

Beast Tamer 631

Chapter 631: Evolve: Heart Rotten Worm Squad! _3

As Fang Mu made contact with Yan Yubanruo, he found Yan Yubanruo was the most distinctive of all his guardian beasts due to its personality.

This was also largely related to Yan Yubanruo's high intelligence.

At first, Yan Yubanruo gave Fang Mu the impression of a cold and aloof queen, but gradually, Fang Mu found that Yan Yubanruo was both aloof and stingy.

She spent all day forcing her Ghost Servant Spectral Fish Princess to condense souls, continually exploiting the Fish Princess.

Fortunately, as a Ghost Servant, the Spectral Fish Princess could gain energy from Yan Yubanruo and didn't need to rest.

Otherwise, the Spectral Fish Princess would probably have been exhausted by Yan Yubanruo long ago!

Ironically, the Spectral Fish Princess greatly enjoyed being at the service of Yan Yubanruo, leaving Fang Mu unable to intervene.

Consequently, Fang Mu decided not to disrupt Yan Yubanruo's relationship with the Spectral Fish Princess.

"Master, let me use the Control of Paper Puppets to contract with the Heart Rotten Worm Squad and Stealth Stinger Spirit!"

"Just with the Grave Sacrifice Pregnant Mother, Grave Sacrifice Daddy, Grave Sacrifice Child, and Giant Brutal Butcher, I can't fully display my battle power!"

“Speaking of which, I now have more than a dozen White Paper Men.”

If another contractor heard Yan Yubanruo’s words, they would certainly feel very overwhelmed.

Cultivating more than a dozen undead system beasts is no easy task.

But Fang Mu, hearing that Yan Yubanruo had condensed a few more White Paper Men, was beyond thrilled!

Fang Mu took out a soul and handed it to Yan Yubanruo, saying,

“Ming Ye, don’t skimp on these souls. Swallow as many as you can!”

“Even if you’ve reached Silver Rank Level Ten and can’t advance further, absorbing more souls and accumulating them can enhance your quality!”

During the conversation, Fang Mu proceeded to give Yan Yubanruo over thirty elixirs that increased soul energy and pure “Dead Qi”.

“Ming Ye, take these. If you need more, just let me know.”

“Don’t wait until you run out of resources to tell me. We have the means to get more.”

“We have the means!”

Now that there was no one else around, Fang Mu didn’t need to beat around the bush.

When it came to nurturing his guardian beasts, Fang Mu was always very generous.

On the way to Rock Peak City, not only was Fang Mu collecting the souls of undead creatures, but he was also collecting their bodies in large quantities.

By devouring these undead creatures' bodies, his beasts could directly produce pure Dead Qi.

As a ghost system beast, Yan Yubanruo didn't need to absorb Dead Qi.

But with the pure Dead Qi Fang Mu gave her, Yan Yubanruo could improve the Spectral Fish Princess.

Because the Spectral Fish Princess possessed a mermaid bloodline, Fang Mu was particularly concerned about the Spectral Fish Princess, who evolved from the All-Kinds Carp!

Moreover, the Whale Princess insisted on the importance and respect the Sea Clan held for the mermaid bloodline, which further strengthened Fang Mu's determination to nurture the Spectral Fish Princess well.

Yan Yubanruo always seemed cold and detached, but seeing the wealth of resources Fang Mu provided her, she couldn't resist embracing him.

Mimicking the Spectral Fish Princess, she nestled her head into Fang Mu's chest.

The Rainy Doll always acted coquettishly when Fang Mu summoned her. Thus, Fang Mu was used to interactions with his beasts.

But Yan Yubanruo rarely displayed such affection in front of him.

Fang Mu patted Yan Yubanruo on the back, then summoned the Heart Rotten Worm Squad and Stealth Stinger Spirit.

Then, he took out a thousand milliliters of Blood Aged Wine, preparing to cultivate the Heart Rotten Worm Squad and Stealth Stinger Spirit in an attempt to induce evolution.

Fang Mu Yama's identity was only used for a few duels on Battle Network. His identity as Jianmu had long shaken the world on Battle Network.

However, Yama's presence didn't make much of a splash, only being popular among a small group of undead system beast enthusiasts.

Once Yan Yubanruo gained control of her new undead system beasts, Fang Mu could log onto the Battle Network and show off his strengths as Yama!

In addition to these undead system beasts controlled by Yan Yubanruo, Fang Mu also possessed the Omen Flash Butterfly contracted by the Covenant Blood Essence.

The Omen Flash Butterfly had risen from Silver Rank One to Silver Rank Ten, but its quality was still at the Epic level.

It would need a period of cultivation before it could potentially upgrade to Legendary Quality and obtain new exclusive traits.

Compared to the quality improvement of the Omen Flash Butterfly, Fang Mu was more concerned with the enhancement of the Omen Flash Butterfly's bloodline.

The Omen Flash Butterfly still had a long way to go for it to evolve into the Death Herald Beauty Butterfly.

The Omen Flash Butterfly could pair with any other undead system beasts, enhancing the power of these beasts through skills and exclusive traits.

If he encountered formidable opponents, Fang Mu could easily cross ranks to battle enemies by using the abilities of the Omen Flash Butterfly and his other undead system beasts!

The Heart Rotten Worm Squad was a squirming mass of rotten flesh, blackened at its purplish-red core.

The tentacles extending from it were covered in a pus-like mucus.

As a former biologist, Fang Mu had seen many disgusting creatures, but it was still challenging to become immune to the sight of the Heart Rotten Worm Squad.

Once the Heart Rotten Worm Squad evolved into the Hook Heart Grub Infant and gradually moved toward the humanoid undead species, its appearance would certainly change for the better.

Yan Yubanruo, watching the Heart Rotten Worm Squad and Stealth Stinger Spirit, first released her Ghost Flame to suppress the two.

Once she was sure that the Heart Rotten Worm Squad and Stealth Stinger Spirit had submitted to her aura, Yan Yubanruo lifted her hand and released two White Paper Men.

The White Paper Men were first stamped onto the bodies of the Heart Rotten Worm Squad and Stealth Stinger Spirit, then the White Paper Men ignited into Ghost Flame.

They infiltrated the bodies of the Heart Rotten Worm Squad and Stealth Stinger Spirit, thus gaining control over the two.

Fang Mu walked to the side of the Heart Rotten Worm Squad, then directly poured the Blood Aged Wine onto its body.

The fresh blood quickly seeped into the body of the Heart Rotten Worm Squad.

Before Fang Mu could react, the Heart Rotten Worm Squad suddenly began to shake violently, as if it were in a fit.

Only a few tentacles would occasionally emerge from the Heart Rotten Worm Squad, but now hundreds of flexible squirming tentacles were sticking out all at once.

This scene instinctively made Fang Mu think of a delicious dish his old mother used to make, Eels in Tofu!

Chapter 632: Exclusive Feature: Curse Bone Coin!_1

The Heart Rotten Worm Squad writhed out chaotic tendrils, incessantly stirring together.

The tendrils on top were clearly much stronger than the ones on the bottom, pulling the lower ones upward.

In less than a minute, all the tendrils of the Heart Rotten Worm Squad gathered at the top.

The lower body of the Heart Rotten Worm Squad inflated as if filled with air.

Only with a closer look did Fang Mu realized there was a membrane encompassing the purple-red flesh ball.

Suddenly this membrane split open from the middle, directly tearing the purple-red rotten flesh along with it.

A multitude of tendrils spasmodically convulsed at this moment.

The scene was one-third ghastly, one-third terrifying, and one-third nauseating.

Just as Fang Mu was about to look away, a soft whimper emitted from within the Heart Rotten Worm Squad.

A face of a pale delicate infant peeked out from the center of the flesh ball, followed by two little arms.

The arms and face were all the same color, a bloodless pallor.

