

Beast Tamer 531

Chapter 531: The Boiling Silver Battle Hall!_2

This is contrary to Fang Mu's purpose of contracting with the Ling Poison King Lotus.

The third evolutionary path of the Poisonous Witch Lotus is also a robust branch of the Lotus Guardian Beasts.

In certain aspects, its strength is not inferior to that of the King Lotus Guardian Beasts.

However, if one evolves towards the same lineage of Witch Lotus from being a King Lotus, it would waste its potential for evolution.

Moreover, it could possibly alter the function of his exclusive feature [Bound Earth Lotus Body], depriving Fang Mu of the ability to quickly recover energy through this ability.

Therefore, among the three evolutionary routes, Fang Mu inclines towards the Immaculate King Lotus path.

During Fang Mu's enhancement of the Ling Poison King Lotus, the Battle Network was completely stirred up by the news released by Liu Tiantian.

The mysterious Fang Mu was actually going to participate in the Silver Battle Hall's performance matches!

Tickets for the Silver Battle Hall's performance matches are not expensive, only costing 150 Federation Coins or 1.5 Dragon Rising Coins.

It's a price that anyone can afford.

Even so, the attendance rate of the Silver Battle Hall's performance matches on regular weekdays is only about 50%.

There were rarely any instances of it reaching 60%.

However, since the news burst out that Fang Mu would participate in the performance matches and play two rounds in a row,

Within a short span of three minutes after the news was released, the tickets for the Silver Battle Hall were entirely sold out.

Opportunistic ticket scalpers sold the tickets at three times the price, yet they still sold out almost instantly.

A significant number of people were willing to buy the performance match tickets at an inflated price ten times above the regular price, but they were still hard to get!

Originally, Yang Mingyu was quite dissatisfied when he saw the news released by Liu Tiantian.

Because in her news, Liu Tiantian only mentioned Fang Mu and did not mention his two competitors – Zhang Kai and Cai Boshen.

Intense competition has always been the attraction of performance matches, and besides, Zhang Kai and Cai Boshen have a lot of fans themselves.

Initially, Yang Mingyu planned to call and reprimand Liu Tiantian. However, upon seeing that the tickets were completely sold out, he gave up on his plan.

After all, there is a Senior Creator behind Liu Tiantian, and unless necessary, Yang Mingyu is reluctant to cause a fall out with her.

However, Yang Mingyu was somewhat curious. As a journalist contracted by the Battle Network, Liu Tiantian should be clear about what kind of news creates more of a buzz.

Liu Tiantian depends on the popularity of her news articles for a living. When did she become so unprofessional?

Upon seeing the tickets all being sold out, Liu Tiantian finally breathed a sigh of relief.

Liu Tiantian understood very well what Yang Mingyu meant when he revealed who Fang Mu's opponents were over the phone.

Yang Mingyu wanted to create hype from this.

However, after Liu Tiantian understood the situation, she chose not to follow Yang Mingyu's suggestions.

What Yang Mingyu was considering was his own job and the benefits that this hype could bring to him.

But what Liu Tiantian was considering was, if they hyped up the match between Fang Mu, Zhang Kai, and Cai Boshen too much in advance, it would raise the audience's expectations to their maximum.

If Fang Mu lost, it would undoubtedly have a significant impact on him.

Liu Tiantian did not want that!

The audience doesn't expect Fang Mu to win; they're just looking forward to his match.

As long as Fang Mu demonstrated strong abilities, even if he lost to Zhang Kai and Cai Boshen, the audience would still be forgiving.

After all, Fang Mu is only sixteen years old and still a high school student who has not graduated yet.

Just as Liu Tiantian was prepared to enter the Silver Battle Hall to watch the performance match half an hour later, as per the slot provided by Yang Mingyu, she received more than a dozen calls in quick succession.

Many of these calls were from friends who Liu Tiantian hadn't been in contact with for a long time.

The purpose of these people contacting Liu Tiantian was to ask her to help them get a ticket to the Silver Battle Hall's performance matches.

You could only buy a Silver Battle Hall ticket at a price ten times higher than the original just fifty minutes ago, but now, even if someone offers 200 Dragon Rising Coins, it would still be hard to find a ticket.

Liu Tiantian has always found it hard to refuse friends, even if they are friends she hasn't seen in a long time.

Liu Tiantian had to dig into her own pocket and buy nine tickets at the price of 450 Dragon Rising Coins each.

She then distributed them to these friends who asked for her help.

The price of the Silver Battle Hall performance match tickets was inflated 300 times, an occurrence without any precedent.

Even Liu Tiantian had to use contacts to get tickets at 300 times the original price, let alone ordinary Battle Network users.

Even Huan Wang failed to get a ticket in time and had to use his cash ability to buy one later.

Huan Wang inevitably marveled in the live room.

"Guys, Fang Mu is terrific!"

“The ticket price for the Silver Battle Hall’s performance matches is even higher than for the Gold Palace’s performance matches!”

“It’s almost equivalent to the price of some Platinum Palace performance matches!”

Huan Wang’s exclamation immediately received a widespread response in the live room.

[Sleepless Night Thoughts for Three Thousand Years]: My girlfriend insisted on watching Fang Mu’s match, and I ended up spending a whopping 400 Dragon Rising Coins! For the rest of the month, I can only eat instant noodles!

[Oh Yeah Hey]: I got lucky. I bought three tickets at the regular price for only 4.5 Dragon Rising Coins! I sold the extra two for 400 Dragon Rising Coins, didn’t sell them to you, did I?

[Blue Tinted with Sunshine]: Brother, seemingly you won with your decades-long singlehand speed, but actually, you lost! Because he has a girlfriend!

Chapter 532: The Boiling Silver Battle Hall!_3

[Rainbow Tiger]: I didn’t manage to get a ticket, many brothers in Young Huan’s live broadcast room didn’t get one either, why don’t you apply for broadcasting rights from Battle Network? Then everyone can watch and send you gifts as subsidies as well!

Seeing this barrage message, Wang Huan dared not respond at all.

As a seasoned host, Wang Huan has the knack for catching popular trends.

Wang Huan didn’t get the ticket at the first instance, because he was the first one to contact the officials regarding the broadcasting rights for the two exhibition matches of Jianmu.

However, the price quoted by the officials made Wang Huan shrink back.

Under the condition that spiritual instruments could not be sold in some age divisions, Wang Huan's assets were dwindling.

Apart from maintaining the operations in his shop, Wang Huan invested most of his remaining money into his Guardian Beast.

As he wanted to achieve some results in the Ranking division, strength was of utmost importance!

Wang Huan felt that the Silver Battle Hall was asking for too high a price.

The broadcasting rights for the two exhibition matches of Jianmu, the cost was at least enough to purchase the rights for six to eight exhibitions within the Golden Battle Hall.

Watching the battle from a god's eye view in the live broadcast room felt completely different from watching it live within the Silver Battle Hall.

Would there really be people willing to pay such a hefty price for these broadcasting rights!?

The broadcasting rights aren't even exclusive!

Just then, a barrage message floated across Wang Huan's live broadcast room.

[Mist Hidden]:For those who didn't managed to get a ticket, come over to Heartfelt's live broadcast room! Heartfelt has acquired the broadcasting rights for the two exhibition matches of Jianmu, even without going to the scene, you can still watch the matches!

Heartfelt was a fan of Jianmu. When she found out that Jianmu was going to have two exhibition games, she immediately thought of watching the games live and successfully got tickets for the matches.

