

Beast Tamer 271

Chapter 271: The Third All-Kinds Carp!_3

Fang Mu didn't know whether it was his own perception playing tricks on him.

If this Covenant Blood Essence was congealed last night, Fang Mu would make a pact with Eden Greenfield immediately.

However, the time for him and Yi Han to visit Chang Le Pavilion was not much left.

Making a pact with a Domain-Type Control Beast would bring about certain changes to the body, which usually took about two hours on average.

The time for visiting Chang Le Pavilion was scheduled by himself.

It would be quite embarrassing if he was late for his own appointment.

Moreover, the two masters of Chang Le Pavilion disliked men intensely.

Since Fang Mu decided to interact with Chang Le Pavilion, he didn't want the two proprietors to have a negative impression of him because he was late.

So Fang Mu collected the Covenant Blood Essence first and planned to make a pact with Eden Greenfield when he came back in the evening.

First, he prepared the cicada and frog souls needed for the Ling Poison Dark Lotus.

After breakfast, before Fang Mu could call Yi Han.

Yi Han took the initiative to call Fang Mu.

“Dear nephew, you haven’t forgotten about visiting Chang Le Pavilion today, have you?”

“See when you have time and I will come to pick you up!”

Yi Han seemed a little unnatural when he made the call.

Yi Han’s original idea was simple, to introduce Fang Mu’s channel to Chang Le Pavilion while helping him get a Heaven Calamity Ghost Series Beast.

To get some benefits from Chang Le Pavilion.

Yi Han repeatedly pleased Chang Le Pavilion. On one hand, because Chang Le Pavilion was a strong force in The Capital.

The Yi family would gain great benefits from establishing a relationship with it.

On the other hand, it was because Yi Han had had a crush on the second proprietor of Chang Le Pavilion for a long time.

Over the years, many people in The Capital knew that Yi Han had been trying to ingratiate himself with the Second Proprietor of Chang Le Pavilion.

Not only the second proprietor of Chang Le Pavilion in Dragon Rising Federation, but also many brave men were eager to pursue the Big Leader under her skirt!

However, no one over these years had a real chance to have a taste of them.

Yi Han originally wanted to offer a favor to Chang Le Pavilion, but early this morning, the second proprietor of Chang Le Pavilion unexpectedly called him.

This made Yi Han take this visit seriously.

Yi Han was afraid that Fang Mu, a young man, would forget his commitment because of other things.

Otherwise, there was no need for Yi Han to call Fang Mu under the circumstances that Fang Mu said he would contact him proactively.

“Uncle Yi, of course, I haven’t forgotten this visit!”

“I’m now at the Jianmu Commerce Association, you don’t have to come and pick me up.”

“I’ll go to the Yi family to find you.”

“I need to find some spiritual materials, I don’t know if Uncle Yi would like to help?”

Fang Mu didn’t make friends with Yi Han for the Creator resources he produced.

Yi Han’s role in Fang Mu’s life was a person who could find spiritual materials and solve problems.

So when he needed it, Fang Mu wouldn’t be polite to Yi Han.

Yi Han would be happier the more favors he asked for from Fang Mu to get Senior Creation Zenith Master resources from him in the future.

Hearing Fang Mu's words, Yi Han was slightly stunned for a moment, and then immediately understood what Fang Mu meant.

Yi Han enthusiastically responded.

"Dear nephew, I've always hoped you can visit the Yi family!"

"Many of our younger generations in the Yi family look up to you."

"These years our Yi family's treasury has been accumulating more and more things, you come and see if there is anything you like."

"Take whatever you fancy!"

"Didn't you get two All-Kinds Carp along with the Sacred Relics Sakura Tempering Carp last time? Our Yi family's treasury happens to have an All-Kinds Carp."

"If you're interested, I'll give it to you."

Upon hearing this, an eager expression immediately appeared on Fang Mu's face.

Fang Mu had personally experienced the goodness of the All-Kinds Carp.

The Ten Longevity Carp, for example, was enhanced by Life Energy with a purity of one hundred percent.

The Origin Blood Carp was enhanced by Blood Energy.

Fang Mu still had a lot of pure Elemental Energy to enhance the All-Kinds Carp.

Even if Fang Mu didn't use these unused pure energies to cultivate All-Kinds Carp, it would be nice to cultivate a few more Origin Blood Carp.

"Uncle Yi, if you have other sources to get All-Kinds Carp, please keep an eye out for me."

"All-Kinds Carp is one of the few things my master is interested in."

Neither Fang Mu nor Yi Han was sincere in their words, each had their own purposes.

The younger generations of the Yi family were not as clear-sighted or broad-minded as Yi Han.

His actions were tantamount to robbing the precious cultivation resources of the younger generations of the Yi family.

The younger ones in the Yi family wouldn't regard him as a role model as long as they didn't regard him as an enemy due to Yi Han's restraint!

And the best way for Fang Mu to get All-Kinds Carp from Yi Han was to shove the demand onto his non-existing master.

In order to please a Senior Creation Zenith Master, it was a deal that would surely make a profit no matter how you look at it.

If it wasn't for knowing that all his payments could be exchanged for Senior Creation Zenith Master resources from him, Yi Han wouldn't have said such things as letting him take anything he liked from the Yi family's treasury.

However precious the items in Yi's family treasury are, they cannot be worth more than high-purity Life Elixirs and high-purity Element Potions.

Hearing Fang Mu's words, Yi Han had no doubts.

It was only after he had become a Creator that he discovered more possibilities of the All-Kinds Carp.

Jianmu's master is stronger in terms of Creator abilities than him, so he can appreciate the value of All-Kinds Carp more.

Chapter 272: The Third All-Kinds Carp!_4

Speaking of which, Yi Han had indeed heard some information about the All-Kinds Carp.

Yi Han planned on verifying these pieces of information when the time came.

If he could really find an All-Kinds Carp and make friends with Jianmu's teacher, it would be more than great!

Yin Nanzhen spent the whole night contemplating last night, and in the middle of the night, he specifically sought She Wan to teach him the etiquette of servants to their masters in large powers.

Yin Nanzhen's initiative to learn from her was akin to a master-disciple rite.

Tutoring Yin Nanzhen would be equivalent to Yin Nanzhen owing her a favor.

Fang Mu planned on establishing a Contemplation Hall, which would surely attract a lot of Hexagram Beastmasters to serve under him in the future.

If she could guide those who came under Fang Mu's command, like she guided Yin Nanzhen, her reputation among the servants would undoubtedly be very high!

She could even overshadow Lu Xiaoyin, who was a personal housekeeper.

So She Wan seriously taught Yin Nanzhen about etiquette.

Yin Nanzhen applied what he learned and, when he saw Fang Mu, immediately greeted him and asked with a smile.

"Young Master, where are you going today?"