The moment this delicate infant opened its eyes, numerous tendrils rushed towards its fingertips.

In the blink of an eye, these fingertips formed into purple-red slender nails.

The tips of the nails bent, much like hooks.

Seeing this, Fang Mu knew that after feeding the Heart Rotten Worm Squad with Blood Aged Wine, a copious amount of Soul of Death, and Pure Dead Air, it had begun its evolution towards becoming the Hook Heart Grub Infant.

As the quality of Fang Mu's Destiny Guardian Beast – the Blood of Abundance – improved, Fang Mu obtained the Blood Aged Wine at an accelerating rate.

The amount of blood Fang Mu injected into the Blood of Abundance every few days increased.

This made Fang Mu increasingly generous when using Blood Aged Wine.

The large amounts of Blood Aged Wine, Soul of Death, and Pure Dead Air allowed the Heart Rotten Worm Squad, originally at rank six of the Copper Stage, to advance abruptly to the Silver Stage at rank one.

Even its quality upgraded from Perfect Quality and crossed the threshold of Epic Quality.

Fang Mu used the Eye of Omniscience to investigate the Hook Heart Grub Infant.

[Beast Name]: Hook Heart Grub Infant

[Beast Species]: Worm Corpse/Cluster Corpse Species

[Beast Level]: Silver Stage (1/10)

[Beast Element]: Undying

[Beast Potential]: Gold

[Beast Quality]: Epic Quality

Skills:

[Heart Touching Whip]: Extend tendrils to strike the target, causing severe damage to the target's spirit while physically assaulting them, weakening the opponent's mental defenses (when the target's mental defenses fall to their lowest, a whip mark can be attached to the target with a probability).

[Chaotic Heart Claw]: Aggressively strike the target's spirit with clawed fingers, confusing the target's psyche. In this state of confusion, not only their mental defenses will drop, but they will also indiscriminately attack all targets except Hook Heart Grub Infant.

Exclusive Traits:

[Life Burning Slavery]: When the whip marks inside the target reach a certain quantity, they can cause the target to revolt, burning the life energy within them and making them fight for its sake.

[Corpse Puppet]: Inject its own psychic energy into corpses and control them. For each corpse controlled by psychic energy, its own psychic energy recovery effect will improve.

Evolutionary Path:

①: Heart-hooking Female, ②: Heart-eroding Cluster, ③: Venomous Violent Infant.

Upon this inspection, Fang Mu's appreciation for the Hook Heart Grub Infant increased several fold compared to before.

Indeed, the Hook Heart Grub Infant did not let Fang Mu's expectations down. All abilities it had obtained in terms of skills and exclusive traits were related to the psyche.

This was very rare in Fang Mu's view.

Of course, the direction of acquiring these skills and exclusive traits further demonstrated the potential of the Hook Heart Grub Infant.

If Elder Bright Edge of the Luminous Snake Clan were asked to evaluate the Hook Heart Grub Infant now, he would undoubtedly place it among the top-notch Undead Species Guardian Beast.

The silver-grade skill of the Hook Heart Grub Infant, the [Chaotic Heart Claw], referred to its hook-like purple-red claws.

Yan Yubanruo was researching the Hook Heart Grub Infant and had made it constantly perform the [Chaotic Heart Claw] several times.

[Chaotic Heart Claw] was different from the copper-grade skill [Heart Touching Whip].

[Heart Touching Whip] needed to strike the target's body physically to take effect.

When the Hook Heart Grub Infant used [Chaotic Heart Claw], the shadow of its claw could easily extend within a five-meter radius.

Within those five meters, it was the attack area of [Chaotic Heart Claw]!

As the Hook Heart Grub Infant continued to advance its rank, the attack range of [Chaotic Heart Claw] would continue to expand.

[Chaotic Heart Claw], when attacking the target's spirit, could make the target to enter a state of chaos, lowering the defenses of their psyche.

This feature, in combination with [Heart Touching Whip] and the exclusive characteristic [Life-Burning Slavery], would bring about a perfect combination to undermine the psychological defenses of the target.

Since the target confused by [Chaotic Heart Claw] would indiscriminately attack other targets except the Heart Hook Grub Infant.

Although this would have a certain impact on its own side, in a ring fight, the benefits definitely outweighed the harm!

The [Corpse Puppet], an exclusive characteristic the Hook Heart Grub Infant obtained after promotion to Epic Quality, allows it to use surrounding corpses effectively.

Once its psychic energy is injected into a corpse, it would be controlled by the Hook Heart Grub Infant.

The stronger the corpse was in its lifetime, the more psychic energy the Hook Heart Grub Infant needed to control it.

But this exclusive characteristic, [Corpse Puppet], can enhance the number of corpses controlled, thereby improving the regeneration of the Hook Heart Grub Infant's psychic energy.

This is equivalent to subtly enhancing the Hook Heart Grub Infant's endurance, making it more suitable to engage in protracted battles.

Chapter 633: Exclusive Feature: Curse Bone Coin!_2

If there were many low-rank corpses around, controlling these corpses with mental energy would not consume much of the Hook Heart Grub Infant's mental energy.

Instead, it could greatly increase the effect of the Hook Heart Grub Infant restoring its mental energy, turning it into a pump filled with mental energy.

Allowing the Hook Heart Grub Infant to have more mental energy to control powerful corpses.

If the Hook Heart Grub Infant hadn't been captured by the Luminous Snake Clan and allowed to evolve freely, it could absolutely become a lord-like entity in the tide of the undead.

Although Yan Yubanruo had been studying the Hook Heart Grub Infant, he was obviously more interested in the Stealth Stinger Spirit.

His eyes fell on the Stealth Stinger Spirit occasionally, not hiding his bias at all.

Fang Mu picked up the Blood Aged Wine and walked over to the Stealth Stinger Spirit, shaking the Blood Aged Wine in his hand at the Stealth Stinger Spirit, who hadn't even concealed itself and was hidden in the shadows.

In the state of a spiritual body, the spiritual intelligence of an undead Guardian Beast is much higher than that of other states of undead Guardian Beast.

The Stealth Stinger Spirit greedily looked at the Blood Aged Wine held in Fang Mu's hand.

The Stealth Stinger Spirit could instinctively feel that consuming the Blood Aged Wine would be extremely beneficial to it.

But the Stealth Stinger Spirit held back its instinctive urge. It looked at Yan Yubanruo, seeking his opinion.

Seeing this, Yan Yubanruo was very pleased and nodded gently at the Stealth Stinger Spirit.

Only after getting permission did the Stealth Stinger Spirit take the cup from Fang Mu's hand and began to drink the Blood Aged Wine.

Fang Mu then took out a Soul of Death and let the Stealth Stinger Spirit absorb it freely.

As for the pure Dead Qi, it had already been given to the Stealth Stinger Spirit by Yan Yubanruo before the Stealth Stinger Spirit drank the Blood Aged Wine.

Fang Mu could see the path of the Blood Aged Wine as it entered the Stealth Stinger Spirit's body.

The dark red, slightly gold Blood Aged Wine changed its color as soon as it circulated through the Stealth Stinger Spirit's body.

The fierce aura on the Stealth Stinger Spirit became a bit stronger.

Seeing this, Fang Mu was delighted.

The heavier the fierce aura on the Stealth Stinger Spirit, the stronger its concealment effect would be when it released the fierce aura to the surrounding environment with the skill [Stealth Stab].

Moreover, the fierce aura could also increase the release amount of the exclusive feature [Evil Spirit Mark].

Seeing that half a bottle of Blood Aged Wine only increased the Stealth Stinger Spirit's fierce aura and did not cause the Stealth Stinger Spirit's bloodline to evolve, Fang Mu took out another bottle of Blood Aged Wine for the Stealth Stinger Spirit to drink.

After the Stealth Stinger Spirit drank more than half of the bottle of Blood Aged Wine, Fang Mu suddenly felt that the phantom of the Stealth Stinger Spirit had completely disappeared before his eyes.

