

Beast Tamer 261

Chapter 261: Fang Mu's Killing Intent!_1

Beast Masters are required to fill out an information card when they enter college.

The card will indicate who their guardians will be throughout their university years.

Under normal circumstances, the guardians listed on the card are usually parents or grandparents.

But the situation in the Fang family is quite unique.

Fang Qin, Fang Yuan, Yan Wood, and Fang Mu lost their grandparents at a young age, and their parents passed away when they were still children.

However, the guardian section on the information card is mandatory.

There are combat classes and adventure classes in college.

There are generally no casualties in combat classes, but there's a chance of disability.

After all, by the time they reach university, the Guardian Beasts of Talented Beast Masters have usually been upgraded to the Gold Rank.

The purpose of a combat class is to hone combat skills, and there are always times when one can't hold back against a similarly skilled opponent.

Combat class instructors who are guiding from the side can't always protect students from harm.

The outdoor adventure class is designed for students to hunt vicious wild beasts or exterminate unconventional beasts in the wilderness.

An accident during an outdoor adventure could result in more than a disability; it could prove fatal!

Fortunately, the teachers in charge of the outdoor adventure class at Dragon Garden University of the Capital City were at least Four-pointed Star Beast Masters, contracted to Diamond Level Beasts.

At least two teachers would always accompany an outdoor adventure class.

As a result, there have been almost no accidents at Dragon Garden University for nearly two years.

Since Fang Yuan also lived in the Capital,

After explaining the situation to the school, Yan Wood filled in Fang Yuan's mobile number as the guardian's contact.

Yan Wood was now in her junior year and would be a senior when the new school year started.

Fang Yuan saved the phone number of Yan Wood's teacher, but her teacher had never called Fang Yuan.

Fang Mu noticed Fang Yuan's frown and his countenance turned serious.

Fang Mu knew that his older brother would never show such an expression unless something critical had occurred.

"Elder brother, is there any trouble?"

On hearing Fang Mu's question, Fang Yuan shook his head subconsciously.

Fang Yuan sincerely hoped that nothing would happen to Yan Wood.

If it were any other time, Fang Yuan definitely wouldn't have told Fang Mu anything.

In Fang Yuan's eyes, Fang Mu had always been a child until recently, and sharing troubles would only worry Fang Mu.

But now, Fang Mu had become the cornerstone of the Fang family.

If Yan Wood were to encounter trouble, it would be up to Fang Mu to resolve it!

"It's a call from Xiao Yan's teacher."

After stating his explanation to Fang Mu, Fang Yuan took a deep breath and answered the phone.

Upon hearing what Fang Yuan said, Fang Mu's left fist clenched with cold sweat emerging from his palm.

Fang Mu had also filled out an information card when he was attending Jinghai High School for Beast Masters.

Since Fang Qin was based in JA City at the Jinghai Army Headquarters, he filled in Fang Qin as his guardian.

Fang Mu knew very well that significant issues must have arisen for a teacher to call a student's guardian.

Before Fang Mu awoke to his Destiny Guidebook and became a Beast Master, he was just an ordinary person.

Back then, whenever anyone in the Fang family encountered a problem, all Fang Mu could do was silently endure his worry.

But now, Fang Mu had the ability, and everything was finally starting to turn around.

No matter what, Fang Mu didn't want anything to happen to Yan Wood.

"Hello, I am Yan Wood's guardian."

Before Fang Yuan even finished speaking, a serious voice came from the other end of the phone.

"You're Fang Yuan, right? According to the information card, you're Yan Wood's brother."

"There was a conflict between Yan Wood and another student in her group during a wilderness combat exercise. Yan Wood and her Guardian Beast sustained minor injuries."

“The other student, Wang Xingming, was severely injured. While his life is not in danger, his Guardian Beast might not make it!”

“Wang Xingming’s parents have already arrived at the school’s infirmary, you should come directly to the infirmary too!”

“Yan Wood is here too.”

“Both of Yan Wood’s hands are fractured, and she is currently undergoing treatment.”

Upon hearing this, a sense of relief washed over Fang Yuan knowing that Yan Wood’s life was not in danger.

As Yan Wood’s brother who watched her grow up, he knew her well.

Yan Wood had an easy-going temperament and wasn’t a troublemaker.

She was aware of her family’s situation and neglected to get involved with anyone or anything, avoiding trouble at all costs.

So, if Yan Wood got involved in a conflict, it must have been something that she couldn’t tolerate.

Fang Yuan had heard of Wang Xingming from Yan Wood before.

Not long ago, Yan Wood had come across an opportunity, and a large club extended an invitation to her.

Other students who received the same offer included Wang Xingming and three other classmates.

Yan Wood had once told Fang Yuan that Wang Xingming had asked her more than once to give up and forfeit her spot to him.

Could this conflict have been caused by this?

Fang Yuan didn't think that this was sufficient to upset Yan Wood, already believing there must be something else behind it.

"I'm on my way!"

"Until I arrive, I hope that you won't allow Wang Xingming's parents to have contact with Yan Wood."

"Any issues should wait until I, the primary guardian, am able to discuss them with Wang Xingming's guardians."

Upon hearing Fang Yuan's words, the serious voice on the phone eased a bit.

"No problem, I would do as you've asked even without you requesting."

"The events have been witnessed by me and another teacher, and the course was recorded."

"You can directly take Yan Wood away when you arrive. However, Wang Xingming's parents might get emotional."

Chapter 262:

"You'll know the full situation when you come and review the recordings!"

Fang Yuan was deeply grateful when he heard this.

"Thank you!"

"May I ask somewhat impertinently, what exactly does the family of Wang Xingming want in blaming Yan Wood for this incident?"

Earlier, Yan Wood's teacher had already told him that he could directly take Yan Wood away; this indicated that Yan Wood was not at fault in this matter.

When Fang Yuan was in college, he had also been invited by the clubs, where people had approached him to relinquish his spot.

These people wouldn't have great influence, but they did come from well-off families.

If they were truly capable, they could rely on their connections to shove their children into large clubs to gain prestige.

There was no need for these shady tactics to oppress their competitors.

If he had encountered such a thing in the past, Fang Yuan would have to tolerate it.

Revenge in secret was often far more shocking than open confrontation!

Now, due to Fang Mu becoming a disciple of the Grandmaster Creator, they wouldn't need to be afraid of anyone when Yan Wood was in the right.

Fang Yuan was prepared to see what the parents of Wang Xingming were up to and how to deal with them accordingly.

The person on the other end of the phone spoke quietly upon Fang Yuan's question.

“They demand that if Wang Xingming’s guardian beast cannot be protected, they will kill Yan Wood’s Vermilion Sun Crane.”