"I don't know the exact routes in The Capital, so this morning I specifically bought a Pathfinding Pigeon."

"And installed a GPS."

"Now no matter where I go, I can find my way!"

Upon hearing this, Fang Mu raised an eyebrow.

Fang Mu originally thought that Yin Nanzhen was a rather simple person, but he didn't expect him to be so considerate when it came to practical matters.

"Going to Yi Mansion at Huan Jing Mountain's Blessing Road."

After saying this, Fang Mu and She Wan entered the Beast Car together.

The mention of Yi Mansion made Yin Nanzhen pause slightly.

In the Dragon Rising Federation, only the residences of truly influential people could be described with the word "mansion."

"Yi Mansion"!

In The Capital, there were many forces controlled by the Yi Family, and Yin Nanzhen knew several of them.

But it wasn't proper to describe these forces' residences as mansions.

As for Huan Jing Mountain's Blessing Road, it was unfamiliar to Yin Nanzhen.

Yin Nanzhen let the Pathfinding Pigeon lead the way, while using the GPS to check Huan Jing Mountain's Blessing Road's location.

After a glance, an incredulous look appeared on Yin Nanzhen's face.

It was actually the Yi Family, who had just recently produced a Grandmaster Creator!

After becoming a Grandmaster Creator, Yi Han was very high-profile, initially only circulating the news among a few major powers.

Yi Han did not reject the external understanding of his becoming a Grandmaster Creator, and even promoted it actively.

This led to rumors spreading in the market about the emergence of a third Grandmaster Creator in the Dragon Rising Federation.

Fang Mu was visiting a Grandmaster Creator's Mansion early in the morning.

To be able to drive to such a location, in Yin Nanzhen's view, could absolutely be considered an honor.

But Yin Nanzhen soon realized something.

Fang Mu could also command a large amount of Grandmaster Creator resources.

He himself had used nine elixirs concocted by Grandmaster Creators.

Such massive Creator resources couldn't be provided by the Yi Family, who had just recently produced a Grandmaster Creator.

Yin Nanzhen couldn't help but once again wonder, was there a Grandmaster Creator standing behind Fang Mu as well!?

Yesterday, he forgot to inquire indirectly from She Wan because he was focused on learning the etiquette.

Yin Nanzhen decided to ask about Fang Mu's background from She Wan tonight.

Since he was now a servant of Fang Mu, She Wan should not mind telling him the details.

The speed of the three Fiery Hellhounds running at full force was very fast.

The Beast Car, driven by Diamond Level Beasts, had a dedicated lane.

There was no such thing as a speed limit on the specially designated lane for Beast Cars driven by Diamond Level Beasts.

Even though Huan Jing Mountain was far away from The Capital's commercial district, the Beast car arrived at the entrance of Yi Mansion in less than half an hour.

At this moment, a square-faced middle-aged man was standing at the entrance of Yi Mansion.

This square-faced middle-aged man had a long beard covering his wide chin, which made him seem much more refined.

This square-faced man was Yi Han.

Seeing the Beast Car, drawn by three Fiery Hellhounds, stop at the entrance of his mansion, Yi Han immediately went to greet them.

Chapter 273: Cicada, Frog, and Elegant Dance!_1

Whether he should personally welcome Fang Mu was a dilemma that troubled Yi Han.

If he didn't personally greet Fang Mu on his first visit to the Yi Family, it would seem that he did not place enough importance on the occasion.

However, if he, a Grandmaster Creator, went to greet another Grandmaster Creator's disciple, it would seem overly keen.

Word of such an act could diminish his reputation!

Over the years, the Yi Family had been buying up the land around Huan Jing Mountain's Blessing Road.

All powers that can build mansions on Blessing Road have a name within The Capital.

Even though the Yi Family had been the cream of the crop among these, not all powers were willing to relocate their ancestral homes.

This led to a fair amount of friction between the Yi Family and some powers.

However, after Yi Han became a Grandmaster Creator, those powers that were initially unwilling to sell their lands ended up willingly moving out their old homes, giving their lands to Yi Han.

Since Yi Han became a Grandmaster Creator, the Yi Mansion began to expand.

So, if he received Fang Mu personally, as long as he didn't make too much of a fuss, the outside world wouldn't know.

Yi Han knew that many of his younger family members harbored hostility towards Fang Mu.

These direct descendants of the Yi Family were awaiting their turn to refine their souls with the Sakura Tempering Carp, only for Fang Mu to snatch it away.

Thus, Yi Han dared not bring any of his younger family members to greet Fang Mu.

Yi Han was afraid that any slight hostility from his family members towards Fang Mu would make it difficult for him to save face.

As a Grandmaster Creator, personally welcoming a junior felt just like an uncle-nephew meeting.

It showed enough importance, but did not seem overly deliberate.

From the moment Yi Han saw the three Fiery Hellhounds that Yin Nanzhen commanded, he couldn't help but feel astonished.

It was not entirely the Fiery Hellhounds' innate power that the pure Dark Energy they emanated.

Clearly, the Fiery Hellhounds had just consumed a high-purity Dark Element Potion and did not have the time to completely absorb it.

Before Fang Mu and She Wan got out of the car, Yi Han nodded subtly to Yin Nanzhen as a greeting.

Yi Han figured that Yin Nanzhen, who was able to use so many high-star Creator resources, must be highly valued by Fang Mu.

Little did he know, Yin Nanzhen had only joined Fang Mu's team two days ago.

If it weren't for his mistaken impression, due to the Dark Energy emanating from the Fiery Hellhounds, Yi Han would never have communicated with a mere coachman.

During his two days beside Fang Mu, Yin Nanzhen's entire worldview was completely overturned.

Yi Han personally greeted Fang Mu at the entrance. What kind of divine face did Fang Mu have!

Yin Nanzhen had always wondered why so many powerful Beast Masters liked to join forces.

Now, Yin Nanzhen understood.

It was much more useful to cling to a powerful patron than to strive on his own.

Because of his encounter with Fang Mu, his luck completely turned for the better.

When Fang Mu and She Wan alighted from the vehicle, upon seeing Yi Han, She Wan respectfully bowed to him.

As a sign of her respect for a Grandmaster Creator.

However, after expressing her respect, She Wan stood behind Fang Mu.

She did not exhibit any intention of pleasing Yi Han.

As a Grandmaster Creator, none would pass up the chance to make acquaintances with Yi Han.

Yet, She Wan acted with great propriety, knowing what she could and could not do.

If she got to know Yi Han through Fang Mu and took the initiative to befriend Yi Han, Yi Han would most likely leave his contact information out of respect for Fang Mu.

But doing this would be akin to keeping one's options open, like using Fang Mu's resources as a stepping stone.

Fang Mu had guessed that Yi Han would come to greet him.

Looking at Yi Han who had walked up to him, Fang Mu smiled and said,

"Uncle Yi, I might have to come here often."