However, when Heartfelt's parents learnt that their daughter had been paired with Jianmu and was gaining popularity,

They transferred a sum of money to Heartfelt, letting her acquire the broadcasting rights for Jianmu's matches.

On one hand, it was to support their daughter's star chasing efforts, on another hand, it could be considered as business operation.

If successful, Heartfelt would have the potential to become a prominent host.

Heartfelt's parents were involved in club operations, and they knew very well that a single event could cause a major shift in popularity.

As per her parents' instructions, Heartfelt bought the broadcasting rights for Jianmu's exhibition matches.

Usually, during peak periods Heartfelt's live broadcast room had only twenty to thirty thousand viewers online at the same time, after all Heartfelt was just a rookie host.

It was because she had previously been paired with Jianmu, that her live broadcast room's audience count broke a hundred thousand for the first time.

reaching a peak of about one million seven to eight hundred thousand.

After her match with Jianmu, there were still about three to four hundred thousand audiences who stayed behind.

Now due to the broadcast of Jianmu's exhibition matches, the number of viewers in Heartfelt's live room had surpassed one million again.

One million, two million, three million...

It went on to seven to eight million before the increase in magnitude started to slow down, but the number quickly picked back up, breaking the ten million mark!

On the Battle Network, only when official competitors from Grade B clubs started broadcasting, would there be a possibility to gather ten million simultaneous viewers.

The official players from Grade B Club Guilds and formal members of the Grade A clubs when broadcasting, only have around forty to fifty million followers.

Only when the star players of Grade A clubs start broadcasting, would the number possibly hit a hundred million!

Heartfelt was scared by the surge of viewers in her live broadcast room.

Heartfelt knew very well that these viewers were not here because they liked her, but entirely because her live broadcast room could broadcast Jianmu's exhibition matches.

Once again, she was bathed in the glow of her idol!

Heartfelt has always known where her strengths lie. She excels in analyzing the battlefield situation with clear and structured explanations.

This is one of the reasons why Heartfelt's live broadcasts could attract so many fans!

Heartfelt can try to use her strengths to convert as many spectators into her fans, prompting them to stay in her live broadcast room.

After looking at the barrage of comments in her live broadcast room, all of them were filled with comments such as thanking the host, praising the host's generosity, and cheering for the host.

Facing these audiences who were already favorably inclined towards her, the probability of converting them into her fan base would not be too low.

At the very least, they would get a follow!

Not only was the atmosphere on the Battle Network exuberant, but the atmosphere was also the same within the Xiangtian Club Guild and Po Yu Club Guild.

Zhang Kai and Cai Boshen originally did not intend to log onto Battle Network during this time slot. However, they were specially contacted by Yang Mingyu to arrange two strong competitors for Jianmu.

Both clubs had already kept an eye on Jianmu and had even heard rumors that Jianmu could potentially be a Grandmaster's disciple.

This caused both the propaganda teams of the two clubs to decide not to publicly make a fuss about the matches between Zhang Kai, Cai Boshen, and Jianmu.

Zhang Kai and Cai Boshen were older than Jianmu, and a victory would certainly come with some fame and popularity.

However, if they lost, they would face immense backlash.

Therefore, promoting the event was inferior to debating the outcome of an exhibition match in a low-key manner, as later on, reporters would inevitably cover the situation anyway.

No matter if Zhang Kai and Cai Boshen manage to win or not, as long as they could reveal Jianmu's bottom card, when others mention Jianmu in the future, they would inevitably link it with the two of them.

This was already enough!

Given Jianmu's identity, age, and strength, his popularity would at least reach the level of a key player of a Grade A club in the future.

Being occasionally mentioned along with Jianmu would be enough for Zhang Kai and Cai Boshen to gain fame in a short time.

Cai Boshen was the young master of the Po Yu Club's owner, so he was rightfully to enjoy such resources.

There was no objection within the Po Yu Club towards this.

But in the eyes of the people of the Xiangtian Club, Zhang Kai appeared to be simply lucky.

He had achieved something major without doing anything.

Originally, Zhang Kai didn't have any qualifications to strike a connection with the head coach of the Xiangtian Club but now he gets summoned by the head coach himself.

And he received some in-depth guidance.

"Zhang Kai, you were already a potential candidate which the club had been nurturing. We had initially planned to let you to join the A team of the reserve group after three to five years of training."

"If you can defeat Jianmu this time, I promise to let you into the main team in a year's time, exceeding the standard rules!"

Chapter 533: Blade Mother Cockroach!_1

Upon hearing the words of Chief Coach Chen Peng, Zhang Kai felt a surge of excitement and tension filling him.

Zhang Kai has heard that Jianmu is a disciple of a Grandmaster Creator, who not only evolved his Silver Stage Elemental Beast Bloodline into a Half-Elf but also could unleash the combat power of Gold Rank peak.

The combat power of the Silver Stage Half-Elf is comparable to his own Main Battle Mystic Beast's. Who knows what other aces Jianmu might have up his sleeve!

Therefore, Zhang Kai did not feel very confident when facing an opponent like Jianmu.

But, Chen Peng's promise was too enticing for Zhang Kai.

As head coach of Xiangtian Club Guild, he was also one of the shareholders of the Xiangtian Club.

Chen Peng indeed had the ability to secure his position.

Moreover, considering Jianmu's current popularity, if he managed to defeat Jianmu, he would gain immense fame.

This fame would be enough to take him further in the Club.

But what if he doesn't manage to defeat Jianmu in the exhibition match?

Before Zhang Kai could voice his concerns, Chen Peng continued speaking.

"Even if you lose to Jianmu, as long as you could force him to reveal some of his cards and rank among the top fifty in this year's Debutant Rankings of various clubs, I can pull you into the A-team of the reserve squad this year."

"Young man, you need to seize the opportunity!"

Chen Peng's words lent some confidence to Zhang Kai.

No matter if he wins or loses, he would stand to gain from the club. He didn't see what there was to worry about!

That Chen Peng held Jianmu in such high regard, predicting he might lose to Jianmu, irked Zhang Kai a bit.

After all, Zhang Kai was a Biprong Star Tamer. The spiritual power and energy inside a Biprong Star Tamer were much higher than that of a One-point Star Tamer.

The contest wasn't only about the strength of the Guardian Beast, but also the intensity of the Beast Master's spiritual power, the energy contained within, and their mastery of combat skills.

In these areas, he was surely superior to Jianmu!

"Coach Chen, rest assured, if you give me this opportunity, I will seize it with all my might!"

The chief coach of the Po Yu Club Guild also found Cai Boshen, set to discuss a battle plan with him.

He provided Cai Boshen with all the collected data regarding Jianmu's Silver Stage Half-Elf.

So that Cai Boshen could have some understanding during the fight.

But, Cai Boshen didn't heed his words. Speaking with an arrogant tone he said,

"There is no need to make a mountain out of a molehill against a One-point Star Tamer."

"Both my Guardian Beasts have been promoted to Gold Rank One level, one of them even reaching Legendary Quality."

"You don't think with my strength, I could lose to a One-point Star Tamer, do you!?"

"Remember to market me well after I defeat Jianmu!"

In the middle of his speech, Cai Boshen's expression turned worrisome.

"I'm up against Jianmu in the second exhibition match. Who's fighting the first?"

“If Jianmu loses in the first match, wouldn’t I look redundant!?”