“If any kind of sequelae remain in Wang Xingming’s body, they demand Yan Wood to pay with her life!”

“Rest assured, I have reported this accident to the school.”

“The school will mediate, and they won’t be allowed to act willfully!”

Fang Mu had been listening to the conversation between Fang Yuan and Yan Wood’s teacher on the side.

Upon hearing this, he could no longer suppress his anger, and emitted a cold huff.

In the case of an accident, the school could indeed intervene.

The power where Wang Xingming’s lineage came from couldn’t possibly not give face to Dragon Garden University of the Capital City.

But to say such words, they definitely wouldn’t give up in private.

This was why Yan Wood's teacher sounded so grave and helpless.

Fang Yuan thanked Yan Wood's teacher again before hanging up the phone.

The Beast Car, drawn by three Diamond-ranked Flame Hellhounds, had already arrived at the storage area for Beast Cars at Dragon Garden University in the Capital City.

It was dismissal time, and countless students' gazes fell on the Beast Car drawn by the three Flame Hellhounds.

Whether it was the three Flame Hellhounds or the several bicolor rubies embedded on the carriage, they all attracted attention.

Just as Yin Nanzhen parked the car and was about to help Fang Yuan and Fang Mu open the door, they found that Fang Yuan and Fang Mu had already exited the vehicle and were hastily making their way into the school, followed by She Wan.

The eyes of the people who were originally focusing on the Beast Car almost simultaneously turned to Fang Mu and Fang Yuan.

Fang Mu was wearing a set of casual clothes that Yan Wood had just sent to him a short time ago.

Fang Mu never intended to be deliberately low-key.

However, tailoring a set of custom-made clothes required a significant amount of time.

She Wan was currently making formal attire for Fang Mu to attend a banquet, so she didn't have the time to design regular clothes for him!

Fang Yuan, as a key figure in the Mu Commerce Association, had to meet many people, so he had several sets of regular clothes hastily made by some Weaving Grandmasters.

The clothes made by the Weaving Grandmasters were highly conspicuous in the crowd.

Many students started to speculate about the identities of Fang Mu and Fang Yuan.

With She Wan constantly following behind Fang Mu, it was clear that she was in a servant's role.

Fang Yuan verified the guardian's information at the side door of Dragon Garden University in the Capital City, and then, following the map, hurried to the infirmary with Fang Mu.

Fang Mu could hear the conversation between Fang Yuan and Yan Wood's teacher on the phone, so naturally, as a Hexagram Beastmaster, She Wan could as well.

She silently wished for both Wang Xingming and his parents in her heart.

When She Wan first came into contact with Fang Mu, she felt that he was confident, sunny, and very polite and friendly to people.

People like that tended to be innocent at heart.

But the more she got to know Fang Mu, the more She Wan realized that his heart was not filled with innocence.

He was more like a big, grey wolf!

Fang Mu's attitude towards Yi Han still made She Wan feel scared.

Fang Mu was always unwilling to take a loss in front of a Grandmaster Creator, why would he leave face for someone who had wronged his sister!?

Only pray that Wang Xingming's parents do not court death, or else it won't just be a bitter lesson!

At that moment, Yan Wood was in the infirmary, her hands fixed in splints, both hanging around her neck.

A middle-aged woman who was writing a prescription spoke softly to Yan Wood.

"Your hands were completely shattered!"

"Thank goodness treatment was timely, otherwise, if the splintered bones had pierced your flesh leading to necrosis, we would have had to amputate!"

"Take this prescription to the dispensary to get the medicine, you should be okay after drinking it for twenty to thirty days."

On hearing this, Yan Wood instinctively nodded, her face turned pale.

If students were injured during the actual combat class at Dragon Garden University of the Capital City, the school would shoulder all the medical costs.

The materia medica written in the school doctor's prescription was valuable, but Yan Wood didn't have to pay a single cent.

However, after regaining consciousness from a faint, Yan Wood found out about the situation of Wang Xingming.

Wang Xingming's guardian beast was killed!

Even if this matter wasn't her fault, she was still the one who had caused trouble.

Thinking of this, Yan Wood felt extremely guilty towards Fang Qin, Fang Yuan, and Fang Mu.

Chapter 263:

If the matter could end with herself, Yan Wood was willing to bear any consequence.

However, Yan Wood was very afraid that the Wang Family would harm Fang Mu.

Fang Qin served in the Jinghai Army, while Fang Yuan was at the Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce.

The Wang Family had no way of targeting Fang Qin, and taking action against Fang Yuan could potentially offend the Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce.

The Wang Family was not comparable to the Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce, and would not want to provoke an enemy like them.

But Fang Mu was just an ordinary high school student. If something had happened to him when he was alone at home...

The more Yan Wood thought about it, the more anxious she felt, even her eyes started to redden with urgency.

At this moment, Yan Wood saw Teacher Zhou and Han Nini, her best friend in college, walk in.

Zhou Zheng took the prescription written by the school doctor and said to Yan Wood.

“Your guardian will be here soon. I’ll go and fetch the medicine for you since your hands are injured.”

“If you have any concerns, you can directly raise them to the school!”

“The Blueprint Club has heard about this incident and has cancelled your and Wang Xingming’s selection, but don’t take it too hard.”

“With your Destiny Guardian Beast’s enhancement to the Vermilion Sun Crane, even if you don’t have a contract with a second Guardian Beast by the time you graduate from college.”

“You’d still have more than enough qualifications to join a medium-sized club.”

“You don’t need to fixate on the idea of joining a large club.”

“Once you’ve achieved some results in competitions, large clubs will come and scout you!”

Having said that, Zhou Zheng patted Yan Wood’s shoulder and went to the pharmacy to fetch her medicine.

Yan Wood’s mind was not on the Blueprint Club at this moment.

Compared to the Blueprint Club and other external things, her family was what Yan Wood cared about the most!

Han Nini indignantly said.

“Wang Xingming’s parents disgust me! They’re even more disgusting than Wang Xingming himself!”

“Yan Wood, this is not your fault.”

“If you hadn’t ordered the Vermilion Sun Crane to fight back and ignite the toxic substance causing an explosion.”

“You would’ve been poisoned to death by now!”

“Wang Xingming clearly intended to kill you!”

“I just looked through the recorder once. Everything in there is very clear.”

Yan Wood remained silent at her words.

Han Nini’s background was similar to Wang Xingming’s, so she couldn’t comprehend Yan Wood’s concerns.

Some things can never be truly understood without experiencing them.

A thought suddenly emerged in Yan Wood’s mind; perhaps she should meet Wang Xingming’s parents.

To see what Wang Xingming’s parents had to say.