Seeing this, Fang Mu immediately knew that the Stealth Stinger Spirit had successfully evolved into the Stealthy Hidden One.

Through his normal eyes, Fang Mu could not see the changes in the Stealth Stinger Spirit after it evolved.

But through the primal divine ability of the Fool's Shadow, the Eye of Omniscience, Fang Mu saw the Stealth Stinger Spirit after evolution cloaked in a half-grey cloak.

A pair of dry, thin hands were exposed, tightly gripping a dagger formed from a spirit body.

This small body carried a white bone scythe on its back that was larger than itself.

A coin was hanging on the bone scythe, with complex and strange patterns carved on both sides of the coin.

To Fang Mu, this looked incredibly cool.

If the data from the Hook Heart Grub Infant was a peach-sized surprise for Fang Mu, then the Stealth Stinger Spirit gave him a watermelon-sized surprise.

[Beast Name]:Stealthy Hidden One

[Beast Species]:Spirit Class/Killer Spirit

[Beast Level]:Silver Rank (1/10)

[Beast Element]:Undying

[Beast Potential]:Gold

[Beast Quality]: Legendary

Skill:

[Stealth Stab]:Conceal your own aura, release the fierce aura into the surrounding environment to hide yourself, charge for a powerful attack. When other Guardian Beasts release their aura, your own concealment effect will be enhanced.

[Doom Scythe]:Gather the fierce aura back to show your trail, cut the bone scythe behind you to cause massive damage to the target, and apply the white bone effect to the target. If you kill the opponent in one hit, you can absorb the fierce aura on the target. If you don't kill the target in one hit, you will immediately disperse the fierce aura and enter stealth.

Exclusive Traits:

[Evil Spirit Mark]:Mark the living with the fierce aura, and you can choose to teleport to a mark after each attack.

[Barrier Breaking Sense]:When attacking, you can effectively judge the target's weak points and prioritize attacking the weak points.

[Curse Bone Coin]:Each time you attack an opponent, the Curse Bone Coin will flip randomly.

① Front side: Enhance your charging ability.

② Back side: There's a chance to apply the white bone effect to the target. If the target already has the white bone effect, it will enhance the effect of the white bone effect on the target.

Evolutionary Path:

①: Grey Fog Hermit, ②: Blood Thorns Fell Spirit, ③: Dream-entering Fell Spirit.

Because the Stealth Stinger Spirit drank more Blood Aged Wine, not only did its rank rise from the original Copper Rank seven to Silver Rank one,

But its quality also went up from Epic Quality to Legendary Quality.

Fang Mu knew how hard it is for a Guardian Beast to go from Epic Quality to Legendary Quality.

The Stealth Stinger Spirit was able to easily raise its quality to Legendary Quality because of its excellent initial state.

Chapter 634: Exclusive Feature: Curse Bone Coin!_3

The Stealth Stinger Spirit was not far from Legendary Quality in its own right.

Consider this: even after nurturing the Giant Brutal Butcher for so long, Fang Mu still had not been able to cross the final threshold into Legendary Quality!

The Stealthy Hidden One's Silver Grade Skill [Doom Scythe] added the ability for the Stealthy Hidden One to battle across tiers.

Even if others wanted to achieve such a breakthrough with their Cultivating Beasts, it would be extremely hard, even with purposeful cultivation.

However, with Fang Mu's beast nurturing, every single one of his Guardian Beasts possessed the ability to fight across tiers.

This, in part, had to do with Fang Mu's Beast Cultivating method.

Fang Mu always provided the top quality resources for his Cultivating Beasts.

Even a holy Grandmaster Creator wouldn't be able to give better resources to the Cultivating Beasts than Fang Mu!

On the other hand, this also had much to do with the Blood Aged Wine Fang Mu brewed from his own blood.

Fang Mu was always curious as he was just a mortal. Even though he brewed his own blood using the Blood of Abundance from his Destiny Guardian Beast, shouldn't his blood have such a potent effect!?

Logically speaking, the appearance of [Doom Scythe], a skill that allowed the Stealthy Hidden One to reveal itself and attack, shouldn't make Fang Mu happy.

This was contrary to the Stealthy Hidden One's position as an assassin.

However, after using [Doom Scythe], if the Stealthy Hidden One managed to kill its opponent, it could absorb the opponent's fierce energy to enhance its own ability to conceal and increase the number of [Evil Spirit Mark] it can impose.

If it failed to kill the target, the Stealthy Hidden One would disperse all the fierce energy on its body, enter the hidden state, and not lose its ability as an assassin.

This greatly ensured the safety of the Stealthy Hidden One.

Furthermore, [Doom Scythe] could apply a bone effect on the target.

The bone effect was a kind of curse power conducted with Dead Qi.

Once the target was affected by the bone effect, it would make the damage from attacks by undead creatures more severe and put the target into a sluggish state for a certain period of time.

This ability would not have any amplifying effect on Elemental Guardian Beasts.

However, all creatures used by Fang Mu Yama, without exception, were from the Undead Species.

The bone effect applied to the target by the Stealthy Hidden One through the [Doom Scythe] skill gave Fang Mu's other Guardian Beasts the chance to battle across tiers.

They could make an extremely high amount of damage in an instant when working together!

The exclusive feature [Curse Bone Coin] that the Stealthy Hidden One obtained when it advanced to Legendary Quality fundamentally enhanced the strategic significance of the Stealthy Hidden One.

Every attack made by the Stealthy Hidden One allowed the [Curse Bone Coin] to flip once randomly. Each time the coin lands face up, it boosted the Stealthy Hidden One's charging ability slightly, making its next attack stronger.

Each time the coin landed face down, there was a chance of adding a bone effect to the target.

The exact probabilities could only be determined through testing, but generally, the higher the rank of the Guardian Beast, the lower the probability of adding the bone effect would be.

What's more, when attacking those already affected by the bone effect, it would upgrade the existing bone effect.

This would deepen the effect of the bone effect on the target.

It could be said that the Stealthy Hidden One, when facing a target already affected by the bone effect, would increase the chances of defeating stronger opponents every time it triggered the [Curse Bone Coin] to flip face down.

Without waiting for Yan Yubanruo to investigate the abilities of the Stealthy Hidden One, Fang Mu immediately issued his own command to the Stealthy Hidden One.

He directed the Stealthy Hidden One to target the Armored Pig, which he had just summoned.

The Armored Pig was a Guardian Beast that She Wan had specifically bought for Fang Mu when she was purchasing resources for him in Rock Peak City.

The Armored Pig was not only tender and delicious, but it was also commonly used as a test subject for Guardian Beasts in the Panfeng Federation.

Its strengths lay in its defensive capabilities, incredible regeneration power, and reduced sensitivity to pain.

Fang Mu had the Stealthy Hidden One directly attack the gold-tier Armored Pig.

After one hundred attacks, Fang Mu found that when the Stealthy Hidden One activated the exclusive feature [Curse Bone Coin], the chance of flipping to the back was only 20%.

Only six out of those twenty times were successful in adding the bone effect to the target.

That was to say, when the Stealth Hidden One fought against a higher-ranking opponent, the probability of successfully attaching the bone effect was only six percent.

Each time the Curse Bone Coin's face-up effect increased the damage of the Stealth Hidden One's next attack by two to three percent.

Seeing the Armored Pig with a butt full of sores, Fang Mu gave up on testing the Stealthy Hidden One.

The Stealthy Hidden One, now at the Silver rank one of legendary quality, could easily break through the defenses of a gold-tiered Guardian Beast in an attack.

Fang Mu was currently outside the Dragon Rising Federation, therefore he couldn't connect to the Battle Network through his Dream Beast.

If he could, Fang Mu would have loved to test the practical effects of the Hook Heart Grub Infant and the Stealthy Hidden One in the Battle Network under the identity of Yan Luo.

