

Beast Tamer 771

Chapter 771 Jianmu Commerce Association Soaring in the Wilderness! _1

Outside Rock Peak City, yellow sand filled the sky, recently, the sandstorms here have intensified compared to usual.

Any traveler crossing the desert was obliged to don a face mask fashioned from fur to avoid the liability of sand scratches on the skin.

Many powers within the Panfeng Federation initially planned to flee outward, but the Qingdian Clan suddenly announced a decrease in taxes and allowed the major powers within Rock Peak City to deeply mine their own veins.

Once, the Qingdian Clan demanded a thirty percent share of the proceeds from such mining, but they had now reduced this to ten percent.

Such a change encouraged a massive influx of local powers back into the Panfeng Federation, and Rock Peak City became bustling yet again!

Those forces that previously stood below the Zhenyan Family and Luanyue Family were all eager to take their places.

After the Zhenyan Family and Luanyue Family disappeared, there will be other families who take the throne of the three great families of the Panfeng Federation.

In the past, the opening of a colossal ancient battlefield and the ensuing rampage of the undead within the territory of the Panfeng Federation indeed caused great losses.

But these undead also brought tremendous profit to the Panfeng Federation.

Trade caravans, transporting spirit materials from the undead to federations all around, amounted to a swift and substantial return of wealth for the Panfeng Federation.

Initially, Fang Mu had planned on abandoning Huang Yuan. As Fang Mu had raised the banner of the Infinite Tower, he could have engaged in exchanges with other powers under the name of the Infinite Tower.

There was no need to rely on the influence of the Panfeng Federation to make this happen.

However, Liu Xi had shown great interest in controlling Huang Yuan.

Once Fang Mu had come to understand Liu Xi, Fang Mu found that Liu Xi had impressive talents in domestic affairs.

That would suggest that Liu Xi, before becoming an evil spirit, was a truly gifted administrator in the fifth Epoch!

Liu Xi demonstrated such a significant talent in managing internal matters that he was also interested in controlling the Panfeng Federation through Huang Yuan.

Then why not just hand the Panfeng Federation over to Liu Xi for management!

Now that all the disturbances have settled, no faction would discuss the ancient books anymore.

With this in mind, Fang Mu released Sun Hao, the elderly Family Head of the Luanyue Clan, along with Gu Anxing and Gu Qianfan, the heads of the Zhenyan Clan, from the Mechanism Fortress.

The three men immediately bowed to Fang Mu as soon as they saw him.

The three were thoroughly aware of the colossal giant they were now following.

Fang Mu got straight to the point and said to them,

"The Zhenyan Family and Luanyue Clan have both been accepted as parts of the Chosen Clan, but in actuality, the Zhenyan Family and Luanyue Clan are weak and lack the qualifications to become part of the Chosen Clan."

"Now, I am giving you two options: the first option is for you to stay hidden at my side."

"However, considering the current situation, no major power is focusing their attention on both of your families. So, there really isn't much significance in remaining hidden!"

"The second option is for both of your families to stay within the Panfeng Federation and continue to develop there."

"I know you have a vendetta against Huang Yuan, yet Huang Yuan is now under the control of one of my evil spirits, he isn't the Huang Yuan you once knew."

"If you choose to develop within the Panfeng Federation, I will continue to provide resources to you, as we previously agreed."

From Fang Mu's words, Gu Qianfan, Gu Anxing, and Sun Hao all could discern which option Fang Mu was leaning towards.

It was obvious that Fang Mu wanted them to pick the second option.

While it was true that they harbored insurmountable hatred towards the Qingdian Clan, now that the head of the Qingdian family, Huang Yuan, was under Fang Mu's control, there was no need for them to hold onto their hatred for the Qingdian Clan anymore!

In fact, under the assurance of Fang Mu providing resources, Gu Anxing, Gu Qianfan, and Sun Hao were reluctant to let their families go into hiding.

Hiding and serving at Fang Mu's side was nothing compared to reigning in Rock Peak City as master families!

So the three almost simultaneously chose the second option.

Sun Hao was the first to bow to Fang Mu and said sincerely,

"Young Master, rest assured, our Luanyue Family will surely oversee the development of the Panfeng Federation for you in Rock Peak City and will ensure the Federation is entirely within your grasp!"

"As a part of your Chosen Clan, even if the distance grows farther, any command of yours would still have us willing to go through fire and water, laying down our lives for you!"

Gu Qianfan nudged Gu Anxing with his shoulder.

His son Gu Anxing was usually so astute, why wasn't he reacting faster today!?

What if Fang Mu only planned to allow one clan to stay in Rock Peak City and decided on the Luanyue Family because Sun Hao spoke up first!?

What Gu Qianfan didn't know was that Gu Anxing wasn't being outraced by Sun Hao; rather, Gu Anxing was weighing in his mind that if Fang Mu decided to let the Zhenyan Family stay in the Panfeng Federation,

The position of Zhenyan Family in Fang Mu's heart would surely become marginalized.

Gu Che had clashed with Fang Mu before, but Gu Luo was still a blank slate.

Gu Che's personality was suitable for being the Family Head of the Zhenyan Family.

Given this, Gu Anxing thought it would be better for him to leave Gu Luo at Fang Mu's side.

Even if Fang Mu didn't cultivate Gu Luo, and only kept him around as a menial worker, Gu Luo's presence would ensure the Zhenyan Family maintained a closer relationship with Fang Mu than the Luanyue Family did.

"Young Master, our Zhenyan Family is also willing to stay in Rock Peak City. We will oversee the development of the Panfeng Federation for you."

"Xiao Luo is somewhat talented, he has been helping you clean the fortress. He does have some talent for cleaning."

Chapter 772 Jianmu Commerce Association Soaring in the Wilderness! _2

"If you don't mind, Xiao Luo can stay with you."

"Having Xiao Luo by your side also represents our Zhenyan Family's loyalty."

Upon hearing Gu Anxing's words, Gu Qianfan immediately understood his intention.

Gu Qianfan looked at Fang Mu expectantly. As far as Gu Qianfan was aware, Fang Mu wasn't someone who would casually keep people close to him.

Gu Qianfan really hoped that Fang Mu would agree.

If Fang Mu didn't agree, the Zhenyan Family would not have any slight advantage in the future friction with the Luanyue Family.

Upon hearing this, Fang Mu reflected on Gu Luo's behavior during this time.

Gu Luo was relatively kind-hearted and although not very skilled at cleaning, he was able to keep everything quite tidy.

More importantly, Gu Luo had the talent of a Creator.

The Abdominal Space in the Abdominal Territory Worm indeed needs someone to look after it constantly.

Gu Luo was an excellent choice!

"I will keep Gu Luo by my side. From now on, your two families in Rock Peak City will primarily gather resources for the Panfeng Federation, while the other ensures the security of the Panfeng Federation."

"You guys decide how to divide the work among yourselves. Remember to heed Huang Yuan's advice when making decisions!"

"Once the Panfeng Federation develops and gradually ranks higher in the Ten-thousand Nations Federation."

"Your two families' status among human forces will also become increasingly dominant."

Having spoken to the three of them, Fang Mu released all the people from the Zhenyan Family and the Luanyue Family.

Then he waved to Gu Anxing and Sun Hao, signalling them to dismiss the crowd.

Amongst the people who left with Gu Anxing and Sun Hao was Gu Luo.

The Zhenyan Family would definitely keep Gu Luo by their side, and they were sure to have a lot to entrust him with.

Once the Zhenyan Family had finished their instructions to Gu Luo, he would naturally be sent back here.

There was no need for Fang Mu to play the bad guy, making Gu Luo feel that he was forcibly kept here.

Fang Mu leaned on the sofa, drinking the usually kept fresh squeezed juice from the silver cup, unaware that Elder Bright Edge from the Luminous Snake Clan had been waiting outside of Rock Peak City for a long time.

Bright Edge did not lead the Luminous Snake Clan to participate in the exploration of the ancient battlefield, but directly returned to the clan to describe the situation to the Clan Chief of the Luminous Snake Clan.

Because of the news brought back by Bright Edge, a meeting of the elders was specifically held within the Luminous Snake Clan.

The Elders had decided after the discussion, the Luminous Snake Clan would regard Fang Mu as the foremost partner, preparing to carry out in-depth cooperation with Fang Mu.

Bright Edge had always been concerned about the safety of Fang Mu and his party in his heart, fearing that Fang Mu would suffer losses in the ancient battlefield.

This would not continue to promote cooperation between the Luminous Snake Clan!

But when Bright Edge returned with the Luminous Snakes, he learned about Fang Mu's situation from a Beast Controlling Force that had a good relationship with the Luminous Snake Clan.

Fang Mu's safety was not compromised in any way, but Bright Edge wasn't happy about it.

On the contrary, Bright Edge began to worry.

The trade between the Luminous Snake Clan and a monstrous entity like the Infinite Tower was not equal.