"There is no need to be so formal with me!"

Fang Mu wasn't just being polite. In fact, he planned on seeking Yi Han's help in the future whenever he encountered problems.

In the short term, Yi Han was seen by Fang Mu as the best channel to offload high-star Creator resources.

While the Starwheel network was much larger than the Yi Family's, it required a long time to hold a meeting, making it unable to provide Fang Mu with resources at all times.

Yi Han was very happy to hear Fang Mu's words, as it saved him a lot of trouble.

Otherwise, he would have had to come up with a way to associate himself more with Fang Mu.

Much of the relationship between people depends on their interactions.

If it weren't for his numerous interactions with Sect Master Xiao Xiang, the latter wouldn't have provided him guidance at the crucial time.

Yi Han thought that he should select a couple of savvy juniors from the family and have them interact with Fang Mu more often.

During his investigation on Fang Mu, Yi Han discovered the relationship between Fang Mu and Lu Yuyu.

Compared to the Yi Family, Keystone Construction was just a minor power.

Yi Han didn't believe that a power that had a few Grandmaster Craftsmen could be of any use to Fang Mu.

But due to the good relationship between Lu Yuyu and Fang Mu, Keystone Construction gained numerous high-star Creator resources for nothing.

This substantially increased the potential strength of Keystone Construction.

Having a good relationship with Fang Mu and acquiring resources from him can only be accomplished through trade.

If any of the junior members of his family could become friends with Fang Mu, they could get more resources from an emotional standpoint.

Only then could the development of the Yi Family proceed more rapidly.

Chapter 274: Cicada, Frog, and Elegant Dance!_2

Researching these high-purity spiritual liquids also had tremendous benefits for Yi Han.

Yi Han led Fang Mu directly to the Yi family's treasure trove.

It's not that Yi Han didn't want to treat Fang Mu hospitably, but there wasn't much time left before they had to go to Chang Le Pavilion.

Fang Mu had specifically mentioned wanting to find some spiritual materials.

Compared to a courteous banquet for Fang Mu, achieving his goal was more important.

“Nephew, our Yi family’s treasure trove was built underground. It covers an area of 5000 square meters, and it’s all used for stockpiling resources.”

“I won’t show you the places where we display comparatively low-end resources. If we’re going to look, we should look at the best!”

Fang Mu had a definite plan for this visit to the Yi family.

“This time, I mainly want to find some frog and cicada beast spirits, a crane beast with excellent potential, and the All-Kinds Carp you just mentioned.”

“As for other stuff, it all depends on what catches my eye!”

Upon hearing Fang Mu’s words, Yi Han pointed to a passage on the right side of the underground treasure vault.

“The beast spirits are kept in the Soul Display Area.”

“Although the cicada and frog spirits are rather niche, there are still quite a few of them in the Soul Display Area.”

“Let’s go and pick some out together.”

“The top-notch beasts with great potential for their bloodlines are all kept at the Beast Taming Base under the control of the Yi family, and specifically cared for.”

“They are not kept in the underground space.”

“I’ll immediately notify someone to bring an excellent crane beast to you!”

“I’ve already prepared the All-Kinds Carp, and can hand it over to you now.”

Upon finishing his sentence, Yi Han took out a space spirit tool made of low-grade silver and gave it to Fang Mu.

After taking out the All-Kinds Carp from it, Fang Mu immediately placed it in the Clear Pond Bracelet he was wearing on his wrist.

Then he returned the space spirit tool to Yi Han, without accepting the few rather good water system beasts that Yi Han wanted to give him.

Firstly, these water system beasts were of no use to Fang Mu.

Secondly, Fang Mu didn't want Yi Han to always offer him seemingly good resources.

Fang Mu planned to trade only for what he needed from Yi Han.

Otherwise, if Yi Han thought he wanted everything, he would undoubtedly intensify his efforts to obtain more resources from the Grandmaster Creator.

Fang Mu was not a scavenger!

Accepting the space spirit tool from Fang Mu, Yi Han felt a bit awkward.

Yi Han had anticipated that Fang Mu might not want these extra beasts, but he didn't expect Fang Mu to reject them so directly.

Fang Mu was truly a person who could not be deceived at all!

Yi Han took out his phone, intending to use arrangements within the family to satisfy Fang Mu's needs and thereby alleviate his own embarrassment.

Upon reaching the area in the Yi family's treasure trove where the beast spirits were stored, Fang Mu saw numerous wooden boxes placed on display racks.

Below each wooden box was a label stating the category of beast spirit stored in it.

There was a book right next to each label.

Yi Han went to the corner of the display area and fetched a book from the third shelf on the wall.

"This is the list of cicada beast spirits, I need to look carefully for the list of frog beast spirits."

Fang Mu took the book and flipped through it, finding that the Yi family's collection was quite impressive!

Just the cicada beast spirits alone amounted to nearly eight hundred.

Those that were included in the Yi family's treasure trove were certainly among the best of the cicada beast spirits.

Fang Mu used the Eye of Omniscience to examine these cicada beast spirits.

He was astounded by what he discovered.

There were many cicada beast spirits that Fang Mu had never seen in books before.

The Ling Poison Dark Lotus had a unique feature, “Cicada, Frog, Lodging on Lotus,” which allowed each lotus flower of the Ling Poison Dark Lotus to host a cicada beast spirit that was not ranked higher than itself.

As the Ling Poison Dark Lotus was currently ranked at bronze level, Fang Mu could only look for beast spirits that were of the same rank.

After such hard filtering, out of over eight hundred cicada beast spirits, only thirty-two remained as options.

After careful consideration, Fang Mu decided to choose the spirit of the Rain Curtain Cicada.

The Rain Curtain Cicada didn’t have strong combat capabilities and was a kind of functional beast.

The Rain Curtain Cicada could speed up the evaporation of water vapor in the surrounding environment and promote rain.

In battle, the Rainy Doll had to sprinkle rain on the ground every time it launched an attack.

Long periods of rainfall made it difficult for the Rainy Doll to recycle the water elemental energy that it had scattered.

The spirit of the Rain Curtain Cicada could speed up the recycling process.

This allowed the Rainy Doll to recover water system energy while attacking.

This greatly enhanced the Rainy Doll's lasting combat capabilities.

Using functional beast spirits to enhance the synergy between Rainy Doll and Eden Greenfield was far more useful than just increasing attacking power.

As the Rainy Doll's strength continued to increase, eventually, one Rain Curtain Cicada spirit would not be enough.

Luckily, the Yi family's treasure trove had three Rain Curtain Cicada spirits, all of which Fang Mu planned to keep.

Just as Fang Mu finalised his choice of cicada beast spirits, Yi Han handed over the book that listed the frog beast spirits.

Fang Mu did another filtering process, just like before.

After the filtering process, Fang Mu was torn between two kinds of frog beast spirits.