Feng Tong, as the chief coach of the Po Yu Club Guild, prided himself on his strong heart, but right now Cai Boshen had left him speechless.

Cai Boshen was too egotistic!

Although Jianmu was a One-point Star Tamer, he was after all a disciple of a Grandmaster Creator.

How could such a person be underestimated?

But according to Feng Tong’s knowledge, it was indeed difficult for a One-point Star Tamer to have the ability to fight against a Gold Rank One Legendary Quality Guardian Beast.

After all, there was no way to use spiritual instruments for fights in the ranking divisions.

Seeing that Cai Boshen didn’t want to discuss the battle plan with Jianmu, Feng Tong didn’t press further.

But he was very serious in warning Cai Boshen.

“Boshen, don’t underestimate him. If you win against Jianmu, the Club will allocate a large fund for your promotion!”

“After graduating from college, you can join the main team.”

“The Po Yu Club was established to let you enjoy being a star.”

Cai Boshen nodded satisfyingly upon hearing this.

Despite being a reserve player, Cai Boshen was like a little emperor in the Po Yu Club.

Cai Boshen enjoyed flattery, especially from Feng Tong, the head coach.

Feng Tong's flattery towards him, exemplified his status and authority in the Po Yu Club.

Although Cai Boshen did not believe that Jianmu could defeat him, he decided to watch Jianmu's first exhibition match to understand his strength.

And to pray that Jianmu does not lose in the first match!

Yang Mingyu sat in his office, waiting for the start of the exhibition match in the Silver Battle Hall.

Though he had done everything that needed to be done, Yang Mingyu felt as if he had forgotten something.

This nagging feeling was discomforting him.

Suddenly, Yang Mingyu recalled that some big shot from the Cleaner Division had sent a message asking the Battle Network to delete Jianmu's battle recording.

This exhibition match was one Jianmu had agreed to take himself, so the Cleaner Division wouldn't object.

But, Yang Mingyu felt it necessary to inform the Cleaner Division.

To show his respect towards the Cleaner Division.

Within the eight main organisations, the Cleaner Division held a higher rank than the Battle Network of the Creator's Guild.

Fang Qin, Fang Yuan, and Yan Wood maintained their habit of taking turns to call Fang Mu every evening, just as they did when they were away from him.

Chapter 534: Blade Mother Cockroach!_2

Fang Qin, Fang Yuan, and Yan Wood had been worried sick about Fang Mu.

Previously, Fang Mu had encountered an attack by the Evil Heart Sect when he was in JA City.

Now that Fang Mu had come to Lu City, he encountered the invasion of the Sea Clan.

The three of them knew that Fang Mu went to Lu City and immediately called Fang Mu after learning about this.

After confirming that Fang Mu was not in danger, the three of them finally breathed a sigh of relief.

Fang Yuan was the first among the brothers and sisters to know about Fang Mu's participation in the Battle Network exhibition match.

Among the Gold Glove Members under Fang Yuan, there was one who paid special attention to Jianmu.

When he knew that Jianmu was to compete in the exhibition match, he immediately informed Fang Yuan.

Yan Wood was still recovering from her injuries at Fang Yuan's place. Fang Yuan immediately used his Cash Ability to purchase three tickets to the exhibition match.

He gave one of them to Fang Qin and specially sent a VQ notification to Fang Qin.

The three of them had never seen Fang Mu fight since he became a Beast Master.

On one hand, they were curious about Fang Mu's abilities, on the other hand, they were concerned as older siblings for their younger brother.

Fang Yuan felt that he, Fang Qin, and Yan Wood should go and support Fang Mu at his match.

As soon as Fang Qin received the VQ from Fang Yuan, his phone rang.

Seeing that it was a call from "Dragon Mother", Fang Qin hurriedly answered the phone.

"Xiao Qin, as usual, bring your two Guardian Beasts to the Awakening Dragon Pond for Body Refinement tonight. Let Mo Shang accompany you!"

"By the way, that kid Fang Mu joined the Silver Battle Hall's exhibition match, if you are interested, you might consider going to watch it."

"I have already sent the ticket to Mo Shang. You go with him!"

Mo Shang was next to Fang Qin, and with his immense spiritual power, he could faintly hear what his grandmother "Dragon Mother" was saying on the phone.

Mo Shang couldn't help but facepalm.

Grandma yo! Did you get yourself an apprentice or did you intend to find yourself a well-behaved granddaughter-in-law !?

You constantly keep binding Fang Qin and me together in your speech. How could Fang Qin possibly not understand your intentions?

The intention in your words is too obvious!

Although he was complaining in his heart, Mo Shang did not really object to being in contact with Fang Qin.

Mo Shang had noticed in their previous visits to the Awakening Dragon Pond that Fang Qin was incredibly dedicated.

She did not show any pride or arrogance as a female Beast Master.

Moreover, both of Fang Qin's Dragon race Guardian Beasts were very excellent!

If it weren't for the fact that Fang Qin was currently serving in the Jinghai Army and her abilities were slightly inferior to his,

Mo Shang would have contemplated recruiting Fang Qin to his team!

Mo Shang and "Dragon Mother" thought that Fang Qin understood the meaning in the conversation, but little did they know that all of Fang Qin's attention was focused on Fang Mu's upcoming exhibition match!

Fang Qin didn't dislike Mo Shang, in fact, as a female student of her age, she grew up hearing the legends of Mo Shang during her school years.

Mo Shang was somewhat of an idol to Fang Qin.

Seeing Fang Mu's match with Mo Shang felt normal to her.

Currently, she and Mo Shang were practically like fellow disciples.

This was a perfect opportunity to boast about her younger brother in front of Mo Shang!

So, after hanging up the phone, Fang Qin bluntly said to Mo Shang.

“Brother Mo, our master said she sent the ticket for Little Wood’s exhibition match to you. If you have time, let’s go watch the match together!”

Fang Qin’s straightforwardness caused an unusual emotion to rise in Mo Shang’s heart.

Looking at Fang Qin’s bright eyes, Mo Shang subconsciously nodded his head.

The extra ticket was put up for sale on the Battle Network by Fang Qin at Fang Yuan’s purchase price of five hundred Dragon Rising Coins after asking Fang Yuan.

Fang Qin was somewhat surprised at Fang Yuan’s purchase price.

Fang Qin almost retorted to Fang Yuan, are you sure that this price is for the Silver Rank exhibition match tickets that Little Wood is participating in, not the Gold Rank exhibition match tickets?

The price for a Silver Division’s exhibition match was simply astounding!

With only a few minutes left before the start of the exhibition match.

With such a tight time constraint, could the tickets really be sold at five hundred Dragon Rising Coins each?

However, as soon as Fang Qin put the ticket up for sale, she found that it was bought by someone in less than three seconds.

Curious, Fang Qin did some research on the ticket prices and found that some people, in order to watch the match, had already changed their bidding price to one thousand Dragon Rising Coins per ticket!

This was the first time Fang Qin realized that Fang Mu was so popular on the Battle Network.

This made Fang Qin secretly say to herself.

As an older sister, did I neglect to pay attention to Fang Mu's growth!?

"Fang Qin, let's log into the Battle Network now. I'll log into my alternate account and we will meet at the Silver Battle Hall!"

"If we don't go now, we might miss the start of the event!"

Hearing this, Fang Qin didn't think any longer and hastily called forth her Dream Beast to enter the Battle Network.

This Dream Beast of Fang Qin's was specially equipped for her by "Dragon Mother".