Before Yan Wood had a chance to do something for her family, she didn't want to bring trouble home under any circumstances.

At this moment, the door of the School Infirmary was opened once again.

Yan Wood instantly heard two familiar voices.

"Xiao Yan!"

"Third Sister!"

Yan Wood turned her head and immediately saw Fang Yuan and Fang Mu.

At that moment, Yan Wood could no longer hide her emotions and large tears welled up and rolled down her cheeks.

Even the strongest people tend to soften when they see their family.

Fang Mu, who had been anxious about Yan Wood's injured hands over the phone, couldn't take it anymore.

He took a quick step forward and gently wiped away Yan Wood's tears with his fingertip.

Then he reached out and gently patted Yan Wood's shoulder.

Fang Mu's movements were gentle, not touching Yan Wood's arms.

"Don't be afraid, I'm here!"

At this moment, Fang Mu's protective paternal instincts fully awoke.

His "daughter" had been bullied and threatened to this extent, he couldn't bear it!

Outside, Fang Mu and Fang Yuan happened to meet Zhou Zheng, who was about to go to the pharmacy to get the medicine.

Under Zhou Zheng's guidance, they had thoroughly viewed the complete content of the recorder.

After watching the recorder, both Fang Mu and Fang Yuan couldn't help but exclaim, "What a good explosion."

Wang Xingming's Guardian Beast was a Paralysis Stinger Bee.

The Paralysis Stinger Bee could release a poisonous fog from the poison glands on both sides of its abdomen.

The fog could paralyze the nerves of its target, causing irreversible damage to them.

Inside the bee's stinger was another toxin, which would explode when overlapping with the toxin in the gland.

Hidden within the poisonous fog, the Paralysis Stinger Bee clearly targeted the Vermilion Sun Crane's head.

Once the Vermilion Sun Crane died, even if the two teachers acted quickly, Yan Wood under the influence of a mental blow would certainly inhale a large amount of toxin.

With extensive nerve death, she would likely become a vegetable even if she survived.

Moreover, if Wang Xingming dared to unhesitatingly kill the Vermilion Sun Crane, how could he possibly show mercy to Yan Wood?

The so-called conflict was nothing more than Wang Xingming constantly picking on Yan Wood, while Yan Wood avoided him.

It only started when Wang Xingming targeted Yan Wood to affect the team's score and insulted Yan Wood's parents, that Yan Wood began to fight back.

And she always maintained self-control in her resistance.

Seeing this, both Fang Mu and Fang Yuan felt a tug at their hearts.

At this moment, Fang Mu felt very regretful. He should have just directly told Yan Wood that he was a disciple of the Grandmaster Creator without overthinking.

In that case, when encountering scum like Wang Xingming, Yan Wood wouldn't have to be so cautious!

Fang Yuan adopted a parental posture.

While looking at Yan Wood anxiously, he addressed Zhou Zheng.

"Teacher Zhou, please accompany me to meet Wang Xingming's parents."

Yan Wood didn't know why Fang Mu had come with Fang Yuan.

But upon hearing Fang Yuan's words, she quickly said, "Second Brother, I want to go too!"

Hearing this, Fang Yuan was about to shake his head at Yan Wood when he heard Fang Mu speak very seriously.

"Second Brother, I'll come with you and Third Sister."

Chapter 264: Fang Mu's Killing Intent!_4

After speaking, Fang Mu supported Yan Wood by her waist and stood beside Fang Yuan.

Teacher Zhou glanced at the time and said earnestly,

"The school should be arranging someone for mediation soon."

"Why don't you wait a little while, and after the mediator comes, I will take you to meet Wang Xingming's parents?"

Hearing this, Fang Mu gently shook his head at Teacher Zhou.

“Thank you Teacher Zhou for caring so much about Yan. We can mediate on our own.”

After saying this, Fang Mu led Yan Wood out of the medical office first.

Behind Yan Wood, Han Ninin, who had been worried about Yan Wood’s condition, blinked twice.

Could this person be the younger brother that Yan Wood often mentioned?

Why did she feel such a strong boyfriend vibe from Yan’s little brother?

This young man is too cool!

Teacher Zhou is not Yan Wood’s homeroom teacher, but her practical training teacher.

Yan Wood is an exchange student, and her supervising teacher had just returned to Jinghai Tianyu University.

After Teacher Zhou reported this matter to the supervising teacher at Jinghai Tianyu University, he learned that Yan Wood’s family situation was not good.

But what he now saw clearly did not match what he had heard.

The clothes worn by Yan's older brother must be worth no less than two million Dragon Rising Coins!

Clothes are only everyday consumables.

How can people who can afford such clothes be described as coming from a poor family!?

As Fang Mu just arrived at the office door, he saw the office door being pushed open from the inside.

"Don't tell us these useless things, immediately let Yan come to me!"

"If she doesn't come, I will personally find her!"

"What do you mean this is something my son started?"

"If she had not let that vile bird fight back, how would my son get hurt? How would the Guardian Beast die!?"

Hearing this, Fang Mu suddenly laughed in anger.

Fang Mu turned his head to Fang Yuan and said.

“Second brother, let Sister Wan and me accompany Third Sister in.”

“You go to the pharmacy first and prepare the medicine for Third Sister, just in time to let Third Sister take her medicine before dinner!”

“Avoid spicy and stimulating food for bone injuries, let’s not go to Qinglong Restaurant for hotpot tonight, let’s just go back to Ling Shi Restaurant for something light!”

Initially, Fang Yuan wanted to shake his head. When it came to this kind of dispute, Fang Yuan always wanted to stand at the forefront.

But thinking that his capability to solve problems was also dependent on Fang Mu’s power, he thought it’s better if Fang Mu handled this situation!

In Fang Yuan’s heart, although Fang Mu was young, he was a very measured and skilled person.

Otherwise, he wouldn’t have become a disciple of the Grandmaster Creator and been so loved by him.

And in just one night, he managed to thoroughly settle Yin Nanzhen!

“Alright! I’ll go prepare the medicine and reserve a place at Ling Shi Restaurant.”

Fang Yuan and Fang Mu were speaking in a low voice.

The people making a commotion in Teacher Zhou’s office couldn’t hear what they were saying clearly, but Teacher Zhou heard it clearly.

Qinglong Restaurant! Ling Shi Restaurant!

What kind of places are these!? A meal costing at least several hundred thousand Dragon Rising Coins!

Picking a fight with such people and acting so arrogant, it serves the Wang Family right.

If Fang Mu knew what was going on in Wang Xingming’s mind right now, he would certainly shake his head unconsciously.

The Wang Family is not simply down on their luck. They knew about Yan Wood’s situation and chose to treat Yan Wood in this way.