The Poison Dart Frog could absorb toxins in the surrounding environment, gathering the toxins inside its body.

Then, it could shoot the toxins at its target like a poisoned dart.

The strength of the Poison Dart Frog was deeply connected to the strength of the toxins it could absorb.

Chapter 275: Cicada, Frog, and Elegant Dance!_3

The poisonous rain shed by Rainy Doll, after being absorbed by the Poison Dart Frog Soul, can turn the poison dart frog into an assassin on the battlefield.

It enhances the Armor Break ability of Rainy Doll.

More importantly, in future team battles with Fang Mu, allowing the Poison Dart Frog's Soul to follow his teammates is useful in absorbing surrounding toxins.

This ensures the safety of his teammates in the poisonous rain curtain.

The other frog beast spirit that attracted Fang Mu was the Tongue Chain Frog.

The Tongue Chain Frog can bind its targets with its long tongue.

The strength of the Tongue Chain Frog's tongue chain is related to the abundance of Water Elemental Energy in the surroundings.

Thus, as the Ling Poison Dark Lotus enhances these residing cicada and frog beast spirits through the unique trait "Cicada, Frog, Lodging on Lotus".

The Tongue Chain Frog's tongue chain can effectively trap beasts that are comparable to those at Eden Greenfield.

The disadvantage of Rainy Doll's attack is that the enemy's beast will not stay obediently inside the rain curtain.

Once it escapes from the rain curtain covered by Rainy Doll, it is difficult for Rainy Doll to inflict effective damage on the target.

The soul of the Tongue Chain Frog can bind the target, ensuring that all of Rainy Doll's attacks are effective.

After some hesitation, Fang Mu eventually chose the Poison Dart Frog.

On one hand, the Poison Dart Frog can absorb toxins allowing Fang Mu to let Rainy Doll participate in team battles.

This is equivalent to unlocking the constraint that confined Rainy Doll to fighting alone.

On the other hand, the purity of water elements can only reach a maximum of 100%, yet there's no such thing as purity for toxic energy.

As the Rainy Doll absorbs more and more toxins, the toxin it contains will only become stronger.

Therefore, compared to the Tongue Chain Frog, the Poison Dart Frog which relies on toxins has a higher ceiling.

Having made his decision, Fang Mu said to Yi Han.

"I want all three souls of the Rain Curtain Cicadas and the two souls of the Poison Dart Frogs!"

Upon hearing this, Yi Han responded readily.

“I have already notified the Beast Taming Base. The premium Crane Beasts will be delivered soon.”

“When you pick the Crane Beasts, I’ll have someone pack the souls of the Rain Curtain Cicadas and the Poison Dart Frogs.”

Creators seldom use beast spirits as materials for concocting Elixirs.

Beast spirits are commonly used by Forge Spirit Masters when crafting spiritual instruments.

Yi Han previously collected these beast souls just to expand his treasury collection.

Many wooden boxes had already collected dust.

Even if Fang Mu asked for something truly valuable from the Yi Family, Yi Han would happily offer it.

Let alone these things he didn’t really care about.

While Yi Han was leading Fang Mu to select the top-class Crane Beasts, two women were sitting in the chamber at the peak of Ya Le Mountain.

These two women were dressed in long gowns made of light gauze. Each piece of gauze was thin as cicada wings and almost transparent.

Dozens of layers of gauze were tightly woven together, and between every two layers of gauze was a large piece of silk embroidery.

The numerous layers of embroidery hidden between the layers of gauze added substantial dimension compared to regular embroidery.

This layered embroidery method can only be attempted by the most top-tier weavers.

Many newly appointed Weaving Grandmasters are unable to create clothing with five layers of layered embroidery.

The long skirts worn by these two women employed at least twenty or more layers of layered embroidery.

Layered embroidery is very time-consuming.

Even a seasoned Weaving Grandmaster would take at least five years to create a piece of clothing like this.

There was a group of women in plain clothes doing routine cleaning outside the chamber.

These women were watering the Elegant Dance plants, that resembled fine jade trees, with morning dew collected from the previous night.

The woman wearing the embroidery of apricot flowers and willows looked at another woman who was plucking a peony and using its stem as a brush to write. She said.

“Sister, you have been searching for a full one hundred and fifty years to this day.”

“Promise me that if you can’t find it today, you will stop looking!”

The woman who was writing with the flower stem heard this and exerted strength on her fingers, instantly breaking the stem she was holding.

The unfinished hate character filled with Evil Qi on the paper only had the first stroke, which looked more like the character for “affection”.

The woman swirled her left sleeve embroidered with phoenix, peony, boat and rivers, and rested her left hand behind her back.

She gazed at the scenery outside the chamber from afar.

Looking at the Elegant Dances in full bloom all over the mountain, she said in a bitter tone.

“He abandoned me in order to become a Grandmaster Creator. For one hundred and fifty years, there was no trace of him.”

“Completely disregarding our promises from back then.”

“In these one hundred and fifty years, the only new Grandmaster Creator that appeared suddenly was Qixing.”

“Qixing is a name that he would think of.”

“I want to know if Jianmu, brought by Yi Han, is really his apprentice!”

Chapter 276: Are You Taking Me for a Fool!?!_1

As she spoke, the woman’s delicate hand hidden inside her right sleeve tightened into a fist.

Her eyes were slightly squinted, hinting at some unknown thoughts.

But the anxiety in the woman's expression was nonetheless keenly detected by the woman beside her, the one with apricot blossoms and willows embroidered on her skirt.

Her apricot eyes filled with a hint of distress.

Her left hand lightly stroked the ancient zither on the table, its strings resonating with a melody that filled the room with shadows of blooming apricot blossoms.

The gentle melody seemed to possess a potent soothing effect.

"Sister, if Qixing really is him and he does not wish to see you, forcing him would only hurt yourself."

"If Qixing is not him, and you happen to do something to Jianmu, we will offend a Senior Creation Zenith Master."

"It's absolutely not worth it!"

Listening to the zither's melodies and the concerned words, the woman's gaze once again travelled distantly towards the manifold Elegant Dance.

“A Senior Creation Zenith Master is not something we can’t deal with.”

“At most, we would lose a channel to obtain resources from high Star Level Creators!”

“Other powers don’t dare to provoke a Creation Zenith Master for fear of retaliation, and fear that other powers that please the Creation Zenith Master will step on them.”

“I don’t believe anyone would dare to offend Chang Le Pavilion just to please a Senior Creation Zenith Master.”

“There are more than just these few Creation Zenith Masters from Dragon Soaring.”

“But A Li, I won’t take my grudge against him out on others.”

“I know what kind of disciples he has trained.”

“Whether Jianmu is his disciple or not, I can see it at a glance!”

Hearing this, Li Xu slightly pursed her lips hidden behind her thin veil.