With a Diamond Rank Dream Beast, logging into the Battle Network would be much easier for Fang Qin than before.

Fang Qin fully understood why Mo Shang wanted to use his alternate account to log into the Battle Network.

All Beast Masters who achieved King Rank on the Battle Network would receive a custom title for themselves.

The audience in the Silver Battle Hall is essentially entering a new world through their Dream Beasts.

There was no difference between watching a match there and watching it in real life.

If Mo Shang appeared in the Silver Battle Hall with his title, it would certainly cause unnecessary sensation.

As Fang Mu's sister, Fang Qin didn't want Mo Shang to steal Fang Mu's thunder!

At this time, upon receiving the prompt from the Battle Network, Fang Mu, who had already logged into the Battle Network ahead of time, had no idea that his family members also knew about his upcoming match.

Chapter 535: Blade Mother Cockroach!_3

And to get his full support, he arrived personally at the site.

[V Battle Net]: In ten seconds, you and your opponent will be appearing together in the Silver Battle Hall Arena, please prepare yourself! Don't be nervous!

The reminder from the Battle Network is incredibly considerate, fearing that Fang Mu, as a young boy, has not prepared for the attention of this match.

Fang Mu, in his previous life, had given speeches in lecture halls filled with tens of thousands of people as an assistant to an old professor, and even conducted academic seminars.

He's accustomed to facing audiences; there's really nothing to be nervous about.

What Fang Mu hopes for now is that his opponent will not be too weak.

Compared to Fang Mu's calm state of mind, his opponent, Zhang Kai seems undoubtedly more nervous.

This duel with Fang Mu concerns Zhang Kai's future popularity and position at the Sky Club.

No one can stay calm in the face of fame and fortune.

At this moment, Zhang Kai is even more nervous than when he was admitted to college.

When the time comes, the sounds of cheering and shouting flood Fang Mu's ears.

Fang Mu looks far into the distance and finds the Silver Battle Hall packed with no vacancies.

The audience had to be hundreds of thousands in number at the very least.

If it were not for Fang Mu's past experiences, he would probably already be sweating and feeling dizzy with apprehension!

Fang Mu didn't pay attention to the cheers of the audience, he focused his gaze on his opponent.

At the same time, he also surveyed the arena under his feet.

Fang Mu discovered that the arena of the Silver Battle Hall is more than twice as large as a normal Silver Rank arena.

Expanding the size of the field was clearly to enhance the spectating experience.

This is also to Fang Mu's Rainy Doll, an Elemental Beast which needs space to spread out.

There's no fear that the enemy would rush to his face before spreading out the battlefield.

While Fang Mu was observing Zhang Kai, Zhang Kai was also observing Fang Mu.

Zhang Kai's figure was slightly trembling, not calm like Fang Mu's.

It was a great honor for Zhang Kai to be chosen by the Battle Network to participate in this current exhibition match.

Many young talents didn't have this opportunity.

Zhang Kai, as a member of the Sky Club's reserve C team, has taken part in some offline matches.

However, the offline matches only had a few thousand on-site viewers at most, which didn't put pressure on Zhang Kai.

For the first time in his life, Zhang Kai is experiencing such a grand spectacle!

Mo Shang, who was sitting next to Fang Qin, showed a surprised expression when he saw Fang Mu looking as calm as ever.

Who'd have thought that Fang Qin's younger brother would have such strong mental strength!

This kind of mental strength isn't something that can be easily cultivated!

As Heartfelt saw Fang Mu on the battlefield, the stars in her eyes immediately lit up.

Heartfelt knew that as a host, with so many viewers watching the exhibition match through her, she had to speak up more.

So with her past experience from her fight against Jianmu, she started to speak,

"At the start of the fight, Jianmu most probably will summon his Silver-Stage Half-Elf to spread out."

"According to my impression, Jianmu's Silver-Stage Half-Elf's ranking has not improved, but its toxin has definitely improved a lot!"

In her vast livestream chat, Heartfelt couldn't possibly talk nonsense.

Any wrong statement could be blown out of proportion by Fang Mu, even criticized.

Heartfelt has watched a few of Jianmu's duels against other people.

The speed at which her Gold-Stage Guardian Beast melted under the rain curtain was much faster than the speed at which the Guardian Beasts that Jianmu previously defeated melted!

This is related to the species of the Guardian Beast.

The speed at which her plant-type beast dissolved was a bit faster, but it shouldn't be nearly seven times faster.

After speaking, Heartfelt wanted to check the barrage in the livestream.

But due to the sheer number of people in the livestream, the barrage on the screen pretty much blacked out the screen.

Heartfelt couldn't see what the barrage was saying at all.

Heartfelt gave up on interacting with the barrage and started to analyze the forthcoming battle according to her own understanding.

Some of the audience members recognized Zhang Kai.

In a large club like Sky Club, even members of the reserve C team had some popularity.

"Huh? Jianmu's opponent is Zhang Kai! I remember Zhang Kai has two Gold-Stage Guardian Beasts, one has reaching its Gold Peak, how is Jianmu going to fight!?"

"The arrangement of such a player for a Silver Exhibition match seems too off-topic!"

“Be afraid of what! Jianmu’s Silver-Stage Half-Elf also has Gold-Stage strength!”

“Hehe, the phrase from this Beast Master level definitely hasn’t surpassed Two Mang Star, otherwise it’s impossible to say such a retarded sentence! Even though a Silver Peak Guardian Beast could put forth Gold-Peak fighting strength, can it be compared to a Gold-Stage Guardian Beast.”

Seeing that Fang Mu did not summon his Guardian Beast right away, Zhang Kai took the initiative to summon his main battle Guardian Beast.

His main battle Guardian Beast also needed some time to spread out on the field.

As Zhang Kai summoned out his Destiny Guidebook, a giant cockroach appeared in front of Zhang Kai.

After the giant cockroach appeared, it pointed its abdomen high in the air and shot out dozens of ootheca like a cannon firing barrages.

These ootheca fell on the ground and expanded and contracted like hearts, as if they might explode and release the little things inside at any time.

When Zhang Kai summoned his Guardian Beast, Fang Mu used Fool’s Shadow’s Eye of Omniscience to scan the Guardian Beast that Zhang Kai summoned.

[Beast Name]: Blade Mother Cockroach

[Beast Species]: Cockroach Family/Blade Roach Genus

[Beast Level]: Gold (10/10)

[Beast Element]: Metal

[Beast Potential]: Platinum

[Beast Quality]: Epic Quality

Skills:

[Flap Wings]: Vibrate the elytra hidden inside the body to make a sound, stimulating the fighting spirit and ferocity of Guardian Beasts with the same genes.

[Supplement Shell]: Produces a cockroach shell that can supplement energy. The shell sacrifices itself after hatching to provide continuous energy for the target.

[Contaminant Roach Poison]: Places where the creature and its offspring crawl will spread toxins that breed mold, accelerating the target's decay. The toxins can be transmitted through the air.

Exclusive Traits:

[Accelerated Hatching]: Injects a large amount of active protein into the ootheca in the abdomen that hasn't been emitted yet, helping the ootheca hatch in a very short period of time.

[Offspring Enhancement]: Consumes the energy within the body to create special insect protein, injects it into the offspring and enhances the offspring's functions.

Chapter 536: King Lotus Unbanned!_1

Upon investigating, Fang Mu has learned a bit about Zhang Kai's Guardian Beast.

