

Beast Tamer 321

Chapter 321 Fire-fist Kangaroo and Muddy Bag Bear!_1

Though Fang Mu had not summoned his Ghost System Beast, it was clear to everyone that he possessed one.

However, beasts from the Undead Species are a minority among Guardian Beasts.

Those Beast Masters able to form contracts with the Undead Species must constantly use Life Elixirs to cleanse their bodies of the Dead Qi.

Those who can afford the daily use of Life Elixirs are no weaklings.

Therefore, it is quite rare to see beasts of the Undead Species appearing under the Golden Rank.

Most people who are still active on the Battle Network around 3 or 4 in the morning are those with severe internet addictions and rarely aspire to climb the ranks.

They mostly find joy in the endless stream of battles.

A large part of this joy lies in getting to know novel Guardian Beasts.

Therefore, many of Fang Mu's opponents, after seeing the undead creatures he summons, discuss with him.

They want to use the Battle Network's snapshot feature to take a few pictures with Fang Mu's Undead Creatures during the duel.

Fang Mu is currently eager to improve his rank and hopes to match with opponents of considerable strength.

Naturally, he wouldn't agree to such ridiculous requests.

Yan Luo, one of his roles, has already played into the promotion match of Silver Two.

But when it comes to comparing, the strongest opponent that Yan Luo has faced, was indeed far less strong than Huan Wang whom he encountered previously.

It seems that the streamer, who kept mixing in the age division in the past and was referred to as "Huan", hasn't been duelling in the ranking division for a long time.

If he didn't happen to encounter Fang Mu, he probably could have made it all the way to the Gold Rank.

Fang Mu indeed guessed right.

Because after Huan Wang lost to Fang Mu in the last battle, he received fewer gifts from the big shots in his live broadcast room.

A significant number of Huan Wang's old followers left his broadcast room and unsubscribed because they felt that Wang was embarrassing and dragging them down.

But the impact resulting from Huan Wang's confrontation with Fang Mu was too significant.

Even if many old fans unfollowed, Wang Huan's live broadcast room's popularity still remained a lot higher than before.

Huan Wang livestreamed to make money. In the past, he could still take livestreaming as a pleasure, and mainly relied on reselling spiritual instruments from his offline shops.

Now, because Huan Wang has lost the chance to collaborate with those Spirit-smithing Masters, his shop no longer makes money.

On the contrary, he now needs to rely on the daily earnings from his livestreams to subsidize the rent and maintenance of the shop.

This made Huan Wang feel compelled to desperately search for new ways to amass wealth.

Ever since Huan Wang discovered that whenever he speaks of Fang Mu, his live audience becomes more excited,

The name of Fang Mu has akin to grown on Huan Wang's mouth.

The person Huan Wang hates most is Fang Mu.

If he hadn't met Fang Mu, he would still be leisurely acting as the tyrant in the age division, peddling spiritual instruments.

Huan Wang wished he could trash-talk Fang Mu whenever he had time, but Fang Mu really gave him no handle to attack on.

A boy owning Space Series Sequential Spiritual Instruments at a young age, and having contracted a Silver Stage Half-Elf.

Additionally, this Silver Stage Half-Elf could transform into a Blood Noble to fight, unleashing the combat power of a Gold Rank despite being in Silver Stage.

There is no way for Huan Wang to discredit such a person, so Huan Wang could only reluctantly praise Fang Mu.

Even though the praising made Huan Wang's heart wretch, he still had to maintain a smiling face and passionately give his praise.

Although Huan Wang's livestream income is not as good as before, it's still much better than when he was at his most desperate state.

Huan Wang very clear that the popularity garnered from praising Fang Mu was only temporary and it wasn't a long-term plan.

Not to mention when Fang Mu will next time appear for a duel on the Battle Network,

If Fang Mu next time appears because of a duel with another streamer, the other streamers will intercept the popularity without any hesitation.

Many streamers are now envying him. As he had already battled Fang Mu twice, he became Battle Network's best outlet for any topics related to Fang Mu.

Therefore, Huan Wang has been basically spending eighteen hours a day on the Battle Network to live stream recently.

Within these 18 hours, it's impossible to allow Huan Wang to duel continuously.

Duelling requires a lot of energy and streamers would deplete their spiritual power after long hours of duelling on the Battle Network.

This would also result in a warning issued by the officials of the Battle Network.

So, Huan Wang racked his brain on how he could do long hours of live broadcast without the content being disliked by the audience.

Eventually, Huan Wang discovered that he could drop into other streamers' live broadcast rooms to watch their battles and make some verbal comments,

Talking about the win rate of this streamer and his opponent if they faced Fang Mu.

This way, he could naturally divert the topic to Fang Mu.

At 10 in the morning, there were still plenty of live broadcast rooms available for viewing on the Battle Network.

Huan Wang chose a room with a lot of viewership and clicked in.

After clicking in, Huan Wang was taken aback because he didn't anticipate that he would see a Beast Master who contracted the Undead Species at the Silver Ranks.

From the audience's perspective, Huan Wang went to check the identity information of this Beast Master.

[Yan Luo]: Age 16, Male, Ranking: (Silver Two, 100 victory points).

Seeing this age, Wang Huan couldn't help but think of that demon, Fang Mu, who had dominated him twice in the past.

This so-called Yan Luo was surprisingly at the same age as Fang Mu!

Such a young age able to possess two Silver Peak Guardian Beasts, when did such geniuses become so common?

This Beast Master named Yan Luo, in terms of Guardian Beast's strength, could completely compare with Fang Mu.

At such a young age, contracted with the Undead Species Guardian Beasts and nurtured them so well, he must have a noteworthy background,

And he must have been a Direct Line Member in this background, and even in the Direct Line Members, a favored individual.

Chapter 322 - Fire-fist Kangaroo and Muddy Bag Bear!_2

Otherwise, no entity would be willing to expend extra Life Elixirs to help Yan Luo eliminate Dead Qi.

Thinking of this, Huan Wang's eyes suddenly brightened.

One could say that Yan Luo had given him a topic of conversation, a perfect opportunity to compare Yan Luo and Jianmu.

Before, when he compared others with Fang Mu, even Huan Wang himself felt that they were not worthy of the comparison.

What good does it do to have power alone? What's important is that their age should be similar to Jianmu's as well!

But with Yan Luo, it was different.

The Giant Brutal Butcher that Yan Luo had contracted was clearly of perfect quality and possessed a unique characteristic.

The Corpse Hunter clothed in the “Funeral Robes” looked like its quality might have reached Epic quality.

A Silver Stage Guardian Beast of Epic quality is destined to be extraordinary!

Otherwise, who would invest so many resources in a Silver Stage Guardian Beast?

The streamer that is currently facing off Fang Mu is named Su Fan, aged 19, and a student at a key college.

He made it to the preliminaries in the national high school individual league and was eliminated only in the sixth round.

According to ranking, he could be placed around 2,000th.

The Battle Network can authenticate one’s identity and honor, but what makes Su Fan so popular is not just his strength and potential.

It is also his excellent looks, his skin is milky white.

Although he looks like a cute puppy, he fights like a fierce wolf.

Many ladies would rather spend extra on skin care products in the middle of the night just to support Su Fan's live stream.

Su Fan noticed Huan Wang entering his livestream room.

The rumor of Huan Wang behaving like a freeloader trying to ride on Jianmu's coat-tails had been widely circulated in the streaming circle recently.

Jianmu kept a low profile, and apart from those few battles, he made no further appearances.

Huan Wang was rather cheeky, acting like Jianmu's spokesperson just because he was matched with Jianmu a few times.