If he hadn't become a Beast Master and obtained two Destiny Guardian Beasts, enhancing them to become powerful.

Then it wouldn't be the Wang Family who is down on their luck, but his family of four!

The people in the office couldn't hear what the people outside were saying, but they could hear the sounds coming from outside.

A stout woman with shoulder-length hair dashed out of the office in one stride.

The moment she saw Yan Wood, she lunged forward, wanting to lay her hands on her.

She completely disregarded that Yan Wood's hands were in splints and hung around her neck at this moment.

She Wan was about to step forward to stop this woman's movements, when she saw Fang Mu stretch out his hand and forcefully block the woman, he coldly said,

"You must be Wang Xingming's mother, right? I am a family member of Yan Wood."

"You must have seen the footage of the incident, and you know who is right and who is wrong."

“Do you have any particular reason for wanting to meet Yan Wood’s guardian?”

As a young man, Fang Mu was supposed to be angry, even furious.

But right now, Fang Mu was terrifyingly calm, even what he said was orderly and polite!

She Wan had never heard Fang Mu speak in such a sharp and pointed tone before.

Apart from the coldness in his pointed tone, She Wan also felt a murderous intent.

Chapter 265: My Hellhound is Hungry!_1

The intent to kill was so real it pierced to the bone.

If this murderous intent were amplified by dozens of times, this chubby middle-aged woman would probably feel like an injured cub being targeted by a male lion.

Such killing intent, evolved from love for the young, won’t fade easily unless blood is shed.

Fang Mu’s restraint was not a gesture of mercy for the Wang Family. He was simply deciding what outcome to bestow on them.

Otherwise, rage rather than murderous intent would be stirring within Fang Mu now.

She Wan was afraid Fang Mu would act against the Wang Family at the King City Dragon Garden Beastmaster University's teacher office.

If Fang Mu spoke up, she would inevitably be unable to refuse.

It would undoubtedly bring about severe repercussions.

Fang Mu had the backing of Qixing, the Grandmaster Creator, so this matter would inevitably be quelled in the end.

But if she were the one to take action, the ensuing gossip would undoubtedly put the She Family under enormous public pressure.

The family, aiming to maintain their relations with Fang Mu, would not make any move.

However, this could be used as an excuse by her uncles to undermine her father.

Furthermore, if Fang Mu acted, the Grandmaster Creator backing him might have some complaints.

Even if Fang Mu remained unaffected, and still had the favored status of the Grandmaster Creator,

Yan Wood's future life at the university would have become extremely difficult.

As her guard, She Wan couldn't warn Fang Mu about these repercussions.

She only hoped that Yan Wood could curb Fang Mu's anger.

If this matter was addressed outside the Dragon Garden Beastmaster University, it would be viewed as nothing serious.

She could make a random phone call to obliterate the Wang Family from the map of the Dragon Rising Federation in a hundred different ways.

If Fang Mu revealed even a hint of dissatisfaction with the Wang Family, the Wang Family's branch where Wang Xingming resided would be targeted by those seeking to curry favor with Fang Mu.

Even many Wang Families could be mistakenly harmed as a result.

Since knowing that her son and Yan Wood were both favored by the Blueprint Club, Du Xiumei had investigated Yan Wood's identity.

It was precisely because Du Xiumei had investigated Yan Wood's identity that she allowed Wang Xingming to act so recklessly.

Even the emerging powers operating in the capital understood one thing: you can only mess with people far beneath your level.

Because messing with someone on your level could easily backfire.

Who knows if those forces are backed by a much more powerful entity than yours.

Yan Wood was a commoner, without even parents.

Du Xiumei never considered her a threat.

As a result, Du Xiumei didn't expect Yan Wood to stand against Wang Xingming, fighting him for a reserved seat at the Blueprint Club.

To secure a spot for Wang Xingming within the Blueprint Club, she could pull some strings.

Du Xiumei was not incapable of achieving this.

But to achieve this, she would have to spend no less than four hundred and fifty thousand Dragon Rising Coins.

Comparatively, it was much easier to eliminate Yan Wood during an outdoor survival exercise and pay a few hundred thousand Dragon Rising Coins as compensation.

The other three were willing to give up competing with Wang Xingming.

Du Xiumei was originally planning to have a party at home to celebrate Wang Xingming's early admission to the Blueprint Club.

But Du Xiumei never expected things to turn out this way.

Fang Mu was clearly younger than Yan Wood.

Even such a young boy dared to question her, as if she could be easily manipulated.

Du Xiumei intended to teach Yan Wood and her damned younger brother a severe lesson about how the real and dark world of adults really functioned.

“Explanation?”

“You think you deserve an explanation from me!?”

“Yan Wood, you’re surprisingly bold!”

“You should know the consequences of your actions, right?”

“I’ll give you a chance now. Kill that damned bird of yours with your own hands and compensate my son!”

“Then I will consider not taking action against your family.”

Du Xiumei stared at Yan Wood.

While speaking, she reached out to grab Yan Wood’s hair.

But before she could touch Yan Wood, a young man by her side caught her hand.

Fang Mu neatly twisted her arm and kicked it towards Du Xiumei's elbow.

A crisp sound of a bone fracture followed by Du Xiumei's scream echoed.

Hearing Du Xiumei's scream, a bald middle-aged man rushed out from inside the house.

His body surged with spiritual power, clearly attempting to summon a Guardian Beast.

But when he thought of being at Dragon Garden Beastmaster University, the bald middle-aged man forced himself to stop.

Cold sweat covered his back.

Although he didn't summon his Guardian Beast, the bald middle-aged man aimed a punch at Fang Mu.

She Wan stepped in front of Fang Mu, seeing this situation.

She grabbed the fist of the bald middle-aged man with both hands and twisted it into a rope-like shape.

By the time She Wan let go, the bald middle-aged man's right arm had lost its form and turned into a puddle of liquid.

A short-haired woman walked out of the office.

A badge representing the identity of a teacher from Dragon Garden Beastmaster University was hanging on her chest.

"What's going on here! Where's Zhou Zheng?"

Lu Shan had always thought Zhou Zheng was outside.

Not only Yan Wood and Wang Xingming were injured during the outdoor adventure course; there were a few other parents in the office who needed to be accompanied by Lu Shan.

Now, upon hearing an argument outside without any interference, she rushed out.

Seeing Yan Wood, Lu Shan instinctively guarded her.

But soon Lu Shan found that Yan Wood, who had wounded both hands, was not in a weak position in this conflict.

Fang Mu spoke when he saw Lu Shan.

“Hello, teacher, we have finished communicating with Wang Xingming’s parents.”

“It was Wang Xingming’s parents who started this.”