Fang Mu had made a promise to himself earlier, he has suspicions of extracting information from the Luminous Snake Clan.

If Fang Mu reneges on his promise, Bright Edge would be helpless.

At this moment, a young Luminous Snake who was following behind Bright Edge couldn't help but speak.

"Elder, we have been waiting here for a while and it doesn't seem right. The clan is also waiting for us to report back!"

"By waiting blindly here without any news, what if they use spatial transmission methods to leave Rock Peak City?!"

"There's no rule stating they must leave through the city gate when leaving Rock Peak City!"

"Anyway, they promised us, why don't we directly go into the city and find them!"

"Didn't you receive the message that they are in the Panfeng Royal Court?!"

"We should contact the Qingdian Clan, and have them help us send the message. The Qingdian Clan will definitely do this favor for us!"

Upon hearing this, Bright Edge contemplated for a while before nodding in agreement.

"Let's go, it's time for us to actively confront Yan Luo!"

"I hope Yan Luo remembers our Luminous Snake Clan and abides by the promises he has made to us."

Fang Mu has already received the pollutants and sources of pollution traded by the Green magician.

In addition to these pollutants and sources of pollution, Fang Mu now has a Messaging Rain Frog.

The Messaging Rain Frog feeds on the vapor after rain, and when one party sends a message, the other Messaging Rain Frog will simulate the tone of the message through its croaking.

It is a good long-distance communication beast.

Through the Messaging Rain Frog, Fang Mu can communicate with the Green magician at any time.

Fang Mu placed the Messaging Rain Frog inside the Mechanism Fortress, next to the undead species Guardian Beasts controlled by Yan Yubanruo.

As soon as the Green magician sends a message, Yan Yubanruo will inform Fang Mu about it.

Fang Mu has received those high-quality undead species Guardian Beasts which have been controlled by Yan Yubanruo's skill [Golem Paper Control].

Fang Mu plans to cultivate these undead species Guardian Beasts immediately after returning to Dragon Rising Federation.

After investigating the pollutants and sources of pollution, Fang Mu found that the high-grade pollutants traded by the Green magician were not as good as those he had previously obtained from Shu Liangjun.

These pollution sources also did not match the special-grade pollutants Fang Mu was preparing to contract.

So all the traded pollutants and sources of pollution will be converted into pure pollution energy by Xi Xi.

Qin Shao has bid farewell to Fang Mu with Jin Ya.

Before leaving, Qin Shao gave Fang Mu a lot of Brilliant Gold Honey, and also left him a communication beast.

This Messaging Yellow Kite, which looks very similar to a white pigeon, is much more advanced than the Messaging Rain Frog.

Before parting, Jin Ya winked at Fang Mu, implying that she had left another Messaging Yellow Kite with her, and Fang Mu can communicate with her at any time through the Messaging Yellow Kite.

It won't be long before the next Starwheel Gathering will be held, Fang Mu can meet Jin Ya again in Starwheel's land.

Shui Miao does not rush to leave. After exploring the ancient battlefield, Shui Miao plans to have a good chat with Fang Mu about his views and needs for Ghost Devices.

And then, according to Fang Mu's views and needs, tailor a Ghost Device for him.

Among all the ghost devices, defensive ones are the most difficult to create, especially for Fang Mu. Shui Miao doesn't want to be sloppy!

Just as Fang Mu had just finished talking with Shui Miao and was contemplating his specific requirements for Ghost Devices, Liu Xi's voice came into his mind.

"Fang Mu, the Luminous Snake Clan has contacted the people of the Qingdian Clan, and hope to communicate with you through them."

"How should I handle it?"

Hearing this, Fang Mu immediately said to Liu Xi,

"Let Huang Yuan bring the people of the Luminous Snake Clan back!"

"I did make an appointment with them before!"

Hearing this, Liu Xi immediately made arrangements to Huang Yuan.

After these two days, Liuxi has completely controlled Mr. Zi.

Now Liuxi, as a Beast Master, has become the first tier of strong players under the Order in battle with Meng Sha and Mr. Zi.

Recently, Xi Xi is assimilating with Luili Red Flame Deer with newly condensed electronic butterflies.

Xi Xi has been working hard for several days, but there hasn't been much progress.

But Fang Mu is not in a hurry, as long as Xi Xi could control the carcass of Luili Red Flame Deer in half a year through electronic butterflies, Fang Mu would be satisfied.

Due to the turmoil in Lu City, the official of Dragon Rising Federation ordered all activities to be postponed, causing the date of the Commerce Festival to be postponed again and again.

Fang Yuan originally planned to establish the name of Jianmu Commerce Association during this Commerce Festival.

But now the Commerce Festival hasn't started yet, and the Jianmu Commerce Association has already become the new darling of the commerce world!

All forces that have some foundation basically know that the major shareholder of Jianmu Commerce Association is a disciple of Grandmaster Creator.

Not only that, Fang Mu let Lu Zhong, a genuine Master Creator, sit in the Jianmu Commerce Association.

Looking at all the commerce associations in The Capital, maybe there is a Master Creator who is a shareholder or the behind-the-scenes boss of a certain commerce association.

But these Master Creators will never sit in the commerce association.

Jianmu Commerce Association now has a unique existence among all commerce associations in the Dragon Rising Federation!

Chapter 773 Fang Yuan's Decision!_1

In a high-end office, a young man with sword-like eyebrows and a broad back, was flipping through a report in his hands.

The young man furrowed his brows slightly, tallying the supplies listed in the report.

Just then, the door of the young man's office was knocked.

Hearing the knock, the young man glanced in the direction of the door, and then issued a commanding, "Come in."

The door was pushed open, and an old man stepped in.

If members of powerful entities from Lu City saw this old man, they would surely be shocked.

This Master Creator, who had never appeared in Lu City, was here!

The old man who entered was Master Lu Zhong!

As a Master Creator, in theory, one would hold absolute authority within a business group and wouldn't need to be overly courteous to the chairman of the group.

However, Lu Zhong was always extra-polite when dealing with Fang Yuan, placing himself in a servile position.

This made Fang Yuan quite uncomfortable when he first came into contact with Lu Zhong.

If truth be told, Fang Yuan had never directly interfaced with a big shot of the Master Creator level before.

Fang Yuan had on more than one occasion stated his position to Master Lu Zhong, treating him as an esteemed guest.

However, Lu Zhong didn't shift his attitude towards Fang Yuan despite his flattery.

Lu Zhong knew that Fang Yuan was Fang Mu's biological older brother.

With his understanding of Fang Mu, any disrespect towards Fang Yuan could bring consequences even more severe than disrespecting Fang Mu!

Initially, Lu Zhong came only to complete the task assigned to him by Fang Mu, to ensure that Fang Mu could help him increase his lifespan.

But now, after spending a long time with Fang Yuan, Lu Zhong's impression of him had changed significantly.

Fang Yuan was diligent, with a strong managerial capacity.

Plus, he was adept at balancing the relationships among various forces.

This set of skills wouldn't be surprising in a person in his forties or fifties, but Fang Yuan was only in his twenties.

With such talent at such a young age, his future development was limitless!

"Young Master Yuan, I have prepared a batch of Life Elixir with a purity of eighty-five percent."

"This batch of Life Elixir can be displayed for sale at the Mu Commerce Association festival, to establish our position among the various associations."

Lu Zhong was doing everything he could to contribute to the Mu Commerce Association.

When Fang Mu returned his contributions to Mu Commerce Association would surely be mentioned to Fang Mu by Fang Yuan.

Upon hearing this, Fang Yuan shook his head.

"Master Lu Zhong, please give the elixirs you have prepared to Fu Gui Xue for use, to help Fu Gui Xue's four Guardian Beasts level up."

"I have quite a stock of Grandmaster-level elixirs here, and it won't be long before the Contemplation Hall starts preparations."

"I need you to help the current Hexagram Beastmasters of Mu Commerce Association make further improvements."

Master Lu Zhong nodded at Fang Yuan's instructions.

Master Lu Zhong was somewhat envious of Fu Gui Xue.

If Fu Gui Xue hadn't joined Fang Yuan, and if the four Guardian Beasts she had contracted were not very suitable for creating imagery in the Contemplation Hall, she wouldn't have received so much resource investment!

Once any of these four Guardian Beasts of Fu Gui Xue reached Sequential, Fu Gui Xue's worth would change dramatically.

"Young Master Yuan, I've always been supplying Fu Gui Xue with resources."

"According to her current state of growth, Blood Coral and Red Vine can make a surge toward Sequential within a month."

"In three months, the Diamond Light Sea Yam should also be able to step into Sequential!"

"Whether or not the remaining two Guardian Beasts can step into Sequential depends on Fu Gui Xue's luck!"

Master Lu Zhong presented a detailed report of Fu Gui Xue's situation to Fang Yuan.

Master Lu Zhong hadn't been lax in paying attention to Fu Gui Xue.

Not only Fu Gui Xue, but he'd also invested resources in the few new Hexagram Beastmasters that the Mu Commercial Association had recently recruited.