Normally, when other streamers visited the room, they would at least greet each other.

But Su Fan simply ignored Huan Wang, as though he did not see him at all.

"Yan Luo, your name is cool!"

"But you probably won't be a match for me if you only have two undead beasts."

When he heard the name Yan Luo, Fang Mu was caught off guard.

It took Fang Mu a while to recall that his new Battle Network identity was Yan Luo, not Jianmu.

Fang Mu had already investigated Su Fan's two Mystic Beasts.

[Beast Name]: Fire-Fist Kangaroo

[Beast Species]: Kangaroo Family/Large Kangaroo Species

[Beast Level]: Gold (4/10)

[Beast Attribute]: Fire

[Beast Potential]: Platinum

[Beast Quality]: Perfect

Skills:

[Firemark]: Each punch on the target will add a layer of 'firemark' to the target's body, which will worsen the fire damage the target takes next.

[Explosive Punch]: When two fists collide, they release high-temperature sparks, which have a strong piercing effect.

[High Fighting Spirit]: Activate the energy contained within the body and enter a state of high spirits, resisting adverse interference.

Exclusive Traits:

[Shock Blast Punch]: Whenever three layers of 'firemark' are inflicted on the opponent's body by punches, the next attack will make the opponent's body suffer the cumulative shock of three punches.

[Beast Name]: Muddy Bag Bear

[Beast Species]: Bear Family/Wombat

[Beast Level]: Gold (2/10)

[Beast Attribute]: Earth

[Beast Potential]: Platinum

[Beast Quality]: Perfect

Skills:

[Muddy pool]: Release a mud pool through the Earth Element, which can help the user avoid damage or be used to bind the opponent.

[Kangaroo Mud Arrow]: Load the Mud in the bag on the abdomen, then convert it into sharp arrows for an attack on the target.

[Rotten mud binding]: Cover the target's body with rotting mud, eroding the target's body with its internal poison.

Exclusive Traits:

[Double Stickiness]: Enhance the stickiness and density of the mud, as well as its hardness after solidification. Once in contact with flesh and blood, the super sticky mud will merge with the surface flesh to form a whole.

Su Fan is a Biprong Star Tamer, and both of his main battle Mystic Beasts are at the Gold Level.

Fortunately, both of these Gold Level Mystic Beasts' abilities are within the Gold Level: one is at Level 4, while the other is at Level 2.

Both have perfect Quality and are within the range Fang Mu can handle.

After all, some scholars analyzed that in the same Ranking of Guardian Beasts, each level up in Quality grants a new exclusive characteristic.

This equates to an improvement of two to three sub-Rankings.

Although the Fire-Fist Kangaroo and the Muddy Bag Bear are not on the same level as the Giant Brutal Butcher and the Gravekeeper Dadida, the Gravekeeper Dadida trumps the Fire-Fist Kangaroo and the Muddy Bag Bear in Quality, reducing the difference in Rankings.

"Whether I'm your opponent or not, we won't know until we fight!"

“And who told you that I only have two Undead Mystic Beasts?”

As he spoke, Fang Mu raised his hand and summoned the Gravekeeper Dadida.

After summoning the Gravekeeper Dadida, Fang Mu wasn't polite and directly let the Giant Brutal Butcher lead the charge.

After advancing to the Silver Stage, the Giant Brutal Butcher further expanded in size.

Its towering figure of over four meters tall was covered in bulging grey-green muscles.

In some parts of its muscles, necrosis was already visible, and from these necrotic spots, grey-brown Dead Qi was constantly radiating outwards.

Fang Mu had already fought a battle before, claiming victory through the Giant Brutal Butcher and the Gravekeeper Dadida.

The Battle Network's Ranking Promotion tournament is a best-of-five series for the major Rankings, and a best-of-three for the minor ones.

If Fang Mu wins this match, he will advance to Silver One.

Chapter 323 - Fire-fist Kangaroo and Muddy Bag Bear!_3

Once advancing further into the golden rank, he stands a chance of encountering opponents with platinum-stage guardian beasts.

Now, Fang Mu, relying on his silver-stage beasts, could stand his ground against gold-stage beasts, but against a platinum-stage beast, he would likely have no chance of winning.

Seeing that Yan Luo had summoned another undead species guardian beast, not only was Su Fan taken aback.

The viewers inside Su Fan's live broadcast room, as well as Huan Wang, and the viewers inside Huan Wang's live broadcast room were all surprised.

What's happening!?

A sixteen-year-old boy managed to contract with three guardian beasts!?

Contracting guardian beasts consumes spiritual power. It's not about whether one can afford to keep them.

If the ability to afford them comes into play, then every direct-line member from a wealthy and powerful family could easily fit twenty or thirty guardian beasts in their Destiny Guidebooks without any issue.

Anyway, the beast quality is not that much of a resource burden as long as they have not reached the platinum stage

To maintain an early advantage, they can simply let go of some contracted beasts later by not nurturing them anymore.

How much spiritual power would a person have left after contracting three beasts?

Would the remaining spiritual power be enough to comprehend the mysterious patterns!?

Despite having an excellent lineup of beasts, why is he doing something that defies common sense?

Not only does Su Fan not understand, but Huan Wang also cannot understand.

Among the people that Huan Wang knows, the one with the highest status is certainly She Jiazhen from Lu Dushe clan.

She Jiazhen was born with a golden spoon, and furthermore, he was confirmed to have a high talent in spiritual power right after birth.

He was undoubtedly the preferred heir of the She family.

The She Family has been wholeheartedly supporting She Jiazhen.

However, to this point, in order to ensure his spiritual energy can better comprehend the mysterious patterns, She Jiazhen has only contracted one guardian beast.

When Huan Wang asked She Jiazhen about this, She Jiazhen's words shattered Huan Wang's worldview.

She Jiazhen directly told Huan Wang that the family plans to let him condense a Mysterious Chapter first.

Then, based on the obtained Mysterious Chapter, he should select the most suitable guardian beast to contract.

This is the cultivation method that powerful families utilize for their younger generations.

Jianmu only revealed one half-elf beast; most likely, he had also only contracted one beast just like She Jiazhen.

He probably intends to contract more guardian beasts after obtaining his Mysterious Chapter.

But to say Yan Luo is not from a large family background, yet the quality of the undead beast he just summoned is above perfect quality. Most likely it has reached epic quality.

Originally, Huan Wang thought Yan Luo would be no match for Su Fan.

Now Yan Luo, as the Beast Master of three Silver Peak undead guardian beasts, may not necessarily be unable to compete against Su Fan.

In order to liven up the atmosphere of the broadcast room, Huan Wang said.

“We haven’t had a prize draw in the broadcast room in half a month.”

“Those who think Su Fan can win, choose option one. Those who think Yan Luo can win, choose option two!”

“Voting only costs one War Net Coin.”

“With your daily check-in War Net, you can get at least five War Net Coins.”

“Everyone participate actively; I will choose a lucky winner from those who guess correctly and give away a Bronze Spatial Spiritual instrument as a gift.”

“The prize draw goes through the official War Net channel, guaranteeing a hundred percent fairness.”

Actually, the broadcast room was lively long before Huan Wang started the betting.

[Mountain Craftsman]: Eh? How can Yan Luo contract three undead guardian beasts at once? What is going on!? I remembered that except for professional Scavengers, few contracted three guardian beasts before twenty years old.

[Xinxin's Little Sheep]: Don't even mention three guardian beasts. I contracted two beasts, and every time I go to the Contemplation Hall, it's hard to gain insight! Compared to when I contracted one beast, the difference is huge!

