpose of creating the business association.

A phrase from Fang Mu deeply imprinted in Fang Yuan's mind,

"I hope that one day when we need any supplies, we can obtain them from Jianmu Commerce; when others need supplies, the first thing they think about is Jianmu Commerce."

This phrase from Fang Mu made Fang Yuan's blood boil.

One could say that Fang Mu's expectation is the wish of everyone in the commerce association.

Lu Bo was Fang Yuan's best partner at Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce, and has been given a high degree of trust by Fang Yuan.

The current Lu Bo was the Golden Sleeve of Jianmu Commerce, primarily responsible for the acquisition of external resources.

Lu Bo was just preparing to go out with others to negotiate cooperation with a power called the Bee Scorpion Organism, but as soon as he stepped out of the door, he saw Fang Mu.

Lu Bo had never seen Fang Mu in person before, but he recognized Fang Mu's identity at a glance.

First, Fang Mu and Fang Yuan looked at least 70% alike.

Second, the screen of Fang Yuan's mobile phone was a picture of a happy family of four.

Lu Bo had the habit of being forgetful, often borrowing Fang Yuan's mobile phone.

Furthermore, since Fang Yuan was very close with his brother, Lu Bo paid extra attention to Fang Mu's appearance.

He was curious as to what kind of person Fang Mu was, to make Fang Yuan care so much about him.

Looking at She Wan beside Fang Mu, Lu Bo's expression became intriguing.

She Wan was unquestionably a stunningly beautiful woman with an intense appearance.

But from She Wan's temperament and demeanor, it can be seen that She Wan was definitely not a young person.

Could it be that Fang Mu was bringing his girlfriend to meet his elder brother Fang Yuan, his guardian?

That doesn't seem right!

Fang Yuan had just returned from home, and if this woman really was Fang Mu's girlfriend, then Fang Yuan was definitely outdone by his own brother.

From the bottom of his heart, Lu Bo felt that Tang Lingxi and Fang Yuan were a perfect match.

But why hasn't Fang Yuan woken up to this fact after such a long time!?

"You're Little Wood, right? I'm your brother's colleague, Lu Bo."

“You can call me Brother Lu!”

“Come on, I’ll take you to see Fang Yuan.”

Although Fang Mu had never met Lu Bo, he had heard Fang Yuan mention Lu Bo’s name.

He knew that Fang Yuan and Lu Bo had a great relationship and Lu Bo had helped Fang Yuan a lot.

Initially, when Yan Wood needed a contract beast, Fang Yuan, who had just joined Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce, did not have much money.

He simply couldn’t afford a Crane Beast such as the Vermilion Sun Crane, which had a bloodline with great potential.

It was Lu Bo who lent the money to Fang Yuan.

It is in times of hardship that one can truly see another’s character.

Upon hearing Lu Bo introduce himself, Fang Mu immediately politely greeted “Hello Brother Lu”.

As soon as Fang Mu spoke, Lu Bo knew what the difference was between Fang Yuan's brother and his own brother.

At the age of fifteen or sixteen, boys are the most rebellious.

Yet Fang Yuan's brother was so polite!

Subconsciously, Lu Bo wanted to pinch Fang Mu's cheek, just as he had done with his own brother before.

But before Lu Bo could act, he heard two extremely respectful voices coming from behind him.

Both voices were filled with a trace of sincere fear and awe, as if they had just encountered some big shot.

"Paying respects to Sir Jianmu!"

Behind Lu Bo, there were three individuals. One was his deputy, a lady.

The other two men were both from the Lionheart Brigade.

In Lu Bo's eyes, the Lionheart Brigade, whose members generally owned Diamond Level Beasts, was a powerful force.

You should know that there is a significant gap between different Diamond Level Beast Masters.

Every Diamond Level Beast of the Lionheart Brigade had excellent combat capabilities.

Lu Bo was curious as to how Fang Yuan managed to recruit these people from the Lionheart Brigade.

Initially, when he heard the name "Jianmu", Lu Bo was a bit surprised.

Wasn't Fang Yuan's brother's name Fang Mu? Why had even his surname changed?

But Lu Bo soon realized,

Sir Jianmu? Jianmu Commerce!?

Could it be that Fang Yuan's brother Fang Mu, was the Grandmaster Disciple who stood behind the Commerce Association!?

No wonder he was willing to hand such a big stall to Fang Yuan!

With this thought, Lu Bo hurriedly withdrew his hand that was about to reach out.

Regardless of whether Fang Mu was Fang Yuan's brother.

Pinching the face of the big boss of the Commerce Association is unacceptable in any case!

Lu Bo also hurriedly followed the two men from the Lionheart Brigade and called Fang Mu "Sir Jianmu".

Upon hearing this, Fang Mu waved his hand with a smile and said,

"Brother Lu, I always hear my second brother mention you at home, just call me Little Wood."

"Brother Lu, are you about to go out and work?"

"If you're going out, I can go and find my second brother myself!"

At this moment, Lu Bo realized one thing. That is, Fang Yuan's fondness for his younger brother was not inborn, but cultivated afterwards!

If he had such a little brother, he would dote on him too!

"Many areas inside are still under construction, I'll take you."

"There are still forty minutes left to the scheduled appointment time, we'll make it!"

Looking at the surroundings, She Wan muttered to Fang Mu,

"Young master, Mountain Opening Construction, Keystone Construction, and Origin Construction have all made significant progress!"

"These are true masterpieces of the six Grandmaster Craftsmen and more than ten Master Craftsmen!"

When Lu Bo heard She Wan's address to Fang Mu, he immediately realized that he had thought too much.