In the army of insect beasts, they can be divided into four types according to their battle style.

Aggressive type, support type, control type, and reproductive type.

The reproductive type of insect beasts are the rarest and the most difficult to deal with.

Zhang Kai's Blade Mother Cockroach happens to be a reproductive type of insect beast.

Fang Mu also immediately summoned his Rainy Doll and commanded it to use the skill [Silent Rain Cry] to control the field.

The Rainy Doll, after being summoned, stretched a little and let out a slight cry of "Ya Yi".

This is a manifestation of the semi-evolved intelligence of half-elves

Water elements resonated around the Rainy Doll, spreading out a curtain of rain.

The concentration of other elements in the environment began to decline constantly, [Silent Rain Cry] will interfere with the ability of targets soaked in the rain to resonate with the elements.

Fang Mu is sure that Zhang Kai definitely has other Guardian Beasts.

While Fang Mu commanded the Rainy Doll to expand the rain curtain, dozens of Ootheca sprayed out by Zhang Kai's Blade Mother Cockroach began to hatch sequentially.

The Ootheca opened one by one, and some of them turned into Blade Cockroaches, only the size of melon seeds.

Each of the dozens of Blade Cockroaches that hatched from the Ootheca reached the abdomen of the Blade Mother Cockroach at a swift speed and began to devour the sticky insect protein secreted by the Blade Mother Cockroach.

These melon-seed-sized Blade Cockroaches grew to the size of a washbasin in just a few seconds.

The body has a dark brown color with a metallic luster.

The edge of the shell is like a blade, flickering with a chilling light.

All of these Blade Cockroaches, once grown, possess the strength of a Guardian Beast at the Silver Peak.

Besides the Blade Cockroaches, three milk-white cockroaches were hatched from two Ootheca.

These three milk-white cockroaches, as soon as they hatched, were the size of a palm.

The six milk-white cockroaches clung to the back of the Blade Mother Cockroach.

Fang Mu knew that this is the Blade Mother Cockroach using the silver-grade skill [Supplement Shell].

These special cockroaches, by sacrificing themselves, can continue to supply energy to the Blade Mother Cockroach.

Right from the start using the skill [Supplement Shell] made Fang Mu realize, this young man named Zhang Kai wanted to engage him in a war of attrition.

But when it comes to a war of attrition, Fang Mu was not to be outdone!

At this time, the Blade Mother Cockroach suddenly let out a strange chirp, and a pair of complex and curved antennae extended from the head of the Blade Mother Cockroach.

The Blade Mother Cockroach chose four Blade Cockroaches that had devoured the insect protein and grew the largest.

She injected her antennae into these four Blade Cockroaches.

The special insect protein was injected into these selected Blade Cockroaches.

The size of the selected Blade Cockroaches nearly doubled within a few seconds. Apart from the insect armor, their limbs also evolved to be as sharp as blades, releasing the aura of a Gold Stage Guardian Beast.

They may not have reached the high rank of the Gold Stage, but their strength is equivalent to a mid-rank Gold Stage Guardian Beast.

Now, no matter how you look at it, Zhang Kai seems to have the upper hand.

The Blade Mother Cockroach is still producing Ootheca, ready to continue hatching more Blade Cockroaches.

More than two hundred Blade Cockroaches, each possessing strength at the Silver Peak, have already begun to advance following Zhang Kai's command.

The spectator seats of the Silver Battle Hall erupted with roaring sounds like a tidal wave.

"Damn! I initially thought Zhang Kai's Guardian Beast was very disgusting, I didn't expect Zhang Kai's Guardian Beast to be so powerful!"

"Insect beasts are too strong! I wish I was inclined towards insect beasts! It's like a person contracting hundreds of beasts, Jianmu alone can't beat Zhang Kai with just a silver-ranked half-elf! This silver-ranked half-elf only covers a limited area with its rain curtain, Zhang Kai can completely surround Jianmu with over two hundred insects!"

"I initially thought there would be an exciting face-off, I didn't expect it to end so soon! What a disappointment, I spent so much money buying tickets!"

"The standard of the audience is really poor this time, who said Jianmu can only have one beast?"

Yan Wood, Fang Qin, and Fang Yuan were all sitting in the audience, all three of them holding their breaths.

Zhang Kai's Blade Mother Cockroach was a top-tier Guardian Beast for executing a siege battle, heavily nurtured by the Sky Club using a lot of resources.

The best way to deal with siege type beasts is to use a Guardian Beast that excels in elemental attacks, and carry out a long-range and wide-range fire strike.

The prerequisite for using fire strike effectively is that the power of the Beast that is covering fire must be equivalent to or stronger than the Blade Mother Cockroach!

Fang Mu's Beastmaster ranking clearly indicates that he cannot possess such a beast.

The audience in attendance, except those who were worried for Fang Mu, were all cheering for Zhang Kai.

However, the head coach of the Sky Club, Chen Peng, had a frown on his face at this time.

What Zhang Kai should do the most is to beat Jianmu, and seizing the opportunity is crucial to defeating someone.

Chen Peng initially thought that Zhang Kai would directly summon his two Guardian Beasts at the Gold Peak, but didn't expect Zhang Kai to choose to hold back.

Indeed, continuously summoning Guardian Beasts during the battle can create a "bombarding" effect, which helps to elevate Zhang Kai's popularity.

But right now, winning is much more important than popularity.

Just then, Chen Peng noticed that Jianmu had summoned his Destiny Guidebook again.

Immediately following this, a patch of green extended from under Jianmu's feet, this green area covered more than half of the Silver Battle Hall's Arena.

Upon seeing this, Chen Peng subconsciously let out a gasp.

“A Wood Domain Type Beast! A Domain-Type Control Beast is actually seen in the Silver Battle Hall!”

Chapter 537: King Lotus Unleashed!_2

“Truly a beast suited for the disciple of a Grandmaster Creator!”

The grass suddenly spreading under Fang Mu’s feet put Chen Peng on edge for reasons he couldn’t explain.

The audience erupted in cheers that were even more intense than before.

Virtually all of the spectators at the venue had come specifically to see Jianmu.

While Zhang Kai and Cai Boshen did have fans, the Sky Club and Soul Rain Club hadn’t done any promotion before this.

There was no news on the Battle Network, so their fans were unaware of this.

Many of those who came to watch Fang Mu’s fight wanted to see Jianmu’s other Guardian Beasts firsthand, and now they finally did!

“What kind of beast has Jianmu just summoned? Why did it just lay a lawn under his feet?! I can’t tell what this beast is capable of!”

“The country bumpkin doesn’t even know what a Domain-Type Control Beast is! But even for a Domain-Type Control Beast, it would be difficult to resist so many insect swarms with Silver Stage strength, right?!”

Liu Tiantian watched Jianmu’s newly summoned Domain-Type Control Beast with a burning intensity, her heart pounding with excitement.

Liu Tiantian had a hunch that this new Wood Domain Type Beast summoned by Jianmu might not be any simpler than that Silver Stage Half-Elf.

The rain curtain cast by the Silver Stage Half-Elf was deadly poisonous, yet it seemed to have no effect on this Wood Domain Type Beast when it fell on the grass at their feet.

It suggested an interplay between this Wood Domain Type Beast and that Silver Stage Half-Elf!

Since Jianmu had chosen to summon this Domain-Type Control Beast, he would certainly demonstrate its power.

All she had to do was watch carefully.