[Jingwan]: Please don't worry about it! Maybe he has some other methods! One look at Yan Luo's guardian beasts and you'd know his background is definitely not ordinary. Two silver-stage epic-quality undead guardian beasts! This reminds me of Jianmu.

[Guest Siyu]: What a coincidence, I also thought of Jianmu!. How much would his chances of winning be if Yan Luo and Jianmu were to fight?

[Purple Stupid Bear]: Can we stop comparing everyone to Jianmu each time? His half-elf can transform into the Blood Noble. With just this one point, it bares no comparison with the others!

Usually, Huan Wang always had to lead the pace in his live broadcast room by himself.

Since viewers have already taken the lead, Huan Wang hasn't said anything further.

There were more than five hundred thousand people in his broadcast room at four to five o'clock in the morning.

If half of these people voted, pulling a Bronze Spatial Spiritual instrument from them would not be a loss!

Recently, Huan Wang has been comparing others with Jianmu, but deep down, Huan Wang also believes that others do not deserve to be compared with Jianmu.

If anyone could be compared with Jianmu, wouldn't Huan Wang losing to Jianmu make him appear weak?

Just with the point that Jianmu's silver-stage half-elf has the ability to transform into a Blood Noble, Yan Luo is already at a disadvantage.

But not long after, the Giant Brutal Butcher made Huan Wang's eyes widen.

Su Fan commanded the Fire-fist Kangaroo to go straight up. After seven or eight jumps, the four-meter-tall Fire-fist Kangaroo arrived at the center of the field.

As soon as it arrived, it gave the Giant Brutal Butcher a set of combination punches.

However, when the Fire-fist Kangaroo's fists swept towards the Giant Brutal Butcher's chest, it found that the Butcher's seemingly hard muscles were like wet mud, sucking its fists in deeply.

When the Fire-fist Kangaroo's fists sank into the Giant Brutal Butcher's body, it tried instinctively to pull its fists out.

The Giant Brutal Butcher's flesh tightly wrapped around the Fire-fist Kangaroo's fists, making it difficult for the kangaroo to break free.

The Fire-fist Kangaroo intended to kick the Giant Brutal Butcher's stomach using its feet as leverage.

But Su Fan quickly stopped the Fire-fist Kangaroo.

"Fire-fist, don't touch this big guy with any other parts of your body!"

"With the Exploding Fist, blast open this big guy's rotten flesh!"

Su Fan is not a Creator, and he can't see through the Giant Brutal Butcher's silver grade skill [Flesh Erosion Trap].

But he could judge the situation based on his combat experience during the fight.

The beasts of the kangaroo family, like the Fire-fist Kangaroo, have very explosive back legs.

But suppose the back legs cannot get free, and they end up stuck in this behemoth's body.

Then the Fire-Fist Kangaroo would be completely like meat on a cutting board, being harvested by the other two undead creatures that act like Corpse Hunters with their sharp claws and teeth.

After hearing Su Fan's command, the Fire-fist Kangaroo's fists exerted a powerful force, with its arm muscles supporting the power to bring the fists together.

It forcefully pressed its fists together.

An explosion erupted from within the Giant Brutal Butcher's body in an instant!

Chapter 324 Bizarre Finishing Blow!_i

The back of the Giant Brutal Butcher exploded suddenly.

The Fire-fist Kangaroo used its Silver Level Skill [Exploding Punch], and after both fists collided, a large amount of high-temperature sparks were released.

These instantly penetrated the Giant Brutal Butcher's back, the high-temperature sparks exploded at least three or four meters away.

However, this didn't allow the Fire-fist Kangaroo to withdraw its fists from the body of the Giant Brutal Butcher.

Due to the high-temperature sparks shooting forward from the point of fist contact, the rotten flesh on the Giant Brutal Butcher's back was scorched and exuded black green oil.

But the rotting flesh on the Butcher's front was still clinging tightly to the kangaroo's fists.

Even this attack caused the Kangaroo's fists to sear and blister from its own high-temperature sparks.

The toxic rot and Dead Qi within the Butcher's body infiltrated the Kangaroo's body through the blisters on its fists, bit by bit.

Su Fan had ample fighting experience, but he had never had the opportunity to battle against undead creatures before.

He never expected that the physical bodies of undead Guardian Beasts did not fear damage.

Upon seeing this, Huan Wang's expression changed instantly when he looked towards the Giant Brutal Butcher.

The strength of a Guardian Beast's abilities was greatly influenced by the resources used to nurture them.

The powerful Flesh Binding ability of the Giant Brutal Butcher must have been nourished by an extremely pure Dead Qi.

The higher the purity of the Dead Qi used to nurture Undead Creatures, the higher the purity of the Life Elixir the Beast Master has to use to cleanse the residual Dead Qi from his body.

This boy named Yan Luo was somewhat impressive!

In Su Fan's live broadcast room, the chat was rapidly scrolling.

[Tea House]: Big Kangaroo is still trapped, don't panic, Fan Fan! If you get anxious, sister will be heartbroken!

[Pumpkin Lantern]: I can't sleep when Fan Fan frowns! Fan Fan, quickly use the Muddy Bag Bear to deal with this big brute, let him know who is stickier!

[Lu Du Flower Sister]: The opponent is younger than Fan Fan, but he must be an ugly duckling wearing that mask! Fan Fan, charge forward!

As she spoke, [Lu Du Flower Sister] sent a ton of gifts.

Su Fan's broadcast room was like a large-scale fan meetup for an idol, but the atmosphere in Huan Wang's broadcast room was completely different.

[Why am I still hungry]: It's rare to see an undead Guardian Beast in a duel. Why does this Fire-fist Kangaroo seem so weak? A Gold Grade Guardian Beast is actually trapped by a Silver Grade one!

[Flowers in Shadow]: It's not that Fire-fist Kangaroo is weak, but it fell into the Giant Butcher's trap right away.

[Fat in love]: Correction to the above! This is not just any Giant Butcher, it's a rare variant called the Giant Brutal Butcher! If the Fire-fist Kangaroo had punched the brain of the Giant Brutal Butcher and exploded its Soul Flame from the start, the outcome would've been different!

[Barely Skinny]: That's right, the streamer underestimated Yan Luo's Beast since it was a rank lower and became reckless. It's common sense to prioritize attacking the head of an undead Guardian Beast!

Fang Mu couldn't see the live chat at the moment. If he could, he would definitely think "Eye of Omniscience rocks!" in his heart.

During a battle, being able to quickly grasp the abilities of the opponent's Guardian Beast allows you to effectively judge what tactics to use for the attack.

Allowing oneself to be omniscient.

If Su Fan had this ability, he definitely wouldn't have let the Fire-fist Kangaroo get entangled with the Giant Brutal Butcher right away, giving the Silver Level Skill [Flesh Erosion Trap] of the Giant Brutal Butcher a chance.

Grinding his teeth, Su Fan shouted.

"Fire-fist, use Exploding Punch again!"

Right now the Giant Butcher was already marked with two layers of Fireprint by the Fire-fist Kangaroo.

By using the Exploding Punch again to add another Fireprint, it would trigger an exclusive trait [Shock Blast Punch], using the triple-damage heavy blow from the [Shock Blast Punch] to free the Fire-fist Kangaroo from the Giant Brutal Butcher's control.

Su Fan's idea was good, but just like the Fire-fist Kangaroo has its own unique traits, so does the Giant Brutal Butcher.

Fang Mu bought the corpse of two Silver Peak Dread Claw Dark Bears from the Dark Gathering.