She wanted to say something, but the words she had been meaning to say were swallowed back down her throat.

My foolish sister, have you ever considered – maybe he hasn't appeared all this time not because he wants to forsake you,

But because he's already dead!

Li Xu didn't believe that Lang Huan hadn't considered this before.

Rather than harboring resentment against someone over the long years, it seems Lang Huan would rather not forget.

A sudden gust of wind blew from some unknown place towards Ya Le Mountain.

The manifold Elegant Dance swayed the jade branches in the wind, like graceful women dancing with their sleeves to the steps of Startled Swan Fairy.

Resembling Startled Swan Fairies about to ride the wind and break into the clouds.

Fang Mu was led by Yi Han all the way to the Yi Family's Martial Arts Arena.

Most large powers or families would construct martial arts arenas of various sizes for the use of different star-level and age groups within the family.

For a Beast Master to ensure their strength is adequate, enhancing the level and bloodline of their Guardian Beasts is one thing.

The Beast Master's own fighting consciousness is another.

The Battle Network holds a carnival every year.

Famous webcasters, Star Club members, and others could create virtual avatars at the carnival held by the Battle Network.

Qualified Beast Masters could purchase these virtual avatars and control them for combat in the special battle channels opened during the carnival.

These virtual avatars are essentially replicas of the abilities of popular webcasters and Star Club members, turning these virtual avatars into so-called "heroes" in the game.

When Beast Masters control these "heroes" for combat, they can experience what it's like to be strong.

Among these popular webcasters and Star Club members, there are certainly discrepancies in power.

Even though they can clearly defeat opponents in real-life battles, they may overturn when players control virtual avatars for combat.

This is due to a significant difference in combat consciousness.

The Yi Family desires a strong rise, and the first thing they have to develop is the younger generation.

Therefore, ever since Yi Han became a Master Creator, the Yi Family had already invested a significant portion of resources into constructing the martial arts arena.

They hired many non-Yi-bloodline powerhouses to rotate into the martial arts arena as sparring partners and resident instructors.

This investment in the education of the younger generation of Beast Masters is the fundamental reason why the children of large powers have stronger combat instincts than average Beast Masters, apart from their beasts.

If it weren't for the fact Fang Mu wanted Crane Beasts, and exhibiting Crane Beasts required a lot of space,

The speed of Flying Beasts is a critical measurement of their potential.

Only the Yi Family's martial arts arena would be suitable to exhibit dozens of top-notch Crane Beasts at once.

Yi Han would definitely not bring Guardian Beasts to the martial arts arena and expose Fang Mu to the younger members of the family now.

Yi Han is not the oldest member of the Yi Family, nor has he ever served as the Family Head.

So as to focus more on enhancing his abilities as Creator Zenith Master, he passed the position of Family Head to his younger brother.

But Yi Han is indeed the pillar of the Yi Family.

Within the Yi Family, neither the eldest Yi Hanshan nor the Family Head Yi Feng holds as much prestige as Yi Han.

Everywhere he went, people would salute to Yi Han.

Their gaze curiously shifted to Fang Mu, She Wan, and Yin Nanzhen.

So as to prevent family members from knowing that he took the initiative to entertain Fang Mu, Yi Han deliberately let out the news that Fang Mu was a guest of the Yi Family.

Only Yi Hanshan and Yi Feng knew about this.

At this point, more than forty bird niches had been set up on the martial arts arena.

A bird niche is a special container, its diameter thrice the wingspan of a bird-type controlled creature, with a circular channel at the back to ensure ample flight for the bird-type controlled creature.

If bird-type controlled creatures can't fly enough every day,

Their feathers won't be able to develop properly, and their wings might even regress.

Because of the high cost of raising them, the price of Flying Beasts is generally higher than that of beast-type and Aquatic Sovereign Beasts.

Chapter 277: Are You Taking Me for a Fool!?!_2

More than forty Bird Niches were arranged in the Martial Arts Arena, attracting the attention of the younger generation of the Yi Family who were training and battling with instructors there.

The Yi Family, in selecting talent, afforded much preference toward their Side branches.

They are among the few top powers which allow Side branches and Direct Descendants to train and learn together.

Every Crane Beast inside these forty plus Bird Niches were of the rarest kind.

Only the core members of the Yi Family's Direct Line had the privilege to choose among these Guardian Beasts.

Side branches can only be given this privilege and honor if they contribute significantly to the family.

As the young members of the Yi Family eagerly watched these Crane Beasts freely soaring within the Bird Niches, Yi Han was seen leading a teenager toward the Martial Arts Arena.

A beautiful woman and a burly man were following close behind the teenager.

These two were closely trailing him, behaving like servants.

The younger members of the Yi Family surrounded them, curious about the identity of Fang Mu.

In major families like theirs, many of the younger generation training in the Martial Arts Arena were illegitimate sons and daughters retrieved from the outside.

Many of these illegitimate offspring demonstrated extraordinary talent after they returned to the Yi Family and received proper resources.

They quickly overshadowed many members of the Direct Line and Side branches.

Initially, many young members of the Yi Family thought Fang Mu was also an illegitimate son.

However, upon observation, Fang Mu didn't appear to be of Yi Family descent.

Descendants of the Yi Family often have distinct features such as phoenix eyes, which are rarely absent in the younger generation.

Moreover, if Fang Mu was a Yi Family illegitimate son, it wouldn't be possible for him to accompany Yi Han, let alone bring his own servants.

Suddenly, a gasp of surprise spread through the crowd.

"It's Jianmu! I happened to see his duel on the Battle Network!"

A member of the Yi Family's Side branches exclaimed, revealing Fang Mu's identity.

Those who had their attention on Yi Han quickly shifted their focus to Fang Mu.

The young members of the Yi Family looked at Fang Mu with a mix of wariness and scrutiny, their gaze filled with dissatisfaction and resentment.

Many young descendants of the Yi Family had been waiting for their turn to use the Sacred Relic, Sakura Tempering Carp!

Many of the younger Yi Family members had even bragged about it, displaying arrogance among their friends.

Some of the young Direct Line members in high positions within the Yi Family promised to bring their friends home to witness the Sakura Tempering Carp.

However, all their plans were disrupted by Fang Mu's sudden appearance.

The emergence of a Grandmaster Creator in the Yi Family should have been a time of infinite glory for them.

Yet due to Fang Mu, the younger generation felt as if they had been slapped in the face in public.

But after noticing Yi Han's attitude towards Fang Mu, the smarter ones instantly suppressed their negative emotions.

If even Yi Han treats Fang Mu with such respect, wouldn't it mean going against Yi Han's wishes if they bear grudges against Fang Mu?

Behind Jianmu was a Grandmaster Creator who was even more powerful than Yi Han, and maintaining cordial relations with him could surely benefit them within the family.

However, not all the youngsters of the Yi Family were clever.