Fang Yuan addressed Lu Zhong seriously.

"Master Lu Zhong, you've been working hard recently!"

"You don't need to worry about the Commerce Alliance festival, I've pretty much prepared everything."

"If you're interested in joining the Commerce Alliance festival, you can accompany me."

Upon hearing this, Lu Zhong quickly responded,

"I'm certainly interested in the Commerce Alliance Festival, Young Master Yuan!"

"I can also protect you since we'd be traveling together."

No sooner had Lu Zhong left than Lu Bo walked in.

"Ah Yuan, the trade convoy to Lu City has returned."

"The supplies we, Mu Commerce Association, donated to Lu City are the highest among all the commerce associations."

"In addition to the supplies donated to Lu City, all goods for trade have also been sold."

"This trip to Lu City can be considered a success on both fame and profit!"

Lu Bo was greatly amazed by Fang Yuan's generosity. He was willing to donate so much to help rebuild Lu City.

Not an average person could do this!

However, there was a bit of imperfection with this trip to Lu City.

The people from Solemn King Pavilion and the Lionheart Brigade had some friction, even leading to small-scale fights.

As a result, two people were injured in Solemn King Pavilion and three people were hurt in the Lionheart Brigade.

Because Mu Commerce Association's powerhouses were still being recruited and nurtured,

The Mu Commerce Association had hired the Lionheart Brigade and Solemn King Pavilion, making them mercenaries for the Mu Commerce Association.

But disputes had arisen between the Lionheart Brigade and Solemn King Pavilion more than once.

It seemed that in the future, only one of the Lionheart Brigade and the Solemn King Pavilion could continue working with Mu Commerce Association!

Chapter 774 Fang Yuan's Decision! _2

Lu Bo and Fang Yuan are both superior and subordinate, and friends. In the early days of the establishment of the Jianmu Commerce Association, Lu Bo helped Fang Yuan many times, proving himself to be a true backbone of the association.

Whenever Lu Bo and Fang Yuan communicate, they never hesitate to bring up all problems they identify to Fang Yuan.

"Ah Yuan, we must resolve the dispute between Solemn King Pavilion and Lionheart Brigade!"

"This time, the two members of Solemn King Pavilion involved in the brawl were fine, but a member of the Lionheart Brigade was nearly critically injured!"

Fang Yuan frowned upon hearing Lu Bo's words.

Fang Yuan didn't make a decision right away, instead, he asked Lu Bo.

"Who started it?"

Lu Bo answered truthfully.

"It was Solemn King Pavilion to blame. The Lionheart Brigade was cordial towards them initially. However, people in Solemn King Pavilion kept blaming Liu Jihui."

"They accused Liu Jihui of harboring ulterior motives!"

"The conflict arose because Solemn King Pavilion brought up past issues, leading to verbal conflict and escalating tensions with the Lionheart Brigade."

"Members of the Lionheart Brigade, especially Brigade Leader Liu Jihui, have been serving the Jianmu Commerce Association wholeheartedly."

Before Lu Bo had interacted with the Solemn King Pavilion, he had a positive impression towards them as they were a force combating the Looting Group.

However, in its dealings with the Jianmu Commerce Association, Solemn King Pavilion was indeed too slack.

Otherwise, there wouldn't be conflict between two mercenary organizations.

Lu Bo wanted to remind Fang Yuan about this.

Fang Yuan, due to his previous gratitude towards Solemn King Pavilion, had shown them too much favor.

But Lu Bo didn't have the position or opportunity to remind Fang Yuan.

Now, given the conflict between the Lionheart Brigade and Solemn King Pavilion, Lu Bo thought it was time to remind Fang Yuan.

Otherwise, if it escalated to a loss of life, it would damage the reputation of Jianmu Commerce Association and make things hard to settle.

Fang Yuan did not give Lu Bo the chance to remind him.

`After understanding the specifics, Fang Yuan said directly to Lu Bo,

"Ah Bo, bring Wu Shuang from Solemn King Pavilion, who is stationed at Jianmu Commerce Association, over here."

"Also, please bring over Brigade Leader Liu Jihui from the Lionheart Brigade, I have something to discuss with both of them!"

After hearing the words of Fang Yuan, Lu Bo already had an idea of how Fang Yuan planned to handle the matter.

After all, one side was asked to come, while the other side was invited.

"I'll get on it right away."

"Oh, yes, Feng Chenhao of Peach Blossom Brand will come to the Capital at six o'clock this evening to attend the commerce meeting together with Jianmu Commerce Association."

"Feng Chenhao has already sent over the product list that Peach Blossom Brand will be selling at Jianmu Commerce Association."

"Take a look, Ah Yuan."

"Feng Chenhao is very sincere; in fact, one could say Peach Blossom has not released any new products for over two months just to back us. They want to wow the audience at Jianmu Commerce Association!"

"These wealthy ladies can hardly hold on these few months, and the prices of Peach Blossom's previous products have almost tripled!"

Fang Yuan knew that Peach Blossom Brand was created by Fang Mu and Feng Chenhao.

Feng Chenhao was the proxy, but Fang Mu is the real owner of Peach Blossom Brand.

The alliance of Peach Blossom and Jianmu Commerce Association is a case of one of our companies helping another.

Otherwise, with Peach Blossom's new status as a market leader, it didn't need to cooperate with Jianmu Commerce Association.

Even if it's not affiliated with any commerce association, the Peach Blossom Brand wouldn't have a problem selling!

In Fang Yuan's view, the most clever element of Peach Blossom's strategy is not the effectiveness of their products, but their continuous release of limited co-branded items.

These repackaged items, although contain the same ingredients, are instantly marked at a new price.

The gift cards inside the Peach Blossom Brand packages have become a popular collectible in the Dragon Rising Federation.

These gift cards, drawn by artists based on Guardian Beasts recorded in ancient books with added extra imagination, do not actually hold any financial value.

With many products from Peach Blossom Brand being exhibited for sale at the commerce meeting, ladies around the Dragon Rising Federation will be fighting to buy them.

Even if they can't attend in person, they will find someone to buy on their behalf.

Fang Yuan could already foresee how busy the Jianmu Commerce Association booth would be at the commerce meeting!

"Ah Bo, you should personally pick up Feng Chenhao this evening. Let's have dinner in the banquet hall of the Jianmu Commerce Association!"

"Our cooks at the Jianmu Commerce Association are as good as the top chefs in renowned restaurants."

Upon hearing this, Lu Bo checked the time.

"After calling Wu Shuang and informing Liu Jihui, I'll go pick up Feng Chenhao."

Having said this, Lu Bo left Fang Yuan's office.

The Jianmu Commerce Association has grown stronger and no longer needs to rely on other forces.

When conducting affairs for the Jianmu Commerce Association, Lu Bo is no longer as cautious as when he was with the Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce.

He no longer needs to submit to other powerful entities or endure insults when handling matters.

Now, Lu Bo only needs to consider the development of the Jianmu Commerce Association.

All the forces that cooperate with the Jianmu Commerce Association will naturally show them respect.

Wu Shuang and Liu Jihui arrived at Fang Yuan's office shortly.

Both Wu Shuang and Liu Jihui knew why Fang Yuan had suddenly summoned them.

Liu Jihui was calm and composed.

He had always restrained the Lionheart Brigade from undermining the interest of the Jianmu Commerce Association during their cooperation,

He was even prepared to compromise the interests of the Lionheart Brigade during the cooperation, but Fang Yuan never gave him such an opportunity.

Therefore, Liu Jihui was not worried at all.

He knew more about Fang Mu's situation than those at the Solemn King Pavilion.

Knowing well about Fang Mu's power, Liu Jihui did not retaliate even when the Solemn King Pavilion attempted to provoke him.

As a powerful figure with a Guardian Beast, Liu Jihui did not have to show respect to the Solemn King Pavilion.

Wu Shuang's expression was dark. A critical journey of the Jianmu Commerce Association was almost ruined by the people of the Solemn King Pavilion!

Now that Fang Yuan had heard the news, he, a member of the Solemn King Pavilion stationed in the Jianmu Commerce Association, had to face such pressure.

Fang Yuan's intention was clear when he summoned Wu Shuang and Liu Jihui.

It seemed that in the future, either the Solemn King Pavilion or the Lionheart Brigade would continue to cooperate with the Jianmu Commerce Association.

Wu Shuang had always been curious as to why Fang Yuan would cooperate with the Solemn King Pavilion and take such good care of them.

After an investigation, Wu Shuang learned the reason.

It turned out that the Solemn King Pavilion owed a favor to Fang Yuan, who used to be a Golden Gloves in the Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce.

Otherwise, the Solemn King Pavilion would not have been chosen for cooperation out of the many mercenary forces wanting to cooperate with the Jianmu Commerce Association.

The people in the Solemn King Pavilion were all adventurers who lived on the edge, their qualities weren't ideal.