After cultivating the Undead Species Guardian beast which he had acquired from a trade with the Luminous Snake Clan, Fang Mu peacefully returned to his room to rest.

He prepared himself to go to the Royal Court tomorrow to welcome the start of this chaos

...

Sixteen men and women in fine clothes were seated in the hall of a hotel.

Each of these people wore a badge on their chest. The badge was made of golden jadeite and was inlaid with silver wire into the shape of a green bear's head glowing with fluorescence.

Even if one didn't know what this badge represented, they would still conclude that these people were no ordinary individuals just by the emblem!

One of the refined-looking middle-aged men spoke to the muscular old man sitting next to him.

"Second Elder, we have indeed heeded your instructions and did some looting last night!"

"However, it seems we all lost our memories for a period, and somehow returned to the hotel in a daze!"

"I can't recall anything that happened along the way!"

As he spoke, the refined middle-aged man subconsciously clenched his legs and straightened his spine.

The middle-aged man had already asked everyone who was with him at the time, they all had had an unspeakable dream during the time they lost their memories.

The middle-aged man did not dare to describe the specific content of the dream to the Second Elder.

Upon hearing this, the old man slapped the armrest of the sofa forcefully, making a loud noise.

All the hotel workers saw this yet no one dared to intervene.

The Green Bear Clan was the top clan of the Crazy Beast Federation, which had a newly promoted Master Creator in its charge.

The Crazy Beast Federation and the Panfeng Federation had always been old neighbours. Although they had no conflicts, there was not much cooperation between them either.

As usual, the Panfeng Federation was used to submitting to the Crazy Beast Federation.

The Grandmaster Creator seated at the Crazy Beast Federation had brought development that the Panfeng Federation couldn't even catch up with!

It was rumored that the new Master Creator of the Green Bear Clan used to be under the guidance of the Grandmaster Creator of the Crazy Beast Federation, and was considered his half disciple.

Even if the people of the Green Bear Clan tore down the hotel, the people who were sent by the Qingdian Clan to manage the hotel dared not intervene.

"Nonsense! How can you not remember anything that happened to you!?"

"I have explored you, the souls of each of you are intact!"

Upon hearing the old man's words, the middle-aged man groaned secretly.

The Second Elder was the most covetous and violent, where would he dare to deceive the Second Elder?

There was no one in the clan who had deceived the Second Elder and ended up well!

Just as the middle-aged man was about to argue, he suddenly felt a heat wave in his body.

It was as if his heart had turned into a furnace and was burning fiercely.

The refined middle-aged man was about to raise his hand to cover his chest when he realized that his hands had melted like wax at some unknown point.

All the people who went out last night were in the same state now.

The middle-aged man was about to scream when he melted completely.

To the hotel workers, it seemed like the Second Elder of the Green Bear Clan was angry, and he executed all the clan members.

The Second Elder of the Green Bear Clan was so ruthless!

Those were all Beast Masters with sequential Guardian Beasts!

What did the Second Elder of the Green Bear Clan do exactly?

The Second Elder of the Green Bear Clan has just killed everyone who came from the clan, how will he explore the large ancient battlefield now?

Since the Second Elder of the Green Bear Clan sat on the sofa with his back facing the hotel staff, they couldn't see the shock in his eyes.

Chapter 635: Bingxiao!_1

At this point, the Second Elder of the Green Bear Clan was already trembling like a sieve due to unknown fear.

An eerie, ghostly scream erupted from the mouth of the Green Bear Clan's Second Elder.

After that shriek, the Second Elder of the Green Bear Clan hastily ran towards the hotel staff.

He grabbed a hotel employee and then fell onto his bottom.

Seeing this, the hotel staff realized that the incident just now was not the doing of the Green Bear Clan's Second Elder.

Otherwise, the Green Bear Clan's Second Elder wouldn't have been so terrified.

The manager shot a glance at the other employees, then hurried off to report the incident.

A towering man adorned in ancient bronze armor frowned upon hearing the manager's report.

The situation sounded too bizarre; such odd occurrences shouldn't exist in the world!

Those were a group of Hexagram Beastmasters!

However, as strange as it was, the towering man dressed in the ancient bronze armor did not take it to heart.

The Royal Court's annual gathering was happening tomorrow.

As a member of the Qingdian Clan's side branches, the man in the bronze armor clearly understood the internal chaos of his clan.

The clan leader, Huang Yuan, was acting strangely recently. Many direct descendants were punished for invoking Huang Yuan's ire.

There's no need to report such an odd situation at the moment.

Ever since various powers gathered in Rock Peak City, troubles have sprung up everywhere.

Especially those malicious forces, constantly causing one bizarre incident after another.

He had reported many such incidents before, but the clan had no heart to manage them.

Besides, those forces were beyond the management of the Qingdian Clan.

The Green Bear Clan's Second Elder witnessed the whole incident. Even if all members of the Green Bear Clan died, they wouldn't blame the Qingdian Clan, nor would the Crazy Beast Federation.

Thus, the towering man in ancient bronze armor gave his command.

"Take good care of the Green Bear Clan's Second Elder. Once he recovers from his shock, let him decide if he still wants to join the exploration of the ancient battlefield."

"You don't have to worry about anything else."

Hearing this command from the towering man, the manager nodded.

He immediately returned to the hotel to deal with the aftermath.

At this moment, Qin Shao was inspecting his face in a mirror, again applying the face cream he received from Fang Mu.

After applying the cream to her own face, Qin Shao began helping Jin Ya do the same, while reminding her,

“Xiao Ya, despite your young age, you should still take care of your skin!”

“Skincare is something you should do sooner rather than later!”

While saying this, Qin Shao sighed deeply.

“If I had this cream when I was your age, my skin could probably still pass for eighteen or nineteen years old.”

Jin Ya did not cherish her complexion as Qin Shao did. She valued power more than her appearance.

As a noble lady of an ancient inheritance tribe, Jin Ya was not overly arrogant, but she always held herself in high regard.

There were few people her age who could catch her eye.

Yet, in her few days of contact with Fang Mu, Jin Ya realized that his ability to handle situations far surpassed her own.

Despite his young age, he was able to cooperate and manipulate a Beastmaster Tribe.

Beyond this, apart from the Luminous Snake Clan, Fang Mu had manipulated those who were prepared to explore the ancient battlefield.

Merely being a disciple of a Grandmaster Creator couldn't possibly achieve this, could it!?

Speaking of a Grandmaster Creator's disciple, it was not as if Jin Ya had not seen one before.

The disciples of Grandmaster Creators and Fang Mu gave her completely different feelings.

Fang Mu was becoming more and more mysterious in Jin Ya's eyes, fueling her desire to unravel him.

Due to a thick layer of cream on her face applied by Qin Shao, the latter failed to notice the change in Jin Ya's expression.

At this moment, Qin Shao no longer intended to matchmake Jin Ya and Fang Mu.

Unless Fang Mu himself was interested in a woman, he would probably not take interest in anyone forcefully pushed towards him.

Qin Shao had realized that Fang Mu, unlike ordinary youths, had a complete set of his own ideas.

She had already formed a cooperative relationship with Fang Mu using the Radiant Golden Honey.

Deepening the relationship with Fang Mu through cooperation would be much safer than through emotions.

As for the group that blocked their way today, they should have melted away by now!

Those who dared to rob Fang Mu and her would not be simply let go by Qin Shao.

Those people must die!

Qin Shao didn't care where the group was from.

Most of the forces operating in the mundane world were invisible to the Radiant Tribe.

That night, Fang Mu slept soundly, but Rock Peak City was anything but calm.

The Green Bear Clan of the Crazy Beast Federation, despite having a Master Creator, was not poor. Occasionally, they were also able to gain Grandmaster-level Creator resources due to their relationship with a Grandmaster creator.