In a group of outstanding individuals, there were bound to be some fools.

Even if the fools could make sensible decisions, it wouldn't stop others from deliberately inciting trouble.

The most common relationship among the younger generation of large families is competition.

If they are able to create a conflict between someone and Fang Mu, that person will likely be ruined within the Yi Family.

While there were many things the young members of the Yi Family wouldn't dare to say to their elders, there were no such restrictions among the youngsters.

Yi Shuzhou was the youngest son of the Family Head, Yi Feng.

For elders, a late-born son is often the most beloved.

Few things bring as much joy as having a child in old age.

Yi Shuzhou was the little tyrant among the younger generation of the Yi Family.

Although Yi Shuzhou was not the highest-ranking among the younger generation and didn't rank in the top twenty in terms of talent, very few people would want to clash with him.

Not long ago, he had spoken ill of Jianmu, even boasting that even if Jianmu got the Sakura Tempering Carp, he wouldn't necessarily be any stronger!

Though these were just sour words of a young man who was resentful for not having received the Sacred Relic Sakura Tempering Carp, there was potential in it.

Next to Yi Shuzhou, a thin boy was eyeing Fang Mu with his eyes full of cunning.

He turned his head towards Yi Shuzhou and suggested in a rising tone,

“Shuzhou, it seems you and Jianmu are about the same age,”

“You just became a Biprong Star Tamer recently. How about having a match with Jianmu later?”

“Master Yi Han is here watching. If you perform well, Master Yi Han will definitely notice.”

Upon hearing the proposal, Yi Shuzhou’s face darkened, and he sharply stared at the thin boy next to him.

“Yi Shixuan, you’re not taking me for a fool, are you?”

“You are also a Biprong Star Tamer. Why don’t you challenge Jianmu yourself?”

“Just show your full strength. Even if you lose, our elder brother will look at you in a better light!”

“Ha-ha, Yi Shixuan, you better not come to Master Pang’s class in the Martial Arts Arena tomorrow.”

Chapter 278: Are You Taking Me for a Fool!?!_3

“Stay away from me in the future!”

“Being a side branches member with so many cunning hearts, you will be dealt with!”

Yi Shuzhou is headstrong, but not stupid.

In Yi Family, side branches have to address Yi Han as Master Yi Han.

But the direct line members of Yi Family can call Yi Han their elder uncle.

Being one of the most central figures among the younger generation in the direct line of the Yi Family, Yi Shuzhou knows better about the Yi Family’s attitude towards Jianmu.

If Yi Shixuan encouraged him to be on good terms with Jianmu, Yi Shuzhou would appreciate Yi Shixuan more and consider him one of his own.

Now, Yi Shixuan's words, whether intentional or not, are harmful to him.

If he really did that, not to mention his uncle Yi Han, even his father, Yi Feng, would not let him off!

Yi Shuzhou, ignoring the embarrassment of Yi Shixuan beside him, took the lead in saluting Yi Han when he came over.

Then he walked quickly to Fang Mu's side and said with a smile.

"Jianmu, my name is Yi Shuzhou."

"I've watched your duels on the Battle Network twice, I'm a fan!"

"It's an honor to meet you today!"

Yi Shuzhou did not presume to shake hands with Fang Mu, but stood there rubbing his hands in a restrained manner.

It really gave off the vibe of a fan meeting a superstar.

Fang Mu raised an eyebrow seeing this.

Indeed, he had encountered live broadcasters in his duels on the Battle Network, and videos had been posted there.

But they had quickly disappeared.

Fang Yuan had mentioned this situation to him.

Fang Mu immediately guessed that it must have been taken care of by the Scavengers.

Among all the official organizations in the Dragon Rising Federation, Fang Mu had only joined one – the Scavengers.

It wasn't impossible for Yi Shuzhou to have seen his fight footage, but the chance was extremely slim.

Moreover, even if he had seen it, given his status as a young member of the Yi Family, he would never have been so courteous to him.

He had snatched opportunities from the younger generation of the Yi Family, and Yi Shuzhou was likely among them.

So this Yi Shuzhou was probably an actor, and a very skillful one at that.

When Yi Han saw Yi Shuzhou come forward, his brow furrowed slightly.

But when he heard what Yi Shuzhou said to Fang Mu, Yi Han's brow relaxed.

Yi Han had always focused on the pursuit of Creator strength, never marrying.

Nor had he left behind any offspring like his peers in the Yi Family.

Therefore, he had always been impartial to the younger generation of the Yi Family.

Yi Han had previously not had a good impression of Yi Shuzhou, disliking those who are assertive and domineering among the younger generation.

But now it seems that Yi Shuzhou is indeed clever, and has applied his cleverness appropriately.

“Shuzhou, anything you need to say we’ll discuss later.”

“Let me take Jianmu to choose a guardian beast first.”

Having finished speaking to Yi Shuzhou, Yi Han turned to Fang Mu and said,

“Shuzhou is a good lad from our Yi Family. If you feel that you get along well with Shuzhou,”

“You can spend more time with him when you visit the Capital in the future.”

“It will be more comfortable for you young people to hang out together than with someone of advanced age like me!”

Hearing this, Fang Mu smiled and said to Yi Shuzhou,

“If we hit it off the first time we meet, how about we connect on QV?”

Yi Han had always given him due respect, regardless of the reason. Hence, Fang Mu must also do the same for Yi Han!

Yi Han was introducing him to Yi Shuzhou, not expressing his appreciation might embarrass Yi Han in front of the younger generation of the Yi Family.

Fang Mu did not intend to offend Yi Han for no reason, and discussing things directly with Yi Han wasn't as convenient as having Yi Shuzhou act as an intermediary.

No matter how many transactions were made, Yi Han could not protect his interests from the perspective of the Yi Family.

But Yi Shuzhou was different.

If Yi Shuzhou befriended him and became a channel between the Yi Family and him, and if his status in the Yi Family was elevated afterwards,

He would proactively protect his interests to consolidate his position in the Yi Family.

This was what Fang Mu wanted.

Currently, Fang Mu had a small group on QV, which only had four members – Lu Yuyu, Lin Ziyuan, Luo Su and Fang Mu.

Fang Mu could completely add Yi Shuzhou to this group.

So as to contribute to building the group's network and elevate the prestige of the discussion group.

Yi Shuzhou had initially put on a show for Yi Han's benefit, but he didn't expect Jianmu to give him such face!

Seeing Yi Han looking at him approvingly, Yi Shuzhou quickly added Fang Mu on QV in an extremely friendly manner.

There were very few opportunities for the younger generation of the Yi Family to show off.

A lot of direct line members of the Yi Family felt complicated.

They didn't expect Yi Shuzhou, who used to make loud claims, to behave in such a way towards Jianmu!

But no one dared to tell Jianmu about this.