When the people of the Solemn King Pavilion first provoked the Lionheart Brigade, Wu Shuang reported this to Gu Dong, the Pavilion Master of the Solemn King Pavilion.

Gu Dong, however, did not seem to care.

Gu Dong was hoping to push away the Lionheart Brigade through such methods and monopolize all cooperation with the Jianmu Commerce Association.

Gu Dong's idea was good, but how could a force like the Jianmu Commerce Association, which was backed by a Grandmaster Creator and publicly supported by a Master Creator, only cooperate with one mercenary group?

Pavilion Master Gu Dong was simply too short-sighted!

When Liu Jihui saw Wu Shuang, he politely greeted him, which made Wu Shuang's mood even gloomier.

When the two entered Fang Yuan's office, Fang Yuan was on a phone call.

"Master Yi Han, thank you for agreeing to attend the Commerce Festival with me!"

"However, I didn't make any preparations. Please forgive me if the arrangements are unsatisfactory!"

Fang Yuan's phone could always receive calls from strangers. Many forces chose to get Fang Yuan's private contact information and communicated with him.

So, Fang Yuan always answered calls from strangers.

But Fang Yuan didn't expect that among the callers, there would be the newly-promoted Grandmaster Creator, Yi Han!

Fang Yuan knew that Yi Han would call him and say he wanted to attend the Commerce Festival together, certainly because of Fang Mu.

That's why Fang Yuan was afraid that his inadequate hospitality would offend Master Yi Han.

Fang Yuan had no idea that his words shocked Liu Jihui and Wu Shuang, their hearts almost leaping out of their throats.

Chapter 775 Azure Six Parts!_1

On the eve of such grand events as the Trade Association Festival, all major chambers of commerce would invite some renowned individuals to join their camp and attend the festival together.

The greater the reputation and status of the guests, the more it can highlight the status of a chamber of commerce.

On the eve of the Trade Association Festival, countless presidents of chambers of commerce were using their own prestige to invite grand figures.

Surely, if Fang Yuan used his connections to get Grandmaster Yi Han to come, that would be one thing.

But from Fang Yuan's words, they learned that Grandmaster Yi Han was actually eagerly planning to attend the Trade Association Festival with Fang Yuan!

Being passively invited and actively joining are two completely different things!

It seems that Jianmu Chamber of Commerce will be the focus of the Trade Association Festival!

Just what is Grandmaster Yi Han's status!?

He's the third Grandmaster Creator of the Dragon Rising Federation! An influential and rising figure!

Just last month, Grandmaster Yi Han held a grand feast to celebrate his joining the Contract Garden.

At that time, Fang Yuan personally brought a gift to Grandmaster Yi Han.

During that banquet, Grandmaster Yi Han had shown unusual kindness towards Fang Yuan, and it now seems that his kindness towards Fang Yuan was far from simple.

Liu Jihui cautiously looked at Fang Yuan a few times.

Knowing that there is a Grandmaster Creator supporting Fang Mu, Liu Jihui is well aware of that.

Unexpectedly, as Fang Mu's brother, Fang Yuan also has a relationship with a Grandmaster Creator!

Now the Jianmu Chamber of Commerce has relationships with two Grandmaster Creators.

If any chamber of commerce dares to provoke the Jianmu Chamber of Commerce at the Trade Association Festival, that chamber definitely won't end well!

Ever since Liu Jihui began to assist the Jianmu Chamber of Commerce with the Lionheart Brigade in the Capital, he relocated the headquarters of the Lionheart Brigade from JA City to the Capital.

As a mercenary organization led by a squad of Sequential powerhouses, he is very welcome among the many native powerhouses in the Capital.

Although Liu Jihui always serves the Jianmu Chamber of Commerce, many powerhouses have actively shown goodwill towards him.

Hoping to have an opportunity for cooperation in the future.

As a result, the Lionheart Brigade has established some channels to receive outside news in the Capital.

Liu Jihui learned that several of the top chambers of commerce wanted to inhibit the development of the Jianmu Chamber of Commerce.

The Jianmu Chamber of Commerce's rapid development has already cut into the cake of those chambers of commerce.

Those top chambers of commerce saw the upcoming Trade Association Festival as an excellent opportunity to suppress the Jianmu Chamber of Commerce.

But when these powers see Grandmaster Yi Han and Fang Yuan entering the venue together, they will likely instantly abandon the idea of targeting the Jianmu Chamber of Commerce.

He's grateful he hasn't engaged in such foolish acts.

Upon hearing this, Yi Han laughed heartily.

"What is there to prepare for?"

"My dear nephew, I didn't want you to make any preparations, otherwise I would have told you earlier!"

"Attending the Trade Association Festival with the Jianmu Chamber of Commerce is a schedule I have set long ago."

"Recently, I haven't heard of any news from Fang Mu, remember to say hi to him for me!"

Upon finishing these words, Yi Han hung up the phone and didn't bother chatting with Fang Yuan anymore.

The reason why Yi Han was so enthusiastic about attending the Trade Association Festival was due to his beneficial trades with Fang Mu for high-purity Grandmaster-level Elixirs recently.

Yi Han's three Main Battle Mystic Beasts have all improved due to the elixirs provided by Fang Mu.

This made Yi Han owe Fang Mu a great favor.

Last month, when he hosted a banquet and Fang Yuan attended, Yi Han specifically asked why no one answered when Fang Mu was called.

Only then did he learn from Fang Yuan that Fang Mu had gone out to gain practical experience.

This led Yi Han to realize that if he wanted to trade with Fang Mu again, he could only wait for Fang Mu to return from his training.

During this period, he had to try to show off as much as possible in order to trade more advanced creator resources with Fang Mu.

Originally, Yi Han was extremely arrogant and hated when others treated him casually.

When he truly became a Grandmaster Creator, Yi Han no longer cared about these things.

When standing at the top and looking down at what he once longed for, everything seemed ordinary.

It was then that Yi Han understood why Sect Master Xiao Xiang and Shuoyang Grandmaster always had a calm demeanor.

Turns out it's not because these two old coots like to show off, but it's something that naturally comes out.

Yi Han is also transitioning to this demeanor.

Fang Yuan hadn't been able to reach Fang Mu for some time now. Although he knew that Fang Mu was out training with his master, Fang Yuan was still somewhat uneasy.

This is the first time since childhood that Fang Yuan has lost contact with Fang Mu for such a long time.

Fang Yuan let out a gentle sigh, when will Fang Mu be able to come back?

Inwardly, Fang Yuan missed Fang Mu.

Master Yi Han's attendance of the Trade Association Festival was clearly a plan made by Fang Mu beforehand.

This was Fang Mu being worried about him being at a disadvantage during the Trade Association Festival!

Fang Yuan's heart had just begun to feel warm, but soon his expression became serious.

Fang Yuan tapped his finger on the table a few times, and asked Liu Jihui and Wu Shuang.

"I heard that there was a clash between the Lion Heart Mercenary Group and Suwangge while they were protecting the trade caravan, resulting in injuries."

"You two should know about this, right?"

Hearing Fang Yuan's words, both Wu Shuang and Liu Jihui didn't dare to argue.

Although Fang Yuan asked, it was clear that he must be aware of the specifics.

The course of events is no secret, as the members of the Jianmu Business Team were all witnesses.

Wu Shuang was the first to admit to fault.

"President Fang, this matter is a result of our Solemn King Pavilion's lack of discipline, leading to a conflict with the Lionheart Brigade."

"I have already informed the Pavilion Master about this matter, and he will definitely handle it seriously!"

Chapter 776 Azure Six Parts! _2

Before Liu Jihui could explain the situation, Wu Shuang had just finished speaking when Fang Yuan coldly asked.

"Isn't this the first time you've reported such a situation to your Solemn King Pavilion's Pavilion Master, Gu Dong?"

"I didn't ask you about it before, but Lu Bo has sought you out at least twice."

"It seems like your Solemn King Pavilion doesn't take this seriously at all!"

"It's not uncommon for trading companies to employ multiple mercenary teams to transport materials, but I've never heard of a trading company's mercenary teams repeatedly having internal quarrels!"

Hearing this, Wu Shuang broke out in a cold sweat, soaking his clothes.

Yet Wu Shuang had no justification to defend himself.

Because what Fang Yuan said was true!

Initially, Gu Dong regarded the cooperation with the Mu Commerce Association very seriously. However, his attitude became lax when he found out that he has helped Fang Yuan in the past.

Wu Shuang brusquely said.

"President Fang, similar incidents will not happen again in future collaborations between the Solemn King Pavilion and Mu Commerce Association!"

"I would have the troublemaker apologize personally to the Lionheart Brigade and compensate them for the injuries sustained!"

Wu Shuang's words served not only as a token of surrender and a promise, but also as a probe into Fang Yuan's actions.

Fang Yuan's handsome palm slapped softly yet firmly on the table.

"If your Solemn King Pavilion people started the issue, then it should be the ones to apologize to the Lionheart Brigade, to begin with!"