Chapter 266: My Hellhound is Hungry!_2

“There should be surveillance in the corridor, you will see clearly if you check!”

“We’re going to leave now.”

After speaking, Fang Mu turned his head and softly said to Yan Wood.

“Third Sister, go look for Second Brother, you don’t need to worry about things here anymore.”

“Once your injury is healed, you can continue attending classes!”

Yan Wood appeared carefree and casual in her actions.

But in reality, Yan Wood was a person with a very delicate heart.

Yan Wood was initially panic-stricken, but she quickly noticed the unusual circumstances regarding this incident.

The first was the clothes that Fang Yuan was wearing.

The clothes Fang Yuan wore were too lavish and exquisite.

This kind of attire was simply not something their family could afford in usual times.

Yan Wood couldn't help but think of Jianmu, who Fang Yuan had mentioned before.

Fang Yuan had always been helping a Maker's Assistant named Jianmu to build a chamber of commerce.

A week ago, Yan Wood had just received a money transfer of two hundred thousand Dragon Rising Coins from Fang Yuan.

Fang Yuan even specifically told her not to hesitate in buying food for the Vermilion Sun Crane.

Could it be that the courage she had when she faced the parents of Wang Xingming had originated from this!?

But soon, Yan Wood dismissed this thought.

Her second brother was helping someone else, it was only natural to be as careful as possible in his actions, rather than causing trouble for Jianmu.

If Jianmu got angry because of this, then the situation that was just starting to improve would disappear completely.

When Du Xiumei rushed up, Yan Wood deliberately positioned herself in front of Fang Mu.

Even if a Beast Master was seriously injured, their physical condition would be much stronger than that of an ordinary person.

Furthermore, a Beast Master's strength was greater than an ordinary person's, Yan Wood was afraid that Fang Mu would get hurt.

But Fang Mu directly bypassed her and straightforwardly taught Du Xiumei a lesson.

Fang Mu won in the contest of strength against Du Xiumei, this could explain a lot of things.

Fang Mu has undoubtedly become a Beast Master!

Thinking of this, the worry and fear were quickly thrown to the back of Yan Wood's mind.

Feeling the temperature of Fang Mu's palm on her waist, Yan Wood softly asked Fang Mu.

"Little Wood, have you already become a Beast Master now!?"

Fang Mu had long guessed that Yan Wood would be able to notice something was up.

In response to Yan Wood's inquiry, Fang Mu smiled at Yan Wood.

"Third sister, indeed, I have now become a Beast Master."

"Let's go find Second Brother, after we find him we can eat together."

"Tonight, I was originally going to hold a welcome dinner for you!"

Yan Wood received a confirmed answer.

Although she wasn't sure how Fang Mu had suddenly become a Beast Master, it didn't stop Yan Wood from being happy for Fang Mu.

A big smile appeared on Yan Wood's face.

She even started to tremble with laughter.

The sudden movement of Yan Wood's body immediately attracted the wound on her hands.

Seeing this, Fang Mu felt both heartache and helplessness.

Fang Mu knew that Yan Wood would definitely ask him about the situation of the Wang family later.

Now that Yan Wood knew he had become a Beast Master she was happy, but she felt just as worried.

So, Fang Mu simply pressed his head next to Yan Wood's ear and said softly,

"Third Sister, I've been accepted as a disciple by a Grandmaster Creator."

“Have you heard the name ‘Jianmu’ from Second Brother?”

“I am Jianmu!”

Upon hearing this, Yan Wood trembled and her eyes widened.

It took a good while for Yan Wood to recover from the shock.

If it wasn’t for the fact that both her arms were in slings hung around her neck at the moment, Yan Wood would definitely be jumping up and down hugging Fang Mu in excitement.

Her little brother had made it, how wonderful!

Originally, Yan Wood was prepared to ask about the Wang Family’s situation, but now she felt there was no need to ask anything anymore.

She Wan had been waiting to see what kind of instructions Fang Mu would issue and how he would resolve this dispute.

But, surprisingly, even after they finished eating at Ling Shi Restaurant, Fang Mu didn’t say anything further.

The Wang family's situation seemed to be just a side note.

Not only Fang Mu, but neither Fang Yuan nor Yan Wood mentioned it during dinner.

The conversation between the three of them remained centered on their family of four.

Yin Nanzhen saw Yan Wood's arm injury and inquired about the situation from She Wan more than once.

Yin Nanzhen had now become Fang Mu's subordinate.

The fact that Fang Mu used so many high-purity Life Elixirs and Dark Element Elixirs to develop Yin Nanzhen showed how much Fang Mu valued him.

Despite She Wan seeing Yin Nanzhen as a competitor, she was willing to give him some information in return when he asked.

All Yin Nanzhen could think was that the Wang family was simply "courting death in the middle of the night!"

Yin Nanzhen knew that many forces were doing ruthless things in secret, things that were not within the Dragon Rising Federation's scope of allowance.

Actually, if an ordinary person had sufficient funds, they could also place bounties in the black market.

Of course, the premise was not to be swindled in the black market.

In order to earn money to buy high-purity Light Element Elixirs, Yin Nanzhen had previously taken jobs to solve other people's troubles for pay.

If the Wang family's actions weren't so overbearing and ruthless, there might have been room for resolving the conflicts between the younger generation.

The Wang family wanted Yan Wood's life and even threatened the safety of Yan Wood's family.

The Wang family's actions were certainly not just empty words.

Yin Nanzhen wanted to understand Fang Mu better through this incident, to know what kind of temperament Fang Mu had.

Now, rather than saying Fang Mu was his employer, it would be better to say that Fang Mu was his master.

Understanding the master's temperament was the most necessary thing a servant should do.

Chapter 267: My Hellhound is Hungry!_3

She Wan probably had the same thoughts as himself at this point.

The Beast Car parked in the relaxation area of Jianmu Commerce Association

Just as Yan Wood and Fang Yuan had just got out of the car and Yin Nanzhen was thinking about putting his three Fiery Hellhounds away,

Fang Mu spoke to him.

"The Fiery Hellhounds just improved their bloodlines, it's the time when they need to replenish the most."

"Tonight, you should take the Fiery Hellhounds to the Wang Family for an extra meal."

"If you think you can't take on the Wang Family, you can ask Sister Wan to accompany you."

Fang Mu purposely waited until Yan Wood and Fang Yuan had walked some distance before speaking to Yin Nanzhen.

Yan Wood and Fang Yuan did not hear clearly what Fang Mu said to Yin Nanzhen, but She Wan was standing nearby and heard everything.

Yin Nanzhen and She Wan were both taken aback by Fang Mu's words, finding it hard to imagine that such a statement would come out of Fang Mu's mouth.

