

Beast Tamer 33

Chapter 33 Just to Hook You_I

[Stellar Start]: Large quantities are not an issue. However, as this is a custom order, the delivery time is uncertain. The more you order, the longer it will take. But it will not exceed one week at the latest.

Fang Mu took a while to think before sending this message.

If Fang Yuan could pave a path to a high star Master Creator for the Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce, Fang Yuan's status within the organization would elevate correspondingly.

The benefits he would receive would also be better.

Furthermore, he could earn a substantial cut from it.

Therefore, Fang Mu did not limit the quantity.

However, Fang Mu had not yet joined the Scavenger organization. As a Scavenger, he let the Exotic Beast Incinerator consume the bodies of exotic beasts.

So, Fang Mu was uncertain about the speed at which the Life Crystals could be formed.

However, after eating the moldy vegetables and the feces of the Aromatherapy Rabbit, Life Crystals could quickly be formed.

Presumably, consuming the bodies of these high-energy beasts would speed up the production of Life Crystals even more.

Therefore, Fang Mu set a one-week deadline.

Though Fang Mu took the “fishing” approach to make Fang Yuan contact him proactively.

However, the message that Fang Mu sent appeared to Fang Yuan as no different from a pie falling from the sky.

If it weren’t for the fact that [Stellar Start] had just traded a batch of Condensed Jade Flower Dew, Fang Yuan would have thought [Stellar Start] to be a scammer.

Fang Yuan decided to take a cue from the phrase “demanding with a lion’s mouth” and order more Life Elixirs.

He could increase the price correspondingly.

He did not want to repel the other party by being too greedy.

[YuanQinYanMu]: Would one hundred servings of Life Elixir with a concentration of sixty percent be Ok? The price is thirty-five hundred thousand Dragon Rising Coins per serving.

[YuanQinYanMu]: I forgot to introduce myself. I am the leader of the Golden Gloves procurement division of Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce. If you have any resource needs in the future, you can let me know. Within my means, I will do my utmost to assist you!

This was the first time Fang Mu was dealing with Fang Yuan in a professional context.

A Life Elixir with a concentration of sixty percent does occasionally appear in the trade area.

The average transaction price is around thirty-three hundred thousand Dragon Rising Coins.

Fang Yuan’s quote for a large order of Life Elixirs is quite reasonable.

Seeing that part of Fang Yuan’s message, Fang Mu thought to himself.

Such words have probably been spoken by Fang Yuan to many people, and he must have been rejected many times!

Fang Mu couldn't help feeling sorry for Fang Yuan.

Fang Mu, filled with a fatherly sense of pathos, almost cried out, "Take off, Fang Yuan!"

[Stellar Start]: That's fine, let's add each other as friends! When I need resources in the future, I will go through the Beastmaster Web platform to ask for your help.

[Stellar Start]: If you need Life Elixirs with a higher concentration in the future, you can also order them from me.

Fang Yuan was so excited when he saw the message from [Stellar Start] that he couldn't help but slap the table in his dorm.

This frightened Lu Bo, who was playing cards with the other two roommates.

"Dude, you didn't develop some kind of post-traumatic stress disorder, did you!

"I told you that you should rest more after your recent awakening!"

"You can log into the Beastmaster Web for work at any time, the Commerce isn't denying you your vacation, right?"

Lu Bo had a good hand.

Seeing Fang Yuan's reaction, he immediately put down his cards and approached Fang Yuan with concern.

Fang Yuan realized that he had been too impulsive, and he quickly waved his hand at Lu Bo, saying,

“I’m fine, you can go back to playing cards.”

Fang Yuan’s loss of composure was not due to the other party taking the initiative to add him as a friend.

Linking him with a Senior Creator.

But because [Stellar Start] mentioned that he could order more concentrated Life Elixirs in the future.

A higher concentration Life Elixir is beyond the capabilities of a Senior Creator.

Could it be that he has connected with a Master Creator?

Since the deal involves a value of thirty-five million Dragon Rising Coins, Fang Yuan certainly needs to report to the Commerce president.

Otherwise, with Fang Yuan’s rights, he would not have the qualification to move such a large sum of cash.

According to the usual commission model, with goods involving the resources of a Senior Creator.

If the resources were introduced by himself, he should be able to get a commission of five to six percent.

Now, Fang Yuan, Fang Qin and Yan Wood can all go to the Contemplation Hall to comprehend new glyphs.

Fang Mu can also attend more public classes opened by Junior Creators!

Seeing that Fang Yuan was okay, Lu Bo went back to playing cards.

As Lu Bo generally knew the circumstances of Fang Yuan's family, he understood why Fang Yuan worked so hard.

So, Lu Bo did not continue trying to convince Fang Yuan to rest.

Fang Yuan was a bit torn at this point, unsure of whether to actively sign a contract with [Stellar Start], who he suspected to be a Master Creator or not.

Without a contract, he has no assurance.

Yet, proposing a contract might offend [Stellar Start].

Just as Fang Yuan was torn, he saw that the other party had proactively sent over a contract.

[Stellar Start]: The agreement used is the Beastmaster Web standard template. All transactions go through the Beastmaster Web platform, so I don't need your deposit. After verifying the goods through the Beastmaster Alliance, you can transfer the money to me.

Fang Yuan meticulously reviewed the agreement sent by [Stellar Start], then signed it.

After the agreement was signed, everything fell into place.

If [Stellar Start] breaches the contract, he will have to pay equal value in compensation.

After completing this transaction, Fang Yuan fell back onto his bed.

A thought arose in Fang Yuan's heart.

That is to secure [Stellar Start]'s channel to himself, instead of transferring it to the Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce.

Only in this way could he maximize his value to Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce.

And have more opportunities to earn money to support his family.

After performing his "Plan Brother," Fang Mu also logged out of the Beastmaster Web.

Planning to join the Scavengers first thing in the morning.

Using the Scavengers as a way to create resources for himself.

And also to contribute to environmental protection on the side.

If the present Fang Mu knew that Fang Yuan was lying awake trying to figure out how to bind [Stellar Start]'s channel to himself.

Fang Mu would definitely think to himself.

"Bro, you're overthinking it! If I wasn't trying to bait you, I wouldn't have even posted that message!"

After Fang Mu completed the transaction with Fang Yuan, he immediately deleted the post.

Then he cleared his message list.

For Fang Mu, who had obsessive-compulsive disorder, he couldn't tolerate all the red dots in front of his messages.

Seeing the red dots, he couldn't resist opening them.

While Fang Mu was asleep, the Aromatherapy Rabbit hopped down from the Goose Feather Cushion.

Then it scurried onto Fang Mu's bed.

Picking a comfortable spot nestled in Fang Mu's arm, its breathing gradually evened out.

Seeing this, the Incinerator followed the Aromatherapy Rabbit's example, leaning against the side of Fang Mu's bed.

It extended the joystick and let it rest in Fang Mu's palm.

The dawn was getting brighter. Fang Mu, who was used to waking up naturally at 5:40 a.m., took a bath and showed no self-awareness of being on vacation.

Instead, he strode into the refreshing morning breeze, heading to the "Scavengers" Jinghai Division located in the city center..