The Green Bear Clan was not impoverished, but they were still fond of going out at night to acquire loot.

And they were not the only forces with such intention.

Chapter 636: Bingxiao!_2

The hunters who had gone out to hunt undead in the first half of the night had become prey for those power-hungry forces.

However, in the second half of the night, whether those forces had been eradicated or had heard some rumors, they did not enter the city because of exhaustion.

In any case, there were very few of these small forces inside the city that were easy to exploit.

So, those forces seeking to exploit others shifted their focus to their competition in the same industry, resulting in escalated conflicts.

The Qingdian Clan had to dispatch the Liangfeng Clan and two legions under the Qingdian Clan to intervene.

Their aim was to quell the storm with armed force.

No matter what, the Royal Court meeting was about to start. If an uncontrollable storm affected everyone in Rock Peak City at this time,

The Qingdian Clan would become a laughingstock amongst the major forces!

On the territory of the Panfeng Federation, the Qingdian Clan could act under the banner of the Ten-thousand Nations Federation.

This made the Qingdian Clan fearless in the face of foreign forces.

The Qingdian Clan believed that no force would be foolish enough to risk the consequences of the Ten-thousand Nations Federation and lay hands on the Qingdian Clan members.

Moreover, the direct descendants of the Qingdian Clan did not appear to solve this conflict, able to maintain the dignity of the Panfeng Federation's royal family.

The Qingdian Clan maintained the dignity of the Royal Family, but the Liangfeng Clan was extremely irritated.

The Liangfeng Clan had witnessed the tragic state of the Zhenyan Family.

The Liangfeng Clan and the Zhenyan Family had always been rivals. Logically, seeing the plight of the Zhenyan Family should have made the Liangfeng Clan happy.

However, all the core members of the Liangfeng Clan who were not foolish knew the principle of losing a common cause when one fails.

What the Qingdian Clan did to the Zhenyan Family, it could also do to the Liangfeng Clan.

The Luanyue Clan followed the instructions of the Qingdian Clan to take action against its allied forces, but it was not favored by the Qingdian Clan in the end.

This discovery made the hearts of the Liangfeng Clan's people sink.

The Liangfeng Clan once tried to move away from Rock Peak City and break away from the Panfeng Federation.

But the Qingdian Clan had been blocking the Liangfeng Clan all along.

When the Liangfeng Clan was collecting resources to prepare for migration, the Qingdian Clan had already blocked the Liangfeng Clan's industry and monitored the Liangfeng Clan.

Knowing that they had no power to oppose the Qingdian Clan, the Liangfeng Clan handed over all the clan resources to the Qingdian Clan.

They then concentrated their clan's strength and holed up in the old house.

The Qingdian Clan still refused to let go of the Liangfeng Clan, even after they had taken such a step.

Having the Liangfeng Clan resolve disputes like this at night clearly indicated that they were not given an opportunity to survive.

According to the stipulations of the Ten-thousand Nations Federation, only the royal power of the Federation is protected.

If these forces invaded Rock Peak City on their own, the Liangfeng Clan as a force of the Panfeng Federation would still have some sense of legitimacy to manage them.

But these forces were invited by the Qingdian Clan into Rock Peak City. In this case, the Liangfeng Clan is not protected by the Ten-thousand Nations Federation.

Why would these forces give face to the Liangfeng Clan!?

The Patriarch of the Liangfeng Clan, Tan Zhi, stood in the crowd, watching those forces that had gone bloodshot. He directly ordered the Liangfeng Clan's troops to cease their actions.

Then he let the two legions belonging to the Qingdian Clan step forward to resolve the dispute.

Tan Zhi did not want the Liangfeng Clan to make a futile sacrifice. It was most convenient for the Qingdian Clan's two legions to solve the problem at this time!

Even if the Legion suffered casualties, their side could still legitimately fly the banner of the Ten-thousand Nations Federation.

This time, he was originally the commander of the operation, but after Tan Zhi gave his command,

The two leaders of the Qingdian Clan's legions questioned Tan Zhi's instructions directly, refusing to act on his instructions.

This made Tan Zhi's anger uncontrollable, and he loudly declared,

"If you two legions won't take the lead, we will all drain our resources here today!"

"See how you explain when you go back!"

The main duty of Tan Zhi as a Clan Leader is to ensure the safety of the Liangfeng Clan.

If these two legion commanders tell Huang Yuan that the Liangfeng Clan did not take the lead in the situation, Huang Yuan will definitely not let the Liangfeng Clan go.

Tan Zhi has always been puzzled as to what Huang Yuan is thinking.

The Liangfeng Clan, the Zhenyan Family, and the Luanyue Clan were like the arms and legs of the Qingdian Clan.

How will the Qingdian Clan manage the vast Panfeng Federation after this storm having cut off its arms and legs!?

Tomorrow is the Royal Court gathering held by the Qingdian Clan.

Now that Huang Yuan has swung his slaughter blade towards the Liangfeng Clan, they must attempt to do something at this critical moment.

Tan Zhi subconsciously thought about whether he should take advantage of the night to have a chat with Zhang Hao, the old patriarch of the Luanyue Clan.

Just as this thought emerged, Tan Zhi hurriedly pushed it down.

It would not do to make trouble at this time.

Even though he had personally witnessed the Zhenyan Family being oppressed by the Qingdian Clan, he could not be certain about the true intentions of the Luanyue Clan.

Seeing that two legions under the Qingdian Clan had roughly gained control of the situation, Tan Zhi immediately stepped forward to take over.

Even though Tan Zhi had grown rebellious, he still had to maintain face with the Qingdian Clan!

All the powers truly feared the Ten-thousand Nations Federation. Who among those present would play along with the Qingdian Clan's arrangements if not for the Federation breathing down their necks?

They probably would have gone into the ancient battlefield to explore for themselves already!

A ray of dawn suddenly broke through the dark night over Rock Peak City.

With dawn arriving, some members from various powers chose to go out in the morning to sample the local delicacies of Rock Peak City.

The Qingdian Clan issued a strict order forbidding any shop in Rock Peak City from closing down.

Thus, these traders had no choice but to serve these "harbingers of death".

Most of the powers who did not want trouble stayed in their hotel rooms, fearing that going out might invite trouble.

The clashes between various factions within Rock Peak City in recent days had discouraged many powers, who no longer wished to explore the large-scale ancient battlefield.

If the collisions between the powers within Rock Peak City were this intense, they would probably get slaughtered by other powers the moment they arrived at the ancient battlefield before they even had the chance to explore!

Even now, bodies still appeared on the streets from time to time. Thankfully, they were quickly cleared away by designated personnel.

An elder in plain robes was looking out of the window with a somber expression, opening his mouth but unable to say a word.

He could only let out a long sigh in the end.

There was a sleeping teenager on the bed beside the old man.

Even though the youngster was fast asleep, a torrent of spiritual power was surging around him.

This spiritual power continuously gathered towards the young boy's head but never entered his brain to merge with his soul power.

Normally, a Beast Master would refine the spiritual power using their soul power.

It was like a pipe filled with water. No matter how much water is in the pipe and how fast it flows, it cannot get through if the pipe is blocked.

The water would then have to stay in the pipe.

If the water stayed in the pipe for a long time, it would cause the pipe to rust over time, and the water would slowly evaporate.

Seeing the time, the old man walked over to the bed and gently shook the boy awake.

It was only when the teenager opened his eyes that he was able to forcefully suppress this spiritual power within his body.

He rubbed his eyes and then looked at the old man with bright eyes, saying,

“Grandpa, when I go to the Royal Court of the Panfeng Federation today, will I be able to meet those powerful Creators who can help me merge with my Destiny Guardian Beast!?”

As he spoke, his face suddenly fell.

“Grandpa, I can sense Bingxiao’s aura getting weaker and weaker, like it can’t hold on much longer!”