The blood of the Dread Claw Dark Bear contained dark element energy. After draining the blood from the corpses, Fang Mu let the Huge Brutal Butcher devour the bodies of the Dread Claw Dark Bears.

Through its exclusive trait, [Flesh and Blood Armament], the Giant Brutal Butcher hid the Dread Claws, sharp teeth, and hard bones of the Dread Claw Dark Bear within its body.

The Butcher's abdominal flesh writhed, pushing a pair of Dread Claws to its chest.

Both claws dug tightly into the Kangaroo's fists.

Although it couldn't crush the Kangaroo's bones, it did stop the Kangaroo's fists from immediately colliding for a second time.

Fang Mu was risking everything to keep the Giant Brutal Butcher alive. It was imperative that the Fire-fist Kangaroo could not break free from the bindings of the Giant Brutal Butcher.

The Fire-fist Kangaroo demonstrated its strong jump ability and would soon reach Fang Mu with continuous leaping.

Attacking the Beast Master is also a way to win.

Su Fan did not only issue one command.

As the Giant Brutal Butcher and the Fire-fist Kangaroo were deadlocked, the Muddy Bag Bear had already created two mire pools using its Bronze Level skill [Muddy Pool].

One pool was under the Giant Brutal Butcher and the other under Su Fan.

The Giant Brutal Butcher that was locked in combat with the Fire-fist Kangaroo made the most easily controlled target.

Falling into a mire pool, even if the pool couldn't swallow the Giant Brutal Butcher, it could prevent it from doing anything in the fight.

Once the Fire-fist Kangaroo broke loose, it could ignore the clumsy Giant Brutal Butcher and directly attack Yan Luo.

Chapter 325 The Bizarre Kill!_2

Su Fan was standing on the back of Muddy Bag Bear, the mud pool beneath his feet serving effectively to thwart any close combat attacks launched by the two Corpse Hunters.

Although the Fire-fist Kangaroo was also mired in the mud pool, it could easily hop out if freed from the control of the Giant Brutal Butcher.

While creating the two mud pools, the Muddy Bag Bear had been nurturing the Silver Grade Skill, “Kangaroo Mud Arrow,” in its belly pouch.

“Kangaroo Mud Arrows” wouldn’t reach Fang Mu, but they could target the head of the Giant Brutal Butcher with continuous pinpointed attacks.

During the Muddy Bag Bear’s participation in the battle, both the Grave Tending Father and the Grave Tending Child were not idle.

Both the Grave Tending Father and the Grave Tending Child had made their way to the Fire-fist Kangaroo.

To conserve energy, the Muddy Bag Bear’s mud pools under the Fire-fist Kangaroo and the Giant Brutal Butcher were not large.

The Grave Tending Father and the Grave Tending Child could rely on their exceptional jumping power to leap onto the back of the Fire-fist Kangaroo.

The Fire-fist Kangaroo was a powerful assault-class Guardian Beast with mediocre defense capabilities.

The Silver Grade Skill, “Swift Rend Claw,” kept tearing open one wound after another on the back of the Fire-fist Kangaroo.

“Swift Rend Claw” would just tear the muscles when slashed across, but in areas where there wasn’t much muscle, the bones wrapped by the fascia were now exposed.

Both the Grave Tending Father and the Grave Tending Child were undead creatures from the Corpse Hunting subspecies who feed on the flesh and blood of the living.

Being undead creatures, the Grave Tending Child and the Grave Tending Father could not help binging in the middle of the battle.

The screams of the Fire-fist Kangaroo fueled Su Fan's anger.

Even if his Guardian Beasts died in the Battle Network without any consequential impact, Su Fan could not stand idly by as his closely associated partners were subjected to such cruel treatment.

A whole pouch of "Kangaroo Mud Arrows" was shooting towards the head of the Giant Brutal Butcher, whose head shattered upon impact.

Just when the Soul Flame of the Giant Brutal Butcher was about to be extinguished.

The Grave Tending Child cruelly tore off an ear of the Fire-fist Kangaroo and then a gray light began to glow from its body.

A clump of Soul Flame channeled into the body of the Giant Brutal Butcher and acted as a fuel, reigniting the soon-to-be-extinguished Soul Flame of the Giant Brutal Butcher.

This was the power of the Grave Tending Child's Exclusive Trait "Corpse Spirit Fire Seed".

It barely kept the Giant Brutal Butcher alive amid the onslaught of "Kangaroo Mud Arrows".

The Grave Tending Father, using its Exclusive Trait [Sacrifice Armoured Gesture], manifested a special armored arm which was thrust ruthlessly into the fully exposed spine of the Fire-fist Kangaroo.

This brought an end to the life of the Fire-fist Kangaroo.

On its last breath, the Giant Brutal Butcher, using its Bronze Grade Skill [Gluttony], began to devour the carcass of the Fire-fist Kangaroo to heal its fatal injuries.

This sight made Su Fan completely lose his footing on the back of the Muddy Bag Bear.

Su Fan then gave a command to the Muddy Bag Bear.

“Muddy Bag Bear, retain only a third of your energy internally to maintain the mud pool, use your Exclusive Trait to unleash the Kangaroo Mud Arrows!”

The Muddy Bag Bear’s Exclusive Trait “Double Stickiness” could enhance the hardness of the “Kangaroo Mud Arrows” after solidification and merge them with the flesh of a living creature.

Muddy toxins blended with flesh offered no impact on undead creatures as the toxins within the mud can injure other life forms.

Undead creatures inherently contain a significant amount of toxins and Dead Qi, which makes them immune to all toxins.

Unless the toxin can infect the soul, ordinary toxins have no effect on undead creatures.

The moment the Fire-fist Kangaroo died, Su Fan knew he was likely going to fail in his match with Yan Luo.

But Su Fan would not easily admit defeat.

He had been livestreaming continuously for a while now in the hopes of joining a large Club Guild before the major competition and to become a starter on a professional team before turning 22.

Su Fan knew his advantages clearly.

He might not be the strongest, but his face had the potential to make him a big star.

Now, he had cultivated both his Guardian Beasts to Gold Grade, with minor help from his family.

The significant reliance was on the financial support from his female fans in the live broadcast room.

In the mud pool, it was quite convenient for the Muddy Bag Bear to use the Silver Grade Skill “Kangaroo Mud Arrow”, and a shower of arrows rained down on the fast-approaching Grave Tending Child and Grave Tending Father.

Su Fan’s biggest reliance in this situation was the fifteen-meter diameter mud pool beneath him.

As the two Corpse Hunters had only close-ranged attacks, it was hard for them to inflict any damage on him.

The “Kangaroo Mud Arrow” first targeted the Giant Brutal Butcher, who was in the midst of devouring the Fire-fist Kangaroo.

The Soul Flame of the Giant Brutal Butcher was completely extinguished, and he fell over in the mud pool.

The movements of the Grave Tending Father and the Grave Tending Child were swift. Despite the preemptive actions of the Muddy Bag Bear, it was hard for it to land precise hits on them.

The trajectory of the “Kangaroo Mud Arrow” was parabolic, which was much easier to dodge compared to a straight targeted trajectory.

However, some “Kangaroo Mud Arrows” landed on the Grave Tending Father and the Grave Tending Child and caused them some damage.

Throughout the charge, the Grave Tending Father shielded the front, and each “Kangaroo Mud Arrow” hitting him covered parts of his body with mud.

The Muddy Bag Bear took the opportunity to roll out its Gold Grade Skill “Rotten Mud Binding”.

Apart from corrosion, the Gold Grade Skill “Rotten Mud Binding” would also produce immense clenching force.