Chapter 250: Let Me Set the Rules! _2

So, the cold beauty is not Fang Mu's girlfriend, but his guard.

Before, between Fang Yuan and Tang Lingxi, Tang Lingxi had a higher status.

Tang Lingxi is from Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce and is the mistress of Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce.

Fang Yuan is a poor guy with no connections, and he also had to take care of his younger brother and younger sister.

No matter how you look at it, it does not seem that he and Tang Lingxi are a good fit.

This is why so many people in Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce deride Fang Yuan.

There were even rumors that Fang Yuan was able to become the captain of the Golden Glove Squad in just a few years because of Tang Lingxi!

Now, it seems that the gap between Fang Yuan and Tang Lingxi is even wider, except that it is now reversed.

As Fang Yuan's brother, Lu Bo deeply felt that Fang Yuan and Tang Lingxi were a perfect match.

If such a girl, who always smiles sincerely at Fang Yuan, is not cherished, even if Fang Yuan's status is higher in the future, it will be difficult to meet another one like her!

Fang Yuan was surprised and delighted when Fang Mu suddenly came to the Capital.

Even though he knew there were many people in the room, Fang Yuan couldn't help but give Fang Mu a hug.

"Little Wood, you must be busy with something since you came to the Capital, right?"

"How long are you planning to stay in the Capital?"

Fang Mu laughed and said.

"At most five days."

"I have to deliver some documents to Teacher Cui on the first day of school. It's not good to be late!"

Hearing this, Fang Yuan reached out and took a fruit plate from the table to Fang Mu, saying,

"Good timing, as Xiao Yan will be back tomorrow night. You can talk about your situation with Xiao Yan yourself!"

Not only Lu Bo knew that Fang Yuan was a brother lover, but almost everyone in the Jianmu Commerce Association knew about it.

There was only one girl in the Golden Glove Squad brought by Fang Yuan.

She had a round face with thick glasses and a few small freckles on her face.

Because she was not very talkative, Liu Meng did not stand out in the Golden Glove Squad.

But those who knew Liu Meng knew that she was a hardcore fangirl.

Liu Meng had already started shipping the weird CP of Fang Yuan and his brother.

Seeing the scene before her eyes, as someone who liked CP a lot, Liu Meng was very satisfied!

Fang Mu greeted the other members of the Golden Glove Squad warmly without acting as a boss.

After having lunch at Jianmu Commerce Association with Fang Yuan, Fang Mu went to Fang Yuan's office.

Fang Yuan's office is nearly a thousand square meters and is a regular design.

The office is the place where Fang Yuan receives others and works, it does not need to have any special design.

It only needs to be grand, showing the depth of the Jianmu Commerce Association!

The furniture made by the Grandmaster Craftsman is just the most face-showing thing.

Fang Mu looked around and always felt that something was missing from Fang Yuan's office.

When cultivating the Age Fix Palm before, Fang Mu cultivated an Ink Jade Palm using the Blood Aged Wine.

The Ink Jade Palm is much taller than the Restoring Appearance Palm, as high as six meters, and the branches are extremely lush.

Its trunk is not as robust as the Restoring Appearance Palm's, but it is very strong.

Unlike the Restoring Appearance Palm, which produces oil every day, the ink patterns on the trunk and leaves of the Ink Jade Palm changes every day.

An Ink Jade Palm is like a world drawn by ink and wash.

Fang Mu is not sure whether the Ink Jade Palm with its artistic aura can be considered a luck-bringing guardian beast.

But placing it next to Fang Yuan's office desk is undoubtedly very suitable.

"Bro, is there anything you need help with in the operation of the Commerce Association recently?"

Fang Yuan did not find it strange that Fang Mu could bring out such an unusual guardian beast.

There are many types of guardian beasts in this world, all created by high-star creators.

Not only high-star creators, but many large-scale creature groups also have their own signature guardian beasts that belong to their forces.

These signature guard beasts can often serve as a symbol of a force.

For instance, that peony-class guardian beast in Fang Mu's room, Fang Yuan had never heard of it.

The guardian beast that looked like an artwork with each leaf being a different ink and wash painting, it was very collectible!

Those wealthy people and powerhouses who like to collect calligraphy and paintings would definitely go crazy seeing this palm tree.

The development of the Jianmu Commerce Association is proceeding smoothly, and there is nothing that Fang Mu needs to help with.

However, there is one thing that Fang Yuan needs Fang Mu to make a decision on.

"Little Wood, there is a Commerce Association Festival in about tens of days!"

"To make it in time for the Commerce Association Festival, I'm planning on having the official opening of Jianmu Commerce Association the day before the festival."

"The Commerce Association Festival is a good opportunity for Jianmu Commerce Association to make a name for itself in the Dragon Rising Federation."

"All the major forces will put forth supplies for exhibition and auction during the Commerce Association Festival."

“What should we exhibit at the Commerce Association Festival, do you have any ideas?”

“The most precious supplies that Jianmu Commerce Association currently owns should be the furniture that the master craftsmen made.”

“However, all of these things come from the three construction groups of Keystone, Origin, and Mountain Opening behind the craftsman families, which is not distinguishable.”

“It’s challenging to outdo the other commerce associations.”

Upon hearing this, Fang Mu began to contemplate.

Fang Mu had never heard of the Commerce Association Festival, which is an internal holiday among all the commerce associations.

If Fang Yuan’s words are to be believed, the Commerce Association Festival can be equivalent to an auction.

Only, this auction is not organized by a single force, but jointly hosted by several forces.

Everyone at the auction shows the status of their commerce association by the level of the items they put out for auction.