"If any other powers created trouble with the Lionheart Brigade, our Mu Commerce Association would step in afterward and save the day!"

"If Pavilion Master Gu Dong of the Solemn King Pavilion couldn't control his subordinates, then there's no need for us to cooperate in the future!"

"After you've finished compensating the Lionheart Brigade on behalf of the Solemn King Pavilion, then go settle the account with Master Lu Zhong."

After explaining the decisions about the Solemn King Pavilion, Fang Yuan spoke earnestly to Liu Jihui.

"Your Lionheart Brigade has suffered a lot from these recent tasks. If anything happens in the future, feel free to directly report to me."

Upon hearing this, Liu Jihui immediately bowed respectfully to Fang Yuan.

"President Fang, our Lionheart Brigade hasn't suffered much, especially since you are willing to stand up for us!"

"Even the severely injured member would feel warmly comforted after hearing this!"

Liu Jihui had heard news about the Solemn King Pavilion's assistance to Fang Yuan in the past, and he noticed that Pavilion Master Gu Dong was not low-profile about this.

This made him calmly accept that even though the trouble was caused by the people from the Solemn King Pavilion, he couldn't worry about every minor detail.

Fang Yuan's actions today genuinely made Liu Jihui hold him in high regard.

Who would have thought that young Fang Yuan would have such a magnanimous air about him!

Even Liu Jihui, in the process of managing the Lionheart Brigade, couldn't manage to be fair-minded and not play favorites.

Yet, Fang Yuan had done such a thing!

The loss of the opportunity to cooperate with the Mu Commerce Association struck the Solemn King Pavilion as a massive blow, directly impacting their future.

However, there is no such thing as regret in this world.

If Pavilion Master Gu Dong of the Solemn King Pavilion had seriously rectified the Pavilion's behavior when Lu Bo reported the issues before, today's situation wouldn't have occurred!

The best way to leverage kindness is to let it deepen continuously.

Not to let it erode due to some of your actions.

Wu Shuang wanted to beg for mercy, but after seeing Fang Yuan's expression, he didn't utter a word in the end.

Wu Shuang was both regretful and annoyed. Gu Dong was to blame for not handling the matter properly; nobody else was at fault.

Over these years, the Solemn King Pavilion's inner atmosphere worsened gradually due to the continuous admission of fresh blood and Gu Dong's heavy use of Zhang Peng.

It was this hostile environment within the Solemn King Pavilion that had led to these incidents.

If it were a few years ago, people from the Solemn King Pavilion wouldn't make a move deliberately.

Wu Shuang planned to discuss the situation in detail with Gu Dong when he returned.

If Gu Dong does not take this lesson to heart and rectify the Solemn King Pavilion, Wu Shuang felt there was no point in staying any longer.

After Wu Shuang and Liu Jihui left, Fang Yuan heaved a soft sigh.

Fang Yuan was a person who greatly valued gratitude.

Fang Yuan was very grateful to the Solemn King Pavilion back then, hence he handpicked it as the mercenary team for the Mu Commerce Association.

There were many high-quality mercenary teams in contact with the Jianmu Commerce Association, some of which were even stronger than the Solemn King Pavilion.

While Fang Yuan valued favors, he understood even better what he should and shouldn't do as the president of the Jianmu Commerce Association.

Fang Yuan didn't have much knowledge about the Solemn King Pavilion beforehand, and was unaware that their cooperation with Jianmu Commerce Association could cause trouble.

After all, most of Fang Yuan's thoughts recently were on the commerce association festival and the construction of the Contemplation Hall.

If Fang Yuan had known about the situation earlier, he would have dealt with the Solemn King Pavilion just like he did today.

Otherwise, he would have failed Fang Mu's trust!

That night, Fang Yuan invited Feng Chenhao to a banquet.

Fang Yuan was not someone who put on airs, and this quality made Feng Chenhao feel very comfortable with him.

This time, coming to the capital to meet Fang Yuan, Feng Chenhao came with a full load of sincerity.

Peach Beguile had not launched any new products in two months, but this time, they brought six boxes of their classic collection series.

Even if these weren't presented at the commerce association festival, putting them in any store would create a buzz.

Recently, Feng Chenhao has been busy going through ancient books and updating the exclusive brand artists of Peach Beguile.

These six boxes of classic collection series were named "Azure Six Parts".

Feng Chenhao learned from ancient books that in the Epoch Five-Six, there was a giant federation known as the Azure Federation.

Within the Azure Federation, there were twelve tribes with special category beast bloodlines.

However, the ancient book was incomplete and only described six of the tribes with special category beasts.

These beasts were referred to as Azure Beasts in the Azure Federation at the time, bearing special significance.

The Azure Six Parts series was created based on the six types of Azure Beasts.

Out of these six types of guardian beasts, Feng Chenhao's favorite is the Azure Cloud Leopard.

But beauty was in the eye of the beholder, and these artist-created collection boxes are bound to sell out!

Products of Peach Beguile that hit the market have always been in high demand.

Those who try to pick and choose often lose the chance to acquire Peach Beguile products and maintain their eternal youth.

Fang Yuan had everything prepared, just waiting for the smooth opening of the commerce association festival.

Meanwhile, Fang Mu had just made an appointment with Elder Bright Edge of the Luminous Snake Clan.

Now that Fang Mu had control over the Yin Yang Leopard Zhuo An, he didn't need to be so persistent in trading with the Luminous Snake Clan.

But Fang Mu kept his promise.

The Luminous Snake Clan also demonstrated their full sincerity.

To exchange for high-purity life elixirs and element potions from Fang Mu, the Luminous Snake Clan essentially put everything they had on the table.

As the saying goes, one shouldn't put all their eggs in one basket. Fang Mu was essentially extending his influence into the realm of beast controlling forces.

Just as no one knows about his control over Zhuo An, other beast controlling forces would also not know about his control over the Luminous Snake Clan.

As the strength of the Luminous Snake Clan grew, their status among the Beast Taming Tribes would also rise.

By then, the Luminous Snake Clan would become beneficial to Fang Mu!

This journey to Panfeng Federation was nearly perfect as all matters have been well-handled.

It was time to return to the Dragon Rising Federation!

Upon returning to the Dragon Rising Federation, Fang Mu planned to focus entirely on raising his star level as a Beast Master.

And then, he would sign up for the national high school graduate Beast Master professional competition.

As these one-on-one contests could best reflect individual strength, Hu Tao would surely participate as well.

Achieving a good ranking would help Fang Mu form his own team after joining Jinghai Tianyu University.

Ever since the Evil Heart Sect attacked JA City, Fang Mu lost contact with Hu Tao after leaving the capital to go to Lu City.

He didn't know how Hu Tao was doing!

Due to resource constraints, even though Hu Tao had awakened the three mysterious patterns, her power was still not very strong.

However, whether it was Hu Tao's Main Battle Beast Iron-winged Sparrow or her Destiny Guardian Beast Bird Armor Puppet, they both had great potential.

As long as enough resources were provided, Hu Tao would become powerful in an instant.

It was thoughtful of Hu Tao's parents to choose such beasts for Hu Tao.

Chapter 777 All is Well! _1

Fang Mu and his group traveled a long distance by teleporting through Shu Liangjun's Guardian Beast.

There was no need for them to spend a long time traveling on their return journey either.

After having a conversation with Elder Bright Edge of the Luminous Snake Clan, Fang Mu clarified his cooperation with the Luminous Snake Clan.

Every two months, Fang Mu will provide resources to the Luminous Snake Clan, assisting them in their accelerated breeding process.

In return, the Luminous Snake Clan considers the Infinite Tower as a force to be respected.

Whatever Fang Mu requests of the Luminous Snake Clan, they need to fulfill it!

From the moment Bright Edge divulged information about the ancient battlefield relic and the wise sage to Fang Mu, he prepared for this scenario.

In addition to making a deal with the Luminous Snake Clan, Fang Mu also made a personal deal with Bright Edge, making him his informant within the Clan.

Bright Edge didn't object to this. On the contrary, he was more than happy to make it happen.

When Fang Mu previously made a deal with Bright Edge, he gave him an extra bottle of Light Element Potion.

There is internal competition within the Luminous Snake Clan. Obtaining more Grandmaster Creator resources can allow Bright Edge's lineage to gain more power within the clan.

Anyway, Fang Mu had already assured that his requests wouldn't harm the collective interests of the Luminous Snake Clan.

Thus, Bright Edge didn't feel any burden becoming Fang Mu's informant.

In the span of two days, Fang Mu gathered all the Souls of Death in the Panfeng Federation into his hands.

Besides these Souls of Death, Fang Mu did not take away many more resources from the Panfeng Federation.

The future development of the Panfeng Federation still needed to be under the control of Huang Yuan.

If Fang Mu took away all the resources of the Panfeng Federation, it would stall their development without resources.

And the people living within the Panfeng Federation would descend into poverty.