This massive clenching force crushed the bones of the Grave Tending Father in an instant. The special shoulder bone created by the Exclusive Trait [Sacrifice Armoured Gesture] failed to offer effective protection to the entire body of the Grave Tending Father.

Chapter 326 - The Bizarre Kill!_3

Su Fan originally planned for the Muddy Bag Bear to conserve a third of its energy, but he had not anticipated that one of the Corpse Hunters would shield the other throughout the confrontation.

This gave the Muddy Bag Bear an opportunity to fully exert its Gold Stage Skill “Rotten mud binding”.

The Giant Brutal Butcher, who had been in the front line as Yan Luo’s tank, was already dead. Killing another Corpse Hunter would leave only one against the Muddy Bag Bear.

With the Muddy Bag Bear standing atop the muddy pool, the remaining Corpse Hunter had no way to launch effective attacks against it.

The Muddy Bag Bear could slowly recover its energy and counterattack, turning the tide of the situation where it was initially at a disadvantage.

Thinking of this, Su Fan placed his left palm on the Muddy Bag Bear’s head and a light earthy glow emerged from it.

The Earth Element Energy around the Muddy Bag Bear became even more active than before.

The previously cast “Rotten Mud Binding” was cast again, and with the doubled activity of the Earth Element, the damage of “Rotten mud binding” increased.

The Grave Sacrifice Pregnant Mother, before it even reached the edge of the muddy pool created by the Muddy Bag Bear, was crushed into pieces.

Its Soul Flame flickered above its body for a moment before extinguishing.

Under the enhancement of the mysterious patterns, the Muddy Bag Bear had only enough energy left to maintain the muddy pool.

Looking at the two Undead Species Guardian Beasts that Fang Mu had lost, Su Fan spoke up.

“You lost!”

“My Muddy Bag Bear can recover enough energy for a volley of Kangaroo mud arrows every three minutes.”

“I bet you didn’t expect that I still had mysterious patterns left to use.”

While speaking, Su Fan secretly breathed a sigh of relief.

Seeing him lose, the elder sisters and aunts in his livestream would only gift him more, but the major clubs would downgrade their evaluations of him.

No matter what, he had two Gold Stage Guardian Beasts. If he were to lose to a Beast Master with Silver Stage Guardian Beasts, it would be laughable.

However, from the clashes just now, Su Fan felt that the combat power displayed by the Giant Brutal Butcher was hard to be equated with a Silver Stage Guardian Beast.

Now, Su Fan was saying this to Fang Mu; firstly, to regain his lost face.

Secondly, to elevate himself and show off his mysterious patterns.

Upon hearing Su Fan's words, Fang Mu raised an eyebrow.

The mask of the Battle Network had a voice-changing effect, making Fang Mu's originally gentle voice sound exceptionally cold.

"It's not that I didn't think about it, I never thought about it!"

"Whether you use mysterious patterns or not doesn't help with your win or loss."

"As a streamer, it's better not to make hasty judgments before you win."

Although the current battle situation seems disadvantageous for Fang Mu, there was no need for him to summon the Grave Sacrifice Pregnant Mother.

A Muddy Bag Bear without energy was just a live target. How could Fang Mu possibly give the Muddy Bag Bear three minutes to recover?

In fact, the Grave Sacrifice Dad didn't have to die.

If Fang Mu had Graves Sacrifice Sacrifice Young Natural through the exclusive trait "Corpse Spirit Fire Seed" to hang on to Grave Sacrifice Dad's life, the Grave Sacrifice Dad could have survived.

Compared to leaving a seriously injured Grave Sacrifice Dad behind, it's better to let Grave Sacrifice Child swallow the remains of Grave Sacrifice Dad.

Through the exclusive trait "Bone of the Same Cold", the Grave Sacrifice Dad can be nurtured back to life.

As for the Dead Qi consumed in this process, it can be completely replenished from the corpse of the Giant Brutal Butcher.

Fang Mu really wanted to see the effects of the exclusive trait “Bone of the Same Cold”.

Otherwise, relying on the Copper Stage Skill “Spinal Lock”, the Graves Sacrifice Child could directly turn their spine into a lock chain and put it on the Muddy Bag Bear.

Using the body of the Muddy Bag Bear as a focus point, it could yank its own body towards the Muddy Bag Bear, and kill Su Fan who is on the Muddy Bag Bear’s back.

The bullet screens in Su Fan’s livestream were all celebrating Su Fan’s victory.

[Melon Three Years Old]: After this game, Fan Fan should be done. Let’s send a tank to wish Fan Fan sweet dreams!

[Peach Blossom Swordsman]: I told you that Fang Mu, with his Beastmaster Rank superiority, couldn’t possibly lose to Fan Fan! I’m also going to send a tank to increase my fan card level.

[Irresponsible Fisherman]: Did we celebrate too early? Why do I have a bad feeling in my heart!? That short Corpse Hunter can separate its own Soul Flame to help the Giant Brutal Butcher resurrect. Why didn’t it choose to help the other Corpse Hunter like it did with the Giant Brutal Butcher before?

Not only a few viewers in Su Fan’s live broadcast spotted the crux.

The fans in Huan Wang’s live broadcast did not have a fan-filter for Su Fan, and their attention was all on the duel.

[Purple Stupid Bear]: Did Yan Luo not instruct that little Corpse Hunter to hang onto another Corpse Hunter’s life because of a mistake?

[Bad luck of Brightness]: It can’t be a mistake! There was at least six seconds of response time. If it was a mistake, then Yan Luo must be a fool!

[Carefree Little Book Fairy]: I agree! Rather than saying it was a mistake, it's better to say that the Corpse Hunter needs to pay a certain price to exert his ability. After using it once, there's a long cooling-down period.

The bullet screens in the live broadcast were originally going to continue discussing, but the scene that appeared on the arena was too strange.

It was so strange that the audience couldn't continue their discussion.

Everyone saw the little Corpse Hunter, as if in madness, swallow the Corpse Hunter who had specialized its bones, then jump onto the lifeless Giant Brutal Butcher lying in the muddy pool.

And it began to eat the remains of the Giant Brutal Butcher.

It was common knowledge that the combat methods of the Undead Species Guardian Beasts were grotesque and terrifying, but the sight before their eyes was so strange that it struck them dumb.

The stomach of the Sacrifice Child kept expanding, as if something was about to burst out from inside.

Sacrifice Child devoured frantically for a minute, and then a tearing sound came from Sacrifice Child's abdomen.

The Corpse Hunter – who was killed by the Muddy Bag Bear's Gold Stage Skill "Rotten Mud Binding" – was alive again!

And the little Corpse Hunter did not seem to be affected in any way.

Before everyone could recover from the eerie scene just now, they saw the two running Corpse Hunters pull out their white spines from their backs.

The spines swung towards Muddy Bag Bear, on the muddy pool, like a whip.

The attack on Muddy Bag Bear jerked Su Fan back to reality.

Su Fan had not expected these two Silver Peak Corpse Hunters to have such a long-range teleportation method!

The only solution now was to quickly allow Muddy Bag Bear to break free from its binding.

Muddy Bag Bear had rank suppression over Yan Luo's two Corpse Hunters and as such, it managed to forcefully break free from the binding with all its efforts.

However, just as Su Fan managed to let Muddy Bag Bear break the spine of the Tomb Hunting Corpse, the skill "Spine Lock" took effect instantaneously.

The Dead Qi in the spine reformed into a lock chain, once again controlling Muddy Bag Bear.

Sacrifice Child and Sacrifice Dad had already moved in front of Su Fan, their claws piercing straight towards Su Fan.

Chapter 327 Cracked Sky!_i

The double control of the Gravekeeper Daddy and Gravekeeper Child was something Su Fan did not predict.