Fang Mu didn't disappoint Liu Tiantian. Suddenly, two large lotus flowers sprouted on the green lawn.

The two large lotus flowers were stunningly beautiful.

Three giant, curtain-like lotus leaves spread out on the lawn, while two lotus flowers, no smaller than the lotus leaves, blossomed brilliantly among them.

The souls of two Rain Curtain Cicadas emerged from the buds and flew to the Rainy Doll's side.

With the assistance of the two Rain Curtain Cicadas, the area covered by the Rainy Doll's rain curtain quickly expanded.

The rain fell even harder than before.

The Ling Poison King Lotus and the three Poison Dart Frogs began to accumulate the toxins in Eden Dreamland.

The souls of the three Poison Dart Frogs lifted their heads high and spit out poison darts.

In a parabolic arc, they smashed one Blade Cockroach after another.

The Poison Dart Frog only needed to spit out the condensed toxins in the form of poison darts, it did not need to muster any strength.

These toxins, condensed into poison darts, landed on the bodies of the Blade Cockroaches. The numerous toxins inside burst out, immediately corroding the bodies of the Blade Cockroaches.

This method of killing by using poison darts without breaking through the defenses made Zhang Kai fully aware of the power of these toxins.

Luckily, his Blade Mother Cockroach was far enough away from the opponent. Otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable if the Blade Mother Cockroach was hit by these poison darts!

He did not have any means to detoxify them!

Thankfully, he had only lost a dozen or so of his Blade Cockroaches. The main force had already reached the edge of the green lawn.

All he had to do next was charge through the rain curtain as quickly as possible and order the Blade Cockroaches to launch a suicidal attack on Jianmu!

The Rainy Doll, an Elemental Beast, had no physical body, and neither did the Domain-Type Control Beast.

Therefore, to defeat Jianmu, he had to target Jianmu directly and treat him like a live target.

However, attacking Fang Mu wasn't as easy as Zhang Kai thought it would be.

As soon as the swarm of insects stepped into the grassland, Zhang Kai found the whole lawn damp.

This damp grassland contained the same toxins as the rain curtain.

The corrosive nature of these toxins caused the insect's feet of the Blade Cockroaches to rot and soften in a very short period of time.

Luckily, these Blade Cockroaches also had elytra.

Although the elytra was not powerful when flapping, it was absolutely no problem to glide for ten to twenty meters.

But the moment these Blade Cockroaches spread their elytra to fly into the rain curtain.

The rear part of the roaches, unprotected due to the flapping elytra, were directly washed by the rain curtain, the Acid and Erosion Poisons penetrated their tough skin.

The Blood Poison, Erosion Poison, and spiritual toxins began to take effect.

More than half of these Blade Cockroaches fell to the ground about ten meters away from Fang Mu, and only a few dozen Blade Cockroaches managed to get five meters close to him.

Just then, the leaves of the Ling Poison King Lotus suddenly started flapping, even without utilizing its inherent characteristic, the [Leaf Lotus Dance].

The huge lotus leaves swatted the severely injured Blade Cockroaches into chaos, one after another.

Standing in front of the giant lotus, Jianmu didn't even move, simply calmly observing the scene.

The ensuing cheers from the crowd were obviously for Jianmu.

His own preliminary attempt had no effect, which made Zhang Kai somewhat flustered.

From how Jianmu set up his strategy, Zhang Kai learnt that Jianmu was also very adept at stationary warfare.

Zhang Kai knew that dragging this out would do him no favors.

Zhang Kai gave instructions to his Blade Mother Cockroach to use its inherent capability – [Accelerate Hatching].

Having sacrificed the six white special cockroaches, the Blade Mother Cockroach hatched twenty more oothecae.

The Blade Mother Cockroach, having hatched twenty oothecae, seemed somewhat fatigued.

Zhang Kai was somewhat relieved that he hadn't sent out those four enhancement offspring earlier.

Zhang Kai was preparing to display his strongest ability in a bid to take down Jianmu in one fell swoop.

Accompanied by the surge of spiritual power, a giant centipede nearly seven meters long appeared in front of Zhang Kai.

Chapter 538: King Lotus Unbanned!_3

This colossal centipede appeared in a vivid purplish-red hue, its brilliant body colour paired with thousands of insect legs looked incredibly intimidating.

This enormous centipede was exactly the trump card prepared by the Sky Club for Zhang Kai.

Zhang Kai has never used this Beast for battle in public.

Fang Mu once again deployed the Eye of Omniscience to probe Zhang Kai's giant centipede.

[Beast Name]: Saber-Toothed Giant Centipede

[Beast Species]: Centipede Family / Toothed Centipede Species

[Beast Level]: Gold (10/10)

[Beast Element]: Toxic System

[Beast Potential]: Platinum

[Beast Quality]: Epic Quality

Skills:

[Stingtail]: Stings the target with its tail, injecting toxins that dissolve the target's flesh.

[Strong Body]: Enhances the hardness of its shell by consuming energy. It stimulates its spirit to increase physical and mental defense. It enters a state of invulnerability, where it cannot be controlled by effects like paralysis.

[Segment Hug Kill]: Wraps its body around the target, tearing the target apart with its insect legs while constricting its body to suffocate the target until it shatters.

Exclusive Traits:

[Yellow Springs Blood Drinking]: Upon piercing the target's body, it swiftly drains the target's blood and injects toxins that inhibit the target's blood production.

[Blood Poison Eruption]: It makes the internal toxins burst out in an instant to hit the target, strengthening its poison-production every time its toxins infect a life form.

Upon exploring, Fang Mu conceded that Zhang Kai's Saber-Toothed Giant Centipede was indeed powerful.

Its exclusive traits and skills made the Saber-Toothed Giant Centipede very good at close combat, cleverly using toxins during attack.

However, the Saber-Toothed Giant Centipede had no advantage against his Rainy Doll and Eden Dreamland.

If Zhang Kai only had the Blade Mother Cockroach and the Saber-Toothed Giant Centipede as his Beasts, there was no need for Fang Mu to summon the Subduing Dragon Nightmare Tiger, his own trump card.

The Blade Mother Cockroach started deploying her exclusive trait [Accelerated Hatching], and the twenty oothecae hatched into Blade Cockroaches in a very short time.

The Blade Mother Cockroach directly shed a large amount of the insect egg protein from her abdomen.

This time, in order to ensure the attack efficiency of the Blade Locust Swarm, Zhang Kai did not let the Blade Mother Cockroach deploy the skill [Resheathing].

[Resheathing] specialized cockroaches couldn't bring benefits to the Blade Mother Cockroach in a short time, so it didn't meet Zhang Kai's strategic goal of launching a final assault.

After shedding the last of her egg protein, the Blade Mother Cockroach collapsed on the ground and entered a state of apparent death.

If the Blade Mother Cockroach were to be so consumed in reality without immediate remedial measures,

She may indeed die of exhaustion.

That Zhang Kai allowed the Blade Mother Cockroach to end up in this state implied that he was preparing for a final full-scale attack.

The head coach of the Xiangtian Club Guild privately cursed Zhang Kai as a “fool”.

If Zhang Kai had shown such aggression at the outset and not given Fang Mu so much preparation time,

How could Fang Mu have deployed his Domain-Type Control Beast and the rain curtain to such an extent?

The first wave of Blade Mother Cockroach failed to harm Fang Mu. Repeating the strategy would most likely fail again.

Even if Zhang Kai beat Fang Mu, it would give people the impression that Fang Mu had driven Zhang Kai into a desperate situation.