The quality of life of a federation's residents is closely related to the strength of the federation.

Once everything was settled, Fang Mu once again teleported back to the Dragon Soaring Federation via Shu Liangjun's long-distance teleportation.

Since he left from Lu City, his coordinates when teleporting back to the Dragon Soaring Federation were also in Lu City.

When Fang Mu left, Lu City, aside from the central city area, had virtually become a pile of ruins.

But by the time Fang Mu returned, Lu City had been completely rebuilt.

The current Lu City was not in any way inferior to its previous state in terms of construction.

The Soul Whale Princess promised to compensate Lu City with resources, aiding in its reconstruction.

She was not stingy in her provision of resources; she provided however much Lu City requested.

Anyway, no matter how many resources she provided, the fortune Fang Mu gave to her daughter was enough to replenish all of it.

If it weren't for Fang Mu, the Dragon Soul Whale Princess would never had the capability to allow her daughter to achieve Bloodline Transformation at such a low level.

Moreover, a significant portion of the resources compensated to Lu City was provided by the Sea Lord.

This incident, having been triggered by the underlings of the Sea Lord's vassals to avenge their personal grudge, didn't demand of the Dragon Soul Whale Princess to express anything. The Sea Lord needed to bear the main responsibility.

Fang Mu did not plan on alarming anyone when he arrived back in Lu City, but She Wan planned to go home and specially asked Fang Mu for a day off.

She Wan was never the type to meddle in affairs. The main reason she wanted to go home this time was because her father, She Ruan, had been confirmed as the head of the She Family.

For both emotional and rational reasons, She Wan should return to her family to congratulate her father.

At the same time, she wanted to remind her father not to forget how he obtained his position as the head of the family!

He must not let his head be in the clouds after ascending to the position of the Family Head.

Although She Wan believed her father wasn't like that, she still has to clarify this beforehand.

If the She Family wanted to become stronger, sticking to Fang Mu's side would be the best choice.

As a noble lady of the She family, She Wan would consider the family's perspective on certain matters.

Returning to the She family was also a good opportunity for She Wan to assist Fang Mu in finding out if the Dragon Soaring Federation had experienced any specific incidents recently.

This made it easier for Fang Mu to get an understanding of the Dragon Soaring Federation's situation as soon as he returned.

Fang Mu had property in Lu City, so he was not in a hurry to return to the Capital.

Anyway, as long as he returned within the Dragon Soaring Federation's territory, he could call his brother and sister.

Given the amount of energy Shu Liangjun expended in teleporting for a long distance, resting in Lu City was a good choice.

When She Wan asked for leave, Fang Mu immediately granted it.

When She Wan returned to her old residence in Lu City, Fang Mu changed into a set of pajamas and called Fang Qin.

Ever since Fang Qin became the Dragon Mother's disciple, Fang Mu hadn't asked about her situation.

He didn't know whether Fang Qin was comfortable under the Dragon Mother's guidance.

If Fang Qin wasn't comfortable under the Dragon Mother, then she didn't have to become the Dragon Mother's disciple.

Before leaving the Dragon Soaring Federation, Fang Mu was still quite weak.

But now, Fang Mu had control over Sequential-level power.

With such strength, Fang Mu at least wouldn't let his sister suffer.

Fang Qin had been training with Mo Shang's team recently, which was a phenomenal opportunity for her.

However, Fang Qin seemed distracted all the time.

Mo Shang had asked Fang Qin the reason indirectly. After understanding the situation, he did not try to persuade her.

Because Mo Shang knew that no matter what he said, Fang Qin would only be able to truly relax after hearing that Fang Mu was alright.

Chapter 778:

Otherwise, Fang Qin would never be able to keep her mind off Fang Mu.

After finding out that Fang Qin's parents were gone, and she and her three siblings were struggling to make ends meet.

Mo Shang realized why Fang Qin was so worried about Fang Mu.

As the eldest sister in the family, Fang Qin cared deeply about her siblings' well-being.

Since Fang Qin couldn't focus on training, forcing her to could potentially injure her due to her distracted mind.

Therefore, Mo Shang decided to call off the team training and switch to individual training.

This decision made the regular members of his team view Mo Shang in a strange light.

His treatment of Fang Qin was not simply that of a teammate.

If it was because Fang Qin was the new disciple of "Dragon Mother", there was no need for Mo Shang to take such special care of her.

For people Mo Shang was uninterested in, he wouldn't even pay attention.

As a result, the regular team members' attitude towards Fang Qin also changed.

Fang Qin had the guidance of "Dragon Mother" and a brother who was a disciple of a Master Creator.

In future, resources of Master Creators were definitely not going to be scarce.

Once Fang Qin matures, being a new team member is very likely.

She might even become their sister-in-law.

Fang Qin felt remorseful for affecting everyone's training.

But it was difficult for her to calm down when she was worried about Fang Mu's safety.

The inability to contact Fang Mu for nearly a month completely unsettled Fang Qin.

Fang Mu was the one Fang Qin took care of as he grew up, every bit of his growth was witnessed by her.

This was the first time Fang Mu had been away from Fang Qin's control for so long.

Moreover, Fang Mu was outside the Dragon Rising Federation for his training. Who could guarantee that everything would go well with such training?

Even with experts around, it would be hard to ensure there wouldn't be any accidents.

Not only Fang Qin, but Fang Yuan and Yan Wood were also deeply worried about Fang Mu.

However, since Fang Mu was not within Dragon Rising Federation, they were unable to contact him and find out about his real situation.

Fang Qin was eating dinner, her mind incessantly preoccupied with thoughts of Fang Mu.

Then, her phone rang.

In this period, Fang Qin has been receiving many calls daily, Luo Su basically checking up on her every day.

But every time the phone rang, Fang Qin would pick it up instantly, hoping it was from Fang Mu.

Upon seeing the caller ID, Fang Qin's eyes softened instantly, and she started to tear up.

After more than half a month, Fang Qin finally received a call from Fang Mu again.

As Fang Qin answered the call, she anxiously asked "Little Wood, how are things there?"

Fang Mu always had a calm demeanor when dealing with things outside, indifferent towards anything.

But now, facing Fang Qin, he was no different from a 16 or 17 year old boy.

"Big sister, everything is fine over here. Are you currently in The Capital or JA City?"

Hearing Fang Mu say everything was fine, Fang Qin's worry was finally put to rest.

"Little Wood, I've been in The Capital lately. I won't be back to JA City for a while."

"Now that I know you're alright, I can rest easy! Remember to also let Little Yuan and Xiao Yan know you're okay."

"They're also very concerned about you!"

Fang Mu, upon hearing this, replied.

"I called you first, big sister. After I finish talking to you, I'll call second brother and third sister."

"I wonder how third sister's injury is doing now?"

Upon hearing this, Fang Qin replied with a smile.

"Ever since Little Yuan funded Xiao Yan in setting up the Club Guild, she's been focused on it completely."

"Even though her injury hasn't healed completely, it's been a hundred days since she got hurt."

"But she's totally capable of eating by herself now!"

"Little Yuan bought a piece of land for Xiao Yan, and she's started building the Club Guild."

"Xiao Yan has been spending her time at the Club Guild lately. This is a rare sight, she has never shown such enthusiasm towards any matter!"

Upon hearing this, Fang Mu felt relieved.

In the Capital, Fang Qin was under the protection of the "Dragon Mother", as a disciple of the Dragon Mother, no one in the Dragon Rising Federation would dare to mess with Fang Qin!

Moreover, Fang Qin wasn't just any ordinary disciple of the Dragon Mother.

The honest truth was, aside from the Dragon Mother appreciating Fang Qin's talent, the mentor-disciple bond was also the product of a trade between Fang Mu and the Dragon Mother.

Only by treating Fang Qin well would the Dragon Mother be able to obtain more resources from Fang Mu.

Fang Yuan, as the leader of the Jianmu Commerce Association, was most likely to encounter trouble.

However, Fang Mu had assigned Lu Zhong, a true Master Creator, over there.

In the Dragon Rising Federation, aside from the Grandmaster Creator, the Master Creator held the greatest authority!

The status of a Master Creator and a Forging Spirit Grandmaster were almost equal.

Aside from Lu Zhong, the newly promoted Grandmaster Creator Yi Han will also definitely lend a hand when Fang Yuan encounters difficulties!

She would not allow Fang Yuan to face any trouble alone.

If anything, Fang Mu had frequently traded Grandmaster-level elixirs with Yi Han.

His sole aim for this trade with Yi Han was to ensure her help in guarding the Jianmu Commerce Association in the Capital, and to keep people from troubling Fang Yuan.

Someone with years of worldly wisdom like Yi Han would certainly comprehend this.

In addition to Yi Han, after Fang Mu's cooperation with the Changle Workshop, the two owners of the Workshop would also assist Fang Mu in looking after Fang Yuan.

Therefore, the only real concern left for Fang Mu was to tend to Yan Wood's injury.