At this moment, She Wan and Yin Nanzhen both shivered involuntarily.

Both of them now understood how Fang Mu treated his enemies.

Underneath his polite and mild exterior, Fang Mu also had a heart that made tough decisions without hesitation.

"Young master, I will go with Yin Nanzhen to the Wang Family tonight."

"My Enforcer of Death's Decree hasn't eaten a Soul of Life for a long time."

"The Wang Family probably has a Five Point Star Beastmaster with a Diamond Level Beast contract, Yin Nanzhen alone will make a big fuss."

Hearing this, Fang Mu looked at She Wan.

“Sister Wan, I’ll have to trouble you to make this journey!”

“Remember, since it’s an extra meal, try to eat as much as you can.”

After saying this, Fang Mu quickened his pace, and soon caught up with Yan Wood and Fang Yuan.

She Wan and Yin Nanzhen exchanged glances, knowing that Fang Mu’s words meant to leave none of the Wang Family alive.

Fang Mu was not normally a person who would vent his anger on others, but Wang Family’s matriarch Du Xiumei threatened Yan Wood using her family.

Then don’t blame me for returning the favor!

Fang Mu could have waited a while before dealing with this matter, but he chose not to.

Fang Mu wanted to use this incident to warn others in Dragon Garden Beastmaster University who had ill intentions towards Yan Wood.

The fate of the Wang Family will be a warning to them!

Let others think twice before plotting against Yan Wood.

This would undoubtedly be of great benefit to Yan Wood.

It was Yan Wood's lifelong dream to join a large club guild.

Later, when large club guilds invite Yan Wood, she will inevitably face similar situations.

The fate of the Wang Family can serve as a good warning to prevent similar incidents from happening again in the future.

Ever since the construction of the Jianmu Commerce Association, Yan Wood has never been here.

After Fang Yuan arranged a room for Yan Wood, he placed a leather case on the table in Yan Wood's room.

Seeing this, Yan Wood laughed and said.

“Second brother, is this case full of Dragon Rising Coins you prepared for me!?”

“If it’s filled with Dragon Rising Coins, there should be at least five hundred thousand.”

Fang Yuan opened the case in response and took out several elixirs prepared for the Lionheart Brigade.

Then he laid out the elixirs in front of Yan Wood.

“This is not from me, it was prepared by Little Wood for you!”

“You’ve been having trouble with your hands lately, so you don’t have to go to school.”

“You might as well stay here at the Jianmu Commerce Association. I can take care of you.”

“Meanwhile, you can use these elixirs over the next three months to upgrade the bloodline and quality of your Vermilion Sun Crane.”

“Then find another Crane Beast to contract.”

“Then you won’t have to wait for large club guilds to come to school to select you!”

“During this time, you could raise your Battle Network Ranking to the Platinum Rank promotion game.”

“By then, not only the large club guilds but even the top Grade A club guilds might reach out to you!”

Looking at the box of elixirs and about to say something, Yan Wood almost bit her own tongue.

After a while, Yan Wood asked Fang Mu earnestly.

‘You gave me so many elixirs, won’t it affect your side?’

Fang Mu shook his head at her.

Only Yan Wood and Fang Yuan were in the room now, Fang Mu took out two other brocade boxes and handed them to Yan Wood and Fang Yuan respectively.

“Second brother, third sister, if our elder sister becomes the disciple of the ‘Dragon Mother’, you guys shouldn’t fall behind!”

“Third sister, haven’t you always wanted to break into the professional league and build your own team?”

“Now that our family has the means, you can completely start a club of your own.”

“By then, it will be attached to the Jianmu Commerce Association.”

“With the support from the second brother’s side, the club can grow rapidly!”

These words from Fang Mu directly expanded Yan Wood’s mindset and lit up her eyes.

Fang Yuan thought for a moment after hearing Fang Mu’s words, and he too gave a moving expression.

The renowned clubs of today are all backed by major forces.

The purpose of these forces sponsoring clubs is to create an image that showcases the strength of their forces.

Moreover, these clubs also serve to attract outstanding talents from various universities to join the forces.

A well-known club in itself can also bring in a lot of revenue.

“Xiao Yan, if you have any thoughts in this direction, feel free to try.”

“At your age, it’s a perfect time to start a club guild!”

“The new season of the professional league begins next March.”

“If the club can grow before then, you can lead the team into the new season.”

“If any star players emerge, it should also be easier to find spokespeople for future products!”

Chapter 268: My Hellhound is Hungry!_4

Listening to Fang Mu and Fang Yuan speak, Yan Wood’s heart hardened, and she said:

“Then I would give it a try!”

“But if I don’t succeed, I will have to pay a lot of money, won’t I?”

Upon hearing that, Fang Mu coughed slightly and said:

“Third Sister, it doesn’t take much money to set up a club.”

“The primary cost of resources is aimed at training players.”

“You will sign an agreement before training these players.”

“You don’t need to worry, even if the club can’t be successfully established, these players can still be absorbed into the Jianmu Commerce Association.”

Since she wouldn’t lose any money even if she failed, Yan Wood no longer hesitated.

She was ready to give it her all!

“I am still too young and can only be a reserve member if I join a large club.”

“Why not first search on the Battle Network for a host who is of the appropriate age and possesses strong capabilities? I can form a team with them initially, allowing them to participate in the new season of professional league.”

Upon hearing this, Fang Mu laughed.

“Third Sister, this club is mainly to help you realize your dreams.”

“After you have used these elixirs I’ve prepared for you and contract a Guardian Beast, you will be fully qualified to participate in the game as a regular member!”

“Why not build a team around yourself to achieve your dreams?”

Fang Mu’s words opened a path that Yan Wood had never considered.

Fang Yuan, who was at a side, had always felt that when Yan Wood and Fang Mu were together, it looked as if Yan Wood was taking care of Fang Mu.

But actually, it was always Fang Mu who spoiled Yan Wood, just like now.

Sometimes, Fang Yuan could practically differentiate who the younger sibling was, Yan Wood or Fang Mu!

The atmosphere in the Jianmu Commerce Association was warm.

Apart from Fang Yuan, Fang Mu and Yan Wood were chatting idly here, their spirits high.

As of now, at Ancient Water Road in the Southern District of Wangdu, a middle-aged man and woman sat in the living room of a very grand old mansion.

Their hands were all bandaged up, their arms in slings hanging from their necks.

The sofa had been modified into a sickbed, upon which lay a young man who looked weak.

Despite his weakness, the young man kept cursing.

“Mom, Dad, I want Yan Wood dead!”