Fang Mu still looked too calm, as if he never took Zhang Kai seriously.

This made Chen Peng a bit curious about how Fang Mu planned to respond.

With the defense and toxin resistance of Zhang Kai’s newly summoned Saber-Toothed Giant Centipede, it could definitely force its way through the rain curtain.

If Fang Mu were to transform his Silver-rank half-elf into a Blood Noble, the rain would stop.

Over four hundred Blade Cockroaches could then swarm towards Fang Mu.

The King Lotus blooming on the green field beneath Fang Mu, although at the Silver Peak strength, could not completely protect him.

As a disciple of the Grandmaster Creator, Fang Mu should have seen this coming.

Chen Peng could not figure out why Fang Mu seemed so confident.

Chen Peng refused to believe that a Grandmaster Creator would have his disciple contract with a third Beast when he was only a One-point Stars Beast Master.

Suddenly Chen Peng considered a possibility: Could Fang Mu be unexpressive!?

At this point, Zhang Kai had completely ignored the noise around him.

Controlling the Blade Mother Cockroach to lay more than thirty oothecae in a single battle had drained Zhang Kai's spiritual power significantly.

Since he intended to stake it all, Zhang Kai roared,

"Mystic Mark, Blood Burst!"

With Zhang Kai's outcry, the universal attribute [Mystic Mark: Blood Fury] took effect immediately on the Saber-Toothed Giant Centipede.

The body of the Saber-Toothed Giant Centipede, already purplish-red, emitted a dark red luster.

Its aura climbed somewhat but did not surpass the Gold Peak limit.

However, for a close hand-to-hand combat, the Saber-Toothed Giant Centipede, with Zhang Kai's Mystic Mark enhancement, could easily strangle the majority of Gold Peak Beasts.

Zhang Kai was recognized by the Sky Club precisely because of his universal attribute Mystic Mark.

The Mystic Mark with universal attribute could enhance any Beast, without being restricted by the Beast's attribute.

The Saber-Toothed Giant Centipede took the lead and rushed towards Fang Mu, followed by a swarm of over four hundred Blade Cockroaches.

The four special Blade Cockroaches that had been bred by the Blade Mother Cockroach through the exclusive trait [Offspring Enhancement] kept wriggling their limbs incessantly.

They left numerous scratches on the stone ground.

Just when everyone believed there was no stopping them, Fang Mu was seen still standing calmly beside the Lotus.

Suddenly, people saw Fang Mu channel his spiritual power, whispering something to the lotus next to him.

Immediately afterward, the huge arena seemed to sway slightly, as if something had plunged deep into the ground.

The already immense lotus body expanded instantly into a giant object that could be considered a small building.

Fang Mu, resembling a deity, stepped onto the immense leaf of the lotus that drooped down.

Chapter 539: The Ultimate Kill in the Flowers!_1

The moment Fang Mu's feet firmly stood on this drooping lotus leaf, the leaf immediately stood upright.

Carrying Fang Mu's body, it rose into mid-air.

Two other enormous lotus leaves wrapped around the leaf Fang Mu was standing on.

Two overlapping lotus flowers bloomed behind Fang Mu.

It was as if he was a king high above on a city tower, looking down at the lowly insects below.

The insect swarm that Zhang Kai constructed had already brought the audience inside the Silver Battle Hall to a fever pitch.

But Fang Mu allowing the Ling Poison King Lotus to display its unique characteristic [Bound Earth Lotus Body] had smashed through the fever pitch to reach a new climax!

The transformation of the lotus beast next to Fang Mu was beyond Zhang Kai's understanding.

At first, Zhang Kai thought this lotus beast was the heart of the green field under his feet. Now it seems that this huge lotus has no relation whatsoever to the Domain-Type Control Beast of Jianmu.

Could it be that Jianmu has now summoned three Guardian Beasts!?

How could a single Silver Stage Guardian Beast make such a stand!?

When Zhang Kai unleashed [Mystic Mark: Blood Fury], aside from wanting to defeat Jianmu in this round, he also wanted to attract a wave of fans through [Mystic Mark: Blood Fury].

A universal mystic mark is far rarer than a specific attribute mystic mark, and it can be adapted to any Guardian Beast.

This kind of mystic mark is something that every Beast Master dreams of.

Maybe even Jianmu would envy the [Mystic Mark: Blood Fury] that he himself has comprehended.

Zhang Kai was completely unaware that his opponent Fang Mu not only didn't envy him, but instead, he felt quite regretful that Zhang Kai himself had comprehended [Mystic Mark: Blood Fury].

Fang Mu had read relevant books about mystic marks, and conducted deep research on them.

A universal class Mystic Mark can indeed match any Guardian Beast without worrying about attribute restrictions.

But it's a known fact that the bonus a universal class Mystic Mark gives to a Guardian Beast is not as powerful as the bonus an attribute Mystic Mark gives to the corresponding attribute Guardian Beast.

What's more, it's very hard to comprehend the second or third universal class Mystic Mark, let alone assemble the last-tier Mystic Chapter!

This is not beneficial for Zhang Kai to become a powerhouse.

Since Zhang Kai has launched his final attack on him, Fang Mu is also preparing to retaliate.

Fang Mu has not launched an active attack on Zhang Kai for such a long time, just waiting for the right opportunity.

Right now, this opportunity has ripened.

Liu Tiantian, as a commentator, has commented many high school league matches.

However, Liu Tiantian could be sure that no high school league match has ever made her heart race this fast and blood boil like now.

The situation on the field was changing back and forth unexpectedly.

At this moment, Liu Tiantian seemed to have forgotten that she was a Battle Network reporter. She only knew to cheer along with the rest of the audience!

“Jianmu has actually made contracts with three Guardian Beasts! This is just too amazing! The height of this lotus flower from the ground is nearly fifteen meters, each lotus leaf is 150 square meters in size, is this really a Silver Stage Guardian Beast!?”

“I’ll just ask, why did Jianmu make contracts with three Guardian Beasts when he was a One-point Stars Beast Master? Even if a Silver Stage Guardian Beast suddenly grew bigger, it wouldn’t be able to defeat a swarm of Silver Peak Blade Roaches, would it!? Especially when the leading centipede and the specialized roaches all have Gold Stage combat power!”

Hearing the cheers in her ears, Liu Tiantian suddenly remembered why she had come to watch Jianmu’s battle.

Liu Tiantian felt that Jianmu’s Domain-Type Control Beast and this lotus were probably one and the same.

Otherwise, the lotus shouldn’t have the same origin as the grassy field.

Liu Tiantian was somewhat puzzled by the complexity of Jianmu’s Guardian Beast.

But Liu Tiantian knew that after this showdown ended, there would definitely be Creators or some knowledgeable people analyzing the situation of Jianmu’s Guardian Beast.

Jianmu would once again become a hot topic for discussion across the Battle Network.

Who knows how many big shots would explode in the Skin Peeling House, analyzing Jianmu’s Guardian Beast in various ways every day.

Fang Qin, Fang Yuan, Yan Wood were completely shocked by the power of their younger brother.

Fang Mu had such a strong power when he just became a Beast Master, which showed how good Fang Mu's master was to him.

Although the three of them were surprised, they still felt it was within reason.

If Fang Mu's master wasn't good enough to him, Fang Mu wouldn't be able to bring out so many resources to establish Jianmu Commerce Association.