Once assured that Yan Wood's injuries were healing, Fang Mu had nothing more to worry about.

"Big sister, how is the Commerce Festival of brother Fang Yuan progressing?"

Fang Yuan had been working at the Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce since his graduation from Jinghai Tianyu University.

The Commerce Festival was the grandest celebration under the federation's commerce functions.

Fang Yuan's participation in the Commerce Festival was a realization of one of his dreams.

With a smile, Fang Qin responded.

"The Commerce Festival was postponed due to the situation in Lu City, and it only just started today."

"During this period, Fang Yuan has been busy with the arrangements for the Commerce Festival. The sense of anticipation he has for this festival is quite palpable from our phone conversations."

Upon hearing this, an unexpected look came over Fang Mu's face.

But soon, Fang Mu felt that this was all within reasonable expectations.

The Commerce Festival was a grand event for all the commercial associations across the entire Dragon Rising Federation, and was not only associated with the commerce associations of the Capital.

Given that many of the headquarters of the commerce associations in Lu City had been destroyed, the Commerce Festival had to accommodate the associations there.

Fang Mu had anticipated the postponement of the Commerce Festival, but he did not expect it to be postponed for such a long duration.

Fang Mu had always operated behind the scenes when establishing the Jianmu Commerce Association, and had no intentions of partaking in the bustling activities of the Commerce Festival.

The Jianmu Commerce Association was to be managed by Fang Yuan in the future, and it was appropriate for Fang Yuan to bask in the glory of the Commerce Festival.

After chatting for a while with Fang Qin, Fang Mu got to the main point.

"Big Sister, how have things been for you under the Dragon Mother's guidance?"

Hearing Fang Mu's solemn tone, Fang Qin carefully explained her situation.

"The Master has been taking excellent care of me."

"Not only does the Master provide constant guidance, but she has also provided me with ample resources to enhance the bloodline of my Dragon race Guardian Beast."

"The Master's grandson has also been offering a lot of help."

Upon hearing this Fang Mu was momentarily taken aback.

As a native born person in the Dragon Rising Federation, Fang Mu quickly understood who the Dragon Mother's grandson was.

Mo Shang was a shared aspiration among all the young generation in the Dragon Rising Federation.

Truth be told, just having Mo Shang as a mentor for Fang Qin was enough.

Hearing Fang Qin say this, Fang Mu felt at ease.

As Fang Yuan was currently participating in the Commerce Festival, Fang Mu planned to give Fang Yuan a call later.

As for Yan Wood, she wouldn't be able to receive a call due to her hand injuries.

Once Fang Mu visits the Capital in a day or two, Yan Wood would naturally be able to see him then.

Chapter 779 - Life-risking Restraint! _1

Fang Mu planned to stay in the Capital for a few days before returning to JA City.

Whether it was Yi Han or the two workshop leaders of Changle Workshop, Fang Mu should pay them a visit after returning to the Dragon Rising Federation.

Moreover, Fang Qin, Fang Yuan, and Yan Wood were all in the Capital. He was eager to join his family reunion.

It was a good opportunity during this trip to let Fang Qin's severed fingers grow back.

Although Fang Qin never said it, Fang Mu knew how inconvenient it must be for Fang Qin to live with a mechanical finger!

The lotus roots of the Sunset Elegant Lotus in Fang Mu's hands had been ground into powder and baked by the most pure Fire Elemental Energy.

However, Fang Mu did not tell Fang Qin over the phone about his ability to restore the severed fingers.

After all, Fang Mu hadn't tested how effective the skill [Bone-generated Lotus Root] of the Sunset Elegant Lotus would be in restoring severed fingers.

If the [Bone-generating Lotus Root] was not effective in restoring severed fingers, Fang Mu didn't want Fang Qin to get his hopes up prematurely.

Fang Qin had also obtained a elixir that could low-frequency stimulate spiritual power, which had a chance of helping Fang Mu become a Beast Master that awakens his Destiny Guidebook, but he didn't tell Fang Mu.

After hanging up Fang Qin's call, a warm smile remained on Fang Mu's face.

Returning to the Dragon Rising Federation, the homeland where he lived for sixteen to seventeen years, Fang Mu had an indescribable sense of security.

This trip to the Panfeng Federation yielded numerous accomplishments: getting rid of a Mr. Zi was also a response to the Evil Heart Sect's plot against JA City and a consolation to the deceased in the city.

Upon returning to the She Family's old house, She Wan received the highest level of treatment.

The old head of the She family, She Junjie, personally welcomed She Wan, the junior family member, at the door.

In fact, She Junjie had no need to do so, as no matter how outstanding She Wan was, she was only a minor member of the She Family.

The reason why She Junjie did it was actually because of Fang Mu.

She Wan was Fang Mu's guard, and by putting on such an elaborate reception, he was essentially showing his family's stance towards Fang Mu: the She Family would always put Fang Mu first and treat him as their most important guest.

She Wan had only briefly told her father, She Ruan, about her returning home before she proceeded, without alarming She Junjie.

That her own father was willing to get his grandfather personally involved for all of this plainly displayed how important Fang Mu was to him. This allowed She Wan to rest her mind completely.

Seeing her father take that kind of attitude towards Fang Mu, she was certain that the She Family was headed towards a bright future.

She Wan had her own information channels in Lu City. Before returning to the She Family's old house, she learned about the demise of the Solemn King Pavilion and how they were kicked out of the partnership by the Jianmu Commerce Association through her own information network.

It had been a great blessing and opportunity for the Solemn King Pavilion to be chosen by the Jianmu Commerce Association in the first place.

Because of the partnership with Jianmu Commerce Association, the Solemn King Pavilion had gained a lot of benefits.

But it was the nature of both individuals and power structures to become inflated when they received numerous benefits, and the Solemn King Pavilion was the best example.

If the Solemn King Pavilion had maintained their respectful attitude and continued relying on the Jianmu Commerce Association, a mercenary force which couldn't even make it to the top 100 in the Dragon Rising Federation might have been able to break into the top ten, or even the top three, within ten years!

When She Wan heard about the fate of the Solemn King Pavilion, she feared for a moment that the She Family might follow suit.

Now that her father was fully awake, there was no need for her to remind She Ruan anymore.

She Wan didn't stay at the She Family home for long; she returned to Fang Mu's residence that same night.

She didn't forget to bring the special Soul-System Beast, the Demon Silk Scorpion-Lion, for Lu Xiaoyin.

Despite Lu Xiaoyin's current weak state, Fang Mu still valued her and was willing to provide resources for her.

It wouldn't be long before Lu Xiaoyin's strength could be amplified.

Having grown up in a large family, She Wan, understood something from a young age.

That was, it wasn't difficult for a Beast Master to increase their Star Level; even the worst Beast Master could at least reach Five-star in their lifetime with regular growth of spiritual power.

Anyone with a shred of talent could become a Hexagram Beastmaster, it wasn't anything difficult.

The overall strength of Beast Masters wasn't strong and was due to the fact that the majority of them didn't have the resources to nurture their Guardian Beasts.

When resources are abundant, a Beast Master's strength is linked to their own Star Level.

But in cases of resource scarcity, a Beast Master's strength follows the strength of their Guardian Beast.

The scarcity of Grandmaster Creators dictated one thing: only one in a thousand Beast Masters in this world could enjoy Creator resources.

The competition for small supply forced everyone and every force to rely on the Creator to improve their performance.

Upon returning to her separate residence, She Wan greeted Fang Mu and told him what she knew about the Jianmu Commerce Association.

Then she left Fang Mu's room.

Hearing this, Fang Mu raised his eyebrows. To him, this matter was just a minor incident and not at all important.

Fang Yuan's abilities were gradually improving as he managed the Jianmu Commerce Association.

Fang Mu believed in Fang Yuan's ability to run the Jianmu Commerce Association as its president.

Unless there was a problem that Fang Yuan couldn't handle with the Jianmu Commerce Association, Fang Mu would let Fang Yuan handle it himself.

If there really was a situation that Fang Yuan couldn't solve, then Fang Yuan would come to find him.

The Solemn King Pavilion had only one Sequential powerhouse. Such a force was now insignificant in Fang Mu's eyes.

Chapter 780 Life-risking Restraint!_2

This minor character wasn't worth Fang Mu's trouble.

Fang Mu had already told Shui Miao about his requirements for a Ghost Device.

Fang Mu had an inexhaustible amount of Grandmaster Creator resources, he himself was a major producer of Creator resources.

Under these circumstances, the capabilities of Fang Mu's Ghost Device must be primarily defensive.

After Fang Mu decided to create a defensive Ghost Device, Shui Miao began to prepare.

The best choice for materials would be to use the body of the Ghost System Beastmaster Zhige Luo Sha as the main body.

Firstly, Zhige Luo Sha, as a Heaven Calamity Ghost Series Beast, has a very intact body.

Secondly, Zhige Luo Sha's ability [Judgement Stop Ge] is very strong, capable of neutralising attacks.