“Bingxiao keeps telling me it’s in so much pain.”

“Grandpa, I really want Bingxiao to survive!”

Seeing Xiao Tuo’s reddening eyes, the old man’s heart ached as if it was being scratched by a blunt knife.

He wanted to console the boy, but judging by the current circumstances, it’s highly unlikely that they would meet a qualified Master Creator or Grandmaster Creator at the Royal Court of the Panfeng Federation.

How could those of such status set foot in such a chaotic place? It simply wasn’t befitting of the status of a Master Creator or a Grandmaster Creator.

The old man knew that if he gave Xiao Tuo too much hope now, it would be even harder for him to bear when the Destiny Guardian Beast dies!

But looking at the expectation and sadness in the boy's eyes, the old man couldn't find the words to say.

The old man took a deep breath, and with his usual encouraging tone, he said.

"Xiao Tuo, when we go to the Royal Court gathering of the Panfeng Federation this time, we will surely have a chance!"

"I'll take you for breakfast first, and we'll go to the Royal Court gathering one hour early in the afternoon."

"To have more opportunities to meet the Creators who also came to this Royal Court gathering."

Chapter 637: Witch School: Sequential Witch!_1

Fang Mu stretched leisurely after his awakening.

At first, Fang Mu found it quite uncomfortable allowing the Soul Ant Queen to drain his soul power every night before he slept.

That feeling of having one's soul emptied would cause anyone to pass out directly.

Fang Mu disliked losing control in this manner.

If not for the fact that this practice could not only enhance the strength of the Soul Ant Queen but also promote the growth of his own soul power.

Chances are, Fang Mu wouldn't let the Soul Ant Queen do as such.

Since obtaining Soul Ant from Shui Miao, several months have passed.

Fang Mu could distinctly feel the parasitic soul of the Soul Ant Queen growing significantly compared to his unpolluted one.

This led to an urge in Fang Mu to obtain another Soul Ant Queen to strengthen his other soul.

After drinking two bottles of elixirs to replenish soul power, Fang Mu took out the ancient tome.

Settling into his room's chair, he scrutinized the ancient tome thoroughly once more.

This time, Fang Mu paid particular attention to the unrecorded heart-shaped marks.

Although he hadn't learned the entire tome by heart, Fang Mu's memory served him well enough to remember a large part of it.

After all, once inside the large ancient battlefield, it wouldn't be easy to bring out the tome to chart a course anytime.

In the upcoming Royal Court congregation, Fang Mu, Shui Miao, and the others serve simply as supporting roles, aiming not to attract any faction's attention.

Thus, Fang Mu had no plans to wear any of the outfits designed by She Wan.

However, he certainly couldn't dress too plainly.

Out of respect for the royal family of the Panfeng Federation, the majority of the faction members will attend in their finest attire!

Fang Mu purposely chose a master-level tailor's outfit to wear.

Fang Mu, Shui Miao, Qin Shao, and Jin Ya had thoroughly reviewed all the details the day before, ensuring there would be no unexpected occurrences today.

Jin Ya seldom had the opportunity to participate in such affairs.

Among them, Jin Ya was undoubtedly the most eager and curious about this operation.

Checking the time, Fang Mu stepped out of his room.

At this point, Shui Miao, Qin Shao, and Jin Ya had also emerged from their rooms.

They had agreed to set off for the Royal Court an hour before the congregation began, as the journey would take nearly forty minutes.

Arriving twenty minutes in advance at the Royal Court was considered most appropriate.

The Luanyue Clan, with Clan Zhenyan, will likely arrive around this time as well.

Fang Mu could then keep an eye on the Luanyue Clan from a distance and prepare accordingly.

She Wan and Lu Xiaoyin had been stationed in the Mechanism Fortress as per Fang Mu's prior arrangement.

Given the Panfeng Federation's intense eagerness for the Soul of Death, they would surely discuss the exploration of the large ancient battlefield at the Royal Court congregation.

They were bound to collect Soul of Death as admission beforehand.

Fang Mu didn't want to relinquish hundreds of thousands of Souls of Death to the Qingdian Clan because he had two extra people in his team.

With the current turmoil inside Rock Peak City, the Qingdian Clan most likely hadn't anticipated things to reach this far.

With so many factions fighting and looting within the city each night.

The Qingdian Clan can only suppress the conflict under the name of the Ten-thousand Nations Federation when the scale of the conflict escalates to a certain extent.

The Qingdian Clan has already lost control over Rock Peak City, as most factions reduce their numbers upon entering the city.

A reduction on their side would make it appear more realistic.

Like Fang Mu, Shui Miao, Qin Shao, and Jin Ya were all wearing outfits made by master-level tailors.

In his youth, Qin Shao had been out and about, even disguising his identity at times.

As for wearing clothes made by a master-level tailor, Qin Shao didn't exhibit any odd behavior.

But Jin Ya felt distinctly uncomfortable in her attire.

As a noble lady of the ancient remains clan, Jin Ya had never worn such poor-quality clothing before.

Seeing this, Qin Shao lightly placed his hand on Jin Ya's shoulder and whispered.

"Stay calm, Xiao Ya. Otherwise, people will see through your disguise!"

Qin Shao suddenly felt that bringing Jin Ya along with Fang Mu for this experience was a correct decision.

After this experience, if there's a chance, he should send Jin Ya out for some real-world encounters, rather than keeping her cooped up in the magnificent castle.

Many faction members in the hotel had already left their rooms, with the majority of them dressing much more extravagantly than Fang Mu and his crew.

Some factions even adorned their spiritual instruments as decoration, flaunting their riches and power.

Seeing Fang Mu and the others, these factions sized up their outfits and displayed a hint of disdain.

However, no faction would stir trouble at this moment.

Firstly, causing a fuss during this critical time would disrespect the Qingdian Clan.

Secondly, all factions have their pride. Looting under the cover of night was seen as a form of income generation.

But if they were to attack other faction members in broad daylight, then it would become daylight robbery!

Just as Fang Mu was about to leave the hotel's first-floor lobby, a flurry of noises came from behind.

Turning around, he found that most people voluntarily cleared a path.

Fang Mu hurriedly moved to the side along with the crowd, making way.

He was intrigued to see which faction commanded such an influence!

Shui Miao was about to pull Fang Mu aside but unexpectedly, Fang Mu had already moved out of the way.

Chapter 638: Witch School: Sequential Witch!_2

This made Shui Miao discover another quality in Fang Mu.

He is flexible in handling matters and can actively humble himself for the sake of the plan!

There was a man and a woman holding hands in front of Fang Mu.

Upon hearing the uproarious sound, the man and woman did not immediately turn their heads.

When they finally decided to look back, two tentacles like those of octopuses had already wound around their necks.

In their panic, the man and woman immediately summoned their Destiny Guidebook.

But before they could exercise their spiritual power, two more tentacles—made up of spiritual power—had emerged from the original ones.

These spiritual tentacles climbed onto the summoned Destiny Guidebook and wound tightly around it.

Almost instantly, the man and woman lost all sense of their Destiny Guidebook.

The man and woman were unable to summon the Guardian Beast from the Destiny Guidebook by means of spiritual power.

“Hehehe, there are vermin standing in my way!”

“Perfect, I will feed them to the Void Beast inside of me.”

This pleasing and beguiling laughter rang in the air

But behind this laughter, the lives of two formidable individuals hung in the balance.

Fang Mu raised his eyebrows and saw four tall women in purple and black robes and huge hats, strutting alluringly towards them from not too far away.

Each of the four women had a unique charm, their bodies completely wrapped in the purple-black robes.

Those two tentacles had shot out from the robe of the woman leading the group.

Looking through the crack in the robe, more tentacles could be seen squirming slowly.

The four women took the man and the woman and walked onto the streets of Rock Peak City without a pause in their steps.

The two physical tentacles burrowed into the necks of the man and the woman.