Let alone helping them to buy Guardian Beasts and enhance the bloodline of the Guardian Beasts!

Fang Qin was looking at the dazzling boy in the Silver Battle Hall's arena with gentle eyes, much happier than when she herself achieved honor.

Mo Shang noticed Fang Qin's eyes and instantly understood how important Fang Mu was to her.

Mo Shang said to Fang Qin on the side.

"I know what kind of Domain-Type Control Beast your brother Little Wood contracted."

"This Domain-Type Control Beast has been kept in the Qingdao Branch of Jinghai Province for a long time and has been desired by many people."

"But in the end, these people were all scared off by the resources required to cultivate it."

"This Wood Domain Type Beast's exclusive characteristic is very special, and only your brother would dare to contract it."

"If others tried to contract this Guardian Beast, it would be really hard to afford the price of fostering it!"

During the explanation, Mo Shang realized that Fang Qin was only concerned about Fang Mu himself, and was not curious about the capabilities of Fang Mu's Guardian Beast.

This kind of care made Mo Shang think of how her mother treated her when she was a child.

Mo Shang casually turned her head to look at Fang Mu on the stage, making a silent promise in her heart.

Chapter 540: The Perfect Kill in The Flower! _2

Establishing a good relationship with Fang Qin was rooted in gaining the good graces of the boy on stage.

Mo Shang was always curious about Fang Mu. Mo Shang understood clearly that his grandmother was able to take Fang Qin as a disciple, almost completely thanks to Fang Mu's efforts.

Mo Shang, who received praise since childhood, however, lacked such strategic abilities and planning at Fang Mu's age.

Fang Mu was not short of resources in terms of strength; all he was missing was a Beast Master Star Level.

With the help of Sacred Relics Sakura Tempering Carp, Fang Mu's Beast Master Star Level was bound to surpass his peers sooner or later.

Mo Shang had heard about the incidents in JA City and Lu City, and Fang Mu played a positive role in both crises.

The resolution in Lu City went so smoothly, and all credit largely went to Fang Mu.

A young man like him, with responsibility and strong sense of duty, would likely represent the Dragon Rising Federation in the World Collegiate Championships in the future.

As for the situation on stage, Mo Shang was not sure how to comment for a moment.

Mo Shang couldn't be sure of the abilities that the plant-type beast master, planted in the special field [Above the Green Field], had.

However, through Fang Mu's eyes, Mo Shang knew that Fang Mu was completely confident of winning this duel.

Zhang Kai, thought Fang Mu would react as the Saber-Toothed Giant Centipede and the Blade Cockroach Swarm was getting closer and closer to the Rain Curtain.

Expecting the Half-Elf, that was as young as a child and at the Silver Stage, to transform into a Blood Noble.

Yet Fang Mu did nothing, evidently leaving the Blade Cockroach Swarm to their fate.

Normally at this point, Zhang Kai should have instructed the Saber-Toothed Giant Centipede to charge into the rain curtain using its strong defenses and launch an attack on Fang Mu.

To force Fang Mu to let his Half-Elf transform.

And to create a condition for the Blade Cockroach Swarm to start attacking Fang Mu on the petals by flapping its wings.

However, such an action would separate the Saber-Toothed Giant Centipede and the Blade Cockroach Swarm.

At a time when Zhang Kai was unsure of the effects of Jianmu's massive lotus, Zhang Kai was unwilling to take that risk.

Zhang Kai could only grit his teeth and order part of the Blade Cockroach Swarm to unfurl their wings and use their bodies to block the rain in the sky.

To allow some of the Blade Cockroaches to walk on the grassland filled with rainwater.

Doing so could ensure the battle strength of more than two hundred Blade Cockroaches while sacrificing the other half of the Blade Cockroach Swarm.

The Saber-Toothed Giant Centipede could also rely on the path paved by the bodies of the Blade Cockroaches to reduce the damage it suffered.

Chen Peng, the head coach of the Xiangtian Club Guild, had always been unsatisfied with Zhang Kai's decisions.

However, Zhang Kai's current strategy finally made Chen Peng nod in approval.

If Zhang Kai had done this earlier, summoning the Saber-Toothed Giant Centipede from the beginning,

Then his current Blade Cockroach Swarm would not consist of over four hundred cockroaches, but more than six hundred!

Under Zhang Kai's command, the Blade Cockroach Swarm showed perfect discipline.

Over a hundred Blade Cockroaches spread their wings to face the rain curtain, while the remaining Blade Cockroaches hoisted up their companions on both sides and raced at top speed across Eden Dreamland.

They aimed to increase the climbing distance with speed.

However, while Zhang Kai's calculations were accurate, and the strategic deployment was nearly perfect,

The rain that kept pouring under the influence of the Rainy Doll's two Rain Curtain Cicadas, meant that the amount of rainwater accumulated in Eden Dreamland was far beyond ordinary proportions.

Earlier, when the Blade Cockroaches stepped on it, the water level was just above their legs.

But now, even the extended heads of the Blade Cockroaches were directly buried underwater.

The mouthparts of insects have always been their weak point. Even if the Blade Cockroaches clamped their mouths shut, the corrosive nature of rainwater would instantly corrode the weakest part of their carapace.

The rainwater would pour directly into the mouths of the Blade Cockroaches.

While the Blade Cockroaches initially could have trekked within ten meters of Jianmu, the bottom-most ones didn't manage to climb a distance of seven to eight meters before their bodies started decomposing into pus due to the internal corrosion of the poison.

The current Blade Cockroach Swarm was still nearly thirty meters away from Jianmu. Although this distance was within the gliding range of the Blade Cockroaches, long distances would reduce the impact of the Blade Cockroaches.

This was not conducive to the Blade Cockroaches' attack.

At this point, Zhang Kai had no choice. If he did not allow the Blade Cockroach Swarm to take flight, the entire swarm would soak in rainwater when the bottom-most cockroaches turned into pus.

Zhang Kai gnashed his teeth and shouted.

"All Blade Cockroaches, take flight! The Saber-Toothed Giant Centipede, immediately use the Strong Body skill!"

Under Zhang Kai's command, the Saber-Toothed Giant Centipede, which had already been enhanced by [Dark Vein Burst Blood], lit up in a dim light.

The hardness of the Saber-Toothed Giant Centipede's shell increased instantaneously, putting its body in a dominant state.

In addition to the stimulation of its own spiritual power, it made the Saber-Toothed Giant Centipede highly resistant to the spiritual poison in the rainwater.

Fang Mu had been relying on the Rainy Doll's Rain Absorption Spirit to obtain the poison for combat.

In fact, the true offensive ability of the Rainy Doll lay in its special feature [Poison Mark Fragments].

On these Blade Cockroaches washed by rainwater, countless poison marks had already formed without anyone noticing.

Fang Mu immediately ordered the Rainy Doll to use its exclusive feature [Poison Mark Fragments].

For every three layers of poison marks, an explosion would occur due to the effect of [Poison Mark Fragments].

Explosions echoed on the Blade Cockroaches who were given priority by Zhang Kai to control the rain curtain.

In an instant, hundreds of Blade Cockroaches flying in the highest sky were blasted into pieces.

Raindrops as large as beans pelted down, striking the wing-spread Blade Cockroaches.

With every three drops of rain falling on a Blade Cockroach, the exploding effect attached by the special feature [Poison Mark Fragments] would be triggered once.

With each Blade Cockroach exploding, it would affect the surrounding Blade Cockroaches.