This ability is extremely suitable for the creation of a defensive Ghost Device.

Shui Miao, as a Forging Spirit Grandmaster who had seen a lot, was really hard-pressed to find a main material for creating a defensive Ghost Device that was more suitable than the corpse of Zhige Luo Sha!

While Shui Miao was helping Fang Mu gather auxiliary materials for the creation of the Ghost Device, he was also actively communicating with Jiang Weng.

The involvement of an additional Forging Spirit Grandmaster in the creation of the Ghost Device means more ideas can be generated.

That would be beneficial for the creation of the Ghost Device itself!

Shu Liang Jun was prepared to stay with Fang Mu for a long time.

With the problem of her lifespan thoroughly solved, Shu Liang Jun began to enjoy the life.

She originally wanted to invite Shui Miao to soak in the hot springs, but Shui Miao had to go to the Twelve Pavilion to handle affairs.

Master Yin Hanrong is still in the hands of the Yongle Palace, this matter has a huge impact.

The reappearance of the Yongle Palace, hidden from the Dust World for two hundred years, has already stirred up a monstrous wave among the major powers.

Just as the Yongle Palace made its appearance, it started a fight with the Grandmaster Creator of the Ten-Thousand Nations Federation.

This will inevitably change the pattern of power among the human factions.

Aside from numerous human powers inquiring about the conflict between Yongle Palace and the Ten-thousand Nations Federation, there are also numerous powers inquiring about the situation of the Infinite Tower.

Since Shui Miao was unwilling to soak in the hot spring, Shu Liangjun turned to Yin Nanzhen instead.

Yin Nanzhen can't refuse Shu Liangjun like Shui Miao did.

In fact, Shu Liangjun has been waiting for the Fang Mu's response to see if she can become Fang Mu's guardian.

Even if she becomes Fang Mu's guardian, Shu Liangjun doesn't have to stay by Fang Mu's side all the time in a place like Lu City.

The current Fang Mu is not a fragile porcelain doll you can break just by touching!

In addition to the life-saving trump card given to Fang Mu by Qixing, Fang Mu also bonded with a rank two spiritual instrument and a rank one spiritual instrument through Marrow Pact.

If Fang Mu is in danger, the beast spirits inside these two spiritual instruments will automatically protect him.

As long as Shu Liangjun is within the range of Lu City, she can instantly teleport to Fang Mu's side.

The fair of the Merchant Association will probably end around ten o'clock at night, Fang Yuan will only be free after eleven o'clock.

Fang Mu is planning to call Fang Yuan after eleven o'clock in the evening.

With the time he has now, Fang Mu is preparing to strengthen the Ghost System Beast he has on hand.

Since he went to Panfeng Federation and got a lot of Souls of Death, Fang Mu has been generously investing the Souls of Death in the undead beasts controlled by Yan Yubanruo through the skill [Golem Paper Control].

The Giant Brutal Butcher, which was the first to be controlled by Yan Yubanruo, has already been upgraded from a Perfect Quality Silver Rank Level Two to an Epic Quality Silver Rank Level Ten.

Fang Mu let the Giant Brutal Butcher out and conducted a detailed investigation of the Giant Brutal Butcher through the Eye of Omniscience.

[Beast Name]: Giant Brutal Butcher

[Beast Species]: Giant Corpse Family/Tyrant Corpse Genus

[Beast Level]: Silver (10/10)

[Beast Element]: Undying

[Beast Potential]: Gold

[Beast Quality]: Epic

Skill:

[Gluttony]: Recover self by devouring corpses quickly. In the absence of corpses to devour, prioritize devouring self flesh to recover from fatal injuries.

[Flesh Erosion Trap]: When assaulted physically it can turn its flesh into mud traps to imprison the target.

Exclusive attributes:

[Flesh and Blood Armament]: It can devour corpses that are not higher than its own life level, and the materials from these corpses can be hidden within its body or fixed on its exterior, becoming part of its body.

[Life Sacrifice Restraint]: While the target is restrained by its own body, it can burn the energy of its Soul Flame to enhance the restraining effect on the target. Until the energy of its Soul Flame is exhausted, the target cannot break free from the bond.

Evolutionary Path:

①: Melting Body Butcher, ②: Sickle Butcher, ③: Giant Bone Butcher.

The Giant Brutal Butcher had Death Ritual Suit spores planted on it by Fang Mu, and these spores have now deeply rooted themselves into the Giant Brutal Butcher's body.

This caused the surface of the Giant Brutal Butcher's body to sprout strange green hairs.

The tips of these green hairs have begun to show a reddish tendency, which is a sign that the Death Ritual Suit spores are about to mature.

Once the Death Ritual Suit spores mature, they can be artificially induced to change their state, forming special Undead weaponry.

To allow the Death Ritual Suit spores to mature, besides requiring cultivation with pure Dead Qi,

Also requires long-term watering with pure Wood Element Potion.

At the very least, you have to have a Master Creator behind you, otherwise, you simply can't afford the cultivation of the Death Ritual Suit spores.

The Giant Brutal Butcher has been upgraded from Perfect Quality to Epic Quality, and the new exclusive trait it obtained is called [Life Sacrifice Restraint].

Fang Mu is very satisfied with this exclusive trait of [Life Sacrifice Restraint].

The exclusive trait of [Life Sacrifice Restraint] fits very well with the Giant Brutal Butcher's fighting style, as well as Fang Mu's positioning for the Giant Brutal Butcher.

In the process of fighting, the Giant Brutal Butcher uses the skill [Flesh Erosion Trap] to restrain the target, achieving the effect of limiting the opponent's frontline Guardian Beasts.

The exclusive trait [Flesh and Blood Armament] also enhances the effect of the skill [Flesh Erosion Trap], increasing the aggression of the Giant Brutal Butcher while restraining.

Although this way of fighting has a one-for-one implication, Fang Mu is controlling the Giant Brutal Butcher through a Ghost System Beast.

Yan Yubanruo can control multiple Undying Beasts, but the opponent can hardly contract more than three Guardian Beasts.

After all, Beast Masters need to comprehend Mysterious Patterns, which greatly enhance their combat capabilities.

The exclusive trait [Life Sacrifice Restraint] can be considered as a kind of sublimation of the Giant Brutal Butcher's ability, allowing the Giant Brutal Butcher to enhance its restraining ability at the expense of consuming Soul Flame.

And until its Soul Flame is exhausted, the target controlled by the Giant Brutal Butcher cannot break free from the Giant Brutal Butcher's restraint.

This allows the Giant Brutal Butcher to completely restrict the Guardian Beasts of the same strength as itself in the front row, preventing the controlled Guardian Beasts from getting rid of it by some special methods.

The Soul Flame of Undead Beasts can slowly recover by absorbing Dead Qi.

If there are a large number of Souls of Death to cultivate it, the Soul Flame of the Undead Beasts will become more and more vigorous.

Now, Souls of Death have become a standard configuration for Fang Mu to cultivate Undead Beasts.

As the Soul Flame of the Giant Brutal Butcher becomes more and more vigorous, it will gain the ability to fight beyond its rank.

In addition to the Giant Brutal Butcher, other Undead Beasts under Fang Mu have also been upgraded.

The Grave Sacrifice Pregnant Mother has been upgraded from Silver Rank Three Epic Quality to Silver Rank Level Ten Legendary Quality.

Fang Mu released the Grave Sacrifice Pregnant Mother and conducted a thorough investigation on her.

[Beast Name]: Grave Sacrifice Pregnant Mother

[Beast Species]: Corpse Family/Hunter Corpse Species

[Beast Level]: Silver (10/10)

[Beast Element]: Undying

[Beast Potential]: Gold

[Beast Quality]: Legendary

Skills:

[Spine Lock]: Use Dead Qi to produce spine, let the spine grow out of the body to become a chain to restrain the target, when the Spine Lock is stretched to break, the Dead Qi inside the Spine Lock will turn into a chain again for a second restraint.

[Swift Rend Claw]: Swing the claw to attack will continuously increase the scratch speed, the faster the speed of the scratch, the stronger the tearing effect.

Exclusive Traits:

[Bones of the Same Cold]: When an undead creature related to its bloodline is attacked, it increases its ferocity, making it go into a furious state. When an Undead creature related to its bloodline dies, it can swallow the creature and re-cultivate it using Dead Qi.

[Flesh Newborn]: Swallow the flesh and blood tainted by Dead Qi into the stomach, transform it into energy to nourish the unborn baby in the belly and give birth to it. The unborn can sacrifice themselves and resurrect the undead creature with the same scent as themselves using the Bones of the Same Cold.

[Cruel Maternity]: After devouring the Sacrifice Father, when devouring the corpse of any undead creature, the unborn Sacrifice child can be born by virtue of the Flesh Newborn. During the birth process of the Sacrifice child, the Sacrifice child has a certain probability of mutating into a Sacrifice Father. When the number of Sacrifice Fathers reaches one, the Sacrifice child will no longer mutate.