The tentacles were so tight that the man and the woman could not even groan in pain.

The two other tentacles, transformed from spiritual power, also plunged into the Destiny Guidebook and began to devour it.

Very quickly, corners of the two Destiny Guidebooks had been eaten away by the tentacles.

Daring to do such a thing right on the streets of Rock Peak City, it was clear that these women didn't take the Panfeng Federation seriously.

They were not afraid that other influential forces would intervene and stop their actions.

It wasn't until the four women had gone that the other people dared to leave the hotel.

Even after leaving the hotel, people deliberately slowed their pace, hoping to keep a distance from these four women.

Fang Mu was very curious about the methods and identities of these four women.

Even before Fang Mu could ask his question, Shui Miao had started explaining to him.

“Ah Mu, these four are from the Witch School. I never imagined that they would be staying in the hotel where we reside!”

Hearing the explanation, Fang Mu quickly memorized the name of this faction—Witch School.

Fang Mu continued to listen as Shui Miao spoke.

“Within the Witch School, there are two big categories: Sequential Witches and War Witches.”

“Sequential Witches are further divided into Void Beast Witches and Spirit Witches.”

“War Witches are then subdivided into Pursuit Witches, Butcher Witches, and Calamity Witches.”

Upon hearing Shui Miao's introduction to the Witch School, Fang Mu felt somewhat dizzy.

Witches are in five small categories and two large ones, indicating that the Witch School is quite a considerable faction!

The witch just now mentioned the term "Void Beast", so she should belong to the Void Beast Witches in the Sequential Witches category.

Upon hearing Shui Miao's explanation to Fang Mu, Qin Shao chimed in.

"War Witches, like normal Beast Masters, contract Guardian Beasts."

"The difference lies in their roles, which vary greatly depending on the abilities of the Guardian Beasts they contract."

"Their names should give you a clear idea of their capabilities."

Saying this, Qin Shao's face turned solemn and she spoke in a serious tone.

"The really mysterious ones in the Witch School are the two branches of Sequential Witches."

“The Witch School controls the portal to the Void, from where they can procure infant Void Beasts.”

“Then they let those infant Void Beasts contract with the Void Beast Witches, with the witches becoming the “mothers” of the Void Beasts and raising them.”

“Upon contracting with the Void Beast Witch, the Void Beasts consider her as their mother and protect her.”

“Regardless of a Beast Master’s talent, once she becomes a Void Beast Witch, the Void Beast will never allow her to contract with other Guardian Beasts.”

“If a Void Beast Witch attempts to contract with other Guardian Beasts, the Void Beast will go berserk.”

“It would not only kill the Guardian Beasts that the Void Beast Witch contracted, but also severely affect the Void Beast Witch herself.”

Fang Mu could not help feeling amazed at the wonders of the Beastmaster World upon hearing Qin Shao’s explanation.

This was the first time Fang Mu had heard the term “Void Beast”. From what Qin Shao said, Fang Mu had a rough understanding that Void Beasts could be considered as a kind of Guardian Beast living in the Void.

However, compared to normal Guardian Beasts, Void Beasts must have very mysterious abilities.

Otherwise, the witches would not have to give up on contracting regular Guardian Beasts for the sake of a single Void Beast!

However, Fang Mu was still quite curious about the Void Beast. He turned to Qin Shao and asked.

“Aunt Shao, do you have any way of obtaining a Void Beast?”

“My master never really told me much about Void Beasts before.”

Upon hearing this, Qin Shao immediately shook her head.

“Ah Mu, the method of getting a Void Beast is tightly controlled by the Witch School, and there has been no rumor about them exchanging Void Beasts with other factions.”

Chapter 639: Witch School: Sequential Witch!_3

“One would only have the chance to sign a contract with a Void Beast in its juvenile stage by joining the Witch School and becoming a Void Beast Witch!”

As Qin Shao was speaking, his line of thought suddenly changed.

“Even though a Void Beast is hard to obtain, there is still a way to obtain the Spirit of Hero a Spirit Witch contracts with!”

“If I’m not mistaken, the group of four witches we saw earlier consists of three Sequential Witches and a War Witch.”

“The War Witch, identified by the light purple cat’s eye embroidered on her purple-black robe, should be a Pursuit Witch.”

“They were positioned in a diamond shape with the Void Beast Witch leading and the Pursuit Witch following.”

“Based on the rank of a Sequential Witch, a Void Beast Witch holds a somewhat higher status than a Spirit Witch.”

“This group of witches most likely consists of a Void Beast Witch, two Spirit Witches, and a Pursuit Witch.”

Shui Miao felt no displeasure when Qin Shao seized the lead in the conversation.

After Qin Shao finished explaining the situation of the witches to Fang Mu, Shui Miao supplemented the missing parts.

“This large ancient battlefield must have buried many powerful beings. Some of their souls dissipated after death, while others were preserved.”

“Over the long span of time, these preserved souls have turned into extremely cunning and vicious Evil Spirits.”

“The soul of such an evil spirit is powerful and can attach itself to anything.”

“Upon contact with other life forms, they can subtly take control.”

“And this is only the ability of a low-level Evil Spirit. Advanced Evil Spirits can even possess physical forms.”

“After catching these Evil Spirits, the Witch School uses special soul materials and high-purity Light Element potions to cleanse the spirits.”

“They eliminate the malice within the Evil Spirit, turning it into a Spirit of Hero to contract with.”

“Contracting with a Spirit of Hero doesn’t have as many restrictions as contracting with a Void Beast.”

“The only downside to contracting with a Spirit of Hero is the large consumption of spiritual power.”

“But unlike training a little bit at a time for Contract Beasts, contracting with a Spirit of Hero boasts immediate increases in strength at a high level.”

“Furthermore, a Spirit of Hero can continually evolve and tap into its potential by devouring Light Elemental Energy and Soul Energy.”

At this point, Shui Miao looked at Qin Shao.

“Your brilliant clan should have a method to create Spirits of Heroes from Evil Spirits, right?!”

In Shui Miao’s impression, some Ancient Heritage Clans would attempt to turn the souls of their ancestors into Spirits of Heroes.

However, these people from the Ancient Heritage Clans would not contract with the Spirits of Heroes formed from their ancestors, but instead let them inhabit statues to protect their clans.

Shui Miao wasn't sure if the brilliant clan had done this, but they undoubtedly had a method to create Spirits of Heroes.

Otherwise, they wouldn't be worthy of being called an Ancient Heritage Clan!

Being very circumspect, Shui Miao boldly suggested that Qin Shao's brilliant clan had a method for refining Evil Spirits into Spirits of Heroes.

This was because Shui Miao believed that since Fang Mu had restored Qin Shao's lifespan, the brilliant clan would definitely hope to befriend Fang Mu.

In this way, they would have more opportunities to increase their lifespan through Fang Mu.

To take the initiative to mention this matter under these circumstances, Shui Miao felt that it wasn't offensive to the brilliant clan and instead was a help to them.

As far as Shui Miao was concerned, Fang Mu also possessed the capability to refine Evil Spirits into Spirits of Heroes.

Since Fang Mu could easily take a high-purity Light Element Potion to deal with the Luminous Snake Clan, he could also obtain a high-purity Light Element Potion from Qixing for refining Spirits of Heroes.

Spirits of Heroes are very powerful. If Fang Mu could contract with a Spirit of Hero or if Qixing arranged for a guard to contract with a Spirit of Hero for Fang Mu,

This would ensure Fang Mu's safety to the greatest extent.

Upon hearing Shui Miao's words, Qin Shao openly nodded and said,

"Not only do we have two methods in our brilliant clan for refining Spirits of Heroes, but we also have the accompanying soul materials."

“Ah Shui, Ah Mu, if you need it, I can arrange resources from the brilliant clan for you!”

