

Beast Tamer 63

Chapter 63 Schizophrenic Fang Xiaomu!_I

[Stellar Start] agrees to join the Star Wheel, with his disciples only acting as representatives for the meetings.

This situation does not violate the guidelines of the Star Wheel.

The messenger guiding members into the Star Wheel territory is the Spatial Star Spirit Dual System Beast, and it has authorization capabilities.

It's also common for the other members on their behalf to attend meetings in the Star Wheel territory when they don't have time or are not convenient.

Since [Stellar Start] is willing to join the Star Wheel, thereby becoming a member of the Star Wheel organization.

That means Shui Miao's goal has been reached!

There are many related matters of joining the organization and Shui Miao still needs to hand the messenger over to [Stellar Start].

[Amber Button]: I happen to be in Dragon Rising Federation now, would you be interested in meeting up?

Face-to-face communication is certainly going to be much more convenient than communicating on the Beastmaster Web.

It will also show [Stellar Start] how sincere I am.

Even though [Stellar Start] has become a member of the organization, Shui Miao can conduct trades with [Stellar Start] within the organization.

But compared to the relationship between ordinary organization members, Shui Miao personally wants to become friends with [Stellar Start].

Shui Miao thought [Stellar Start] would accept this request of his.

But to his surprise, [Stellar Start] directly turned him down.

[Stellar Start]: I don't have time to meet. Even if I had to meet, it would be my disciple who would go on my behalf.

After reading [Stellar Start]'s reply, Shui Miao was speechless for a moment.

[Stellar Start] can really offer resources of a Grandmaster Creator and has directly accepted my newly proposed order.

Shui Miao is sure that [Stellar Start] must be a Grandmaster Creator.

Therefore, he didn't doubt at all when Stellar Start didn't want to meet and pushed all the matters onto his disciple.

Shui Miao thought [Stellar Start] either had severe social anxiety or saw his disciple as the apple of his eye!

If in the future all his communications with [Stellar Start] had to be conducted via the latter's disciple.

Then Shui Miao felt the need to meet the disciple of [Stellar Start].

He could also bring an additional meeting gift for [Stellar Start]'s disciple.

[Amber Button]: If that's the case, send me your location. No matter where you are in the Dragon Rising Federation, I'll be there on time at 2 p.m., three days later.

[Amber Button]: I have a few things that need to be handed over to you by your disciple.

[Amber Button]: With this item, you can also easily enter the meeting place of the Star Wheel.

Hearing that, Fang Mu raised an eyebrow and his curiosity about the Star Wheel organization grew exponentially.

The words of [Amber Button] let Fang Mu know that the Star Wheel organization is not limited to the Dragon Rising Federation.

Fang Mu had never left Jinghai Province, let alone ventured into the world outside the Dragon Rising Federation.

This was Fang Mu's first encounter with a global organization.

Moreover, the Star Wheel obviously differed from the Eternal Alchemy Association, Ancient Genesis, Evil Heart Sect, and other organizations known for their nefarious practices.

The objective of the Star Wheel is mutual assistance and common development.

Fang Mu really liked this principle, and it was exactly what Fang Mu, as a new Beast Master, needed at the moment.

Fang Mu sent the address of the JA City Creators Guild without asking further questions.

A Grandmaster Creator shouldn't be that curious.

But when he faced [Amber Button] as a disciple of a Grandmaster Creator.

He could ask anything he wanted!

Just as Fang Mu replied with a “Good,” [Amber Button] sent another message.

[Amber Button]: Since I’m meeting your disciple offline, I don’t need the Life Elixir to be shipped to me through the Beastmaster Alliance.

[Amber Button]: If you say you can complete my request in two days, how about having your disciple bring all six bottles of elixir to me.

[Amber Button]: I’ll handle the Beastmaster Alliance. This way, you won’t have to pay the Beastmaster Alliance commission either.

Fang Mu naturally had no reason to reject the proposal from [Amber Button].

[Stellar Start]: Let’s do as you suggested!

After replying to [Amber Button], Fang Mu immediately logged out of the Beastmaster Web.

Off the Beastmaster Web, Fang Mu believes he should buy some books on performance.

This world indeed has the profession of an actor.

However, actors in this world are not as glamorous and popular as they were in Fang Mu’s previous life.

Those Battle Network anchors with powerful Guardian Beasts and the popular players from various clubs have the laurels of actors in the past, with a massive fan base.

Fang Mu believed that in addition to studying academic materials on various Guardian Beasts and spiritual materials, learning about performing was also necessary.

Otherwise, switching identities back and forth, he would eventually become schizophrenic.

The night was enchanting, with stars twinkling in the sky.

The Libra Nebula was very conspicuous in the sky and caught Fang Mu's eye immediately.

On his way to his old factory, Fang Mu smelled a sour stench before he even entered the factory.

In the afternoon, while Fang Mu arranged for a temporary housekeeper to hire people to repair the ventilation ducts.

This housekeeper and those four repairmen, each of them vomited more than once in the room.

They were almost consistently dry-heaving throughout!

Water attribute spiritual materials come from water system beasts, which are mainly fishes.

Once the mucus on a fish rots, the fishy smell can make a person subconsciously suffer from phlegm in the throat.

However, to such an environment, Fang Mu just wrinkled his eyebrows and got used to it.

In his previous life, Fang Mu, in order to avoid sandstorms during a field investigation, once built a makeshift fortress out of camel feces.

Fang Mu had tasted all kinds of hardships!

Fang Mu's toughness allowed him to sleep soundly on the temporary bed he had put together.

The Aromatherapy Rabbit hated unpleasant smells, even the "Hua Hua Dan" it produced, the rabbit was very disgusted with.

So, Fang Mu didn't bring the Aromatherapy Rabbit to bear the "torture".

Even though "Inhale" is a tad picky, it was willing to change its taste after feasting on the corpses of first soldier-level alien beasts for a long time.

Accompanied by the sound of "Inhale"'s tentacles crushing the garbage, Fang Mu fell into a deep sleep.

For the past two days, Fang Mu had been constantly moving between the Scavenger Department, the Creator's Guild, and the old factory.

Through Fang Mu's efforts, "Inhale"'s strength has leveled up to Ordinary Level Three.

The Clean Water Spirit upgraded from Ordinary Level Two to Ordinary Level Five because of the water crystal refined by "Inhale".

The time for the Clean Water Spirit to transform into a Bloodline Newborn using [Water Spirit Conversion] skill has gone from the original four seconds to nearly fifteen seconds.

This duration should suffice for Clean Water Spirit to fight in its Bloodline Newborn state.

Fang Mu was working so hard because he was eager to enhance his skills on one hand.

On the other hand, he was ensuring he could provide ample supplies for Fang Yuan daily.

The day after Fang Mu replied to Fang Yuan's message, he received a transfer of three hundred thousand Dragon Rising Coins from Fang Yuan.

Fang Yuan encouraged him via text message, told him to attend more Junior Creator classes.

Having obtained a substantial income, Fang Mu felt he could give his family a better life.

Not to mention, a brighter future awaiting him!

Fang Mu could imagine how thrilled Fang Yuan was.

Every day Fang Mu kept in touch with his family. Home was always the softest spot in Fang Mu's heart.

Fang Mu was also pleased about his ability to take on the hardships of supporting his family.

Feng Chenhao never contacted Fang Mu, which meant that Feng Chenhao hadn't reached JA City from Qing Cang Province, where Fang Mu was located.

However, today after cleaning up the alien beast corpses at the Scavenger Department.

Fang Mu was going to meet the member of the Star Wheel Organization, the one with the Beastmaster Web ID [Amber Button]!