Once they told him and disrupt the unity between Jianmu and Yi Shuzhou,

It would be equivalent to losing a route for the Yi Family to connect with Jianmu.

Just now, Yi Han had mentioned he was in a hurry to help Jianmu choose a guardian beast.

Approaching Jianmu to greet him at this time would not be a considerate thing, but a hindrance.

When he approached the bird niche in the Martial Arts Arena with Yi Han, Fang Mu was immediately dazzled by the crane beasts.

Among bird-type controlled creatures, crane beasts are very rare.

The Yi Family had so many top-tier stocks of such rare crane beasts.

Compared to top-level forces like the Yi Family, he as a high-end Creator had an endless source of resources, but other resource chains hadn't been established yet.

The reserves of the Yi Family gave Fang Mu a glimpse into the future development direction of the Jianmu Commerce Association.

The profound patterns Yan Wood has understood till now are all of the fire attribute, and the Vermilion Sun Crane is also a fire attribute beast.

Unlike him, with the Contracting Blood that allows unlimited beast contracting, the best path for Yan Wood is to fix the attribute of the controlling beast like Fang Qin, to ensure that the profound patterns she has grasped can match any beast in a battle.

Among these more than forty crane beasts, there were only three fire series crane beasts.

These three fire series crane beasts also belong to the same species as if they were triplets.

But since Fang Mu was choosing a beast for Yan Wood, he was diligent in using the Eye of Knowledge.

Upon an inspection, Fang Mu was surprised to find that these three identically looking fire series crane beasts could undergo the rarest variation among the three major variations of guardian beasts!

Chapter 279: Merge: Xi Hui Reflective Crane!_1

The three major transformations of a Guardian Beast are Instrumentalization, Attachment, and Fusion.

Instrumentalization is the most common among all Guardian Beasts, referring to a specific trait that allows a Guardian Beast to be transformed into a weapon.

According to ancient records, this particular trait was especially prevalent in the fourth, fifth, and sixth epochs.

There were no mentions of spiritual instruments in the scriptures of those times, and it is for this reason that Instrumental Beast Masters were especially popular.

The spiritual instruments produced by Spirit-smithing Masters possessed functions similar to those of Instrumentalized Guardian Beasts.

More importantly, a Beast Master could freely switch their spiritual instruments to suit their own combat system.

Instrumentalized Guardian Beasts could not offer this degree of flexibility.

Therefore, now, there's nothing particularly exciting about contracting a Guardian Beast that can Instrumentalize.

Compared to Instrumentalization, Attachment is much rarer.

Attachment refers to the fusion between a Guardian Beast and its Master, allowing the Beast Master to manipulate the power of their Guardian Beast.

Furthermore, new abilities may emerge after the fusion process.

Ever since Fang Mu observed changes in his hair and eye color under the Blood Red Fog, he suspected that this could be the effect of one of the three major transformations: Attachment.

However, a Guardian Beast that utilizes Attachment should merge into the body of the Beast Master.

But while his body had changed, the Blood Fertility remained outside his body.

In addition, he could still issue other commands to the Blood Fertility.

Many Beast Masters who hadn't awakened their Destiny Guardian Beast used Guardian Beasts with Attachment traits as if they were their Destiny Beasts.

The reason is that just like the innate divine ability of a Destiny Beast, a Guardian Beast capable of Attachment offered a blessing to the Beast Master.

However, this idea has never been acknowledged by traditional scholars.

A Beast Master's spiritual power is limited; one cannot contract Guardian Beasts at will.

The awakening of the Destiny Guardian Beast not only doesn't consume spiritual power but also amplifies it.

These aspects are beyond the reach of any Guardian Beast capable of Attachment.

But when comparing the enhancement from an Innate Divine Ability and the exclusive trait of Attachment, Fang Mu found the latter more significant.

As for the third transformation, Fusion, it was only recorded in ancient texts.

It's said that three splendid fish fused into a peculiar Dragon Beast, laying the foundation for the lineage of Guardian Dragons under Dragon Beasts.

Upon making their debut, Guardian Dragons immediately stepped into the main bloodline, becoming the noblest branch in the Dragon Beast's bloodline.

Many scholars have expressed skepticism about these textual accounts.

However, anything in those documents that could be verified was proven to be true.

To erase records, solid evidence must first be found to prove them as false.

In later years, several mutated Dream Beasts in the Dragon Rising Federation underwent Fusion and evolved into Beast known as Dream Genesis Beast.

Upon its emergence, the Dream Genesis Beast instantly became a vital Sacred Relic of the Dragon Rising Federation.

It was the Fusion of the Dream Beasts that confirmed the truth about the Fusion theory amongst the scholars.

Although no known Dragon Beast possesses the Guardian Dragon bloodline so far.

The lineage of the Guardian Dragon remains unremoved from the main Dragon Species' bloodline.

These three Emblem Burning Cranes are connected by bloodline; when they flying together, they show signs of mutually stimulating each other's bloodlines.

Once the fluctuation of their bloodlines reaches a certain frequency and is triggered by an incentive.

The three Emblem Burning Cranes will successfully undergo Fusion.

Among known fused Guardian Beasts, only one is considered a standard case.

Even though the Dragon Rising Federation revealed the name of the Dream Genesis Beast, they did not disclose its abilities or the process of its evolution.

Fang Mu didn't have the experience to judge at a glance whether these three Emblem Burning Cranes could undergo Fusion.

But the Eye of Omniscience displayed on his evolutionary path revealed that the three Emblem Burning Cranes would turn into a Reflecting Sun Crane after Fusion.

Feeding the three Emblem Burning Cranes with pure Fire Elemental Energy under their current state would induce Fusion.

Combined with Blood Aged Wine, Fusion could happen very quickly.

Even Fang Mu had heard of Fusion, and surely Yi Han must have known about it too.

Yi Han put the three Emblem Burning Cranes together, enhancing the resonance between their bloodlines.

Undoubtedly, he had the idea of triggering their Fusion in mind.

A scenario where Yi Han allowed Fang Mu to choose Guardian Beasts when three potential Fusion candidates were available is enough to prove that Yi Han didn't hide anything from him.

In addition to the three Emblem Burning Cranes, there was also a unique Crane Beast called the Phoenix Crown Sparrow Crane.

The Phoenix Crown Sparrow Crane carries the bloodlines of the sparrow, crane, and phoenix bird-type controlled creatures, and it can be categorized as a Crane Beast.

The Phoenix Crown Sparrow Crane doesn't possess much combat capability, but it's one of the middle-grade auspicious creatures.

Just by looking at the auspiciousness, it is equivalent to the sacred Sakura Tempering Carp.

The Phoenix Crown Sparrow Crane is the size of a palm, but its tail feathers stretch to nearly one meter.

Its primary color scheme consists of white and yellow.

Each of its feathers emanates a beautiful soft light because it carries the bloodline of the Phoenix-type Beast.