“I want to see the cook cut Yan Wood’s Vermilion Sun Crane into minced meat with my own eyes, make them into dumplings, and feed them to our guard dogs!”

Du Xiumei and Wang Aozhong maintained expressions of gloom, having listened to Wang Xingming’s curses for no less than an hour.

Wang Xingming had not stopped talking since he woke up.

Du Xiumei and Wang Aozhong had originally thought that Yan Wood would obediently comply. Even if Yan Wood did not, they had ways to achieve their son’s request.

By that time, they might not only have Yan Wood, but also Yan Wood's brother who had no backings.

But when Du Xiumei and Wang Aozhong were on a collision course with Yan Wood at the Dragon Garden Beastmaster University's teachers' office.

It was fine that a young boy had injured Du Xiumei!

Du Xiumei had never focused on increasing her strength and was just a Biprong Star Tamer.

A Biprong Star Tamer's physical strength had not been greatly enhanced or developed. Wang Aozhong was different.

Five Point Star is the watershed for the physical strength of a Beastmaster.

Wang Aozhong was a Five Point Star Beastmaster. A Five Point Star Beastmaster could easily crush any Beastmaster below Five Point Star!

But during the confrontation, Wang Aozhong's right arm had been smashed into mush on the inside.

The flesh and bone were completely mixed together.

Although Wang Aozhong's arm was currently hanging around his neck, it was used to stabilize the shattered shoulder blade.

When the shoulder blade was fixed with plaster, Wang Aozhong's right arm would have to be amputated.

Therefore, the one who had dealt Wang Aozhong the blow must have been a Beastmaster above Five Point Star!

Could it be that the Wang Family had kicked an iron plate?

It shouldn't be!

Seeing that Du Xiumei and Wang Aozhong still hadn't answered him, Wang Xingming barked out loud.

"I want Yan Wood dead right now!"

"It's just right that our guard dogs are hungry in the middle of the night!"

Just as Wang Xingming finished shouting, a taunting and cold voice came from outside the window.

"I don't know whether your guard dogs are hungry, but my Hellhound is!"

Chapter 269: The 3rd All-Kinds Carp!_1

As the words had just been spoken, the bloodthirsty barks of three fierce dogs abruptly rang out from outside the window of the Wang Family mansion.

In the dark of night, the explosive barks startled Wang Aozhong and Du Xiumei to their feet.

With the sound of shattering glass, three hellhounds had already appeared within the room.

The dark blue flames devouring the light emitted by the room's fixtures on their backs, plunging the room instantly into darkness.

Wang Aozhong summoned his own two main battle mystic beasts.

Once a giant, eight-meter-long lizard and a ten-meter-long lizard appeared, they both let out long hisses.

The blue-spotted lizard curled its tail and a wave of chill instantly spread throughout the room.

In front of Wang Aozhong, Du Xiumei, and the lying Wang Xingming, a significant area of frost spread out.

Wang Aozhong clearly felt the aura emitted by the three fiery hellhounds, and he saw the large lumps on the throat of the beasts.

Knowing that his beasts were no match for them, he was preparing to go on the defensive to buy some time.

The robust lizard, its ten-meter-long body covered in shield scales, turned to one side, its tail bent inward.

It used its body as a shield, positioned at the outer edge of the frost zone.

But a battle among beasts is never decided by size alone.

Even though both of the lizards, just entering diamond rank, with one's bloodline already awakened as an earth dragon, they were still no match for the diamond-rank peak hellhounds.

Especially as Yin Nanzhen's three hellhounds had just been enhanced by Fang Mu.

Wang Aozhong, now in a defensive stance, yelled out in anger.

"Who are you! What are you doing sneaking into our Wang Family?"

“You can’t really believe that our Wang Family has no way to handle you, can you!?”

Yin Nanzhen grinned ominously upon hearing these words.

For some reason, aiding Fang Mu in executing a force in this way brought a strange pleasure to Yin Nanzhen’s heart.

The more Yin Nanzhen indulged in this sensation, the more wonderful it became.

“Your Wang Family should know what you have done, don’t you?”

“Doesn’t even consider your own capabilities, daring to provoke anyone!”

“Hehe, your Wang Family indeed has several Five Point Star Beastmasters with impressive abilities.”

“If I were to confront them all by myself, indeed, it would take a considerable effort, and I couldn’t ensure that you wouldn’t escape.”

Upon saying this, Yin Nanzhen paused, then took a step forward.

“You don’t really think that those outside have a chance of coming in to help, do you!?”

As he spoke, Yin Nanzhen casually waved his hand.

The three fiery hellhounds growled low and excitedly pounced.

Sharp bone spurs suddenly grew from their claws, allowing the leaping Hellhounds to fix themselves firmly on the giant ten-meter lizard.

The dark flame exploded, swiftly burning through the shield scales.

The sound of its fat sizzling echoed beneath the giant lizard’s mournful cries.

A smell of cooked meat began to fill the room.

The Fiery Hellhounds munched contentedly on the half-cooked lizard meat, flavored with singed flesh and blood, allowing the giant lizard to agonize on the ground.

Their eyes were fixed firmly on the other lizard inside the frost zone, as well as Wang Aozhong, Du Xiumei, and Wang Xingming being protected in the center.

Any slight movement by any one of them would prompt a Fiery Hellhound to pounce.

Watching his beast being eaten, Wang Aozhong could directly sense the pain suffered by the Heavy Rock Dragon Lizard through their spiritual connection.

The Heavy Rock Dragon Lizard was in pain but straining hard to control its struggles, afraid of accidentally hurting its protector, Wang Aozhong.

This made Wang Aozhong both heartbroken and mournful, completely forgetting his promise to Wang Xingming to capture Yan Wood's Mystic Beast.

He planned to let Yan Wood find out that he made her Vermilion Sun Crane into meat patties for his dogs.

"Are you from Changming Organisms or Hawk Falcon Commerce Guild?"

The Wang Family knows how to flatter and accommodate powerful forces, they maintain great relationships with many powerful entities.

When facing forces equal to their own, the Wang Family tries as much as possible to be friendly with them.

Only when faced with forces far weaker than theirs do the Wang Family strike hard to announce their majesty.

Among all of the Wang Family's enemies, the only entities Wang Aozhong could think of that had the power to threaten the Wang Family were Changming Organisms and Hawk Falcon Commerce Guild.

However, the Wang Family's past grievances with Changming Organisms and the Hawk Falcon Commerce Guild were already safeguarded by medium-sized powers, their affairs considered settled.

Upon hearing this, Yin Nanzhen chuckled disdainfully.

Yin Nanzhen had heard of Changming Organisms, their rank hideously inferior to the Yin Family at its peak, only being one-third of their power.