Otherwise, Su Fan could have jumped into the mud pit first and hid inside the pouch of the Muddy Bag Bear.

Now he's standing on the back of the Muddy Bag Bear, becoming a live target for the two Corpse Hunters.

Su Fan originally thought that the claws of these two undead creatures would fall on him, reaping his life.

However, the actual situation did not go as Su Fan had predicted.

Even though these two Corpse Hunters could easily tear him apart to win the fight.

But they chose to plunge their claws into the Muddy Bag Bear beneath him.

They gouged frightfully horrible wounds on the back of the Muddy Bag Bear.

The Muddy Bag Bear broke free from the two Spine Locks, draining all the energy it had just accumulated.

This rendered the Muddy Bag Bear immobile, trapped in place by the Dead Air Chains.

Su Fan watched helplessly as the Muddy Bag Bear beneath his feet was gradually torn apart by the two Corpse Hunters.

If he were to throw the current Muddy Bag Bear into a pot of oil, the resulting spectacle would surely be more magnificent than a squirrel fish.

Just as the Muddy Bag Bear was struggling to break free from the Dead Air Chains.

Attempting to throw the Gravekeeper Daddy and Gravekeeper Child on its back into the mud pit.

The Gravekeeper Daddy leaped high and fiercely smashed his specialized Arm Bone, resulted from the [Sacrifice Armoured Gesture], into the head of the Muddy Bag Bear, which already had cracks appearing on the skull due its earlier injuries.

With his specialized Arm Bone plunging into the bear's brain, the Gravekeeper Daddy skillfully made a grand spin.

Completely and directly churning the bear's brain into pulp.

The Muddy Bag Bear let out a harsh scream, as if singing the finale of its life.

After that, the body of the Muddy Bag Bear together with Su Fan sunk into the mud pit.

The death of the Muddy Bag Bear marked the end of the whole battle.

Fang Mu chose not to kill Su Fan but attack the Muddy Bag Bear instead, only to test the offensiveness of the Gravekeeper Child and Gravekeeper Daddy.

After all, this was Fang Mu's first time fighting with the Giant Brutal Butcher, Gravekeeper Daddy, and Gravekeeper Child.

Fang Mu certainly needed to scrutinise these undead creatures' abilities in order to gain battle experience for future fights.

After the Muddy Bag Bear had died, victorious Fang Mu then exited the Arena.

He was completely oblivious to the fact that his new identity, Yan Luo, had yet again caused a sensation on the Battle Network.

Now Fang Mu had progressed to Silver One.

Fang Mu logged off the Battle Network, preparing to take a shower before attending the new school year's opening ceremony.

Fang Mu didn't pay much mind to the recent fight, but Su Fan sat with a gloomy face in his live broadcast room.

He was recalling the fight.

What Su Fan cared was not whether he won or lost. He lost because he was less skilled.

Indeed, Yan Luo's three undead Guardian Beasts were very powerful, especially the two Corpse Hunters which could revive each other in such a bizarre way.

It was a real surprise for Su Fan.

However, Su Fan thought that Yan Luo not letting his beasts kill him, but dismembering his Muddy Bag Bear, was a kind of humiliation to him.

Not only Su Fan thought this way, many viewers in Su Fan's live broadcast room thought so too.

[Wen Qi]: What's wrong with Yan Luo!? He obviously won, but he treated Su Fan's Beasts this way! Did he do this because he has never won before!?

[Incomparable Genius Little Phoenix]: Is Yan Luo a live broadcaster? If he is, I am going to boycott him! I have never seen such an arrogant man!

[Tower Flower Appreciation Falls]: I feel the same way! I will give three warships to comfort Su Fan!

The viewers in Su Fan's live broadcast room could still watch Su Fan's stream during this time, showing their fervent devotion.

What these devoted fans cared about was not the content of the recent battle, but Su Fan himself.

Even if Su Fan were not battling and just chatting in the broadcast room, these people would definitely stick around to keep Su Fan company till now.

However, the atmosphere in Huan Wang's live broadcast room was completely different.

[Scholar Forgets Righteousness]: Damn! This Yan Luo is something! I have a feeling that Yan Luo's abilities seem to be on par with Jianmu!

[Alas, The Green Clothes Are Far]: Can you stop linking everyone with Jianmu!? I don't deny that Yan Luo is very strong, but Yan Luo had a hard time fighting against two not-so-strong Gold Stage Beasts, he definitely can't beat Huanzi! Jianmu can even swing Huanzi around like a rag doll!

Alas, The Green Clothes Are Far was a long-time fan of Huan Wang. Huan Wang always saw his comments in the live broadcast room.

But Alas, The Green Clothes Are Far was definitely a straight man, and his words were always straightforward.

However, his words also indeed hit the nail on the head.

Huan Wang felt that if he fought against Yan Luo, he would most likely be the victor.

But if he were to fight against Jianmu, as long as Jianmu's Silver Stage Half-Elf could transform into a Blood Noble, then he wouldn't stand the slightest chance of winning.

Since Huan Wang had already decided to flatter Jianmu, even if he didn't like Jianmu that much deep down, he still had to praise Jianmu under such circumstances.

"Yan Luo is no match for Jianmu!"

"Some of you guys recently said that I've been so scared by Jianmu that I can't stop praising him."

"I must tell you guys that everything I said is true!"

"Yan Luo has formed a contract with three undead Guardian Beasts, while Jianmu has only shown one Silver Stage Half-Elf."

“Comparing the number of Guardian Beasts, Jianmu is still at an advantage!”

“Yan Luo still needs more practice!”

Even if people were still amazed by the mysterious and beautiful battle of Yan Luo and ruminating in that state, Huan Wang’s words snapped them out of it.

Chapter 328:

You couldn’t deny that what Huan Wang said made sense.

If Yan Luo wanted to continue comprehending mysterious patterns, it was unlikely he would contract a fourth undead beast again.

Yan Luo’s strength can be said to be set in stone, without any expectations, far less potential than what Jianmu had.

So, comparing Yan Luo with Jianmu now was somewhat overpraising Yan Luo.

However, those Battle Network reporters working overtime late into the night didn’t care about these details.

They had finally found something reportable, and they wouldn’t let go of this fantastic opportunity!

Soon, the fight video between Yan Luo and Su Fan was posted on forums like the Skin Peeling House.

All Battle Network reporters wanted to find a blockbuster like the one about Jianmu.

However, it's one thing to find such news, and it's another to be able to post it on the Battle Network.

The fight between Yan Luo and Su Fan was considered premium content.

Especially, the coordination between Yan Luo's two Corpse Hunters during the final stages of the battle.

By the time Fang Mu finished washing up and changing into his new school uniform, Yan Luo, who appeared on the Battle Network for the first time, had already gained a certain degree of popularity.

Seeing that Fang Mu has put on his school uniform and was ready for school, Lu Xiaoyin quickly said.

"Young master, Chef Wang has prepared your breakfast."

"Nan Zhen's beast is a bit flashy, would you like Nan Zhen to take you to school or should He Qing do it?"

All the chefs from She Wan had been transferred to Fang Mu's mansion.

These chefs have never had an opportunity to showcase their talents before the owner of the mansion.

So, even the chef, Wang, who was only on regular breakfast duty, pulled out all the stops, hoping that Fang Mu would appreciate his ability.

He hoped to become the kitchen manager among the three chefs, coordinating all arrangements in the kitchen.

Upon hearing Lu Xiaoyin's words, Fang Mu thought of the phone call he received from Hu Tao last night asking him what he wanted for breakfast.