The presence of the Phoenix Crown Sparrow Crane attracts all birds.

Birds attracted by the Phoenix Crown Sparrow Crane know that it likes cleanliness and won't defecate within a five-kilometer radius of the Phoenix Crown Sparrow Crane.

Fang Mu's estate is perfect, except for an abundance of birds.

The birds are frank by nature.

It requires a considerable effort for the estate's staff to clean up every day.

If the Phoenix Crown Sparrow Crane were housed in the estate, they wouldn't need to worry about this problem anymore.

There is a large Green Mountain Phoenix-Tree planted right outside Fang Mu's main residence.

Chapter 280: Merge: Xi Hui Reflecting Sun Crane!_2

The Green Mountain Phoenix-Tree is one of the few tree-type Guardian Beasts that can grow beyond a hundred meters at the Silver Stage.

The Green Mountain Phoenix-Tree stays green all year round, once it advances to the Diamond Stage, it resembles a green mountain from afar.

It's said that if the Green Mountain Phoenix-Tree can be advanced to a Sequential Stage, it can reach the clouds to draw in purple qi from the east.

Fang Mu believes that the Green Mountain Phoenix-Tree can reach the clouds when it is advanced to the Sequential stage.

As for the drawing in of the purple qi from the heavens, it's merely because the Green Mountain Phoenix-Tree is a lower-class auspicious creature.

This is said only to enhance the value of the Green Mountain Phoenix-Tree.

Bringing the Phoenix Crown Sparrow Crane to the manor would be perfect for it to roost in the branches of the Green Mountain Phoenix-Tree and build its nest there.

Having made up his mind, Fang Mu straightforwardly told Yi Han.

"Uncle Yi, I'll take these three Emblem Burning Cranes and this Phoenix Crown Sparrow Crane."

Yi Han didn't feel much pain giving away the Phoenix Crown Sparrow Crane, a middle-grade auspicious creature.

Although Phoenix-type Beasts have always been on par with Dragon Beasts, many bird-type controlled creatures carry the bloodline of Phoenix-type Beasts.

But to transform a bird-type controlled creature into a Phoenix-type Beast is much more difficult than evolving a beast with a dragon bloodline into a dragon.

Be it fish, insects, or beasts, bloodline evolution into dinosaur species, Jiao dragon species, and finally into Master Dragons,

The only things the bloodline can suppress are other creatures with dragon blood.

Yet when Phoenix-type Beasts emit their bloodline aura, they can deter all bird species.

They truly deserve the title of the King of All Birds.

Moreover, the spiritual materials for upgrading the bloodline of Phoenix-type Beasts are scarce, unlike the plentiful materials for upgrading the dragon bloodline.

This makes Master Phoenix-type Beast Controllers much more valuable than Master Dragon Controllers.

The bird bloodline in the Phoenix Crown Sparrow Crane makes up at least 70%, and it's really hard to evolve it into a pure-blooded Phoenix-type Beast.

What Yi Han really lamented was the three Emblem Burning Cranes.

But he quickly suppressed this sadness.

He had personally trained these three Emblem Burning Cranes, otherwise, the signs of fusion in their bloodlines wouldn't be so obvious.

Yi Han had fed them at least thirty or forty bottles of Fire Elemental Potion with a purity of 80%.

But gradually, Yi Han found that Fire Elemental Potion with a purity under 90% didn't contribute significantly to the fusion of the Emblem Burning Crane's bloodline.

And Fire Elemental Potion with a purity above 90% was too precious.

Even though Yi Han had become a Creation Grandmaster, he didn't want to invest more resources into these three Emblem Burning Cranes.

Yi Han felt that even if Fang Mu were a Senior Creation Zenith Master and induced them with Fire Elemental Potion with a purity of 94%,

According to the previous reaction of these three Emblem Burning Cranes, they could hardly advance to the final step of fusion.

Exchanging three potential-filled Bottomless Pits for high-end resources he couldn't make himself was the best choice.

If Yi Han wanted to trade, the resources he could get in exchange for these three Emblem Burning Cranes wouldn't be as good as what he could get from Fang Mu.

"My nephew, it's about time. You can directly store these three Emblem Burning Cranes and the Phoenix Crown Sparrow Crane into your spiritual instrument!"

While speaking, Yi Han waved at a middle-aged man next to him.

The man quickly brought over the Soul-stabilizing box containing the souls of cicadas and frogs.

Yi Han took it and handed it to Fang Mu together with the Soul-stabilizing box.

Seeing the Purple Ice Crystal Ring on Fang Mu's left index finger, Yi Han didn't bother to have someone deliver the four large bird niches to Jianmu Commerce Association.

Fang Mu put the Soul-stabilizing box into the Purple Ice Crystal Ring first.

Then he walked over to the four bird niches and touched them with his mental power.

The four bird niches were instantly absorbed into the Purple Ice Crystal Ring.

Fang Mu's actions caused a look of admiration to appear on the faces of the younger generation of the Yi Family, including Yi Shuzhou.

Although Yi Shuzhou had received a Sequential Spiritual Instrument from his father,

His Sequential Spiritual Instrument was not a jewelry-type Space Series Spiritual Instrument, and he could not use it as a Storage Spiritual Instrument.

Since he was only a two-pronged Biprong Star Tamer, Yi Shuzhou could only use Gold-level Space Element Tools.

Seeing that Fang Mu collected all the supplies, Yi Han didn't bring up the resource exchange matter himself.

After some time of interacting with Fang Mu, Yi Han had an understanding of what kind of person Fang Mu was.

Fang Mu took his stuff, and even if he didn't bring it up, Fang Mu would take the initiative.

Right now, going to Chang Le Pavilion was the most important thing.

“My nephew, since I’m playing middleman this time, let’s ride in my Beast Car to Chang Le Pavilion!”

“Ya Le Mountain is quite far from my place.”

“Even though Hellhound has good stamina, it would still take at least eight hours round trip.”

“We simply can’t make the agreed time.”

Fang Mu nodded and smiled when he heard the words.

“Then I’ll have to trouble Uncle Yi!”

“I’ll just take the Beast car into my Space Spirit Tool.”

After speaking to Yi Han, Fang Mu said to Yin Nanzhen,

“Brother Yin, make sure the Pathfinding Pigeon memorizes the route later.”

“If there are more opportunities to deal with Chang Le Pavilion in the future, it’s not good to have Uncle Yi leading the way every time!”

When Fang Mu first called him “Brother Yin”, Yin Nanzhen didn’t feel anything special.

But after getting to know Fang Mu’s abilities, whenever Yin Nanzhen was called “Brother Yin”, he felt tremendous pressure.

The young man he swore allegiance to was extremely polite but very decisive in his actions.

Yi Han’s coachman is a member of the Yi Family Side Branch who is of the same generation as Yi Han.