Not only did Qin Shao want to establish a relationship with Fang Mu on behalf of the brilliant clan but he also wanted to befriend the Pavilion Master of the Twelve Pavilion, Shui Miao.

The Twelve Pavilion is considered to be one of the top information organizations in the Main World.

If the brilliant clan can maintain a good relationship with the Twelve Pavilion, they will have a channel to trade information with them in the future.

Fang Mu, after listening to Qin Shao and Shui Miao’s explanations, gained a clear understanding of Sequential Witches and Spirits of Heroes from the Witch School.

Fang Mu took a keen interest in Spirits of Heroes.

Since a Beast Master could contract a Spirit of Hero through spiritual power, he might be able to do so too through the use of Covenant Blood Essence.

By contracting a Spirit of Hero and a high-level polluting material, Fang Mu’s overall strength would undoubtedly increase significantly.

After gradually learning more about the Beastmaster world, Fang Mu realized that a Beast Master’s rank does not constrain his strength.

If they were to truly fight, Fang Mu would not fear those Hexagram Beastmasters who do not have Sequential Guardian Beasts now.

Even for those Hexagram Beastmasters who own Sequential Nine Guardian Beasts, Fang Mu holds his own in terms of intrinsic strength.

Of course, these are the secret measures and cards Fang Mu holds that will not be revealed unless absolutely necessary.

While the four of them were conversing, they had made their way to the entrance of the Panfeng Federation Royal Court.

There were four guards standing at the entrance of the Royal Court, each of them exuding the aura of a Hexagram Beastmaster.

Each of them was accompanied by their Contract Beasts.

The Town Rock Family had already informed Fang Mu of the current situation of the Panfeng Federation.

In addition, Gu Anxing had spent a large amount of spiritual power to sketch images of core members of the Qingdian Clan.

The four individuals now acting as gatekeepers at the entrance of the Royal Court were none other than members of the Qingdian Clan's Council of Elders – they were the core bloodline of the Qingdian Clan!

Some of them were even older relatives of the current Clan Leader of the Qingdian Clan, Huang Yuan.

These four Qingdian Clan Council of Elders members not only guarded the gate but also stopped everyone who wanted to enter the Royal Court.

Just like the city entrance fee, every person attending the Royal Court meeting had to pay two thousand Soul of Deaths.

The Qingdian Clan really stooped low for the sake of Soul of Deaths!

Chapter 640: Ice Ghost Transient World!_1

The Royal Court assembly this time was initiated by the Qingdian Clan.

The purpose was to jointly discuss the exploration of the large ancient battlefield.

In theory, the powerful forces going to the Panfeng Federation were for their own advantage in exploring the ancient battlefield, while also helping the Panfeng Federation.

Otherwise, the Panfeng Federation itself wouldn't have the capacity to overcome this crisis.

Under such circumstances, the Panfeng Federation charging ten thousand Souls of Death as entry fee is inherently unreasonable.

Not only do they charge an entry fee to the city, they also charge a fee for attending the Royal Court meeting, and they charge twenty thousand Souls of Death at once!

The forces attending the Panfeng Royal Court meeting are all extremely powerful. After the recent disturbances in the city, those forces that knew they lacked power had already chosen to leave Rock Peak City rather than muddy the waters further.

The strong forces could easily afford this twenty thousand Souls of Death admission fee, almost no force would argue with the four Qingdian Clan Elder Council members at the entrance over twenty thousand Souls of Death.

However, they would certainly look down on the Qingdian Clan.

By doing this, the Qingdian Clan essentially gives up its reputation among the powerful forces. Is it really worth it!?

There must have been a major change within the Qingdian Clan.

Suddenly, Fang Mu thought of something and immediately turned to ask Shui Miao and Qin Shao.

"Ah Shui, Aunt Shao, do Evil Spirits need to devour Souls of Death?"

Upon hearing this, Shui Miao nodded directly and said,

“Yes, before an Evil Spirit is purified into a Spirit of Hero, it mainly enhances its power by devouring Souls of Death.”

“The Spirit Witches of the Witch School often let the Spirits absorb as many Souls of Death as possible in the state of Evil Spirits before they contract Spirits, to enhance the power of Evil Spirits.”

“In this way, the corresponding power will be stronger after the Evil Spirit is refined into a Spirit of Hero!”

Qin Shao also timely added,

“The desire of Evil Spirits for Souls of Death is not simply to improve their power, they have a strong addiction, just like an alcoholic.”

“The reason why Evil Spirits are called ‘Evil Spirits’ is because they always do some terrible things to get Souls of Death!”

Both Shui Miao and Qin Shao are intelligent people. Through Fang Mu’s question, their hearts have already guessed Fang Mu’s thinking.

After careful consideration, Shui Miao and Qin Shao suddenly felt that Fang Mu’s idea was very likely to hit the root of the problem.

However, they immediately shook their heads.

Common Evil Spirits can hardly control Beast Masters.

Wanting to control a Hexagram Beastmaster who has Sequential Guardian Beasts, this Evil Spirit must at least reach the level of Emperor Evil Spirit.

What kind of strong existence would this kind of Evil Spirit have been in life!

Such a strong existence is likely recorded in the literature of the fifth and sixth epochs.

The powers of Evil Spirits vary so even an Emperor Evil Spirit would find it difficult to deceive a mentally sound Hexagram Beastmaster.

Unless this Emperor Evil Spirit was inherently extremely good at enchantment.

While the other powers promptly paid the Souls of Death for entry, Fang Mu also took out eighty thousand Souls of Death and handed them over.

Just then, Fang Mu heard an old voice behind him.

“I brought people in, I don’t have to pay Souls of Death, right?!”

“Our Luanyue Clan has already paid all our Souls of Death!”

Upon hearing this, Fang Mu’s mouth hooked a smile.

The people of the Luanyue Clan were very punctual and showed up at the entrance of the Royal Court exactly at four forty.

Now, Fang Mu can be said to have successfully rendezvoused with Shu Liangjun.

Fang Mu’s soul transmitted a message from Shu Liangjun.

“Ah Mu, I’ve secretly contacted the people at the Beast King Palace, but they did not respond to me.”

“The goals of the Beast Controlling Forces attending this time must be huge, otherwise they wouldn’t break my appointment!”

Shu Liangjun was quite gloomy about not being able to find out the purpose of the Beast Controlling Force.

He didn’t know that when Fang Mu was trading with the Luminous Snake Clan through his Cash Ability, he learned the purpose of the major Beast Controlling Forces from the Luminous Snake Clan.

These Beast Controlling Forces are here to follow the tale of the Sage, which is most likely hidden in the relics of the ancient battlefield.

These Beast Controlling Forces are competitors just like him.

After these Beast Controlling Forces arrived at the Panfeng Federation, they have been hiding in the Federation, and are unlikely to attend this Royal Court meeting.

However, once the Town Rock Family presents the ancient books, these Beast Controlling Forces would probably find it hard to hold back.

Hearing Sun Hao’s words, the expressions of the four Elder Council members of the Qingdian Clan became more complicated.

Because they knew how the Qingdian Clan persecuted the Luanyue Clan.

This was the personal decision of the Clan Leader of the Qingdian Clan, who is also the head of the Panfeng Federation.

Most members of the Elder Council opposed this, but they were powerless.

More than anything, these four elders felt guilt towards Sun Hao and the Luanyue Clan.

The Luanyue Clan had long since handed all their Souls of Death over.

And it was this female Elder with short hair who had collected them from the old house of the Luanyue Clan.

The four elders nodded at Sun Hao.

Even though there were quite a few people behind Sun Hao, they didn't stop him.

After successfully leading Clan Zhenyan's group into the Royal Court, Sun Hao let out a big sigh of relief.

Sun Hao was really worried that he would be stopped by these four elders.

If he had really been stopped by these four elders and they checked everyone, the people of the Town Rock Family would definitely have been found out, even if they had changed their appearances.