So, Fang Mu simply said.

"Have Chef Wang pack up the prepared meals in a special spatial equipment."

"And then let Chef Wang and the other chefs work a bit more and whip up some nutritious meals."

"I talked to He Qing last night. He Qing will take me to school!"

Fang Mu was not sure about the culinary skills of the chefs in the mansion.

But since She Wan had vouched for them, their culinary skills would definitely not be lacking!

Fang Mu usually relies on nutrition meals purchased from the Beastmaster Alliance for meals.

Since these chefs are skilled, why not let these chefs prepare more nutritious meals for him.

So he doesn't have to rely only on the nutritional meals sold within the Beastmaster Alliance when eating.

Upon hearing Fang Mu's words, Lu Xiaoyin hurriedly nodded, remembering Fang Mu's requirements in her heart.

As soon as Fang Mu leaves, she would immediately arrange for the kitchen to be set up.

Just as he was about to leave, Fang Mu suddenly thought of something and said to Lu Xiaoyin.

"Xiaoyin, aren't there three warehouses built outside the main house?"

"Leave the largest one for me, I plan on using it to cultivate the undead."

“Plant more Mourning White Chrysanthemums around the warehouse, to save any Dead Qi from leaking out of it.”

Fostering undead creatures is not suitable for inside the main house as it could easily threaten other people’s safety.

The undead creatures that Fang Mu was going to develop in the future were not limited to the few at hand, as there would only be more and more in the future.

Therefore, a specific space was necessary.

Under normal circumstances, plant-type beastmasters limit the diffusion of Dead Qi by absorbing it.

While that does prevent Dead Qi from escaping, it wastes its contents.

Mourning White Chrysanthemums do not absorb Dead Qi, but create a stance that seals Dead Qi thoroughly within it.

This way, undead creatures can fully utilize Dead Qi, preventing it from wastage.

Mourning White Chrysanthemums are not rare plant-type beastmaster, Lu Xiaoyin can easily get them from the Creator's Guild.

"Young master, this can be easily done!"

"Those three warehouses have all been cleaned up by my arranged personnel."

"I'll just let them wipe the dust in the largest warehouse and remake it."

"In addition to the Mourning White Chrysanthemums, I'll add a bit of Yin Creek Hibiscus into the warehouse. These Yin Creek Hibiscuses can simulate the best environment for undead creatures."

Fang Mu nodded at her words.

Yin Creek Hibiscus, a very rare plant-type beastmaster, if Lu Xiaoyin can really get it, he is very willing to let Yin Creek Hibiscus evolve trial with Blood Aged Wine.

Lu Xiaoyin is always thorough in her work, considering for Fang Mu.

This is exactly what Fang Mu appreciates most about Lu Xiaoyin.

“Xiaoyin, you can start arranging for me first. If there is anything else needed, I will tell you later!”

After assigning tasks to Lu Xiaoyin, Fang Mu rode in the beast car driven by He Qing from Jinghai Tianyu University’s back mountain all the way to Jinghai High School for Beast Masters.

Although He Qing’s Crystal-stepping Reindeer was slow at interstate and intercity travel, its speed was sufficient for trips within the same district in JA City.

As he sat in the beast car watching the outline of Jinghai High School for Beast Masters in the distance, his mind was filled with thoughts.

He had achieved enough growth during just one vacation, and his brothers and sisters had also been helped by him.

Most importantly, they found their own goals and knew the direction of their efforts in the future.

Chapter 329: Cracked Sky! _3

This pleased Fang Mu greatly.

As it marks the start of the new academic year today, many Beast Cars came to Jinghai High School for Beast Masters to drop off students.

Hence, the school had specially allocated a large empty space on the left side of the main entrance for the Beast Cars to park.

Fang Mu was always punctual in whatever he did, arriving at school half an hour early.

“Young Master, since you’re going to class, I will head off first to the scavenger’s area to deal with some Alien Beast Corpses!”

“If I don’t handle the Alien Beast Corpses this month, I’m afraid my merits won’t be enough to exchange for a Flying Scale Serpent even in half a year!”

He Qing was now employed by Fang Mu, and enjoyed a state of absolute freedom except for when Fang Mu and Lu Xiaoyin needed to use the car.

Fang Mu did not use the Soul Parasite Ant offspring produced by the Covenant Servant Soul Ant Queen to control He Qing, thus He Qing was not exactly one of Fang Mu’s insiders.

There is a saying that one helps during emergencies, not when one is impoverished.

While Fang Mu was willing to help He Qing in times of danger, he would not go to the extent of helping He Qing locate and cultivate Beasts as he did for Lu Xiaoyin and Yin Nanzhen.

“Sister Qing, feel free to go. If needed, Xiaoyin will definitely give you a call!”

After speaking, Fang Mu took big strides towards the entrance from where he parked.

Along the way, many junior students voluntarily greeted Fang Mu.

Fang Mu was a legendary figure throughout his three years at Jinghai High School for Beast Masters.

He was the only one who consistently ranked among the top ten in their grade even though he was not a Beast Master.

Many people found that hard to swallow.

In the world of Beast Masters, they find it hard to accept that an ordinary person could surpass themselves.

This led many to feel that the proportion of practical test scores in the total examination score was very unreasonable.

It is not only these students, many scholars also raised similar doubts.

However, in the face of all these doubts, the Purple Que School Palace remained unchanged in their grading system.

In a public press conference, the judge of the Purple Que School Palace clearly stated that before university, the main focus of Beast Masters was acquiring knowledge.

Once they progressed to university, the focus would shift to practical tests. However, cultural courses would still account for 40 percent of the total score.

The reason being, numerous Beast Masters have proved with their lives a principle.

This principle is that if you go to battle in the wild or are in the process of producing something without knowledge to arm yourself with, even strong capabilities could easily cost you your life.

Not only do a Beast Master and his family work tirelessly from junior high school to university, but the Dragon Rising Federation also invests heavily in education resources.

The death of every Beast Master equates to a waste of the Dragon Rising Federation's educational resources.

Hence, no matter how many doubts there are, Fang Mu's yearly ranking is there for all to see.

Fang Mu had once heard some of his classmates say that they would rank last in their university year.

Having lived for two lifetimes, Fang Mu simply did not care.

So what if I were to be ranked last?

My goal in university is to learn skills, to lay the foundation for becoming the assistant of a Creator in the future.

Now Fang Mu did not even need to pay attention to it.

Watching Su Fan's battle with Fang Mu, he saw Su Fan's identity certificate.

One could say that Fang Mu's present capabilities have already outstripped those of his peers.

Before Fang Mu could even catch up with his peers, he had already left them behind.

Suddenly, just as he was about to step into the school, Fang Mu heard a familiar voice.

"Come! Eat it quickly while it's hot! My mum brought four of them today!"

“We’ve added red dates to these two cups of soy milk, but you’ll have to wait a while before drinking.”

“The soy milk is still somewhat hot!”

Fang Mu was a little surprised to hear this familiar voice.

In his memory, Hu Tao was never an early riser. Although she never arrived late for class, she would never come early.

Why has she come so early this time?

Fang Mu turned around and took the pie that Hu Tao had handed him, biting into it without reservation.

He skillfully unsealed the bottle of soy milk for Hu Tao.

With a probing tone, Fang Mu asked Hu Tao,

“You didn’t finish your holiday homework again?”

Upon hearing this, Hu Tao quickly nodded and said,

"I've finished the homework for the subjects I was lagging behind in, but I didn't lift a finger for the subjects I'm good at!"

"Anyway, holiday homework is always collected three days after the start of term!"

