

Beast Tamer 48

Chapter 48: “Low-key of God”! 1

These trivial tasks would consume a lot of Fang Mu’s time if he handled them himself.

After coming to an agreement with the staff of the breeding base, Fang Mu directly hired a temporary housekeeper from the domestic service center.

He entrusted all these trivial tasks to the temporary housekeeper.

In less than half an hour, a bald middle-aged man dressed in a smart outfit had already arrived at the beast taming base.

He took charge of contacting the truck driver on Fang Mu’s behalf. Later, this bald middle-aged man would first go to Fang Mu’s house to inspect the factory that had been abandoned and unused for over ten years.

He would arrange for the truck driver to dump the garbage there.

Fang Mu had thus solved the problem of improving Pure Water Spirit’s status.

He immediately set off for the Jinghai Province’s Scavenger Division.

The private housekeeper hired by Fang Mu, dutifully, in accordance with Fang Mu's requirements, negotiated with the breeding base.

Right now, both the private housekeeper and the staff of the breeding base had one question in their minds.

Why would someone go out of their way to buy so much garbage?

Moreover, their factory has been idle for over ten years without cleaning, yet they want to dump over two thousand pounds of garbage in it daily.

Even a trash recycling center is cleaner than that, isn't it?

Despite their doubts, they still need to handle their tasks nicely.

As a private housekeeper, the only thing he needed to consider was how to satisfy his employer.

As long as it doesn't violate laws and ethics, he would do whatever the employer asked for.

Because Fang Mu's "Scavenger" badge already had three leaves.

People without abilities have a hard time reaching such a level.

Being able to persist to this level, they would almost certainly become formal members of the “Scavengers”.

As he entered, the employee distributing the masks even took the initiative to nod and greet Fang Mu.

Manli was not on duty at the front desk today.

Instead, a short-haired girl with a pan lid hairstyle and wearing large-framed glasses replaced her.

This girl didn’t know Fang Mu.

Only those who have not been verified by the “Scavenger” and are coming for the first time would need a detailed registration of their identity.

Others who have been verified just need to swipe their badge.

Fang Mu swiped his badge and, following yesterday’s route, proceeded discretely to the Soldier-level Crematorium.

As Fang Mu was preparing to go into an unoccupied soldier-level cremation house.

He happened to see He Qing, who was explaining the situation to a new recruit.

Fang Mu was thankful for He Qing's care for him yesterday.

So, he took the initiative to nod at He Qing.

Seeing Fang Mu, He Qing was taken aback on the spot.

She blinked twice and said to the new recruit next to her.

"Don't push yourself too hard, if your body can't take it, get out immediately!" "I've told you all the precautionary measures, you can go in now!"

After the new recruit entered the cremation house, He Qing briskly walked over to Fang Mu, her voice trembling as she asked.

"You just cleaned up so many Beast Corpses yesterday, why have you come again today?"

Under normal circumstances, even Beast Masters who have contracted multiple Guardian Beasts suitable for “Scavenger” work, would need a long rest after a session of work.

For instance, He Qing would rest for at least two to three days after cleaning up twenty Heavy Artillery Level Beast Corpses.

If He Qing pushes herself to clean up more than fifty Heavy artillery-level beast corpses in one go.

He Qing’s Guardian Beast would likely need more than ten days to recover.

With such a calculation, pushing too hard yields less benefits than planned cleaning of the Beast Corpses.

Yesterday, He Qing thought that Fang Mu had overworked himself during his first task.

Otherwise, He Qing really couldn’t think of a reason that could explain how

Fang Mu, as a newbie under twenty, cleaned up exactly two hundred Soldier-Level Beast Corpses on his first handling, including six of the hardest to handle Blood Clan Newborn Corpses.

It was precisely because of this thought that He Qing didn’t report Fang Mu’s situation.

Unexpectedly, who made her exclaim “You are my God” in her heart yesterday, has come again today!

Could it be....

An assumption sprouted in He Qing’s mind.

And Fang Mu’s next words confirmed He Qing’s assumption.

“Senior, didn’t you say yesterday that creating a Scavenger’s history brings a lot of benefits?”

“I want to give it a try today.”

“If you’re not busy, senior, could you please witness it for me?”

He Qing’s lips quivering excitedly.

The fact that Fang Mu could come today indicates that yesterday’s overworking didn’t affect him.

One could see from Fang Mu's vibrant condition.

This is not a historical moment she could witness!

He Qing has decided that as soon as Fang Mu enters the crematorium, she would immediately inform Miss Fang Lin.

Let Miss Fang Lin, the "Green Screen Knight" sent by the "Scavenger" headquarters stationed in Jinghai Division, come to witness it.

The "Scavenger" has a total of only 27 "Green Screen Knights".

They are stationed in the 27 provinces of the Dragon Soaring Federation respectively.

The headquarters is home to three "Bishop Flowers".

In Jinghai Province, Miss Fang Lin is the most qualified to witness history.

Miss Fang Lin has always cherished talents.

Most likely, Miss Fang Lin would consider accepting as her disciple the young man who just became a formal member in only a day and a half.

If so, one simply can't describe this young man as being fortunate anymore.

Instead, he got an incredible opportunity.

After all, being valued by an organization and receiving resources' support.

And being taken as a love disciple by a powerhouse within an organization, and receiving care and protection are different in nature.

He Qing didn't want to put pressure on Fang Mu, so she didn't tell him her plan.

"I'll reiterate it."

"Give your all to create history, but if you can't endure, don't force yourself!"

"Go in, I will wait for you at the door."

Fang Mu hastily waved his hand and said.

“It will take me at least five hours to process a hundred Soldier-Level Beast Corpses.”

“During this time, you senior, you don’t have to wait at the door the whole time.”

He Qinz was already doing him a favor.

Having He Qing wait at his door for more than five hours was something that Fang Mu just couldn’t ask her to do.

He Qing looked at Fang Mu in surprise.

This must be what they call “God” being humble, right?!?

Who wouldn’t want to witness such a historic moment with his own eyes?!?

What are five hours in comparison?

Even if she had to stand for five days, as long as she could witness history with her own eyes, she would be willing!

Jinghai province was the last province to establish a “Scavenger” division.

In the internal competition among the “Scavenger” divisions of other provinces, it had always ranked in the middle and lower tiers.

If Fang Mu really creates history.

Then Jinghai Province’s Scavenger Division would finally have an achievement that they can be proud of in front of all the Scavenger Divisions.

Besides, if Fang Mu truly becomes a formal member in a day and a half.

This kind of disruptive breakthrough could likely draw the attention of the three Bishop Flowers at headquarters!

At this moment, Fang Mu entered Solider-level Crematorium’s like bringing a foodie into a canteen.

Fang Mu had no idea about the shock and joy he would bring to the Jinghai Scavenger Division in the leisurely five hours..