Wang Aozhong considered him someone from Changming Organisms, which Yin Nanzhen found quite insulting.

If Changming Organisms is viewed as a formidable opponent, Yin Nanzhen couldn't comprehend why the Wang Family would dare to harass Yan Wood.

"If anyone's to blame, it should be your foolish son who has roused the ire of someone he shouldn't have provoked!"

“He even dares to covet Miss Yan!”

Neither Wang Aozhong, Du Xiumei, nor the immobilized Wang Xingming on the couch had expected such an answer from Yin Nanzhen’s mouth.

Wang Xingming was the first to exclaim.

“Yan Wood! You are a family member of Yan Wood!”

Upon hearing Wang Xingming’s words, Yin Nanzhen’s eyes narrowed sharply.

A Fiery Hellhound directly sprayed its dark flame toward Wang Xingming.

Hurriedly, Wang Aozhong ordered his Mystic Beast, the Ice Wall Split Lizard, to gather frost to block the attack.

Due to the substantial disparity in strength, the frost wall formed by the frost zone melted instantly upon contact with the dark flame, just like ice cubes dropped into molten iron.

Fortunately, the ice wall formed rapidly enough, and the dark flame only managed to burn Wang Xingming’s legs.

Chapter 270: The Third All-Kinds Carp!_2

He didn't kill Wang Xingming.

What Wang Xingming said was just a guess, there was nothing wrong with it.

But such speculation should never be projected onto Yin Nanzhen.

He was merely a servant of Fang Mu, a coachman.

If he claimed to be a family member of Yan Wood, wouldn't that be equating himself with Fang Mu?

That was a major taboo for a servant!

She Wan was still watching from outside. Yin Nanzhen could feel her hostility towards him.

Actually, Yin Nanzhen held the same hostility towards She Wan in his heart.

Both of them were working under Fang Mu. Although he was a coachman, he could also serve as a guard.

Once his three Fiery Hellhounds step into the sequence and become Hellfire Cerberus...

He might not necessarily lose to She Wan.

Yin Nanzhen had come to understand that She Wan came from the Lu Dushe clan in Lu City.

Even if She Wan, like himself, had an ant living in her soul...

She Wan still had to consider the interests of the Lu Dushe clan in her actions, and was not as trustworthy as he was, who was alone.

What if She Wan indirectly relayed Wang Xingming's words to Fang Mu?

If Fang Mu becomes suspicious, his future would be utterly ruined!

Wang Aozhong realized that the severing of his arm was not an accident.

If Yan Wood truly had a special status, why hadn't they been able to find out anything on their end?

Du Xiumei watched as Wang Xingming's legs were burned to charcoal, and let out a horrified scream.

Fear overpowered her concern for Wang Xingming.

Du Xiumei shouted out in crazed terror.

"You dare to do such things in the southern district of the Capital, aren't you afraid of being investigated by the Prison Dragon Surveillance?!"

"There are many forces tied up with our Wang Family. If you get out of here now, the guards in the prison might let you off lightly!"

As soon as Du Xiumei finished her sentence, space seemed to fold inch by inch.

A silver spider with strange purple markings on its body was moving in the folded space, casting shadows of spiders all over the sky.

She Wan slowly materialized from the spider shadows.

She Wan looked at Du Xiumei with disdainful eyes, like a peacock looking down at a maggot crawling through bran.

“You didn’t say that when you were threatening Miss Yan!”

“If people like you can lay hands on others in secret, why would our young master not be able to?”

“Even your Wang family’s allies will not dare to utter a word tomorrow.”

“They won’t worry or feel sorry for your Wang family, they’ll only regret ever associating with you.”

“Those vicious dogs kept by your Wang family are fat and strong, animals can turn against their masters in a frenzy.”

“Many forces in the Dragon Rising Federation will be afraid to keep uncontracted savage dogs at home after tonight.”

She Wan turned her head to look at Yin Nanzhen.

“You’re too slow. What’s there to waste words with them?”

The sky full of spider shadows spread out in front of She Wan as she spoke.

Blood-colored fog burst out from the bodies of the Heavy Rock Dragon Lizard and the Ice Wall Split Lizard.

The two colossal bodies turned into rain of beautiful flesh and blood in the spider shadow.

Everything was devoured where the spider shadow spread.

Looking at the lifeless room, She Wan commanded Yin Nanzhen.

“You bring those dogs the Wang family kept here in a while, I’ll go back and report first!”

“If it wasn’t for me making sure no one outside made a commotion, your slow actions would definitely tip off the people from the Prison Dragon Surveillance.”

“Remember, don’t cause trouble for the young master!”

“Otherwise not only will the young master not keep you around anymore.”

“Even any major power that knows your name wouldn’t like a servant like you!”

After she finished speaking, She Wan disappeared under the sky full of spider shadows.

Yin Nanzhen was left standing there with a complex expression.

Yin Nanzhen could feel that She Wan's words weren't meant to suppress him.

They were to inform him of the behavior rules when being with Fang Mu.

He never served a major power, so he didn't understand these rules.

If he remained ignorant of these rules, it would be a hidden danger.

Yin Nanzhen silently accepted She Wan's advice in his heart.

Ever since he became a Beast Master, Fang Mu has been going to bed later and later.

Fang Mu found that the Sakura Tempering Carp's special ability [Tempering Swim] can not only refine his spiritual power but also recover his spiritual power consumption.

When Fang Mu meditates within the range of Sakura Tempering Carp's five-square-meter, he not only enhances his spiritual power, but also goes into a deep sleep.

Fang Mu's sleep is now wholly for the Servant Soul Ant Queen to drain his soul power.

After repeated draining and recharging, his soul power grows stronger.

Tomorrow, when he goes to Chang Le Pavilion with Yi Han, Fang Mu will get a Catastrophe Class Ghost System Summoning Beast.

Fang Mu doesn't need to wait for the Covenant Blood Essence to form a contract with Ghost System Beasts.

She Wan and Yin Nanzhen have both come back to report.

Both of their actions were as indicated by Fang Mu.

Even without witnessing the scene, Fang Mu knew what had happened to the Wang family.

The incident in the Wang family tonight, even if it won't affect him, is bound to get out.

The conflict between Wang Xingming and Yan Wood could be investigated by any capable force if they're interested.

This act indirectly declared Fang Mu's attitude towards his enemies to the outside world.

Before daybreak, Fang Mu took a drop of Heartblood and injected it into the Blood Fertility.

Fang Mu, who was about to have breakfast, found that a new drop of Covenant Blood Essence had formed.

Fang Mu felt that ever since he had raised the Origin Blood Carp in the Blood Fertility, the speed of the Blood Fertility forming Covenant Blood Essence had been quickening.