"Fang Mu, lend me yours to copy."

Hearing this, Fang Mu nodded reluctantly, yet he admired Hu Tao's approach to learning in his heart.

Hu Tao wasn't like some people who enjoy putting their effort into subjects they're good at.

Compared to spending time on subjects she excelled at, Hu Tao rather spend her time on topics she didn't understand.

This allowed Hu Tao to maximize her improvement in the shortest amount of time.

Just then, Fang Mu's phone began to ring.

Seeing that it was Cui Ruochen calling, Fang Mu quickly answered the call.

“Fang Mu, I heard that you did not make the representative speech for the new and old students. You should have some free time, right?”

“I moved my dorm to the small auditorium. Come by, I’ll introduce you to a Senior Creator.”

Upon hearing this, Fang Mu couldn’t help but to feel heartened.

Cui Ruochen did not know any Senior Creators before.

To repay Cui Ruochen’s kindness, he had Lu Xiaoyin hint to He Deen, who had been working closely with him to concoct Soul Potions, to initiate contact with Cui Ruochen and help him understand the situation of the Creator exam.

According to his calculations, He Deen should have just gotten to know Cui Ruochen one or two weeks ago, and had only just built up a good rapport with him.

However, now Cui Ruochen was ready to return the favor.

“I’m not a Creator yet, so I don’t really know much about the circles within the Creator world.”

“This Senior Creator is quite amicable.”

“Aren’t you aspired to be an assistant to a Creator? You could ask Mr. He in which areas you should exert more effort to become a Creator’s assistant!”

When Cui Ruochen uttered the name “Mr. He”, Fang Mu confirmed his hunch.

Fang Mu didn’t need any tutoring from the so-called Senior Creator, but he couldn’t bring himself to reject Cui Ruochen’s kind intentions.

“Teacher Cui, I’ll be right over!”

“I have already sorted out all the materials you asked me to organize.”

As soon as Fang Mu hung up the phone, Hu Tao teased,

“Fang Mu, I think Teacher Cui doesn’t really seem to be your class teacher, more like your private tutor!”

“I heard that Teacher Cui has moved his dorm to the small auditorium. While you look for Teacher Cui, I can accompany you and take a longer route!”

Fang Mu and Hu Tao walked together to the entrance of the small auditorium.

Hu Tao was about to say goodbye to Fang Mu, when suddenly the morning sky darkened drastically.

A giant dark red split appeared in the sky, making the sky resemble a cracked shell.

Chapter 330: The Evil Heart Sect's Plan?! _i

The enormous dark red fissure appeared like a scar across the sky.

Fang Mu and Hu Tao were no strangers to this sight, as they had read similar descriptions in books.

They learned about this in their textbooks even before they started high school.

However, this was the first time they had witnessed such a scenario in real life.

“Dimensional Rift! It’s actually a Dimensional Rift!”

Fang Mu and Hu Tao cried out in unison, their voices trembling with shock.

Dimensional rifts do randomly open in spaces, but whether a rift opens or not largely depends on the current activity level of the space.

The higher the activity level of the current space, the higher the probability of a dimensional rift opening.

Cities, as human gathering areas, need to lay a lot of Space-Stabilizing Rock and Sky-Settling Steel reinforcement underground.

In addition to the underground, some tall main buildings will also blend these materials into their structures.

The purpose is to ensure the stability of the city space, so that no dimensional rift will open.

Even if the dimensional rift really becomes active to a certain degree, it would cause a dimensional rift to open in human cities.

But this opening should definitely not appear in a school setting.

When the eight official organizations construct infrastructure in the city, they consider the placement of these buildings carefully.

Scavengers are placed in the most stable parts of the city to prevent their incinerators from being damaged and unable to deal with the pollution caused by disposing of Alien Beast corpses in the city's surrounding environment.

The schools under the aegis of the Purple Que School Palace follow next.

The Dragon Rising Federation's emphasis on the education of the younger generation is only second to city safety.

It has an even higher priority over the location selection of organizations such as the Creator's Guild, the Beastmaster Alliance, and the Dracoid Research Institute.

So, the Jinghai High School for Beast Masters had no reason to be struck by a dimensional rift.

In Fang Mu's mind, it occurred that the opening of this dimensional rift might not be natural.

It might be deliberately created by someone.

By this time, approximately four out of five students had arrived at the school.

If a large number of alien beasts poured out of this dimensional rift, all these students would be sitting ducks.

Based on his knowledge and gauging the huge dark red fissure that was at least a kilometer long in the sky, Fang Mu knew that what was opening in the sky was most likely a horror-level dimensional rift.

The strength of the alien beasts that fall from this level of dimensional rifts can even match Platinum Level Guardian Beasts.

The threat of a dimensional rift does not come from the high individual strength of the beasts within, but from the continuous tide of alien beasts being sprayed out.

According to scholar research, different types of terror-level dimensional rifts spray out various numbers of alien beasts.

The least spraying Abyssal Terror Level Dimensional Fissure sprays out around eighty million demons, with approximately eight thousand of these demons having the strength to reach the terror level.

A bug horror-level dimensional rift, known for its number, sprays out at least three hundred million alien bugs.

At least ten thousand of these bugs have strength reaching the terror level.

Without warning, Fang Mu grabbed Hu Tao's hand and said,

"Let's find Teacher Cui in the small auditorium now!"

Having finished speaking to Hu Tao, Fang Mu shouted at his panicked classmates surrounding him.

“Everyone gather around me quickly! Let’s take refuge in the small auditorium!”

In a crisis, everyone was panicking. Fang Mu’s command made the students feel like they had found their backbone.

In fact, in such a critical situation, Fang Mu’s first thought was to run to the library with Hu Tao.

The librarian, Silver Shade’s cat named Sleepy Night Cloud, was a Sequential Guardian Beast.

A Sequential Guardian Beast, even if it couldn’t immediately kill all the beasts spraying out of the dimensional rift, could undoubtedly provide a space of safety.

The school often carries out drills for various emergencies, and the school-specified shelters are the library, martial arts arena, and the main auditorium.

The small auditorium, now converted into a faculty dormitory, wasn’t included.

In Jinghai High School for Beast Masters, few teachers like Cui Ruochen who were preparing to become Creators were on leave, and most of the teachers had already gone to the main auditorium for the school opening ceremony.

But Fang Mu still chose to take Hu Tao and organize other students to take refuge in the small auditorium, mainly because there was a Senior Creator inside.

A Senior Creator, as long as their power broke through the Five Point Star, they basically had a Sequential Level Guardian Beast.

Even if they didn't, the rank of their guardian beasts would definitely have reached the Diamond Level Peak.

With a Diamond Level Peak Guardian Beast as defense, they could hold on for a long time in the alien beast tide, using the small auditorium as cover.

In the face of a horror level dimensional rift that had opened in the city, the Jinghai Army and other city-based organizations would immediately spring into action.

They would provide assistance to Jinghai High School for Beast Masters.

On the other hand, as long as they could hold on for a while, Fang Mu himself would be the best guarantee of safety.

As soon as the dimensional rift opened, the area for tens of kilometers would be irradiated by dimensional turbulence.

The dimensional turbulence has a strong signal shielding function. Under the dimensional turbulence, a series of communication devices such as mobile phones can no longer function.

Even some telecommunication-based Guardian Beasts would be affected under the dimensional turbulence, reducing the distance they can transmit messages.

But as soon as She Wan and the others saw the dimensional rift in the sky, they would endeavour to get to him as soon as possible.

Fang Mu was so certain not because he had so much trust in She Wan, but because he had a Covenant Servant Soul Ant Queen in his body.
